Farm Subsidies Rank High In Martin

Variety

By NEAL ESTES

Many of us have loaned our friends articles of sentiment and value and simply failed to remember which one borrowed the favorite possession. MRS. ELMER (IRENE) LONG telephoned the office and plead guilty to such an experience and wanted us to help locate a punch bowl for her. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of the bowl will please return it to IRENE.

Thursday night at 7:30 friends of the PHIL STOVALLS will hold a pouncing at Grady school cafeteria for them. The STOVALLS lost their entire personal possessions in the recent hurricane that struck Aransas Pass. The family escaped injury when Celia rolled in because they were out of town but the hurricane took a big toll and the former Martin County residents lost all of their worldly goods.

The primary election in Tennessee reminded one of the redhot political skirmish Texas voters participated in several years ago when W. LEE O'DANIEL was elected governor from a field of 11 candidates. The big race in Tennessee was for the U. S. Senate seat now held by Senator ALBERT GORE. GORE won the nomination on the Democratic ticket and his Republican opponent will be WILLIAM BROCK, 39, in the November general election. TEX RITTER, a native of Gary in Panola County, Texas, made the race but was eliminated. Before TEX bowed out of the picture he let the natives hear again the Nashville sound as he combed the Tennessee huntings. RITTER enlisted the aid of country superstar JOHNNY CASH and old-time fiddler ROY ACUFF in his bid for the Senate, and at one time prospects appeared good for the former Texan as he campaigned across the state from the banks of the muddy Mississippi River to the Smokey Mountains. But TEX lost out. While the campaign lasted, however, the gaggle of country music stars mixed it up pretty well with the two millionaires in the race, along with ALBERT GORE.

School Board Hires Three New Teachers

The Stanton High School board of trustees has hired three new teachers for the 1970-71 scholastic session.

They are: Barbara Burns, primary; Robert Eatus, junior high math instructor, and Joe Neel, sixth grade.

In addition to the action taken in gaining the new faculty members the board discussed the progress being made on the investigation concerning the recent collapse of the breezeway connecting the auditorium with the senior high building.

A spokesman for the school said the building had been closed since the day of the accident. He meant the auditorium. The spokesman for the board stated that the trustees had authorized a thorough inspection by a competent and qualified construction engineer.

The Stanton Reporter will be given a report on the findings of the engineer when it is completed and it will be passed along officially through the newspaper for the benefit of the taxpaying patrons and for the students who must use the facilities for the ensuing year.

Farm legislation in Congress concerning limitations on subsidy payments to individual farmers or farm corporations has developed lively debate in recent days.

The economy in Texas, especially in West Texas could be greatly affected by the ceiling placed on payment of the subsidy developed lively in debate in recent days.

Flower Grove Schools To Open On August 24

Flower Grove schools will hold the first full day of classes Aug. 24. Teachers will return Aug. 18 and 21 for in-service training. Registration for all students is Aug. 20 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. The buses will be in service.

An enrollment of 150 students is expected, according to information from John W. Massengale, school superintendent. Fifty secondary pupils are expected, and 100 elementary youngsters. Entrance requirements for first graders are a birth certificate showing that the youngster was six years old on or before Sept. 1, and a record of small pox, DPT, and polio inoculations.

Two new teachers have been added to the faculty for this year. They are Melvin Chisum, vocational agriculture, and Mrs. Karl Kitto, fifth and sixth grades. Chisum taught two years at New Home before coming to Flower Grove. Mrs. Kitto taught the fifth grade for two years at Grady.

President Nixon added the push necessary to get a wide majority vote in the U. S. House the past week for the $55,000 payment limitation, or ceiling, to individual farmers. The House raised the subsidy limit over the $20,000 ceiling previously accepted by the U. S. Senate.

The effect of the farm subsidy payments in West Texas can be examined with figures entered into the Congressional Record by U. S. Rep. Paul Findley of Illinois.

Findley read into the record the names of individuals or firms receiving ASCS payments in 1969 of $25,000 or more, excluding wool, mohair and sugar programs. He later placed in the record payments made to individuals getting as much as $15,000 for participating in the government program which has had no previous ceiling or limitation on the amount that could be paid to a farmer or farming corporation.

What would the effect of the payment limitation of $20,000, as passed by the U. S. Senate have in the vast area of West Texas surrounding Martin County? Computations based on data entered in the record by Findley show that:

Former Local Man Named To High Position

Harland Valiquette

A former Stanton resident, Harland Valiquette, has been named treasurer of the Midland Reporter-Telegram Publishing Co.

• Farmers in West Texas counties who received ASCS program payments of $15,000 or more in 1969 totaled 772. Of this total, 506 payments exceeded the proposed $20,000 limit.

• A total of 321 payments of $25,000 or more were made in West Texas counties; an additional 185 payments or more than $20,000 were included in 451 payments of $15,000 to $24,999.

• Had the proposed $20,000 limit been in effect in 1969, payments of over $25,000 would have been reduced by $7,458,311 from $13,698,311 to $6,240,000.

• The 185 payments in the lower bracket which topped the proposed $20,000 limit would have been cut by $413,595 from $10,417,495 to $10,003,900.

• The total payment in West Texas counties in 1969—had the proposed $20,000 limit been active—would have been cut from $24,115,806 to $16,243,900 for a total reduction of $7,871,906 from what actually was paid.

• Had the higher limit of $55,000 been in effect, a total

Bible Comment—

The Bible Is A Living, Vital Book

So many books about the Bible treat it as if it were a single book, of equal truth and authority in all its parts, whereas the Bible is a collection of many books (66, in the Authorized Version).

The Bible has evolved over a long period, and reveals progress from primitive and tribal conceptions of God to the revelations of the later prophets and the fulfillment in Jesus, concerning "the God of all grace and the glorious Gospel."

When Jesus spoke of the things that were said "by them of old time," and contrasted them with the things "that I say unto you." He was referring to things said by good men in that former time, who lacked the light that Jesus was to bring.

The progressive nature of the Bible is strongly brought out when one compares the incident of Eliza and the children (Kings) with the scene of Jesus blessing the little children (Matthew).

Even the Disciples had not progressed into that larger light of the Master, then the master, for they rebuked the mothers who brought the children to Jesus, bringing upon them the Master's distinct displeasure, as told in Mark.

This is a prime instance of how the moral sense and the elements of love and compassion, which Jesus so strongly inculcated by precept and example, replaced stern concepts as expressed in earlier portions of the Bible.

When one reads the Bible in the light of the New Testament, and in the light of Jesus' teaching, the living quality of the Bible is very evident.

Plant swapping often gives the intended beneficiary a great deal more than realized in the original bargain.

Root-knot nematodes and a whole host of root-rots may hitch a ride on the newly acquired plants and come as an "extra bonus" with the bargain, notes County Agent Billy Reagor. This in turn may serve to infest a complete flower bed or an entire farm.

New plants should be carefully inspected before planting to make sure that all parts appear normal. If doubt exists, the plant should be sacrificed in the interest of protecting existing plants. Most plant disease organisms, he says, are difficult to eliminate once they become established.

Root-knot nematodes are probably the most commonly transported plant problem. The life cycle occurs inside plant root tissues with egg, larval, and male forms present in the soil. Transport of fill soil may also move the organism from one place to another.

Once established, growers are faced with the control alternative of using resistant plants or nematicide chemicals to reduce nematode populations in the soil.

The grower's best protection lies in being able to recognize symptoms of plant diseases, and then carefully observing newly acquired plant materials, Reagor said, adding that the smart gardener doesn't let plant swapping turn into a nematode and plant disease exchange.

Final cultivation and application of herbicides have been made in some areas. Others, not all, could use a chemical layby treatment, Billy H. Reagor, county agricultural agent, notes.

Applied as directed, weeds and grasses can be held in check for the rest of the growing season into fall. Avoiding grass and weeds at harvest means better grades and no grassy bale penalties, he reminds.

Most of the premerges are also labeled for use at layby. Read closely the label of the herbicide you select for specific limitations concerning its use for layby.

Layby should be applied as a broadcast treatment. Either a four nozzle arrangement with fan nozzles on each side of the row or a flooding nozzle can be used. Either system should be adjusted to give coverage from drill to drill with the spray striking as low on the stems of the cotton plants as possible yet give coverage of small weeds, he said.

In fields where a fall crop is to be seeded, consider the use of Lorox as layby treatment, as it has a short residual and at labeled rates will usually have disappeared from the soil by fall.

Layby can be a single or a split application. If split, apply one-half of the chemical when the cotton is 12 to 15 inches tall, and follow with the other half if needed. Some feels this extends the period of effectiveness of the layby treatments, Reagor said.

The Rev. W. H. Uhlman, pastor of the First Baptist Church, performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with blue cornflowers, candles, and a Bible.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held. The bride's table had an ecru lace cloth and was centered with blue flowers.

The bride attended Stanton High School, and is a graduate of the Midland Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. The bridegroom, who has

President Will Sign Mail Reorganizing Bill

Congress has released its grip on the U. S. mails after nearly two centuries and the Post Office looks forward to shedding handicaps that prompted one postmaster general to say the department was in "a race with disaster."

More than two years after a presidential commission recommended it, and more than one year after the legislation was introduced, Congress sent Thursday to President Nixon a bill creating an independent U. S. Postal Service.

The White House hailed the occasion as "a landmark day and a landmark piece of legislation for users of the postal service and postal workers," and said Nixon would sign the measure next week.

STAMPS HIKE
It provides for establishment of the corporate-like federal agency within a year, and a retroactive 8 per cent pay hike for postal workers. It also makes likely an increase in first class postage rates — from the six-cent to an eight-cent stamp — early next year.
The new Postal Service will be run by a nine-man, presidentially-appointed board of governors who will select a postmaster general.

NEW SYSTEM
The new system is designed to modernize and streamline delivery of the mails, and eventually to eliminate the huge deficits that have been an annual feature of the Post Office budget for the past 16 years.

Rather than going to Congress for higher wages, postal employees will bargain with the board of governors through their unions, which will have all rights given to labor organizations in private industry except to strike and to form a union shop.
Postal management, rather than going hat-in-hand to Congress for money to construct buildings and buy equipment, can issue up to $10 billion in bonds.

FREEDOM
Postmaster General Winton M. Blount, who says the bill gives postal managers the freedom needed to put the mails on a business-like basis, nonetheless warned that changes in service will come slowly at first.
"The system is so vast and had been run this way for so many years we're not going to turn it around overnight," he said at a news conference after the House gave final congressional approval to the reform bill.

It was what Blount terms "the system" that caused former Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien to remark in 1967 that "the Post Office is in a race with disaster."

Andrew Johnson, because of the unusual number of his vetoes on Congressional bills, was nicknamed "Sir Veto."
Only six players in major league baseball history have hit 500 or more home runs—Babe Ruth, Willie Mays, Jimmie Foxx, Ted Williams, Mel Ott, and Mickey Mantle.

Perot Proposes Welfare Revamp

A revolutionary reorganization of the state Welfare Department, proposed by Dallas computer industrialist H. Ross Perot, has been recommended to the Legislature by the Senate Interim Committee of Welfare Reform.

The committee also voted to recommend:

- Abolition of the state Welfare Board, giving its authority to a commissioner appointed by the governor.
- Changing the name of the Welfare Department to the Department of Human Resources.
- An in-depth feasibility study of the advisability of combining the function of several state commissions and boards under the Department of Human Resources. Such departments as mental health and mental retardation and the Health Department were mentioned.

A 75-page report by Perot's Electronics Data Systems, Inc., said the department lacks a totally effective cost allocation system and that case workers spend only 20 per cent of their time in the field with recipients, and most of the rest their time is spent filling out forms in the office.

"The present welfare electronic data processing department is not being properly utilized to provide the needed service that an effective cost-oriented organization requires," the report says.

"Data processing should be used to relieve the case worker of many burdensome tasks currently being performed manually. The current data processing department lacks both directional and financial support from management. The department has failed to develop and sell to management a realistic welfare support system," the report says.

There is "gross oversupervision" in some areas and "a lack of supervision to the point of neglect" in others. The employee turnover is a staggering 29 per cent, due mainly to overwork and low pay, the report says.

The report says if the federal family assistance act now pending in Congress is approved, and if Texas adopts all the programs in the bill, Texas would save $19 million a year through reduction of 6,000 employees by installing the system proposed by Perot's firm.

Even if the bill fails and

Chippers Win State ASA Crown

In a game that wound up at 1 a.m. Monday morning, Morton's Chippers of Big Spring won the State ASA Softball tournament by defeating Clark Sporting Goods of Lubbock in the finals, 2-1, in Brownwood.

Clark's had upset Big Spring earlier in the evening, 3-2, in nine innings to force the Chippers into the extra game.

Morton's had won five straight games going into the semifinal contest. In the proper order, the Chippers beat the Damon Merchants of Rosenberg, 7-4; the Wichita Falls Merchants, 4-0; Gifford TV of Stephenville, 7-4; and Austin Katz, 4-3; and Lubbock Clark Sporting Goods, 1-0.

The Chippers had the Clark team on the run in the semi-final joust Sunday evening when starting pitcher Billy Paul Thomas jammed a finger and had to leave the game. Clark's tied the score with a run in the seventh and won it in the ninth when Bob Spencer, who had singled, scored on Larry Lewis' one-baser.

Herb Sorley tripled for Morton's in the last half of the inning but couldn't make it home.

Roy New counted in the first inning of the final game for Morton's with a home run and Al Oldfather scored what proved to be the winning run after singling in the second to lead off. A single by Gerald Cox brought him home.

A total of 37 teams competed in the tournament, using two diamonds to play the amazing total of 73 games. The state title was the first ever won by a Big Spring team.

The victory earned Morton's the right to compete in the Regional ASA tournament at San Antonio Aug. 28-29-30. A win there could qualify the Chippers for a trip to the National ASA meet at Clearwater, Fla., Sept. 11-13.

Four members of the Big Spring team were named to the All-State squad. They were second baseman Herb Sorley, left fielder Jimmy Miller, center fielder Jimmy Roger, and pitcher Billy Paul Thomas.

Other members of the elite squad included Bill Guthrie, Brownwood Gibsons, first base; Merv Krause, Austin Big O, third base; Don Holtsclaw, Amarillo Atlas Van Lines, shortstop; Brad Johnson, Port Arthur Clayton Co., right field; Tom Edmondson, Burk Burnett Merchants, catcher; and Darrell Rosenow, Lubbock Clark's.

Most Valuable Player was adjudged to be David Holmstrom, Austin Big O.
Oakey Hagood, Big Spring, gained Honorable Mention on the all-star squad.

Forecasts Indicate Larger Cotton Crop

An increase of 11 per cent over last year and a Texas crop of 349 pounds per acre on 3,653,000 acres was reflected in Monday's first forecast of the current cotton crop by the Agriculture Department.

The forecast was for a crop of 11,078,900 bales against last year's crop of slightly more than 10 million bales.

The forecast was based on field conditions of Aug. 1 as surveyed by the Crop Reporting Board.

The report said 11,324,500 acres were being grown for harvest this year compared to 11,075,000 in 1969. Yield of cotton lint per acre was estimated at 467 pounds, compared with the 1969 yield of 433 pounds and 516 for the 1968 crop.

The estimated yield per acre and production in bales of 500 pounds gross weight each, respectively, of 1970 cotton by states included: North Carolina 335 pounds per acre and production on 115,000 bales; South Carolina 368 and 230,000 Tennessee

Dallas Judge Blocks Fall Integration

A federal judge's action Monday in effect blocked Justice Department efforts to integrate six of 26 cited school districts by the fall opening.

The action involved six North Texas districts which were among the 26 named by the Justice Department Friday in suits seeking total integration by opening of the fall term.

The ruling, by U. S. Dist. Judge Joe E. Estes, set Sept. 10 as the date for hearing on the Justice Department petition, meaning any court action will come after schools open in Garland, Richardson, Lubbock, San Angelo, Wichita Falls, and Ferris.

Due to the current grazing conditions, stockmen are advised to check the diets of livestock on pasture to make sure they are getting needed minerals.

While minerals are not "cure-alls," points out County Agent Billy Reagor, they are essential along with proteins, carbohydrates, fats and vitamins for good animal nutrition.

Cattle under normal grazing conditions require sodium, calcium phosphorus, chlorine and additional trace minerals. Trace minerals are supplied in adequate amounts from natural forage and water.

The Launching Pad

By NEAL ESTES

Recently in the news have been reports that extremist Abbie Hoffman has collected $75,000 in royalties from his hate-America books, and his sidekick, Rennie Davis is not far behind with $45,000. Not bad for two "new left" baddies who proclaim their intention to destroy the profit-producing capitalist system. But it is a mistake to assume that such wealth is unusual in the "new left." As we scan the news stories coming across our desk, we are impressed by what we believe to be a very interesting pattern—a pattern woven in $$$$$$. Not just a few dollars. Many hundreds of thousands of dollars. Consider, for a moment, the vast amount of hate propaganda now distributed by the "new left"—leaflets, pamphlets, booklets, flyers, "underground" paper of every size and description. Carload, coast to coast. The cost of the paper alone, to say nothing of typesetting and printing, is staggering. Who says the "new left" is poor. The would-be bombers in Manhattan who blew themselves to bits; that "bomb-factory" they demolished was a quarter-of-a-million dollar townhouse, not including furnishings. New Left members are constantly on the fly to places like North Vietnam, Prague, Moscow, Paris, Stockholm. Have you checked the farce recently? How many of these trips could YOU afford? Mr. Jerry Kirk, a recently surfaced counterspy for the FBI, has added some interesting insights. It all started, he said, when he was approached at the University of Chicago. He became suspicious because, although "there was talk about a revolution of have-nots, I DIDN'T SEE ANY HAVE-NOTS. There were well-to-do young people." Kirk cited examples. "John Kaplin . . . a rather well-to-do young man whose parents live I think on West End Avenue in New York; Bernadine Dorn's father is the head of a big trucking firm, and she's in S.D.S. Howard Mochtinger, another in S.D.S. has a quite a well-to-do background. Jeff Blum . . . in S.D.S.—his father is Mr. Blum who used to own a large interest in the Baltimore Orioles. In fact, Mr. Blum is a multi-millionaire. So I called the FBI. . . An old Bolshevik is said to have proclaimed that "the capitalists will provide us with the rope with which we will hang them." Maybe that should be updated to read: "The capitalists will provide sons and daughters who will help us to hang them."

Misquoted?

Two men waked up a couple of thousand miles or so apart one recent morning, but as they saw the daily papers these rather prominent Americans must have enjoyed a good laugh together. They are President Nixon and his predecessor who now resides on the Pedernales, Lyndon B. Johnson.

The subject of their laughter should have been the news story in which Chet Huntley, of all people, hollered "Foul!" Mr. Huntley, it seems, talked with a Life magazine writer awhile back; and when it all came out in print, poor Mr. H. could hardly recognize it.

Mr. Huntley has had his share of experiences with this sort of thing, but in most cases he was not the misquotee as he was this time. Or says he was.

One good result should flow from it all, however; now he knows what Mr. Agnew was talking about.

News articles in this issue of the paper listing those men and farm groups in Martin County who participated in the ASC sponsored program were prepared from the information given in the Congressional Record.

The Stanton Reporter has not expressed an editorial opinion on the current government program. The newspaper is fully aware of the fact that the subsidies are vital to the continuation of any farm program because of the high overhead cost of production experienced by all Martin County farmers.

Final decision on the next three-year farm program is due to be made by Congress within the next ten days.

Tax Man Sam Sez:

Most of us try over the period of our working years to accumulate some sort of an estate to pass on to our heirs. It is not surprising that there are a lot of our mature citizens who want to know how much federal estate tax will be owed on their life's accumulation. Due to the community property law in Texas you don't owe any federal estate tax on community property unless the estate amounts to $120,000 or more ($60,000 for each spouse). The rates are graduated above this amount. If you want to avoid paying a great deal of federal estate tax there are a number of provisions in the law that allows you to pass a part or even all of your estate on to your heirs, tax free. If you need additional information Internal Revenue will be happy to explain the general rules.

The reason for the increase is that the cafeteria can no longer meet expenses without an increase in the cost of lunches.

The deficit in the cafeterias for the year 1969-70 was $5,163. The board felt that the increase in lunch prices for 1970-71 would help prevent the deficit another year, and possibly prevent the necessity of closing at least one of the cafeterias next year due to the prohibitive cost of operation.

Philosopher Trics To Start A New Fashion In The Length Of People's Lawn Grass

(Editor's note: The Martin County Philosopher on his grass farm on Mustang Draw claims he's trying to set a new trend, but there may be other explanations).

Dear editor:

I had just settled down on my front porch yesterday reading a newspaper and had already finished one article reporting Congress was about to set a limit of $55,000 per farm in government payments next year which I thought was fair, I believe I can just about meet expenses with that amount, it sure beats what I'm getting now, and had wondered to myself, after hurriedly reading that

Chet Huntley, on retiring as a television newscaster to open up a tourist attraction in Montana, said he found astronauts boring, if he'd find tourists real exciting—the one that came by this Martin County grass farm the other day asking directions to Midland didn't seem like he'd be too interesting to know permanently—anyway, to get on with this sentence which is getting out of hand but take a deep breath and keep going, I was just getting well into the newspaper when a car drove up and a neighbor got out and waded through the grass and sat down on the steps and asked: "When are you going to cut your lawn? It's getting too shaggy to walk through."

"When are you going to come abreast of the times?" I asked him.

"Whatta you mean?" he demanded.

"It's the new style in lawn grass," I explained. "Us high fashion people are letting it grow longer this year. Everything is longer this year. Hair is longer. Sideburns are longer. Dresses are longer. Wall Street brokers' faces are longer. Anybody with a crew-cut lawn just ain't with it. This is 1970, man."

"Uh-huh. Well, I guess I'd better be going," he said, and got up and left.

He never did say what he came for.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.
