By JAMES E. KELLY

THE STAFF MEMBERS OF THE Stanton Reporter deeply grieve with Neal Estes, manager of the Stanton Reporter, in the death of his mother, Mrs. J. G. Estes, at a Dallas hospital.

LEAVE IT TO A NEWSPAPERMAN to start something. Hamilton Wright, staff writer for the Abilene Reporter-News, announced in his newspaper, a group of people from the small community of Jim Ned, in Taylor County, plan to give an old-fashioned camp meeting to start July 17.

Hamilton Wright said: "The clock may be turned back to the 1670's in this little community in July when an old-fashioned camp meeting is scheduled to be held at the site here of the first Methodist Church in Taylor County."

The old camp meeting I attended when a lad, had a covering of brightly fresh threshed wheat straw strewn on the camp meeting ground proper. There was usually one or more of the long-winded shouting, death-bed preachers.

There were the usual staff of seasoned shouting mourners at the heat of the preaching, who shouted and swooned.

July and August were the months preferable for the camp meetings (Continued on page 5)

City Readies Delinquent Tax Suits

Unpaid Tax Figure Set At $27,000

The City of Stanton was about ready this week to go into 118th District Court in an attempt to collect an estimated $27,000 in delinquent taxes.

And the first suits on the delinquent taxes, some of them dating as far back as a quarter of a century ago, probably will be filed before the end of the month.

City Secretary Harvey White said he had turned approximately 300 units over to County Attorney John Ferguson, who has been requested by the city to institute the suits.

"It is not a simple matter preparing these suits," said Ferguson, "but I hope to have some of them in shape for filing before the first of the month."

Ferguson explained that the titles had to be examined carefully on each piece of property involved in the delinquent taxes before a valid proceeding can be filed.

Under Texas law, the county attorney must file such suits when requested to do so by the city.

Fees for collecting delinquent taxes, which normally would go to a private attorney, must be paid to the county.

McCoy Sees No Hike For County Taxes

The Martin County Commissioners Court will begin sitting Monday as the official board of equalization to set tax values on county property.

And County Judge Jim McCoy this week had good news for the county's taxpayers.

There will be no blanket increase in tax values and there will be no increase in the county's tax rate of $1.80 for each $100 valuation.

"We have been through some pre-ty trying years," said Judge McCoy, "and some of our people, who were hit hard during the drought, are just beginning to get back on their feet."

"We are getting along pretty good here in the county but we're going to continue to watch every penny spent by our county government. Our Commissioners Court feels that way about it."

Judge McCoy, pointing to a healthy $818,000 increase last year in the assessed valuations, predicted another hike, because of increased oil activity.

"The oil business can be credited with all the increase," he said, "and we think the same thing will happen this year."

Martin County's assessed valuation now totals $8,305,206. Judge McCoy said the commissioners will begin sitting as the board of equalization after disposing of routine business matters.

Plymouth Attempts Re-Entry Two Miles Northwest Of City

By JAMES C. WATSON

Plymouth Oil Company of Midland is attempting to complete No. 2 Millhollan, re-entry of an earlier upper Spraberry failure, two miles northwest of Stanton in Martin County, in the lower Spraberry at 7,874-7,890 feet.

Operators fractured the zone with 36,120 gallons of refined crude mixed with sand. It flowed 242 barrels load oil and swabbed 83 barrels of load oil in four hours. The well was shut in 12 hours and at the end of that period tubing pressure was 160 pounds and fluid level was 2,000 feet below the surface. Operator now is swabbing out load.

It is half a mile east of Spraberry production and 1,890 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 7, block 35, T-1-S, T&P survey.

Philosopher Finds Business Men Don't Keep Posted On The Latest Economic Trends

Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his Mustang Draw grass farm apparently doesn't have a full understanding of what the price index is, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:
One trouble with this country is that not enough business people keep up with the economic trends.

For example, I read in a copy of a newspaper day before yesterday that living costs rose four-tenths of one per cent in April, as reflected by the consumers price index, a set of figures put out by the U. S. government.

As a result of this, the article explained, nearly a million workers in the auto, farm equipment and related parts industries got an automatic 2-cents-an-hour pay raise. Their contracts call for adjustments based on the government's consumers price index.

Well, now, I figured, I'm in the auto and farm equipment business, so to speak, especially the parts end of it, so naturally I concluded I was supposed to get a pay raise too, and since nobody pays me by the hour out here on this Martin County grass farm, the only way I could see how to get a pay increase was to raise the price of things I sell.

I don't know how long it takes for a hen to lay a dozen eggs, but I figured on the basis of that 2-cents-an-hour boost the others were getting, me and my hens would settle for 2-cents-a-dozen increase, which ought to be cheap enough, so I automatically marked up the price that much, and took some to town.

Like I said, the trouble with this country is not enough business people keep up with the economic trends. I couldn't find an egg dealer in this part of the state who'd ever heard of the government's consumers price index. When I said the price of my eggs is now 2 cents a dozen higher, they looked at me like they thought I was crazy.

What I figure is we've got a lot of business people in this country who don't keep up with the economic trends, or else they're still using the same price index they had pasted on their office walls twenty-five years ago.

You've got a printing press somewhere there in The Stanton Reporter office, haven't you? How about printing up a bunch of these new price indexes and distributing them around the country?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

But the results were so promising that discouragement over a weak attendance was put aside and efforts will be renewed to have a complete report ready for another chamber meeting. Reports from the committee members said more than $4,500 per year support had been pledged by 46 merchants contacted."

Local Residents Given Vacation Mailing Tips

Residents who are planning summer vacation trips have been reminded of seven mailing tips which, if followed, assure vacationers the best possible mail service.

- The tips include:
1. Don't let a stuffed mail box advertise your absence to housebreakers. Ask a neighbor to empty the box and hold the mail, and if this cannot be arranged, ask the Post Office to hold the mail for a limited time upon written request.
 2. If you want to get your mail while you're away, file a forwarding order with the postmaster... but let him know when you get back, though.
 3. Use your full and complete vacation address and give it to people who may write you.
 4. Use enough postage. Regular-sized post cards take three cents, jumbo-sized cards four cents, first-class letters four cents an ounce and air mail letters seven cents an ounce.
 5. Don't send cash in letters; use postal money orders and register letters containing valuable items.
 6. Prepare your packages carefully. When sending perishable, fragile, or unusual items by parcel post, it is best to check which the Post Office on their mail-ability and always enclose a card with the recipient's address, as well as your own address, printed plainly on it.
 7. Buy books of stamps so you won't exhaust your supply far from the nearest Post Office.

Rabies Reported Increased In All Texas Areas

Many reports of rabid animals—chiefly foxes and skunks—are coming in from over the State, says Edwin Cooper, extension wildlife specialist.

Since complete eradication of animals subject to carrying rabies is almost impossible, everyone should be aware of methods which lessen the possibility of contracting the disease, Cooper continues.

Contrary to popular belief, rabid animals do not have "running fits" nor "froth at the mouth." A rabid animal is usually characterized by symptoms of paralysis and loss of their usual fear of humans or natural enemies. Therefore, Cooper says children should be cautioned to avoid any animal which appears to be acting strangely.

Foxes, strange dogs and skunks especially should be avoided. Rabies also can be carried by domestic livestock, bats, squirrels and several other mammals. Rabies may occur during any season of the year, Cooper emphasizes. A "doomed" pet skunk, for example, may be a dangerous creature to have around, in spite of the novelty and interest it may afford.

If a person is bitten by any type of wild or domestic animal, the person should immediately report to the family doctor after making every effort to capture and pen the attacking animal for observation purposes if this can be done safely. If it is a wild animal, it should be killed unless capture can be accomplished without risk of another attack. Instructions for having the animal checked for rabies can be obtained from your doctor or veterinarian.

Consult your veterinarian to make certain your pets are properly vaccinated. Stray, untagged or suspicious acting domestic or wild animals should be reported immediately.

Methodists Okay Stewardship Plan

The North Texas Methodist Conference approved a two-month statewide denomination stewardship movement this week.

The movement would put emphasis on stewardship of time and abilities, stewardship of material possessions and set the title as a minimum standard of giving.

The Texas Methodist Planning Commission which adopted the program in a March meeting in Austin, said the purpose of the project is to secure a better understanding of the meaning of stewardship and to encourage persons who have not accepted its principles to do so.

Melons Join

Low Prices

Have your watermelon knife ready. That's a suggestion from folk who check Texas fruit and vegetable markets every morning. They note increased shipments of charleston grey's from Florida. The crop estimate for the Florida melon crop is 15 per cent more than last year.

The Texas Summer melon acreage is 21 per cent larger than in 1959. Prices are adjusting to the larger shipments.

Huge supplies and economical prices continue on cabbage, carrots, celery, greens, lemons, lettuce, okra, onions and green onions, blackeye and other peas, potatoes and yellow crookneck squash. That's on the basis of reports from the Agricultural Marketing Service.

Cantaloupes are lower than last week but still fairly high, as shipments from California and Arizona enter.

Apples, avocados and grapefruit carry higher prices. New-crop seedless grades are appearing but they still are in the luxury class.

Among high-protein items, peanut butter is especially abundant. Pork and broiler-fryers are plentiful and economical. Beef slaughter is running higher than a year ago. A good selection of fish, canned and frozen, is available in most markets. Dairy counters are filled with wide variety and economical nutrition.

U. S. Cotton Map Shifts

The great extent to which the production of cotton has moved from the south-eastern part of the country to the West was shown in an Agriculture Department analysis this week.

Twenty years ago, the Western states of California, Arizona, New Mexico and Nevada produced about six per cent of the U. S. crop. Today they produce a little more than 20 per cent.

Likewise, 20 years ago the South-eastern states of Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama produced about 30 per cent.

Soon after Lincoln became President, he was visiting a federal prison and a grizzled inmate said: "Mr. President, you and I have been in every federal penitentiary in the country." Lincoln protested: "But this is the first one I was ever in." The prisoner replied: "Well, I've been in all the others."

Reception Held For Ellis Todd

Rev. and Mrs. Ellis Todd were honored with a get-acquainted reception Saturday evening at the basement of the First Methodist Church.

Rev. Todd moved to Stanton Thursday and took over his duties as pastor of the First Methodist Church. He succeeds Rev. W. H. Kirby, who has moved to Friona.

Rev. and Mrs. Todd formerly resided in Sudan, where he was pastor of the Sudan Methodist Church three years. Prior to that he had served as pastor of the Plainview Methodist Church four years.

The Todds have one son, and one married daughter. Their son, Hughlyn, will be a senior in high school when the fall term begins. Their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. David Hamblen, reside in Snyder, where he is pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church.

Punch and cookies were served during the reception. Afterwards members of the church gave the Todd family a pounding shower.

ty official, he will not receive such fees, he said.

White said the City Council had authorized a year ago the filing of lawsuits to collect the delinquent taxes on both real and personal property.

The personal property taxes largely involve furnishings and inventories in businesses as well as automobiles of all Stanton citizens.

White said that if such automobiles are not rendered by their owners, they are taken from the county's motor vehicle registration rolls and placed on the tax rolls.

The city secretary said he began turning over the delinquent taxes to Ferguson's office last September and the county attorney began the long job of examining titles.

In cases where the owners of the property can not be located, the property may be sold at auction by the sheriff to satisfy any tax judgments.

Beta Sigma Phi Receive Exemplar Degree

Seven Stanton Beta Sigma Phi members received the exemplar degree in a candlelight ritual recently at the Cap Rock Electric Co-op building.

Members of Xi Epsilon Delta were in charge of the ceremony. Mrs. R. C. Vest read the ritual. She was assisted by Mrs. Marshall Johnson, Mrs. Jack Ireton, Mrs. Curtis Erwin and Mrs. Charles Nelson.

Those receiving the honor were Mrs. Gerald Hanson, Mrs. Homer Henson, Mrs. Cliff Hazlewood Jr. and Mrs. Paul Briggs of Rho Xi chapter; Mrs. O. L. Snodgrass Jr., Mrs. Bill Wheeler and Mrs. Jack Gray of Mu Lambda chapter.

Former Resident Receives Honor

Jo Harriett Haley of Houston was recently made an honorary member of the Rotary Club of Houston Heights because of her outstanding school activities.

Miss Haley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Haley of Houston, formerly of Stanton. The Haleys are well known in Stanton. They both taught in the Stanton schools in the late 1930's.

Miss Haley, who is a student at Reagan High School, Houston, is president of the Reagan Red Coats; was 1959 treasurer of the National Honor Society; is secretary of the Junior Historians, and parliamentarian of the Beta Tri-Hi-Y. She is extempore delegate of the Speakers Forum, holds the degree of honor in the National Forensic League, and is a member of the Christian Student

In a period of deep gloom about state finances, Texans had to pinch themselves to believe the good news. U. S. Supreme Court ruled that Texas does indeed own its tidelands for 10 1/2 miles out—just as Texans have been claiming for 115 years.

Financially, it's a long-range gain at best. But as a moral victory for Texas principles, it's the biggest thing since the Battle of San Jacinto. Revenue from the publicly owned land will go into the permanent school fund. Problem of Texas' bankrupt general fund is unchanged.

How much money comes to the school fund will depend on how much oil is under the submerged lands and how good is the market. Money going into the permanent school fund—from mineral leases, royalties, bonuses, etc.—is invested, and only the income from these investments may be used for current school spending.

Thus far, the oil yield from Texas tidelands has been far from spectacular. There have been only 24 producing oil wells and 47 gas wells in 22 years.

But if conditions are promising, oil men undoubtedly will keep trying. As an immediate effect, the state will get some $29,000,000 in mineral payments that accumulated while the issue of state or federal ownership was being thrashed out.

POLITICKING VACATION—Gov. Price Daniel will spend his vacation politicking for U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

First stop will be the National Governors Conference in Montana June 29-29. After that, said the governor, he'll vacation and visit around with other governors where he feels he can do the Texas favorite son's cause the most good.

And after that, he will go on to the National Democratic Convention in Los Angeles July 11.

Daniel predicted Johnson would lead on the first ballot at the convention.

ANTI-INCOME TAXERS—Voters who oppose the federal income tax and the United Nations will find a haven in the Constitution Party.

Like the Republicans and Democrats, the Constitution Party will hold a state convention June 14 to name delegates to a national convention.

At a preliminary meeting in Austin, delegates were selected and instructed to work for a ticket headed by J. Edgar Hoover for president and Tob J. Anderson of Nashville, Tenn., for vice president.

Constitution Party also nominated candidates for all statewide offices except governor. Gubernatorial nominee was omitted, because if he should receive 200,000 or more votes in a general election, state law would require the party to go the expensive primary nominating route next election year.

HOSPITAL NEEDS GROW—Deficit or no deficit, the State Hospital Board says the hospital system has increased money needs that must be reckoned with.

Board has voted to ask the Legislature for a $107,000,000 appropriation for the 1961-63 period. This would be $34,000,000 more than the present allocation.

Part of the extra funds, about $2,000,000 a year, would go to hire extra people so present staffers could change from the present 44-hour week to a 40-hour week. Board has recommended this change to put hospital employees on equal footing with those of other state agencies.

But the main problem, says the Board, is that the hospital system is getting more and more patients and needs more money to take care of them. In addition, it has the problem of caring for many delinquents who are not really mentally ill.

YOUTH NEEDS CITED—Another state agency with a story of urgent need for more state support is the Texas Youth Council.

Youth Council has the responsibility for trying to stem the tide of rising juvenile delinquency and also to provide homes for children who have none of their own.

For this task in 1961-63 the Council is asking for a $13,695,636 appropriation—up by $3,500,000 from the present.

Some of this would be used for new construction at the Gatesville Training School for Boys, Gatesville Training School for Girls, a state home for orphaned negro children and for additions to the Waco and Corsican State Homes for orphans.

It also would enable the Council to set up a parole supervision staff to follow up on the rehabilitation of youngsters released from training schools.

SHORT SNORTS

E. W. Killian has been named by the State Hospital Board to be superintendent of a new state school at Denton which will care for 1,650 mentally retarded patients. Killian has been superintendent of the Austin State School.

Rep. Frank McGregor of Waco withdrew from the race for Speaker of the House with a prediction that Rep. Wade Spilman of McAllen would win. McGregor said his poll indicates Spilman has 67 pledges with good prospect to get the nine more needed to win.

Some of Texas' potential statesmen of the 1970's will gain early experience in practical politics when 565 senior high school boys come to Austin for a five-day Boys State meeting ending June 11. Group is divided into political "parties" and elects state officials from the governor down. American Legion sponsors the "laboratory in citizenship" for outstanding teenagers.

James N. Ludlum has left his post as first assistant attorney general to go into private law practice with Jake Jacobsen, former administrative assistant to Governor Daniel.

Texas farm prices, by mid-May, were down two per cent from a month ago and 10 per cent from a year ago. U. S. Dept. of Agriculture noted that livestock and livestock products had the biggest drop—7 per cent from a month ago and 11 per cent from a year ago.

Cotton Bacterial Blight Most Serious Plant Disease

Bacterial blight of cotton causes more damage than any other plant disease in Texas. It generally is most severe on the High Plains and the Coast Prairie, in the irrigated valleys of the Trans-Pecos area and in the sprinkler irrigated areas on the Rolling Plains.

Bacterial blight causes more than one-fourth of the total cotton disease yield loss in Texas. During each of the last two years it has caused about $7,500,000 damage in lower yields. Too, additional losses occurred in the form of lower and spot grades of the harvested fiber.

Small, angular, brownish or blackish spots occur on the lower leaves. Later the disease may spread to the higher leaves. Only a few spots are necessary for the leaves to drop. Yield reduction is, on the average, about one-half the percent premature loss of leaves. Small, circular, dark-green spots occur on bolls. These spots enlarge, dry up, stain lint and prevent normal opening of the boll.

The disease causing bacteria enter through air breathing pores (stomata) in the leaves, bolls and stems. They also may enter the plant parts through wounds.

The blight organism is carried overwinter in the soil and old plant trash and on or in planting seed. Wind-driven splashing rains, sprinkler irrigation or whirlwinds spread the bacteria from plant to plant in the fields.

The only known practical prevention is the growing of resistant varieties. Acala 1517 BR, Acala 1517 BR-1, Blightmaster, Austin, Rex and Mebane B-1 are available for commercial production. Many new resistant-varieties are being developed.

The planting of known disease-free seed will give control if there is no soil carry-over. Acid-delinted seed, adequately treated with a seed-protectant fungicide, will reduce early season infection. This practice does not necessarily prevent later epidemics.

Honor Graduates

I would like to extend our congratulations to Joetta Franklin, who was valedictorian, and Veronica Sarley, who was salutatorian, of the graduating class of Stanton High School. Their activities during their high school years is very impressive and I know their parents are very proud of them. Theirs was no easy task as Linda Hilliger, Carl Wright, Glen Reid, Marga Warrington, Joyce Anderson, Kathy Hardison, Sandra Sale, Sharon Sule, Becky Smith and Jean Matt all maintained an average of above 90 and were right on their heels all the way. Our congratulations to all of these fine young people also. I hope you all have a very enjoyable and safe vacation.

One Minute Of Courtesy

It's been my experience that most folks in Stanton try to answer their phone calls promptly. But in the summertime so many are busy outside—with gardening, yard work or just relaxing in the sun or under the stars—that it takes a little longer to get to the phone.

If you've ever just missed a call after running in from outside to answer the phone, you know how disappointing it is. Most folks can get to their telephones within a minute, even when they aren't in the house. One minute is about the time it takes for the phone to ring 10 times.

By waiting at least 10 rings before you hang up, you have a much better chance of getting your call through, especially when the person you're calling is not near the phone. In the long run, you'll save yourself the time and trouble of calling again, and your friends will certainly appreciate your courtesy and patience. So please remember to wait 10 rings—it takes just a minute.

Vacation Travel Tips

If you plan to go out of town on vacation, there are a couple of things you can do to make your trip more enjoyable and carefree.

First, call ahead for reservations. Second, make arrangements with a relative or neighbor to keep an eye on your house while you're away. Give them your vacation address and phone number so they can reach you in an emergency.

Remember, too, Long Distance rates are lower on Sundays and weekdays after 6 p.m. And you save more than one-third when you call station-to-station.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Rotary Lawn Mower Can Be Lethal Weapon

Did you know a rotary lawn mower blade travels at speeds up to 150 miles per hour and is capable of throwing sticks, stones, or other objects at comparable speeds? Imagine what would happen if you were hit by one of the fast-flying objects.

Power lawn mowers are now in the majority both in town and among farm people. Along with their increased use has been a closely related increase in accidents involving both operators and bystanders. Most accidents have been due to carelessness or lack of knowledge on the part of the individual.

W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer, offers these suggestions on how to operate your rotary power mower safely and efficiently.

Always disconnect spark plug wire before working on the blade.

A clean sharp blade does a better cutting job and requires less power.

Never operate mower with safety shields removed.

Make sure all rocks and debris are removed from the area before close mowing.

Do not refill the gasoline tank when engine is hot or running.

Run mower as slow as possible to do good work.

Keep children and pets away from mowers.

Always be certain of sure footing when mowing on steep slopes.

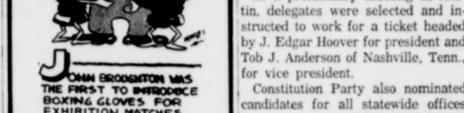

Never leave engine running when mower is unattended.

Make sure mower is steady and under control before starting engine.

Always be aware of the hazards involved when you are using a power mower. Don't get caught napping.

For this task in 1961-63 the Council is asking for a $13,695,636 appropriation—up by $3,500,000 from the present.

Some of this would be used for new construction at the Gatesville Training School for Boys, Gatesville Training School for Girls, a state home for orphaned negro children and for additions to the Waco and Corsican State Homes for orphans.

It also would enable the Council to set up a parole supervision staff to follow up on the rehabilitation of youngsters released from training schools.

HOWARD G. CATES, 39, a member of the editorial staff of THE MIDLAND REPORTER-TELEGRAM passed away last Wednesday in a Dallas hospital. HOWARD started with the Midland paper about the time your correspondent arrived in Stanton and on many, many occasions we had occasion to talk with him—sometimes in person—sometimes on the phone. He was a witty fellow and always had that extra ad lib to make you proud to call him friend. We are going to miss HOWARD.

I like the way Sect. of Defense THOMAS S. GATES JR. expresses himself. Testifying before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in Washington last week, GATES said: "I don't believe Mr. Khrushchev wants to start a war which he knows will be the end of his country." TOMMY GATES is a battler—he knows a lot of other battlers in Texas personally and has visited in the Lone Star state many times. Since serving in World War II, GATES has been the guest of my brother, CARL, in his Longview, Texas home many times. If this nation had more of the GATES clan and fewer of the eggheads—and to be specific—we refer to ADLAI STEVENSON—then that cheap clown running Russia wouldn't cut so many capers.

June is the time of year when June just naturally goes with "spoon" and "moon," and all three are the rightful province of the bride-to-be. It's time of year too when showers are in season in more ways than one—of course showers are always welcome to farmers and ranchers, and too showers for the bride always create quite a bit of interest. June is the month to plan vacations, the time to store winter clothing and for West Texans to migrate to the outdoors for barbecue parties or an evening on the patio for dining. And by all means don't forget that the 19th of June this year is Father's Day for all the household heads all over the world and that means that Dear Ole Dad will get to observe 'Juneteenth' regardless of race, creed or color—just like the nine judges—mostly all former politicians, up there in the Supreme Court decreed. Yep, it ought to be the first 'Juneteenth' for all of us in a long, long time.

There is a relative of the immortal GENERAL ROBERT E. LEE now serving our nation as vice commander of the Air Defense Command in Colorado. He is LT. GENERAL ROBERT M. LEE, and just last week he dropped by Webb AFB in Big Spring for a visit. This GEN. LEE rode in piloting his Convair C-131. That's a lot easier and faster transportation than the first GEN. ROBERT had on his horse, Traveler. Anyway, the point of this paragraph is that we are happy in the knowledge that another LEE of Virginia will be in our line-up if and when the "Russian Yankees" rise up and yell for war.

TESCO Completes De-Salting Water Prototype Unit

A prototype of the nation's first high-capacity single unit electro-dialysis plant for removing salt from inland brackish waters such as are found in West Texas has been built by Texas Electric Service Company in Fort Worth, H. R. Drew, the company's director of research, reported Wednesday at the Summer Annual Meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers in Dallas. Drew reported that the 40-foot long laboratory unit is capable of treating moderately saline water, making it suitable for human, industrial and agricultural use. The research on desalting brackish water being conducted in a laboratory at Texas Electric Service Company's North Main generating station is part of the company's continuous program for developing the West Texas area it serves, Drew reported. "We are hopeful," he said, "that we have taken one more step towards helping to assure an adequate, long-range water supply for the great West Texas region served by Texas Electric. We intend to continue working toward that end. Although desalting water is far from being economically practical in most places in West Texas at this time, it is inevitable that many West Texas cities will eventually need to turn to desalting brackish waters as an additional source of water supply." Texas Electric Service Company has been carrying on active experimental work in desalting by electro-dialysis for almost six years, and more recently has been operating three small electro-dialysis units under regular operating conditions at its Permian Basin Electric Generating Station near Monahans. "We have learned much from the operation of these units," Drew reported, "and have been continually able to improve the equipment being used." The unit now undergoing research in the Fort Worth laboratory has six product streams capable of producing a total of about 30,000 gallons of potable water per day. It was designed as a model for a plant capable of treating enough water to supply the needs of a city of about 10,000 people. Additional product streams may be added merely by enlarging the original unit. "We know that our present design is far from the ultimate," Drew declared. "In fact, we have learned enough in building it to warrant starting all over again with an immensely improved version. Never-
