WINS BIG VICTORY

Texas Democrats Vote To Endorse Lyndon

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson's forces Saturday claimed a "resounding victory" in Texas Democratic county conventions.

Backers of Johnson's unannounced drive for the nomination for president at the National Democratic Convention said "we believe Texas has demonstrated that our party can win with Senator Johnson as its standard bearer."

Larry Blackmon, president of the Johnson-for-President clubs said in Austin: "the race has just begun." Battles over loyalty pledges to support any candidate named by the Democrats at Los Angeles July 11 caused liberals to stamp out of the conventions in three Texas counties.

But while groups split both the liberals and conservatives passed resolutions backing Johnson for president.

Harris County, divided over the loyalty pledge, failed to pass any resolution concerning Johnson.

Delegates selected at the county conventions will go to the state convention in Austin June 14. Texas' 61 delegates to the national convention will be picked in Austin.

Johnson headquarters in Austin claimed a "clear majority" of Johnson delegates out of the 2,312 state convention delegates.

Delegates, pledged to Senator Johnson from Martin County who will attend the state convention in Austin June 13 include John Davis, Raymond Pribyla, Bob Deavenport and Neal Estes. At least one man out of the 61 delegates is slated for one of the 61 delegates to be elected in Austin to attend the national convention in Los Angeles on July 11.

Snooter Knows

By JAMES E. KELLY

A GIRL WHO MOVED WITH HER family when eight years old to Martin County from Comanche, has been named psychiatric aid of the year by the Big Spring State Hospital.

She is Mrs. Mabel Stoeger, daughter of Mrs. S. E. Jones, and the late Mr. S. E. Jones, a pioneer couple of Martin County.

Mrs. Stoeger was the first to receive this new award posted at Big Spring State Hospital by the National Mental Health Association.

Dr. Preston Harrison, superintendent of the Big Spring State Hospital, characterized Mrs. Stoeger as an excellent therapist.

"Her dedication to her work and devotion to her patient's welfare go far beyond what is expected of her," the doctor noted.

"She accompanies patients on shopping tours, sight seeing expeditions or almost any mission into town that her patients request, and she usually does this after her regular hours of duty."

Dr. Harrison compared Mrs. Stoeger to a house mother in a woman's dormitory, noting that she could maintain order and discipline and yet retain the love and affection of the patients. Most patients continue (Continued on page 5)

Johnson Calls For Clamness

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson said Sunday this is a time in which Americans should keep cool heads and their feet on the ground.

Johnson, in a weekly report to his constituents in Texas, discussed the shooting down of an American plane over Soviet territory.

"Communists," he pointed out, "do not react to events. What they do, is to set a goal and then select the events which they believe will bring them to that goal."

"In this case, it is obvious that their goal is to disrupt to some degree the relations between the United States and the Soviet Union."

The Senator suggested, "It may be that Nikita Khrushchev is determined that there will be no results whatever from the Summit conference and is preparing an alibi in advance."

"It may be that Premier Khrushchev is trying to prepare a bargaining position for the Soviet negotiations."

"It is even conceivable that Nikita Khrushchev is having some internal difficulties and is trying to unite the people of Russia—and perhaps even draw the Chinese Communists closer to him—by holding forth the specter of war."

"We do not know for certain," Johnson said. "But one clear lesson can be drawn, and it is that the United States does not dare relax its guard for a moment."

Cap Rock Co-op Marks 20 Years Of Service

May 11 was the 25th anniversary of the rural electrification program, which brought about a social and economic revolution in rural America. And Cap Rock Electric Cooperative is one of nearly 1,000 rural electric cooperatives across the nation joining in the silver anniversary celebration.

The story of most of these cooperatives closely parallels that of Cap Rock Electric Co-Op.

Cap Rock came into being in 1939 when a group of farmers and ranchers in Martin and Howard Counties got together and decided to try to obtain electric service for their farms. Less than five percent of the farms in this area had electric service at the time. Volunteers carried on a campaign to sign up their neighbors as members of the new cooperative. Proposed electric lines were drawn on county road maps, and the maps and list of members sent to REA for consideration.

REA gave the o.k. to proceed with engineering. An engineering firm was employed to plan the first section of line, and in July of 1940, O.

B. Bryan was hired as manager of the Cooperative. Approval of the first loan came the same month, and construction work got under way.

The first section of line consisted of 158 miles and served 325 members. A portion of this was completed and energized in mid-December of 1940. The balance was finished in January 1941. The first lines were located in the Fairview, Knott, Luther and Gay Hill communities of Howard County; Len-

Farm And Ranch Review

In Hale County more than half the acreage has been planted to cotton. May 1 to 10 normally is considered ideal time for cotton planting in that area. Hale's total cotton acreage this year is 177,935 acres. Most of the acreage in Hale County is under irrigation.

We have a report of the Agricultural Department in Washington, that brightened conditions point to farm returns this year about equal to last year.

A five per cent up-turn in farm prices and prospects of another year of bountiful production indicates, the agency said, that farmers may collect cash from marketings equal to last year's $32,800,000,000.

Last October the department had predicted a decline of perhaps seven to eight per cent in farm income this year.

Looking ahead, the department said, the physical volume of farm marketing is expected to reach a record high level this year, about 29 per cent above the 1947-50 average and two per cent above last year.

"With the farm population continuing to decline, per capita income of farm people from all sources should equal the average of $960 in 1960," the report added.

The federal chairman of the American Cotton Congress forecast recently a potential market for 19 million bales of United States cotton in 1960 and called for government policies and a program of research to meet the goal.

Burr Jackson in his keynote address opening the congress's annual meeting at College Station, said that on the basis of present per capita consumption of cotton and expected population increase the domestic consumption of cotton in 1970 will be 11 million bales and exports will amount to 7 1/2 million bales.

He said that recent trends in lower production of cotton in foreign countries and a slowdown in expansion of ration production capacity will make the 19 million bale market possible.

Philosopher Brings Up Some Unanswerable Questions About Spies And Who Owns The Sky

Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his grass farm on Mustang Draw has heard about the spy trouble, but it's hard to see where he sheds any light on it.

Dear editor:

I have been thinking long and hard over the big spy question and so far I haven't come to any valuable conclusions, other than it might be better to spy with an atomic-powered submarine instead of an airplane, the kind of sub that just spent three months under water without coming up traveling around the earth. You may not see as much as you do from an airplane, but it's a whole lot safer.

On the other hand, the problem of who owns the sky has been engaging my thoughts, and while it's a hard problem, it's not as hard as farming.

You take my farm out here. My deed says I own the land and everything under their, but if you stop and think, you know that the deeper in the ground you go, the less you own, if the world is really round. The nearer you approach the center of the earth, the narrower your wedge of earth becomes, until finally, when everybody's property line reaches the center, everybody is squabbling over a pin-point piece of ground. Wonder what Mr. Krushchev has to say about this?

Now you take the sky above my farm. I don't know exactly where the sky begins, but I know I must own some space above the ground, at least I don't believe the law would allow somebody to build a shed over my land, even if I did have room enough to drive a tractor under it without hitting my head. But after you get up a few thousand feet, I don't know, I do know though that I'd have a hard time proving an airplane

And as for space fourteen miles above, I can see how no country wants another country's airplane flying around up there photographing whatever it can find, but how about 200 miles up? 500? With a photographing satellite? You can see if every country owns all the sky above it, upward forever, and the earth is spinning through space, somebody is going to have a hard time marking his exact amount of sky and keeping track of it. It's pretty complicated.

I sometimes get the idea the universe is just too big for man to handle.

It's all a problem I will leave to Washington.

Just looking at the shape of my Martin County grass farm, I figure it's more than I can handle.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

The 1960 census figures reveal the population of Foard County, 3,105. The supervisor of the Census of Foard and Hardeman Counties, reported only one resident in Foard County failed to answer the census taker's questions. As requested by the district office, the local workers turned the names of those not cooperating over to the district office.

To take care of the extra amount of political advertising to fall in on the eve of primary election day, The Mitchell County News at Lorraine was forced to publish an eight-page, eight column newspaper.

A candidate for sheriff running in Andrews County announced: "Vote For a Man Who Has Made Thousands of Arrests and Never Used a Pistol or a Black Jack."

J. M. Cappington has been elected president of the Chamber of Commerce at Big Lake. He is general manager of Barnhart Hydrocarbon Corp. He has been former mayor of Big Lake and a civic leader for most of the 12 years he has lived in Big Lake.

The Post Dispatch reports that Post and Garza County will celebrate National Cotton Week May 16-23, with an open house at the Postex Cotton Mills, Thursday, May 19, and the Chamber of Commerce sponsors a barbecue that same afternoon in the city-county park.

Afton Richards has assumed control of The Jayton Chronicle, he recently purchased from Tom Wade. The first important news item he published in The Chronicle was the report on the census taken of Kent County and Jayton. The county showed a population of 1,686 and the town of Jayton, 637.

The unofficial 1960 census count of both Menard County and the city of Menard show a drop of approximately 30 per cent from the 1950 census. The town of Menard had a population of 1,905. This was a drop of 29 per cent in 10 years. Menard County had a population of 2,944, down approximately 30 per cent from the 1950 census.

Judge Raymond Thompson declares Young County was free of any outstanding indebtedness as of today. Texas Losing Teachers Due To Low Pay

A farmer stood helplessly by and watched the farm for which he had paid $3,500 go to public auction for $100. He didn't have the money to protect his investment.

But that was nearly 30 years ago, during the depression.

Now in a time of prosperity, Texas finds itself in a similar position. For lack of $1,046 it has lost Donald Gill, one of its most promising young teachers.

Gill has accepted a teaching position in Denver, Colo., public schools at a beginning salary of $4,250 per year. This is $1,046 more than Texas' minimum salary of $3,204.

Now a senior at West Texas State College, Canyon, Gill is one of thousands of Texas men and women who are being educated in Texas colleges at great expense to the State of Texas, only to find that opportunities for teachers are better in other states.

The Texas State Teacher Association has three reasons for citing Gill's case as one of special interest:

Midland Reports Huge Increase In Population

Preliminary census figures continued to pour in to the accompaniment of anguished wails from Texas cities that claim they are getting a short count.

Paris, in Northeast Texas, was told it had lost population. Victoria, in South Texas, was told it had gained more than 100 per cent in the decade between 1950 and 1960.

Midland, often described as one of Texas' fastest growing cities, lived up to its reputation in preliminary census figures released by Jerry Glenn Bixler, regional census director at El Paso.

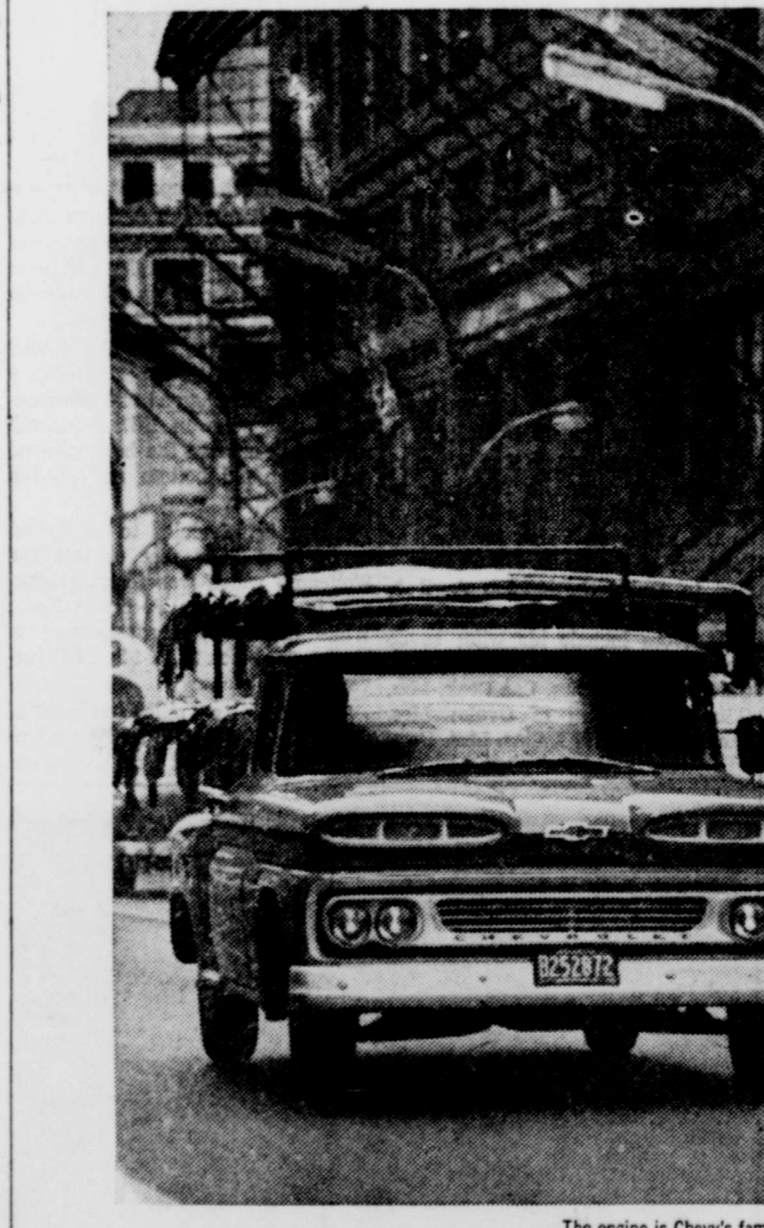

Bixler said Midland's 1960 count was 59,552, a whopping gain of 174.26 per cent over 1950's 21,713 persons. There were no figures released immediately for Midland County.

Daniel Heads Delegation

Nine delegates from Liberty County to the State Democratic Convention have been instructed to support Lyndon Johnson as a nominee for president and to vote as a unit on all issues at the state convention.

Gov. Price Daniel, Liberty's native son, will head the delegation, with outgoing Democratic County Chairman N. A. Walker of Cleveland. The governor's brother, Bill Daniel of Liberty, also is a delegate. Not named was the new Democratic County Chairman, Harlan Friend, Liberty attorney.

A resolution was adopted to support the governor and to commend him for his efforts as governor.

The Highway Patrol in this area investigated a total of 30 accidents with the following breakdown: Property damage 18, personal injury 9, and fatal accidents 3. Sergeant Smith reported a total property damage of $23,715.00 with 20 persons injured and four killed. This is an increase of six accidents and an increase of three deaths for the same period of April, 1959.

I Give You Texas

By BOYCE HOUSE

This-and-that: In Fort Smith, Ark., in 1925, gathering material for an article, I visited the police station and an old-time officer, learning I was from Texas, asked if I'd ever been in Comanche. He remarked, "The last time I was there, five bodies were laying on the courthouse square."

Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth used to be sports editor in Abilene. While attending high school, he wrote a sports article which won second place in a Texas contest—and first in a national contest.

Big Spring used to be the location of a big spring. (I am told) but it disappeared. Tired of having so many visitors ask where the spring was, citizens, back in the 1930's built one.

Neon signs are all right but they can't compare with that now-vanished sign in San Antonio, showing a cowboy roping a steer.

Post was named for C. W. Post, the cereal king ("grape-nuts" was one of his products.)

Tris Speaker, one of the all-time greats of baseball—was born (the old record book said) in Hubbard City—only don't call it that to an inhabitant; he'll tell you the name is Hubbard.

And people who lived in the general Brown—Eastland counties' area referred to a place as Maytown, which always seemed to displease the residents, who called it May. The late Mark McGee, Fort Worth attorney, who had one of the keenest sense of humor I've ever known, was from there and so was W. R. Chamber, one of the most esteemed members of the legislature in his day.

Strawn is said to have had — at one time—the largest number of fine homes any city between Fort Worth and El Paso. This was early in the century when coal mining was in full swing and also several rich ranch families lived there.

Stanton Study Club Luncheon Held In Billington Home

The Stanton Study Club met in the home of Mrs. Harry Billington for the Annual Spring Luncheon last Thursday. This was the final meeting of the club year.

Mrs. George Dawson, president, presided over the business meeting. Roll call was answered with ideas for programs for the coming club year. Plans were made for new projects to aid the Martin County Library which the club sponsors. Mrs. Dawson stressed the many activities that the club had carried on over the years and stated that this was a final tribute to the thirtieth year of the club. In closing her address, Mrs. Dawson presented Mrs. John Priddy, founder of the club, with a string of pearls, symbolic of the thirtieth anniversary year.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Glenn L. Brown, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Guy Eiland who installed the new club officers in an impressive flower ceremony. New officers are:

President, Mrs. Joe Stewart; Vice-

President, Mrs. J. O. Stuard; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. John Ferguson; Federation Counselor, Mrs. W. H. Cook; Parliamentarian, Mrs. George Dawson; and Reporter, Mrs. S. W. Wheeler.

Mrs. Joe Stewart, new president, spoke and presented a list of the new committee members. Mrs. George Dawson was presented with a gift in appreciation for her three years as president of the club.

A beautiful salad luncheon prepared by Mrs. Harry Billington assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Harry Billington, was served to the following members and guests: Mrs. Ralph Caton, Mrs. James Jones, Mrs. Guy Eiland, Mrs. Joe Stewart, Mrs. George Dawson, Mrs. C. F. Huling, Mrs. B. F. Smith, Mrs. John Priddy, Mrs. J. O. Stuard, Mrs. Glenn L. Brown, Mrs. W. H. Cook, Mrs. John Ferguson, Mrs. John Harvard, Mrs. S. W. Wheeler, and Mrs. Harry Billington and Mrs. James Harry Billington.

Local Robbery Suspect In Jail

One man was in jail and Martin County law enforcement officers were seeking two others in connection with a robbery Friday night at the Superette grocery here.

Brutus Hanks of Midland, owner of the grocery, said three negro men came into the store around 7:30 p.m. They spread out over the store, and one man grabbed a $10 bill from an open cash register, when the clerk, David Pruitt, turned his back.

Hanks, who was filling in for the regular manager, rushed the bandit, who pulled a knife. "It was glad to let him go when he did that," Hanks commented.

The man being held in Martin County jail was apprehended around 1 a.m. Saturday.

FEW TEXAS CITIES HAPPY OVER REPORTS...

Census Totals Bring Howls

Howls of pain went up with the release of a batch of new Texas census figures. Although many cities glowed with proof of growth, many others were disappointed.

The Sweetwater city commission at a special called session adopted a resolution of protest shortly after a 1960 population of 13,893 was announced for the city. This is a gain of only 274 over 1950's 13,619.

"The commission feels the 1960 figure is inconsistent with all other growth factors in the city," said Sweetwater City Manager Garland Franks.

Disappointment was felt, too, at Alice, Cleburne, Denison, Sherman and Weatherford with the release of 1960 figures. Cleburne Chamber of Commerce Director Jim Gerst said a protest is planned over the 14,333 figure announced here.

The biggest batch of census figures came from Abilene with release of county and city figures for the 14 counties of the 17th Congressional District. Abilene itself got advance word that its population has grown from 45,370 to 89,428. The news for the rest of the district wasn't so good.

Only Taylor, Palo Pinto and Parker Counties in the district showed increases. The few cities showing increases included Abilene, Weatherford, Mineral Wells, Roscoe, Ham-

Midland Jaycees Sponsoring Miss Midland Pageant

The Junior Chamber of Commerce of Midland today is sounding a last call for entries in their Miss Midland Pageant.

"This is an official contest for the Miss America Pageant at Atlantic City," Chairman Pat Morgan said. "We hope to have as many entrants as possible to make the pageant a real success."

The winner of the Miss Midland title will receive an all expense trip to the Miss Texas Pageant at Beaumont, as well as the opportunity for one of the fabulous scholarships offered in both the Miss Texas and Miss America Pageants.

Contestants must be between the ages of 18 and 28, never been married, and a resident of Texas for at least six months. Interested entrants or persons knowing of possible entries are requested to send their names to the office of the Jaycees, Box 135, Midland, or to contact the Pageant Secretary, Miss Jan Breaux, at Mutual 4-6367.

This Week In Washington
With CLINTON DAVIDSON
Unsolved Problem

It is now apparent that Congress and President Eisenhower are not going to be able to agree this year on action to meet what both agreed in January was "absolutely necessary" action to cope with farm problems.

Although the President offered at that time to compromise with Congress on any "reasonable alternative" to present farm programs, which both agree are not effective, Congress has sent no major farm bill to the White House.

Democratic leaders in Congress point out that, on the other hand, neither has the President nor Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson suggested anything different from the "free market" proposals reportedly turned down by Congress. They point out, too, that Mr. Eisenhower has vetoed the three major farm bills sent him in the past four years.

Democrats in Congress are behind a move to put through a late-session general farm bill, but an almost certain veto virtually rules out major changes in farm laws this year.

The general farm organizations, unfortunately, disagree so sharply on major farm policies and objectives that they have done more to confuse than assist Congress in developing new programs. The result is almost certain to be at least another year of indecision and inaction.

Times Have Changed

The unity that existed in farm ranks through the troublesome post-depression 1930s and the critical war and post-war 1940s has all but disappeared in Washington. Most of the farm laws enacted during that almost 20-year period had bipartisan support, as well as endorsement by the farm organizations.

Members of the two major political parties, unable to agree, have stressed their disagreement on basic farm policies. There has been too much emphasis on the part of both parties on placing blame rather than on accepting responsibility and working toward enactment of constructive farm legislation.

To say that Congress has fiddled while agriculture's house has been on fire would be grossly unfair. It would be equally unjust to accuse the Administration of being callous to a situation in which farm income and prices have steadily declined, cost to taxpayers has increased, and consumer prices have gone up.

Facts Not Disputed

The facts concerning farmers — as well as some statements not based on facts—have been widely publicized. The facts do not justify complacency or failure to correct a situation that is getting worse rather than better.

On farmers' side, net income has declined by one-third, farm debt has more than doubled, and more than a million farms have "disappeared" in the past 10 years. Rising production costs against declining income have caught millions of farm people in a painful cost-price squeeze.

On the consumers' side, food costs have gone higher while $7 billion a year in farm program costs have added 10% to their tax bills. Surpluses taken off the market in an effort to hold farm prices up go to waste while millions are underfed.

It is, in the situation, regrettable that farm problems are to become a matter of political campaign charges and counter-charges rather than constructive debate that could be expected to contribute to understanding and a solution. Election

Judge Suggests Whipping Post

Judge Vincent Carroll of Common Pleas Court, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, recommend a whipping post to reform young hoodlums.

"If we had a whipping post here, we could take them down and degrade them in the eyes of their friends," Carroll said Friday in sentencing three gang members to terms up to 14 years.

The three, 16, 17, and 18 years old, had been convicted of aggravated assault and battery in the knifing of three other boys.

Two of the three had been in Juvenile Court 19 times, and had been sent away with "slaps on the wrist," Carroll said.

"They only became greater heroes in the eyes of their comrades," he declared.

Mrs. Vera Osman returned Friday from a visit in Cisco with her parents.

Highway Dept. Official Map Now Available

Texas' Official Highway Travel Map, 1960-style is now available to the general public. Free copies of the big, colorful map may be obtained by writing the Texas Highway Department, Austin 14, or at the highway district offices and travel bureaus. County tax offices have map cards on hand for requesting copies of the map.

The map reflects 1,933 miles of multi-lane-divided highway now completed, and includes the finished sections of the seven National System of Interstate and Defense Highways located in the state. More than 1,500 farm-to-market road miles have been added to this year's map. Approximately 20,000 miles of the state's 30,000-mile Farm-to-Market Road System are shown on the map. All of the 26,378 miles of State and U. S. highways are shown.

Three new lakes have been added to the 1960 Travel Map, bringing the total shown in the major-lakes-and-reservoirs category to 64. New water attractions recorded are Buffalo Lake in Lubbock County; Champion Creek Lake in Mitchell County; and Lake Tawakoni in Hunt, Rains, and Van Zandt Counties. Countless rivers, creeks, and streams are also charted on the Travel Map.

The 816 roadside parks pegged on the map are those having full picnic facilities. Their locations are marked by a green dot. State Parks are indicated by a green triangle.

"All of Texas Welcomes You" banners the pictorial side of the map—reflecting, in eleven full-color pictures, some of the outstanding recreational, scenic, and historical attractions in Texas.

A section entitled "Facts About Texas" telescopes information on Texas' terrain, history, and industrial and recreational diversity. Cities and towns shown on the map total 1,826. City route maps for the

FAMOUS FIRSTS

HORSE RACING

The first horse race in America was held in New York—by order of Col. Richard Nicolls, New York's first English governor. First annual race was in 1665 at Hempstead, L.I.'s "Newmarket Track."

First "big-time" racetrack was Churchill Downs in Kentucky. The Kentucky Derby was first run there in 1875 and was won by Aristides for a purse of $2,850.

First choice among racing fans and all sports enthusiasts is Antique Bourbon, top winner year after year in all-time enjoyment.

First horse to win more than a million dollars was Citation, in 1951. In 1948 he became one of eight horses in history to win the Triple Crown—The Kentucky Derby, The Pimlico Preakness, and The Belmont Stakes.

Webb AFB To Hold Open House May 21

Webb Air Force Base will hold "Open House" for thousands of West Texans next Saturday, May 21—the nation's eleventh Armed Forces Day.

Starting at noon and closing at 5 p.m., this annual event will feature a Wing parade and review (starting at 1 p.m. sharp), static displays of aircraft from Webb and other bases, formation and single-ship fly-bys, hangar displays of material and equipment, and displays of speed and skill by firefighting crews and Webb's World Championship Jet Engine

Crew. The 331st Fighter-Interceptor Squadron will stage a "scramble" and fly-bys of the supersonic F-102A jet fighter.

This will be the first close-up for the public—on the ground and in the air—of the 331st's big new aircraft, which have already become distantly familiar because of their flashing speed and distinctive delta-wing shape.

The Big Spring High School Band will provide marching music for the Wing parade as squadrons and groups of Webb airmen pass in review.

Webb officials urge the public to turn out for this event, which is of Service-wide importance. They point out that Big Springers can attend the National Junior College Championship Relays in the morning, have lunch, and still get to Webb in time for the Open House and displays and exhibits. The air base show was staged for the afternoon in order to avoid conflict with the athletic events at Howard County Junior College.

I Give You Texas

By BOYCE HOUSE

The first time I ever saw the name, "Moulton (Ty) Cobb," it was signed to a sports news story from the University of Texas where Cobb was a student. I was then editor of the Eastland Daily Oil Belt News and made use of all the articles he sent out, as did many other papers.

It was quite a few years later that we met for the first time. He was by then a popular personality in the Lower Rio Grande Valley with a radio program originating at Weslaco. Recently I was down his way and he had me as a guest on his program—now on television. He has presented five programs a week for 28 years and has been unable to appear only twice, which is quite a record.

After the program (which featured Senator Hudson of Brownsville, a beauty queen and a Hawaiian dancer and, of course, Ty with his honey remarks), I was a guest at luncheon. We went by his lovely home and he picked two grapefruit from a tree in the yard and we—Mrs. Cobb, Ty and I—enjoyed these as well as some huge, delicious Valley strawberries along with tender home-baked ham, and other attractive viands.

Happy is the man who finds his place in the world and fills it with enthusiasm and affection. Ty Cobb of the Valley is such a man.

When an author visited Sir Walter Scott at his home, Abbotsford, the visitor suggested they view Melrose and quoted Scott's lines: "If you would see Melrose aught, Go visit it by the pale moonlight."

Scott replied, "By all means, let us go; I myself have never seen Melrose by moonlight."

There is an old saying, "Experience keeps a dear school—but fools will learn in no other." Isn't it a fact, however, that experience is the only way a man can learn anything—either your own experience or the experience of others?—(as, for example, in books, especially biography and history.)

And of the two methods, the smart man—as much as possible—learns from the experience of others. This is less painful.

Six New Shows Announced For Dallas State Fair Musicals

Six new shows, never before presented in the Southwest, have been announced for the 1960 summer season of the State Fair Musicals in Dallas at the State Fair Music Hall.

The shows and dates they will play are as follows:

"West Side Story," June 13-26; Carol Channing's "Show Business," June 27-July 10; "Redhead," July 11-24; "Holiday in Japan," July 25-Aug. 7; "Fiorello," Aug. 8-21, and "The Marlene Dietrich Show," Aug. 22-Sept. 4.

"West Side Story," a modern adaptation of Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet" set in present-day Manhattan, is regarded as one of the most important recent developments in the musical theater projecting its drama through the dance as forcefully as through its songs.

"Show Business" is a spoofing satire on all phases of the entertainment world which was specially written for Carol Channing, the vivacious blonde comedienne so well remembered for her role in the original production of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

"Redhead" is a Broadway hit musical of the season a year ago, and "Holiday in Japan" is the oriental revue that has been the hit of the current season in Las Vegas.

"Fiorello" is the musical comedy story of the former Mayor La Guardia of New York City. The show was

Scottish Rite Hospital Has Helped 23,000

The parents of 23,000 youngsters are the best spokesmen for the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children.

The 23,000 children have been patients at the hospital, 2201 Welborn, Dallas, since the institution was established in 1926. All of them have been greatly benefited by skilled medical care. A high percentage of those once crippled have been able to lead normal, happy lives.

Their grateful parents, from all parts of Texas, realize more than anyone what charitable treatment means.

The beautiful two-story red brick hospital is actually "a lovely home away from home."

Rules for admission are simple: The child's home must be in Texas; its parents must be unable to pay for treatment in a private hospital; its affliction must be of a type that can be benefited by treatment; it must be less than 15 years old.

Thousands of children have qualified during the past 34 years; thousands have been treated and are now fully recovered, said John McKee, prominent civic leader and business executive, who is president of the hospital.

The basic building of the present hospital was opened in 1923 under sponsorship of the Shrine Hella Temple of Dallas. It was refurbished three years later to the Scottish Rite bodies of Texas, and since then it has been expanded many times.

During recent years new departments have been added and a vast building and remodeling program has been underway, with completion due this summer.

Big Spring Rodeo Dates Scheduled For June 9, 10, 11

The Big Spring Rodeo Association President, T. J. Good, has announced that plans are complete for the 27th Annual R.C.A. Rodeo, June 9, 10, 11.

Butler and Morgan, well known rodeo producers of Burk Burnett, Texas, will be in charge of this year's production.

Comprising the six major events will be saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc riding, bull riding, bull dogging, calf roping, and girl's barrel race event. Among special attractions will be the Cajun Kid and Junior Meeks, clowns, and Jay Sisler and his greyhound dog act.

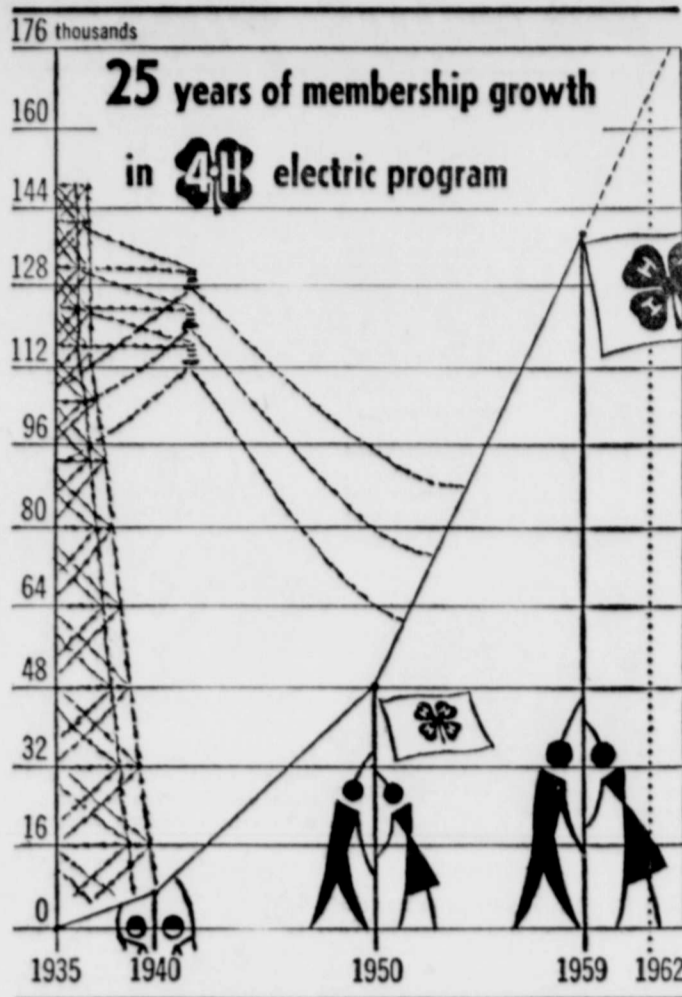

A big parade will proceed through the downtown section of Big Spring at 4:00 p.m. on June 9. Attractive prizes are offered the first three winning non-commercial floats in the amounts of $50, $30 and $20.

Sheriff's posses and riding clubs from the neighboring towns and counties have been invited to march in the parade. An appropriate trophy will be presented the outstanding posses at the first night's performance.

A Rodeo Queen contest will be another feature. A number of towns in a wide area have been invited to sponsor a candidate for this honor. All towns are invited to enter a candidate for Rodeo Queen. The winner will be awarded a beautiful gold trophy. The runners up will be presented a gift.

Immediately following the parade the visiting posses and the visiting Queen candidates will be honored with a barbecue at the rodeo grounds, with the local rodeo association and Big Spring Mounted Patrol acting as hosts.

This month marks the 25th anniversary of the 4-H Electric program sponsored by Westinghouse and the Cooperative Extension Service.

From a beginning of sporadic leadership and limited information in less than half the states, the program has developed into a highly successful activity in 50 states involving trained leaders and special educational materials.

During the last 10 years, enrollment has steadily risen from 48,000 boys and girls to the all-time high of 138,000 in 1959.

Teenagers' interest in electronics and engineering has undoubtedly spurred participation in the electric program, according to Extension surveys.

Next fall the top winner from each state will attend the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago as a guest of the Westinghouse Educational Foundation. The six cited for national honors will receive $400 Westinghouse scholarships.

Runoff Election Set In Dawson

The full expense of a second primary election will be shared by Dawson County candidates in the previous balloting, and all of the activity will be for one office—that of Justice of the Criminal Court.

All other offices were decided in the May 7 primary but the state position and the county Democratic Executive Committee has decided to comply with the state law and stage a runoff.

All 17 county boxes will be operative and four-man crews will be assigned to each precinct.

Officials estimate it will cost an additional $850 to hold the runoff. Normally, this portion unused when a runoff is not required it is apportioned back to the candidates.

Tarzan Seaman Reports For Duty In West Pacific

S.T.A.S.N. Seaman Lonie Pierce left Saturday after a two weeks visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Pierce of Tarzan.

Sailing date was May 3.

Grassroots Opinion

Norwalk, Conn., Hour: "It is sad that young men starting out in life should be thinking about retirement, but it is quite in step with some of the attitudes of the times. Something very close to security-mania grips millions of people these days."

"Fortunately, while there are millions who fight tomorrow's anxieties before they are born, there are also more million who are prepared to wait until they arrive. And if that seems like excessive adventurousness let us use reflect that this country was founded by adventurers and it will continue to grow if its youth postpones thoughts of sunny verandas and retire ease."

Grassroots Opinion

Cuero, Texas, Record: "We have developed a cult of conformity. Members of the most intelligent and most successful groups of our citizenry are also the most reluctant to become involved in political or ideological controversy."

"This indicates a distressing trend toward the drag grey conformity—the facelessness—that is the mark of the collectivist state. When people lose the courage to be different, they become grist for the Mistaken mill, for Mistaken philosophy and succeeds only when people lose their individuality before the impersonal, all powerful state."

John N. Garner Back In Politics

Former Vice-President John Nance Garner is back in politics.

Garner, 91, attended the Uvalde County Democratic convention Saturday and was elected chairman of the 3-vote delegation to the state convention June 14.

The convention adopted a resolution endorsing Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson for the presidential nominee and bound the state convention delegation to support Johnson under the unit rule.

No other resolutions were presented.

Canada Hard On Divorces

To get a divorce in Quebec or Newfoundland you have to go before Canada's Parliament.

Parliament handles these marital cases because neither province has a divorce court. A petition must go through an exhaustive inquiry before parliamentary approval is granted.

First a Senate committee hears the petition in private, then it goes to the full Senate. Next a Commons committee takes it up and finally the full House.

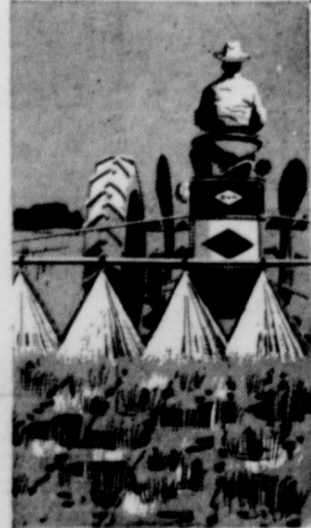

Parliament has granted divorce only for adultery or nonconsummation, the only grounds recognized in the eight other provinces with the exception of Nova Scotia which includes extreme cruelty.

Now, for the first time, Parliament is considering a petition based on desertion. If the decree is granted, an important precedent will be set.

A Canadian's divorce in Reno, Mexico or anywhere else outside Canada is not recognized at home. This is based on the idea that one cannot go outside his country to seek something his country's laws deny him.

London, Ohio, Press: "There are over 1,000 taxes on a quart of milk—land tax, tractor tax, tax on feed, tax on income, tax on tax on tax. It appears that the politicians have bought our votes with our own money. By the simple device of sticking our heads in the sand, we have made it all possible."

Magazine Tells Of Good Spots For Vacations

If you are planning a vacation this summer to the Texas coast you'll be interested in two articles in the May issue of the Texas Game and Fish magazine, according to the director of information and education of the Game and Fish Commission.

One of these articles was written by Roy Swann, outdoors editor of the Corpus Christi Caller-Times. In it he describes the use of spoil banks by persons who want to build hide-away fishing shacks along the intra-coastal canal in Laguna Madre.

These spoil banks were created when the canal was dredged many years ago. The surplus sand and mud from the canal was piled high to create what now is known as the spoil banks. Some of these hide-away fishing shacks have such modern conveniences as running water and television. They also are in the center of good trout and red fish waters.

Dr. Louis S. Kornicker of the Institute of Marine Science, also has written an interesting article on treasure hunting among the sand dunes on Padre Island. As a marine biologist, he spends his spare time following a beachcombing hobby.

Dr. Kornicker describes many of the interesting finds he and his friends have made along Padre Island, south from Corpus Christi.

Another interesting article in the May issue deals with bone hunting in the South Plains country. It was written by Leo Healer, outdoors editor of the Lubbock Journal.

In their main offices. Ruling was asked by the State Banking Commission.

In another ruling, based on a question from the Texas Animal Health Commission, the attorney general held that the Commission is not compelled to begin brucellosis control work in an area "until such time as it is economically sound and scientifically feasible."

State law passed last year allows the Commission to set up controls on the cattle disease in areas where 75 per cent of the cattle owners having 51 per cent of the cattle request it.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

With the main state elections over, statehouse interest now focuses on next January when a new Legislature will meet.

Lawmakers will have to hack their way through the same old jungle of state money problems that faced them in '59. Again the goal will be to find enough tax revenue to pay off the state's debts and provide government services for another two years.

Blazing of some possible paths is already under way. Gov. Price Daniel's 30-member State Finance Advisory Commission begins this week assembling data on the state's future financial needs and how they can be met.

Governor Daniel has said he will propose five different tax plans for Commission study. Any one of the plans, said the governor, would wipe out the deficit in the state's general revenue fund and provide for expected future needs without a state income tax or general sales tax.

Secretary of State Zollic Steakley is chairman of the Finance Commission.

BE NICE TO TOURISTS—Out-of-state visitor will get the red carpet treatment when they stop for gasoline if Governor Daniel's advice is heeded.

Speaking to the Texas Association of Service Stations, the governor urged the station operators to sell Texas as well as gasoline to the tourists. Everyone will benefit from more tourists and longer visits, he said.

Last year 9,600,000 tourists came to Texas and spent $43,000,000. Of this, $77,000,000 went for gasoline, with $10,000,000 in taxes going to the state. That's a lot of tourists, but not so many as the state could and should have, says the governor.

He urged the station operators to be salesmen for their communities and areas and encourage travelers to do more sightseeing.

MR. TEXAS MOVES TO TOWN—Early studies of Texas' 1960 census figures indicates that while Texas cities are getting bigger, the wide open spaces are getting less and less cluttered with people.

Much of the explosive growth of cities apparently has been at the expense of surrounding rural areas, either by annexation or by the moving of country dwellers to the near-by city.

Fast-growing Abilene is an example. Abilene population has grown by 96 per cent since 1950, from 45,570 to 89,248. Taylor County, in which Abilene is located, gained from 63,370 to 100,216. Net result: Taylor County's non-Abilene population dropped from 17,800 to 10,788.

A similar situation exists in the Panhandle where Amarillo's 84 per cent increase outstripped that of Potter County.

Texas' population moved up in population, but the counties in which it is located (in Texas and Arkansas) lost ground.

WATER STORAGE DOWN—Despite the usual conversation punctuated with "now that the drought's over," reports show much of Texas short on rainfall this year.

State Board of Water Engineers reports that water in Texas reservoirs dropped from 9,622,230 acre feet in March to 9,481,265 acre feet in April. This is about a 1.5 per cent decrease.

Rainfall for the first four months of the year has been below normal for Austin, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Galveston, Houston, Laredo, Lubbock, Midland, Odessa, Port Arthur, Beaumont, San Angelo, San Antonio, Victoria, Waco and Wichita Falls.

Above average rainfall was recorded by Amarillo, Abilene, Corpus Christi and Brownsville.

TRUCK REGISTRATION REQUIRED—State Supreme Court has held that a fleet of semi-trailer trucks operated in Texas must register in Texas even though they are already registered in Mississippi.

Suit was brought by the State Highway Department against a motor freight company in El Paso.

Supreme Court upheld lower court rulings that the company must buy Texas license plates for all 95 of its trucks.

VACATION BENEFITS DUE TEST—Supreme Court has set a hearing for June 8 on whether unemployment compensation payments must be made to employees on unpaid vacations.

In the case in point, the company gives a one-week vacation with pay to employees of five years or more. During the summer the plant was closed for two weeks. Some employees received one week's pay, some none, depending on their seniority.

Texas Employment Commission ruled that the employees were not due unemployment payments for the period they were without pay. A Dallas district court upheld TEC, but the Court of Civil Appeals reversed this decision. TEC is appealing to the Supreme Court.

TRUCKERS ASK RATE HIKE—In a sharply-contested hearing before the Railroad Commission, Texas truckers are asking to be allowed to charge higher rates for shipments within the borders of Texas.

Desired increase would be approximately 7.66 per cent higher than present rates.

Firms that do a great deal of shipping and several local chambers of commerce are opposing the request. They contend that rates within Texas are higher than interstate rates now.

Truckers say they must have the increase because increased costs of operation are causing them to have substantial losses.

NO CREDIT UNION BRANCHES—Attorney General Will Wilson has ruled that credit unions are subject to the same prohibition as banks against setting up branch offices or receiving deposits anywhere except

The Launching Pad

By NEAL ESTES

In these dark days of world distress there are those who would divide America on baseless grounds. Some would have all draw a line on politics. Some would have us accept a brand. Some would say, and some did say last Saturday, in Democratic conventions held in 254 Texas counties—you are either a liberal or you are a conservative. How come? As long as time stands—nobody can determine the extent of the brands. In other words, if we are all Democrats, who is to tell where the label ought to be pasted? The answer must be in the degree. Now that is fair isn't it? Personally, your writer thinks LYNDON JOHNSON is better qualified by nature and training to be president than the late FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT, and we rank him right up there with the late WOODROW WILSON. But that is just our opinion. There are others, who call themselves liberals, who don't like LYNDON. There seems to be a big nest of (now we will write this word in parenthesis) "liberals" down in Houston—some in Dallas, a few in other parts of Texas who are not content. Ask a "liberal" what he stands for and you'll get a vague answer. And as for their rump meetings—well—we are going to watch FRANKIE and (not JOHNNIE) but CREEKMORE and any other so-called Democratic "liberal" explain WHAT IN THE HECK EVER HAPPENED TO THE DEMOCRATIC PHILOSOPHY CONCERNING THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE AND MAJORITY RULE? As far as we real West Texas Democrats are concerned, that batch of imported Houston and Harris County backers of the polcat version of politics, can run head long into Buffalo Bayou and drown. IF YOU ARE REALLY A GOOD DEMOCRAT WHY DON'T YOU GET YOUR HEAD OUT OF THE SAND AND REALIZE THAT THESE ARE CRUCIAL DAYS AND THAT THE FUTURE OF AMERICA IS AT STAKE! And so we will wind this paragraph up by advising: "If you are a real American Democrat—work for JOHNSON, a Texan—if you are a real American Republican—work for NIXON, a Californian." Neither man is willing to throw your security, the security of your families, and mine, to MR. "K."

Tuesday night at about eight-thirty the STANTON VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT got a call to come running for a sign over McDONALD'S place of business on U. S. 80 in the city limits was on fire. The boys, in their usual fine way, turned out quickly and confined the blaze to the awning above the driveway of the place of business. ED HALL, fire chief, was on the roof. ED was holding a hose. He had the flames whipped and the fire contained, but he shouted to us from the roof, "NEAL, you wait down there and don't run off, for I have something to tell you, and if you don't wait I'll turn this hose on you." His story was about the opening of the LITTLE LEAGUE, and on the front page of this issue our readers will find the item. FIRE CHIEF HALL is not only a good fireman, but he is a good persuader—no sensible country editor wants to get knocked down with a stream of water on a cloudy night.

An Accident Can Take Farm Profits

There isn't any profit in farm accidents, says the Texas Farm and Safety Council. The Council goes on to say that it is difficult to place a dollar value on the cost of a farm accident because there are many indirect as well as direct costs which must be taken into account.

The costs of farm work accidents—like an iceberg—are largely hidden. The small portion of the iceberg above the water line can represent the direct costs which in case of a farm accident will be largely medical.

The large portion of the iceberg below the water line represents the indirect or hidden costs. Some of these indirect costs are: time lost by the injured worker, cost of hired help to do the necessary farm work, possible loss of farm crops due to delay in harvesting, and damage to farm equipment.

In addition to these monetary costs, there is the physical suffering, discomfort and inconvenience associated with every major accident.

The Council hastens to remind farm families that farm and home accidents are preventable. Farm profits, they add, can be increased by reducing the number of accidents on the farm.
