THE SCHOOL BUS LOADED WITH school children is not to be forgotten when coming to sum up accidents on the highways and Farm-to-Market roads. Accidents can happen while loading and re-loading children in buses. Driver of the bus should exercise caution at all times. See that the proper distance is given his side of the road. Keep within the speed a bus should travel to have perfect control of the vehicle should an emergency stop be necessary.

A PARAGRAPH FROM AN EDITORIAL published recently in the Ableton Reporter-News carries with it a weight of home-spun philosophy in this day of teen-age discipline: "Parents caution your children about the danger that lurks in the streets. Better still, set an example for them by your own conduct. Don't depend on teacher to train your child in safety habits. She may have dozens of them to instruct. Do it yourself and never grow weary in the doing. After all, it is your child, isn't it?"

THE HUNTING SEASON IS ON.

City Spends Labor Day Quietly

Stanton residents spent a very quiet Labor Day with little or no laboring going on at all. Residents rested, traveled or caught up on the chores about the house and in their yards. It was the last day of the Summer season and downtown Stanton looked like a sleepy village in Old Mexico. Traffic in the city proper was limited. Only those who had to be out visited the business district. No scheduled activity was on the day's agenda. Practically every business establishment was closed tight. Labor Day is one of the five annual holidays voted by the Martin County Chamber of Commerce membership. School children got their first holiday since the opening of public schools here a week ago.

September 12 Is Dollar Day In Stanton

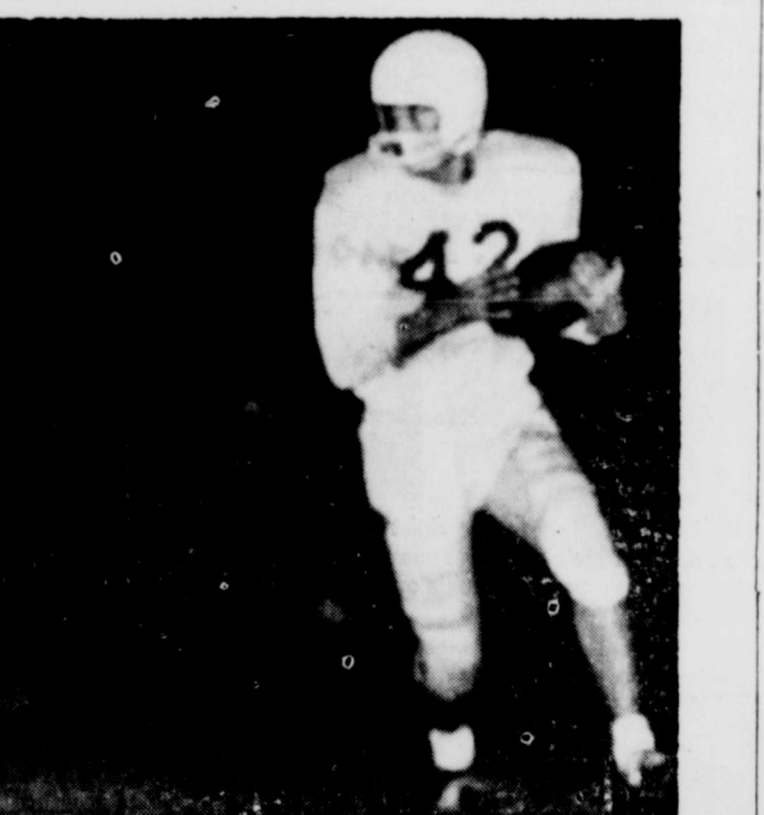

Monday, September 12, is Dollar Day in Stanton. Many local merchants have Dollar Day specials listed in this week's Stanton Reporter and local residents have been invited to check on these items and take advantage of the bargains. The once-a-month event was postponed from the first Monday to the second Monday this month because Monday, September 5 was observed as a holiday in Stanton. Many merchants have continued to advertise specials in the issue of The Reporter before the Monday sales. It would be a fine thing if all the merchants would list a few items and run them in the paper for the Dollar Day event. It wouldn't take a lot of space, and just two or three items would be appreciated by the buying public. Some of the merchants who have

Stanton Officers Help Break Area Theft Ring

Sheriff Dan Saunders and Constable Marshall Yates materially aided Lovington, New Mexico officers in the breaking of an area theft ring this week. An Odessa man and a Waco woman were lodged in the Lea County, N. M. jail Monday night in lieu of $10,000 bonds each set following their arrest on charges of burglarizing ranch homes. J. C. (Red) Stewart, 35, and Miss Doris Hamilton, 32, were charged with grand larceny and breaking and entering.

A series of burglaries netted the pair more than $30,000 in guns, groceries, clothes and a small amount of cash within the last several weeks, Sheriff Saunders said. The pair were captured at a road block Saturday night after exchanging shots with a night watchman on an oil rig near Artesia where officers said they had gone to take drilling tools and a radio. The man was said to be loading some tools and the woman had gone into a trailer house to get a radio when the nightwatchman spotted them. The man allegedly fired back at the watchman and then the pair fled the scene. Sheriff Saunders questioned the couple throughout the day Sunday, and said that they would also be charged in Martin County with the same offenses. Saunders said the two had confessed burglarizing two ranch homes near Tatum, N. M., and the home on the Joe Mabey ranch in Martin County. Constable Yates told a reporter

Socony Mobil Oil Company Completes Spraberry Test

By JAMES C. WATSON
Socony Mobil Oil Company, Inc., completed No. 6 Kelly Stephens at the northeast edge of the Spraberry Trend Area, eight miles southwest of Stanton in extreme Northeast Midland County. It is 12 miles northeast of Midland and 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 42, block 36, T-1-S, T&P survey. On the 24-hour potential the well pumped 186.30 barrels of 36.2 gravity oil, plus 8.6 per cent water, from perforations and open hole between 7,162 and 8,050 feet. The pay had been fractured with 65,000 gallons. Jake L. Hamon, Amertexas Oil Corporation and Pan American Petroleum Corporation completed No. 1 W. M. Yates, six miles southwest of Patricia in Martin County, as a producer in the Devonian. The venture has also show for possible discovery production in the Wolfcamp.

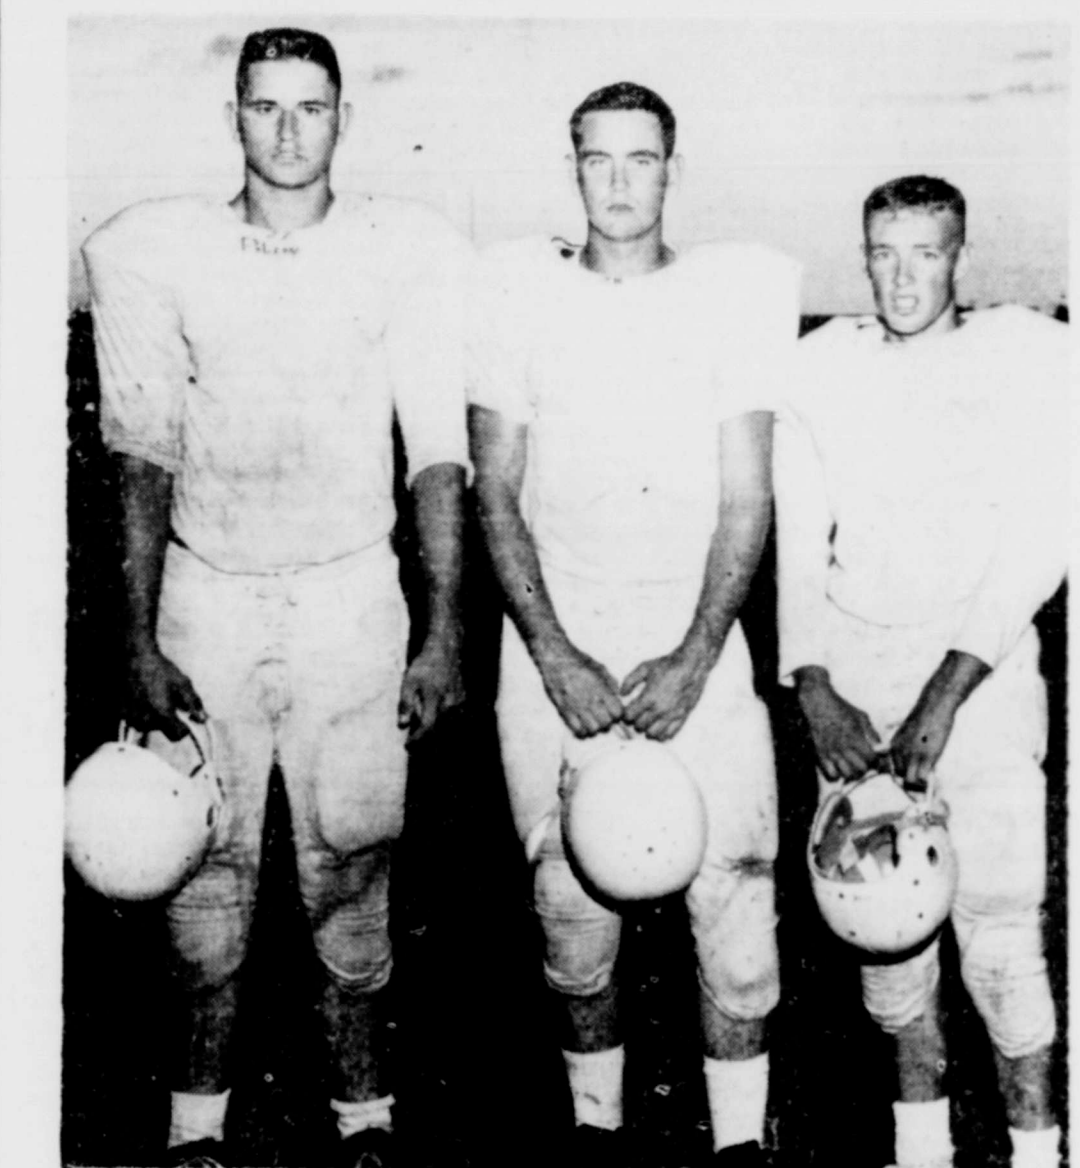

It finalized for a daily potential of 438.84 barrels of 41.8-gravity oil, no water, flowing through an 8/64-inch choke and open hole at 12,008-12,012 feet. Tubing pressure was set at 1,000 pounds. Gas-oil ratio was 125-1. The venture was drilled to 12,012 feet and seven-inch casing set at 12,008 feet. Operator is swabbing Wolfcamp perforations at 9,968-73 feet, 9,992-10,002 feet, 10,036-45 feet, 10,059-63 and 10,074.84 feet, after 15,000-gallon acid treatment. A drillstem test, taken while the project was being drilled, gauged 33 barrels of oil in 2½ hours. This flow came from the formation at 9,957-10,083 feet. The new producer is one location west of Hamon's No. 1 Scott, a recently completed north extension to the Breedlove (Devonian) field and 660 feet from south and east lines of labor 21, league 262, Kent County School Land survey. Lone Star Producing Company has abandoned the location for No. 1 Ida Mae Oldham in the Azalea (Devonian) area, 12 miles southwest of Stanton in Northeast Midland County. The project was contracted to 12,500 feet. It was 10 miles east of Midland on the northeast side of the Azalea field. Site was 660 feet from south and west lines of section 46, block 37, T-1-S, T&P survey. Murphy H. Baxter of Midland completed No. 2-33-B Buchanan as a new gas-distillate producer in the Azalea (Devonian) area of East Midland County, 12 miles southwest of Stanton. On the completion tests the project developed a calculated, absolute open flow of 6,500,000 cubic feet of gas daily with a gas-liquid petroleum ratio of 52,100-1. The production was from perforated zones at 11,358-113,780 feet and 11,398-11,408 feet after a 150,000 gallons fracture treatment. (Continued on page 8)

Buffaloes Meet Big Lake Friday

Big Crowd Due To See Opener

STANTON CO-CAPTAINS—These three players, left to right, Jerry Polson, Tommy Davis and Thadd Koonce, are serving as co-captains for the Stanton Buffaloes. Polson and Davis play at the tackle positions and Koonce is a halfback. The Bisons open the home season Friday night against the Big Lake Wildcats.

Judge Caton Names Jury Commission

Judge Ralph W. Caton, 118th District Court, was in Stanton on Wednesday, August 31 to appoint a jury commission for the ensuing term of court. Appointed to serve as the jury commission were Mrs. Morgan Hall, Mrs. John Roueche and Cecil Bridges. The three selected members of a petit jury and grand jury. On Monday, October 3 the petit and grand juries will be convened in Martin County. Court has also been scheduled for other counties in the 118th district. A grand jury was convened in Glasscock County, on Tuesday, September 6. Two jury weeks are to be held in Howard County during September. A civil jury docket has been slated for the week of September 12 and a criminal jury docket will open on September 19.

Stanton Buffaloes will be out to win when they meet Big Lake in their first home game of the season Friday night in the Buffalo stadium. A capacity crowd is expected to be on hand to urge the Buffs to victory. The high school band, cheerleaders, members of the Quarterback Club and a huge crowd of local fans are expected to fill the stands to support and cheer the Buffs. Coach Harlin Dauphin reports his squad in good shape for the contest. He said two boys who were out last week will still be out this week. Bobby Sale, who was injured during practice sessions before the season began, will be out for the season. Tommy Davis, who was also injured earlier in the month, is expected to begin workouts next Monday. There have been no other injuries, Dauphin said, and the team is in fair physical condition. Dauphin said the Big Lake team is heavier than the Buffs and that he hasn't any predictions as to the outcome of the game, although the Buffs will be out working hard for a win. The team is working hard to be ready for the game, Dauphin said. He said the boys had the best work-

Merkel Trims Stanton

BADGER PASS—Pedro Ybarra of Merkel awaits a pass from Lester Dorton during Badger-Buffalo game Friday night in Merkel. Defender is Robert Turner. Both boys wear No. 42.

Merkel's Badgers spoiled the season opener for the Stanton Buffaloes in Merkel last Friday night by taking the annual contest between the teams 16-0. The game was reeled off before approximately 1,400 fans. It was Stanton's first time to play in Class AA. Merkel remains a Class A club. If the Bisons could have skipped the second period of play the game would have ended in a scoreless tie. For the Buffs held off the much heavier opponents for three quarters of the game. Sport authorities who attended the game were of the opinion that one man, 185-pound Ronnie Reeger, made the difference in the contest. Time after time the big Badger back roared through the Bison defense for gains. Outside of the stellar play of Reeger the Buffs did a jam-up good defensive job. The Buffs counted a touchdown in the third period that was called back. It could have made a big difference in the game, since they were generating some real fire power at the time and appeared to have the Badgers on the run. It came on a 46-yard pass from quarterback Reggy Church to end Robert Turner, a thorn in the side of the home team all evening took the ball around the Merkel 25 and fought and clawed his way across the double stripes. However, one of the men in the striped (Continued on page 8)

New Teachers Lindsay Gets To Be Honored $1,060 First Bale Money

Stanton teachers will be honored at a Teachers Appreciation Night Monday, September 19 at the Stanton High School cafeteria. Members of the Stanton Lions Club are sponsoring the dinner and program, which will begin at 7:30 p.m. Those attending are asked to bring a covered dish of food for the meal. The public has been invited to attend to greet and get-acquainted with the local teachers. All residents of the Stanton and Courtney communities have been urged to be present. During the program, each teacher will be introduced and recognized. A special program of entertainment is being planned and final program plans will be announced next week. After the program a get-acquainted session will be held. Last year a Teachers Appreciation Night was held at the beginning of the school year and it proved very successful.

The first bale of Martin County cotton brought a total of $1,060, when it was sold at auction Friday afternoon in downtown Stanton. W. L. (Whistle) Lindsay, who brought in the first bale, left $100 of the amount in a special Chamber of Commerce fund to go to the owner of the first bale of cotton in 1961. Bernard Houston served as auctioneer at the Chinese auction. Members of the Agriculture Committee of the Martin County Chamber of Commerce were in charge of the auction. Lindsay received $2.12 per pound for his bale, which weighed 500 pounds. Merchants and farmers from all over Martin County, and also from Midland and Big Spring, contributed to the premium purse. Lindsay's cotton was ginned at the Planters Gin in Turzan. He grew the cotton on irrigated land north of Stanton. Last year's first bale of cotton was owned by Floyd Martin and brought $976. It weighed 560 pounds. The 1958 first bale belonged to F. C. Wheeler and it sold for $910.

Philosopher Pleased That Washington, In Its Rush Into Space, Hasn't Forgotten The Earth

Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his grass farm on Mustang Draw has found some welcome news, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

You can hardly pick up a newspaper these days without reading something about who's winning the race for space, and I guess it's important, we have to race in self defense, but nobody has convinced me that life in space after we conquest it is going to be any better than life here on this Martin County grass farm, and consequently I was amazed to read an article last night that proves Washington hasn't abandoned the earth altogether.

Pagan Diana Plays Role In Christian Drama

Christianity began with devout Jewish souls expecting a Messiah, and earnest disciples believing that they had found the Messiah. The atmosphere and environment of the land was already holy with the glory of Israel. Then as Christianity spread throughout the Roman world it soon came into conflict with the rituals, literature and great imposing shrines and temples of paganism.

Nowhere is there conflict so marked nor so vividly depicted as in the story told in Acts, of Saint Paul's preaching in Asia Minor and of the opposition he encountered in Ephesus through the commotion stirred up by the worshippers of the Goddess Diana.

And the story has an interesting, modern application. For among the worshippers of the goddess were the silversmiths who made shrines and who, like some today, were more interested in the material profits of religion than in any sincerity of worship.

When they saw Paul's mission succeeding, the silversmiths said among themselves, "Our craft is in danger." And, to conceal their self-interest from the people, they cried that "Great is Diana of the Ephesians."

Some still use the cloak of religion to stir up prejudices or advance self-interest.

Read, and reread, this great lesson in Acts. Not just for its account of Christianity in conflict with paganism. Oh, no. Read it for its warning against those who would take the noble things of religion and patriotism, and pervert them to their own ends.

IT'S THE LAW

DIVISION OF ESTATES EXPLAINED

The death of an intestate person (one who has made no will) may give rise to many problems regarding distribution of his separate estate. In the preceding column we investigated the manner of dividing the community estate upon the death of a husband or wife. Now we shall see that, where separate property is involved, a completely different set of rules applies in determining heirship and apportioning the estate among the rightful claimants.

It may be well to recall that the separate estate of a husband or wife includes property owned by either before marriage, and that which is acquired after marriage by gift or inheritance. Any other property acquired after marriage is presumed by law to be community property until the contrary is clearly provided.

Now, here is a general idea as to how your separate property will be divided if you do not make a will with contrary provisions prior to your death.

If your husband or wife survives and if, in addition, there are surviving children or descendants of previously deceased children, the children and their descendants immediately obtain a full (fee) title in two-thirds of the real estate involved. The surviving spouse receives a life interest in the remaining one-third of the real property, which passes on to the children and their descendants upon the death of the spouse. The rule for distributing personal property — cash, stocks, bonds, furniture, or any other items not constituting real estate — is different. Here the surviving spouse gets full ownership of one-third, and the children and their descendants inherit the balance.

With regard to real estate, the survivor obtains full title to one-half, and the other half is divided between your mother and father, if both survive you. If only one of them survives, he or she receives only half of this portion, and the other half (or one-fourth of the entire real estate) will be divided among your brothers and sisters (and their descendants) surviving, then the surviving husband or wife inherits all of the real estate.

Star-Telegram Reporter Tells About Kelly

E. D. Alexander, a reporter for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, was touring West Texas last week getting material for stories on interesting personalities and historical places.
Alexander "hit the jackpot" in Stanton when he dropped in on the staff at The Stanton Reporter.
Editor Bill Collins, Midland, had sent Alexander to Stanton to visit with us to get feature material on Jim Kelly, retired editor of the paper.
Kelly continues to write a column for the paper as he has done the past several years. He is now preparing his column from his home. Jim Kelly has actually been in retirement for the past five years. But only recently elected to refrain from making his daily trip to the newspaper office. He is now living in solid comfort in his place in Stanton up on "capitol hill" as he calls the old Catholic Academy of Mercy building converted into a home by Jim and the late Mrs. Kelly several years ago.

Cotton Deadline Is Sept. 15

September 15 is the deadline for a farm operator to file a written application regarding failure to plant at least 75 per cent of the 1960 cotton allotment, according to George Glynn, manager of the local ASC office.
The 75 per cent planting rule does not apply to those farmers who released their cotton allotment back to the county prior to planting time.
Each cotton farmer in the county who failed to plant the required 75 per cent will receive a letter from the local ASC office. If the failure to plant was due to causes beyond the operators' control, a written statement must be filed at the county office by not later than the deadline date outlining the reasons for failure to plant.
Glynn said that generally speaking most farmers planted 75 per cent of the allotment, or released it back to the committee.

Measuring Of County Cotton Is Nearly Complete

The measuring of Martin County cotton is almost complete, George Glynn, manager of the local ASC office, said this week.
Glynn said all cotton had been measured with the exception of a number of plowups. It is hoped workers can complete the measuring of plowups by the first of October.
Two men are working out of the ASC office measuring cotton plowups.
Martin County had an allotment of 84,000 acres of cotton for the 1960 year. ASC workers estimate about 700 farms in the county have cotton planted on them.
All cotton marketing cards for farmers who are in compliance are ready to be issued, Glynn said. These cards may be had at the local ASC office.
Alexander of The Star-Telegram in supplying dates, digging up old files containing items about Jim Kelly, and filling him in on many details.
N. R. Koonce has returned home from Oklahoma, where he visited with relatives. His brother, Holbert Koonce, of Marietta, Oklahoma, returned home with him and is visiting with Martin County relatives.

1960 Acreage Survey Cards To Be Mailed

Stanton rural mail carriers will begin distributing 1960 Acreage Survey Cards to patrons on their routes about September 14, Mrs. Leta B. Eidson, postmaster, said this week.
The post office and U. S. Agriculture Departments cooperatively make this survey each year. These reports, directly from farmers, are the basis for official estimates for Texas acreage of all crops harvested in 1960.
To be sure the community is well represented in the survey, Mrs. Eidson urges each patron receiving a card to fill it out and return it to his mailbox.
Rural mail carriers working on the project are Mrs. Dee Saunders, Route One; and D. H. Rogers, Star Route.

Texas Baptists To Name New Secretary

A new Texas Baptist executive secretary will be named in Dallas on September 13 to succeed Dr. Forrest C. Fezzer who will retire from the post January 1, 1961, after eight years of service.
The election of the top Baptist leader in the state will come during the quarterly meeting of the Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.
Unlike most elections, no nominating speeches will be delivered and no nominations will be made from the floor.
Instead, the 191 members of the board will meet for prayer, and each member will write the name of the man he feels is "God's choice" on a slip of paper. Several ballots may follow until a unanimous decision is made.
Chairman of the board Dr. James Landes, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Wichita Falls, described the coming election as "one of the most tangible examples of Texas Baptists' total dependence on the leadership of God."
Dr. Fezzer, outgoing executive secretary who is noted for a handshake that somewhat resembles a handball swing, will retire at the age of 68, but has given no indication of definite plans after retirement.
In other action, the executive board will consider the state Baptist Convention's 1961 budget, and elect at least two new employees to fill vacancies on the state missions staff.

Dorothy Baker Is Bride Of Arliss Gerald Rogers

The Ackerly Baptist Church was the scene Saturday evening for the double ring ceremony of Dorothy Lou Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Baker of Ackerly, and Arliss Gerald Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rogers, Knott Route, Big Spring.

The couple stood before an archway of seven-branch candelabra against background of palms and baskets of white gladioli and palm baskets.

Traditional wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Bill Hambrick, who accompanied Arlene Hartin as she sang "Because." Bill Hambrick sang "The Lord's Prayer" and read Elizabeth Browning's poem "How Do I Love Thee?" as Mrs. Hambrick played "I Love You Truly."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original bridal gown, designed by herself and made by Mrs. W. E. Ford of Big Spring, of white silk organza over slipper satin. The sabrina neckline followed natural scallops of lace around the shoulders forming a V of natural scallops of lace in back. The fitted torso came to the deep V in front and back with embroidered lace motifs.

The gown featured long sleeves of organza that came to points on the hands with cut lace at the wrists. Lace motifs were scattered over the full floor length skirt, which was accented with a lace panel in front; lace roses marked the edge of the bodice.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown covered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls.

The bride carried out the tradition of something old, a handkerchief belonging to Mrs. James Perdue; her gown something new; something borrowed was the veil belonging to Mrs. Loyd Duncan; something blue, a satin garter made and given to her by Mrs. Curtis White; she wore a sixpence in her shoe.

Roses To Mothers

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white roses enhanced by hand styled satin leaves with picot ribbon shower. As she was escorted to the altar she paused to give her mother a rose from her bouquet and after the ceremony, paused and gave one to the bridegroom's mother.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Garland Brown, of Seagraves. She wore a dress of light blue polished cotton, with boat neck in front and forming a V in back. The fitted torso was attached to a full gathered skirt. She wore a double bow hat of matching material and fitted mitt gloves. Mrs. Brown's dress was styled similar to that of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Harold Broughton, Big Spring, sister of the bridegroom and Connie Baker, Seminole, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. They wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor. The bridal attendants carried Colonial type bouquets of white carnations tied with white satin ribbon.

Leon Pettit, Big Spring, served the bridegroom as best man. Groomsman were Harold Broughton, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Duane Rogers, Big Spring, brother of the bridegroom.

Candles were lighted by Penny Lynn Baker, Seminole, niece of the bride; Nelda Sue and Linda Kay Brown of Seagraves, also nieces of the bride. They wore dresses styled similar to the other attendants except for cummerbunds and sashes of blue organza and wore wristlets of blue carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church reception room. Forming the receiving line were the bride couple, their parents and the bride's attendants.

Mrs. Pettit secured names of the guests in the guest register.

The three tiered white wedding cake was based in net and enhanced by white confection roses.

The bride's table was covered with a white floor length net cloth accented with ruffles around the top and bottom over white linen. The net cloth also featured small blue satin bows and ribbon at the corners. Decorating the table was an arrangement of blue and white mums highlighted with fern.

Mrs. Mike Williamson served punch; and Mrs. E. B. Baker, sister-in-law of the bride, served the cake. Other members of the house party were Dawn Springfield, Mrs. Rob Mabry, Mrs. Lewis Etheredge, Mrs. Tom Gregg and Mrs. Perdue.

As the couple left on a wedding trips to points of New Mexico and Colorado the new Mrs. Rogers was wearing a fitted dress of blue linen with matching jacket of embroidered linen featuring wide collar and elbow length sleeves. She wore a corsage of white roses taken from her bouquet and black accessories and white gloves.

Mrs. Rogers is a graduate of Ackerly High School and Howard County Junior College, where she was a member of Baptist Student Union and Lasso Club, student council and a duchess at American Business Club Relays in 1957. For the past three years she has been employed with Alexander's Fine Jewelry.

Rogers graduated from Big Spring High and Texas Technological College, Lubbock, with a degree in mechanical engineering. He was a member of American Society of Mechanical Engineers. He is presently employed with Boeing Aircraft in Wichita, Kansas.

After September 10, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will be at home at 4842 Eastwood, Wichita, Kansas.

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING COMPANY — America's Leading ENergy Company

By VERN SANFORD

Fishermen are supposed to be a healthy lot.

However, there are some basic diseases that seem to strike fishermen . . . and fishermen only. None of these diseases are fatal. But, a knowledge of the ailments will be helpful to the angler who wants to become his healthy, happy self again.

Let's take a look at the diseases. First there's DORSALITIS or GIL-LITUS. Sometimes it is called "Fishy Fever." It is a well known ailment. Employers usually hear about it first . . . immediately following the afflicted person's self-diagnosis. It is reported to the boss under a number of different names, all of them false.

Dorsalitis is highly contagious. Temperature increases immediately on contact with any other carrier of the disease.

Exhaustive research reveals that the most common carrier is a newspaper that prints pictures of long stringers of big bass, or stories about some individual who reports that fishing is extra good.

Universally recommended cure is to spend the day outdoors, on good fishing water, with something to occupy the mind . . . such as a fishing rod in the hand and plenty of bait in the bucket.

Let's look at another "Angler's Ailment."

In the language of medical science this one would be called Lepesosteus Spatulata Nosis — Cyprinus Carpio Eliptis. It's more often referred to as GADNOSIS-CARP-ELIPTIS.

This illness generally develops after an unsuccessful fishing expedition. First symptom is a sour disposition. In extreme cases there is a desire to write nasty letters to the Game and Fish Commission, complaining about the rough fish population taking over the afflicted party's favorite fishing spot.

Disease is more prevalent among BASSABETICS (those with Serranae Fever.) It's an incurable disease requiring regular dosages of outdoor recreation.

Next is the dangerous HOOF-IN-MOUTH DISEASE. Generally you'll find those who are suffering from this disease shopping downtown on Saturday afternoon with the wife.

You can recognize these ailing anglers by their downcast look. Sometimes they appear drowsy. Occasionally they will be found with large bumps protruding from the cranium.

Wife generally sees first indication of this disease when hubby tells her he can't go shopping with her because he must return to the office to complete some unfinished work. Disease becomes acute and hits its peak when husband unthinkingly asks wife where she put his fishing rod. After effects of disease then strike quite suddenly.

TOP WATER PARANOIA is another ailment. Afflicted is the fisherman who insists, beyond all reason and season, on using artificial lures that float on the surface of the water. This regardless of the fact that he is catching absolutely nothing, while everyone else is landing the limit on anything and everything cast into the water.

Disease has a narcotic, habit-forming effect in that it makes the afflicted party increasingly stubborn about retaining the malady. Affliction strikes at the mind and forms a firm belief that the ailing angler is the only true sportsman of the lot and that it is far better not to catch any fish at all than it would be to use any other method of fishing.

Always there is hope that this sufferer's ability to reason finally will conquer his mental block, because of his desire to join in the fun and do a little scrappy tug-of-war with the fish himself.

A highly nervous type of ailment is SKITSOPHREQUA. This sickness is characterized by the fishermen who is always in a hurry. He skitters his lure rapidly through the water. Usually his pace is so fast that the fish tire before they can catch up with his lure, or they just run away from the fast moving, noisy object — in the opposite direction — at a furious pace.

Many an angler is afflicted with FIRST FISH GLOAT. Germs of this disease attack the first angler in the party who makes a catch. Some fishermen are able to shake the dis-

Mrs. Henson Honored With Farewell Coffee

Mrs. Dwain Henson was named honoree at a farewell coffee Wednesday morning, August 31 at the home of Mrs. Juil Reid. Cohostess were Mrs. David Workman.

Mr. and Mrs. Henson and children have moved to Big Spring to make their home.

Members of Xi Epsilon Delta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi presented the honoree with a gift.

Present were Mesdames J. N. Woody Sr., R. C. Vest, Doris Stephenson, Marshall Johnson, John Roueche, Charles Nelson, David Workman and Juil Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Joe Gray and family visited over the weekend in Junction.

case immediately. Others cannot. First indication of affliction is a swelling in the chest, followed by a flapping of the mouth. From the latter emits numerous praises of the angler's ability, plus abundant advice to the novices whom he feels surround him. Sometimes there is considerable swelling of the head.

Reaction sets in among his buddies. They avoid him. This ailment is the reverse of NO FISH MYOPIA. It's a form of depression brought on by an unsuccessful outing.

Another ailing angler is the SWITCHLEPTIC. A person with this disease will not stick with one lure long enough to catch a fish. He changes lures almost as rapidly as he gets one damp.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
A family trying to get all slicked up to make a good impression on an important company can't take time out for a domestic squabble. On this premise, the Texas Industrial Commission, whose job is to lure new industry to Texas, voted to steer clear of political hassles and concentrate on putting the best foot forward.

Vote on this decision was 5-to-1. Voting no was Al H. Chesser, railroad brotherhood representative, who has urged the Commission to sponsor a legislative program including repeal of the state's "right to work" law.

"Our job is to sell Texas," said E. B. Germany, Commission chairman. He said he felt the Commission would be hampered in doing so if it got involved in controversial legislation.

Reviewing two years' progress, Germany reported that 475 new plants had located in Texas since the TIC was formed in March, 1958. Plans have been announced, he said, for 375 others in 99 counties, and 492 plants have expanded in the past two years.

For the future, Walter Dickerson, TIC executive director, said 136 factory managements are considering a move to Texas. A number of these, he said, would make products for which Texans now send $2,500,000,000 out-of-state.

HANDS OFF HOUSTON — As a long believer of local control for local matters, Gov. Price Daniel said he would not intervene in affairs of the Houston Public School system.

For weeks Houston schools have been in a squeeze between a federal court order to begin gradual integration and a state law which says it will lose state aid if it does.

As a last resort, the Houston School Board asked Governor Daniel to "interpose" in its behalf. Under the theory of interposition, the state has, under the Tenth Amendment to the U. S. Constitution, the right to interpose against any federal act by which it believes the federal government is exceeding its constitutional powers.

Daniel pointed out that this course had been tried without success in other states. Expressing confidence in the Houston board and its attorneys, Daniel said, "The Texas policy

In 1958, the opinion pointed out, the Court of Criminal Appeals ruled that this part of the law was unconstitutional because the caption of the bill passed by the Legislature did not sufficiently explain what was in the bill.

Local peace officers were quick to call for corrective legislation. Lawmen feel there should be curbs on who can buy concealable weapons and records of the purchases so the police can check on who made them.

OLD AGE ROLLS DWINDLE — Though the number of oldsters in the state is increasing, the number receiving state old age assistance checks is declining and is expected to drop still more.

This conclusion was contained in the report of a subcommittee to the state Conference on Aging.

Drop in the state pension rolls was attributed to more Social Security benefits, more company retirement plans, more oldsters working or receiving other support.

AUTO INSPECTIONS BEGIN — Period for having official auto safety inspections made in Texas begins this month.

Deadline for getting a new inspection sticker on your windshield is not until next April 15, but with 4,900,000 vehicles to be checked, lines will be long in the final weeks.

Cost of an inspection is $1 plus any needed repair for motorizing safety. Average cost to each vehicle owner, including the repairs, was $2 last year.

SHORT SNOOTS — Commission on Higher Education has announced that the 19 state-supported colleges and universities have asked for appropriations running 39 per cent above present spending.

To make the road map reader's job easier, the State Highway Commission has given a single route number to the most direct highway connection between Huntsville and Paris. Now named State Highway 19, the route formerly had five different numbers.

Worst plague of army worms in years is blighting the lawns of Texas home owners from Central Texas down to the Coast. State Department of Agriculture recommends spraying with DDT or toxaphene.

RLDS Men Have Banquet

Priesthood members and their wives of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints attended a banquet Saturday night at the Stanton branch of the church.

Elder Raymond Carson of Olton, president of the Western Texas district, spoke to the group. His address was followed by an original program of slides and tape recordings prepared by Mrs. Bill Miller of Big Spring.

Thirty-five persons were present. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Otis Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bowers, all of Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Carson of Olton; Mr. and Mrs. Case Compier, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Keys, Bill Schrier, all of Lubbock; Donald Garee, Dean Miller, Bud Nunn, all of Hobbs, N. M.; Truman Volsky of Las Cruces, N. M. and Herbert Lynn of Amarillo.

The Zion League, young people's organization of the church, served the meal.

THEY THINK TOO LITTLE WHO TALK TOO MUCH.

It is easy to get agreement on the above quotation but very difficult to find true cooperation. What a wonderful world this would be if the purveyors of gossip and slander elected to keep their lips sealed in silence.

September always opens a busy season. With the passing of Labor Day the nation awakens to Fall. Families move back to work — back to school and back to regular routine after more informal living during summer months; soon there will be much leave taking as students depart for colleges throughout the nation . . . pullman vanities and masculine travel bags have been brought from storage and are being fitted out, re-packed, chinked in last minute purchases and wedged or pounded shut . . . time tables, bus, train and plane schedules have been studied, letters of introduction have been composed, as young Martin County is off to college.

Thank you BRUTUS HANKS for the high compliments you have consistently paid the newspaper. We appreciate the fact that your Open House last week was a successful one—we are also appreciative of the fact that you used ONLY NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING to get out the tremendous crowd that thronged about your store, overflowed to the adjoining parking lot and held sway for several hours. You did not circulate a circular—buy a radio ad—or use any other medium but your hometown paper. You know what BRUTUS — you had one of the largest crowds ever to assemble in this town.

Rich regards and our thanks to the little ROMAN.

Reeger didn't score either of Merkel's touchdowns but the Badgers would have been lost without him. Early in the second, quarterback Lester Dorton hid the ball on his hip and scooted six yards around left end for Merkel's first score, maneuvering across without being touched. Only 14 seconds had elapsed in the quarter at the time. End Pedro Ybarra gathered in a pass from Dorton for Merkel's two extra points and the Badgers led, 8-0.

A little over three minutes later, in the most thrilling play of the night, the 137-pound Roger Moore gathered in a punt off the toe of Turner and churned 72 yards up the sidelines for Merkel's second touchdown, benefitting from some splendid blocking around Stanton's 46. Reeger then lugged the ball through the middle for the two extra points and Merkel had its victory margin for the evening. All too often, Stanton backs found Merkel tacklers draped around them before they could get started but quarterback Church helped to open up the defense a little with some nifty passing, usually to Turner.

Stanton powered its way to Merkel's 28 late in the first half but the beefy Badgers dug in to hold and finally take possession back on the 24. Merkel bruised down to Stanton's five midway in the third but a 15-yard penalty hurt at that point and Stanton took over on downs. Occasionally Turner would switch off with Church in the Buff back-

(Continued from page 1) Dove shooting is underway now. Soon the hunters will take after the quail and deer. In some instances there will be careless handling of guns. In order to prevent fatal hunting accidents it would be well for those going for game to adopt caution as the watchword at all times. And before hunting on the premises of another get permission. —SK— WHATEVER THE HOME TOWN newspaper may say in defense of Trade-At-Home policy in behalf of the home town merchants, the newspaper has learned long ere this, the price the local merchant offers his merchandise to sell to the public is the magnet that draws the shopper into the local store to trade, in this day and time. In these fast moving times the spread of keener competition is evident in all lines of the mercantile business. Competition is falling in on all sides of the small town merchant until the watchword has come to be the "survival of the fittest." The automobile has drawn competition closer to the door of the home merchant. When rural housewife can jump in the family car, travel 20 or 25 miles after a can of baking powder to a large city store and be back in time to serve hot biscuits for breakfast. The rural housewife has learned a thing or two as time progressed. She has gotten rid of the old way of trading butter, eggs and poultry for flour, calico, and a spool of thread at the local merchant's store. She has made out a budget for household upkeep. Best of all she has learned to read the advertisements published in newspapers. She has educated herself by reading the prices offered on merchandise. She compares prices and trades with the merchant that can offer the best buy for her money. It matters not the travel of a few miles to reach the store that offers the most for her money. She has the automobile and the time to save money.
