STANTON OPTIMIST CLUB members hosted a Zone J meeting at Cap Rock Willie Wirehand Room here Tuesday morning at 6:30. JERRY HANSON, JIMMY WHEELER, RICHARD PAYNE and other Optimist clubbers planned a real nice affair for more than 100 visiting brothers from Lamesa, Odessa, Midland and Big Spring. A vice president of Optimist International, WALTER COOK, Ft. Worth, was the principal speaker.

DOYLE CORDER, minister of the Church of Christ, and president of the STANTON ROTARY CLUB, expressed gratification for the success of the club sponsored Pancake Party held last week before the football game with Denver City. The Rotarians are always careful about the programs they sponsor and they do not call on public support often for these affairs which provide money for worthy causes. I might add, and without attempting to be humorous, that some of the fans enjoyed the pancakes more than the football contest that followed. The score, 54-0 in the game, did not offer a true picture of the type game our boys played. It was a real spirited affair.

GEORGE DAVIS brought a large two-pound pear to the office Tuesday for our inspection and to prove that Martin County has the right soil for growing such beauties. GEORGE plucked the pear from one of the lower limbs of his tree in the back yard of his home here. While showing the editor his fine specimen from the fruit world, GEORGE spotted MRS. WYLLIE CLEMENTS coming in the office to renew her subscription and said: "She lives across the street from me and I showed her this pear yesterday." MRS. CLEMENTS got a bang out of another comment GEORGE made. He said: "I was told not to take my pear across the street because the CLEMENTS might can it."

Tuesday morning I lost a pair of prescription glasses and called HAMILTON OPTOMETRIC CLINIC in Big Spring to see if it might be possible to get another pair without coming over for an examination. DR. ALLEN HAMILTON assured us he would have the glasses fixed by 4 p.m. that afternoon and ALTON TURNER went over with us to pick them up. While we were in Big Spring we stopped by the grocery owned by BILL COGGIN, son of Commissioner and MRS. MASON COGGIN, and visited for a short time. BILL and family are doing fine and he reports business prosperous. On the way over to Big Spring for my glasses I made a pretty sorry cut near the detour just outside the Stanton city limits and ALTON asked: "Can you see to drive without your glasses?" I assured him I could but I got the feeling he was more comfortable on the way back home than he was going over.

I had a cup of coffee with O. B. BRYAN, manager of Cap Rock Electric, in BROWN'S drug store Tuesday morning and he brought me up to date on the latest political story going the rounds these days. Although it was a clean tale, I can't repeat it here for fear some of our mutual friends might think we have changed our politics and that just isn't the case. O. B. has his convictions and I have mine and our sometimes differences in opinion have never hampered our friendship of a dozen years.

club members Tuesday morning at a 6:30 a.m. breakfast held at Cap Rock Electric Co-operative Willie Wirehand room.

The meeting was called for all clubs in International Zone J and more than 100 men were in Stanton from Lamesa, Big Spring, Odessa, and Midland, as guests of the Stanton club. Guest speaker for the event was Walter Cook, Fort Worth attorney, long associated with Optimist International affairs. Cook is currently serving as vice president Optimist International and is a capable speaker.

Gerald Hanson, president of the Stanton Optimist Club, opened the meeting and Rev. Richard Payne, secretary of the local organization and pastor of the First Methodist Church, gave the invocation. The pledge to the flag was recited by the audience and Lt. Gov. Tim Fambrough of Zone J introduced Cook.

District TFMC Holds Seventh Conference

The Twelfth District Texas Federation of Music Clubs, held its seventh annual conference in the First Methodist Church of Odessa, on Saturday, October 14. Presiding was Miss Rebecca Stiles, president of Twelfth District.

The conference was dedicated to Mrs. R. P. Morrison, Odessa, prominent worker in civic circles. Theme of the conference was "Harmony and Unity via Federation."

Mrs. Delton Bumgardener, Carthage, president of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs, was guest speaker at the luncheon. Robert Mann, conducted the Midland-Odessa Symphony and Choral, was also a guest for the luncheon.

Choirs from Permian and Odessa High Schools, and the Big Spring Madrigal Singers appeared on the program.

Members attending from Stanton Music Club were Mrs. James Jones, Mrs. Carl Leonard, Jr., and Mrs. Glenn L. Brown. Each of them made reports during the business session. It was announced that the Achievement Record Book of the Stanton Music Club, was awarded first place. The book was prepared by Mrs. Roy Koonce.

Mrs. Homer Schwalbe and Mrs. Glenn L. Brown were re-elected to serve on the District Twelve slate of officers.

The conference was in charge of the Odessa Music Clubs.

Denver City Defeats Stanton Buffs 54-0

Denver City's Mustangs won over Stanton in a conference game here last Friday night by a top-heavy 54-0 score but the score failed to reflect the type of fight the Bisons put up before being overwhelmed by the visiting team.

The first quarter was a fine 25-percent exhibition of two evenly matched football clubs and the half ended with the Buffs barely behind. The half-time score was 8-0 for the Mustangs. Then in the last half, with plenty of reserves on hand, and a deep bench the Denver City crew started on a wild rampage.

Without taking a thing away from the Mustangs, the final game score was not a true indication of the type of football the Buffaloes played.

Stanton had started out like it wanted to win from the opening whistle. David Jones took the opening kickoff in his end zone and returned it to the 22. On the first handoff

Lions Listen While Tree Doctor Talks

Charlie Eckert was guest speaker at Tuesday's meeting of the Stanton Lions Club. An interesting and entertaining program was provided as Eckert showed the Lions branches from his pecan trees. The branches of several species of trees contained an abundance of pecans still in their pod.

The use of sprays and fertilizers and other applications were explained. The use of live lady bugs had also been used in disposing of unwanted insects, Eckert related. An open discussion ended the program.

The meeting was opened with Tom Angel, president, presiding. Lion J. R. Dillard led the pledge to the flag. The invocation was voiced by Lion Cecil Bridges. F. O. Rhodes led the sing-song, accompanied by Sweetheart Pauline Wood.

Lion Paige Elland introduced Fred Bowlin as a new member. Guests were Eddy Fort of Lubbock, and Martin Gibson. Fifteen n members were present.

Southwestern Completes Well In Glass Area

By JAMES C. WATSON
Southwestern Natural Gas Inc. of Midland No. 1 Wade, formerly a Martin County dry hole, has been completed as an addition to the Glass, North (Wolfcamp) area, five miles southeast of Patricia.

Chambers & Kennedy of Midland originally drilled the project and plugged at 12,208 feet in June 1963.

From perforations between 9,227 and 9,583 feet, it flowed at the daily rate of 213 barrels of 41-gravity oil on an 18-64-inch choke with surface pressure registering 275 pounds. The pay was treated with 1,000 gallons of acid and fractured with a mixture of 60,000 gallons of oil and 120,000 pounds of sand.

The operation is 660 feet from south and east lines of labor 3, league 260, Borden County School Land survey.

An outpost location has been staked in Glasscock County by Gulf Oil Corp. as a mile southwest flanker to the Credo (Wolfcamp) reservoir.

No. 1 Fay Hildebrand is located 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 24, block 30, W&NW survey, 13 miles northwest of Garden City. Scheduled depth is 8,000 feet.

Big Caravan Of Cars To Carry Fans To Game

The largest caravan of cars in the history of Stanton is expected to carry fans to the football game to be played in Post Friday night.

Coach Bryan Boyd said at press time Wednesday that all squad members would be ready for action, including David Jones, quarterback, who was injured in the Denver City game last Friday night.

Halloween Carnival Slated For October 28

Bob Deavenport, president of the Buffalo Booster Club, announced that the Buffalo Boosters would again sponsor the annual Halloween Carnival on Saturday night, October 28. The carnival will be staged in the Junior High gym and will have entertainment for both the young and the old.

Once again there will be a large selection of games and booths. There will be a food booth in the Junior High cafeteria featuring a spaghetti supper and homemade pies and cakes. Prizes will be awarded to the best costumes at the carnival.

More details will be announced later.

The Stanton club still has a fine chance of taking the district title if Denver City falters along the way. Stanton has won four and dropped two games over the pigskin course to date and in conference play stand at .500 per cent with one loss and one victory.

Stanton coaches nominated Don Burns as lineman of the week for his excellent play in the Denver City game last week and Bert Decker was voted the top back - of - the-week for his stellar performance throughout the contest.

Stanton's B squad travels this Thursday night to Coahoma for a game with the Bullpups of that city. The B team has won four games and lost only one this season.

Stanton fans will follow the team to Post Friday afternoon and plan to arrive in plenty of time before the kickoff. Post has won one game and lost five during the season and have not scored a district victory to date.

The Bisons have been picked by area sports writers to win the game by a two-touchdown margin.

WILD WATER—Stanton suffered a complete water black out last Thursday when a stubborn valve failed to close the mains and finally twisted off. The result was a geyser type upshoot of wild water which continued to leap skyward for several hours before workmen could bring it under control. A project to improve the flow of water through the mains caused the trouble, a city spokesman said. Six-inch lines are scheduled to replace the old two-inch lines in some sections of the city. The picture was made of the man-made waterfall near White Motor Company on St. Mary Street.

FREE FISH—Bill Dixon, representative of the U. S. Wild Life Commission, was in Stanton last week to deliver requisitioned fish for pool stocking. The program was made possible through the Soil Conservation office here. Some of those receiving the free fish included: Kenneth Campbell of Tarzan, Don Holcombe, and Sam Wilkinson. Dixon delivered catfish and blue gill on the recent trip.

'Man On Street' Eyes U.S. Mess

Former Alabama Gov. George Wallace said the man on the street is going to straighten out the nation's messes in 1968.

Wallace said the average man is tired of being told by pseudo-intellectuals, bureaucrats, courts and liberals what he can or cannot do.

"If the nation's two major political parties don't heed this discontent in 1968, the people will make some changes and there just might be more than two men running for president," Wallace said in a speech before the Houston Junior Bar.

"That's why the major party leaders fear the possibility there may be a third party candidate."

Otherwise, Wallace made no direct reference to the possibility he may head a third party ticket.

"We wouldn't have some of today's trends if they were put to a vote of the people," Wallace said.

"The average man is getting tired of the contention pseudo-intellectuals must lay down the guidelines on how one must live. The people run this country — not some people with beards, not some pseudo-intellectuals, not some judges, not some professors, not some editors. There will be a change in 1968."

The average man, Wallace said, "is getting made all the way from here to Sacramen-

Philosopher Claims New Child Psychologists' System Has Been Going On For Some Time

(Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his grass farm on Mustang Draw may be way out of his field this week, but then we're not sure what his field is anyway.)

Dear editor:

Sandwiched in between a bunch of articles on what about Viet Nam by people who don't know either and how Congressmen can cut spending and raise taxes without losing their jobs, in a newspaper I found hanging on a fence out here on this Martin County grass farm yesterday morning, was an article on a new technique developed by some child psychologists for getting smart but indifferent children to learn in school.

The psychologists said there are lots of intelligent kids in school who simply won't learn, despite all the motivational devices the teachers employ.

So they're hit on what they call a brand new idea: They shout at them.

Ask a kid what he has just read on a page and if he says "I don't know," shout at him, scream at him, tell him to read it again and keep shouting until he does and gives a satisfactory report.

The teachers, who probably had been wanting to scream for some time anyway, reported the kids at first burst into tears but then, to get rid of the shouting, buckled down and the psychologists announced they were pleased to have discovered a new technique.

I don't know anything about psychology, except that most child psychologists don't seem to have much better luck raising their kids than other parents, but I don't believe that screaming at kids is a very new idea.

I don't mean to say you can't over-do it, but I doubt if there are very many successful grownups who weren't shouted at from time to time when they were children. It's my guess that there are times when reasoning is the proper course in handling a child, but there are other times when nothing else is quite so apt and demanded than an unpremeditated top-of-the-lungs shout. I know a few teen-agers right now who'd be in better shape if somebody had blasted them into line with a few screams when they were five or six.

Of course when you run into a kid who screams back, you've got a different situation. There are some problems with no answers, as me and Congress very well know.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Bible Comment—

The Forgiveness Of Sins, According To The Riches Of His Grace

The climax of Paul's first recorded sermon is reached in verses 38 and 39 of Acts 13, where he declares:

"Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this Man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

"And by Him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses."

Thus God, through Christ, first forgives and thereupon justifies those who believe. Nor is this all that was accomplished for us by the death of Christ at Calvary. There is also reconciliation, baptism by the Spirit into Christ and His Body, a position at God's right hand in the heavens and all spiritual blessings there.

"The forgiveness of sins" must come first, however, and the above passage assures us that in Christ we have this—not barely, but "according to the riches of His grace." Indeed, the next verse continues: "wherein He hath abounded toward us . . ."

Thus Eph. 2:2-7 declares that though we were "the children of disobedience," and therefore "by nature the children of wrath," "God, who is rich in mercy, for His great love wherewith He loved us" has given us life and raised us from the dead, exalting us to "heavenly places in Christ . . ."

The reason for all this? "That in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus" (verse 7).

When God forgives us He no longer sees us in our poor selves, but in Christ, who took our place, dying for our sins on Calvary's cross.

HEALTH and SAFETY TIPS

from the AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION
535 N. DEARBORN STREET
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60610

Common Problem Sometimes Serious

Hemorrhoids, commonly known as piles, are one of the most common health problems encountered today.

Hemorrhoids are enlarged veins inside or just outside the rectum, somewhat like varicose veins in the legs. A frequent cause is constipation that results in straining, but there can be other causes as well. Anything that interferes with flow of blood through the rectal veins can cause hemorrhoids.

Hemorrhoids themselves seldom are dangerous to life, but the condition that causes them can be serious and should be corrected. They also can cause considerable discomfort, and even pain. Hemorrhoids do not turn into cancer, but rectal symptoms that appear to be hemorrhoids may actually be caused by cancer.

Many cases can be relieved by medical treatment. Some require surgery, but the operation usually is not a serious one.

If hemorrhoids are caused by constipation, they can be made worse by self-treatment, especially if laxatives are used regularly. Continued bleeding can cause anemia. If a blood clot forms in a protruding veins, pile can be extremely painful. If untreated, they can break and hemorrhage.

Hemorrhoids are common among women during pregnancy. Every expectant mother should see her doctor early in pregnancy. Prevention of hemorrhoids is one of the things he will discuss with her.

Even though you have no apparent symptoms of piles, your doctor will often make a rectal examination each time you report for a physical checkup. Only in this way can beginning cases of medical problems of the rectum be discovered early.

HELP FOR THE SHY CHILD

How does your child rate with others? Is he outgoing, considerate, a pretty good conversationalist, a good listener, well-groomed, well-mannered, interested in hobbies, sports and other people?

How does he get along with people? Perhaps your back-to-school boy or girl is a shy child — self-conscious in the presence of others, bashful and timid. Naturally you want to build up his confidence.

Often a shy youngster responds to the introduction of a hobby he can share. Boys or girls with cameras, for example, will often find themselves in the midst of things. Snapshots and slides involve others. Fellow students enjoy posing for pictures and look forward to seeing the results.

If your youngster doesn't own a camera, there's a splendid idea for a gift. It can be easy to use, light to carry — and light on the budget. The new instant-loading models, like the Kodak Instamatic 104 Camera, are especially convenient. And they produce great results with just a little effort.

Taking pictures may motivate the shy child to move into the thick of things, snapping pictures at the next school party, football game or family gathering and forgetting his own bashfulness.

With hands and mind busy, there's hardly time to be self-conscious. Even if he isn't voted class president next term, the gift of a camera may be just what he needs to help bring out confidence he didn't know he had.

Eddy Arnold Smash Hit In Nightclubs

The blue and pink spotlights converged, a drum rolled. Country singer Eddy Arnold walked on, bowing, smiling—and nervous.

"I figured it'd be a sophisticated crowd," he said afterward. "I didn't know how it'd come off."

The "Tennessee Plowboy" needn't have worried. In smart but down-deep-folksy Hollywood the 46-million record seller, long a favorite in the hinterlands, was a smash.

A turnaway crowd of nearly 1,000 in the Ambassador Hotel's Coconut Grove gave Arnold two standing, shouting, whistling ovations last week on the opening night of a three-week engagement.

It loved his informality: "I'm sort of a 57-varietal singer. I do a bit of everything."

"Gosh, I was never even in the lobby of this place before."

And when the pants of his brand-new tux started to slide: "I shoulda worn suspenders."

The voice faintly suggests Bing Crosby; the long-jawed face, with cleft chin, Kirk Douglas. Except for a 17-minute turn with a small group at Las Vegas' Sahara Hotel in 1953, this was Arnold's first major nightclub engagement. For his hour-plus act he had 27 musicians.

The crowd clapped along with hard-riding rafter raisers like "Wreck of the Old 97" and cheered at the first note of ballads like "Turn the World Around" and "Make the World Go Away."

Does hiptown acceptance mean a new trend in popular music?

"Country music probably is enjoying the greatest success it's ever had," Arnold says.

"It's getting more exposure by radio stations all over the country. It's appearing on prime-time television. And I think John Q. Public is just ready for it. It's sort of becoming the in thing to like it. My fan mail comes now from all over — Los Angeles, Chicago, Boston."

Arnold, 49, a Tennessee cotton sharecropper with his two older brothers after their father died, learned his first chords from his mother on a borrowed mail-order guitar. He sings now with symphonies and plans a second Carnegie Hall appearance in New York next spring.

Between engagements he lives on a Nashville cattle farm with Sally, his wife of 25 years. He has interests in real estate, auto sales, music publishing, water utilities and 400 units of apartments.

Farm & Ranch Review

Giant Among American Industries — That's the term used by W. E. Black, extension economist at Texas A&M University, to describe the U. S. agricultural industry. And he adds, it still has the capacity to produce more than commercial markets will absorb at prevailing prices and continues to be the consumers' best friend.

Farm Credit Expands — Texas farmers and ranchers are continually using more agricultural credit. On January 1, 1967, they had debts of just over two and one-half billion dollars, says James Mallet, extension farm management specialist. Two-thirds of the debts were for real estate loans while non-real estate loans accounted for the other third. Average land prices have increased from $60.54 per acre in 1954 to $114.30 per acre in 1964 and size of farms from 497.7 acres in 1964 to 690.9 acres in 1964 to 690.9 acres in 1964. Agriculture is big business in Texas.

For a quick spread, drain sardines and mash with mayonnaise. Spread on crackers and sprinkle with minced green olives.

Foretold Invention In his tale, "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," Jules Verne wrote about the submarine almost 30 years before it was invented.

Alert For Screwworms — Throughout Texas, livestock producers should continue to check their stock closely, treat all wounds, collect and send any worm samples to the Mission Lab for positive identification. New cases of screwworms are intensifying in the overwintering area, and if not stopped, will mean additional problems next year, says Dolph Briscoe, Jr., president, Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation.

DID YOU KNOW THAT?

Research in tree improvement by the Texas Forest Service has produced a strain of pine trees that shows growth far in excess of the average trees. A plantation of ordinary trees grew 108 cubic feet in 10 years. In contrast, one planted with the selected strain grew 131 cubic feet in the same period, a difference of 17 per cent in growth. This study is but one part of the overall tree improvement program of the Service aimed at producing better quality trees for tomorrow's timber grower.

County Agent's Column

Animal health officials and Texas livestock producers are expressing grave concern over the rapidly rising number of screwworm cases being confirmed in the state.

Sixty-eight cases have been confirmed in the past 10 days, and the 66 the previous week upped the Texas tally for the year to 300 cases.

Last year at this time, 291 Texas cases had been confirmed. Cases continued to mushroom through the fall months of 1966, with more than 1,000 cases literally exploding in the state by mid-December.

Dolph Briscoe, Jr., of Uvalde, president of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, today cautioned that recent floods in South Texas and good rainfall through Central and West Texas serve to pose the greatest threat to the screwworm program since eradication was achieved in 1964.

He points out that numerous cases have been reported through the Hill Country and southward in the overwintering area.

"We are most fortunate that the Southwest Screwworm Eradication Plant at Moore Field, near Mission, came through Hurricane Beulah and resulting floods without any serious damage. We are particularly indebted to the loyal personnel at the plant, many of whom stayed there and worked three days straight without leaving the plant in order to maintain fly production at necessary levels. Their devotion to the eradication program deserves our eternal gratitude," Briscoe says.

Livestock producers must face the fact, he added, that the high winds from Hurricane Beulah could have blown many native fertile screwworm flies into South Texas from below the barrier zone in Mexico.

"The danger now is that a build-up of native flies could occur in any part of Texas, and if unreported, could cause the screwworm case situation to get out of control rapidly. I would like to urge all livestock producers to be particularly vigilant in checking their stock, and sending any worm sample to the Mission Lab for diagnosis immediately," Briscoe adds.

Lamesa Cotton Classing Office To Open Oct. 23

The Lamesa cotton classing office of the U. S. Department of Agriculture will be open to receive Smith - Doney samples on Monday, October 23.

This has been announced by John L. McCollum, manager of the Southwest area cotton office, USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service, Dallas.

The office handles classing for Andrews, Borden, Dawson and parts of Lynn and Martin counties.

J. U. Dedear, assistant officer-in-charge at Austin, will head the seasonal office. A graduate of Southwest Texas State College, San Marcos, he has been with USDA's cotton division six years. Mr. Dedear has also had assignments at Harlingen, Corpus Christi, and Memphis, Tenn.

Around 175,000 bales were classed at Lamesa last year. The office determines grade, staple and micronaire reading on cotton.

Veterans Administration

Veterans who sell their homes and permit the buyer to assume their GI loan should get a release of liability from the Veterans Administration. The VA warned that those who do not get such a release remain liable in case of subsequent foreclosure.

VA will issue a release provided the new buyer is approved with a good credit risk. The VA said, however, that a release from liability does not restore the veteran's eligibility for another GI loan. Eligibility is restored only when the VA is no longer liable to the lender on the guaranty and if the veteran:

Food Marketing — Food marketing, no matter how viewed, is big business in terms of the number of people employed. Last year about 13 million workers were employed in the agricultural marketing field, reports Dr. W. E. Black, extension economist in marketing and policy at Texas A&M University. This number, he adds, is more than twice the number of workers employed on all the farms in the United States.

Cattle On Feed — Cattle and calves in Texas feedlots on September 1 numbered 604,000 head. This is 24 percent more than a year ago and 3 percent more than a month ago, reports the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Fire Prevention Week — The period from October 8-14 has been designated as Fire Prevention Week. Emphasis during the week will be placed on "Fight Fires by Breaking the Fire Triangle." A fire needs three things — fuel, heat and air. Remove any side of "the fire triangle" and the fire will go out.

Texas Rural Minister Of The Year — The Rev. Barney Federwisch, pastor of the Friedens United Church of Christ of Geronimo, Guadalupe County, has been named Texas Rural Minister of the Year by the advisory committee of the Texas Town and Country Church Conference. Reagan Brown, extension sociologist and coordinator for the statewide program, made the announcement.

High Protein Oats May Result — A wild oat species introduced into this country from the Mediterranean region could serve as foundation for major increase in protein, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Scientists found that collections of the wild species contain high protein, high kernel weight and disease resistance. They are now working to breed these good traits into commercial oat varieties.

No one is safe from slander. But there would not be so many mean mouths if there were not so many evil ears.

In the 7th Psalm we see the Song of the Slandered Saint. Someone had slandered David. Did he take revenge? Oh, no. Revenge is like a boomerang. It flies at the head to which it is hurled, but it returns to hurt your own heart.

There was a man who kept slapping Amos across the chest. It bothered him. So he said to Andy, "I'm fixed for him. I put a stick of dynamite in my vest, and the next time he slaps me he's going to get his hand blown off."

Yes, and Amos was going to get his heart blown out. So it is with revenge. What, then, should one do when slandered? He should do as David did. He did not seek revenge, he sought a Refuge. He prayed in Psalm 7:1, "O Lord my God, in Thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me."

Have you been slandered? Do not prey on them, but pray for them. Let the Lord be your Defense and Defender. He is equal to your need. He is ever-present, never-failing and all-sufficient.

AFTER INITIATION DEATH—

Baylor President Bans Student Physical Hazing

Baylor University President Abner V. McCall has banned all physical hazing after a 19-year-old student died during a campus service club initiation last week.

Justice of the Peace Joe Johnson said an autopsy showed that John Everett of Crosby, a sophomore accounting and business student died from a concoction of five different kinds of laxatives and garlic he was forced to drink. Johnson ruled the death accidental.

Death From Drowning
Johnson said Clifton "could have drowned either on vomit or the juices from some of the stuff he had been given. When he choked this caused an automatic trauma of the trachea and larynx. This cut off his breath and as he strained to get his breath it caused hemorrhaging in his throat and lungs."
Clifton was one of nine initiates of the Baylor Chamber of Commerce who were running in place during the initiation on a farm 15 miles west of Waco, about 2:30 a.m. Tuesday. With the pledges were 38 members and three other persons.

The group which has no affiliation with other Chambers of Commerce, is the oldest organization at Baylor and was founded in 1919.

"The group is known as one of the finest on the campus," a university spokesman said. It has sponsored such activities as football banquets, picnics for athletes and programs for ex-students.

A spokesman for the Baptist school said Tuesday night no action has been taken pending completion of the investigation.

Hazing Stop Sought
McCall said that the Baylor administration and the Student Congress have been seeking for several years to eliminate physical hazing.

"Some of the men's clubs have maintained some of the milder physical aspects of the initiation, such as calisthenics and the drinking of distasteful concoctions. We shall continue our policy until we eliminate all such club initiation practices at Baylor," McCall said.

Funeral services for Clifton will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday at the first Baptist Church in Crosby.

Tax Man Sam Sez:

Lots of us can't really tell how we got in this financial mess because we don't keep records. Every year Internal Revenue tries to verify thousands of tax returns where the taxpayer failed to keep records. The taxpayer ends up being embarrassed and the tax man saddened.

The Internal Revenue Service advises taxpayers to check over their records of deductions for the current year. It is always a good idea to make sure that you have a complete record of the additional income that you received. It is much easier to get your records straightened out in October before the end of the tax year than on April 15—the day that too many taxpayers wait for.

Methodist Church To Participate In Observances

Members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild of First Methodist Church of Stanton, will participate this week in one of the most important annual observances of Methodist women throughout the United States.

The "Call to Prayer and Self-Denial," initiated by Methodist women in 1887, as a week of prayer and self-denial, focuses on guided mission study, a much needed offering for special mission projects, and a deepened spiritual life. More than 1,600,000 women in 36,000 Societies and Guilds in all 50 states will join in the observance.

The call is sponsored by the Woman's Division of the Methodist Board of Missions. The division, one of the four major units of the Board of Missions, is the national body through which all local Woman's Societies and Guilds function.

The theme of the 1967 Call to Prayer and Self-Denial is "Feed My Sheep," taken from John 21:17, emphasizing love and brotherhood through care for children and young women in the United States and leadership training for national women around the world. The two major events of the observance are the Program Meeting for interpretation of mission projects to which money from a special offering will be given, and the Quiet Day service of prayer, meditation, and a silent meal.

The Program Meeting for women of the Methodist Church, will be held at 5:00 p.m. o'clock Wednesday through Thursday, October 25, 26, and 27, at Methodist Church. The Quiet Day service will be held at 10:30 o'clock, Tuesday, October 24.

Leaders of the two events will be Mrs. Finley Rhoads, Mrs. James Jones, and Mrs. Nolan Simpson.

Amendment No. 3

Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows:

"Section 49-b. By virtue of prior Amendments to this Constitution, there has been created a governmental agency of the State of Texas performing governmental duties which has been designated the Veterans' Land Board. Said Board shall continue to function for the purposes specified in all of the prior Constitutional Amendments except as modified herein. Said Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Office and two (2) citizens of the State of Texas, one (1) of whom shall, with the advice and consent of the such citizen member shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be appointed biennially by the Governor to serve for a term of four (4) years; but the members serving on said Board on the date of adoption hereof shall complete the terms to which they were appointed. In the event of the resignation or death of any such citizen member, the Governor shall appoint a replacement to serve for the unexpired portion of the term to which the deceased or resigning member had been appointed. The compensation for said citizen member shall be as is now or may hereafter be fixed by the Legislature; and each shall make bond in such amount as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the Legislature.

"The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of said Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law. In the absence or illness of said Commissioner, the Chief Clerk of the General Land Office shall be the Acting Chairman of said Board with the same duties and powers that said Commissioner would have if present.

"The Veterans' Land Board may provide for, issue and sell not to exceed Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund, Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) of which have heretofore been issued and sold. Such bonds or obligations shall be sold for not less than par value ad accrued interest; shall be issued in such forms, denominations, and upon such terms as are now or may hereafter be provided by law; shall be issued and sold at such times, at such places, and in such installments as may be determined by said Board; and shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by said Board but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds may not exceed four and one-half per cent (4½). All bonds or obligations issued and sold hereunder shall, after execution by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations to the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas; and all bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board are hereby and in all respects validated and declared to be general obligations of the State of Texas. In order to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any such bonds, the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to pay the same.

"In the same of any such bonds or obligations, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent School Funds.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund shall consist of any lands heretofore or hereafter purchased by said Board, until the sale price therefor, together with any interest and penalties due, have been received by said Board (although nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said Board from accepting full payment for a portion of any tract), and of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board which moneys so attributable shall include but shall not be limited to the proceeds from the issuance and sale of such bonds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands; or rights therein, purchased with such proceeds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with other moneys attributable to such bonds; the interest and penalties received from the sale or resale of such lands, or rights therein; the bonuses, income, rents, royalties, and any other pecuniary benefit received by said Board from any such lands; sums received by way of indemnity or forfeiture for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any such bonds to comply with his bid and accept and pay for such bonds or for the failure of any such bidder for the purchase of any lands comprising a part of said Fund to comply with his bid and accept and pay for any such lands; and interest received from investments of any such moneys. The principal and interest on the bonds heretofore and hereafter issued by said Board shall be paid out of the moneys of said Fund in conformance with the Constitutional provisions authorizing such bonds; but the moneys of said Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on such bonds, the purchase of lands as herein provided, or the payment of expenses as herein provided may be invested in bonds or obligations of the United States until such funds are needed for such purposes.

"All moneys comprising a part of said Fund and not expended for the purposes herein provided shall be a part of said Fund until there are sufficient moneys therein to retire fully all of the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion thereof as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund. All moneys becoming a part of said Fund thereafter shall likewise be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

"When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional authorization and the lands purchased therewith) contain sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division, the moneys thereof, except such portion as may be needed to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division which portion shall be set aside and remain a part of such Division for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, may be used for the purpose of paying the principal and interest thereon, together with the expenses herein authorized, of any other bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by the Board. Such use shall be a matter for the discretion and direction of said Board; but there may be no such use of any such moneys contrary to the rights of any holder of any of the bonds issued and sold by said Board or violative of any contract to which said Board is a party.

"The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by said Board of the purpose of purchasing lands situated in the State of Texas owned by the United States or any governmental agency thereof, owned by the Texas Prison System or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas, or owned by any person, firm, or corporation. All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of said Fund. Such lands heretofore or hereafter purchased and comprising a part of said Fund are hereby declared to be held for a governmental purpose, although the individual purchaser thereof shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as are purchasers of lands dedicated to the Permanent Free Public School Fund.

"The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by said Board in such quantities, on such terms, at such prices, at such rates of interest and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law to veterans who served not less than ninety (90) continuous days, unless sooner discharged by reason of a service-connected disability, an active duty in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard or Marine Corps of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, and who, upon the date of filing his or her application to purchase any such land is a citizen of the United States, is a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, and has not been dishonorably discharged from any branch of the Armed Forces above-named and who at the time of his or her enlistment, induction, commissioning, or drafting was a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, or who has resided in Texas at least five (5) years prior to the date of filing his or her application. The foregoing notwithstanding, any lands in the Veterans' Land Fund which have been first offered for sale to veterans and which have not been sold to such purchasers, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund, to the extent of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board may be used by said Board, as is now or may hereafter be provided by law, for the purpose of paying the expenses of surveying, monumenting, road construction, legal fees, recordation fees, advertising and other like costs necessary or incidental to the purchase and sale, or resale, of any lands purchased with any of the moneys attributable to such additional bonds, such expenses to be added to the price of such lands when sold, or resold, by said Board; for the purpose of paying the expenses of issuing, selling, and delivering any such additional bonds; and for the purpose of meeting the expenses of paying the interest and principal due or to become due on any such additional bonds.

"All of the moneys attributable to any series of bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board (a 'series of bonds' being all of the bonds issued and sold in a single transaction as a single installment of bonds) may be used for the purchase of lands as herein provided, to be sold as herein provided, for a period ending eight (8) years after the date of sales of such series of bonds; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on bonds heretofore issued and sold shall be set aside for that purpose in accordance with the resolution adopted by said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such series of bonds. After such eight (8) year period, all of such moneys shall be set aside for the retirement of any bonds heretofore issued and sold and to pay interest thereon, together with any expenses as provided herein, in accordance with the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance and sale of such additional bonds, until there are sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds heretofore issued and sold, at which time all such moneys then remaining a part of said Veterans' Land Fund and thereafter becoming a part of said Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein.

"This Amendment being intended only to establish a basic framework and not to be a comprehensive treatment of the Veterans' Land Program, there is hereby reposed in the Legislature full power to implement and effectuate that design and objects of this Amendment, including the power to delegate such duties, responsibilities, functions, and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it believes necessary.

"Should the Legislature enact any enabling laws in anticipation of this Amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature.

"This amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on November 11, 1967, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the amendment to extend the Veterans' Land Program by authorizing the sale of bonds to increase the Veterans' Land Fund for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, which amendment would amend Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, and provide for an additional $200,000,000 in bonds, such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

"AGAINST the amendment to extend the Veterans' Land Program by authorizing the sale of bonds to increase the Veterans' Land Fund for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, which amendment would amend Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, and provide for an additional $200,000,000 in bonds, such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

The Exchange Desk

SEMINOLE SENTINEL: "Favorable weather conditions the past two weeks have caused the forecaster of the Lubbock Cotton Exchange and Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., to up their estimates on cotton production in some 23 counties of the South Plains.

"Estimate for Gaines County was boosted a thousand bales, from 69,000 bales to 70,000 bales. An earlier estimate had placed the Gaines crop at some 65,000 bales. Revisions in estimates of standing acreage contributed to the boost in the production forecast, as well as the weather, PCK officials stated."

THE MERKEL MAIL: "This week, Merkel's Chamber of Commerce president, Herman Carson, appointed a Library Board, composed of five members. They are Leon Walker, chairman; Johnny Cox, Mrs. Bubby DuBose, Mrs. Ray Wilson and Mrs. Jarrett Williams. Tuesday morning members met and decided upon a building on North First Street. The building is located between Mansfield Farm and Ranch Supply and Mack Seymore Insurance office.

"There's a lot yet to be done before we can begin operating," said Carson. "Shelves will need to be installed, books put in place, and a method of operating the library will be planned." Bill Button, chairman for the Merkel Community Fund, announced that the library would be added to the agencies being helped by contributions to the Community Fund."

THE HOUSTON COUNTY COURIER: "The strike at the Timely of Texas furniture plant continues this week. Frank Andrews, federal mediator, was in Crockett Wednesday, presumably in the interest of settling the strike, but efforts to contact him before press time failed.

"Andrews told the Courier last week that a meeting between management and union representatives was scheduled in Crockett on the night of Oct. 10, but no word on the results of that or possible subsequent meetings could be learned."

MATADOR TRIBUNE: "Matador City Park has a live buffalo, and the young animal is creating much interest, especially among children. The 610-pound buffalo bull was delivered Monday afternoon.

"Former Sheriff John Stotts and Mayor Freddie Welling brought the animal here from Childress. The city had prepared a special compound with shelter and water for the buffalo. The cow buffalo, which Matador was to have received, died at Childress, after eating a large amount of beans or peas, which had been given her."

THE BIG LAKE WILDCAT: "Reagan County servicemen will receive Band Calendars when they are issued this year, it was decided at Monday night's meeting of the Band Parents Club. This is a way of keeping them informed of their hometown meetings and birthdays of friends and relatives."

THE MEMPHIS DEMOCRAT: "Farmers who need on-farm storage for grain sorghums were urged to get in touch with their ASCS County Office for information on available ASAS, announced today.

"The farm storage loan program has been liberalized this year McKown said. This will help farmers store their crops instead of rushing them off to market direct from the field. Eligibility for a loan to purchase or construct on-farm storage will be determined by the ASCS county committee for producers of price supported commodities on the base of need for farm storage."

DENVER CITY PRESS: "Stanton grid mentor Bryan Boyd doesn't have to be reminded about the Buffaloes' first encounter with Denver City. Stanton, the small West Texas oil community located east of Midland, was rudely initiated into District 4-AA competition. Entry into the league last year resulted in a 38-4 loss to the Frenship Tigers. That was the worst defeat of the season with the exception of that night that Boyd had just soon forget. The Buffs, plagued by injuries and illness most of the season, had taken off a few bandages in hopes of upsetting Don Orr's Mustangs.

"The battle comes off again Friday night, and Boyd hopes his troops are better prepared. 'We learned a lot last season and the injury problem hasn't been as bad this fall, Boyd said. Oddsmakers are not likely to place the Buffs in the favored position but no one, especially Denver City, is taking the Buffs lightly. Stanton, who owns a 3-2 ledger for the season and a 1-0 conference mark, is fresh from a 37-0 triumph over the hapless Frenship Tigers. Stanton also has the home field advantage."

STAMFORD AMERICAN: "Voters of the Stamford Hospital District gave overwhelming approval Saturday to the issuance of an additional $250,000 in bonds so that work on the new building can get underway. Directors of the district canvassed the returns Saturday night which showed that 583 votes were cast approving the bond issue while 183 were opposed.

Since that meeting Saturday night, the directors have met again and all plans, results of the election, information about the low bid of Rose and Son Construction Co. of Abilene—all have been forwarded to Austin to the State Board of Health and later to Dallas where a representative of the U. S. Surgeon General is expected to give final approval shortly.

"We hope to have everything in order by Nov. 1 and fully expect construction to be underway within a matter of days after that time," J. F. West, hospital board chairman said."

THE MITCHELL COUNTY NEWS: "Thursday night, October 19, Loraine Masonic Lodge will have a special program honoring members of the lodge who are 70 years old or older. Members of other lodges who live in the Loraine community in this age group are invited to attend and be honored with members of the local lodge."

THE EDEN ECHO: "On Thursday of next week, Eden will be the host city for some 120 officials and members of the West Central Texas Law Enforcement Association when they convene here for their semi-annual meeting. Concho Sheriff Marvin Peek, president of the association, said that a host of officials in the law enforcement field would be on hand for the meeting which is slated to get underway with registration from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. at the VFW building."

MORTON TRIBUNE: "In Boston on Sept. 25, 1690, a

British-born printer and bookseller named Benjamin Harris printed was to become known as the first American newspaper. Entitled 'Pulick Occurrences Both Foreign and Domestic,' the little three-page paper said that 'the Country shall be furnished once a month (or if any Glut of Occurrences happen, oftener) with an Account of such considerable things as have arrived unto our Notice.' Such was the humble beginning of newspapers in America."

MUNDAY TIMES: "A large group of descendants of the early pioneers and county officials gathered in the assembly room of the Knox County Courthouse Sunday afternoon to register and visit with other area citizens preceding the program in the District Courtroom at 2:30 p.m. Refreshments were served by several Benjamin Harris ladies in co-operation with the Knox County Historical Survey Committee, sponsors of the dedication program."

TE McCAMEY NEWS: "All systems spelled 'GO' Tuesday morning when more than 85 persons attended the 'Kick-Off' Breakfast for the 1967-68 McCamey United Fund Drive. Tallest Trophy

FORT WORTH, TEXAS — Anthony (Andy) Granatelli, president of Studebaker Corporation's STP Division, and no midget himself, is honored here with the world's biggest racing trophy, presented by pretty Elaine Harrison, Miss American Hot Rod Association. Trophy, 10-feet tall, was made in Texas by Texans, and presented to Texan Granatelli, who was born near Fort Worth. Award for Andy's "outstanding contribution to motor sports," including his development of sensational and controversial STP-Turbocharger which led Indianapolis race for 197 laps, then was barred from further competition.

THE Senate Foreign Relations Committee, before JOHNSONISM, used to be one of the most powerful committees in Congress. Today, it is ignored by administration leaders. SENATOR WILLIAM J. FULLBRIGHT has a perfect right to seek answers from MR. McNAMARA about the Vietnam war policy. FULLBRIGHT is chairman of the used-to-be-recognized committee. The distinguished senator from our neighboring state, Arkansas, simply wants an honorable solution to the war. He is not an appeaser. He is a statesman. I feel, as FULLBRIGHT feels, we must have peace or another 100,000 soldiers will be resting in the soil before another year is out. Even the administration, with much managed news, has admitted war casualties now exceed one hundred thousand men dead, missing and wounded. Then some politicians are talking about elections. The election of peace and cessation of hostilities in Vietnam is the election the American people, in the main, want these days.

THE announcement comes that the next Democratic Convention will be held in Chicago. Many of you readers never heard of a man named COL. JAKE ARVEL. He is the behind-the-scenes string puller and Illinois bigwig who gained the reputation of helping lineup the boys in the back room in the old TRUMAN days when they used to hold the conventions in the Chicago Stockyard area. Really, ARVEL is largely responsible for the KENNEDY-JOHNSON ticket taking Cook County, et al, against the NIXON-LODGE ticket in 1960. But for a handful margin in Illinois, provided by the vest pocket vote in Chicago, the Demo ticket never would have made it nationally. There still is talk just how that "taking" was managed. Some of us who were in Chicago for the Convention were alerted again the other day when it was announced Chicago would be the nomination scene. COL. ARVEL would again be there and that LYNDON JOHNSON had asked the Democratic National Committee to pick Chicago. Now is just a very good time to remind our readers that Congress approved a whopping pay raise for more federal employees the other day and LBJ is known to be adding thousands to the federal feed trough. Write, wire, or phone your man in Washington today protesting this kind of political folly. There has been no pay raise for the working middle class man in years, yet they are still paying the tax bills. Something is going to give soon or else the already top-heavy money tree, loaded with the dole takers and folks feeding at the federal table is going to collapse from sheer dead weight. And BROTHER JOHNSON is yapping about a tax increase. Let him cut down on the give-away programs first and prove to the country he is not trying to get another four-year lease on the White House so he can continue to run the war while Lady Bird chases about the country planting trees. LBJ could have been the greatest President this country ever had but his popularity decline is plainly evidenced by the constant stream of old friends who have left and are leaving him daily. Sincerely, it's too bad he has sacrificed so many fine principles he once owned to pacify the labor leaders and play ball with the marching, rioting, members of the Great Society so fastly turning to a Sick Society.

A morning daily newspaper published several miles south of Stanton broke an unusual story for them Wednesday morning and actually admitted in headline that "Johnson was in trouble." Of course LBJ is in trouble and in my opinion, he brought most of it on himself. Such as that statement about having a great-grandfather dying at the Alamo. SENATOR CHARLES PERCY of Illinois took him to task for that bit of misinformation this week. If LYNDON JOHNSON had a great-grandfather who died at the Alamo then I could claim that he possibly had another relative who knew MARTIN LUTHER KING'S great-grandfather and that it was the KING family who sailed the Mayflower to America. From the way his federal appointments are going these days in Washington, his old buddy, JACK VALENTI, now of Hollywood, ought to have a motion picture filmed and call it "The Vanishing White Man." I wonder what happened to history. I always thought the palefaces got here first. I didn't know until LYNDON was shot into the White House that our ancestors floated in on a raft several days later.

THE DALLAS NEWS said in a page one story Wednesday morning that a grass roots movement was under way in fifty states to "Dump Lyndon." On the same front page a picture of JOHN CONNALLY and RICHARD HUGHES, respective governors of Texas and New Jersey, appeared in life jackets. The governors were photographed with the preservers on during a fire drill at sea, where they are attending a floating conference. When JOHN and RICHARD, lieutenants of LBJ, break out the jackets and go to sea, things are rough. It was in HUGHES' state where one of the greatest riots in history recently took place and right after LYNDON met the Russian KOSYGIN at SUGARBUSH. That is the storied meeting where the Premier got the sugar and the President got the bush. CONNALLY is aboard the S.S. INDEPENDENCE where the Governor's Conference is being held with the idea of getting his chief's war policies in Vietnam approved. CONNALLY is truly a good "wood and water boy" for LBJ.

Vice-President HUBERT HUMPHREY, an original board member of the ADA, a group with liberal visions of eternal sugar plums, but now considered as a doghouse candidate because he has sacrificed some of the ardent pleas of that group, has announced this proposal. He said in New York Tuesday night: "The U.S. should carefully consider proposals suggesting that those who cannot and do not serve in the armed forces should give an equivalent period of national service, at home or abroad." That's a political motivated, fence-riding statement if I ever heard of one. HHH is putting the salve of appeasement on the irate voters who are tired of having the draft dodgers tear up induction centers from one end of this country to the other, and at the same time offering an "easy-way-out" for the beatniks and bums who follow the thinking of the CASSIUS

CLAYS. By-the-way, where is CASSIUS? Has he become an Austin, Texas bank director or a white gloved social Marine in Washington?

(This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. This column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.)

Q — I just started my first full-time job. What should I keep in the way of tax records?

A — Your records should contain the information required to file a complete accurate tax return. You will need to show what your earnings were for the year as well as what deductible expenses you had if you itemize.

Your employer will provide you with a statement at the end of the year showing your earnings and the amount withheld for Federal income tax. If you also have income from stocks or bonds, a savings account or other sources, be sure to keep a record of the amounts received.

You should also keep records of your deductible expenses. This would include the doctor's bills you pay, the contributions you make to charity and the other deductible expenses you have such as interest on loans and state and local sales and income taxes. It is a good practice to keep such items as cancelled checks and receipts to help substantiate items on your return.

Most people starting their first job find it to their advantage to take the standard deduction rather than itemizing. But unless you have kept records of your deductible expenses you will not be in a position to itemize if that play. In football, good little men are fine, but good big men are better.

Denver City began a rout in the third quarter which produced 22 points in the nine minute remaining. In the final period, the Mustangs galloped for another 24 tallies, as they wore down their smaller adversaries.

Biff Hatfield scored on a three-yard run, the PAT was missed, to augment the visitors' count by six to 14-0. After David Jones took the kick and attempted to reverse handoff to Dennis Brantley, a fumble occurred at the Buff eight-yard stripe and D. C. pounced on it. Two plays later, Don Looney bounded over from two yards out. Kizer swept the end with the PAT and the count swelled to 22-0.

Capping off a three-touchdown third quarter, Looney went over from two paces out for a TD, and got greedy and carried the ball in for the conversion. As the period ended, it was a poling 30-0, D. C.

Gary Hatfield raced eight yards to paydirt, after David Avery's fourth down punt was blocked at the Buff 15. Looney's sweep for the PAT was successful.

With six minutes left, Avery was unable to muster the bad snap and the fourth down kick was partially blocked, with Denver City going from its 26. Gary Hatfield took the pill home, then watched his brother deliver the PAT.

LITTLE MAN COUNTS
Denver City recovered another Stanton bobble at the mid-field stripe, and with minutes remaining in the clash, tiny Larry Wolf (115 lbs.) dove into the Buffs' end zone from three paces away. Butch Reed converted to increase the tab to 54-0—Denver City's biggest rout of the season and its second straight win in conference play. Number One in the state in 2-AA, the Mustangs tackle Morton next Friday.

A ace quarterback Davids Jones was injured in the fourth period and removed to a local hospital, where his condition was undetermined at press time.

Stanton travels to Post for a game there next Friday at 7:30 p.m.

happens to result in a lower tax for you.

Q — Why do people who go bankrupt still have to pay their back Federal income taxes?

A — The law says that most debts of a legally declared bankrupt are dissolved but that Federal taxes remain a legally collectible debt.

Q — I've been asked to send in whatever records I have to back up my charitable contributions. Some of them need explaining so can I bring them in instead?

A — Yes you can. Contact the office requesting these records and an appointment will be made for you.

Q — I am selling some property and expect to show a profit on it. However, I will be paid over a 5 year period. How do I report this for tax purposes?

A — If certain conditions are met, you may report the gain using the installment method. Under this method, the gross profit on a sale is prorated over the period in which payments are received. This method can be used only if the seller received no payments, or payment of 30 percent or less of the selling price, during the year of the sale.

Make careful note of the payments you receive from the buyer so that at the end of your tax year you will have the information necessary to report the sale on your return. Further information is contained in IRS Document No. 5108, "Installment and Deferred-Payment Sales," which may be obtained free by sending a post card to your IRS District Office.

Q — I'm thinking of opening my own business. Do you have any publication that describes what Federal taxes a small businessman has to pay?

A — Yes, it is called "Tax Guide for Small Business," Publication No. 334. Send 50c to your district office to obtain a copy.

Turkey Heads November Plentiful

It could be time of Thanksgiving, homecomings and holidays.

And it could also be a time to sharpen up your food buying. Take a quick glance at what is available in the way of plentiful foods. Turkeys are a featured item this month, says the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Other plentiful foods include broilers, pork, potatoes, grape juice and dry split peas. November turkey marketings are expected to run about four percent above the same month last year, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Storage stocks are well above a year ago. You'll find just the right size turkey for your family — whether the occasion is Thanksgiving or Sunday dinner.

Pork moving under federal inspection increased nine percent during September, and averaged 11 percent above 1966. So add ham to your Thanksgiving menu.

Although down slightly from last year's record crop, potato production for this fall should be around 12 percent above average. Needless to say — there'll be plenty of potatoes! Grape juice supplies have risen to the largest in 12 years. What a time to enjoy this favorite fruit drink.

Production of dry edible peas is estimated at 11 percent above last year. And what a perfect time November is for tasty split pea soup.

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

Since 1928 the Texas Forest Service has produced 415 million one-year old baby seedlings in its nurseries for reforestation purposes by Texas landowners. Set out with a spacing of 6 by 8 feet this number would be sufficient to plant 457,000 acres, an entire county the size of Trinity or Wood. Today, the Indian Mound Forest Tree Nursery near Alto in Cherokee County produces about eight million trees annually.

LBJ Facing Movement To Dump Him

The Associated Press released a news analysis this week indicating movements were moving strongly in all 50 states to "Lump Johnson."

Opposition appears the strongest in New York and California. Movements are expected to start crystallizing in March when the primary is held first in New Hampshire. A spokesman for Robert Kennedy in that state has stated that the election results will be such that Johnson will make up his mind not to seek another term.

Dissident Democrats in Colorado, Oregon, Illinois, Kansas, Washington, Wisconsin, Indiana, Iowa are reported leaving the administration in heavy droves. Five Southern states are already conceded by experts to be in the anti-Johnson column as they were in 1964.
