IT'S YOUR DUTY TO

The Texas AFL - CIO New published a scare story in the issue of October 18 and advised all unioners that "they had better vote for HUMPHREY or else." Else what? This time over the nation the big labor bosses are not going to be capable of pulling off the old scare trick used in successful campaigns of ROOSEVELT and JOHNSON. The legitimate union members know the score. They realize that four more years of the Great Society and there won't be any unions. Many union member throughout the country are going to vote for either WALLACE or NIXON. The union men, the rank and file, not the millionaire leaders, know that other groups are now crowding them out of their jobs. They know that any raises they get will be fed back to the government spenders and their take home pay will actually be cut. The spending programs HUMPHREY has advocated in his campaign would finish the nation up. Many funds are already bankrupt. Another tax increase and then still another one and Uncle Sam is out of business. The middle man can't pay all the freight. He can't long stand the withholding tax now being drained from him to support the "Pie in the Sky" practices and political ballyhoo of the liberal HUMPHREY and the ultra-liberal MUSKIE. Can one imagine a President MUSKIE? And with those old wartime double hernias and all the other physical ailments from flat feet to a flat head claimed by the Triple H candidate are bound to still be with him. And they say the vice-president is just a heart beat away from the presidency. Those draft exemptions that caused HORATIO to skip military duty didn't just go suddenly away, or did they? Either way, HHH is not big enough to hold down the big job. Ask his neighbors in Minnesota and South Dakota. I asked a man from South Dakota the other day how HUBERT was running up there in that neck of the woods. He said: "Worse than down here — they knew him too well."

One of the finest things said by any of the three candidates in the race for the presidency was said by GOV. WALLACE Sunday. He promised an investigation of the men in the polling business. This handful in individuals — HARRIS GALLUP, et al, don't know anymore about who is going to be elected than the man in the moon. I have written in this column repeatedly that the polls are fakes, rigged, flukes, untrue, and I still hold that opinion. Watch for next Sunday's daily newspapers, the radio and television to announce HUMPHREY probably is leading. It will be exactly as GEORGE WALLACE said: "A big lie." I predict that this will be the last year of the pollsters.

DADDY BIRD JOHNSON made a speech for HUMPHREY in the well guarded Waldorf Astoria in New York Sunday. "LAME DUCK" LYN-

Voters Choose President Tuesday

Millions of Americans will go to the polls Tuesday, November 5 to cast ballots for their favorite candidates. Three top candidates will contend for the job of Lyndon Johnson, the incumbent who "did not choose to run" for a second term.

Vice-president Hubert Humphrey, former vice-president, Richard Nixon, and former Alabama governor George Wallace will all be hoping to be chosen the 37th president. After court fights and a heavy petition signing, Wallace, chief of the new American Party, will appear on the ticket in all fifty states. In Texas the name of Marvin Griffin will appear on the official ballot along with Wallace. This happened because the ballot went to the printers before Gen. Curtis LeMay was officially picked by Gov. Wallace to be his running mate for the vice presidency. Votes cast for Griffin will be counted for Wallace.

The proper way to vote in order to be sure your ballot is counted appears in this issue of The Stanton Reporter. The sample ballot does not suggest a candidate to vote for but simply explains how to properly mark a ticket. Appearing with Humphrey on the official national ballot will be Edmund Muskie of Maine. They will be listed under the Democratic party column. Richard Nixon and Gov. Spiro Agnew of Maryland, will appear as the Republican candidates.

In Martin County, voters will mark ballots in four precincts. Only four boxes will be used. A complete list of the voting places and the judges

Hankins Funeral Conducted

Jackie Wayne Hankins, GM-3, 20, died in Travis AFB hospital, Fairfield, Calif., of injuries he received in an automobile accident the past Thursday.

He was born June 14, 1948, at Monahan and was a resident of Stanton for 16 years. He graduated from Stanton High School in 1966, and entered the U. S. Navy a few days later. He was a member of the First Baptist Church in this city.

Funeral services were held Monday at 10 a.m. in the First Baptist Church, with the Rev. W. H. Uhlman, pastor, officiating. Graveside rites were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday morning in the Bowie Cemetery, with Gilbreath Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hankins, two sisters, Kay and Sherry, his grandmothers, Mrs. Nola Hankins, and Mrs. Ivy Bloom, both of Bowie, and a host of aunts and uncles.

Widen their horizons through exploration of the four challenges: social dependability, emergency preparedness, active citizenship, and the Girl Scout promise and laws. Cadettes take trips to points of interest in our state, participate in conferences and conventions, sponsor co-ed activities.

Camping is an activity popular with all girls. It teaches a girl self-reliance, ingenuity, and good citizenship. The democratic process becomes a reality in a camp setting. The Girl Scout program encourages camping in the troop, at day and established camps provided by the council.

700 TESCO Employees Attend Meet

Some 700 employees of Texas Electric Service Company and their guests from this area attended a meeting Wednesday night in Odessa to honor members of the company's Quarter Century Club.

At the meeting, which was held in Exhibit Building "A" in the Ector County Coliseum grounds, Burl B. Hulsey, Jr., company president and chief executive, presented Quarter Century Club award watches to A. D. Graves of Odessa, and J. E. Lowery of Crane. The two men completed 25 years with the company during the year. C. W. Barclay of Midland, division manager for Texas Electric, was master of ceremonies.

Texas Electric Service Company will have reached its highest goal when its customers can sincerely say, "I am glad this is the electric company that serves me," Hulsey said in an address to the group.

In speaking on the subject, "What do we deserve?" Hulsey said, "We can't expect deep and abiding gratitude from anyone for bringing them electric service. They have a right to that in this day and age."

"What I am saying is that we want to so conduct ourselves and our business with our customers that they will be glad that we are the ones who are serving them."

In order to win this kind of approval from individual customers and from communities as well, he said the employees must become involved in community problems, in supporting worthwhile activities, and in demonstrating good citizenship.

Star Of World Series Well Known In Stanton

One of the big baseball stars on the Detroit Tigers team is Norman Cash, native Texan, close personal friend of a Martin County family, and well known in this area.

The last day of the 7-game series was quite exciting for Lloyd Henson of this city. A few hours before the crucial game started between Detroit and St. Louis, Henson received a personal telephone call from Norman Cash. Cash told his long-time friend, "If I hit a homer today it will be for the town of Stanton."

Norman Cash and Henson's son, Kenneth, were roommates in college for four years. Cash is a close friend to the family and often pays visits to them. He is expected to visit in the area and in the Henson home sometime before Christmas.

Henson asked Cash if the Tigers were up to beating Bob Gibson and he said: "Gib puts his shoes on one at a time—just like everyone else. He is a wonderful pitcher but can be beaten."

Of course, baseball history has recorded the defeat of the St. Louis Cardinals and Bob Gibson by the Detroit Tigers in the seventh game of the series.

The men and women of the St. Lawrence community have been busy this week making plans and preparing for the annual fall festival to be held on November 3.

A fine cotton crop is being harvested in the area and this fact adds zest to the event which has become a legend in this part of West Texas.

The festival will be held in the Community Building, adjacent to the St. Lawrence Catholic Church which is the beneficiary to the annual community undertaking.

The annual fall festival, which attracts thousands of guests and involves serving generous meals, featuring St. Lawrence-made German sausage, is a project involving 100 per cent of the adult of St. Lawrence and most of their neighbors from the Midkiff community.

Starting early this week, the 50 to 70 wives of the farmers

MCCPA Holds Boll Weevil Meet

On October 8, Martin County Cotton Producers held a boll weevil meeting at the Cap Rock auditorium. Prior to the meeting, extension entomologist surveyed the county to determine the amount of infestation. The "Hot Spot" was determined as the southeast corner of the county. The primary purpose of the meeting was to make producers aware of the situation and how to control the weevil. Some 125 attended.

On October 22, another meeting was held at the Grady School. Charlie Chapman was present from the State Department of Agriculture, to discuss the program the state would help with. This being a matching funds type program, provided the county wanted to organize, elect officers, get a charter, and sign a contract with the state. The group of producers was in favor of organizing, and it was decided to elect two men from each community as designated by the ASC Committee, to make up a board of directors and look into the various programs.

On October 28, the board of directors met at the Grady

School, and elected Owen Kelly, president, and Leroy Lhoney, secretary of the group. Other board members are: J. B. Shockley, Buster Haggard, Bud Snell, Bruce Key, Newell Tate, and Orville Seelye. It was decided by the board to adopt the name Martin County Cotton Insect Association, for the new organization, and an application for a state charter will be made under this name.

Tuesday, night October 29, the Martin County Cotton Insect Association met with representatives of Midland and Howard counties, at the Cap Rock auditorium in Stanton, in an effort to organize a larger organization. Present at this meeting were representatives from Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., and 23 county organizations to the north of Martin County, already involved in the boll weevil control program. One of the representatives from Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., was Oscar "Cotton" Fannin, well-known in Martin County, having worked in our bracco program for many years. Ed Dean was also present from the Plains Cotton Growers Association. Plains Cotton Growers Association made no promises that they would help us fight the boll weevil financially as they are doing in 23 counties, but implied that more interest would be taken in Martin County if the Martin County Cotton Producers were members of the Plains Cotton Growers Association. Don L. Echols, a ginner and large farmer in the Patricia area, is on the board of directors of Plains Growers, and he assured the cotton producers of Martin County, that he would do everything possible to get Martin County in the Plains Growers Boll Weevil Control Program, if the producers would join their organization.

Martin County Cotton Insect Association decided to undergo a county-wide drive to try and get the county into the Plains Growers Association. A formal request containing the signatures of all ginners and 75 per cent of the cotton producers in the county will be necessary if Martin County is to be accepted in the very near future a form will be placed in each gin in the county, and farmers and ginners are urged to sign this form. We must do this by the 15th of November, as the board of the Plains growers Association meets the latter part of November, and Martin County will need to have their formal application for membership in the Plains office at that time. The membership dues to Plains Growers Association are producers, 15c per bale; ginners, 1c per bale

FFA Sets November Deadline On Funds

Requests from Texas cities and counties for Federal financial assistance to build and develop public airports for the fiscal year 1970 will be received by the Federal Aviation Administration until November 22, 1968, the Texas Aeronautics Commission has been notified.

Charles Murphy, commission director, said only $30 million Federal money would be available in 1970 nationwide as compared with $75 million for 1969.

Of the $75 million, 23 Texas cities were allotted $5 million — if the same ratio prevails in 1970, Texas cities will receive only $2 million.

This drastic reduction, Murphy said, "comes as no surprise. For some time now there have been pointed indications that the Federal money for airport development would be decreased substantially, at the expense mainly of small towns."

What this means, Murphy continued, is that almost the entire burden of building an air transportation network in Texas embracing the smaller towns now falls to the individual states.

Of the 44 grants recently made to smaller towns by the TAC, 10 of the Texas grants will be supplemented by Federal allocations. There is expected to be practically no federal aid to small towns beginning in 1970.

Federal grants are made on a cost-sharing basis with the Federal Government providing generally 50 per cent of the cost of approved projects.

Eligible Federal projects include land acquisition, construction and improvement of runways, taxiways, aprons, and lighting. Terminal buildings and hangars are not eligible projects under the Federal Airport Act.

Murphy said that Texas towns interested in applying for Federal airport grants should contact FAA area offices in either Fort Worth (for North Texas), Houston (South Texas), or Albuquerque (for West Texas).

All outstanding Series E and H Savings Bonds are still earning interest — now at the increased rate of 4.25 per cent when held to next maturity.

Veterans Administration

(Editor's Note: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning benefits their government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.)

Q — My son is being discharged from service next month and I want to be sure he keeps his veterans insurance. I regret that I dropped mine after World War II. What does he have to do?

A — Servicemen are now covered up to $10,000 while on active duty and for 120 days thereafter by Servicemen's Group Life Insurance. Unlike after World War II, however, they cannot keep this insurance as veterans insurance. Instead, within 120 days after being separated from service they must convert their SGLI policies to policies with a commercial company. Nearly 600 companies have been approved by the VA to offer converted coverage.

If your son has a service-connected disability, he may also be eligible for $10,000 special insurance through the VA that can be in addition to or in place of his converted SGLI coverage. He should check with his nearest VA regional office after he gets out of service concerning all of his veterans benefits.

Q — I am a veteran attending college under the G. I. Bill and plan to be married in the near future. Can I claim my wife as a dependent for an increased educational allowance from the Veterans Administration even though she will be working? What documents do I have to submit to VA?

A — Yes, you may claim your wife as a dependent regardless of whether she is working. As a full-time student your VA educational assistance allowance under the G. I. Bill will be increased from $130 to $155 a month.

You should tell VA immediately when you are married, since your increased educational allowance will be dated from the time VA is notified of your marriage. Then as soon as possible you should furnish VA with a copy of the public record of your marriage. VA must have a copy of this record before it can pay you the increased allowance.

Q — How do I reopen my disability claim? My service-connected condition has become worse.

A — Submit a statement from your doctor indicating his findings as to your condition, his treatment, and his opinion of the future progress of the disability. VA will give you a physical examination if the evidence is adequate. A change in rating is based upon the report of the physical examination and all other evidence of record. If you have been receiving VA outpatient treatment, VA's own records may be used as evidence.

VA Questionnaire Due Month Early This Year

For nearly two million totally disabled veterans and veterans' dependents on the Veterans Administration's pension rolls, the end-of-the-year annual income questionnaire from VA will come a month early this year.

Instead of being enclosed with the pension checks which will go out around Dec. 1, the check sized income report cards will be sent with the pension payment to be mailed by VA about Nov. 1.

The deadline for returning the questionnaire to VA has also been moved up from Jan. 31 to Jan. 15.

VA is mailing the income questionnaire a month early to insure that the pension checks it will send out at the end of January reflect the new pension rates and income limits that go into effect the first of the year.

The amount of each pensioner's check under the new pension system that starts on Jan. 1 will be based upon the estimated income in 1969 reported by the pensioner on the VA income questionnaire. Without the returned questionnaire containing the estimate of income for next year, VA, by law, cannot pay a beneficiary a pension.

Beginning Jan. 1, 1969, the annual income limitations governing the entitlement to VA pensions and dependency benefits will be raised $200. Further, the present income levels, with three gradations, used in determining the amount of benefits a recipient may be paid, will be restricted to provide a range of 13 to 28 income levels graduated in $100 increments.

As a result of these changes, more than 1.1 million pensioners will receive approximately $120 million in increased pensions next year.

In addition to changing pension rates and income limits, Public Law 90-275, signed by the President last March, also provided that no beneficiaries on the VA pension rolls would have their pensions reduced in 1969 as the result of increased Social Security payments.

VA pensions are payable to war veterans with limited incomes and total nonservice-connected disabilities and to widows and other dependents of war veterans who meet established income limitations. Approximately 575,000 pensioners continue to receive VA benefits under an "old law" in effect prior to July 1, 1960, when the "new law" covering nearly 1.4 million beneficiaries was enacted. However, because it may now be to their advantage to come under the new law, the old law pensioners will be given another opportunity between Feb. 1 and May 1 next year to change over.

If they elect to change before May 1, any additional benefits due them under the new law will be paid retroactively to Jan. 1, 1969.

Information explaining the benefits of the new law together with a sign up card will be mailed to them at the end of January Meantime, VA will send a notice with the pension check and income questionnaire to be mailed about Nov. 1, advising them in advance of the upcoming conversion opportunity.

Permian Basin Outlook Good

Deer and turkey hunters coming to the Permian Basin area should have plenty to shoot at, according to George Litton, project leader for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Litton says the outlook is the best in years. Abundant rains and the consequent good growth of vegetation conducive to turkey survival has accounted for tremendous nesting success among the big birds.

According to Litton, this year's successful poult crop will provide additional nesting and huntable birds next year.

Deer populations and body condition also seem to be the best in years.

Night spotlight counts, a new census technique begun in August, show plenty of deer for this year's hunters and a good fawn crop, for future years.

The majority of deer are still in velvet in the Permian Basin area, but Litton says several large bucks with hardened antlers have already been seen. He says he anticipates top deer hunting over most of the Basin's 29 counties.

Lynda Bird Robb Has Daughter

Lynda Bird Robb, 24, President and Mrs. Johnson's eldest daughter, gave birth to a 7-pound, 8-ounce daughter. The proud grandfather, who made the announcement at Bethesda Naval Hospital, said both mother and child were doing fine.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH MARTIN-HOWARD-MIDLAND SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT

Jack Buchanan, Bob Cox, Bernard Houston, Larry Shaw,
Many farmers are asking how to manage their crop residues for the most beneficial use. On skip row cotton land where the blank rows were planted in cane, millet, or grain sorghum, and it is going to make a seed head, it can be shredded. The shredder needs to be set up high enough to cut the seed head off and allow 10-12 inches of stubble height on the ground. This will prevent the plant from making a mature seed, and will allow enough stubble left on the ground to provide soil protection. It is an established fact that early listed ground will not take up water or hold it like it would if it had been left alone and had an adequate cover on it. Proper management of residues can prevent soil and moisture losses by blowing, increase moisture penetration, improve the tilth of the land, and add organic matter to the soil. About 1,250 number/acre of drilled 1,750 number/acre of row crop residue will usually be adequate for most soils. On certain sandy soils, the amount of residue left on the land, needs to be more than that for other soils.

Any plowing or tillage methods tend to destroy a certain amount of the residue, the amount destroyed depends on the type of equipment used. For example, plowing to the rows would leave most of the stubble on the ground for soil protection. The critical erosion period for this area begins in the fall and ends about April 1. During this period, the residues need to be managed so they will provide the most protection for the land. Large sweeps, rod weeders, and chisels destroy about 10 per cent of the stubble left on the ground. A tandem disc harrow about 25 per cent, close spaced cultivator, or sweep (hoeme) about 15 per cent, while a one way disc plow will destroy about 50 per cent. Residues that have been shredded, mowed or knocked down with a stalk cutter, need to be "tucked in" by tillage to prevent blowing away. The Soil Conservation Service assisting the Martin-Howard District, will provide assistance to land owners or operators and management of crop residues.

LeMay Predicts Vote Motivated Peace Bids

Curtis E. LeMay has predicted that politically motivated Vietnam peace gesture would be made before the election Nov. 5.

The third-party presidential candidate said at a news conference in Spartanburg, S. C., that North Vietnam would go along with the effort "to influence the American voter," because it fears the election of George C. Wallace and LeMay.

"I warn the American people," LeMay said, "that between now and election day some gesture is going to be made either by Washington or Hanoi to indicate that peace is in the offing."

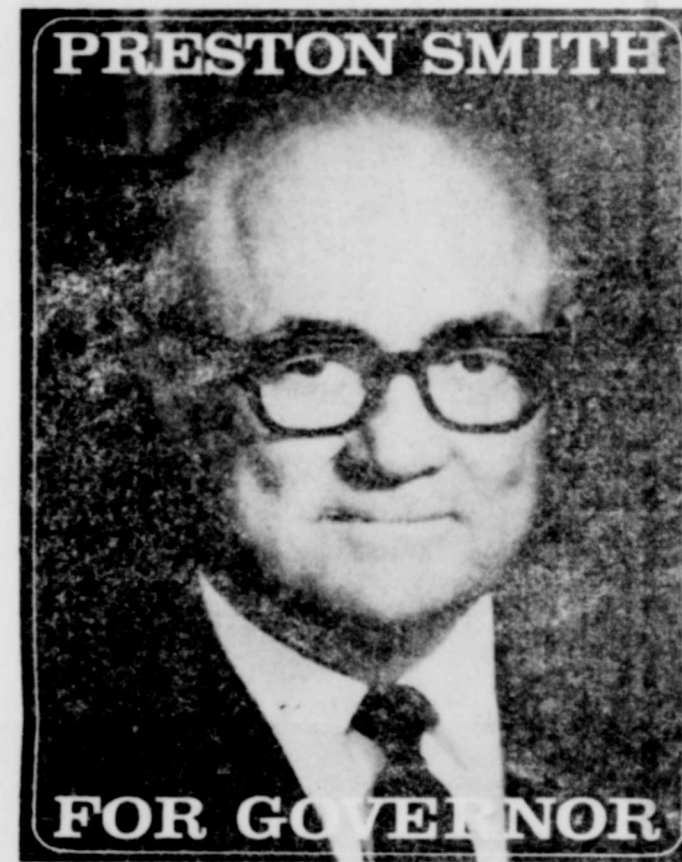

"This gesture will be made to influence the American voter," he said. "The one thing the Communist world fears more than anything else is a complete changing of the guard in Washington."

"Their big nightmare is that the present no-win policy, in the past supported and in the campaign espoused by both Mr. Nixon and Mr. Humphrey, will be thrown out at the polls by the American people and replaced by those who are pledged to put an end to this disastrous war — replaced by a Wallace - LeMay administration."

Both American Independent party candidates have promised, if elected, to bring the war to a swift military conclusion if the Paris peace talks show no signs of success.

By JAMES C. WATSON
Getty Oil Co. No. 1 Wayland Holladay has been finished as the second well from the Spraberry for the Sulphur Draw (Dean sand) reservoir in Martin County. It also has been dually completed from the Dean.

From the Spraberry, through casing notches at 7,964-7,978 feet it pumped 52 barrels of 37 degree crude and 43 barrels of water per day after treating with 2,000 gallons of acid and fracturing with a mixture of 60,000 gallons of fluids and 120,000 pounds of sand.

Paid Political Ad by Texas State Teachers Association

If you're wondering why more and more millions of your fellow Americans are turning to Governor Wallace:

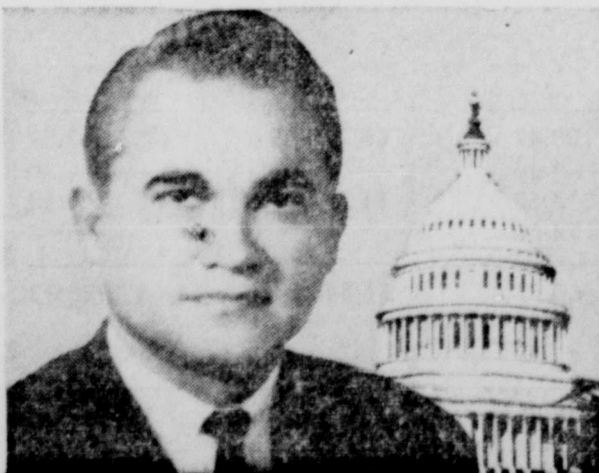

"Every thought... every action must be to get our boys home."

We must settle the Vietnam conflict at the peace table or on the battlefield... Americans cannot stay there forever.

George Wallace knows there are no easy answers to Viet Nam. Most of you are concerned and perplexed about this problem. Too much has been said. Too little has been done.

But these facts are clear. We are in Viet Nam whether we like it or not, and everything we do should insure that the 500,000 Americans over there are brought home as soon as possible.

Governor Wallace hopes and prays that the peace talks going on in Paris are successful, but if these political and diplomatic negotiations do not succeed, then we must rely on our military leaders to finish the job with conventional weapons if that is possible. In short, one way or the other, we must bring our boys home.

Crane Stampedes Buffs, 51-0, In 5-AA Grid Tilt

The Crane High Golden Cranes scored on only three field goals in the second half, but what they did in the first half could only happen to the second-ranked team in the state as the Cranes zoomed to their seventh straight victory by a score of 51-0 over the outmanned Stanton High Buffs, aloes Friday night at El Ave Stadium.

Tommy Jones, Crane's all-state end for the last two years, scored 22 points on two touchdowns, four extra-point kicks and two field goals, while halfback Jackie Jeffery zipped across the goal line for three touchdowns and 18 points and powerhouse fullback L. The Launching Pad

By NEAL ESTES

The American people got the LORD'S time back Sunday. On Tuesday next, November 5, they will have the opportunity to take their country back from the socialists, rioters, marchers, and hoodlums.

For correct and honest election results on election day, I suggest keeping your dial on a CBS station. WALTER CRONKITE has the reputation of being a clean shooter—nothing rigged or misrepresented. He tells it like it is.

One of the regional announcers on the early morning radio farm programs quotes SECT. FREEMAN consistently. When he is not quoting FREEMAN he is reading canned press releases sent to him free from one of the government agencies. I almost laughed aloud when he said FREEMAN was going to "discuss" the farming policies of the three presidential candidates. Don't you know such a discussion would be unbiased. FREEMAN, his personal ideas, and maybe that radio announcer's source of news are all on the way out.

Friends of the JACK HANKINS family bowed their heads in grief and offered their prayers for the family in their dark hour of sorrow this week. The eldest and only son of WANDA and JACK, passed away in California at the age of 20 as the result of an automobile accident. Home from a second tour of duty in Vietnam less than four days, JACKIE HANKINS, died after being fatally hurt in the accident. Funeral rites were conducted here Monday morning. Graveside rites were conducted Tuesday morning in Bowie.

I received an unsigned letter in the mail requesting that something be printed about the traffic violations in Stanton. The person writing in challenged "my guts to print it." It is a good letter and should be published but I will have to have the identity of the writer. Please send in your name.

VOTE FOR THE CANDIDATE OF YOUR CHOICE ON ELECTION DAY, TUESDAY, NOV. 5.

Variety - - -

(Continued from page 1) DON drug out the old fear formulae used by COACH FDR. He attempted to frighten the votes by telling them how bad things would be in the land if TRIPLE-H wasn't elected. The old dog won't hunt! A lot of taxpayers had rather have another depression than have four years of HUMPHREY. Things can't get any worse for the little man now. That last surtax "OLE" DADDY BIRD put on the people already has some of us thinking about moonlighting on a supplementary "gov-amint" job.

Common sense tells me that HUMPHREY is going to get more votes in Martin County than one carload. I have observed only one sticker on one car in this entire county advocating the election of HHH. Common sense also tells me that NIXON is going to get a lot of votes in Martin County. Common sense tells me that WALLACE is going to run in this county like a scared rabbit if he just gets half the votes of persons owning the cars now carrying his stickers.

(Continued from page 1) was referred to the board of directors, which will meet in November and act upon it. Twenty-two members were present, with one guest, Rodney Fried.

Mrs. W. J. Harlow was in Abilene, over the week-end with her brother, Paul Barron of Loraline, who is in the hospital there, following a tractor accident.

Hoelscher farm, sometime around 4 a.m., and begin grinding, seasoning, blending and stuffing a ton or so of sausage. At the community center, the women, along with other men, will begin preparing vegetables and other foods. The big built-in barbecue grills will be put in action. Barbecue is a second meat on the menu.

This year, the man in charge is Sidney Hirt. Each year, one of the residents of the community serves as general chairman. Mrs. Florence Wilde is chairman of the women's division.

The big community building has been redesigned to expedite feeding thousands of diners who come from as far as 100 miles to enjoy the festival food. Two serving lines will be operating this year, where only one was used in the past. Tickets are $1.50 for adults, and $1 for children under 12. Last year the turnout of diners was so vast that the food plans are being made to avert this recurring.

Dinner will be served from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

An auction sale will be an afternoon feature. In the past, farmers have donated bales of cotton to be auctioned, and it is expected this will be the plan this year. Other articles will also be offered for sale. A dance that night closes the festival.

All profits from these festivals go to the church improvement fund. The community has already financed and constructed an attractive parish house. It is now collecting funds for a new church building.

Five W. Texans To Be Honored In November

Five West Texans will be honored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for outstanding contributions to special fields of art or culture at the third annual Cultural Achievement Awards banquet in Lubbock on November 7.

The awards dinner will be held in connection with the second quarterly board of directors meeting of the WTCC. Site of the annual function is the Hillcrest Country Club in Lubbock. The dinner will be preceded by a reception at 7:00 p.m. A showing of the works of the persons honored will be held following the dinner.

The names of the honorees are never disclosed prior to the awards banquet. Their selection is made by a special committee of the Cultural Affairs Committee of the WTCC.

Previous award winners include Dr. Rupert Richardson, historian of Abilene; Robert Nail, Albany Fandangle creator and director; the late Mrs. Grace Ward Lankford, Fort Worth patron of music; The Hill Country Arts Foundation of Kerrville; The North Texas State University Lab Band; Tom Lea, noted El Paso artist; Mrs. Margaret Harper, founder of the Panhandle Theater in Palo Duro Canyon; Bart Mann, San Angelo goldsmith; Ted Wiener, Fort Worth art collector and patron; W. D. Noel, Odessa, supporter of cultural affairs, and Governor John B. Connally, for his encouragement of cultural pursuits in Texas.

Mrs. Claude McClung of Kilgore, has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelly, and other relatives in Stanton.

Visiting last week with Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Tom were Mrs. John Wolff and Laura of Carlisle, Indiana, and Mrs. Don Bird of Lawton, Oklahoma.
