'Leading Muleshoe' Training Offered By CofC

One Year Training Slated For Future Community Leaders

"We will be covering all the aspects of a community that is the most important for people to learn about," said Toni Eagle, Student Council Buys Fountain At Junior High manager of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture. Mrs. Eagle was talking about the "Leading Muleshoe" program slated to begin later this month.

The CofC manager was very enthusiastic about the new program planned here. She says it is designed to teach future leaders of the community about the different aspects of government, schools, industry, and other areas pertinent to the growth and stabilization of the area.

Mrs. Eagle says the program is especially designed for young adults to mature adults, and not for high school students.

She spent six months researching and checking with community leaders, asking for assistance in the fields they are best qualified to teach in, and setting a curriculum.

Now, the new program is designed to educate the potential leaders of Muleshoe. These leaders will be the next City Council members, County Commissioners, School Board members, Chamber Board members and Club leaders.

Future leaders who enroll in the year long class will spend one day each month learning such as city government from Dave Marr, city manager and Darrell Turner, mayor; county government from Bailey County Judge Gordon H. Green; the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture from manager Toni Eagle, and other designated CofC board members; Muleshoe City Police Chief Wayne Holmes will be teaching about law enforcement; Richelle Watkins, director of the Bailey County EMS, will be teaching the important and pertinent information about emergency services; Carl Gil-

An alert Muleshoe City Police Officer, John Wuerflein, remembered seeing a vehicle being sought by the Bovina Police Department early Saturday morning.

Immediately after the 'Wanted' was sent out over the teletype by Bovina, Wuerflein had gone back to where he had seen the vehicle.

Shortly, it pulled away from a residence in Muleshoe. He stopped the vehicle, and took the driver into custody.

The individual was being sought for the alleged theft of a billfold, containing $1,200. After being stopped, he also faced additional charges -- possession of marijuana.

Vegetable Conference Set Here Jan. 19

Ways to combine cultural practices and marketing strategies which meet market demands and provide producers the best possible return will be examined at the 1988 West Texas Vegetable Conference here on Jan. 19. More than a score of speakers will address the theme, "Ride the Rising Stars."

The annual conference will be in the Hereford Community Center, 100 Avenue C at Park Avenue. It begins at 8:30 a.m., said Dr. Roland E. Roberts, vegetable specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and program coordinator.

Speakers, including research scientists, Extension agents and specialists, and growers, will present information to help producers make the best decisions for the coming growing season, Roberts said.

The morning session will stress major vegetable crops grown on the High and Rolling Plains, new opportunities in the market place and techniques for marketing and production that have proven successful.

After a catered luncheon, the potato director of a leading biotechnology firm will trace potato propagation from test tube to farm. Then, two concurrent sessions will focus upon special concerns for the area's two major vegetable crops, potatoes and onions.

Educational and agribusiness exhibits will provide growers a glimpse of new materials and equipment.

The conference has been planned by the Extension Service with the cooperation of the Deaf Smith County Extension Vegetable Program Development Committee, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Texas Tech University and the High Plains Vegetable Growers and Shippers Council.

Additional information is available at county Extension offices throughout the High Plains.

Fort Worth Stock Show Starts Soon

The 92nd annual Southwestern Exposition and Livestock Show is expected to establish many new records during its 17-day run Jan. 22 through Feb. 7 at the Will Rogers Memorial Complex in Fort Worth.

Although final tabulations of entries in the various breeding and show divisions are not complete, Stock Show President/Manager W. R. Watt Jr. said "indications are that we will host a record number of entries this year."

He added that premiums and prize money for the livestock show and rodeo will exceed $500,000 for the first time in the show's history.

Watt credited several factors for the entry increase. Among them are the new and improved facilities at the Will Rogers Complex, a more favorable market for livestock, and the introduction of new breeding show divisions at the Stock Show.

Categories have been added in the open breeding cattle and junior heifer departments, as well as several special events planned for the horse division. In addition to the traditional breed shows, the Stock Show will host the Southwest's first major Llama show and the Southwestern Sheep Dog Trails.

Also on the schedule are nine prestigious breed auction sales for cattle and horses, plus the Sale of Champions for winning animals for the junior division.

Entry deadline for the Small Stock Division, including poultry, pigeons and rabbits, is Jan. 15. This group is expected to generate over 4,000 head.

Increased demand for rodeo tickets has been answered with the addition of five night performances, bringing the total to 28 rodeos. Tickets are priced at $10 for Friday night and weekends, $8 for Monday through Thursday nights, and $6 for Monday through Friday matinees.

The rodeo box office, located in the lobby of Will Rogers Coliseum, is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and on Sundays from noon to 5 p.m. Phone orders for rodeo tickets are being accepted at 817/335-9346.

Those who always make positive statements make a lot of mistakes.

Schools, Bad Weather -- And, What To Do

Everyone is always concerned about whether or not school will be delayed or possibly cancelled when extremely bad weather occurs overnight. The following information is being released to help everyone know what the procedures are in the Muleshoe Independent School District when bad weather conditions occur.

The School District's superintendent is the one person in charge of making decisions regarding the school's schedule during inclement weather. Several factors guide the decision-making process:

1. Icy roads
2. Blowing snow (big drifts/impassable roads)
3. Extreme cold
4. Loss of heat or electrical power in buildings

If any or all of these factors occur overnight, the superintendent will decide as early as possible about closing school or delaying the start of school. Individuals begin to check the roads at 5 a.m. The road checks are made by different school officials as well as by local patrons. Reports are then given to the superintendent prior to 6 a.m. An announcement will be made at 6:30 a.m. in order to inform the bus drivers and the area media. You should listen to the local media stations for their announcements. If no announcement is made, it may be assumed that school operations will follow the regular schedule.

Please do not call the central administration office for general information as the phone lines in this office are used to contact other administrators, teachers, and maintenance personnel between 6 and 7 a.m. on inclement weather days.

A big "THANK YOU" is extended to all of the individuals in the Muleshoe District who have provided assistance with stalled or stuck buses and for their understanding of the many problems involved in getting students to and from school on the inclement weather days.

Should extreme weather or other emergency develop after school has started and it is determined in the best interest of the students to dismiss schools early, an announcement will be made to the media before school is dismissed. Parents with small children should contact their child's principal to make arrangements for disseminating emergency dismissal information if both parents work outside of the Muleshoe area and are unable to obtain information from local media sources. For additional information or comments, please contact the superintendent of schools, H. John Fuller at 272-3389.

Big Push To Eradicate Diseases Involving Rotarians Worldwide

By Ralph McLaughlin

A child's life in jeopardy evokes empathy quicker than almost any other crisis. The Jessica McClure tragedy is an excellent case in point. Yet hundreds are dying every hour that we never hear about. Rotarians have learned that polio, while now almost unheard of in the U.S., is still taking its toll in many parts of the world and have discovered a remedy.

In 1979 Rotary International instituted a program called the Health, Hunger and Humanity Program, or 3-H as it became known. This ambitious undertaking was meant to improve health, alleviate hunger, and enhance humanitarian conditions wherever possible. When this successful program was implemented it was discovered that polio was a larger threat than first believed. It was killing 3.5 million children and disabling an equal number annually in developing countries.

Imagine, if you can, reading the headlines of this newspaper: "Two Giant 747's Crash Only Children Aboard half perish, all other crippled"

Our senses would be shocked; and yet, this is what has been happening - not just once a day - but every hour of every day.

Polio is at epidemic levels in some parts of the world, killing and crippling its unfortunate victims. In some cultures children are the wealth of the family unit. They are the capital, so to speak, helping produce a livelihood, helping with the chores and providing assistance in old age - social security for the elderly.

Losing a child in death caused by polio is a terrible experience; but leaving one crippled has more far reaching consequences. Not only does a cripple depend upon others for help and assistance, but he or she requires food that always seems to be in short supply. To aggravate the problem, in most cases the crippled is unable to contribute to the production of food and other crops so essential to the welfare of the family.

When it was learned that the cost of the vaccine was preventing it from being administered in many parts of the world, Rotarians sought ways to reduce the cost to the lowest level possible.

Pharmaceutical companies were owned and managed by Rotarians. They noted that some vaccine were destroyed because of the expiration dates mandated by the FDA, and suggested that a way should be found to ship the vaccine prior to its becoming "Unacceptable."

Rotarians involved in air, land, and sea transportation suggested that their vehicles and vessels often had space available. When it was unpredictable as to the amount and time, "Yes, the needed vaccine could often be shipped at no cost to Rotary if it could be made ready for shipment on short notice."

With these means and by using Rotarians as volunteers to help administer the vaccine, Rotary was able to cut the cost of the vaccine to 12 cents per child. Thus the decision was reached to proceed. Since the project would take several years it was suggested that the goal become the year 2005 to coincide with the 100th Anniversary of Rotary. This immediately drew acceptance and the project was given the name "2005."

Dr. Sabin, the developer of the vaccine and also a Rotarian, was invited to present "2005" to Rotarians at the International Convention in Kansas City in 1985. In presenting the program to some 13,000 Rotarians, Dr. Sabin commended Rotary for undertaking such a monumental task, but asked if anyone had calculated how many children will die or become crippled in the 20 years from then until 2005. He asked if there were not some way the project could be completed earlier.

The Board of Directors of Rotary International called an emergency session. They concurred that Rotary should eliminate polio from the world at the earliest practicable moment and thus "2005" died before it began.

It was found that the other five vaccine preventable diseases: measles, whooping cough, tetanus, tuberculosis and diphtheria could often be administered with the polio vaccine. While in some parts of the world the people don't trust their government to administer vaccines, they would trust Rotarians who live in their community. If Rotary were to be involved the people would permit their children to participate and the vaccines for the other 5 preventable diseases could be administered at the same time.

Support was obtained from WHO (World Health Organization), UNICEF, other organizations, and governments for the project. Since its primary goal was to eliminate polio, the inclusion of the other five diseases was really a "plus" - therefore the name assigned to the project was "PolioPlus." It was determined that the PolioPlus Project could be completed in 5 years at a cost of $120 million.

Rotarians and their friends, to date, have contributed over $60 million needed for the program. Over 250 million children have already been immunized. While the program is scheduled for completion by 1992, 5-year pledges ($1,000 or more each year for five years), 3-year pledges (less than $1,000 each year for three years) are asked to be made before May 1988. Cash gifts are being accepted as they become available.

With human lives at stake, Rotarians around the world have pledged to eradicate polio from the face of the globe. It is a monumental task, too large for Rotary alone.

The campaign is being brought to the public's attention with an urgent appeal for assistance. Members of both the Big Spring and Greater Big Spring Rotary Club are available with information for anyone wanting to make a donation. Checks should be made out to Rotary Foundation-PolioPlus and sent to Box 1503, Big Spring, TX 79721.

Class Studies Swedish Customs

The Lazbuddie Gifted/Talented classes, under the direction of Barbara Willingham, instructor, have been engaged in several valuable learning experiences. Included are think-alouds, math and English challenges, critical thinking skills activities, and creative drama. The second and third grade G/T students wrote an original Thanksgiving play and performed it for parents and classmates.

Ms. Willingham said the Christmas season afforded the students opportunities to study Christmas customs of Sweden and German. They learned carols in two languages and performed them in a special community "caroling" that concluded in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Redwine.

Upon arrival, the students had the opportunity to visit with Mrs. Gertie Duncan, a native of Sweden, who elaborated on customs typical of celebrations of the Day of Lucia in Sweden, which occur December 13-26.

Carols in the Swedish language were sung by the students to Mrs. Duncan and guests, while Mrs. Duncan showed articles from Sweden and spoke to the group of her life while she lived there.

In Fashion

Especially attractive for holiday wear is a winter white suit featuring a finger-tip coat and slim skirt. Choose blouse or sweater that will complement the ensemble.

Medium high heel pumps are a must with this dressy suit. You may choose spectator pumps with gold toes, black pumps or one of the many colored shoes to blend with the blouse or sweater.

MICROWAVE COOKING

By Linda Attaway

Stale snacks such as potato chips, pretzels and popcorn can be made crispy again by using your microwave.

Place two to three cups of the snack in a napkin lined bowl or basket and microwave on High, uncovered, for 15 to 60 seconds or until the food is warm to the touch. Let cool.

For a pre-meal treat from the Orient, fold four dampened washcloths and place in a basket or shallow dish. Microwave on High for one to two minutes.

Offer to guests before the meal—or after. To make scented washcloths, place a lemon peel with several cloves in the middle of each washcloth.

Heat as directed above and remove the lemon peel before offering to guests.

South Park Medical Center

and the new

Levelland Campus

South Park Medical Center of Lubbock and Cook Memorial Hospital of Levelland have become one in the same. Cook Memorial hospital is now known as South Park Medical Center—Levelland Campus.

The primary reason for the merger is to assure Hockley County residents that they will continue to have their own hospital. Larry Todd, Chief Operating officer of South Park Medical Center—Levelland Campus said, "35 rural hospitals have closed since January of 1986 alone. By merging with South Park Medical Center of Lubbock, the Levelland Campus will become a more efficient health care facility by offering more specialized services to its rural communities. The merger will further help the Levelland Campus by upgrading the federal reimbursement percentages received for patient care. Normally, a strictly rural hospital receives only about two-thirds the amount of reimbursement from government resources that a more suburban medical center receives."

Added benefits for Hockley County and area patients have already taken effect by allowing physicians of both facilities practice privileges at either location. Medical specialties previously unavailable to these rural communities have recently been introduced to the area through the Levelland Multi-Specialty Clinic. Physician specialists in the fields of Cardiology, Orthopedics, Ear, Nose and Throat, Colo-rectal Surgery, and Podiatry are now seeing patients regularly in Levelland.

For the future, South Park Medical Center and the Levelland Campus, both owned by the Los Angeles based parent company, Summit Health, Ltd., will continue to look for ways to improve the quality and the cost of health care to the people of West Texas and the surrounding regions.

Leadership Program

breath will teach about taxes; Danny Noble and Spencer Tankley, will be combing efforts on agriculture for a day; and other community leaders will be lined up for other one half to one day classes.

Leading off will be MISD Assistant Superintendent Elizabeth Watson, who will be explaining why the Leadership Muleshoe program is needed, and what the aspects are of a good leader.

Tuition for the year long training is only $135 and covers all materials, meals, breaks, any needed transportation and graduation.

Mrs. Eagle noted that a student who completes the one year leadership course will have knowledge of the basic 'workings' of everything in a county, and can become a better leader of businesses, clubs, or government.

Clubs and businesses are encouraged to take a good look at their employees, and consider sponsoring one or more to the training, which will help make them effective future leaders. They will then have the knowledge to make their club or business a viable part of the community.

According to the CofC manager, several cities have the leadership program, and have waiting lists for future leaders to attend. Little Rock, Arkansas has a tuition of $525 for the training, but the CofC manager said they only asked enough tuition to cover expenses.

She also explained that after the first year, the CofC will have an idea of what parts of the training to keep and expand on, and what parts or parts to 'clunk out' and replace.

Businesses, clubs or individuals may sponsor a student, or more than one student, however, the class is limited to 12 students.

Look over your club members, young upcoming business employees and enroll them in the Leadership Muleshoe training program while openings still exist.

Massive Tax Bill Effective Across State

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Wednesday said the final stages of a massive tax bill passed by the state Legislature last summer went into effect on January 1.

"This has been one massive job, but we're ready to handle the changes made by the state's lawmakers," Bullock said.

Bullock said the legislature authorized the wider tax base and increased the state sales tax to six percent in order to balance the state's 1988-89 budget.

Two services, data processing and commercial real property repair and remodeling, became taxable on January 1, according to Bullock.

Several other services, such as a debt collection, pest control, information, security, janitorial, landscaping and garbage collection, became taxable October 1.

The Legislature also temporarily raised the state franchise tax rate to $6.70 per $1000 of taxable capital, Bullock said. The minimum franchise tax due was raised from $68 to $150. This increase will expire in 1990.

Banks are subject to the same tax rates as other corporations.

Bullock said lawyers are paying a new occupational tax, beginning January 1. The yearly fee of $110 will be collected by the Comptroller's office when the lawyer's state license is renewed.

Other professionals, such as physicians, architects and accountants, began paying an occupational tax in September.

The state's hotel-motel occupancy tax and motor vehicle sales tax were increased to six percent in September, according to Bullock. The state's cigarette tax has been 26 cents per carton since October, he said.

Anti-Aging Creams Don't Do The 'Job'

Those anti-aging creams touted at the cosmetic counter don't make anything disappear but money.

Though such skin creams claim to prevent or remove wrinkles, the only thing that has been proven about these cosmetics is that they moisturize the skin surface, said Dr. John E. Wolf Jr., professor and chairman of dermatology at Baylor College of Medicine.

"These products are not sold as drugs, so they're only required to prove that they're safe-not that they work," Wolf said. "Virtually none of these companies publish the research that goes on to develop the creams, so the scientific community can't investigate the industrial 'trade secrets.'"

Wolf said an understanding of the aging process should make people skeptical about skin products that supposedly turn back the wrinkles of time. Youthful skin can only be maintained through the use of sunscreens, following a well-balanced diet and avoiding chemicals and pollutants.

But Wolf said there is one prescription product called Retin-A which is being tested.

Skin has three layers. The epidermis is the outer layer, which is formed of cells that constantly grow and get replaced by new cells. This layer determines the texture and surface appearance of skin.

The middle layer, or dermis, is formed of two fibrous proteins that work together: Collagen and elastic tissue. The collagen enables skin to stretch; the elastic tissue causes skin to snap back into position.

The inner layer, called subcutaneous fat tissue, consists of fat cells that provide a cushion for the top two layers to rest on, and gives skin its depth and softness.

As people age, their subcutaneous fat tissue gets thinner, causing the skin to seem looser.

"The whole contour of the face may change because the outer skin no longer has a nice, soft fatty cushion to sit on," Wolf said. "This is a natural consequence of aging. It's often controlled by genetics, and there's not much you can do about it."

Deep wrinkles and furrows in the skin are caused by damage to the dermis. The skin doesn't snap back into place because of the damaged elastic tissue.

Skin creams containing collagen and elastin that are rubbed into the outer skin layer cannot replace damaged collagen and elastic tissue. Even if these ingredients filter down in to the dermis, the body will treat them as foreign particles and dissolve them, Wolf said.

The most common cause of premature damage to the dermis is excessive exposure to sunlight, which penetrates the skin surface and destroys collagen and elastic tissue in the middle layer.

Wolf said wearing a sunscreen with a SPF (sun protection factor) of 15 or higher will offer maximum protection from the sun's harmful rays.

Because vitamin C promotes production and growth of collagen, Wolf said a well-balanced diet also protects the dermis. He cautioned, however, that no scientific studies have shown that "megadoses" of vitamin C are of special benefit to the dermis.

Exposure of the outer skin to chemicals and pollutants in the water and air, irritants in abrasive soaps, and bad weather can result in rough, dry, scaly skin with tiny fine lines. These may become more noticeable because the oil glands secrete less oil on the skin surface as the body gets older.

Whether expensive or not, any skin cream that adds moisture to the outer layer can help resolve the problem of dry skin, Wolf said.

Using "super-fatted" soaps designed for dry skin and avoiding antibacterial soaps that are abrasive to the skin can also help minimize damage to the epidermis.

There is one drug product which "offers a glimmer of hope" for wrinkled skin, Wolf said. Retin-A, or retinoic acid, is a drug derived from vitamin A and originally designed for treatment of acne. Researchers later discovered that the drug stimulates production of new collagen and increases new cell growth.

Wolf said several U.S. dermatologists are testing Retin-A on aging skin. The drug is available by prescription only, and its side effects must be carefully monitored by a physician. The strong medicated cream can make skin more sensitive to sunlight and can cause redness and peeling. Pregnant women should not take the drug.

Junior High Basketball Season At Mid-Point

On January 4, it was a 'big, big' win for the Muleshoe eighth grade 'A' boys' basketball team, when they downed the Floydada 'A' boys by 45-31.

Muleshoe was maintaining a 15-6 lead at the end of the first, and by half-time, had widened that to 24-11. It was 34-20 closing out the third and on to the 45-31 victory.

Kevin Osuna led all scoring with a whopping big 18 points; followed by Neal Haynes with 12; Arturo Ruiz had six; and with two points each were Ricky Flores, Kip McCall, Chris Dominguez and Ramiro Alarcon; while Sean Roberts had one point.

Johnston was the leading scorer for Floydada with nine.

In this important district win, there was a total of 18 offensive rebounds. Leading was Neal Haynes with six; Kevin Osuna had four; Sean Roberts showed three; two for Ramiro Alarcon and one each for David Quintana, Arturo Ruiz and Johnny Noble.

Making up the fifteen defensive rebounds were Sean Roberts, four; Neal Haynes, three; two each for David Quintana and Johnny Noble; while Kevin Osuna, Ricky Flores, Ramiro Alarcon and Arturo Ruiz each had one.

The team had 21 field goals of 61 tries for 34.4 percent; and were three for 15 free throws for 20 percent.

Coach Marvin Rupe said Kevin Osuna was named Player of the Week. He had 18 points, four offensive rebounds, three assists, one defensive rebound, three steals, three blocked shots, and was 2-6 from the free throw line.

Coach Rupe made the following comments about the game, "This game was a bit sloppy, but we managed to win. They played full court man to man, the entire game. The long layoff over the holidays, as well as the long bus ride to Floydada seemed to affect us quite a bit."

Next game for the team is Monday, January 18 at 6 p.m. in Muleshoe, when they meet the Tulia eighth graders.

8th GRADE A GIRLS

On the same night, the Watson Junior High School eighth grade 'A' girls downed the girls from Floydada, 28-19.

At the end of the first quarter, the A girls were leading 10-4. The halftime score was 14-8; and by the end of the third, had widened to 24-12. The eighth grade girls from Muleshoe were held to only four points in the final quarter, but Tulia was unable to overcome the lead, and lost 28-19.

Individual scorers were A. Williams, 10 points; C. Kemp, six; E. Kelley and T. Matthews, each four; D. Box had two and J. Noble and A. Arzola each had one point.

Hi pointer for Floydada was Black, with 13.

The girls were 12-42 in field goals for 29 percent and 4-14 free throws for 29 percent.

"Everyone played good," according to Coach Roxie Johnson. "They all hustled the entire game. Audrey Williams would have to be the Player of the Game because of her stats. She kept us going in the game."

On January 18, the girls travel to Tulia to take on the Tulia eighth grade girls.

7th GRADE A BOYS

It was a squeaker for the seventh grade 'A' team boys when they slipped by Floydada 34-33.

Maintaining a 5-2 lead after the first, it was all even up at halftime, 13-13. In the third, the Floydada team managed to lead 22-24, before the Mules came back in the final quarter for the narrow victory.

Leading scorer for Muleshoe was Eric McElroy with 11; Robby Gauna, nine; Marcos Bryan, six; Michael Cearley, four and Gilbert Rennels and Jesse Singleterry, each had two points.

Leading scoring for Floydada was Henderson, with 12.

Making the five offensive rebounds were Jesse Singleterry, three and Eric McElroy and Kyle Kenmore, each one.

Eric McElroy had four of the eight defensive rebounds. With one each were Kyle Kenmore, Michael Cearley, Gilbert Rennels and Robby Gauna.

The seventh grade boys were 14-44 in field goals for 31.8 percent; and their 6-26 free throws showed 23 percent.

Eric McElroy was named Player of the Week for his 11 points; one offensive rebound; four defensive rebounds; one steal; and 3-6 from the free throw line.

"This game was a tough game for us to start with," said Coach Rupe. "It was played right after the holidays. We were behind starting the second half and they seemed to have the momentum the entire second half. A turnover with just a few seconds to play led to our gaining the lead, and they could not score again."

The seventh grade boys will be playing in the Sudan seventh grade tournament on January 14-16.

7th GRADE A GIRLS

The Muleshoe seventh grade 'A' girls couldn't get it together for the Floydada seventh grade girls and lost 15-29 on January 4.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

New Snows!

You can see by the car tracks that people are going places despite the heavy snows. Others, like you and me, perhaps, are going places because of it—because the new-fallen snow is beautiful and we want to enjoy it and look at the pictures it makes on the landscape. Also, that frosty, crackly wind that comes with the first snows blows roses in our cheeks and new energy and expectations into our hearts. We can't wait to get out and do things and be with people.

A New Year is upon us. What wonderful things this year can bring. Does the New Year lying before you, with its promise, fill you with new life and excited expectations like the new snow mentioned above?

May your New Year be a happy and prosperous one, and may you find great peace every day through worship and spiritual blessings each week through attending church.

KNOW THE WEATHER

What happens when a cold front and a warm front meet head-on? What are the characteristics of the stationary front produced?

A cold front, running into a warm front with about equal momentum, stagnates and marks time. The warm front also comes to a halt and the result, where the two air masses have met, is a stationary front.

A stationary front almost always produces prolonged rain and cloud and erratic wind currents. Sometimes the rain lasts for many days, until one of the systems breaks through the other or another strong front moves in.

If you're planning to fly in private aircraft, the weather map symbol of a stationary front should be highly discouraging, for landing and navigating in such an area is hazardous and often dangerous.

Stationary fronts occur during the change of seasons. This spell of bad weather was called by oldtimers the "turn of the seasons."

MICROWAVE COOKING
By Linda Attaway

To convert conventional recipes for microwaving, many ingredients may be reduced or eliminated altogether.

Liquids may be reduced by one-third to one-half, but be careful to watch as the food cooks. Exceptions to this include rice, pasta and dried beans and peas.

Seasonings may be reduced since microwaving enhances the natural flavor of the food.

Fats may also be reduced or eliminated since they are not needed to prevent sticking. A small amount of butter may be used for flavoring.
