The reading "problem" wasn't a problem until, starting some 30-odd years ago, the progressivists and modern educationists began cementing their stranglehold on public school systems in America. They turned the teaching and learning of reading into a "problem" by substituting for the time-honored and effective phonics method their look-say system of "teaching" (if you'll pardon the expression) reading.

Dr. Trace has a better name for the look-say method and the type of inance, asinine, innocuous books for youngsters it has produced. He calls is "programmed retardation.

invite our subscribers to read a pair of editorials appearing just this week in the El Paso papers on this California rioting and for the record I want to point out that both El Paso publications supported LBJ for the place he now holds. They appear in this issue of the paper. There are other newspapers all over the country who are also awakening and many, many radiotorials are being read in various sections of the country against the spread of the socialistic bunk being shaved down the public throat. Right now, the answer is to start planning to either have our men in Washington straighten up and vote right or retire them from public office. America just can't stand the cost in human life and money this "Great Society" thing is costing.

As a requirement for holding down a job on any fire department in a metropolitan area under the "Great Society" it is necessary to be able to at least read and write. But the voting franchise was extended by federal edict by the rubber-stamp Congress at the urging of LBJ to illiterates just a few days ago. The Los Angeles riot — or jungle war in the streets followed quickly. The looting, burning, and killing out there also followed closely on the heels of a visit by MARTIN LUTHER KING. He was conveniently on his way to Puerto Rico when the undoubtedly Communist-in spired trouble started. That's a favorite KING pattern. He always appears after the non - violent, violent, "troops" have caused damage, destruction, and even death. He comes in as a piper of peace. KING'S peace is as artificial as he is. And unless Congress puts the breaks on this foolish "Every-Man-A-King" jazz and tosses the blueprint for paradise out the House windows, we will continue to have jungle wars here in the states. And every fireman in the country will have to include a bullet proof vest in his gear or take the chance of being hit by sniper fire while upon a ladder trying to save some innocent, taxpaying person's property from fire caused by looting, crazy, wildly yelling arsonists.

SOMETIME ago, when we dropped in for service at the BROWN TEXACO SERVICE STATION, we chanced to remark to CHARLEY BROWN that we would like "to have a fresh water catfish from East Texas." Early last week MR. and MRS. BROWN returned from a fishing trip way down in the Comstock country and they brought us back a nice, three-pound catfish. That fish wasn't gathered up from the winding waters of the Sabine or Neches, but it had all the resemblance and taste of one caught right out of Caddo Lake and that's in East Texas too.

THE paper has a subscriber down in Madison-ville, Texas, and we understand he is a banker there now and formerly lived in Stanton We received a renewal check Tuesday from R. M. HENDERSON and we want to acknowledge his subscription. We might add that the president of our state press association is from Madisonville. The writer met WINN CROSSLEY for the first time out in El Paso the past week. Editors are in constant need of good bankers who understand us, MR. HENDERSON, and we hope this paragrph will find favor with both YOU and WINN

THE ability to bring about team work between two individuals in any community is a worthy one. This week a salute to BOB JOHNSON, able county agent of Martin County, is in order. BOB helps us get the news out to the people. He keeps up with the weather reports and conditions in the area and does a good job. BOB goes further -- he cooperates with his local editor and this week even chased us down in the town drug store to advise us of a report.

N Monday afternoon an account of our newspaper winning honors at the WEST TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION annual convention held in El Paso, appeared in THE MIDLAND REPORTER-TELE-GRAM. Tuesday morning we received a splendid message of congratulations from DR. L. L. MORRISS, pastor of the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, Midland. The pastor inclosed the clipping and wrote these words: "Congratulations on your well edited paper. I enjoy reading it." The editor of this tribune and staff appreciate DR. MORRISS' written message and it will be our continued aim to try to get a newspaper in the mails with the thought ever present that we can do as good a job in our field as the Midland pastor is doing in the area of his chosen labors.

T never, never, want to leave the impression that everyone is pleased with, likes, or endorses the contents of this column. But our column is fair. We do not expect total reader acceptance. No country editor can please all of the politicians or misguided followers of those shifty political lieutenants. We simply print what we think is the honest truth. Truth, in journalism, is the best defense of criticism. I sincerely accept the thinking of ELBERT HUBBARD who wrote the following lines about VICTOR HUGO, and we quote: "Men like him are not to be blindly followed but rather to make other men think." I trust that the occupants of the nose cone in my little Martin County capsule understand that the editor's countdown before they leave the pad, is plain American vanilla, all the way back to the love of GOD, freedom and the flag.
