GIRL SCOUT WEEK

If the old weather saw about "in like a lamb, out like a lion" holds true, then March will go out with a determined roar 31 days from Sunday. The mercury soared to a pleasant 69 in Stanton and some residents took their children strolling in the bright, warm, sunny day. It was truly shirt-sleeve weather. A few more days like March 1 and we can look for plenty of activity around the residential sections when Spring house-cleaning starts. We must necessarily look for a cold spell or two before Easter though. And very few Easter Sundays have gone in the record books without high winds.

West Texas cowmen had mixed feelings this week about the announced plan of the U. S. Department of Agriculture to initiate a beef buying program to halt price drops and counter demands for legislation on meat imports. Most said the measure would give little relief to declining cattle prices. Some said the purchases might reduce an oversupply of heavyweight beef. One comment was to the effect that 30 days in promoting heavier grades would put beef producers in a much healthier marketing condition.

March is a month of many events and important dates. It is the month when violets and jonquils bloom — the month when buds burst into glory. March 17 is the day of celebration for the Irish when they pay homage to the beloved St. Patrick. March 21 is hailed as the first day of Spring. This year, too, March falls heir to Easter. Maundy Thursday will be observed on March 26; Good Friday on March 27 and Sunday, March 29, brings Easter.

MRS. LEWIS CARLILE has advised us that the MARTIN COUNTY FARM BUREAU is looking for a permanent office secretary. The job is for 40 hours weekly. The Bureau feels like the employment of a regular paid secretary will enable the organization to give more assistance to members. OWEN KELLY is president of the MARTIN COUNTY FARM BUREAU.

Therwhanger Is New Sheriff Deputy

G. B. Therwhanger has recently moved to Stanton where he will begin duties as deputy sheriff, tax assessor-collector, according to an announcement made by Sheriff Dan Saunders.

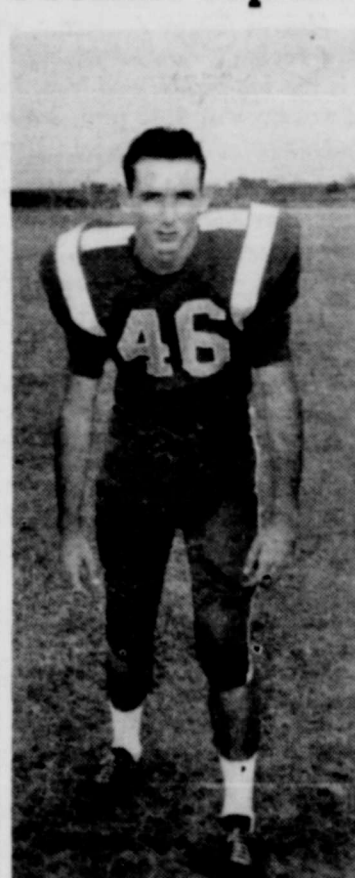

Therwhanger, age 36, is a native of the Klondike Community in Dawson County, and for the past five years has served as deputy sheriff under Sheriff Henry Mayfield in Lamesa. Prior to that he was a captain of guards at Huntsville prison for three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Therwhanger are now living at 202 N. St. Charles Street. They have three children, Karen, age 15, a sophomore in high school; Kathy, 13 years old, who is an eighth grade student; and Alfred, age 17, a junior in high school, who will remain in Lamesa for the remainder of the school term.

Sheriff Saunders stated that Jack Hankins, a pusher for Mobile Oil Co., and a resident of Stanton for the past 12 years, will continue as a part time deputy.

Carl Lawson Is New Buffalo Football Captain

Carl Lawson

Carl Lawson has been selected as football captain of the Stanton Buffaloes for the 1964-1965 season, according to head football coach, Bill Milam.

Lawson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lawson of Stanton, and will be a senior next year. He has played football for three years, starting as a substitute and working his way up to the starting lineup. He has played guard and linebacker, but due to lack of material, may be called upon to play tackle next season. "He is not as large as" (Continued on page 4)

No Federal Poll Receipts Sold To Date

Registration in Martin County under the new federal law abolishing the poll tax has amounted to nothing as of this publication date.

The "free" poll tax receipts have simply gone begging. Maybe all prospective voters secured their regular and required paid tax receipt priced at $1.75 each earlier. The "free" poll tax receipts will not permit a person to vote in a city, county or state election anyway. A voter with a free poll receipt can only vote in federal elections.

March 6 is the deadline for such registration which permits the holder of the free poll tax to vote in the federal elections.

Stanton Girls Team Loses Bi-District Game

The Stanton girls' basketball team winner of the 7-AA crown, was defeated by Granbury, winner of District 8-AA, in the first game of the regional play-offs at Abilene, by a score of 58-37.

The game was played in Rose Field House, Hardin-Simmons University, at 8:00 p.m. March 3.

Coach Milam stated that, "Granbury had too much experience and speed for our girls, who are only freshmen and sophomores. The Granbury team was made up of juniors and seniors."

Linda Franklin and Mary Stuard were in double figures with 12 points apiece; Janelle

Mahon Tells Why He Voted No Tax Bill

Congressman George Mahon, this district, one of three Texas Democrats who voted against final passage of the tax cut bill in the House of Representatives, said he had been committed over a period of many months to vote against the measure.

Mahon said he went on record earlier that he was against a tax cut "unless there was a sharp reduction in government spending."

He said his commitment was made "long before President Johnson took office, and the President has always known of my feelings on this bill."

Mahon said the President "is trying to hold the line in government spending and has a strong economy move underway."

"This I applaud very much," Mahon said, "but we have not been able as yet to make sharp reduction in defense spending."

Commissioner's Court Closes Old Dump

The old dump grounds south of Stanton have been closed by Dan Saunders, Sheriff of Martin County, under orders of the commissioners court.

Sheriff Saunders stated: "That all dumping must be done at the new dump grounds located one mile east, one mile north, and one mile east again from Stanton, effective immediately."

Farm Bureau Meet Set To Talk Insurance

The meeting will get started promptly at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Bridges will hold a question and answer forum at the conclusion of his talk and will endeavor to answer any and all questions.

March Arrives On Docile Note

The proverbial March lion was rather docile in the Permian Basin Sunday.

He didn't do much roaring as generally mild weather prevailed over the area.

Skies were fair in Martin County and in most of West Texas. In some East Texas areas cloudy weather was reported.

According to a very famous old saying the month of March is due to go out like a lion if it comes in like a lamb. We wait and see about the truth of the aged saw. But definitely, we will have plenty of windy weather during the next few days.

Local Resident Is Injured In Accident

Condition of John Pinkston remains serious following a car-truck collision near Pecos last week.

Pinkston and his son-in-law, Bill Williams of Midland, were taken to Midland Memorial Hospital, where Pinkston was in serious condition with multiple fractures and Williams was in fair condition. Williams, who lives at 2211 Seaboard Street, suffered a fractured ankle and lacerations.

Pinkston and Williams, both in the insurance business, were on a business trip at the time of the wreck.

Grady Passes School Bonds

Patrons of the Grady School District Saturday approved a proposal for a new classroom, a combination library-study hall, storage space and general remodeling of other facilities in their school plant but turned down a proposal to remodel the school gym, add bleachers and dressing rooms and make other improvements.

The patrons also approved adoption of tax regulations set up by Senate Bill 116.

The vote on the three proposals was not learned, but informants said there was a heavy turnout of voters for the election. More than 120 votes were polled, it was reported.

The school building improvement program calls for expenditure of $55,000. The proposed gym remodeling, which was rejected, would have cost $45,000.

April 1 Is Deadline For Car Tags

Only one month remains for motorists to acquire their 1964 car plates.

Dan Saunders, county tax assessor, reported that his deputies had issued tags to only 741 vehicles in February. There are approximately 2,800 vehicles in the county which must have 1964 plates by April 1.

If a wild rush is to be avoided, motorists are urged to get their tags early. People coming for tags need to bring their 1963 license receipts, and title in order to obtain new plates.

To date 352 passenger car tags have been sold, 257 commercial, and 132 farm tags.

Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Fisher Assume Duties At Hospital

Dr. and Mrs. Allen M. Fisher have arrived in Stanton, and are now associated with the Physician's Hospital and Clinic.

Dr. Fisher was born and raised in Reading, Pennsylvania, and educated in the public schools there. He received his pre-medical training at Albright College in the same town and his professional training at the College of Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery in Des Moines, Iowa. He has practiced for 13 years in Iowa and Texas, arriving here from Aransas Pass, where he was on the staff of Aransas Hospital, Inc.

Dr. Fisher met his wife, the former Sue King, while a sophomore at the Des Moines college. The meeting took place in the foyer of the First Baptist Church in Des Moines, Iowa, and from the chance encounter a friendship grew which culminated in their marriage at Abilene, Texas, one year later.

Dr. Sue K. Fisher was an Abilene, Texas, girl who moved to Amarillo at the age of 14, graduated from the high school there and then went on to Hardin-Simmons College in Abilene to receive her B.S. degree. Her professional education was also received at the College of Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery in Des Moines, Iowa.

Morrison is chairman of the Day Camp Subcommittee, and D. M. Costlow is a member of the Established Camp Subcommittee. Mrs. D. M. Costlow is district advisor.

The Girl Scouts are attending regular weekly meetings. They will begin the week by attending the church of their choice or going in troops to a church. The girls will wear their uniforms to church Sunday. Mondays the Scouts will have homemaking; Tuesday, citizenship; Wednesday, health and safety; Thursday, international friendship; Friday, arts and crafts, and Saturday, out-of-doors. This is the pattern the Girl Scouts will follow during this special week.

The 4,900 members of the West Texas Girl Scout Council will be among the more than three and one-half million Girl Scouts throughout the country celebrating Girl Scout Week from Sunday, March 8, through Saturday, March 14.

"A Promise in Action" is the theme both of Girl Scout Week and of the Girl Scouts' 52nd Birthday, which occurs on March 12. This date marks the anniversary of the first meeting of the first Girl Scout troop in the United States — which was founded in Savannah, Georgia, on March 12, 1912, by Mrs. Juliette Gordon Low.

The Girl Scout Promise has touched the lives of more than 20,000,000 American girls and women since Juliette Low founded the organization in the United States in 1912. It is a simple promise, but its implications are deep. It reads:

On my honor, I will try:
To do my duty to God and my country,
To help other people at all times,
To obey the Girl Scout Laws.

The Brownie Promise, for second- and third-grade Girl Scouts, reads:

I promise to do my best
To love God and my country
To help other people every day,
Especially those at home.

From the Girl Scout Promise evolve the ten Girl Scout Laws which project the concepts of loyalty, honesty, courtesy, cheerfulness, cleanliness, usefulness, and kindness. The Promise and Laws provide a code of ethics ever for young people to understand and apply in their daily lives.

The theme of Girl Scout Week, "A Promise in Action," signifies the intention of the Girl Scout organization to emphasize the moral and spiritual basis of its program more strongly than ever. The adults in the movement recognize that, in a world that (Continued on page 4)

Health And Safety Tips

From The American Medical Association

Asthma is a chronic illness in which the victim has difficulty in breathing. It is not contagious and, fortunately, most attacks of asthma are relatively mild, but if neglected, it increases in severity, and endangers health as time goes on.

A majority of asthma attacks are triggered by an allergy. It could be almost anything — foods, furs, feathers, pollens—that starts the flare-up. Sometimes a bacterial infection of the throat, nose or sinuses can touch off an asthma attack. Nervous tension sometimes is a factor.

In a severe attack, the victim appears to be suffocating. He becomes pale and turns bluish, perspires heavily. He is using all of his strength to breathe. Fortunately, these attacks can be relieved by your doctor or by treatment in a hospital.

Finding the allergen is the first step in dealing with chronic asthma. Occasionally it is obvious, but most often a series of tests and studies are required.

Finding the allergen is the first step in dealing with chronic asthma. Occasionally it is obvious, but most often a series of tests and studies are required.

The important thing is to seek medical advice and counsel if you suspect that you have an asthmatic condition. Self-diagnosis is almost impossible. Only a physician can make an accurate diagnosis. If the allergen is something you can avoid, such as a dog or a cat, your problem can be solved with relative simplicity. If it should be pollen in the air, the case is more difficult. But it still can be kept under control, with proper medical direction.

Occasionally, an asthma patient will be helped by a change of climate, but doctors advise that you proceed with caution in making a cross-country move. You may develop a new allergy to things in the new climate which you haven't encountered before. If you must move, try to arrange an extended visit to the proposed new home to find out yourself whether you feel better.

Asthma can be controlled in most cases. In almost all cases, a doctor can provide relief from asthmatic attacks, and by careful management reduce the frequency and severity of attacks.

Q—As an amputee, I have been receiving a pension for nonservice-connected disabilities. During my present hospitalization, it was necessary to amputate my other leg. Can I receive a greater pension now?

A—You may now be eligible for an additional allowance for aid and attendance after discharge from the hospital. This is a not a general benefit but one made based on individual circumstances. You will have to apply to the VA for it.

Q—As a non-veteran, may I buy a GI home when it has been repossessed and again offered for sale?

A—The Veterans Administration has for sale to anyone who can qualify as to credit standing a large number of homes which have been foreclosed following non-payment by the GI purchaser. See your real estate broker, since most brokers are cooperating with the VA, to find out if any of these foreclosed homes are in your area.

Q—Can I make a personal loan from the VA to meet a financial emergency?

A—No. The benefits granted to veterans by Congress do not include provision for personal loans.

Jesus' Prayers Gave Simon Peter Added Strength

There are some men so settled in their ways that they seldom change under any circumstances. Their attitudes and reactions are so predictable that we could easily foretell their course of action in many situations.

They are very necessary in our society but also they are usually very dull, unimaginative people who are not interesting to talk to. Not much ever happens to those people. And then there is the other type, the unpredictable person. He usually is a man of superior intelligence and ability with many interests and a vast store of energy.

Such a man was the apostle Simon Peter. Extremely impulsive, very intense, he was always ready to risk everything on the outcome of a great adventure. When his plans seemed to fail, Peter was also very gloomy and disappointed.

Although his name was Simon, Jesus called him Peter "The Rock." This nickname was a symbol of the thing Peter became as he grew older and more active in the new church.

Peter did not realize some of the weakness inherent in his impulsive personality. But Jesus did. He saw through the tendencies to boast and Peter's burning desire to be first.

So Jesus prayed for Peter and these prayers became the source of Peter's strength and his salvation.

Peter bragged that he would not deny Jesus. He vowed he would not, even though everyone else might do so. But it was a penitent Peter who humbled himself by weeping later when he broke his vow, not once, but three times.

We must always remember that the Christ who prayed for Peter prayed for all of us. He, too, can be our salvation and strength.

Philosopher Favors The Tax Cut Provided The States Don't Rush In With Their Sponges

(Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his grass from an Mustang Draw raises an unhappy thought about the tax cut in his letter this week.)

Dear editor:

I have never been caught standing in the way of progress — sitting, maybe, or lying down, but never standing — and therefore I don't want to be misunderstood when I say I have a question or two to ask about the big income tax cut Congress has just voted.

It's not that I'm not in favor of it, far from it. In fact, I'm in favor of another one every year from now on. It should be a spring custom.

But I have been thinking about the cut, which will mean an eleven and a half billion-dollar saving to us tax payers, and I'm afraid Congress has forgotten something.

What I mean is, how many governments, how many towns and city governments, are looking the situation over right now and rubbing their hands and saying, "Let's see now, if Federal taxes are cut but eleven and a half billion, that means so many hundred millions the people of Texas will have to spend, and in view of the fact the state always need more revenue, how's the quickest way to get hold of some of it?"

That's the flaw in the tax cut bill. What Congress needs to do immediately is call the bill back and put an amendment on it making it against the law for anybody to spend his Federal tax savings on increased state or local taxes. As the President himself said on television, the purpose of the tax cut is to increase the people's spending power, and that's what I aim to do with mine. On a matter like that, I can cooperate 100 per cent.

As I understand it, it was the clear intention of Congress that if your tax cut amounts to buy a washing machine with it, or make the down payment on color T.V., or buy some new tires, or whatever, just so it stimulates the economy. But where would the economy be if Washington gives us eleven and a half billion to spend and the states jump in and sponge it up?

I'm in favor of giving this new notion a fair trial, and I hope the states will too. In fact, why don't states reduce their taxes too. Don't they want their economy stimulated?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Chevelle means performance aplenty—standard 120-hp Six or 195-hp V8—and optional at extra cost, a 155-hp Six, a 220-hp V8, a new 327-cu.-in. V8! But Chevelle's performance means more. Chevelle's a foot shorter than the big cars. And the space Chevelle saves in size comes off the ends, not the middle. So it rides like you want a car to ride.

Chevelle lets you choose Powerglide*, 4-speed manual* or 3-speed manual transmission. Knowing how people like the custom touch, we wrote out a long list of extra-cost options. Knowing all this, what's keeping you from a test drive? Certainly not your Chevrolet dealer! *Optional at extra cost.

Lenorah Baptist church has set March 3-8 as Youth Week in the church, and the youth have planned the following activities: Prayer meetings will be held by the young people at 7:00 p.m. Wednesday night at the church, according to J. T. Springer, youth director for the church. Thursday night there will be a cottage prayer meeting at Denver Springer's home, Friday night, at the church followed by a social, and Saturday night at the church, followed by rehearsal.

The spring revival will begin on Sunday, March 8, with the Rev. Temple Lewis of the Trinity Baptist Church of Stamford, evangelist for the revival. He will not arrive until Monday, and the young people will present a program on "The Cross" at the Sunday morning service.

Revival will continue through March 14, with morning services at 10:00 a.m. and evening services at 7:30 p.m. There will be prayer meeting services at 7:00 p.m.

An all church fellowship will be held Sunday evening after the church services.

AT&T First With Plan To Use Tax Cut Saving

Corporations are slow in making up their minds what to do with the 2.4 billion dollars a year they will save under the new income tax reduction law.

Only a few would offer concrete plans for using the money.

This apparently is because, under provisions of the legislation, full benefits for many will not be realized until 1971.

However, some were considering the possibilities of greater investment in new plants and equipment, higher dividends to stockholders and lower prices to consumers.

They indicated these things will have to wait until they have actual experience with the new tax rates.

First to come out with definite plans was giant American Telephone & Telegraph Co., whose chairman, Frederick R. Kappel, said he felt the reductions "have the possibility of substantial economic stimulation."

"In the Bell System," he said, "we think we can make our greatest contribution by investing the corporate tax savings in activities that increase employment and also make goods and services more valuable, more attractive and more wanted."

He said the tax law means a saving of 55 million dollars for AT&T this year. As a result, the company will add 100 million dollars to its 1964 construction program of 3.25 billion dollars and foresees the creation of an additional 12,000 to 15,000 new jobs within the company and its supplying firms.

Richmond Maury, president of the William Byrd Press of Richmond, Va., said, "we plan to use the tax savings to meet our obligations as they arise — such as for new equipment."

The apathy of corporation officials is because, while the top corporate rate is to be reduced to 48 per cent by 1965, a speed-up of payments for major corporations will maintain their rate of payment at close to the old 52 per cent rate until 1971.

Some of the 15,000 corporate giants affected will pay more than 52 per cent under a complicated basis for estimating income that provides penalties for underestimation.

The speed-up will put corporations substantially on a pay-as-you-go basis for the first time. Heretofore, corporations have paid part of their taxes in the year earned and the rest in two installments, one the next March, and the other in June.

Mrs. Hattie Estes, Mrs. Lillie Harward, and Mrs. Annie Thomason were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Estes and family of Patricia.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crone and family of Morton, visited in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Myrick, during the past weekend. Other house guests of the Myricks were Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Myrick and daughter of Canyon, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Myrick of Odessa.

The tax cut this year won't be enough to make a change in present plans but should be significant next year, according to E. A. Williams, vice-president and comptroller of Collins Radio Co. Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Mobile Feed Mills Studied

With the growing demand for custom milling of feed grain in Texas, mobile feed mills are becoming popular. Custom milling, which involves grinding the farmer's own grain and mixing with balanced concentrates, has increased greatly since 1939.

A new aspect was added to the custom milling of grain with the advent of the mobile mill. With this complete processing unit mounted on a large truck, grain and roughage can be ground, feed concentrates mixed and molasses blended right on the farm.

The first mobile feed mill operation was established in Texas in 1955, according to MP-689, "An Analysis of Mobile Feed Milling Operations in Texas." The new publication of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station says that by 1961 the number had jumped to 75. Even with this tremendous expansion, many farmers, feeders and agricutinians are not familiar with the mobile mill and the services it provides. Therefore, the publication was prepared to acquaint them with such mills.

MP-689 contains sections describing mobile feed mills, factors to consider in establishing a mobile operation, operational policies and practices and operational expenses and receipts. Income and cost analysis data is also cited in the publication.

For a copy of MP-689, write the Department of Agricultural Information, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas.

DON'T YOU READ BEFORE YOU BUY?

Newspaper ads. Magazine ads. Catalogs and brochures. This is where sales get started. This is where people turn to ferret out the facts which allow an intelligent buying decision.

People can linger with a printed page: two minutes, five minutes, ten. They can come back to it again and again. They can compare one product with another. They can study styles, features, sizes, prices at their own pace. They can rip out a printed ad, save it, show it to friends, make notes on it, clip coupons. They can and they do. Don't you? If you've something to sell, it will pay to promote it in print — where people on the brink of buying can get their hands on it. Print makes sense because print makes sales.

Farm And Ranch Review

More and more ranchers throughout Texas are recognizing the importance of adequate fertilization of crops and improved pastures, says Charles D. Welch, extension soil chemist at Texas A&M University. This is reflected in numerous reports which show that proper fertilization and liming meant more profit. For example, Elmo Cook, Travis County, agricultural agent, recently reported that an investment of $5.40 gave Milford Olson of Elroy a net return of $14.97 per acre on grain sorghum in 1963. The fertilizer increased the yield 784 lbs., valued at $1.91 per bushel.

Welch points out that proper fertilization has been shown to increase the capacity of a crop to use soil moisture. Some of the highest returns from fertilization have been realized under conditions of below normal rainfall.

A soil test can provide valuable information about the status and fertility level of your soil and serve as a guide for adequate fertilization and liming. Your county agricultural agent can provide additional information about soil testing.

Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson will address the 55th annual meeting of the American Home Economics Association in Detroit, Michigan, June 24.

She accepted a personal invitation issued by Mrs. Florence W. Low of College Station, president of AHEA and assistant director for home economics with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Mrs. Johnson will discuss "Women as Practicing Citizens—Here and Abroad." The address will be given in Ford Theatre at an evening general session, which will be open to the public as well as guests of the association.

Described as a "major address" by White House spokesmen, this will be one of Mrs. Johnson's first appearances before a large group since her husband assumed the Presidency. An audience of approximately 3,000 persons is expected to hear the First Lady.

A reception for AHEA members will take place at the Statler-Hilton Hotel following the program, according to Mrs. Low. Mrs. Johnson will attend.

The four-day AHEA convention will have as its theme, "The Leadership Challenge." More than 5,000 graduate home economists in teaching, business, research, health, welfare, extension service, international service and other career areas related to homes and families are expected to attend.

If any screwworms have survived the winter in Texas, they should be appearing soon, say officials of the Screwworm Eradication Program. But it appears that if any did overwinter in the state they are few in number, they add.

The weekly report on the eradication program shows that no cases have been reported in the state during the last two weeks of January, and during the entire month only one case was identified. This compares with 157 confirmed screwworm cases in January, 1963. There were over 62 million sterile flies released in Texas during the last week of January, according to the report.

The biggest problem facing the eradication program during 1964 is preventing the migration of fertile flies out of Mexico into the southwest, the officials say. Since funds are limited this migration must be checked by placing the flies in areas where infestation is most likely.

This is where information obtained from livestock producers becomes valuable. Their reports of confirmed screwworm cases will pinpoint areas where sterile flies must be dispersed, and prevent releasing flies where they will be of little benefit.

Because livestock producers are the key to the release of sterile flies they are reminded that the eradication program is not yet over and their cooperation is vital to its success. Producers in counties bordering Mexico are advised that their area will be the first hit by migration of screwworm flies from the south, though help is needed from livestock-men everywhere. Screwworms are nearly "licked," say the officials. But they solicit continued help from stockmen to finish the job of screwworm eradication.

The opportunities for employment in agriculture have increased despite the reduction in rural farm population, according to Dan Davis of the Agricultural Economics and Sociology Department, Texas A&M. He points out that as agriculture has become more scientific, many of the new jobs are performed in the city. These, having to do with the business side of agriculture, are concerned with industrial processing, marketing, transporting and financing agricultural products.

On the other side of the agribusiness picture, farmers and rancher buy from agribusiness about everything that goes into raising their product. They buy seed, fertilizer, chemicals, fuel, equipment, medicine, and all types of services. In fact, Davis says, they rely on the agribusiness man for about everything except the land and their own labor.

Professor Davis suggests that high school students find out more about training needed for the many jobs in agribusiness through their high school counselors, vocational agriculture teachers, county agents or by writing to the College of Agriculture, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas.

A civil defense demonstration has been added to the Texas 4-H Roundup events this year for the first time, Tommy Hollmig, superintendent, says.

Texas is the first state to include this new contest, according to Hollmig. The demonstration — which may include a wide range of civil defense subjects — will be held at Texas A&M University during 4-H Roundup, June 2-3.

YOUNG TEXAN FOR FEBRUARY — Michael R. Whitmill, a senior mathematics whiz and athlete at Robert E. Lee High School in Tyler, has been chosen by the Texas Optimist Clubs to receive the Troy V. Post Award designating him Young Texan of the Month. He was sponsored by the National Science Foundation. Mike ranked in the top seven in Texas in math and was one of 30 students selected to attend the Foundation's six-week summer math seminar at Southern Methodist University in 1963. A "straight A" student, he is also a football letterman and member of the basketball squad, a band member and travel enthusiast. The Tyler youth will compete with other monthly winners for one of three valuable scholarships at the Young Texan of the Year Banquet in early 1965. He was chosen Young Texan of the Month in competition with nominees throughout the state by a panel of state leaders headed by U. S. Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark.

Cotterpin Sinker
Clip sinkers onto your line through a woman's hairpin or light cotterpin. If the sinker gets hung up in rocks a slight pull opens the wire. You lose sinker but save valuable gear.

No-Snag Spinning
This tip calls for cutting small minnows out of sponge rubber. These are then hooked on lures that depend on bottom bouncing for their effectiveness. Paint minnows white for more attractiveness. Now, cushioning action of rubber will save some losses. But watch carefully that you aren't losing fish, too. Sometimes it's better to lose a few lures and catch fish than save the lures and not.

Ice Up The Bait
Ice keeps dead bait in good condition. It works just as well keeping live minnows active and fresh. If you've got a long way to go, place an ice cake on the top of your minnow bucket. Drip keeps them kicking. Don't forget to empty out water to prevent overflow, though.

Prolongs Battery Life
Between trips afield, reverse the batteries in your flashlight. Then if the switch accidentally is turned on, no harm is done, for the circuit will be broken. Then install the batteries properly when you're ready for your next trip out.

Silent Whistle Useful
Carry one of those silent dog whistles the next time you go deer hunting. If you see a deer with head down and you can't determine its sex, blow a blast on the whistle. Up will come the head and you'll be sure whether your target is a doe or a buck.

Carpets For Traction
A valuable item for the auto camper to have on hand, whether he's on the coast or inland, is two strips of old carpet, about 15 inches wide and six feet long. Keep 'em behind your spare tire. Next time you get stuck, slip the carpet strips under the rear tires for greater traction.

Dry Rubber Boat
You know how it is to get rubber boots dry. Think how hard it is to get a rubber boat dry. Way to do it is to carry a bag of sawdust. After using boat, sprinkle with sawdust, roll boat up. Later unroll, sweep damp sawdust off and rewarp.

Shotgun Decoy Anchors
Run a loop of copper wire through an empty 12 gauge shotgun shell. Fill shell with lead. You've got an acceptable light-weather decoy anchor.

Scope Smack
Do you have the dread disease, scope smack? This comes when you put your eye too close to your rifle scope, fire and get belted . . . usually on your eyebrow. Cure with radiator hose. This comes in a variety of large sizes that you can find to fit the diameter of your scope. A small piece makes a cushion.

Pipe Cleaner Lure
Trout men attention. On those early spring hatches when the trout refuse everything you throw at them, wrap a piece of pipe cleaner around the hook and try that. Two good reasons for it: Trout are probably working on nymphs which are designed to look like pipe cleaners. 2. What can you lose.

Go To Blazes
Traditional blazes to mark a trail are cut with an ax. More modern way is to use a shot of spray paint. Best way in deep woods is to cut saplings and break down so they point the path. You can find 'em in the dark; they stick up

GIRL SCOUT WEEK

TIME continues to run out on the April "must" dates. We must buy new automobile tags, get our windshield stickers and pay income tax by April 15. Of course, the 1964-65 license plates must be bought and attached by April 1.

TEXAS officials hailed the U. S. Supreme Court ruling this week that left the way open for completion of the 1964 elections without having to redraw the state's 23 congressional districts. The high court upheld a Houston district court ruling that the state's present district boundaries are unconstitutional because they are out of balance population-wise.

THE 19th Congressional District probably will be one of four in Texas least affected by the U. S. Supreme Court ruling that the state must redistrict. Martin County, of course, is in the 19th. The district is represented by GEORGE MAHON of Lubbock. REP. JAKE PICKLE's district in Austin is another not to be affected. Both MAHON'S and PICKLE'S districts are within range of the 435,440 average to be required. The last official census placed 424,774 persons in the 20-county 19th district.

JOE BELL, JR., owner of the first tailor shop in Stanton passed away this week in Brownfield. MR. BELL and a number of his relatives have been loyal readers of THE STANTON REPORTER for years. The BELLS used to write the editor and express love and appreciation for the fine folks here in Martin County. We extend the family sympathy.

IT'S been a hard, tired week with your writer trying to buck a virus on the one hand and make the newspaper deadline too. My sister, MARY LOU, is arriving tonight and I can sure appreciate a glimpse of that Dallas family favorite for she is a good cook as well as my only sister.

RAMPAGING anti-American Grecian demonstrators burned an effigy of PRESIDENT JOHNSON in Athens Tuesday night. The Greeks claim America and Britain are leaning too far with Turkey over the strife in Cyprus. Greece is the nation you readers will remember where MRS. KENNEDY visited for a time a few months before her husband was slain. Perhaps LYNDON will do well to appeal to JACKIE to go back over and get the Greeks straightened out once more. Personally, we think JACKIE could do more with foreign relations than any individual in Washington today.

Postmaster Urges Use Of Zip Code

Postmaster, Leta Eidson has requested that the following notice regarding use of zip code be brought to the attention of all Stanton residents, and urges that each person should begin using their zip code number. Her statement is as follows:

Attention All Stanton Residents:

Your Zip Code Number is 79782.

Please use this number on your letterheads and in your return address on envelopes. Look for Zip Code Numbers on mail received and use it when making a reply. Ask at the Post Office if you do not have the Zip Code.

Many of the states have post offices with names similar or alike. Eleven different states have a post office named Stanton. There is a Hillsboro post office in 20 different states and a Midland in 14 different states, just to mention a few.

A good example of mail that is frequently misrouted is that of Stanton, Tex. and Stanton, Tenn., when the states are abbreviated. The use of the Zip Codes (Stanton, Texas 79782 and Stanton, Tenn. 38069) should do away with much of the misrouted mail. So, please use your Zip Code.

New Girl Scout Folk Ballad To Be Released

A new folk ballad that stems from an unusual source will have its first airing on radio and television stations across the country next week, March 8-14. This is Girl Scout Week, and the Girl Scouts may soon find themselves with a hit song on their hands.

The song, called "The Growing Up Tree," was originally commissioned by the Girl Scouts to serve as the sound track for a public service TV film spot. When composer George Kleinsinger and lyricist Joe Darion turned in their finished product, however, enthusiasm for the new song ran so high that the Girl Scouts decided to make a one-minute disk available to radio stations as a spot announcement, and to produce sheet music and a three-minute recording for commercial sale.

The commercial recording and the sheet music will be on sale in 1,400 Girl Scout equipment agencies, located mostly in department stores, throughout the country. The one-minute film spot and the radio spot will be heard on the air beginning Sunday, March 8.

"The Growing Up Tree" is written in the folk style that has risen to heights of popularity in the last few years. The sound track of the TV film spot features two talented young folk singers, Barry Kornfield and Carla Ratalo, accompanying themselves on guitars supported by a bass played by Wendell Marshall.

This same group performs the song on one side of the commercial recording. On the other side of the recording the song is sung by a chorus of 40 Girl Scouts.

Although "The Growing Up Tree" was planned to promote Girl Scouting, the Girl Scout identification does not appear until the very last chorus.

George Kleinsinger, the composer, is a well-known writer of children's songs including "Tubby the Tuba," "Pewee the Piccolo," and "The Story of Celeste." He has written extensively for movies, stage, and television. His first major achievement was a cantata of "I Hear America Singing," adapted from Walt Whitman's poetry.

Joseph Darion, the lyricist, has written several songs in the children's field including "Little Red Train to the Zoo" and "The Lollipop Tree." He has also written popular songs such as "Ricochet," "Chang-son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Brown.

Plan Now For Quail

"This is the time of year to begin making plans for producing quail food for the fall season," suggests Joe Davidson, quail specialist for the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Davidson advises that a population of quail will depend in many instances on the careful planning and soil management practices of the landowner.

One method of supplying food is the disking and plowing of pasture land strips near brushy areas and fence rows. By disking now, weed seeds will be turned under for the fall weed crop so vital to wildlife.

Good stands of ragweed, croton or goatweed, and partridge pea often will mean a supply of quail for hunters and landowners.

Many 4H and FFA groups are cooperating with the Parks and Wildlife Department in a bobwhite quail restoration program. Habitat improvement studies are being conducted on many farms in Texas. Persons connected with these groups may secure additional information by writing the department in Austin.
