

Hear... County projecting tax rate increase for its '90 budget

County Judge Bobby Goodwin said Wednesday that the commissioners court, facing its first 1990 budget hearing at 10 a.m. Friday, will apparently be forced to raise taxes.

All county departments have been heard from during court budget hearings of the past two weeks, and the hospital, with a projected subsidy increase from $400,000 this year to $560,000 next year, represents the biggest department increase.

The commissioners met with a large group of hospital supporters last month and gave their tacit approval of the subsidy hike, along with an amendment increasing the amount from $360,000 to $400,000 this year.

The court also has hearings scheduled for 10 a.m. Monday and 5:30 p.m. Aug. 15. The county tax rate is scheduled to be set Monday and the final budget approved Aug. 15.

Both of these hearings as well as the session Friday are open to the public.

"We have been at it for two weeks, and hopefully we can get a responsible budget adopted tomorrow and present it to the people on Monday," the judge said. See BUDGET, Page 9

Chantal benefits Scurry

1st general rain since early June

From Local, Wire Reports
Wednesday evening brought the first general rainfall for Scurry County since early June as moisture from Hurricane Chantal generated needed showers here.

Widely scattered showers and thunderstorms are possible across the western half of Texas Thursday night, but the National Weather Service says the rain benefits created by the hurricane are quickly coming to an end.

The Snyder area has a 20 percent chance for mainly evening thunderstorms Thursday. By Friday, however, sunny and hot conditions are to return with highs in the upper 90s.

Through Monday, isolated thunderstorms are possible for West Texas, but mainly in the Panhandle and Far West.

Highs in the Snyder area for the period will be near 100 degrees.

The city's official rain amount from Wednesday night's shower was 1.08 inches, bringing the year to 7.82 inches.

The largest rain total was recorded at Hermleigh, where 2.7 inches fell. Some 1.8 inches fell near the Farmers Co-Op Gin on the Roby Highway.

West of Snyder, 1.5 inches were recorded, the Dunn area had up to 1.4 inches and Loyd Mountain had 1.1 inches.

Fluvanna had .80 of an inch while just east of Ira, the reading was .60 of an inch.

Lake Thomas had the lightest rain reported with a reading of .40 of an inch.

Across the state, the remains of the minimal hurricane were moving northward from Oklahoma into Kansas early Thursday.

Before departing Texas, rainfall from Chantal caused street flooding at Stephenville. Dublin in Erath county received nearly 5 inches of rain in about five hours and Waco had 1 1/2 inches. Flooding was also reported at Ranger in Eastland County.

It will be partly cloudy statewide through Friday with warming temperatures.

Lows Thursday night will be mostly in the 70s, ranging from the 60s in the Panhandle to near 80 along the coast.

Highs Friday will be mostly in the 90s, ranging from the upper 80s along the coast to slightly above the 100-degree mark in the Big Bend area of Southwest Texas.

Bush seeks compromise...

S&L bailout may be vetoed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Bush today threatened to veto the $157 billion bailout of the savings and loan industry nearing a final vote in Congress, saying it sets a precedent that could undermine a budget-balancing law.

In a letter to congressional leaders, Bush called for a compromise on the thorny issue before the House and Senate adjourn for the August recess, perhaps as early as Friday.

But Democratic leaders vowed to press ahead with a final vote.

Senate Majority Leader George Mitchell said Bush's plan for calculating the cost of the bailout was "fiscal gimmickry at its worst" that would increase the cost by $5 billion.

Bush sent his veto warning a few hours before the House was scheduled to vote on the plan, which would close or merge hundreds of insolvent S&Ls.

The Senate was expected to vote on the same proposal later today, assuming the House approved it.

Bush's objection to the bailout plan centers on the method for calculating the cost in the federal deficit. The legislation would balloon the budget deficit but the bailout cost would not be included in calculations requiring automatic spending cuts in federal programs.

Bush favors evading the cuts by simply keeping the spending out of the deficit in the first place.

"If the conference report is presented to me in its current form, I will veto the bill," Bush said.

Bush said in his letter that "While Gramm-Rudman-Hollings is not perfect, it represents the only available institutional requirement for fiscal discipline by the Congress and the executive branch." He was referring to the law that requires automatic spending cuts if the deficit exceeds specified targets.

"Exempting $44 billion in spending from this budget process ... would be unprecedented. It would also seriously undermine the future value of Gramm-Rudman-Hollings as a source of budgetary

TDC inmates now expected Aug. 12

Tentative plans are for the first inmates to begin arriving at the Daniel Unit on Aug. 12 and, after that date, it is expected to take two weeks before the prison reaches its capacity of 950 men.

Daniel Unit Warden Les Woods said most of the inmates will probably be from West Texas, with 2,800 who are currently in the TDC system already having been identified by the agency as being from this region of the state.

He said the first 46 who arrive will be those with the highest inmate classifications, as outside trustys, and that a small number of those will be allowed to work outside the fences or at the agency's warehouse in northwestern Snyder alongside U.S. 84.

They will arrive 46 at a time on Texas Department of Corrections transfer buses.

The warden said new TDC inmates will continue going to the Huntsville diagnostic unit and will then be assigned to various units around the state, adding that Snyder inmates will go back to Huntsville to be released after their sentences are discharged.

He said it will take "at least a year" to get grass planted and See INMATES, Page 9

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Imagination is what makes you think you're having a wonderful time when you're only spending money."

A book written in 1923, entitled, "Take it from Me," contains gems of wisdom. For the most part, they are common sense topics, but we noted that the wisdom of the 1920s is valid 66 years later. Here's a sample:

-You can't buy confidence and respect with profanity and vulgarity.

-When the boss asks what you think about the matter, tell him what you think and not what you think he thinks.

-It is not what you say, but how you say it, who you say it to and when, that gets the order.

-The man looking for a job and wages is being given the preference over fellows looking for a position and salary.

-Another good thing about telling the truth is, you don't have to remember what you say.

-Never mind the business outlook. Be on the lookout for business.

-Don't worry when you stumble. Remember a worm is about the only thing that can't fall down.

-Work will win when wishing won't.

-The fellow who has coffee and a doughnut for breakfast in town, an armchair lunch and eats a delicatessen dinner out of paper bags, nine times out of ten has married some fool girl because she was a good dancer.

-Brighten up when dark days come. If sales were good every day, business would become monotonous. The sun shines every day in Arizona, yet it has about the smallest population of any state in the union.

-The fewer favors you accept, the less obligations you have to meet.

-A woman with a sharp tongue will soon cut herself off the payroll.

"God and the pilot were with us," she said.

20-year-old feud...

Uneasy truce halts tensions

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A feud between two families erupted in gunfire before city officials negotiated a truce, hoping to halt a 20-year squabble that had neighbors taking sides.

Fistfights, threats and arguments between the McDonald and Jones families have been common since the late 1960s. Last weekend, the tension exploded into a series of shootings in the inner-city neighborhood that left both houses pockmarked but no one injured.

"We're extremely lucky over the weekend that someone wasn't killed," Sgt. Greg Mills, a police spokesman, said Wednesday. "The way the violence was escalating, it was just a matter of time before someone was seriously injured or killed."

The families said many of the arguments during the past 20 years began between children. But no one can remember what specifically started the feud, shortly after the Joneses moved to the neighborhood 23 years ago.

"One of them would get into it with one of my daughters and she would curse her and then naturally I'd say something," Clarence Jones explained. "It just got bigger. We've had fights and arguments but never guns."

"It stayed between the kids before," Barbara McDonald said as she stood on the front porch of her home.

After the gunfire Saturday, police called the city's human relations department. Director Alvin Brooks met with 22 members of both families Monday. On Tuesday, Mrs. Jones and Ms. McDonald signed an agreement aimed at ending the feud.

It calls for the families to discourage violence, threats or hostile remarks. It also said the families won't use weapons and will be responsible for actions of people who visit their homes.

The agreement requires both families to discourage neighbors from getting involved in any disputes, as they had in the past.

Brooks said the feud will end up in court if either family violates the pact. Mrs. Jones and Ms. McDonald say they will abide by the agreement.

"I think we can end it. I think it's pretty much over right now," Ms. McDonald said Wednesday. The weekend gunfire resulted from a children's argument during a football game more than a week ago. Police reported a shootout Friday night, and two more episodes the next night. Three people were arrested, one juvenile and two adults who were charged with assault.

Mrs. Jones said she just missed being shot when the shooting began Friday on Flora Avenue, which is interspersed with vacant, weed-choked lots. Bullet holes cover the front door of her small beige home, and she pointed out bullet marks in the dining room, curtains and windows.

Across the street, gunfire broke the windows of Ms. McDonald's neat brown and yellow house and holes dot the exterior.

The city will stay involved as long as it needs to, Brooks said.

Man Seeks to Find Something On Wife With Nothing to Hide

DEAR ABBY: What do you and your readers think of the following situation?

My husband goes through my purse whenever the opportunity arises. (He usually does this when I am not at home.) He also opens and reads letters addressed to me.

Abby, I have absolutely nothing to hide, but I resent this kind of behavior. When I confront him, all he has to say is, "Big deal!"

TIRED IN ARIZONA

DEAR TIRED: Let him know that it is a "big deal" to you, and you resent the invasion of privacy.

Regardless of what he says, he's behaving like a man who doesn't trust his wife. To paraphrase a French saying, "A man does not look under a bed unless he himself has been under one."

Furthermore, if your husband continues with this kind of boorish, insulting behavior knowing how you feel about it, hie thee to a marriage counselor, lady. Your marriage is in deep trouble.

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I recently stayed overnight with my parents at their country home. We had a good time, but something bothered me.

On one occasion, I spontaneously gave my wife a gentle kiss just to say, "I love you." My father said, "Please confine that sort of thing to the bedroom."

I suppose I should mention that both my parents are very uptight about showing affection publicly. (The only affection I've ever seen them show is to their young grandchildren.) Even hugging is not condoned unless someone is arriving or leaving.

My wife and I are quite affectionate, but we don't overdo it in public. We enjoy seeing other couples holding hands or walking arm in arm; it gives us pleasure to know that other couples are as affectionate as we are.

Abby, how do you feel about showing affection "outside of the bedroom"? Or are there some "rules" we're not aware of?

IN LOVE IN FLORIDA

DEAR IN LOVE: I see nothing wrong with showing affection publicly — within proper limits.

But since you know that your parents are uptight about it, simply cool it in their presence.

It's said that "all the world loves a lover," but lovers should control themselves in public, lest some onlooker says, "Why don't you two get a room?"

DEAR ABBY: As the parents of three adopted Korean children, we would like to offer another way to handle questions from strangers who ask what nationality our children are, and where did we get them. (You said strangers who ask such questions are rude. We say they are naturally curious.)

When strangers question us, we explain how we adopted these children, how old they were when we got them, and how an international adoption works.

We have met some very nice people and welcome an opportunity to educate them. It's led to a better understanding of why and how some people choose to adopt children from another country.

We answer these questions in the presence of our children, and they have not suffered from it. They realize that they are of a different race, and they know that they are adopted. And since these conversations are always friendly, it assures our children that their adoption was positive and good.

So, Abby, our advice to adoptive parents of children of another race is: Don't be offended when strangers ask questions. Answer them honestly. You will meet some nice people that way. We have.

FRIENDS FROM IOWA

Interesting currents will be stirring in the year ahead that will strengthen your financial position. This could be an impressive cycle for you where earnings are concerned.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Someone who has been friendly to you might come to you for assistance today. By all means help where you can, but don't volunteer to take on anything beyond your capabilities or means.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Be very selective today regarding your social involvements. Try to avoid activities that are costly, because these could be the ones that turn out to be the least fun.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You're basically a rather courageous individual, but today you must be able to distinguish between boldness and what is just plain foolhardy. Don't buck the odds.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) There's a possibility you might be drawn into a debate today where your opposition has a firmer grasp of the facts than you do. Don't get in over your head.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Today you may have your hands full trying to keep your own affairs in order without going out of your way to try to sort out another's muddled milieu.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Partnership arrangements could be more of a hindrance than a help today. If there is an important goal you'd like to achieve, see if you can do it unaided.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Where your career is concerned today do not rely upon co-workers to attend to things for you that you should be taking care of yourself. If you do, disappointment is likely.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Let your hair down and enjoy yourself at social happenings today, but be careful you do not wear out your welcome. To be on the safe side, plan to make an early exit.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Even though it may take a bit of doing, try to be tolerant of companions today who are not in harmony with your particular goals and purposes. Make allies, not enemies.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Things you see to criticize in others today could be a reflection of your own shortcomings, so instead of trying to correct their faulty patterns, work on your own.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Be extremely careful about involving yourself in financial arrangements today that are outside of your particular field of expertise. The lesson you'll learn could be an expensive one.

Spicy breakfast...

Pizza flavor picks up eggs

By NANCY BYAL
Better Homes and Gardens
Food Editor

Enjoy the flavor of pizza at breakfast in these pizza-seasoned eggs. For uniformly tender microwave-cooked eggs, beat the yolk and white together thoroughly, otherwise the yolk portion of the mixture will cook faster and become tough before the white portions are done.

- PIZZA EGGS
- 2 teaspoons margarine or butter
 - 1 small onion, chopped (1/4 cup)
 - 1/2 of a small green pepper, chopped (1/4 cup)
 - 8 beaten eggs
 - 1/2 cup skim milk
 - One 2 1/2-ounce jar sliced mushrooms, drained
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon Italian seasoning
 - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 - 1/2 cup pizza sauce
 - 1/4 cup shredded mozzarella cheese (1 ounce)
 - 2 ripe olives, sliced
 - Cilantro (optional)

In a microwave-safe 8- by 1 1/2-inch round baking dish, cook margarine, uncovered, on 100 percent power (high) for 30 to 45 seconds or until melted. Add onion and green pepper. Cook, uncovered, on high for 2 to 3 minutes or until vegetables are tender. Combine eggs, milk, mushrooms, salt, Italian seasoning and pepper; pour into baking dish. Brown bagging lunch saves calories as well as money

By CAROL DEEGAN
AP Food Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Brown-bagging-it can take on a whole new meaning. You can save money — and calories — when you bring your lunch from home, instead of buying it from a deli or a vending machine.

Sounds too boring? Take a break from your everyday sandwich.

You can replace the jelly in a peanut butter and jelly sandwich with fresh fruit slices or chopped dried fruit. You'll add flavor and nutrients, and save on sugar.

Mix flaked, cooked fish or water-packed tuna with fruit, bean sprouts, chopped cooked or raw vegetables.

Combine chopped, cooked lean meat or poultry with chopped raw vegetables, moistened with plain, low-fat yogurt or cottage cheese.

Use a variety of breads such as whole-wheat, rye, pumpernickel or bran; pita pockets, rolls, bagels, tortillas, English muffins and rice cakes.

TRY DIFFERENT FOODS
If you're tired of sandwiches, try different foods.

Low-fat yogurt or cottage cheese can be mixed with chopped and drained unsweetened canned fruits, or chopped or shredded fresh fruits or vegetables.

Rice cracker mix and nuts is a combination of miniature crackers and dried legumes with a spicy Oriental flavor, available in the dried food section of most supermarkets.

Another suggestion: pepperoni, sliced into 1/4-inch pieces, and crackers.

Use an insulated lunch box instead of a paper bag when packing cold foods. Use an ice pack or a gel freezer pack to keep hard-cooked eggs, meat and milk products cold.

HOT LUNCHES
If lunch just isn't lunch unless it's hot, use a wide-mouth vacuum bottle for soup, chili, chowder or stew; chili or baked beans; casseroles made with pasta or rice.

Preheat the vacuum bottle by filling it with clean, hot water and letting it stand for a few minutes. Empty and promptly fill with hot food. Use a stainless-steel or glass-lined vacuum bottle rather than a plastic-lined one for hotter and safer food.

BEVERAGES, SNACKS, DESSERT

For beverages: choose low-fat or skim milk and fruit juices instead of soda. Vegetable juices supply important nutrients, but may be high in sodium, so balance these juices with low-sodium foods.

You'll save calories if you bring a naturally sweet fresh fruit such as apples, grapes and pears for snacking and dessert, instead of buying chips and candy bars from a vending machine.

BROWN-BAGGING SURVEYS

A 1988 survey by MRCA Information Services says 44 percent of all Americans carry food and/or beverages from home. The most avid brown-baggers, the survey says, are children from 6 to 12 years of age, and adults between the ages of 35 to 54. The apple is the most popular brown-bag item, followed by cookies, carbonated soft drinks and potato chips.

Chinet, makers of microwave-safe, disposable tableware that is 100 percent biodegradable, recently surveyed office caterers for their tips on brown-bag and eat-in working lunches. Here are some of their ideas:

— Invest in a quality lunch box or insulated bag and a thermos.

— Bring your favorite mug from home or buy one just for the office.

Scurry Library News and Views

Many children have reached the end of their parents' rope this summer. They whimper and whine those infamous words, "I'm bored." The Scurry County Library can help.

Maybe this is the summer they were going to learn how to cook. The library has cookbooks for the beginning cook, the inventive cook and the artistic cook, all written at a child's reading level.

If your child has interest in magic, let him add some hocus-pocus to the next family get-together. There are books with feats of magic that can "amaze" the local neighborhood children. (The "disappearing act" may not be included in the books.)

Perhaps this was the year to increase their vocabulary. The shelves house simple books of phrases, words and definitions. They can experience the fun of creating stories or playing with the original expressions they have discovered.

Tropical fish affected by water

WATERLOO, Ontario (AP) — Most tropical fish thrive in soft water, but fish fanciers should take care when moving their pets from hard to soft water, says the Canadian Water Quality Association.

"As with changes in temperature, water acidity, and food, a switch to softer water must be done gradually to prevent a shock to the delicate systems of tropical fish," says the association.

It recommends replacing a quarter of the water at weekly intervals to prevent fatalities.

After a little thought, West led the six of diamonds. That hesitancy before leading told South he did not need to fear that East held a six-card club suit. So declarer could safely allow East to hold the first trick with the king of diamonds. You'll soon see why that play was necessary. East returned a diamond. Declarer won the ace and played queen of hearts. East won the ace and returned a heart. At this point South could make the contract if the spade finesse was onside, but the opening bid from East made this unlikely. Instead declarer played A-K of clubs and then another club from dummy. But he did not ruff. Instead he discarded a spade. That left East on lead. If he played a diamond, declarer would ruff in dummy while discarding another spade. If he played a club, declarer would ruff, and dummy's last club would be a winner. And a spade would go into the jaws of dummy's A-Q.

What if declarer had won the first trick with the ace of diamonds? East would win the ace of hearts and put West on lead with a diamond, and a spade would come through dummy's A-Q. And we'd have no trouble guessing that declarer's name — obviously Willy Nilly.

Fancy footwork

By James Jacoby

It was aggressive for South to bid four hearts. A better choice after North's raise to two hearts would be to cue-bid three clubs to strongly invite game while showing the club ace. North would now certainly bid game, bolstered by the knowledge that his club king was not a wasted value.

Snyder Senior Teens whip Red Oak, De Leon at state

The Snyder Senior Teens, playing in the state tournament in Mt. Pleasant, remain undefeated after beating De Leon Wednesday by a score of 9-3, and then whipping Red Oak this morning by a 14-4 tally.

The offensive punch of the Snyder crew in the game versus Red Oak was paced by Joe Sanchez' three home runs and five RBI's.

Bart Morton got the win for Snyder and reliever Jamie Morton, coming on in the fourth, took the save.

Red Oak's Kevin Richardson was the losing pitcher.

The next game for the locals is set for 6:00 p.m. Friday against Palestine.

Snyder 9, De Leon 3

Snyder's first runs came in the bottom of the opening inning as Jason West walked and Randy Morris reached on an error. John Wright rapped a single for the first score and Morris moved across the dish after a wild pitch.

In the Snyder half of the second Robbie Smith walked, stole second and scored on a Toby Goodwin single.

Randy Morris pounded a triple in the third and scored on a single off the bat of Ronnie Pruitt to end the scoring before the rain delay.

De Leon wasted no time getting down to business as the game was resumed Wednesday.

Lead-off hitter, Lance Williams pounced on a Daniel Espinosa pitch for a home run.

The score stood at 4-1 for the beginning of the Snyder half of the fourth. Blair Williams was the first on base with a walk. Toby Goodwin singled and Jason West was hit by a pitch to load the bags for Snyder. Randy Morris reached on an error that allowed a pair of runs to cross the plate. Ronnie Pruitt then singled to drive in another run.

Gilbert Hernandez beat out an infield hit that was followed by a Bert Merritt single that scored the two base runners.

De Leon made a push in the seventh scoring two runs. Lee Dutton singled, John Conine Daniel Espinosa of Snyder was the winning pitcher while De Leon's Brian Harris took the loss.

Snyder reliever Tim Holsey came on in the fourth. He gave up two runs on five hits, struck out four and walked two.

De Leon pitching was touched for 10 hits including a pair of singles from Goodwin, two singles from John Wright and a triple from Randy Morris.

Pruitt had two singles, Hernandez had a single as did Robbie Smith and Bert Merritt.

Rangers fall to Detroit 6-4

DETROIT (AP) — Rookie Kevin Ritz continues to shed light on a dismal Detroit Tigers season.

He earned his second consecutive win Wednesday night as the Tigers beat the Texas Rangers 6-4. It was the first complete-game victory by a Tiger pitcher since May 23.

Mav's pick may go to Italy, also

DALLAS (AP) — The agent who represents Dallas Mavericks' No. 1 draft pick Randy White says his client might follow Danny Ferry to Europe.

"We hope we get a deal done with the Mavericks, it would be a great situation," Bill Blakeley said. "But if the dollars are not right, then we have to consider other options, and Europe is enticing."

"We haven't really tested that market, but we probably will," Blakeley added, "if not this year, then next."

White, a Dallas native, was the No. 8 pick overall in the NBA draft.

Ferry, a 6-10 All-America forward from Duke, was disappointed when the Los Angeles Clippers drafted him with the No. 2 pick overall. He stunned the NBA this week when he signed a one-year contract with Messagero Rome for a reported $1 million.

But Blakeley, in a telephone interview from his office here Wednesday, said he was not surprised by Ferry's move. "I think now you're going to see more players going overseas," he said.

"Hey, with the tax base, you make more money in Italy. Danny would probably have to make about $1.5 million, at least, in the NBA to equal what he'll take home in Europe," Blakeley said.

"And it'll be far less wear and tear on his body. He'll play about 35 games, not the 82, plus playoffs he would in the NBA. And in Italy they give you a beautiful place to live, a beautiful car, great meals — the only thing you pay for is the phone bill."

Italian teams begin practice next Monday for their season which begins Sept. 24.

Dallas general manager Norm Sonju, who has been negotiating with Blakeley, could not be reached for comment because he is vacationing in New York through Aug. 7, when talks on White are scheduled to resume.

White, a 6-8, 225-pound power forward from Louisiana Tech, will have to be signed by Oct. 5 to attend the Mavericks training camp. He has been playing in the NBA Pro-Am League in Dallas this summer.

Mavericks spokesman Kevin Sullivan said Ferry's decision to forgo the NBA shouldn't have much of an impact on talks concerning White.

"I really don't think it will have any bearing," Sullivan said. "There's a big difference money-wise between the No. 2 and 8 spots, anyway."

But Ferry's European tour will definitely have an effect on the No. 3 pick, Arizona guard Sean Elliott, who was drafted by the San Antonio Spurs, Elliott's lawyer Bob Woolf said.

Woolf also represents Michigan forward Glen Rice, the No. 4 pick overall.

"Maybe a little thing like this will spark the team. I hope so," Ritz said.

The 24-year-old right-hander, 2-1 since being recalled from Class AAA Toledo on July 13, gave up nine hits and struck out nine in his first major league complete game.

He became the first Tiger pitcher in almost two months to win successive games. The last Tiger pitcher to win consecutive starts was Frank Tanana on June 14 and June 19.

Detroit won only six games in July.

"This kid is a genuine prospect," Detroit manager Sparky Anderson said. "He's like (Jim) Abbott of California, (Kevin) Brown of Texas and (Erik) Hanson of Seattle. A performance like this makes you like your staff makeup for next year."

"I could see him with Jack Morris, Jeff Robinson, Doyle Alexander and Frank Tanana."

Texas manager Bobby Valentine liked Ritz, too. Valentine had videotapes of Ritz' 6-4 win over Minnesota last Friday — in what turned out to be Frank Viola's last game in the American League before being traded to the New York Mets.

"The kid pitched real well," Texas manager Bobby Valentine said. "He threw quality pitches. His ball really moves, he threw nothing straight."

The teams conclude the series tonight with Detroit's Jeff Robinson, 1-2, facing the Rangers' Bobby Witt, 9-9.

Gary Ward's three-run homer off Mike Jeffcoat keyed a four-run first inning for the Tigers on Wednesday. Catcher Mike Heath hit a two-run homer in the seventh. Jeffcoat, 5-4, gave up nine hits in 7 1-3 innings.

Gary Pettis led off the Detroit first with a triple and scored on Alan Trammell's double. Tracy Jones drew a two-out walk and Ward followed with his seventh home run.

"Jeffcoat didn't pitch that badly," Valentine said. "But four runs in the first inning is a big hole to dig out of."

Heath's seventh homer followed a single by Rich Schu.

Texas scored twice in the fourth on Pete Incaviglia's bases-

Rose attorney talks of bets

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — A lawyer for Pete Rose says baseball had a chance to act against the Cincinnati Reds manager over his admitted gambling on football games and failed to do so.

Roger Makley, one of the lawyers representing Rose in his battle with baseball Commissioner A. Bartlett Giamatti, said a story in Sunday's Washington Post in which Rose admitted betting on football games contained "no new information."

SPORTS

PRACTICE — John and Martha Fagin get in a practice round at the Snyder Country Club Wednesday in preparation for this weekend's Raggedy Ann and Andy Tournament. The couples only event is scheduled to tee off at 8:30 a.m. Saturday and run through Sunday. Championship, First and Second Flights will tee off early Saturday while Third, Fourth and Fifth Flights will commence at 1:30. Coffee, rolls and sweets will be served to the participants.

Snyder Buffs lose 10-0

The Snyder Junior Teen representatives in the state playoffs were thumped by Belton Wednesday by a 10-0 score. The loss is the first for the Buffs in tournament play after defeating Corsicana in the opening round.

They were to have begun play against the Presidio A's at 11:00 a.m. today. If they can beat Presidio, they will advance to play the winner of tonight's contest matching up Cook County and Corsicana at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Snyder was able to put only three men on the base paths all night against Belton pitcher Marty Garcia. Raymond Ware and Raymond House each had a single and Bobby Clinkinbeard walked for the Buffs.

The losing pitcher, Brian Crawford was lifted in the second with the score at 5-0 and no outs. He was relieved by House.

Belton was only allowed six hits — five singles and a triple — but was helped out by four Snyder errors.

The contest was called by the umpires in the bottom of the fifth on the 10-run rule.

If the Buffs lose another in the double elimination tournament, they will be heading home.

Net results

STRATTON MOUNTAIN, Vt. (AP) — After winning the French Open and turning in a grand showing at Wimbledon, Michael Chang is hoping to improve on his last U.S. Open performance.

Sunday might provide a start. Chang won three matches in the 1988 Open before losing in straight sets to Andre Agassi.

With Agassi seeded first and Chang second in this week's Volvo International tennis tournament, the two American teenagers remained on track for their first tournament meeting since that Open match.

Agassi struggled by Marty Davis 6-1, 3-6, 6-3 in Wednesday's second round and Chang followed with a steadier 7-5, 6-3 victory over Johan Carlsson of Sweden.

In today's third round, Agassi was matched against unseeded David Wheaton, a 6-1, 6-4 upset winner over No. 16 Scott Davis, and Chang faced off against No. 15 Derrick Rostagno, who beat Tim Donovan 7-6 (7-2), 7-5.

Governor Clements signs various new bills

AUSTIN (AP) — Elderly Texans will be better protected from dishonest vendors of Medicare supplement insurance under a new state law, Gov. Bill Clements said.

"Those people who prey on our older Texans must know that we are wise to their unscrupulous tricks, and we're putting a stop to it once and for all," he said.

The so-called Medigap bill, and crime fighting legislation, were among measures Clements signed into law in a Wednesday ceremony.

Medigap insurance policies cover the difference between Medicare coverage for the elderly and the actual cost of medical care.

"This bill gives the State Board of Insurance the tools it needs to address the pervasive abuses existing in the Medigap market," said John Hildreth, director of the southwest regional office of Consumers Union.

Paul Wrotenbery, insurance board chairman, said the panel will not tolerate abuses in Medigap sales.

"The State Board of Insurance can now act directly and aggressively to work to stamp out misleading and exploitative solicitation of more innocent and uninformed Texans," Wrotenbery said.

The measure limits to three the number of Medigap policies companies may offer for sale. One policy must provide basic minimum coverage under standards set by the board.

More than $3.7 million...

Gramm has funds for re-election bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican Sen. Phil Gramm has more than $3.7 million in the bank for his 1990 re-election campaign while his only announced challenger, Democratic state Sen. Hugh Parmer, had $175,043 in his campaign treasury on June 30.

"Unless we see a dramatic change in the fortunes of the opposition here, Gramm ought to coast," said Norman Ornstein, resident scholar at the American Enterprise Institute.

Ornstein said both of Texas' senators, Gramm and Democrat Lloyd Bentsen, "have the ability to raise awesome sums of money," which has an "enormous chilling effect for any serious or significant opposition."

Parmer, in a statement released Tuesday, said that even though he started from scratch in March, he has met all his fundraising goals.

"Phil Gramm will obviously outspend us, but his Gramm-standing and our fund-raising will be enough to overcome his attempts to buy the election," Parmer said.

A person who applies for Medigap insurance will have 30 days, rather than 10, to return a policy and receive a premium refund.

Among other requirements, a copy of Medigap insurance advertising must be filed with the insurance board 60 days before it is used.

The criminal justice bills approved in the recent special session show that Texas is "no-nonsense tough," Clements said. "If you use or sell drugs, you will pay the highest price."

One measure will allow law enforcement agencies to seize property that is used, or intended to be used, in committing a first- or second-degree felony, said Rider Scott, executive director of the governor's criminal justice division.

State law enforcement officials in the past have been allowed to seize property only if it is used in the commission of a drug crime, or bought with the proceeds of the crime, he said.

The new law includes but is not restricted to drug crimes, Scott said. For example, it will allow the seizure of a getaway car or money that was meant to buy drugs, he said.

Under other bills, people convicted of using or dealing drugs will be tested for drug use while on probation or parole.

Those over age 21 who are convicted of selling drugs to a minor will be denied jury-recommended probation.

Penalties will be increased for abuse of a child under age 17, if the crime is part of a ritual or ceremony.

Sen. Judith Zaffirini, D-Laredo, proposed the child abuse bill before the bodies of a University of Texas student and others allegedly sacrificed by drug smugglers were found in Matamoros, Mexico.

However, she said those murders underscore the need for the measure.

The governor signed legislation to merge West Texas State University at Canyon with the Texas A&M University System. Still required for the merger is approval from regents of the schools and the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.

Clements also signed measures to:

— Allow the State Board of Education to require teachers to be trained in recognizing the symptoms of alcohol and drug abuse among students.

— Make it clear that physicians can prescribe narcotics to relieve the pain of patients with untreatable illnesses.

Some doctors had refused to prescribe adequate amounts of such drugs to terminally ill patients, fearing that a law against prescribing narcotics to known and habitual users would cause them to lose their licenses, said backers of the legislation.

Countered Gramm spokesman Larry Neal of Parmer's efforts: "It doesn't sound like a very successful fund-raising operation."

In campaign spending reports filed with the Federal Election Commission, Gramm said he raised just over $2 million and spent $684,410 in the first six months of 1989. The first-term senator listed no debts and cash on hand totaling $3,725,060.

Parmer said he has raised $218,316 and spent $158,465 during the reporting period, and has borrowed $64,900 from Landmark Bank of Fort Worth for his campaign. Parmer also transferred $50,100 from his state Senate account into his U.S. Senate campaign fund.

According to Gramm's 428-page filing with the FEC, the senator raised $138,275 from political action committees and almost $1.9 million from individual contributors. Parmer raised $7,000 from PACs and $211,316 from individuals.

Gramm's spending included

Judge oks $140 million settlement

HOUSTON (AP) — A $140 million settlement has averted a scheduled Sept. 5 trial in a lawsuit by former and current employees of El Paso Products Co., who claimed they were misled into believing the company would be employee owned, an attorney said.

State District Judge Dan Downey approved the settlement Wednesday between the employees of El Paso Products and its new owners, Rexene Products Co., said Houston attorney Gregory N. Jones, who represented the plaintiffs.

The settlement was paid into an escrow account after the settlement was tentatively reached June 8, in anticipation of Downey's approval, Jones said.

Officials with Dallas-based Rexene did not return telephone calls Wednesday from The Associated Press.

The employees of the former El Paso Products Co. filed suit in June 1988 claiming breach of contract, fraud, and misrepresentation on the basis that the company was going to be employee-owned.

The El Paso chemical company was owned by Burlington Northern, but Burlington Northern decided to sell it in 1983. When a buyer couldn't be found, the company was left with the option of shutting it or selling it to the employees, Jones said.

A leveraged buyout in 1984 was intended to create an employee-owned company.

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm a 78-year-old female with Paget's disease. What can I expect?

DEAR READER: In all honesty, I think you can expect a real breakthrough in treatment within the next few years. Several experimental therapies show real promise as cures.

However, judging from your question, I assume you mean "what does the immediate future hold for me?"

Paget's disease is a term that has been associated with a wide variety of ailments. For example, Paget's disease of the breast refers to a highly malignant form of breast cancer.

Paget's disease of the penis is a rare cancer of that organ. Paget's disease of the bone, a common problem in older patients; is a chronic disorder of the adult skeleton. This is probably what you are referring to, so let's talk about that condition.

Paget's disease (osteitis deformans) is characterized by patchy areas of bone that undergo simultaneous degeneration and reformation. Bone turnover is so active that the new bone doesn't have time to form completely; it is thick, heavily calcified — and much weaker than normal.

This leads to pain, skull enlargement, difficulty walking and bone tenderness, although many patients are free of symptoms, at least in the initial stages of the disease. Weakened bones may fracture spontaneously (without preceding injury) and spinal nerves may be compressed, resulting in back pain and signs of sciatica. Hearing loss, because of pressure on the auditory nerves, and arthritis are common.

The cause of Paget's disease is unknown. The diagnosis is established by X-rays of the bones (which have a characteristic "moth-eaten" appearance), bone scans (showing areas of rapid bone turnover) and blood analysis of the enzyme alkaline phosphatase, which is markedly elevated in Paget's disease.

At present, treatment is directed at retarding the areas of overactive bone metabolism and strengthening bone that has already formed. Commonly used drugs include calcitonin, diphosphonates and plicamycin. Analgesics, such as indomethacin, may greatly relieve pain.

Despite the fact that Paget's disease is common (about 3 percent of people over the age of 40 have it), it requires treatment only if patients have symptoms. More often than not, they don't; the diagnosis is frequently discovered accidentally, during testing for other reasons.

Given these facts, I believe you can be optimistic about the medical advances in the treatment of Paget's disease.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm a 42-year-old male with trembles and tremors. I do drink a lot of coffee, but I've had hand shakes from youth, long before my first cup of coffee. Can you suggest a cure?

DEAR READER: Tremulousness that begins before adulthood is usually called "physiologic tremor." It is usually a harmless embarrassment and nobody knows the cause. In its more severe form, it is called "benign hereditary tremor," a fine-to-coarse shaking of the hands, head and voice that is inherited. It is worsened by stress, fatigue, certain drugs (such as caffeine) and the normal aging process. I suggest you seek a consultation with a neurologist, a specialist in ailments of the nervous system. Such a doctor will be able to diagnose the cause of your "trembles" and recommend appropriate treatment.

Lawnmower said stolen

Mrs. Bruce Cotton of 2112 40th St. told police at 9:53 a.m. Wednesday that her green Sears Craftsman 20-inch lawnmower, valued at $100, had been stolen.

Glenda Botts told sheriff's officers at 12:12 p.m. Wednesday that a 20-inch boy's bicycle had been stolen at Ave. Q and Dorsey Ave.

get the prison up to its optimum appearance, with "yard squads" performing much of the labor while other inmates build modular office furniture and partitions in the unit's work center.

He said kitchen supervisors and inmates who work in the kitchen will arise at 3:30 a.m. daily to begin serving at 4 a.m. for everyone to finish eating by 6:30 a.m. and to be at work by 7.

Interspersed among each day's activities will be 10 "counts" of inmates to ascertain that no one is missing, with the most important counts coming at night.

Woods offered his remarks at the noon meeting Tuesday of the Snyder Lions Club.

Sexual assault report prompts local arrest

Police and sheriff's deputies made two felony arrests Wednesday, one involving an alleged sexual assault and the other a forgery by passing case.

Carl L. Tealer, 30, of 4400 Ave. U, No. 3B-2, was taken into custody after a 13-year-old girl told investigators that he had assaulted her in his apartment during the noon hour Wednesday.

Gabor may see personnel file

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Zsa Zsa Gabor may see any misconduct complaint in the personnel file of the policeman who arrested her following a street confrontation, a judge ruled.

Municipal Judge Charles G. Rubin issued the order during a pretrial hearing Wednesday, focusing on the file of Officer Paul Kramer, whom Miss Gabor has described as an "empty-headed, gorgeous man" and a "sadist."

Kramer arrested Miss Gabor on June 14 after he ordered her to pull her car over so he could investigate a registration violation and she drove off as he checked for other infractions. When he stopped her two blocks later, she allegedly backhanded him across the face, knocking off his glasses.

Authorities charged Miss Gabor with misdemeanor battery on a policeman, disobeying a policeman's orders, driving with an expired license, having an open container of alcohol in her car and carrying an expired registration.

'90 budget may see tax hike

said. "If we adopt it, then next Monday we will discuss the proposed tax increase, if there is one."

He added that the five court members "anticipate that the tax rate will have to be increased," above the amount that sales tax revenues and the latest decline in overall county property valuations dictate.

The current county tax rate is 29.66 cents per $100 in valuation.

Recent figures from the Scurry County Appraisal District show a decrease in total valuation of about $90 million, from $947,221,578 last year to $851,983,318, mainly because of declining oil reserves.

That would put the effective tax rate—the figure needed to generate the same level of taxes as last year—at 39.94 cents per $100 valuation.

The income received by the county for sales tax would decrease this to 34.75 cents. The county is projected to receive some $357,000 in sales tax revenues this year.

Goodwin said $443,000 in sales tax receipts are expected for next year.

Wreck noted

A 1988 Ford pickup driven by Donovan R. Thames of 3002 42nd St. was in collision with a 1987 Dodge driven by Dayla J. Wall of Rt. 3 at 1:11 p.m. Wednesday in the 4200 Block of Denison Ave.

An unknown vehicle and driver struck a trash dumpster owned by the city in an incident discovered at 11:35 a.m. Wednesday in the 1900 Block of Coleman Ave.

Municipal Judge Tommie J. Mills set Tealer's bond at $15,000, and he remained in custody at the county jail Thursday.

A city detective said the incident was reported at 12:49 p.m. from the Cogdell Memorial Hospital emergency room and that the girl was held at the hospital for 23-hour observation.

Tealer was arrested at 1:26 p.m. on a Terry County warrant for driving with his license suspended and was charged with aggravated sexual assault at 4 p.m., the detective said.

In the other case, deputies arrested Lionel Oroscio, 21, of 1511 College Ave. at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday for allegedly passing a $20 check on July 5 at Munden's Discount Center on a Lubbock man's account at American State Bank in Lubbock.

A department spokesman said Oroscio is also being investigated for possibly passing 12 to 15 checks for a total of $150 to $200 at McD's convenience store, Town & County Food Store and D&P Grocery in Snyder and at stores in Colorado City and San Marcos. His bond was set at $5,000.
