County Capon Show Opens Friday

Auction Sale Will Be Held On Saturday

The Martin County Capon Show is scheduled to get underway at 3:30 p.m. Friday with the weighing and cooping of the expected 100 plus birds.

The judging will begin at 8:30 a.m. Saturday with Marvin Weber, Service Engineer for Power Feeds of Abilene, serving as judge. Trials will be judged first with light weight and heavy singles to follow in that order.

The annual event sponsored by the Agricultural Committee of the Chamber of Commerce will feature the sale of 80 top placing birds on Saturday afternoon beginning at 2:00 p.m.

Each of the 25 participants will be allowed to show five birds but sell no more than four at the auction sale.

Trophies will be awarded to the Champion Trio and Single of the show with ribbons given to the top ten places of each class.

County Agent Bob Johnson stated that the show serves as a climax of the eight month long capon project for most of the 4-Hers and FFA members.

The Agricultural Committee reports that the show plans are well under way and that everyone who attends should see one of the best shows of its kind in Texas.

Judge Caton Delays McDonald Murder Case

District Judge Ralph W. Caton granted a defense motion for continuance until January 25, 1965, in the case of Daniel Odell McDonald, 19, charged in the slaying of his grandmother, Mrs. W. S. McDonald.

Mrs. McDonald was 82-years-old at the time of her death. She operated a small grocery store on the outskirts of Stanton prior to her murder.

Judge Caton granted the continuance on the motion of defense attorney George Thomas, who told the court he wants to have the youth examined by a psychiatrist. District Attorney Gil Jones opposed the continuance but Judge Caton granted it after a private conference with attorneys.

Farm Bureau President Attacks Cotton Program

The President of the American Farm Bureau said in Mobile, Alabama the administration's cotton program has failed to provide the benefits promised to American farmers.

Charles B. Shuman of Chicago, in an address before the annual convention of the Alabama Farm Bureau, said the new cotton program was an overall failure. Instead of reducing production and increasing prices to farmers, he said, it has done the opposite.

"The advocates of supply management are now looking for a handy scapegoat to blame for their latest blunder," said Shuman. The program was supposed to increase production but the carryover has increased some but early season exports are off sharply.

He said that even the most optimistic estimates on utilization are that the carryover will be up again in 1965.

"The program was supposed to be good for taxpayers because the increase in tax costs was supposed to be offset by lower prices to consumers," Shuman said. "But the mills have widened their margins instead of passing their reduced costs on to consumers." (Continued on page 5)

Connally Oil Stakes Location For No. 1 Tom In Glasscock Co.

By JAMES C. WATSON
Connally Oil Co., Inc. of Abilene has staked location for No. 1-A Ed and Jim Tom as a 3/4-mile north stepout to production in the Gordon Street, South (Wolfcamp) pool or Northwest Glasscock County.

Coach Milam stated that Bill Davis would be getting some cracked ribs in a recent game. Carl Lawson is also out for the season and Richard Jones is out, according to Coach Milam.

The football sweetheart will be presented at the game.

The Bisons dropped their last contest to Tahoka last Friday night 30-19.

W. G. Stephenson of Waxahachie, O. B. Brynn of Stanton, and John E. Bates of Robstown, all district commissioners, heard the challenge of children who are without a choice last Wednesday and Thursday during the annual meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Methodist Home in Waco. Featured speakers for the two day meeting were Attorney General Waggoner Carr of Texas, Bishop Kenneth Pope of Dallas, Bishop Paul E. Martin of Houston, and Dr. William Dickinson, pastor of the Highland Park Methodist Church in Dallas. The Board of Commissioners represents the Methodist Home in each District of the Church in New Mexico and Texas and leads in gathering the annual Christmas offering. The Methodist Home, founded in 1890, cares for over 500 children each year. Children separated from their parents by death or other causes live in a home-like atmosphere in cottages staffed by trained home parents, find counselling with a qualified chaplain and case workers, attend public school as part of an overall program of being part of the community and development of the total child, and are encouraged to do their very best in each endeavor. Since its founding 75 years ago some 9,000 children have been aided by the Home says Superintendent Hubert Johnson. The Methodist home is supported by a Christmas Offering taken each December.

The cancerous growth of crime in Texas and the rest of the nation will destroy America from within unless we take immediate action to curb it, Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr warned in a speech at the Methodist Home in Waco Thursday of last week.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the Methodist Home's Board of Commissioners, Mr. Carr said the most alarming increase in crime was occurring among young people.

It was based on a NAACP survey of registration in 47 states and the District of Columbia.

University Gets TESCO Survey Copy

Community Development Surveys of the cities and towns served by Texas Electric Service Company, including one volume featuring information about Stanton, have been placed in the library of the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas, it was recently announced by Dr. John R. Stockton, director of the bureau.

The bureau has an interest in Texas economic development and maintains a detailed library containing information on the communities of the state," Dr. Stockton said. "The extensive nature of the currently maintained information in these Texas Electric surveys recommends them as invaluable aids in regional analysis."

There are 41 community surveys in the complete set, which has been prepared especially for use by those seeking sites for plants and business enterprises. Each community survey contains facts regarding natural resources, transportation, highways, and employment and other information useful in analysis by academic and industrial researchers and by agencies of the state government.

The nation is gradually returning to routine living following the election. As a matter-of-fact one doesn't hear anything about the election anymore. There has been less rehashing over this past contest than anytime we can remember.

The national budget is almost certain to skyrocket. There is just no method available that can find expenses dropping while spending is increasing. The $100 billion budget forecast in early January this year has already been exceeded. The country will probably spend more than $60 billion on defense next year. We need not expect any further tax cuts or start looking forward to the ending of excise taxes, although those subjects were promised campaign issues.

Golden November is here in all its splendor. The leaves, what few we have here in Martin County, are falling from the trees and the landscape is taking on a rusty, light gold hue. This is a good time of year and people seem to be getting in the shopping mood again. The big one—Christmas—is just around the corner. It has been suggested that it might be best to shop in November so we could rest some in December. But has this ever been the case?

We want to mention here something about our young friend, GUY BROWN, again this week. GUY transported his rock exhibit up to the GEM and MINERAL SHOW in Dallas and won first place in the arrangement and display division. That's just alright—it's fine, when a Martin County youth can consistently focus attention on our area through the honors he is winning on these creative exhibits. And to win a top spot in Big D is truly something. Continued good luck to you GUYBO—now and always.

BOB JOHNSON was in to prepare the publicity for the coming capon show to be held here Friday and Saturday of this week. The traditional event is held in Martin County, under the supervision and planning of JOHNSON annually. We suggest all interested residents go down and look the birds over.

Wednesday was VETERAN'S DAY. The national day, formerly designated Armistice Day to commemorate the end of World War I, Nov. 11 was set aside in 1954 to honor all the men and women who have served in our nation's armed forces. It would be fitting and appropriate if Martin County would start doing something about the proper observance of this day. We note that other cities commemorate the day with patriotic programs. CONGRESSMAN GEORGE MAHON made a speech at one of the programs marking Veteran's Day in Lubbock Wednesday.

LBJ Victory Cuts Into Former Republican Block

President Johnson's election victory made deep inroads into such Republican territory as the farms and middle income suburbs as well as drawing almost all the negro vote.

His only real setbacks came in the deep South. In 1960 he had been the force that carried much of the South for John F. Kennedy.

Johnson took the traditionally Republican farm strongholds of the Dakotas, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, New Hampshire and Vermont.

Goldwater's vote against the 1964 civil rights bill apparently won him his Southern support but there was little sign of the so-called "white backlash."

It was the first time Georgia had gone Republican since Reconstruction days.

Johnson was correct in forecasting that the "frontlash" — his term for defecting Republicans — would be far more politically potent than the backlash.

Here are some examples how the "frontlash" helped sink the Goldwater chances.

— Westchester County, N. Y., which went Democratic for the first time, gave its vote to Johnson by a margin for nearly 60 per cent.

— In King County around

Seattle, Wash., Johnson polled 56.5 per cent of the vote compared to a 32.8 per cent edge for GOP presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon four years ago.

—In Vermont, Johnson ran nearly 2 to 1 ahead of Goldwater, picking up the votes of many hard-core Republicans in the rural areas of the state.

The negro vote for Johnson — 90 per cent or more — was unprecedented in American political history. Spurred by civil rights workers and the end of the poll tax, negro registration topped 2 million in the South for the first time.

—In Boston, a negro ward that produced a near-landslide for Nixon went for Johnson by a count of 4,552 to 248.

—Mound Bayou, Miss., an all-negro town, gave its entire block of 257 votes to Johnson. An Atlanta precinct went 3,961 to 22 for the President. In Chicago's black belt, Lyndon Johnson got majorities up to 40-1.

In Virginia, Florida and Tennessee, the overwhelming negro support for Johnson helped him to put those states into the Democratic column for the first time in more than a decade. The negro vote in these states and in Indiana was decisive when the white

American Embassy In Poland "Bugged"

A wired microphone system has been discovered in the United States Embassy in Warsaw, Poland, an embassy spokesman said this week. He said it apparently was installed by secret agents of Communist Poland.

The listening equipment was Oct. 7, the spokesman said. He declined to say whether it was the first eavesdropping apparatus discovered in the Embassy since it was occupied about a year ago.

Although the spokesman did not say how many devices were found, it was clear there were more than one. Observers were reminded of a state department announcement last May 19 that 40 microphones were found in the U. S. Embassy in Moscow.

"Ambassador John M. Cabot has delivered a strong verbal protest to the Polish foreign ministry over this basic violation of the diplomatic immunity of the embassy," an Embassy spokesman said.

(In Washington, the State Department said the listening devices apparently were installed in the early stages of construction of the building, started in 1960.

(Polish authorities denied any knowledge or responsibility for the listening system, the spokesman said.)

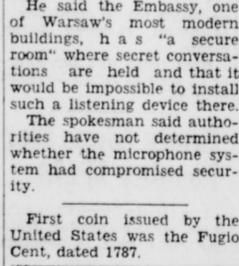

The embassy spokesman here said the microphone system was discovered during "routine security checks which are carried out from time to time on a continuing basis."

He said the Embassy, one of Warsaw's most modern buildings, has a "a secure room" where secret conversations are held and that it would be impossible to install such a listening device there.

The spokesman said authorities have not determined whether the microphone system had compromised security.

First coin issued by the United States was the Fugio Cent, dated 1787.

Bible Comment—
The Church Can Aid Young People

One of the greatest problems of present day life and society is that of the home. It is constantly emphasized that at the root of juvenile delinquency is poor home life, with lack of parental guidance and control, and often serious delinquencies in the parents themselves. Nor are such parental delinquencies confined to the poor, illiterate and underprivileged.

Careless self-indulgent and undisciplined parents, rich and poor alike, must bear their share of responsibility but there is an all too common tendency to blame parents for everything.

The finest home has to contend with forces and influences outside the home that tend to offset all that it can do and these outside influences have youth for longer periods than the home itself.

A more serious factor, however is the low standards of conduct that are so widely prevalent today. We live in a so called Christian land, and all our religious institutions try to typify wholesome deals evidenced in character and conduct.

Unfortunately, without being pessimistic about it, or disregarding wholesome influence of all these institutions we must face the fact that widespread secularism, materialism and low morality is all too evident. All this debasement of ideals seems to have increased in recent years.

If youth could be surrounded by the Christian standards and ideals outside, as well as inside the home, our problems would not be nearly so acute.

Philosopher Says Campaigns Have To Be Aun Even If They Don't Change Any Votes

(Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his grass farm on Mustang Draw reviews the recent campaign in his letter this week.)

Dear editor:

A lot of the experts on politics, after rubbing out what they may have said before the election, have now been analyzing the voting results and have asked the puzzling question: why do Presidential candidates campaign so hard and so long when it's impossible to tell what effect it has, other than to wear the men down physically?

To back this up, they point out that at the start of the campaign the public opinion polls showed Johnson with about 62 per cent of the vote, Goldwater with about 38, give or take a few points for the undecided voter. Now, they say, look at the results. The percentages on the actual voting were about the same, 62 for Johnson, 38 for Goldwater, so what was the campaigning all about? Why spend 25 million dollars rushing around the country when the thing was decided before they started out?

These experts don't understand politics. Both candidates have to campaign to keep things in balance and the two-party system going. If the pyramid on the reverse side of the Great Seal of the United States symbolizes the Union's lasting strength.

Both men have to campaign, so the losses will offset each other. It is a courtesy which is fundamental to politics, and has to continue.

Campaigning is sometimes like farming. When you wind up a year and look back and figure up your profit, you find you would have been about even if you'd stayed out the field altogether, but that would have been un-agricultural. Same thing with politics.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Cambodia, U. S. Ties Near Breaking Point

Anti-American sentiment is running full tilt in the Southeast Asian country of Cambodia.

After receiving millions of dollars in funds from Uncle Sam, the Cambodians are about ready to break off all diplomatic relations with this nation.

It appears only a matter of time before the 33-man embassy staff will be forced to leave Cambodia.

An Anti-American demonstration recently sent 34 dependent wives and children of American embassy personnel to Bangkok as a precautionary measure.

There is strong feeling that one more serious incident along the border with South Viet Nam would lead Cambodia to break completely with America.

In a real sense, diplomatic relations are already nonexistent. There is no U. S. Ambassador in Cambodia at the present time. The ambassador - designate, Randolph A. Kidder, was told the other day that he would not be received.

Cambodia, it might be said, is just a heartbeat or step away from Communism.

Texas Food Roundup

Texas produce markets are making it easy for shoppers to enjoy the abundance of fall fruits now available.

Apples are especially abundant at attractive cost. So are cranberries. Emperor grapes are taking the spotlight from Tokays and will be most prominent for the next few weeks. Best quality Tokays are slightly higher at wholesale than last week.

Citrus shipments are up. Look especially for Texas and Florida grapefruit and Texas and Mexican oranges. Southern markets have received first tangerines from Mexico at early season prices. Bartlett pears continue in good supply, report market news offices of the Agricultural Marketing Service.

Fall nuts are arriving. Distributors are finding it difficult to fill pecan orders. The crop is small and prices fairly high. Fresh peanuts are abundant. And you'll find adequate supplies of walnuts, filberts and almonds.

Among vegetables, look for excellent offerings of pumpkins, squash, sweet potatoes, turnips, cabbage, carrots, celery, lettuce and onions. Lettuce and cabbage continue attractively priced at most markets. Most vegetable prices are unchanged from last week.

Red meats, especially beef and pork, remain abundant. Also in good volume at low cost are turkeys and broiler-fryers.

Water Ozuzels walk under- ing their wings much as they water searching for food, us- do in flying.

To the 5 out of 10 people who didn't believe this ad... a sporting proposition

Take a no-obligation test drive in a 1965 Ford. Maybe you just couldn't believe the ad (reprinted above) which appeared in his paper a few weeks ago. After all, many consider Rolls-Royce to be one of the world's finest cars. But Ford does it quieter. The world's leading acoustic experts (Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc.) made the tests. The U.S. Auto Club certified the results.

his year's Ford has the strongest body ever... a revolutionary new frame that "tunes out" vibrations... new ultra-soft coil-spring suspensions—all contributing to the new hushed ride. But the ride is only part of what's new.

- New swept-back instrument panel adds five inches extra knee room. ■ Transmission tunnel is lower than in competing cars for extra foot room. ■ Trunk has more usable space than ever—holds four 2-suiters standing upright.
- New ultra-luxurious LTD series — unmatched by any other car in Ford's class. ■ Silent-Floventilation (standard on 4-door hardtops) removes stale air, provides fresh air even with all windows closed. ■ Exclusive new twin-edge key—works with either side up.
- Hot, but hushed, 289-cu. in. V-8 is standard equipment in XL and LTD models.

Abilene Cotton Classing Office Reports Steady Week

Sample receipts at the U. S. D. A. Cotton Classing Office in Abilene were steady compared to the two past weeks. Samples received during the week ending November 6, totaled 14,573 which brought the season total to 80,863. At the corresponding time last season, about 35,000 samples were classed each week and the season total was 240,575. The cotton harvest in the Abilene Classing Area is about one-third complete.

Glascock, Howard, Martin, and Midland counties accounted for about 3,500 of the samples classed last week. The quality of cotton from District One improved slightly compared to the previous week. Forty-four percent of the samples were classed in the white category, 52 percent was light spotted and 4 percent was spotted. The amount of cotton called light gray, gray and below grade was less than one percent. Two percent of the samples were reduced in grade due to bark, grass or rough preparation.

Staple lengths were about the same as the previous week and their percentages were: 7/8, and shorter, 5; 29/32, 25; 15/16, 30; 31/32, 6; 1-inch, 3; 1-1/32, 2; 1-1/16, 9; and 1 1/2 and longer, 15.

Ninety-three percent of the mike readings were in the 3.5 - 4.9 range and 7 percent were 5.0 and above.

Prices received by producers were steady. Strict Low Middling Light Spotted and lower grades of cotton brought 80 to 135 points over the CCC loan rates. Price of Middling Light Spotted cotton ranged from 40 to 100 points over loan value. Select lots of long staple cotton brought up to 500 points above applicable loan prices. Demand for white cotton, except long staple having a desirable tensile strength was low and most of it was going into the loan. Cottonseed prices ranged from $48.00 to $50.00 per ton.

Thanksgiving Ingredients Plentiful

The most important ingredients for a traditional Thanksgiving dinner will be especially plentiful this November, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Look for an abundance of turkeys, cranberries and apples — all needed for that

Courtney Girls Auxiliary Met Tuesday, Nov. 3

The Girls Auxiliary of the Courtney Baptist Church met for their regular meeting Tuesday, November 3, in the church.

L. M. Hayes, Jr. spoke to the group on Korea. Hayes showed pictures of Korea, and displayed souvenirs from that country.

Those present were: Sheryl Bradshaw, Trina Shoemaker, Tricia Shoemaker, LaNell Williams, D'Lynn Williams, Darlene Flippo, Linda Flippo, and Mrs. J. R. Williams.

Mrs. Thompson Xi Epsilon Hostess Nov. 5

Xi Epsilon Delta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met in the home of Mrs. Dallas Thompson Thursday, November 5.

Mrs. Tull Ray Louder was in charge of the program. During the business meeting fall book review plans were discussed.

"Hobbies" was the topic of the program presented by Mrs. Jull Reid.

Refreshments of sandwiches, chips and coffee were served to the following: Mrs. Tull Ray Louder, Mrs. Jull Reid, Mrs. Floyd Walker, Mrs. Corene Manning, Mrs. Wallace Kelly, and the hostess.

Also designated plentiful by the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Marketing Service are beef, peanuts and peanut products.

Bigger turkey marketings during the three months preceding Thanksgiving and a larger cranberry crop than last year indicate heavy supplies of both of these foods. The apple crop estimated at 145.9 million bushels promises to be the largest since 1937.

Relatively attractive beef prices likely will continue through November, as beef supplies are expected to remain fairly large. A good peanut crop will probably send production slightly above last year, with heavy movement to market during November.

So enjoy the Thanksgiving favorites, and the other plentiful foods in November, for tops in fall eating.

FARM REVIEW AND FORECAST

THE STANTON REPORTER, THURSDAY, NOV. 12, 1964—7

Small grains can provide lush green pastures and good yields of high quality forage during the winter months if properly managed.

Winter pastures should be grazed only after the plants have become well-established, says Albert C. Novosad, extension pasture specialist, Texas A&M University. They must be allowed to develop a root system that is deep enough to use moisture and plant nutrients below the three-four-inch soil level.

Novosad points out that a plant's height best indicates whether or not its root system is well-established. Upright growth-type plants such as Alamo-X oats, Gator and Elbon rye and Gollard barley reach this stage at a height of eight-ten inches. Root systems of such intermediate type plants as Moregain, Sugarain and Victorgain oats are usually well established by the time they are six-eight inches high, while the more prostrate types such as Mustang oats must be four-six inches tall.

The difference between profit and loss on winter pastures is often determined by the first grazing, explains the specialist. One grazing too early may cut yields as much as 25 percent, while a combination of too early and too close grazing over a period of time can reduce forage production as much as 79-80 percent. Top growth is reduced and crown and root development are retarded.

Constant close grazing hampers the production of all small grains, contends Novosad, and also increases winter killing. Livestock should be removed when plants have been grazed down to a height of about three inches.

Lice are busy with their annual invasion of Texas livestock and will take a sizable chunk of producers' profits again this year unless controlled.

These pests appear in greatest numbers during fall and winter, and losses can be reduced materially if control measures are taken now, says Weldon Newton, associate extension entomologist, Texas A&M University.

Animals infested with the parasites usually are restless, eat less, do not have good feed conversion and have a rough, coarse appearance.

Sprays recommended for controlling lice on beef and non lactating dairy animals include Clodrin, coumaphos (Co-Ral), methoxychlor, malathion, dioxathion (Delnav), lindane, Ruelene, carbaryl (Sevin), ronnel (Korlan) and toxaphene.

There's more protection on the way for consumers.

It will be unlawful, starting next January 1, to label belts by using such words as "leather, hide, or skin" or to use pictures suggesting the hide or skin of animals to describe belts not truly made from animal skin, says Lynn Parks, extension consumer education specialist.

"Split leather" must then be so marked and not represented as "genuine cowhide," "alligator," or any other term leather, the Texas A&M specialist says.

If a belt is labeled alligator, it must in fact be made from alligator skin and not be cowhide just made to resemble alligator. Labels must indicate, as the case may be, "ground, pulverized, shredded leather, or plastic."

When belt leather has been treated to look like something else, a label must so state. For example, a label might indicate that a product is "split cowhide with simulated pigskin grain." If another kind of leather, or non-leather material is used for backing, the label must carry this information.

Selections for fresh vegetables are improving. They afford possibilities for eye-appealing salads and nutrition-rich dishes, says Mrs.

Gwen Cylatt of the Extension Service.

At most stores, the consumer marketing specialist says, there's variety in tender, young cooking greens — including collards, mustard and turnips and greens. Good offerings of broccoli, cauliflower, eggplant, celery, sweet potatoes and lettuce are to be found in most markets.

Cabbage prices remain relatively high. Don't overlook the waxed rutabagas and dry onions now on the market, the specialist says.

Retailers continue to offer "specials" on a steady supply of high quality beef. With cooler weather bringing a greater demand for pot roasts and stews, some stores feature the quick-cooking cuts, especially steaks and chops. Since cow slaughter remains high, there are good buys on ground beef.

Frying chicken remains at a low price level, with large supplies expected for the remainder of the year. Turkey, too, continues to be a good value, with quality high.

Pork values include smoked hams and picnics, half or whole pork loin roasts, shoulder roasts and steaks and pork liver.

Wilson To Issue First Edict Under Socialism

Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Great Britain will submit his ultimatum to the 43rd Parliament in London this week in regard to the nationalization or "takeover" of steel, now a privately operated industry in England.

Wilson's young labor-socialist government will rise or fall on the proposition of nationalizing the steel industry. A state takeover of steel will be presented as an essential part of Labor's wider plans for the social, economic, and industrial development of British resources.

But Labor has a majority of only five seats in the 630-member House of Commons.

"Money."

Miss Linda Troutt registered guests and Mrs. Delmar McDaniel registered gifts in the brides book. Mrs. McDaniel and Mrs. Clay Graham showed gifts on display in the adjoining room. Among the gifts were a complete set of teflon by the grooms parents and stainless steel flat ware from her parents.

Miss Thraikill, is bride elect of Billy Stribling.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Preston for the affair were Mes: Howard Preston, Delmar McDaniel, Clay Graham, Woodrow Pratt, Floyd Griffin, John Mayse, Bennett Blair, Alton Robertson, Allen Beaty, Tony Snyder, Hubert Thomas, Tony Snyder, Leonard Williams, Roy Linder, J. M. Templeton, Garland Cary, Billy Cornutt, and G. C. Martin.

Wilson gave his ministerial colleagues an outline of the legislative plans in a reception Monday night at his headquarters, No. 16 Downing St.

The new session of Parliament will be opened by Queen Elizabeth II. She will read a speech that has been written for her by members of Wilson's cabinet.

Wilson figures he must try to crash through with steel nationalization or lose the political initiative. If he is defeated, he will have to resign. A new general election almost surely would be called.

Other measures to be listed by the queen as evidence of Labor's aim to "modernize" the nation include:

- Increased pensions.
- Abolition of all state health service charges.
- Restoration of rent control.
- Curbs on luxury building.
- Extra taxes on unearned wealth.
- Speedup of school, university, hospital and road building.

Some 15 species of ragweed grow in the United States. They are chiefly coarse annuals with hairy stems and divided leaves. Five of the 15 cause most of the trouble; giant ragweed, dwarf or common ragweed, lance-leaved ragweed, western ragweed, and giant western.

The Launching Pad

By NEAL ESTES

SENATOR GOLDWATER was in high good humor following his defeat. He drove into Scottsdale, Arizona, near his home, to buy some paintings. One was a MARK COOMER painting of a clown weeping. He bought it for his daughter PEGGY, saying she likes clowns. He put this card with it: "I voted for BARRY."

PRESIDENT and MRS. JOHNSON entertained HUBERT and MRS. HUMPHREY at the LBJ Ranch following the landslide election victory. The menu consisted of barbecue, beans, cabbage slow, bread and beer. LBJ also put HHH in Western pants, jacket, boots, and hat and then enticed him to ride a horse. Both men were in holiday mood and obviously enjoyed their visit together.

REPUBLICAN GEORGE MURPHY, winner of the California senatorial post over PIERRE SALINGER, is the first movie actor to attain such a high national office.

THE month of November seems to be crowded with important dates and events in the lives of many of our people. We once kept a list of all the individual birthdays of a number of Stantonites in November. But the list has slipped away. That's a good way to admit we forgot where we put the thing. I think MARY GRACE LATIMER is a November girl, and I know JEANIE BENTLEY is. Her birthday is on Nov. 15. Your writer also remembers Nov. 10 is the wedding anniversary of the EARNST PRICES and Nov. 12 is the birthday of JOE VERNON REYNOLDS and of your writer, and Nov. 30 is the birthday of GUY BROWN, and HOWARD JENKINS, JR., celebrated a birthday on Nov. 1. BARBARA DOUGLAS observed her birthday on Nov. 9. She is a new staff member at THE STANTON REPORTER. Any of you other people knowing of birthdays and events, such as anniversaries, for this month and next month, let us know.

OUR getting ad section is picking up. We are even fitted insertion orders from out-of-town customers. We have contended for a long time that our classifieds get quick results. If you don't think so—try one. And the cost is so reasonable. For less than one dollar a result producing ad can be handled.

IN checking over the election returns from Martin County, we find that JIM LANGDON, railroad commissioner, received 1,034 votes here as compared to FLANAGAN'S 255. JUDGE LANGDON, well known, highly admired, and genuinely respected for his ability, fairness and honesty, is possibly the best qualified man Texans ever picked for a seat on this powerful commission. We are happy to have been associated with his campaign early this year in the May Democratic primary.

WE are happy that some of the better shows are back on the tube—that is—the comedies and westerns. We also enjoy personality sketches of some of our late, great Americans. A brief bit on the life of DAMON RUNYAN, the Broadway columnist was presented the other day. A new book about the famed newsman, "A Gentleman of Broadway," by EDWIN P. HOYT is on the newsstands. In the interview on tv it was revealed that RUNYAN'S two favorite characters were: "BILLY-THE-KID" and FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

IN talking with BOB JOHNSON the other day we learned that the 4-H boys would appreciate it most if some of the local citizens would turn out for the annual event. The boys are proud of their accomplishments and they need personal recognition for their efforts in addition to financial support.

THE final football game of the season will be played here Friday night when Stanton meets Plains. Our boys have done a good job this season and we should be in the stands Friday evening to help them say goodbye to the season. The game is also a district contest.

WE have contended for a long time that the most important elective office in any organization, be it civic club or church group, is that of the reporter. We get excellent cooperation from some efficient reporters, but others are delinquent about getting their news items in for publication. We wish to renew a cordial invitation to community reporters to write up and bring their reports to the newspaper office as soon as possible after the clubs meet. Thanks a lot.

THE financial statement for GRADY INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT appears in this issue of the paper. The statement for the FLOWER GROVE DISTRICT will appear in the next issue of the official county newspaper. It takes a lot of time and patience to prepare these statements. We suggest residents of both school districts pay special attention to them.

NEAL'S NUGGET: My postal box is on the bottom row. The other morning it was difficult for me to rise up with an armful of mail. A bystander asked why? My answer: "I have GOLDWATER on the knee."

Harold Cain Honored On His Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cain honored their son, Harold, on his 18th birthday with a party at the Cain home in Stanton.

The guests enjoyed home made ice cream and cake. Those attending included: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mashburn, Mr. and Mrs. Butch Cain, Miss Susan Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. James Mashburn, Mildred Langley, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Cain. Mrs. Sid Cross visited relatives in Midland last week.

Library Lines

MRS. RALPH CAFFEY, Librarian

Let's read to be a better informed community! To better meet the needs, beginning next Tuesday, November 17, the library will be open an additional four hours from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Come in and browse around.

Among the new books on our shelves are these: The Return of the Native, by Thomas Hardy. Set on the heaths and in the villages of Wessex, England, it unfolds a drama that becomes the living symbol for the universal struggle of existence.

War and Peace, by Count Leo Tolstoy. Within this book, Tolstoy has marshalled a panoramic array of kings, Princes and nobles as they lived and moved during the times of the great Napoleonic wars. The leading characters principally belonging to the highest Russian society.

The Brothers Karamazov, by Fyodor Dostoyevsky. Among the great novels of the world, this stands preeminent. It captures and conveys the highest exaltation and the deepest humiliation of the human spirit; it probes the soul and reveals, with profound psychological clairvoyance, the plight of man in search for some truth about himself.

Best American Plays, 1918-1958, a collection of outstanding plays such as Harvey, Tea-house of the August Moon, and the Diary of Ann Frank. Lord Jim, by Joseph Conrad, immortal novel of the sea, its rewards and perils—the story of man's guilt, his exploitation, and his final, tragic redemption.

The Importance of Being Earnest, by Oscar Wilde, a play regarded as a unique specimen of the comedy of cleverness.

Bennett House Opens Up Its Final Wing

Bennett House, Big Spring, this area's largest nursing home, has now opened the fourth and final wing of its large facility.

When filled, this will provide for 185 beds, if 15 of the units are utilized as private rooms. Otherwise, the facility could accommodate as many as 200 patients, said James B. Frazier, president.

Currently Bennett House has 145 guests, three-fourths of them from out of the area. The facility has filled more rapidly than projected in original plans.

The home at Ninth and Goddard was opened 14 months ago when the first unit was completed. Other wings have been equipped and opened as the demand increased.

The last wing, which also includes a nurse's station, will call for three more shifts of personnel, running the total number of employees to near 100, said Frazier.

Some study is being given to possibility of additional space, but these are purely of an exploratory nature, according to Frazier.

Local People Attend Area F.H.A. Meeting

Mrs. M. C. King, Mrs. Joyce Woody, and Linda Manning attended a meeting of the F.H.A. area officers Saturday, November 7, in the Big Spring Sr. High School.

Miss Thraikill Weds W. E. Stribling, Jr.

Miss Patricia Ann Thraikill became the bride of William E. Stribling, Jr. in a ceremony performed at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Lenora Baptist Church. The double ring rites were read by the Rev. W. H. Uhlman, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Stanton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thraikill, Star Route, Stanton, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stribling, Sr., 1401 Sycamore, Big Spring.

The wedding scene was illuminated by white cathedral tapers in seven-branched candelabra which flanked a white wrought iron arch centering the altar area. Emerald fern trees completed the background.

During the ceremony, the couple knelt on a white satin prie dieu and at the conclusion of the ritual, lighted a symbolic candle.

Jack Fryar, pianist, and Miss Sheryl Whitstone, vocalist, presented selections including "The Wedding Prayer," "Till the End of Time" and "Because."

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lustrous silk-faced peau de soie gown lavished with imported Alencon lace at the scalloped bateau neckline which dipped to a V in back. The lace flowed down each side of the chapel-length skirt. Her crown pill box was accented with pearls and anchored a waist-length bouffant veil. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bride-groom, and used the traditional bride's items, including a blue garter.

The bridal bouquet was of white Albatross roses and English ivy in a crescent design.

Attendants

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Earl Caulder, Fort Worth. She was gowned in a pale yellow dress of silk organza with fitted bodice and boat neckline. The back fullness of the belled skirt was accented with organza and taffeta roses. She carried a cabbage rose styled of salal leaves with streamers of English ivy.

Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Judy Williams Big Spring, and Miss Reba Saunders and Mrs. Covey Powell, both of Stanton, their dresses were in shades of green and styled identical to that of the matron of honor. The headresses were matching organza roses with blush veils. Each carried bouquets of yellow pompon chrysanthemums with ivy streamers.

The flower girl was Mary Franklin, Lenora, who wore a yellow taffeta dress with organza overskirt and matching headpiece. She carried a small white basket from which she scattered white rose petals.

The best man was Billy Preston, Loraine, and groomsmen were Jerry Robertson, Loraine; Donald Richie, Big Spring, and Earl Caulder, Fort Worth, brother-in-law of the bride. Kevin Large, the ring bearer and cousin of the bride, carried the rings on a heart-shaped satin pillow. Lighting the tapers were Kyle Large, the bride's cousin, and Tony Sawyer.

For a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the bride chose a beige silk suit with green accessories with which she wore the corsage from her wedding bouquet.

Mrs. William E. Stribling, Jr.

Upon returning, the couple will reside at 405-B W Hamby, Midland, where the bridegroom is employed by the local police department.

The bride is a graduate of Stanton High School and is employed by the Holiday Inn in Big Spring. The bridegroom is a graduate of Loraine High School and attended San Angelo Junior College before serving with the Marines.

and Mrs. Jane Bullard and family, all of Hereford.

The refreshment table was covered with a cloth of champagne lace over yellow linen, and the three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and adorned with wedding bells and roses. The attendants' bouquets were attached to a branched silver candelabrum holding white tapers.

Rehearsal Dinner

Held Thursday evening in Coker's restaurant, the rehearsal dinner was hosted by the parents of the bridegroom. Twenty-six members of the family and wedding party were seated at a U-shaped table centered with white carnations and gladioli arranged with silver candles. The couple presented gifts to their attendants.
