By NEAL ESTES

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL editorizing on budgets, federal and state, says: "The truth appears to be that, apart from the spending proclivities of most politicians, the nation is getting into the classic situation where the prudent must pour out more money of their resources to support a rapidly growing army of the improvident; more correctly, the people who are willing to take anything anyone is willing to hand them."

Wouldn't it be interesting to know exactly how much income tax the marchers in Mississippi paid, if any, to the support of the federal government they are demanding so much from these days. It's not that any individual wants to deny the earned civil rights of any other person—just that after they get their civil rights we don't want them to take all of ours too.

MISS SUSAN BRANDT is the new Rotary Club pianist. She replaces MRS. BERYL (BILLIE) CLINTON, who resigned because of other pressing duties. MISS BRANDT is a very talented young lady and mighty attractive. She was presented at the last meeting of the Rotary Club by BERYL CLINTON, superintendent of schools and outstanding Rotarian.

It has been suggested that some of the group singing and marching in Selma, Alabama be ordered to serve in the armed forces and learn something of how the freedom of this nation was won in other days and in other battles by defending our country's civil rights in Viet Nam. A tour of war duty might make the men and boys parading in the Alabama streets realize that America is not just one big ball, a moon pie and bottle of RC, paid for by government relief checks.

C. F. WHEELLES, regional director of a 34-county Parks and Wild Life area spoke to the STANTON ROTARY CLUB last Wednesday. His message was inspiring and he brought his listeners up-to-date on the needs for some new and uniform rules and regulations in the state. The speaker was brought to Stanton by MARTIN GIBSON, program chairman for the club. ELLMORE JOHNSON is the program chairman for the month of February. Thirty-six members and guests heard the WHEELLES talk.

JOHN DAVID used to work in and around the little East Texas town of Winona. JOHN can tell a yard of jokes about the tiny hamlet located in the sandy-loam area where rose bushes are grown for market. He must have got a great kick out of reading where one of the McCLUNGs — BUTLER — it was — who showed up short $380,000 at the bank. His wife, his sister, and his daughter, all directors in the bank, signed a notice of the bank's closing and posted it in the door. BUTLER was off and running — he made a big escape — went all the way to Tyler, about 20 miles away to "hide under an assumed name in the big city." But the long arm of the law had to reach but a short distance to grasp BUTLER by the neck and put him under arrest. BUTLER McCLUNG'S going only to Tyler after his financial demise in the little city of Winona reminded me of a fellow who caught the Katy railway passenger train at Greenville once and after finding a seat inside the day coach, put his head out of the window a n d yelled: "Goodbye Old Texas, I'm gone (Continued on page 4)

Hoyt H. Gilbreath, 57, well known Martin County resident, narrowly escaped death Friday morning when his car collided with a truck at a fog-shrouded road intersection between Stanton and Midland.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

MARTIN-HOWARD-MIDLAND SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT
Jack Buchanan, Bob Cox, Bernard Houston, Larry Shaw, J. D. Crawford.

A long, dusty spring has begun for people living in the sprawling plains of Texas and states to the east and northeast.

A major wind storm, coming out of the north and west on January 27, a month ahead of the normal blow season, blew topsail from a quarter of a million acres. The howling storm swept dust high into the air. It darkened the sun as it spread across Texas, Oklahoma, and Louisiana. A day later it hovered over Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Texas dust cut visibility to 1½ miles at Evanston, Illinois.

Winds had blown on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday to dry out and "soften up" the land before the big punch came on Monday. No one in the area escaped without damage. Two people were killed in an automobile accident near Lovell at the height of the storm when visibility was near zero. Blinding dust multiplied the frequency of road accidents throughout the area.

Traffic stopped. Airports were closed. Many unpaved roads were choked with sand or weed drifts, or were gutted with "potholes" dug by the wind, and became impassable.

Wind-blown sand and pebbles blasted the paint and chrome on automobiles and scarred and pitted windshields. Insurance claims mounted in the wake of the blow. Many cars couldn't be started until dust and sand were washed from engine parts.

House paint and windows were damaged. Roofs were lifted from many buildings. Neon signs were destroyed and others were damaged.

People took shelter to wait out the blow. Streets were abandoned. There were no customers in stores. A day's business was lost. Storekeepers watched helplessly as plate glass windows were blown in and fine sand sifted into merchandise on the counters.

Lights came on in homes and on the streets, but sand blew into switch boxes, caused short circuits and interrupted service. During this period a Big Spring hospital had to put its emergency power unit into operation.

Patients with dust-aggravated bronchial infections took all available beds in many hospitals, and overflowed into the halls and even the maternity rooms. Many had to be turned away. The county health board at Big Spring reported that the dust aggravated sinus conditions, colds, allergies and other health problems for many people who made no report.

Wind-blown soil poured into many ponds and reservoirs, reducing their capacity. Filtration costs for municipal water supplies will be higher as long as the sediment remains in suspension.

The cost of cleaning out all buildings, public and private, is high. Housewives say you just can't keep the gritty dust out.

Damage to the land was moderate to severe, with the greatest damage done on cultivated fields not protected by stubble, crop residues, or cover crops.

"In spite of the fact that range grasses produced less than one-fourth their normal growth last year because of dry weather, there was little blowing on grass land," said State Conservationist H. M. Smith of the Soil Conservation Service in Texas. "Good range management made the difference."

The greatest damage occurred in a triangular area with corners roughly at Odessa, Abilene, and Tulla. Snow on the ground in the Texas panhandle reduced blowing in that area.

The Avalanche-Journal at Lubbock editorially called for wider acceptance of conservation practices to control "blowing" topsoil, that stuff that city people insist on calling dust. The editor concluded that "Every dust storm should serve as a reminder that wind erosion can be held down."

"A storm as severe as this,

Texas Girls To Be Honored In San Antonio

Miss Mohair and Miss Wool of Texas will receive the royalty treatment in San Antonio on West Texas Day, February 18.

Through efforts of the wool and mohair promotion committee of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, the two Texas girls who represent the giant wool and mohair industries will be honorary mayors during this special day of the San Antonio Livestock Exposition.

They will be greeted by the red-clad Red Carpet Committee of the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, and will be given an aerial view of the city on the famous new San Antonio Sky Ride, and will make numerous personal appearances throughout the city to promote the ranch industry. Miss Mohair will be furnished an automobile by a San Antonio firm. Miss Wool of Texas already has one as a prize for winning the state contest.

Miss Mohair is Becky Crouch of Fredericksburg. Miss Wool of Texas is Lydna Rhea Allen of Sterling City.

To help emphasize mohair as the Angora industry grows, TS&GRA is printing bumper stickers with the words "Wear Mohair." These will be distributed for the first time from the TS&GRA booth at the San Antonio show.

so early in the season is a warning of damages that may yet be expected," Smith said. "The winds, which ranged far from the limited area of the most severe damage, has tended to dry out the soil and 'soften' it for wind storms sure to come this spring."

"The choking dust recalls vividly the big blows of the 1930's," Smith continued. "It was on such a day in 1935, when dust from the Plains darkened the sky in Washington, that Congress created the Soil Conservation Service without a dissenting vote. Since that time, changes in land use, grass planting and conservation practices promoted by the Soil Conservation Service have tied down millions of acres that won't blow this year."

But because of the conservation work done by farmers and ranchers throughout the Great Plains Smith thinks it unlikely that there will be storms this year of the magnitude of those that came during the great depression of the 1930's.

The Hindus practiced a form of plastic surgery as early as 800 B. C., according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Bible Comment—

Paul Preaches Freedom And True Brotherhood

Freedom and brotherhood are terms that need a lot of careful definition in the difficult times in which we are living. And there is no better guide to an accurate and workable definition of this term than the writings of the Apostle Paul.

Paul puts a great deal of emphasis on freedom. He had been a legalist, and the meaning of his conversion to Christianity has been the discovery of a new freedom. Religion became a matter of the heart to him. It concerned faith more than formal observance that lacked the spiritual reality.

When he lists the fruits of the spirit: Love, joy, peace, suffering, gentleness and goodness, his comment is final. He says, "Against such there is no law."

That is the essence of Paul's philosophy of freedom. It is always associated with goodness.

"The law is our schoolmaster," he declares, "to bring us to Christ." He adds, "Christ is the end of the law for everyone that believeth."

What Paul says concerning liberty in relation to Jewish law is true of liberty in relation to all law. Their citizenship to liberty makes all laws either a curse or a blessing.

Freedom and brotherhood were associated with each other in Paul's religion. The life that was lived in the path of freedom was fulfilling the law.

"All the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: 'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.'" That phrase expresses the feeling of brotherhood without any limitations.

Some persons claim that Paul's practicing of brotherhood was limited to the community of Christians. It is true that Paul did regard Christians as owing a special obligation to one another.

But the word "neighbor" meant the same thing to him that it meant to Jesus when He told the parable of the Good Samaritan.

Philosopher Sees No Way To Avoid Need For New Zip Code Reading Postal Gadget

Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his grass farm on Mustang Draw continues to fight progress, his letter this week indicates.)

Dear editor:

According to an article I read last night, a major breakthrough in the mail delivery system is at hand. The Postmaster General says a new machine finally has been perfected to read the zip code number on an envelope, and in a year's time these machines will be in use in major post offices around the country.

As I understand it, the machine reads the zip code number on an envelope, sorts the mail accordingly, and does it at the rate of 35,000 letters in an hour.

I have been thinking about this machine, and while I don't expect to get to see one for some time, after all the Stanton post office might be a little hard-pressed to find a use for a machine that reads 35,000 letters an hour, unless Washington ordered Postmaster Eldson to let the letters accumulate over a long period of time, and you know it wouldn't do that, still if a machine can read a long string of numbers written in pencil in long-hand, there's no limit to what it can do.

Couldn't it look through the envelope and see what was inside?

Mrs. Joyce Woody and son, Wayne, and daughter, Anita, spent the weekend in Lovington, New Mexico. The occasion was a family reunion celebrating the 90th birthday of Mrs. Woody's father, Fleet Gill.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Creech and family were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Cross, the past weekend.

Mrs. R. S. Lewis is a patient in the local hospital.

AMA Attacks LBJ's Plan

Dr. Donovan F. Ward, president of the American Medical Association, contended Saturday that the Johnson administration medicare plan "is a lure — not a cure — for the problems of the aged."

He spoke at a special meeting of the AMA's policy-making body, the House of Delegates. The session was called to discuss legislation in the health care field.

"Medicare would cover only a miserly fraction of the total medical costs of someone who is really sick," Dr. Ward said.

Medicare would cover hospital and nursing home care for persons 65 or over.

The AMA is backing the Herlong-Curtis bill, which would be based on private insurance to cover cost of hospitalization, physicians and drugs.

Saturday's meeting of the AMA delegates was called after President Johnson made the social-security-financed old age health program a part of his administration program.

The delegate voted to meet in open session.

The speaker of the house, Dr. Milford O. Rouse of Dallas, reported plans had been made to tape parts of the session as a format for a half-hour television program. He said the AMA had hoped to purchase time on a national television network to present the program.

"We have had to abandon this plan because we have been unable to obtain satisfactory time of any of the three television networks," he said.

West Texas Chamber Farm Tour Date Deadline Fixed

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce moved closer to its March 1-6 Farm and Ranch Management Tour into the agricultural valleys of Arizona and California this week and set a deadline of February 20 for reservations on the special train expected to carry 200 men westward for the weeklong trip.

W. H. (Bill) Lance of Perryton, chairman of the WTCC Agriculture Committee, set the February 20 deadline. Lance said any request which come into the West Texas Chamber offices after that date will be put on a standby basis and accepted if there are cancellations or if enough additional train equipment can be added to handle more than 200 tour members.

Texas farmers, ranchers, bankers, businessmen, and persons in fields related to agriculture will take the tour. It will cover the areas around Riverside, Sun City, Indio, Palm Springs, El Centro, Brawley, and Blythe, all in California, and the Parker Valley in Arizona.

Headquarters for the tour will be at Palm Springs, Calif.

Those on the tour will take a first-hand look at diversified farming and ranching operations in the rich agricultural valley in California and Arizona, Lance said, especially the way irrigation has turned once-desert areas into fertile, productive land.

Reservations may be made by writing the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Post Office Box 1561, Abilene, Texas. A check for the tour's cost of $258.00 should be included $268 for those in the Fort Worth-Dallas area because of increased transportation cost.) The cost includes Pullman bedroom facilities, all meals on the train, hotel rooms, chartered buses, and all planned luncheons.

To The Taxpayers Of Stanton Independent School District

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article was submitted to The Stanton Reporter for publication by members of the Stanton Independent School District and is self explanatory.)

Due to an ever-increasing number of students, and the continual rising costs of operation, your Public School System is faced with a two-fold problem. We need adequate space so that every single child will have the teaching and attention due him, and we need more money with which to provide him this education.

These problems, we are sure, are not new to you. There has been much conversation, much consideration and much study given to these problems by responsible, devoted citizens chosen from among you. There have been several solutions presented to this board, every one of which has been given careful consideration. The purpose of this open letter is to inform you of these proposals and to let you, the tax-paying citizen of the community, make the final decision, because, in the final analysis, it is up to you to decide the course of action you will take.

PROPOSAL NO. 1 — It has been determined that the cost of construction of eight classrooms and the repairs necessary to put the present elementary school building in proper condition, will be $125,000.00. The construction of these extra classrooms will permit the closing of the Courtney School and allow the necessary facilities for what should be adequate for the next ten years. Therefore, this proposal calls for approving a bond in the amount of $125,000.00. The approval of this bond will necessitate raising taxes to $1.85 per $100.00 valuation from the present rate of $1.60. Since the taxes at present are levied upon 50% of the valuation, this means that on a piece of property having a valuation of $10,000.00, taxes at present are $80.00 per year. If the bond is approved, taxes on the same property would be $92.50 — an increase of $12.50 per year, or slightly over $1.00 per month.

PROPOSAL NO. 2 — In the event the majority of the voters in the district do not favor a bond issue at this time, the existing facilities at Courtney could and would be used. Certain grades now attending the Stanton Elementary School would be transported to the Courtney building and certain grades now attending school at the Courtney facility would be transported to town. This arrangement would be left to the discretion of the Superintendent, who is charged with the responsibility of the smooth operation of the system. This proposal would not necessitate the bond election, but the tax increase would be less. Should this be the decision, the tax increase would be to $1.75 per $100.00 taxable valuation. By the same equation used above, present taxes on a $10,000.00 evaluation is $80.00 and would become $87.50, or approximately 75c per month increase. The necessary repairs to the Elementary School building would have to be accomplished and when money from regular sources becomes available.

We sincerely ask that you weigh the circumstances carefully, and let your decision be known by your action in the scheduled bond election.

gave me an idea which should develop into The Martin County Spring Frolic to be held sometime this spring at a time and place soon to be chosen by the chamber directors. It shall consist of concession stands, sports events for all ages, a box lunch auction and a band concert. There might be more additions but this is basically what is planned for now.

"We are going to attempt, with small activities, to involve the whole town in an awakening community pride. It is my opinion that when an individual group of individuals put something personal into their community a sense of accomplishment and pride accompanies it that cannot be replaced by aid from other quarters. This might not quite fit into other conceptions of community improvement but it used to be true that beauty created by one's own toil was more appreciated than that provided by a benefactor, and, we could possibly discover that there is still a spark left of our forefather's ingenuities just waiting to be fanned into a flame of achievement. At least, it will be worth the try."
"It could be that I am just a born optimist but I somehow feel that the year 1965 will reveal to the citizens of Martin County talents most of us did not dream existed among us. It is our hope that we will all discover and appreciate good things in each other and that we will appreciate to a greater degree the advantages of a small town and the reasons why we have chosen to be citizens of Martin County."
"We hope to continue all the 1964 activities of the Chamber so ably led by Jim Wheeler and add a few new ones upon occasion designed to make us all a more closely knit family rather than one pulling in separate directions."
"This is basically our aim for 1965."

Methodist Church Activities

Circle Two of the WSCS met Tuesday morning at the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Bob Bryan brought as the guest, Rev. Victor Ortiz, who showed slides on his missionary work with migrants throughout Texas, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, etc. Although the slides were taken in Alabama, Rev. Ortiz said that the problem is the same in Texas and his work is also the same.

Following the showing of the slides, a discussion was held on the problems pertaining to the local area and what can be done about it. One of the first things the Anglo-American can do is acquire the patience with the Spanish-Americans so that we can teach them. Also, we must understand the people. We must familiarize ourselves with the problems they face and be able to understand them from the Mexican's point of view.

Rev. Ortiz will be at the church next Monday afternoon to speak at the social of both Circles one and two at 3:30 p.m. All members are urged to attend and also not to forget the two families we are going to help.

Circle two will not meet next Tuesday morning. The meeting on February 23 will start the next study.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Battleground Of Justice

Truth emerges, Historian Macaulay once said, "when two men argue as fairly as possible on opposite sides."

For the moment, let's disregard that word "unfairly." Otherwise, Macaulay put his finger on the essential nature of a typical modern trial. The courtroom is a battleground. The role of the lawyers is not lofty neutrality but frank partisanship. They are not only their clients' advisers but also their champions.

Technically, this is known as the "adversary system" of justice. Far from deploring conflict, it actually relies on it. Just as the haggling of buyer and seller tends to produce a fair price, just as the bickering of liberal and conservative tends to produce a good government, so does the clash of opposing counsel tend to produce a wise judgment. A judge can do his job properly, wrote the late Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, "only with the light afforded by a real contest."

Of course, there are limits. The lawyer who argues "unfairly" — for example, by using documents that he knows are fake or testimony that he knows is false — is flagrantly violating his duty as an officer of the court. He is also flagrantly violating the Canons of Ethics of the legal profession.

But that doesn't mean that opposing attorney cannot, in all sincerity, offer sharply different versions of the same case to the judge. For facts are elusive. Driving which honestly seemed slow to the defendant motorist may have honestly seemed fast to the plaintiff pedestrian whom he knocked down.

Even when the facts are clear, reactions to those facts may honestly differ. The very same cooking odors, drifting out of a woman's kitchen, may be tantalizing to her own family — and an offensive nuisance to the people in the next apartment.

After all, disputes seldom reach the courtroom unless there really are two sides to the argument. It is the lawyer's task, and special talent, to bring out the strong points for his client and expose the weak points of the opposition. This is not just a service to his client. It is a service to justice.

(Some of the things you don't get in a Corvair are among your best reasons for buying it.)

Corvair by Chevrolet

The beauty of it, of course, goes deeper than the things you don't get. There's the other side of the coin—what you do get in their place.

Take the no window post, for example. What you do get is hardtop styling—with curved frameless side windows—in every Corvair closed model.

The transmission and driveline hump you don't get means more foot room. Thanks to Corvair's rear engine, the floor is practically flat.

No radiator—the engine's air-cooled—also means no water, no antifreeze and no hose leaks to worry about. All of which add up to some more important pluses.

Power steering? Power brakes? Corvair needs them like a centipede needs crutches. With most of the engine weight on the rear wheels, the front ones are free to steer easily. And stops are quick and sure—with no nosediving.

Come on down to our showroom and discover the difference.

The Communist Dogs Are After Mr. Hoover Again

The dogs of Communism are still attacking Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, our extremely efficient and courageous Federal Bureau of Investigation chief.

And the rugged individualist is striking back blow for blow. The FBI Director said again this week that his agency would never serve any special interest or go beyond its investigative duties.

"As long as the directorship of the FBI is entrusted to me, this bureau shall never become a lackey to self-serving individuals or pressure groups of any persuasion," he said.

Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of Ruth Holcombe February 4.

The group planned a Valentine party to be held at Cap Rock February 13. It will be a covered dish supper and game party.

Discussion was held on the programs that the chapter will have next year and the chapter plans to work up an original program.

Plans were also made to attend the state convention in Dallas on June 18, 19 and 20. Jeneane Perry gave the program on "We Live In Moments."

Refreshments of pie and coffee were served to Janell Britton, Jo Jon Cox, Jeneane Perry, Ginia Hopkins, Gracie Hanson, and the hostess, Ruth Holcombe.

Helen Dawson, 605 Colgate, Big Spring, was hostess to the Preceptor Nu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi on Thursday night, Feb. 4. During the business meeting conducted by Joyce Woody, the following committees were appointed: Scholarship Committee: Mamie Roten, chairman; Irene Long, and Mary Kathryn Bristow; Nominating Committee: Jendo Turner, chairman; Gerry Gates, and Mary Grace Latimer. These committees are to report at the next meeting.

The program was introduced by Mary Grace Latimer, program chairman "Personal Peace is Personal" presented by Helen Dawson, taken from the program outline Personal Enrichment.

The hostess served refreshments to Mary Prude Brown, Mary Kathryn Bristow, Polly Talton, Joyce Woody, Mary Grace Latimer, Irene Long, Mamie Roten, Sammie Laws, and Naomi Hedrick, a former active member.

Editorials

in an article in the FBI's monthly bulletin for police chiefs and local law enforcement agencies.

Hoover did not mention names. He did speak out recently when Negro leaders intimated that the FBI was not enforcing the Civil Rights Act as vigorously as it could. Mr. Hoover has headed the FBI since it was organized. When the fledgling gets out of the FBI Academy — if he ever gets in — he's a special man. The new agent has been turned out of a Hoover mold that has worked for 41 years — he's an FBI man, and proud of it. Even the student lockers at the Academy are different from most. They have no locks. Nothing ever has been pilfered from these lockers — just as the FBI has never been tainted with scandal in its 41 years under J. Edgar Hoover.

THE month of February is always an easy time to give a party, especially as far as theme and decorations go. We have the lovely sentimental Valentine's day for a party theme, or we can go patriotic and celebrate GEORGE WASHINGTON or ABE LINCOLN'S birthdays. It's easy to figure out an attractive centerpiece arrangement for the "Sweet Party," but in this jet age a log cabin for a LINCOLN'S birthday might be considered awkward by some. But don't give up the log and hatchet for a GEO. WASHINGTON party—because it is still important to hold with the truth in this country regardless of whether some national leaders think so or not. To refresh memories—GEORGE W. was the person who said, "Father, I cannot tell a lie." That's after he chopped down a cherry tree, and his Dad had called him on the carpet about it.

WASHINGTON, D. C. is experiencing rising crime. Many residents in all areas of the city, have resorted to patrolling. The men are forming their own vigilantes. Crimes such as housebreaking and robbery are common—and the more serious crimes such as murder, rape and the like are on the increase. The change in the complexion of the population in the nation's capital in the last few years has also seen crime indexes rise.

SARAH VAUGHN, the Negro singer who was the soloist at the most recent White House dinner, was found on the lower floor of the White House, after her performance, in a flood of tears. Asked what was wrong she replied: "I have just sung for the President and he asked me to dance with him. Twenty-five years ago when I first came to Washington, I couldn't even get a room."

DR. LESTER L. MORRIS, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Midland, made a talk in Big Spring last week when new offices of the Salvation Army Advisory Board were installed. Said the splendid Midland pastor: "The Salvation Army preceded the Peace Corps for it has been going always in the name of the Prince of Peace. It started a war on poverty before the war crawled into the arena of political popularity. It has been busy doing a job that needs to be done." DR. MORRIS, a native of Tyler, was a Chaplain in World War Two. He is one of the finest men and most able preachers in the United States today.

WE awakened Saturday morning to read in our newspapers where a pudgy, sly, so-called respectable banker — one BUTLER McCLUNG of Winona in East Texas, was charged with making false entries totaling $380,392.34 in the bank's records. This little banking institution was located in a small hamlet of about 450 people — trusting people in the majority. And here a community faker just shut the bank up — put paper over the windows — took the combination to the vault with him — left three defenseless women, all relatives, behind to face the shame and scandal of their sorry relative alone and went over to Tyler, registered in a motel under an assumed name and sighed. "It's over." How come it's over? This sort of thing has happened pretty regularly lately in Texas. What is the matter with the examiners—I would like to have the name and the address of the man who examined that bank the last time. The people need to pay more attention to these types of scandals.

REMEMBER the recruiting posters used by the U.S.A. showing UNCLE SAM in a red, white and blue outfit, a high top hat and with finger pointing read: "I want you." A few of those posters placed down in Selma would have a greater effect on some of the malcontents than anything we can think of. That boat ride to Viet Nam in uniform and with a gun to shoot Communist instead of distributing their propaganda in this nation would certainly have a sobering influence on many.

Stanton Music Club To Observe Music Month

Governor John Connally has designated February as American Music Month in Texas. In this designation, Governor Connally said, "Music, long the universal language, is one of the great arts and an outstanding feature of our culture."

DeVaney Calls For Support Cholera Bill

Enabling legislation that would permit Texas to participate in a federal-state hog cholera eradication program will be introduced soon in the 59th Legislature, according to C. H. DeVaney, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

Supporters of the bill include Texas Farm Bureau, Texas Swine Breeders Association and various other organizations connected with the swine industry in Texas.

The Stanton Music Club will have their observance of the "Parade of American Music" Wednesday, February 17, by performing all American music. This meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Edmund Tom. Mrs. Carl Leonard, Jr. is the president of the Stanton Music Club, and Mrs. Beryl D. Clinton, is the program chairman. For the past several years

Gov. Connally May Join Racing Stand

Eddie Arcaro and Dan Blocker plugged Tuesday for legalizing Parimutuel betting in Texas as a speculation mounted that Gov. John Connally might climb aboard the horse racing bandwagon. Connally was noncommittal on that possibility. After meeting with officials of the Texas Racing Association, Connally would say only that the bill authorizing local elections to legalize Parimutuel betting "is being backed by some mighty fine people." Rep. Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville, sponsor of the measure, estimates that it would produce $20,000,000 annually in new tax revenue. That could provide the financial cushion needed to give public school teachers the full $25-a-month pay raise they are demanding immediately, rather than the 10-year program of regular increases — with raises ranging only from $90 to $243 per year next fall — which Connally has recommended. Meanwhile, the TRA had the 117-pound Arcaro make his pitch to the legislature while the 285-pound Blocker, alias Hoss Cartwright of television's "Bonanza," tackled the entire state via his favorite medium.

THE LONG WAIT — Armed with sack lunches, candy bars and soda pop spectators crowded the Mart in County district courtroom, awaiting the decision of the jury for confessed slayer Daniel Odell McDonald.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

MARTIN-HOWARD-MIDLAND SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT

Jack Buchanan, Bob Cox, Bernard Houston, Larry Shaw, J. D. Crawford.

Cover crops are considered to be a crop of close-growing grasses, legumes, or small grain used primarily for summer or winter protection and soil improvement. They usually occupy the land for a period of one year or less.

The primary purpose of these crops are to provide a protective vegetative cover on areas subject to erosion during periods when the major crops do not furnish adequate cover. They also maintain or improve the physical, chemical and biological condition of the soils.

The following are some of the suitable crops which fall in this category. Small grains, Austrian winter peas, sweet clover, and cow peas (except blackeyes.)

In managing cover crops one may harvest legume seeds provided all residues are left on the land. Grazing may be done at anytime, provided enough growth is maintained to protect land at all times. Generally a four inch coverage stubble height should be maintained on legumes, and at least 50 per cent of carbonaceous type plants should be left.

Crop residues of at least 1,250 lbs. an acre on medium coarse texture soils, and 1,750 pounds an acre on coarse texture soils should be maintained on soil surface at all times through the critical wind erosion period ending about April 1 each year.
