Friday, May 1 is Law Day in the U. S. A. It is well to remember that there are many kinds of rights guaranteeing freedom under law. There are also civil responsibilities to go along with those rights. Freedom does not come cheaply. Rights of all kinds must be earned. They cannot be served up on a silver platter. Generations of Americans fought for our right at Valley Forge, in Europe, Asia, India, Africa, Cuba, and the freedom we gained was born in blood on many occasions. Let's always remember to accept civil rights only if we can obtain them without causing civil wrongs to others.

"I get so much information from your good paper. I am crippled now and can't walk the three and one-half blocks to the postoffice to get my mail so I depend on my friends to pick my mail up and nothing is more welcome than the paper." This note comes to the editor from MRS. BIRDIE McARTHUR, Box 324, Lorraine, Texas.

Festival Opens Monday

Sidewalk Sales, Auction, Pancake Supper Set

Stanton and Martin County people are looking forward to a banner bargain weekend which is expected to extend through Monday, May 4, Dollar Day and Spring Festival time in the county seat.

Many merchants will participate in the annual Spring Festival sponsored by the Martin County Chamber of Commerce. Readers will also find several Dollar Day advertisements in this issue of the newspaper.

The specials will start working for the people on Thursday. In some cases other merchants will bring out the big bargain guns on Monday.

A pancake supper will feature the day on Monday. The added attraction this year for the Spring Festival will be the auction sale.

Some stores will sponsor old-fashioned sidewalk sales. Tables containing valuable items marked down to depression days prices will be available for the customers.

The Stanton Walgreen Drug firm will offer some merchandise in sealed sacks containing as much as ten dollars in value for only one dollar. The bags are expected to go like the pancakes Monday evening.

Chamber of Commerce president, James Wheeler, expects the second Spring Festival to bring a big crowd to Stanton.

Mauryne Varnadore, chamber manager, says all committee members worked well and she advised that pancake ticket sales were going good at press time Wednesday.

Banker's Wife Finds Owner Valued Watch

Mrs. Jim Tom was in Lubbock recently and found a valuable watch in a parking area.

She returned to Stanton and started hunting for the watch's owner by watching ads in the Lubbock newspaper. She telephoned friends to scan the paper too for any inquiry about the lost watch. Mrs. Tom telephoned the Stanton editor about finding the watch and after several days the watch's owner was located in Farwell, Texas.

Here is a letter to the local editor from Mrs. Albert W. Johnson of Farwell, Texas, dated April 25, 1964.

Box 88
Farwell, Texas
April 25, 1964

Dear Sir:

I wish to express my delight in finding out about one of your "wonderful people," Mrs. Jim Tom. Don't know about the "few old sore heads." I lost my wrist watch in Lubbock two weeks ago Thursday and after the "ad" produced no results nor the police, I had given up hope. Tuesday morning a call from a total stranger makes me realize there still are some honest people in this old world. As the "ad" failed to mention "reward" she was just returning the "lost" to its owner. Thought you'd be interested in hearing about Mrs. Jim Tom. So I say, "Thank you" to Stanton for having such nice people.

Sincerely,
Polly B. Johnson

Approximately 22 members have started their chickens. About 1,000 chickens are being developed and from this group the top 80 will be sold at the premium sale at the County Capon Show.

4-H members who have already started their chickens are Bill and Bob Wilson, Mike Cook, Johnny and Anita McIntyre, Allan, Virginia, and Preston Springer, Mary, Martha, and Darrell Bradshaw, Ricky Ringener, Randy Morris, Ronnie Johnson, Harold O'Brien, Steve Robnett, Ricky Mims, Kenneth Wilkins, Barry Hill, Donnie, Dennis, and Rita Jones.

Bob Johnson, county agent, stated that several other members will be starting their chickens within the next ten days. Other boys and girls who are interested in beginning the project should contact Johnson immediately.

Wolcott 1 Wildcat Test Is Started

By JAMES C. WATSON
Humble Oil & Refining Company's No. 1 Juliette Wolcott, 13,100-foot Ellenburger wildcat 13½ miles southwest of Patricia in Martin County, had set intermediate casing, 8½-inch, at 4,627 feet.

The operation was waiting on the cement to cure before drilling ahead below that marker.

Surface pipe, 13½-inch, was set at 373 feet earlier in the project which is one mile southwest of a Wolfcamp discovery and two miles south of a Sprabery discovery in the multiple Breedlove, South field.

Site is 6,405 feet from north and 6,306 feet from west lines of league 250, Hartley County School Land survey.

Kem Merren, W. C. Montgomery and James E. Callaway of Midland, No. 1 Shoemaker, slated 12,100-foot Ellenburger wildcat in Martin County, eight miles northwest of Stanton, was drilling below 1,000 feet in red beds formation.

The project is in an area which, at one time, had a producer from the Wolfcamp and one from the Fusselman. Production from these zones has depleted although the region, the Stanton field, still has two marginal Sprabery producers.

The operation is 11 miles northeast of Midland and 2,173 feet from north and 990 feet from west lines of section 40, block 37, T-1-N, T&P survey.

Langdon Favors Greater Oil Production

Land owners were assured this week by Railroad Commissioner Jim C. Langdon that he favors greater oil production in Texas.

Although the Railroad Commission cannot consider prices (only physical waste), he said, it was logical to assume that the greater the production the bigger the royalty checks for several thousand land owners in the state.

However, if production exceeds demand, then the price of oil decreases. Any excessive over-production, such as occurred in the 30's in East Texas when oil sold for 10 cents a barrel, will cut deeply into the checks received by owners of mineral rights in land from which Texas' oil and gas are produced, Langdon said.

"A market demand law prevents the production of more oil than can be sold," Langdon said. "This guards against economic waste by instituting a system of sound conservation."

Candidates In Closing Appeals, Vote May 2

In less than 50 hours, Texans will travel to the balloting places to cast votes for the candidates of their choice.

Absentee voting has ceased. Saturday will bring the big day — election day in the state. Polls will open at 8 p. m. and close at 7 p. m. All election officials have announced ready to receive the qualified, poll tax holding individuals.

A banner turnout of approximately 1,500 is expected in Martin County.

Candidates are in the last waning hours of the campaign — a campaign that found action and interest picking up speed in the final days of April. Charges and counter charges have been hurled. It is doubtful, however, that any last minute political dynamite will change many votes.

In the old political days, when Texans balloted in the sizzling summertime instead of in May, all-day singings, dinner-on-the-ground, candidate roundups, and stump

The Launching Pad

By NEAL ESTES

IT is very important to those people interested in the progress of the oil industry and production in Martin County to vote for the best qualified man Saturday for a place on the Texas Railroad Commission. We have a qualified, tested man serving on the commission now. He is possibly the best informed man on oil and gas in the state—certainly the best we have had in Austin on the regulatory body in a long time. We simply must not gamble with taking on the services of a professional candidate for this place. JUDGE JIM LANGDON was not entitled to have opposition at all on his first try for elective office but a man that has run and run again is making the race. LANGDON is going to be overwhelmingly elected and your editor would hate it awfully bad if Martin County failed to endorse his candidacy. It just wouldn't look good for our county to let JIM LANGDON down. I hope we don't.

I BELONG to the MARTIN COUNTY FARM BUREAU because I think it is one of the best organizations in Texas. The BUREAU is in the hands of good leaders. OWEN KELLY is the president and he has assembled a well-rounded staff to look after the interest of its members. During the past ten days, your rural editor has made a political survey among the FARM BUREAU members and we have found that the majority will vote for MILLARD SHIVERS for Commissioner of Agriculture. It is felt that a new face is needed in Austin in this important place. The incumbent has been down there a long, long time. And if memory serves us correctly it was JOHN C. WHITE, when a young man, many years ago, who asked the people of Texas to give a young man a chance. We did and JOHN C. WHITE beat the old political veteran of years and years, J. E. McDONALD. Adopting the same philosophy as MR. WHITE once did, let's retire JOHN Saturday and give another young man a chance—vote for a real Democrat—MILLARD SHIVERS.

GOVERNOR JOHN CONNALLY will be returned to office Saturday by the largest majority any Democratic executive ever received for a second term in office. It is regrettable that the chief executive had to take the campaign trail following so soon on the heels of his near death, along with the late PRESIDENT KENNEDY, while he is still not fully recovered from wounds received while riding in the same car in Dallas with JFK. But a constant candidate from the bayou country, DON YARBOROUGH, felt the state couldn't go on progressively forward without him and so he challenged again. We will dismiss MR. YARBOROUGH'S campaign foundation in one sentence. In our judgment his program and promises are nothing more than a hot blast of Houston air blowing in from the coastal country and even the air appears to have too many black specks in it for us.

THE accent was on activity — physical activity Monday evening on the lawn of the MARTIN COUNTY LIBRARY. A group of 4-H Clubbers were taking turns behind the controls of a motor driven plow to get the soil in shape for a grassy taping. SMITTY SMITH is president of the teenage chapter and BOB JOHNSON says about sixteen members belong to the chapter. The grass planting project sponsored by these young people should be appreciated by every person living in the county. They are to be commended for their efforts.

YOUR correspondent had a note from a colored friend this week asking our support of RALPH YARBOROUGH. We advised our friend that we could not vote for YARBOROUGH this time. We also advised our friend that we would support SENATOR YARBOROUGH if we were in his place. Certainly, RALPH YARBOROUGH has lended a very sympathetic ear to the colored people of this state and for one of them to deny his candidate, would be unpardonable. The negro never had a better friend than RALPH YARBOROUGH. And BILLIE SOL ESTES never had a better friend until that story about the big bale of money allegedly changing hands at Pecos broke several days ago.

JAKE HODGES, our Soil Conservation District man, lost his parents when he was very young. JAKE practically raised a younger brother, PAUL, who visited in the HODGES home this week. PAUL HODGES was only nine years of age when JAKE was called on to take over as head of the Comanche County family. Today, PAUL HODGES is a very successful man, living in San Antonio, and holding down a mighty responsible position with an outstanding company. JAKE is proud of PAUL as any brother would be. He said to us recently: "I've always looked on him as a son—and I forgave him when he decided to go to Texas University." JAKE, a loyal A&M graduate, spoke a supreme sentence when he said what he did about Texas U. In time, with the help of the women at A&M we tea-sippers hope to bring more culture into the lives of our brothers.

TV program sponsors would do well to see that their shows are beamed at selling their product and bringing entertainment. Any other attempt (Continued on page 8)

Philosopher Finds What He Thinks Would Be The Solution To The Farm Problem

(Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his grass farm on Mustang Draw gets enthusiastic over a new farm bill in his letter this week.)

Dear editor:
After long years of reading every proposed solution to the farm problem that any of the experts ever brought up, not so much to see what their solution was but to see if they knew what the problem was, I have finally found what very easily could be the real answer to the farm problem.

According to an article I read this morning while I was waiting to see if my tractor was going to start, an expert in Washington has proposed that Congress pass two farm bills.

one for commercial farmers and one for low-income farmers. The more money you make, the less help you get, and vice versa, especially the latter.

That's the answer, except that I'd like to see written into the bills the absolute guarantee that each farmer could decide for himself what category he comes under. I don't want any expert in an office in Washington telling me whether I'm a commercial farmer or a low-income farmer, and I don't want any complicated set of rules defining me.

Furthermore, and this is the most important provision I want included, a farmer shouldn't be required to classify himself until the year is over.

It's no trick at all to start the year off in January as a commercial farmer and wind up in December as the other kind.

You just can't look at a man's farm, the number of acres in it, the sort of house he lives in, the kind of car he drives, and tell for sure whether his commercial or low-income at the moment. About as many people drive to the bank in new cars as old to have their notes extended.

I hope you'll use your influence if you can find it somewhere there in the office to get these two bills passed. But understand I don't look for any action until the civil rights issue is settled. I hope we both live that long.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Bible Comment---

Sacredness Of Human Life Must Be Recognized

Insistence on the sacredness of human life did not begin with Jesus. It was part of the noble tradition of Israel that He said He had come to fulfill, not to destroy.

One of the first references to the sacredness of human life is found in the tale of Cain's murder of his brother, Abel.

Later the story of Abraham is another example of this attitude. Abraham pleaded for the inhabitants of a wicked city. He was even willing to forego his own advantage in order to prevent strife.

This emphasizes the high plane of moral foundations and human relationships based on the concept of the sacredness of human life.

As a matter of fact the noblest teachings of the prophets make life, the healing and the salvation of human beings, the ideal goals of our faith.

Somehow, to speak of the sacredness of human life in this age of hot and cold war-ware seems almost a mockery of the principle itself.

But in spite of this, human life is sacred and the only mockery is the mockery of God's laws. Jesus himself said that He had come so that men might have life more abundantly. With this declaration, He draws the line of contrast between His kingdom of Heaven and the kingdoms of the world.

Killing is contrary to the teachings of Christianity. Yet a supposedly Christian world has made only a little progress in promotion of peace and eliminating war. Defensive war, against terror and aggression, is a different matter but there is not one nation with a spotless record of non-aggression. Every country has justified killing when the state ordered that it be done.

The deed that needs to be done is to establish as a true fact the premise that killing is wrong and that it is a sin against humanity as well as God.

Permian's Rail Operations Plan Disputed In Hearing

Operating plans and expenses of the proposed Permian Basin Railroad's line between Odessa and Seagraves was disputed by an attorney for the Texas and Pacific Railroad.

In cross examination of a witness before the Interstate Commerce Commission, Attorney Tom Farmer charged that the projected expenses for the line are unrealistic.

The witness Carroll Burks, general superintendent of the Tacoma, Wash. Municipal Belt Line Railway, told the commission that it would cost an approximate total of $895,354.29 to run the railroad.

Farmer also grilled Burks, who is in line for the post of general manager of the Permian line, about the road's planned services and civic responsibilities. He pointed out that Burks had not budgeted funds for charitable organizations but only for Chamber of Commerce membership.

When asked about Permian's projected plans for unloading cargo and moving it quickly to its destination, Burks said:

"I don't think time-in-transit is a deciding factor in getting bids for a job. There are factors that override time-in-transit."

Farmer questioned Burks on the number of employees he told the commission would be required to operate the line. The lawyer tried to show that 21 workers — and the expenses involved — would not be enough to operate a railroad properly.

They have an artistic friend who is interested in coming out to do a painting of the place. This old house is a landmark in Martin County, and it would be a shame to let it be torn down or destroyed. Efforts should be made to preserve what few old buildings that remain today.

Questions And Answers

Q—Will a dishonorable discharge from military service bar a veteran from receiving VA hospitalization?

A—Yes, that is the case.

Q—I am disabled and the premiums on my National Service Life Insurance are waived. When I die will my beneficiary receive the full amount of my policy or will the unpaid premiums be deducted at the time of settlement?

A—Your beneficiary will receive the full face value of your policy. No deduction will be made to cover the premiums you did not pay while the policy was on waiver.

Q—Does the VA furnish medical care to dependents of veterans?

A—No, not as such. Of course, VA hospitals will admit anyone when necessary to save a life in a medical emergency. But such non-veteran patients must pay the government for their care.

According to the American Medical Association, diphtheria, once one of the great killers of children, is no longer a major threat in the United States. Widespread, routine immunization has greatly reduced a highly contagious epidemic disease that once killed thousands of children each winter. However, it isn't entirely gone. There still are a few hundred cases and some deaths each year, largely in the winter. These cases almost invariably occur among those who aren't properly immunized.

Magic Of Springtime In Creamy Dessert

There's magic in sweetened condensed milk, for it thickens merely with the addition of lemon juice. And this magic helps make a wide variety of delicious creamy desserts. The newest one is "Banana and Strawberry Magic Cream Mold," an exceptional company dessert. It's easy to make. After the mixture has been combined and chilled until firm, just unmold and center on a platter that has been rinsed in cold water. In preparing the banana garnish, remember to brush the slices with lemon juice to keep them from turning brown.

BANANA AND STRAWBERRY MAGIC CREAM MOLD

1 envelope (1 tsp.) unflavored gelatin
 1/4 cup cold water
 1/2 cup boiling water
 1 1/2 cups (15-oz. can) sweetened condensed milk
 1 cup (1/2 pt.) heavy cream, whipped
 1 (10 oz.) pkg. frozen sliced strawberries, defrosted
 3 medium size ripe bananas, peeled and cut into cross-wise slices

In a small bowl, add gelatin to cold water. Let stand 5 minutes to soften. Add boiling water and stir until dissolved. In a large bowl, blend sweetened condensed milk and lemon juice. Stir in dissolved gelatin. Fold in whipped cream.

Drain the defrosted strawberries, reserving juice to make a sauce. Add berries and sliced bananas to condensed milk mixture. Pour into lightly oiled 1 1/2-quart mold. Chill in refrigerator about 2 hours, or until firm. Unmold onto platter. Serve with strawberry sauce.

Makes 8 to 10 servings.

When you prepare hot meals

your kitchen stays degrees cooler with flameless electric cooking

Flameless electric cooking units fit snugly against pan bottoms. They put their heat into the pans where it is needed, not into the kitchen air. The electric oven, being flameless, requires no flow of air into and out of it to support combustion. The oven is insulated all around, including the bottom, to keep heat inside where it belongs. Result: your kitchen stays degrees cooler when you are cooking hot meals. See your electric range dealer soon. Cook the cool, clean, flameless way... and live better electrically!

Says 'Communist Influence Exists In Negro Movement'

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover says "Communist influence does exist in the negro movement" and could play an important role in swaying masses without their realizing it. In a closed session of a House appropriations subcommittee, Hoover also described efforts by the Communists to recruit American students to their views. In January 29 testimony made public Tuesday, Hoover said the Communist party tries to expand its influence among negroes and particularly has "sought ways and means to exploit the militant forces of the negro civil rights movement." The party, Hoover said, tries to use "what are often legitimate negro complaints and grievances for the advancement of Communist objectives." The number of negro recruits who may be attracted to party membership "is not the important thing," Hoover said. He cited "the old Communist principle: 'Communism must be built with non-Communist hands.'" "We do know that Communist influence does exist in the negro movement and it is this influence which is vitally important. It can be the means through which large masses are caused to lose perspective on the issues involved and, without realizing it, succumb to the party's propaganda lures." At this point, Hoover asked to testify off the record, so the hearing transcript does not show whether he was asked for, or gave, specific instances of Communist influence among negroes. The FBI chief said Soviet bloc espionage agents made what he termed revolting use of black mail and compromise. "On two separate instances, an American college professor and a woman tourist went to Moscow where they were drugged while separately visiting the Soviet Union, photographed while unconscious, participating in acts of sexual perversion, arrested and their co-operation in obtaining intelligence information solicited under threat of prosecution and exposure," Hoover said.

Gay Gates Is Tea Honoree In Turner Home

Gay Gates, graduating senior of the class of 1964, was honored with a tea Saturday, April 25, in the country home of Mrs. Leo Turner. Mrs. P. M. Bristow was co-hostess with Mrs. Turner.

The serving table was covered with a pastel green linen cloth. Centerpiece was a white manseneta tree hung with graduation heads, diplomas, and pastel nets tied with satin ribbons in pink, green, blue, and yellow. Table appointments were in milk glass.

Mrs. Johnny Barnes and Reba Saunders presided at the serving table. Dainty tea sandwiches, cookies, sugared fruits, and punch were served to those attending.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a gift.

Those attending the affair were: Mrs. Butch Cain, Becky Saunders, Reba Ringener, Mary Wilson, Janice Morrison, Pat Thrailkill, Nanette Pardue, Mrs. Johnny Barnes, Reba Saunders, Mrs. Glenn Gates, and the honoree, Gay Gates.

Beef Bargains Reach Texas Food Markets

Beef leads the bargains at Texas food markets this week, the Agricultural Marketing Service reports.

Warm weather has encouraged hens to lay more eggs and cows to produce more milk, the agency added, so supplies of eggs and dairy products are increasing. The variety of fresh fruits and vegetables has expanded to include blackeyed peas, mangoes, watermelons and strawberries.

Lettuce, scarce a few weeks ago, is plentiful now and sharply lower in price.

Cabbage, spinach, greens, carrots, yellow and white onions and large size avocados are listed by the AMS as bargains in food values.

Yellow squash, green beans from Florida and cauliflower from California declined at the wholesale price level.

Tomatoes advanced sharply this week as supplies dwindled.

Cucumbers, bananas and old crop russet and red potatoes went up this week.

A Message To The Voters Of Precinct One

Time has prevented me from personally meeting and discussing the issues in the campaign for the office of Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, with all of the voters. And there are many real and vital principles at stake in this election.

If elected to serve on May 2, I will endeavor to accomplish these things.

Serve all fairly with favors toward none.

Hear the facts and evidence before passing final judgment.

See that justice is done but no individual, or company doing business in Martin County or operating through this city or it's agent or agents will be unduly persecuted.

Encourage tourists and business people to use Highway 80 to visit our community and patronize our various places of business such as service stations and cafes along the route.

This is my first political race. I humbly seek your support and help, and my pledge to you is that I will reward your faith and confidence in service rendered if elected.

The people are not going to let a TV star tell them how to live, who to kiss, who to sleep with, who to invite as guests in their home, or what code to follow. Despite the political efforts of one TV star upon behalf of a West Texas congressman two years ago the guy got jolted badly at the polls. He was solidly and soundly defeated. And since that defeat he must have crawled off in a hole somewhere.
