Buffs Terrorize Tahoka 44-0

The Stanton Buffs recorded their second District 3-AA victory on the home field Friday night by licking Tahoka 44-0.

The Buffs went through the air and over the ground and scored in every period to trample Tahoka before the large homecoming throng.

The Buffaloes, playing without the services of Tommy Newman, who broke an arm playing at Denver City last week, rolled 230 yards on the ground and gained another 90 yards in the air.

Jimmy Sale was converted from fullback to fill Newman's shoes and the agile back ran for 38 yards, passed for one touchdown and took a touchdown pass for another Bison counter. Sale set the stage for his third touchdown heave with an interception of a Tahoka aerial.

Stanton's Arnold Fincher scored first on a three-yard burst through the line after the Buffaloes marched 75-yards to open up the offense. He added two extra points and a few minutes later, Thad Koonce recovered a free ball in the Tahoka end zone for Stanton's second TD.

In the second period Koonce took the pigskin off a single wing formation and raced across the visitor's goal line for another touchdown. Fullback Jimmy Sale ran over the conversion, giving Stanton a 22-0 half-time lead.

Koonce intercepted one of the 27 aerials lofted by Tahoka to set up Stanton's initial scoring in the second period. Quarterback Reddy Church handed Koonce the six-point mail bag from the two-yard line and the halfback also affixed the PAT.

Pass plays brought the Buffaloes their last two touchdowns. Sale tossed End Lyndon Huckaby a TD-aerial covering 58 yards, ran for the two-point conversion and then, in the fourth quarter, received a 20-yard (Continued on page 4)

Democratic Ticket Wins Texas Vote Lyndon Also Elected To Seat In United States Senate

John Fitzgerald Kennedy will lead the nation for the next four years with Texas' Lyndon Johnson riding high in the political saddle beside the Massachusetts nominee.

Kennedy and Johnson easily triumphed in Texas.

The Democratic team also racked up Martin County by a substantial majority. The vote ratio in the nine county boxes was almost three-to-one.

Key states in the industrial east and large cities, including New York which dumped 45 electoral votes into the Kennedy-Johnson bin were instrumental in the victory. But the south remained practically solid to give the winning team a clear majority. Lyndon Johnson delivered on his promise to keep the states below the Mason-Dixon in line for the national Democratic ticket.

The popular votes was extremely close. Nixon carried 25 states but Kennedy took the states with the big electoral votes and they will be cast for Kennedy and Johnson when the electoral college meets on December 19.

In Martin County the Kennedy-Johnson ticket won 831 votes to 350 for Nixon. Sullivan garnered 21 votes and Decker annexed a lone tally.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS—The Martin-Howard-Midland Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors plays an important role in establishing a West Texas Soil Testing Laboratory. From left, the board members are Vice-Chairman Bob Cox of Tarzan, who also serves on the Soil Laboratory Committee; Chairman Jack Buchanan of Luther; Larry Shaw of Knott; Secretary Bernard Houston of Stanton and J. D. Crawford of Midland.

Lubbock Gets Testing Lab

A dream, long cherished by the Martin-Howard-Midland Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors, will become a reality on November 21. That date marks the Lubbock opening of a new Soil Testing Laboratory, staffed and equipped to concentrate solely on West Texas fertility problems.

Aware of the need to remove guesswork from the use of commercial fertilizer, the board members started formulating plans two years ago, to build a soil testing laboratory in the Big Spring area. Modern laboratory equipment was purchased, but the small group still faced a monumental task. Soil Conservation Districts are political sub-divisions of the state, but without power of taxation. Therefore, the non-salaried supervisors must depend entirely upon contributions to pay operating expenses of the district.

When the A&M College Agricultural Extension Service, aided by the West Texas Laboratory Committee, moved to build a laboratory in Lubbock, the district supervisors welcomed the opportunity to join hands and contributed their equipment, valued at approximately $2,000, to the effort.

"It was only through such generosity that we were able to proceed," Director John E. Hutchison said.

Board Secretary Bernard Houston urges farmers to avail themselves of this new resource. "At $2 per sample, a soil test is one of the best bargains available. The county agent, vocational agriculture teachers and Soil Conservation Service technicians can answer any questions that may arise concerning soil samples," he said.

Soil samples should be mailed to Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Soil Testing Laboratory, Route 1, Lubbock, Texas.

Philosopher Wants A Few Points Cleared Up About Who's To Work Harder Next Year

Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his grass farm on Mustang Draw is not letting the election outcome bother him, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

Now that the election is over there are a few things I'd like to get cleared up before the inauguration in January.

The winner, as well as the loser, kept hammering all through the campaign that we've all got to go forward, not backward, we can't stand still.

I've never seen two candidates agree more on the idea that everybody has got to stop loafing and start working.

In a general way, I agree with this, but in a specific way, I have my doubts. Well, I really don't have my doubts, I know blamed well I'm not going to work any harder in 1961 than I'm working right now.

I'm all in favor of the President, Congress, the cabinet, and General Staff, etc., working harder, of the defense plants working harder, the scientists working harder, probably the tax collectors working harder, but I have reviewed my situation out here on this Martin County grass farm and have come to the conclusion that there's not a thing I can do around here by working harder to keep a guided missile from missing, a satellite launching from fizzling, an atomic submarine from bumping into the North Pole, Fidel Castro from talking on his television, Congo tribes from fighting each other, Khrushchev from pulling off his shoe in public, etc.

However, understand, I will not hold back. I will do what I can, and wish to announce I have selected the field of foreign prestige. I intend to work harder on my prestige abroad. I have found from years of trying that it may be easier to build up your prestige with somebody on the other side of the earth than across the fence. If at any time next year it looks like I'm not going forward, I will appreciate your remembering that I'm working on my foreign prestige and I can do it just as well sitting down as riding a tractor. I would like to say in this connection though that my prestige is not at an all-time low with my neighbors. It's about where it's been for years. Never was high enough to measure in the first place.

I congratulate the new President. I don't envy him his job. Yours faithfully, J. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Matthews, Herbert Matthews and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Mims and daughter of McCamey were in Royce City Wednesday, November 2 to attend funeral services for Sam Matthews, brother of Charlie Matthews.

The sheriff was notified, the owner was found and the billfold returned.

Bible Comment—

Miracles Live In Jesus' Name

The miracles in the Gospel are numerous and significant. There is the miracle of the turning of water into wine at the marriage of Cana. After visiting Cana, Jesus heals a nobleman's sick son at Capernaum.

In Jerusalem, at the pool of Bethesda, He cures an infirm man, and because it was on the Sabbath incurs the intense hostility of certain Jews. Then comes the miracle of the feeding of the 5,000.

There is also the miracle of Jesus coming to the disciples, walking on the sea.

There is the story of the restoration of sight of the man born blind. The crowning of the miracles is the raising of Lazarus from the dead.

The testimony of these mighty works will vary in value according to one's attitude toward miracles in general.

For some the wonder-working aspect of Jesus seems larger than the spiritual significance of Jesus and his teaching.

According to The American Medical Association, an independent national survey just completed by sociologists on the faculty of Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia, "emphatically proves that the great majority of Americans over 65 are capable of financing their own health care and prefer to do it on their own, without federal government intervention." Among specific findings, the survey reveals that 61 per cent of the people interviewed considered their health was good; 29 per cent thought it fair, and only 10 per cent thought it poor. Ninety per cent could think of no personal medical needs that were not being taken care of.

For others the miracles are evidence of a wonderful life in which the supreme importance was the teaching and the life-giving power that brought new life, not to the body, but to the soul.

Jesus Himself disparaged the materialistic aspect of the miracles. To those who thronged about Him after the feeding of the 5,000 He said: "Ye seek me, not because ye saw miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled."

If men once believed in the Christ because of the miracles, today they believe in the miracles because of Christ.

State Releases 32-Page Texas Travel Brochure

The release of a full-color, 32-page travel brochure on the State of Texas was announced by the Texas Highway Department.

D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, said the new brochure is specifically designed for free distribution to attract out-of-state tourists. First of its kind ever published in Texas, it is intended to serve as a showcase of Texas' scenic, historic, recreational, and cultural attractions.

Greer described the colorful brochure, which covers the entire state geographically, as "another milestone in the travel promotion program conducted by the Highway Department."

He said the next step in this program is the submission of a media advertising budget to the Texas Legislature, which meets in January. The Highway Department has asked, with the concurrence of the Texas Development Board, for an appropriation of $300,000 a year for the next two years to advertise the tourist attractions of Texas.

"The media advertising program," Greer said, "is a necessity to halt the appalling downward trend of the Texas tourist industry. The amount we will ask for media advertising ($300,000 a year) is the minimum required to shore up the rapid decline in tourist revenue which Texas now faces."

Greer reviewed the progress made in establishing a tourist promotion program in Texas. He noted that in the past Texas had been unable to compete for tourists by advertising because it was prohibited by the State Constitution. A constitutional amendment was approved by popular vote in 1958 allowing the advertisement of the state's tourist resources.

The Texas Legislature in 1959 set up the legal machinery authorizing state media advertising and delegating the responsibility for this program to the Texas Highway Department. Senate Bill 152 stated that funds for media advertising must come from the General Fund, but no money was made available in 1959 for this purpose. (Highway Department funds were used to pay publishing costs of the new travel brochure and for other collateral phases of the travel promotion program including publication of the Texas Official Highway Travel Map and operation of the Highway Tourist Bureaus.)

Greer expressed confidence that funds for state advertising would be made available by the coming session of the Legislature. "I feel that since the people of Texas made their wishes known by voting favorably on the constitutional amendment authorizing state advertising, the Legislature will follow this mandate from the people by providing adequate funds for an effective media advertising program," Greer said.

HERE! EASIER GOING FOR THE DRIVER AND THE LOAD, LONGER LIFE FOR THE TRUCK!

'61 TORSION-SPRING CHEVROLETS

If you don't think scrapping the front axle has made a world of difference, you haven't driven a Chevy in a while. A few minutes behind the wheel and you can feel why drivers are happier and breakable loads are better protected. But the biggest advantage of all, you'll realize, is that the truck itself (sheet metal, tires, chassis components, everything) takes less abuse. With independent front suspension soaking up road shock and vibration, the truck lasts longer, goes extra thousands of miles before trade-in time. Add that to what everybody's always known about Chevy dependability and you find yourself looking at the soundest truck investment you could bet your business on.

and look! NEW REAR-ENGINE CORVAIR 95's

A panel and two pickups that put a thrifty air-cooled engine in the rear, the driver up front and as much as 1,900 pounds of load space in between! That's more capacity than a conventional half-tonner. Yet these Corvaire 95's are nearly two feet shorter from bumper to bumper. Highly maneuverable. Built to last and bound to save on a busy schedule!

CORVAIR—Side doors open a full 49" wide. Loading height is a low 14" HPI

Post Office Helps Count Livestock

Rural mail carriers from the Stanton post office will leave some livestock survey cards along their routes beginning November 16.

"Information reported on these cards is used to set the yearly inventory of livestock and poultry on Texas farms," Postmaster Leta Eidson explained.

In distributing the cards, rural carriers pick boxes at random along their routes.

"This means that not every box will get a card," Mrs. Eidson said. "For this reason, it's important for everyone who gets a card to return it filled out so the USDA can get a true sample of the State's livestock holdings."

Carriers assisting with the survey are: Mrs. Oma C. Saunders, Route 1; and Mrs. Dee Rogers, Star Route. Facts and figures secured in this survey are the basis for the Texas and National pig crop report and inventories of livestock and poultry on farms as of the first of the year. Stockmen and many other use this information in making business decisions.

Survey results will be widely distributed through the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service releases, newspapers, farm magazines, radio and television.

"This annual survey has been a joint undertaking of the Post Office and the Agriculture Departments since 1924," concludes Mrs. Eidson.

Review Rules Before Going On Deer Hunt

"Hunters heading for the field beginning opening day, November 16, should take time out now to rehearse some important musts," suggests J. B. Phillips, assistant director of law enforcement, Texas Game and Fish Commission. "This involves everything from giving equipment of the hunt a once-over to the care of the kill."

Each year brings tragedy to the families of many hunters because of faulty guns or failure to obey the rules of safe hunting, according to Phillips. "A careful review of these rules and a double check of rifles and ammo may be more important than many hunters realize," he warned.

The assistant director also reminded hunters that crippled deer are potential killers. "Be positive that the deer you shoot are dead before getting too close to them. Only recently a story from out of the state told about a hunter who was killed by a wounded deer."

The woods this hunting season will be filled with hunters. Many of them will be out for the first time, and they will not be on guard at all times. The director suggested that these novices be extra careful, both when handling their rifles and when sighting in on deer. "Be certain it's a deer—a legal deer."

Taking care of the meat after the deer has been bagged also is important. "Know how to properly care for venison before you shoot. Lots of good meat is lost each year because of spoilage," said the direc-

WEATHER AIDS HARVESTING

Ranges Improved In All Texas Ranching Sections

Texas farmers welcomed the return this week of open weather.

Harvests had been stopped or delayed in all sections due to rains which has been excessive in southern areas while the first freeze and frost were recorded in northwest areas, according to Director John E. Hutchison of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Hutchison said the winter-like weather in the northwest apparently had caused little or no damage and is expected to be an aid to machine harvesting of cotton. Both cotton and grain sorghum harvest are resuming in that area as fields again become dry enough to permit field work.

Range conditions in all sections of the state were improved by the rains as were small grains, the director said. Livestock are in good condition in all sections as ranchmen and stockmen prepare for the winter season. Moisture is adequate to surplus in all sections of Texas.

W. W. Gresham Jr. from Amarillo said that moisture was adequate in all counties in the Panhandle and that cattle are being moved in increasing numbers to wheat pastures. The cotton and grain sorghum harvests are resuming.

Little Damage

Light frost on the South Plains district did little damage to cotton said W. H. Jones from Lubbock. He added that good weather had speeded up harvests.

Fields have dried enough to permit a resumption of the cotton and grain sorghum harvests in the rolling plains section, reported James Simmons from Vernon. He said small grains were making excellent growth and that ranges were described as good.

Moisture is adequate in North Central Texas and ranges and pastures are good for this time of the year, said Ted Martin from Denton.

Two inches of rain last week has left fields too wet to work but have improved pastures and growth of legumes and small grain crops, said John Surovik from Mt. Pleasant. Most cotton in this northeast Texas district has been harvested but other harvesting is at a standstill.

Grains Helped

Last week's rains have improved range conditions in all counties in far West Texas and fall sown grains were also aided and will soon be furnishing grazing, said Ray Seigmund from Ft. Stockton. Cotton harvest had been slowed.

Conditions have improved greatly since the good rains of last week and livestock are going into the winter season in good condition, said Roy Huckabee from San Angelo. The cotton harvest, about 75 per cent complete, has been delayed but a good pecan harvest is in progress.

Rainy, cloudy and cool weather has stopped the cotton harvest, which is near completion, and delayed the peanut harvest in Central Texas, reported R. G. Burwell from Stephenville. He said moisture was adequate in all counties and that livestock were in good condition.

Excessive rains in some counties caused packing and washing of cultivated soils and overflows in river bottoms in South Central Texas, said Joe Glover from Gonzales. Ranges and pastures are good and stock tanks full of water in the area.

October Water Demands Are Up For CRMWD

Despite a wet October, water consumption turned up for the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

O. H. Ivie, assistant general manager-production, reported a 17.5 per cent increase over October of a year ago. This boosted the year's total to 3.6 per cent over the first 10 months of 1959.

The big increase was in municipal consumption, but the oil repressuring demands for surplus water also gained substantially. Member cities of Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder used 505,478,000 gallons, 21.6 per cent over a year ago. The oil units of SACROC, Sharon Ridge, Lions Oil and Texas Gulf used 225,316,000 gallons against 206,706,000 a year ago, or a gain of 9.2 per cent.

Odessa's figures were 281,456,000 for October against 222,810,000 a year ago. Big Spring 174,155,000 against 148,752,000 and Snyder 49,867,000 against 43,681,000.

The 10-month total for this year stands at 8,214,000,000 (billion) gallons compared with 7,932,000,000 for the same period in 1959.

October rains, while not dulling demands, brought the blessing of 54,000 additional acre feet, or about 18 billion gallons, more water into Lake J. B. Thomas. Saturday morning the elevation was 2,258.10, which is slightly an inch over spillway. The excess water has been draining through the service spillway for 19 consecutive days.

"If you don't know how to care for the meat, ask someone before the hunt."

Public Hunt Permits Ready For Mailing

A total 3,941 public hunt permits were drawn November 1 at the Game and Fish Commission offices in Austin, according to the director of wildlife restoration. The permits are now being addressed and will be mailed out to the hunters whose names were picked at the public drawing.

By deadline time, 16,727 deer hunters and 685 duck hunters had mailed in their applications for a free hunt. These applications, in postcard size, were then dropped into a big barrel. As the barrel revolved, single cards were picked out. Only the cards for a particular area were placed in the barrel at any one time.

As it turned out, for the Big Hill Bayou waterfowl hunt 602 names were drawn; 321 names for the Kerr Area deer hunt; 403 names for the Black Gap Area; 800 for Canyon; 81 for the Sierra Diablo Area; 153 for Engeling; and 681 for the Angelina Area.

The 1960 hunts will be conducted like last year's hunts, with hunters reporting to their designated area headquarters before the hunt. Each hunter will be given maps and other information necessary for a safe and successful hunt at these headquarters.

Each individual whose name was picked from the barrel in Austin can expect to be notified in time to make plans and prepare for the trip to his particular area, according to the director.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Alexander and son of Ozona visited this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Williamson.

Frank Gray To Head Area Soil Testing Lab

"A tremendous asset to Plains farmers," is Frank Gray's description of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service's new Soil Testing Laboratory slated for formal opening in Lubbock on November 21. Gray, an active agricultural leader for many years, has served on the Lubbock County Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors since October, 1953, and as a member of the State Soil Conservation Board since May, 1959. He also currently serves as Chairman of the West Texas Soil Laboratory Committee, a group which has played a vital role in the establishment of this important facility.

Frank Gray

Gray called for continued close cooperation of all agricultural agencies and local soil conservation districts in aiding farmers to make maximum use of the soil testing laboratory. "Proper fertilization is necessary for the best economic returns from our soil and water resources," Gray said. He emphasized that "proper fertilization" includes attention to organic matter needs as well as to inorganic fertilizer requirements.

On behalf of his committee, Gray expressed deep appreciation to the various groups whose contributions have made the laboratory a reality. They include Goodpasture Grain and Milling Company, Inc. of Brownfield; American State Bank, Lubbock National Bank, First National Bank, Plains National Bank, Citizens' National Bank, Plains Cooperative Oil Mill, Farmers Cooperative Compress, West Texas Compress and Warehouse, Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock Cotton Oil Company, Lubbock Production Credit Association and Western Cotton Oil Company, all of Lubbock; Hale County Farm Bureau; The Martin-Howard-Midland Soil Conservation District, and the Lubbock County Commissioners Court.

Cotton Crop Estimate Out

The Agriculture Department estimated the 1960 cotton crop today at 14,298,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight.

This total was 255,000 bales less than last month's forecast of 14,553,000 bales. It compared with last year's crop of 14,558,000 bales and with the 10-year average (1948-58) of 13,710,000 bales.

Supplementing the crop will be a reserve and surplus supply of about 7,600,000 bales accumulated from past crops. A large share of this is stored under a government farm price support program.

The yield of cotton per harvested acre was estimated at 442 pounds compared with 450 pounds forecast in October, 462 pounds in 1959 and 345 for the 10-year average.

The Census Bureau said 8,423,736 bales had been ginned prior to November 1. This compared with 9,713,919 last year.

Federal Judge Joe E. Estes holding court in Abilene Tuesday morning levied a $1,000 fine and a one-year probated sentence on a plea of guilty by a former Big Spring druggist, Alfred R. Collins, to three counts of dispensing drugs without prescriptions.

After sentence was passed, Assistant District Attorney Bill Hughes moved that nine other counts of dispensing drugs without a prescription be dismissed. The motion was granted.

Drugs listed in the three counts brought Tuesday were penicillin and dextro-amphetamine sulphate, which Hughes said was a stimulant.

Alfred Collins disposed of his drug store interests in Big Spring several months ago.

DUNCAN'S Canterbury

Delicately reminiscent of real Canterbury bells, from which it takes its name, this lovely glassware is both dainty and sturdy. Graceful enough to harmonize with furnishings of "period" design; while its sturdiness lends itself to modern settings. It's open stock, too, and a "beginner" set can grow into a complete service. Izmir's Mosques Top Turkish Sight

By Shorty Shelburne
IZMIR, TURKEY—If I were called upon to name the one most unforgettable thing about Turkey, I would say it is the mosques with their thin minarets rising high above them.

Turkey. It has six minarets, more than any other mosque in the world except the Kaaba in Mecca. There are no bells in the minarets, such as are found in the steeples of churches in America. The minaret does, however, serve the same purpose in a way because it is from a special platform on the minaret that the "muezzin" or "hodia" (crier) calls out five times a day to bring the faithful moslems to prayer.

Nine of 10 Asthmatic Children at Tucson School Show Improvement

Tucson, Ariz.—Nine of every 10 resident asthmatic pupils at Saburo school here, operated by the National Foundation for Asthmatic Children, showed improvement after a two-year sojourn, according to R. W. F. Schmidt, foundation president.

Degree of improvement, as reported by Schmidt, was as follows: excellent, 44.6 per cent; moderate, 19.1 per cent, and fair, 29.6 per cent.

"Our resident children are all asthmatic of the perennial type, with many factors involved in their chronic conditions," Schmidt said. "They are, by admission policy, intractable cases of asthma."

"Our first contact with the asthmatic child is usually through the family doctor who, in most cases, sends in the medical report. Regional allergy consultants throughout the United States cooperate in screening children for the school."

"The application must be from a family of low income and must include social service report from a private or public welfare agency. These agencies have cooperated in helping the families while the child is at Saburo school and have been invaluable in helping the child adjust himself to his home upon his return."

"Psychological tests which have been performed would indicate that a majority of our pupils are above the normal range. The percentage of absenteeism is lower, generally, than that for the public school system for normal children. More children are able to participate in group activities at Saburo school than at home, as indicated by figures for the various types of recreation."

"We feel that the program at Saburo school, based upon climate, individualized medical care, change of environment, educational program and recreational facilities, has resulted in an effective, very workable plan for the rehabilitation of the asthmatic child."

The program of the National Foundation for Asthmatic Children is made possible through public contributions.

Supervised Recreation Aids Recovery of Asthmatic Children at Tucson School

Tucson, Ariz.—Supervised recreation, mostly out-of-doors, is an important phase of the Saburo school, operated here by the National Foundation for Asthmatic Children, according to A. B. Sisch, national executive director.

"Mild climate of Arizona makes it possible for the asthmatic children to play outside most of the time and permits a varied and extensive recreational program," Sisch declared. "Few of the boys and girls were able to engage in group recreation at home, but at Saburo school most of them find it possible to participate in swimming, group dancing, baseball, basketball, running and other games."

"Supervised swimming is one of the most popular, healthful forms of recreation. Singing and breathing exercises help to promote diaphragm function. Activities such as trips to the nearby mountains, picnics and visits to the Arizona Sonora Desert museum are all part of the carefully planned program."

"Social activities are encouraged to provide group participation. These include Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, stamp clubs, entertainment committees and others."

Saburo school comprises a neat cluster of buildings resting on a picturesque knoll and extends over 10 rolling acres. There are 13 buildings, including five dormitories for approximately 65 children. Ten to 12 children, depending on the age group, are assigned to a dormitory, with a house mother in charge of each.

The dining hall, with an attached modern kitchen, provides meals at one sitting for all children. The infirmary provides 10 beds, and there is an adjoining, completely-furnished clinic. There is also an arts-and-crafts building.

Other buildings provide facilities for modern, up-to-date schooling for the school currently is providing resident care under medical supervision to up to 65 asthmatic boys and girls, aged six to 12 years, from all parts of the nation.

The foundation, which provides schooling and medical care for needy, asthmatic children without regard to race or creed, is supported through funds contributed annually by the public.

Editor's Mail

Austin, Texas November 3, 1960 Mr. Neal Estes, Editor The Stanton Reporter

For your past help in telling Texans about tuberculosis and its prevention and control, I thank you. I hope that you will again aid in giving information on TB to your readers, particularly during November and December, the time of the Christmas Seal campaign. These Seals support the year-round work of the tuberculosis association.

TB today is not the threat it once was — partly because of efforts of newspaper writers to inform the people of its dangers and how to protect themselves. TB is today a preventable and curable disease. Yet, another American contracts TB each seven minutes. And then the disease is cruelly expensive in human energy, in depriving children of parent or parent of child, and in money.

Christmas Seals will be mailed November 14 to people all over Texas. The money which comes from the Seals supports efforts to find TB cases early, while cure is easiest, supports work to insure adequate hospitalization, supports work to aid in finding jobs for recovered patients, supports work in medical research against the disease.

Your use of the attached fillers, editorials based on the enclosed Fact Sheet on Tuberculosis, and mats will be greatly appreciated. I will be sending you other mats and stories and I hope that you will use them. Your help in this effort, I believe, will bring the day closer when TB is no longer a threat.

Sincerely, (Mrs.) Bess Harris Jones Texas Tuberculosis Association Director, Public Relations.

Thomas Expresses Faith In West Texas' Future

J. B. Thomas, president and general manager of Texas Electric Service Company, Wednesday night, November 2, cited the company's phenomenal growth and expressed "the greatest faith in West Texas."

"I am not afraid of the future," he assured more than 600 employees and guests at the annual Western Division dinner in the American Legion Auditorium, Odessa. "You work on the opportunity frontier of Texas."

Texas Electric gained 8,100 customers in the last 12 months, and the company now has 323,000 customers, Thomas reported.

TESCO numbers 2,700 employees, with 289 having been with the firm 25 years or longer.

The Odessa dinner honored members of the Quarter-Century Club, recognized as new members were Cecil Bridges, TESCO, manager at Stanton, and J. R. Watson of Monahan, shift engineer at the company's Permian Basin power plant. Both were presented gold wrist watches by Thomas.

In reviewing the company's growth, Thomas said peak usage the last year was "more than 1,000,000 more kilowatts than a year ago."

He said TESCO was "about the only utility that hasn't had to ask for a rate increase in the past year, and I don't know how long we'll hold out."

The featured speaker was Dr. Carl S. (Sam) Winters of Oak Park, Ill., member of the General Motors lecture staff.

"We don't have to be afraid of atomic war; all we have to be afraid of is the fingertip of the man who can set it off," the former Baptist pastor declared.

"Opportunity Unlimited" was the title of his inspirational address.

"Opportunity is unlimited if you develop character, think and accept responsibility," Dr. Winter contended.

Division Manager W. G. Marquardt of Midland was master of ceremonies. Another Midlander, William Keel, voiced the invocation.

Del Morning and his orchestra furnished music for dancing following the dinner.

General office representatives accompanied President Thomas from Fort Worth on the West Texas swing.

IT'S THE LAW

COPYRIGHTS

America has led the way in protecting the fruit of man's mind. Our literature, drama, scholarship, and vast media of public information prosper because of our copyright law.

Are you an author? An artist? A playwright? Or are you thinking of going into such work? If so, find out about copyright law. It protects you—against copying, but not against independent reproduction of a similar work.

A copyright enables you to sue him in the federal courts for damages and collect—if someone copies your work or any substantial part of it without permission.

The most important single thing about copyrights is this: Do not publish anything until you find out what kind of a copyright notice you need. If you publish without proper notice, you lose all rights in the work.

As long as your book is not published, you own the script. The common law protects your rights in it the same as in any other property. For an unpublished book you need no added legal safeguard. You cannot register its copyright.

But you may copyright such work as a play, lecture, sermon, or art work, though it has not been published.

A book's copyright may be registered in the author's name or anyone he selects, such as the publisher, who can better guard the copyright or grant proper consent to quote the book, under a contract between himself and his publisher.

Here are some other kinds of work you can copyright: Poems, newspapers, maps, photographs, dramatic and musical compositions.

A copyright is good for 28 years. You may renew it once so as to keep it in effect for a total of 56 years.

You may apply for a copyright at this address: Register of Copyrights, Library of Congress, Washington, D. C. Note briefly the kind of work you wish to copyright.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

THE ORIGIN OF FUTURE TB CASES

Most new cases of tuberculosis will come from people now infected. The 20 per cent of our nation's population estimated to have been infected with TB germs sometime in the past will contribute three out of four of the new cases in the next few years. The rest will come from people not now infected. Christmas Seal donations help to find these infected people.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM YOUR State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD

Like a debutante daughter in beaufant gown, Texas' many charms have been wrapped in a lavish, full-color booklet and presented for the attraction of free-spending visitors.

First of its kind ever published in Texas, the 32-page brochure was compiled by the State Highway Department and is being distributed free. First printing of 400,000 copies is being sent to travel agencies, clubs, newspapers, anywhere that it may be used to draw tourists to Texas.

It is one of the first big steps in a program to reverse Texas' decline in tourist revenue.

Texas is "twenty years behind the times" in advertising tourist attractions, says Tom H. Taylor, director of the Travel and Information Division of the Highway Department. Next goal is to get the Legislature to appropriate $300,000 to be used for media advertising over the country, as other states do.

Requests for copies of the brochure should be sent to the Travel and Information Division of the Texas Highway Department in Austin, Taylor said. The Department expects heavy demand and will not be able to furnish the booklet in quantities.

MORE WATER AID IS GOAL — Gov. Price Daniel said he will ask the next Legislature to take action aimed at speeding up local water conservation projects.

Speaking to the Texas Water Conservation Association, the governor said he would urge more money for water projects and a more flexible financing program.

Marvin Nichols of Fort Worth, chairman of the Texas Water Development Board, urged that the present ceiling of $5,000,000 on any one water loan be raised to $15,000,000. Under the present water development program the state sells bonds to raise money to lend to local governments to help pay for water conservation construction. Lending is limited to one-third the total cost and $5,000,000 on any one project.

Nichols said the Water Development Board was "admittedly disappointed" in the small number of loans (eight for a total of $14,840,000) completed since the program was passed in 1957. Abundant rainfall has caused many local governments to lose a sense of urgency about water conservation, said Nichols.

Several speakers warned of the certainty of another drought. "Biggest problem in many cities by 1980 may be getting a good drink of water," said one.

INSURANCE RATE HIKE REJECTED — State Board of Insurance turned down by a unanimous vote a proposed 30 per cent increase in auto insurance rates.

Board will re-study the problem in June, 1961. Until then the present rates will continue.

Board also turned down by a 2-to-1 vote a proposal by Chairman Penn J. Jackson to allow companies to take the merit rating system option.

State taxes collected on the sale of cigarettes, liquor and wine for October ran $1,589,729 higher than the same month a year ago, said State Treasurer Jesse James.

Total collections were $8,478,197. Number of employed persons in Texas hit 3,433,000 during September.

HUFFING AND PUFFING

You see much of human nature shining through our laws. "Puffing" is a case in point.

Your salesman may get carried away and claim too much for his product. Sometimes you can force him to make good on his claims, or give you your money back.

But not if he was merely "puffing." Puffing is not true warranty. Suppose a salesman claims that if you buy his car—whammy! The girls will come running for dates.

That is puffing. An opinion at best. Anyone should know better than to believe it. Anyhow, no court is likely to force the salesman to make good his claim.

But suppose the salesman claims his car is new or that nobody else in town could get it. And suppose prompt payment in cost-sharing as he completes portions of his soil and water conservation plan.

The core of the voluntary Great Plains Conservation Program is a complete soil and water conservation plan, based upon thorough surveys of soil and plant conditions and on the problems and needs of the individual farmer and rancher.

The needed practices are applied according to a schedule planned with the help of Soil Conservation Service technicians familiar with the best conservation methods for the farmer's or rancher's own area.

The plan is to be carried out in from three to ten years, although the average is from three to five years. Adjustments in the time schedule can be made as conditions require.

Contact the Soil Conservation Service for details on practices which can be cost-shared under the Great Plains Conservation Program.

Have you heard of the Great Plains Conservation Program? A farmer or rancher can apply a complete farm or ranch conservation plan at a stepped-up pace through the cost-share help of the program. This program is administered by the Soil Conservation Service.

1961 Poster Child for March of Dimes Is Victim of Two Grave Birth Defects

This likeness of Linda Breese appears on millions of posters and coin collectors

Linda Gall Breese, a pictorial and high-spirited young lady of four, who lives in Columbus, Ohio, was named this week as the 1961 New March of Dimes National Poster Child.

Selection of the vivacious child, a victim of the grave birth defects of an open spine and excess fluid on the brain, was announced by Basil O'Connor, president of The National Foundation, parent body of the New March of Dimes. Study and patient aid in birth defects and arthritis, together with continued work in polio, embody the expanded program of the health organization.

In January, during which the New March of Dimes will be held throughout the nation, Linda will probably feel she is facing mirrors everywhere she travels. That's because millions of posters will bear her likeness which, in drawings and photographs, will also be published in thousands of newspapers and magazines. The blonde and blue-eyed child will also appear on network television.

Linda's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dean E. Breese. Her father is an industrial engineer. Her mother, Dorothy Lehr Breese, in addition to Linda has another daughter, Susan, 14, and two sons, Ronnie, 12, and Terry, 10. Tragically, since there is handicapped Linda among the Breese children, Ronnie is a victim of cerebral palsy but his general physical condition is described as good.

Mrs. Breese has been a Mothers' Marcher for the annual March of Dimes. "My husband and I are deeply grateful that at last something constructive is being done about birth defects," she says. "We pray that The National Foundation which, through public contributions to the March of Dimes, financed the development of the Salk polio vaccine, will in time also solve the puzzle of birth defects, which are the largest unmet childhood medical problem in our country today."

Emphasizing the enormity of the problem, Mrs. Breese cited statistics showing that 250,000 infants in the United States are born annually with significant birth defects. Also, because of these congenital malformations, 34,000 babies a year in the nation are stillborn or die in the first four weeks of life.

Linda underwent surgery to close her spine when she was less than a day old. The operation was performed at Children's Hospital, Columbus, where The National Foundation with March of Dimes funds established the nation's first Birth Defects Study Center a few months ago. Nine months later, she again had surgery for excess fluid on the brain, and the little girl today wears a "shunt" tube to drain off this liquid. Linda also uses crutches but has been able to discard her leg braces. Recently, while helping her mother wash dishes, she took three steps without her crutches—a memorable and hopeful event.

The Launching Pad

By NEAL ESTES

BIOGRAPHY IS THE ONLY TRUE HISTORY.

—CARLYLE.

Our prayers and best wishes go to our old and loyal friend LYNDON JOHNSON and to SENATOR JOHN KENNEDY. They are destined to write history.

THE STANTON STUDY CLUB is launching a campaign through ticket sales to finance the local library. The tickets will be sold for $1 each and if a thousand of the ducats can be disposed of a nice nest egg will have been provided for any future expansion of the library. This is indeed a very worthy project and all civic organizations in the county should back the drive.

Congratulations are in order this week for two Stantonites. CECIL BRIDGES, local manager of TEXAS ELECTRIC SERVICE COMPANY wins plaudits from his friends and this column for being elected to membership in his company's 25-year club. MISS DIANE TURNER, daughter of MR. and Mrs. O. C. TURNER, was chosen football queen at the Friday evening homecoming game. DIANE is a very charming young lady and we are sure she will wear her new honor well.

We talked with JIMMY ALLISON Monday morning as usual. JIMMY advised us of the illness of our old side-kick BILL COLLYNS. BILL recently underwent major surgery in MIDLAND MEMORIAL HOSPITAL and his battalion of friends in this area will be delighted to know that he will be home again this week and in a few days back in the top editorial spot at the REPORTER-TELEGRAM.

The writer talked with ALBERT (PEE-WEE) JOHNSON up in STANTON DRUG Sunday morning. JOHNSON, a former Martin County resident and also former deputy sheriff in DAN SAUNDER'S department, is now working with PHILLIPS PETROLEUM COMPANY in Kermit, Texas. He is the son of MRS. VIRGIE JOHNSON, this city.

November has always been a month of events in the ESTES family. The second month of Autumn is loaded with birthday and anniversary and other important events. We are sure other families have months that crowd the calendar with similar events. Our brother, CARL, was born on November 10 and our birthday falls under the sign of Scorpio on November 12. In our family, the others used to joke and say Armistice Day, or Veteran's Day now, was observed on the 11th of November to keep the peace between the two newspapermen in the clan.

We watched the leaves drop from the big tree in front of the newspaper building this week. Monday's breeze was strong enough to whisk them off and out into the street. Truly, this was the sign of golden November, the month when leaves turn brown and drop to the ground. PHIL BAXTER, a native of East Texas and a song writer who put the words and music to that old tune, "Faded Summer Love," apparently had something. PHIL used to wear a flower in his coat lapel and we dubbed him, "Walking Boquet." He married a Carthage girl, MARY LOUISE HOLMES, and went on to the bigger call in California. We doubt he ever composed a better lyric than the song mentioned above—anyway, that's what the drifting leaves from the tree reminded us of Monday.

Your writer serves as the county representative for the TEXAS ELECTION BUREAU. That is the organization located in THE DALLAS NEWS building in Dallas that receives and compiles the official election returns from the 254 counties in the state. Without the cooperation of JUDGE JIM McCOY, and our very efficient county clerk, DORIS STEPHENSON, we just couldn't make the election nights. The past Tuesday evening we gained some added support. MRS. McCOY aided the courthouse staff in receiving returns and MISS EUNICE JAN STEPHENSON, daughter of DORIS, was a very fine helper too. She is a very lovely girl. We also want to commend the efficient services of CLARENCE AIRHART who accepted the ballot boxes for the sheriff's department.
