Tax protest group delivers petitions

Petitions which appeared to contain the signatures of more than 1,200 local citizens seeking a roll-back of 1990 county taxes were submitted Monday.

County Clerk Frances Billingsley said Leland McCarty, who had spearheaded a petition drive to collect names of registered voters to force the roll-back election, turned in the petitions shortly before 1 p.m. Monday.

A total of 902 names are needed to force Scurry County Commissioners to call the election which would roll 1990 taxes back to 34.75 cents per $100 valuation. On Aug. 18, commissioners set the 1990 rate at 39.80 cents.

Mrs. Billingsley said her office had already begun review of the petitions. The county clerk must verify names of registered voters. The 902 number represents 10 percent of those qualified to vote in the last general election.

County clerk officials said preliminary inspection of the petitions had already revealed duplication of some names. The office has 20 days to certify the petitions.

If petitions are certified as having sufficient signatures, Mrs. Billingsley said the court would likely meet on Oct. 30 or Nov. 6 to call the election. Commissioners must then call an election not sooner than 30 days or later than 90 days.

Mrs. Billingsley said Tuesday that she had checked with the Secretary of State's office and that the election likely would have to be held on the next uniform election day—the third Saturday in January, which is Jan. 20.

Commissioners Monday estimated that the cost of holding such an election would be approximately $7,000. It was further estimated that if the roll-back is approved, the added costs would be $14,200 to make the necessary refunds. Tax statements have already gone out and the county is offering discounts for early payment. All taxes are due Jan. 31.

The estimated expense for making refunds includes $3,000 for a computer program, $2,100 for extra salaries, $2,500 for checks, $400 for statements, $200 for a tax roll, $5,000 for postage and $1,000 for computer space.

Amendments...

Absentee voting begins Wednesday

In-person, absentee balloting opens Wednesday for those registered to vote in the Nov. 7 general election.

Registered voters have until Nov. 3 to appear in person at the county clerk's office and cast absentee ballots in next month's election, which includes 21 proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution.

Under a 1987 state law which relaxed absentee balloting requirements, Texans are given the option of casting absentee votes by personal appearance without having to give a reason for doing so.

A separate period still exists for those needing to cast absentee ballots by mail. Those who vote by mail must give a reason for not being able to cast their ballot on election day. Oct. 31 is the last day to request a ballot by mail.

The Nov. 7 constitutional amendments election includes measures that would raise the salaries of state legislators, the lieutenant governor and speaker of the house; authorize the issuance of bonds for water projects and state prison expansion; let the legislature pass laws permitting courts to instruct juries on good conduct time and parole eligibility for defendants; allow state lawmakers to sanction and regulate raffles conducted by non-profit organizations; and several other issues.

Records indicate that of an estimated 12.3 million Texans eligible to vote, about 8.2 million are registered.

Bus bid is approved

Snyder school board trustees approved a bid of $34,950 each for two 71-passenger buses, okayed a textbook committee and hired an elementary music teacher during their regular meeting Monday night.

The board also approved a boundary change between Northeast and Central elementaries, agreed to accept students from the Hobbs school district, heard reports from East Elementary and Classmates In Action and handled routine business matters.

Bids on 11 buses from four companies were reviewed, after which the board accepted an International model with a DTA360 diesel engine and a Ward body, from Texas School Bus Center. The board approved purchase of two of the 71-passenger buses, monies for which have already been allocated in the yearly budget.

The textbook committee accepted by the board includes Doug Chitsey, Debra McNair, Patti Musselman, Margie Martinez, JoAnn Peek, Charlotte Clifton, Elvira Gonzales, Walter Reneau and Carolyn Limmer. (see SCHOOL, page 8)

Chevrolet dealership sale becomes effective today

The change of ownership of the Chevrolet dealership in Snyder became effective today.

Big Country Chevrolet, Inc., a company headed by Bill Wilson III, Monday was given approval to purchase the General Motors dealership from Mal Donelson Chevrolet.

Wilson, who has been vice president of Wilson Motors since his graduation from Texas Tech in 1975, will be the president of the new dealership.

Wilson will run the day-to-day operations of the Chevrolet facility which is located at the traffic circle east of Snyder.

Wilson said he expected no immediate changes in operation, and that the first couple of weeks would be spent "getting my feet on the ground."

He added that additional inventory is on order and, after its arrival, the firm will hold a grand opening.

Wilson, a 1971 graduate of Snyder High School, holds a bachelor of business administration degree in finance from Texas Tech.

Donelson said his future plans were uncertain, but that his family plans to remain in Snyder.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "A gifted mind is one that easily discovers plausible excuses."

Few people get through life without the experience of a few "hard times." Few in oil-dependent West Texas have failed to be impacted by the down-turn in the economy.

Yet Texans, especially West Texans, are supposed to be proud people. Pride is one of those characteristics that we shouldn't let slip away.

We recognize there is a difference—a difference between those who can't pay and those who simply won't pay. We have empathy with the first, but we get down-right teed off at the latter.

Non-pay or bad debts is costing everybody. This year alone, folks who won't make good on their credit agreements will add $250 in the form of higher prices for goods and services.

And if it is not bad debts causing prices to go up—then it's theft—usually in the form of shoplifting. A maker of anti-theft devices used in large department stores reports that the average supermarket loses a steak a day from the meat case.

What are the minimum essentials of life? Over and above such things as food, air, water and a roof of some kind over your head, one's absolute minimum needs are two—a comfortable pair of shoes and a bed.

Why shoes and a bed? It's simple—you're either in one or the other most of your life.

The senior female employee here at the SDN office says men have only two faults—everything they say and everything they do.

Proposed Amendment No. 6

Below continues the series outlining the 21 proposed constitutional amendments which will be offered for voter ratification on the Nov. 7, 1989, general election ballot.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 4: would add a subsection to Section 30 of Article XVI which would allow the legislature to set the terms of hospital district board members at not more than four years.

Additional Information Currently, hospital district board members serve two-year terms under the requirements of the constitution.

FOR: Members of the governing bodies of counties and water districts and of most municipalities serve four-year terms. Changing to four-year terms would enable a hospital district to hold its elections at the same time elections of other governmental entities with territory common with the district are held, therefore saving money. Because most hospital district board members serve staggered terms, a hospital district must hold elections every year and approximately half of the members are elected in each election. The disruption of changing half the members every year limits the efficiency of the board.

AGAINST: Increasing board members' terms to four years would decrease the public's control over a hospital district and decrease the members' accountability to the public. The constitutional two-year limit on terms of office should be completely removed rather than adding to the extended list of exceptions to that provision.

Chamber board is updated on small business program

Snyder Chamber of Commerce directors heard a report from Western Texas College Dean of Instruction Bettie McQueen concerning the college's proposed small business management program, approved four new board members for 1990 and voted to support five resolutions during their monthly meeting Monday afternoon.

WTC is planning to offer the small business management program through the Adult Vocational Division in the spring of 1990 with a long-range goal of eventually offering the courses for credit. Since adult vocational education courses are not for credit, instructors who may not have teaching degrees but who are experienced in the field may be utilized.

"An advantage of having the program through adult vocational education is that we can rely on the obvious experience factor," said McQueen.

A study by the college indicated four common areas attributed to small business failures: selection of the type business; knowledge of federal, state and local regulations governing the business; employee relations; and accounting.

The proposed program at WTC, which would include 210 continuing education hours, will concentrate on those areas.

Chamber Manager Bill Moss told McQueen, "You have the full support of the chamber and the chamber board. If we can help, we want you to call on us."

Approved as board members for 1990 were Susan Neves, Larry Schwarz, Paula Gilbert and Terry Bowden.

The board voted to support five resolutions, including three proposed amendments to the Nov. 7 general election. The other two resolutions were in support of the schools' perfect attendance effort and one urging a "meaningful worker's compensation reform bill."

Proposed amendments endorsed by the board included Proposition 3, which would authorize the issuance of bonds to assist in the development and production of new or improved products; Proposition 5, the "export amendment" which would exempt from ad valorem taxation goods other than petroleum products that are exported from

Proposed 'sin tax' criticized

AUSTIN (AP) — Cigarette and alcohol lobbyists blasted a proposal by a Texas lawmaker to raise so-called "sin taxes" for public schools and the idea also received a chilly reception from Gov. Bill Clements.

On Monday, state Rep. Dan Morales called for a $723 million increase in alcohol and cigarette taxes to ensure a solid school finance system, since the Texas Supreme Court ruled the current system is unconstitutional.

The court has ordered the Legislature to change the state's school financing method because it allows property-rich schools to spend more on education than property-poor districts.

Morales, who is seeking the Democratic nomination for state attorney general, said increasing sin taxes would be the easiest way to raise immediate funds for poor schools and give the Legislature time to overhaul both the tax and school systems.

"Those who deny the need for additional state investment in our children are leading Texas directly down the road to ruin," said Morales. His San Antonio legislative district includes the Edgewood school district, which was the lead plaintiff for poor schools in the lawsuit against the state.

But Clements said officials must first determine how much is needed before considering a tax increase.

"Gov. Clements believes the first step at this point must be a comprehensive review of the efficiency of the structure of the Texas school system," Rossanna Salazar, Clements' press secretary said.

And alcohol and cigarette groups said Morales' proposal targets a specific group to fix a statewide problem, hits the poor the hardest and would end up reducing state taxes.

Morales proposed raising the state cigarette tax 10 cents, from 26 cents to 36 cents per package; doubling both beer and liquor taxes, from $6 to $12 per barrel of beer and from $2.40 to $4.80 per gallon of liquor; and increasing from 12 percent to 20 percent the tax on mixed beverage sales.

The increases would bring $723 million to state coffers over two years, in addition to the $250 million already approved by lawmakers for equity school funding this year, said Morales, a member of the House tax-writing committee.

Man agrees to 45-year term

HOUSTON (AP) — A man sentenced to death twice for killing his 10-year-old niece may be freed within a few weeks because he decided to accept a plea bargain rather than face a third capital murder trial in the case, his attorney says.

John Charles Zimmerman Jr., 41, pleaded guilty Monday to murder in the March 24, 1977, slaying as part of a plea bargain that included a 45-year prison term, said his attorney Wes Hocker.

Hocker, who had served as jury foreman in Zimmerman's first trial in 1977, said the kidnapping and aggravated rape charges were dropped as part of the agreement.

"I talked to him about it (the plea bargain offer) Friday and he said he wanted to take the deal," Hocker said. "I felt we could have prevailed ultimately, but he'll get out quicker by taking the 45 years."

Zimmerman has been in the Harris County Jail for nearly a year awaiting his third trial. He will be transferred back to the Texas Department of Corrections before a decision is made on any release date, Hocker said.

The attorney said he believed that Zimmerman, who was sent to the TDC in December 1977, has served enough time to be paroled on the 45-year sentence.

"I think it'll be about two to three weeks before he gets out," Hocker said.

TDC spokesman Charles Brown said although Zimmerman may be eligible to be considered for parole, he added it will be up to the Texas Board of Pardons and Parole to make that decision.

"They'll have to review his records first," Hocker said.

Zimmerman had written to State District Judge Woody Densen asking that he appoint Hocker as his attorney. Hocker said Zimmerman approached him through his current law partner, Robert Morrow, who worked with one of Zimmerman's principal attorneys in the second trial in 1979.

The inmate's third trial was the result of a Texas Court of Criminal Appeals ruling in April 1988 that overturned his previous conviction because the trial judge improperly allowed into evidence letters written by Zimmerman to his wife, Sherry, after he was in custody.

The letters, in which Zimmerman admitted killing his niece, wound up in his mother-in-law's hands. She sent them to another daughter, the victim's mother, who forwarded the material to investigators.

In ordering the new trial, the court ruled that the letters were confidential communication between husband and wife and that their introduction as evidence violated a provision of the law that one spouse cannot give adverse testimony against another.

According to previous court testimony, Zimmerman took Ramona Ann Abner from the Jacinto City Elementary School where she was a third-grader on the day of the killing, telling a teacher's aide there was a family emergency.

The next day, Zimmerman led police to the girl's body in an unfinished garage at a Houston townhome where he had worked. A 10-inch butcher knife also was found where the Marion, Ind., native said he had thrown it.

A medical examiner ruled that the girl, who was nearly decapitated, died from cuts and stab wounds to the chest and back, and that she had been raped before she died.

Ken Sparks, who prosecuted Zimmerman's two trials, said Zimmerman would have been executed by now had it not been for a confession coerced by Allan R. Jamail, the former Jacinto City police chief of the Houston-area town.

Senator Ready to Raise Stink About Magazines That Smell

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1989 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Earlier this year you ran a letter in your column from a woman signed "Choking," who suffered a full-blown migraine headache caused by a fragrance sample inserted in her TV Guide. Her letter went on to say that millions of folks with severe allergies, asthma and other related health problems do everything they can to avoid these odors.

Soon after reading "Choking's" letter in your column, I introduced legislation in the New York state Senate that would require that any cosmetic, perfume or other fragrance sample be enclosed in an odor-proof sealed packet if it is to be included in any publication or advertisement offered for sale or mailed in New York state.

The introduction of this legislation has prompted quite a response from people who have at one time or another had a violent reaction after having been exposed to these free samples. I intend to hold hearings this fall on this legislation to allow all interested parties to come forward and offer their feelings on this issue.

Thank you, Dear Abby, for inspiring this legislation.

MARTIN CONNOR,
STATE SENATOR, ALBANY, N.Y.

DEAR SEN. CONNOR: I wish you success. A headache-inducing fragrance that arrives uninvited in one's mailbox is nothing to sneeze at.

DEAR ABBY: When I call my friend on the phone, one of his children (ages 15 and 17) usually answers. In answer to my request to speak to their father, I am always asked, "May I ask who is calling, please?"

This really rubs me the wrong way because I figure the child has no business knowing who is calling. It comes across as being rude and nosy.

I know this is not intended, so I asked my friend if his children have been instructed to do this as a form of "screening" his calls. He said, "No. It's because callers often do not leave messages; therefore I've instructed my children to get their names right away."

Abby, I think this is faulty reasoning, because callers have every right not to leave a message if they choose.

In answer to the question, "Is your dad in?" I think the appropriate answer should be either, "Yes. Just a minute, I'll get him," or, "No, would you care to leave a message?"

I've explained to my friend twice that I find his present answering procedure offensive, but nothing has changed. It is so upsetting to me that I now hesitate to call him at home. Am I justified in being upset? And how would you suggest I resolve this?

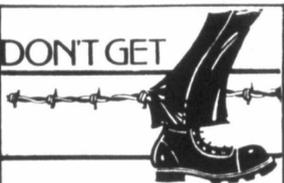

TROUBLED IN ONTARIO

DEAR TROUBLED: I think you are not justified in being offended or upset. Well-mannered people always identify themselves when placing a telephone call.

When an unidentified caller is asked, "Would you care to leave a message?" invariably the response is, "Never mind, I'll call again." (Click). Then the caller is left to wonder who called — which can be very frustrating.

On the other hand, when people inquire, "May I ask who's calling?" they will usually get the caller's name immediately.

What teens-agers need to know about sex, drugs, AIDS, and getting along with their peers and parents is now in Abby's updated, expanded booklet, "What Every Teen Should Know." Send your name and address, plus check or money order for $3.50 ($4 in Canada) to: Dear Abby's Teen Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61064. (Postage is included.)

Study: athletes think illegal drugs are problem in sports

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A national survey of college athletes found 72 percent believe illegal drug use is a problem in sports and 65 percent favor mandatory testing of all athletes by their schools.

The study, released Monday by Michigan State University researchers, also shows the number of college athletes using anabolic steroids increased slightly over the past four years, but marijuana and cocaine use dropped.

The number of athletes drinking went up slightly and use of smokeless tobacco increased by nearly 40 percent, from 20 percent in 1985 to 28 percent this year, according to the study for the NCAA.

Of the nearly 2,300 athletes surveyed, 5 percent reported using anabolic steroids, mainly football players, but also men and women participating in eight other sports. That's up from 4 percent in 1985.

One of the Michigan State researchers, Dr. Douglas McKeag, said testing and strong sanctions for violators would ease a lot of pressure on athletes.

"The principal concern now among athletes is, 'How can I stay up with my competition if I know my competition is getting an artificial boost here and there?' That's a hard question to answer," he said.

McKeag said athletic conferences and the NCAA are stepping up the fight against steroids, but some athletes are willing to risk long-term heart, liver, and reproductive problems for short-term gain.

"When you deal with drugs that are perceived as being helpful in getting somebody what they are asking, in other words a pro career with lots of money, you have a lot there that you're arguing against," he said.

"Regardless of how severe some of the side effects might be, you're dealing with a young individual who may be looking at his lifetime dream."

McKeag predicted those numbers would drop as education programs took hold, and said he was more worried about the fact that 89 percent of the athletes, up from 88 percent in 1985, regularly drank alcoholic beverages.

3 from halfway house are killed in Austin mishap

AUSTIN (AP) — Police are investigating a van-pickup accident that killed three residents of a halfway house for the mentally handicapped traveling home from work.

The pickup left the road in the Monday accident and struck the van the men were in, tipping the van sideways and peeling off its top, said Senior Officer Charlie Peters.

The van's driver, Jorge Martinez, pulled into a church parking lot when he saw the pickup traveling on the wrong side of Manchaca Road toward him, Peters said.

But the truck, which was traveling north in a southbound lane, veered into a ditch and became airborne before hitting the van's left side at window height, Peters said.

"It hit it and peeled the top off," he said. The van, which was sitting 25 feet off the road, was rolled onto its right side.

Killed were Brent Walker, 26;

Freddie Mitchell, 54; and Terry Williams, 45. The three passengers suffered severe head injuries, Peters said.

The men were classified as mildly retarded residents of Mabee Village in Manchaca, a part of the Marbridge Foundation, said Hope Pearce, office manager for the facility. They were returning from their Barton Creek Country Club food service jobs, she said.

Martinez, 38, of Buda, is a house parent at the halfway house, said Debra Carpenter, a bookkeeper with the Marbridge Foundation. He was released from Brackenridge Hospital after treatment for a lacerated nose and pain in his left shoulder and left arm, said hospital spokesman Larry BeSaw.

A fourth van passenger, Mabee Village resident Mike Haehnel, 42, was treated for superficial abrasions on his forearm and released, BeSaw said.

McCormick speaks on India

The Alpha Study Club had its regular monthly meeting Oct. 3, at Martha Ann Woman's Club, with Barbara McCormick presenting a program on her trip to India last Christmas. Jean Moore presided over the meeting, in absence of president, Eula Williams. Some 11 members were present along with three guests, Bessie Collins, Margie Gann and Mrs. McCormick. Mrs. McCormick wore a blue and green sari, which is typical of what Indian women wear. She displayed several souvenirs including a brass lunch pail, lace cloth, a miniature lamp, a kangaroo bag, a coat and a replica of the Taj Mahal. Her presentation included many slides and facts about Indian schools, worship centers, methods of cooking, skirmishes and curfews. She also touched on white buffalo, the lack of paper products in India, the major cities and the Himalayas.

Altrurian daughters hear collector

Altrurian Daughters Study Club met at the Martha Ann Woman's Club Wednesday for their monthly luncheon. Gerri Parker, principal at West Elementary, presented a program entitled "The Joys of Knowing Old Silver." Parker began by classifying herself as a general collector or "junkie" and presented some of her amusing articles from this category. Parker went on to discuss her main interest, collecting old silver. She explained that silver-plated flatware, largely displaced by stainless steel, is now a collector's item. She displayed several patterns of flatware, pointing out those that are the most valued by collectors. She also spoke briefly on sterling silver and jewelry, both silver and gold. Club members took part in a memorial service for long-time member Jeanette Clements. Georgene Galloway presented a poem and Emily Hataway sang, "Come Holy Spirit" and "A Time for All Things," accompanying herself on the guitar. Margaret Birdwell, June McGlaun and Ruby Patterson served as hostesses for the luncheon.

Family works together on dairy farm

FAIRFIELD, Ky. (AP) — The central Kentucky farm of Bobby and Judy Lutz is truly a family business. The Lutzes' three children help to care for and milk the Holstein herd, which is a family in its own right. About three of every four cows they milk is a daughter or granddaughter of Mitzi or Alice, two registered Holsteins the Lutzes bought more than 10 years ago. In just one decade the Lutzes have built a superior herd of about 200 purebred Holsteins, something that once took a farmer's lifetime. Embryo transfers — implanting fertilized eggs from Mitzi or Alice into surrogates — has made it possible. Bobby Lutz says a cow normally will have about four offspring in a lifetime. Mitzi and Alice each have produced several dozen. He says all of their female offspring, born to surrogate mothers, have become super milk cows. Embryo transfer, commonly called ET, began in the mid-1970s. Lutz says he and his wife invested $30,000 in startup costs in 1980, when ETs were financially risky and the couple was struggling to pay off their 230-acre farm. The investment paid off. The Lutzes last year earned more than $50,000 — about 25 percent of their farm income — from the sale of frozen embryos and live bulls from embryo transfers.

had no trouble starting out right. He won the heart ace in dummy and led a low spade. East had to play the ace and now switched to the king of diamonds. South correctly assumed that West could not hold a singleton diamond (he had not led that suit), so he let East hold the trick. But he won the next diamond with the ace and cashed the queen of hearts. He played a spade to dummy's king, played A-K of clubs and ruffed a club in dummy. Then came the remaining high heart, on which he discarded his losing diamond. West ruffed, but that was the last trick for the defense. If declarer had taken the first diamond trick, at this point West could play a diamond to East, and another diamond would promote the setting trick in trumps. Yes, West should have led the jack of diamonds at trick one. Of course we know that, because we are looking at all the hands, but there is some logic to it. For one thing, the jack of diamonds should help in promoting tricks. For another thing, East might have risked bidding diamonds because he knew that that would be a better source of tricks if the opponents were to play in spades.

North's reopening one no-trump showed 12-14 high-card points. Whether South's jump to three spades was meant as forcing or invitational, North was glad to go to game with maximum values and nothing wasted in hearts. Since East was marked with the spade ace for his opening bid, declarer

Few physicians public-spirited

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Few doctors are following in the footsteps of physicians who crusaded for social causes in the early 20th century, according to a University of Rochester historian and expert in the history of medicine. "One reason why physicians are no longer as public-spirited as they once were is that society has become less political," says Theodore Brown. "As political energy has declined, so too has social activism by doctors." Americans also cling to the belief that science and technology can solve all our problems, he adds. "We have lost much of our former will to work directly for social and political ends."

Gridder listed as serious

Hermleigh football player Manuel Castillo remains in serious condition in Abilene's Humana Hospital following a head injury in a Cardinals' win over Paint Creek Sept. 30.

Castillo was making a tackle when he took a knee to the back of his helmet, knocking him unconscious. He was taken to Haskell Hospital where he was stabilized before being transferred to the Abilene facility.

Once at Humana, emergency surgery was performed to remove a blood clot near his brain.

Castillo is a senior at Hermleigh High School.

The injury to Castillo brings to three the number of season ending casualties suffered by the Cardinals this season.

Wayne Reynolds will be sidelined the rest of the year with a fractured collarbone. He broke the bone in two places in the Paint Creek contest.

Chip Collier, the other Hermleigh player out for the rest of the '89 campaign, broke his leg in a game against Southland early in the season.

A fund has been set up to offset the expenses of Castillo's family. For more information, or to contribute contact Hermleigh High School at 863-2451.

Ira RB nets 3 touchdowns

By PHIL RIDDLE
SDN Sports Editor

Tomas Juarez quit football at Ira about three weeks ago.

He felt at 118 pounds, he was simply too small to compete in the game.

He wasn't getting a lot of playing time and he was frustrated.

He was talked into returning by Tommy Huddleston of Ira, who said Juarez has a heart, "as big as all of Texas."

Huddleston began working after hours with the Ira High School senior, sometimes as much as three extra hours of workouts a day.

Juarez decided to return to the football team after a couple of weeks of training and his return paid off for him as well as the rest of the Ira Bulldogs as he carried the football 12 times for an amazing 218 yards and three touchdowns against Highland in the 'Dogs 52-8 trampling of Highland in the opening district contest for both teams.

Incorrect information was received at the SDN and Juarez was not credited with the scores in Sunday's story on the game.

We apologize to Juarez and to the rest of the Ira football players and fans as well.

Buffalo upsets Rams, 23-20 in QB Reich's debut game

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y. (AP) — The miraculous followed the mundane for the Buffalo Bills' offense.

Bills followers expected little of quarterback Frank Reich, a four-year backup making his first NFL start in place of the injured Jim Kelly. For much of the game, they weren't disappointed, because little is what they got.

Reich underthrew and overthrew his way to a 5-for-15 passing performance in the first half, and the Bills generated as much firepower as a damp firecracker.

But Reich the wreck became Reich the redeemer in leading Buffalo to a stunning 23-20 victory over the Los Angeles Rams Monday night, knocking off the NFL's last remaining unbeaten.

Coach Marv Levy, who withstood many calls to find a better backup for Kelly, said he knew all along that Reich had the composure to be an effective pro quarterback.

"You never go wrong going with a player with great character because he can overcome a lot of things. And Frank Reich has that."

Reich kept his composure even after the chilly start and a demoralizing touchdown reception by the Rams' Willie Anderson that seemed to give Los Angeles a 20-16 victory with less than two minutes to play in the game.

The Anderson pass from Jim Everett restored the lead to a Rams team that had held it until a 1-yard touchdown pass from

Dusters set for '89-'90 season

Western Texas College's women's basketball team, the Lady Dusters, are coming off a year in which they finished ranked eighth in the country.

The annual preseason coaches poll ranking teams in the Western Junior College Athletic Conference was released recently, rating the Lady Dusters at number four.

"I feel the poll is pretty much right," said WTC head coach Kelly Chadwick.

"The one thing I question is if we are really better, at this point than Howard College."

"South Plains has as good a players as anybody," he continued, "and Frank Phillips has a lot of people coming back."

"Without a doubt," he said, "Odessa has more depth than any junior college team I've seen."

Odessa College is ranked at the top followed by South Plains College, Frank Phillips College, WTC, Howard College, Clarendon College and New Mexico Junior College.

WTC was a participant in last year's national tournament, ending the season with a 27-10 record, 9-3 in the conference.

Their conference losses were to Odessa, Frank Phillips and NMJC.

The Dusters' goal for this year? "Back to nationals," said Wilson, Jackson and Brown, simultaneously.

The Dusters schedule officially begins Nov. 2 as they compete in the South Plains Classic in Levelland. Conference play begins Nov. 9 as the Lady Dusters host the Western Texas Classic.

They are also slated to host the regional championships in March.

Western Texas was last years Western Conference co-champion along with the Lady Wranglers of Odessa College.

The Dusters return just three sophomores from last year's squad and only two starters come back.

Valery Jackson, from Morton, Tami Wilson of Seagraves and Bobbie Brown, a Jayton native are the upperclassmen for WTC's 1989-90 campaign and will serve as the team's tri-captains.

Jackson, currently sidelined following arthroscopic knee surgery, was a starter for coach Chadwick's squad last year.

She sank 113 of 249 attempted shots for 45 percent from the floor and 59 percent from the free-throw line. The 5-11 Jackson snatched 94 rebounds last year and blocked 14 opponents' shots.

She averaged about two assists per contest.

Jackson injured her knee during last year's national tournament and reinjured the same knee in early season workouts at WTC.

Wilson, the other returning first stringer, shot 55 percent from the field last season and 45 percent from the charity stripe, contributing a total of 448 points to the Dusters' cause.

She also averaged over nine boards per game, over three blocks and about two assists per contest.

Brown will be expected to put in a lot of minutes for WTC this year following her freshman campaign when she served in a limited capacity.

The 5-11 soph ripped the net for four three-pointers last season out of five attempts.

She scored 95 points on the year, averaged 2.2 rebounds and 1.2 assists per tilt.

"It's a tough situation, being as young as we are," stated Chadwick, "Valery (Jackson) getting back would be a tremendous lift for us but Tami (Wilson) and Bobbie (Brown) have looked good in workouts," he reported.

"Bobbie will have to step forward and do the job, give a little leadership for the younger players, all the returnees will."

A pair of sophomore transfer students are being counted on heavily for Chadwick's team in '89, also.

Vicky Jones and Tracy Rome will get some playing time according to the WTC coach.

"Both of these girls show a lot of potential," Chadwick noted, "we'll just have to see, one game at a time, how well they'll do."

Jones comes from Killeen by way of Panola College and Rome is a transfer student from Pensacola College in Florida.

The freshman class of Lady Dusters include Dedra Brooks of Seminole, Kelsey Koester of Richardson, Carla Gladden of Inglewood, Ca., Jeana Stockett of Happy and Tracy Edmunds of Hawley.

Other frosh cagers include Tammy Williams of Lima, Ohio, Jill Forrest of Bay, Ms., and Carrie Heldt of Victoria.

A recent scrimmage against Odessa College provided an upbeat response from Chadwick.

"We looked pretty good against them. I think we beat them three of the four scrimmages. They just have so many good basketball players."

"We'll be alright," he concluded, "our newcomers are working hard and seem dedicated and our sophomore players are setting a good example for them. We'll be just fine."

UIL mulling possibility of "super" 5A classification for post-season playoffs

AUSTIN (AP) — The ruling body for Texas high schools on Monday declared a proposal to hold all state football championships at the same site "a dead issue," but kept alive the possibility of a new Class 5A playoff structure that would result in a new "super" 5A classification.

The possibility of splitting the largest 5A playoff qualifiers into a separate playoff of their own should be placed before high school superintendents on a referendum ballot, the Legislative Council of the University Interscholastic League decided Monday.

The 24-member Legislative Council of high school administrators declined to send the "Big Class 5A" plan straight to the State Board of Education.

The Big 5A plan, presented by the Northside School District of San Antonio, calls for the top three finishers in each of the state's 32 Class 5A districts to enter the playoffs.

But the school in each district with the highest enrollment would go into a 32-team Big 5A bracket, with the two others advancing in order of finish to the current 64-team playoff.

The UIL has encountered enrollment problems in Class 5A for some time, and there is a proposal under study to create a 6A classification. The 250 5A schools range in enrollment from 1,470 to over 4,000. Seventy-two schools have an enrollment of 2,500 or more.

"I do not believe that six conferences will provide equity," UIL Director Bailey Marshall said. "If you want equity, you need to go to 10 conferences and put three or four teams in each district."

Three years ago, Class 5A schools voted down a similar plan that would have included as many as four teams in the playoffs.

At one point Monday, Dr. Victor Rodriguez, San Antonio Independent School District superintendent, made a motion that would allow this "super class" plan in all UIL football classes, including six-man competition.

That would have left the state with 12 state football champions — one in each of the regular and "super" divisions of each class.

That idea was rejected, and the referendum will apply only to Class 5A schools. The referendum also calls for putting the two largest schools in each district into a 64-team "Big 5A" playoff, and the smallest schools in a 32-team, regular 5A playoff.

The proposal for a common championship site, which died for lack of a motion in Sunday's UIL Athletic Committee meeting, was discussed by the legislative council but wasn't added to the next referendum ballot.

"It's a dead issue," UIL Athletic Director Bill Farney said.

"Although the majority of people want this thing, it has just been a struggle. I think if we ever do get this off the ground, people will find out that it could be very successful," he added.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram had offered the UIL $276,000 to sponsor all five state championship football games, with the stadium to be played at Texas Stadium in Irving.

Officials from Austin and San Antonio also made presentations for a common site.

On a recent UIL survey of school superintendents, a common site was favored 337-242, with Austin the site preferred by a 319-235 majority. However, Class 5A superintendents voted against both.

SJHS squads host tourney

Snyder's eighth grade volleyball squads hosted a tournament Saturday and the hometown teams claimed first and third place.

The "A" team captured first place by defeating Sweetwater, 15-3, 15-6, and Colorado City "B", 15-12, 15-4.

The two preliminary wins put the Snyder squad in the final against Colorado City "A".

Snyder snatched the tourney title by scores of 15-8, 15-9 over the Colorado City crew.

The MVP's for the "A" unit were Annie Ragland, Vicki Green, Jamie Beck, Emily Gillespie, Dawn Meyers and Diane Jones.

The "B" team took third place honors in the event by beating Sweetwater, 15-6, 15-2, before losing to eventual second place winner, Colorado City "A", 4-15, 8-15.

They whipped Colorado City "B" for third place in the tournament, 15-3, 15-6.

Consolation went to Runnels White from Big Spring.

Most valuable players for the Snyder "B" club were Amy Garza, Tammy Logsdon and Valerie Rios.

Fed judge gunned down in Colombia

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — A federal judge was gunned down today as he waited on a Medellin street corner for a ride to work, and an anonymous caller said drug traffickers killed him in retaliation for extraditions to the United States.

Police said Judge Hector Jimenez Rodriguez was shot six times by a passenger on a motorcycle.

The gunman got off the motorcycle, walked up to Jimenez and shot him, the Colombian radio chain Caracol quoted witnesses as saying in Medellin, the base of the country's most notorious cocaine cartel.

An anonymous caller to Caracol in Medellin said the judge was slain by "The Extraditables," a group of suspected drug traffickers being hunted for extradition to the United States.

The government of President Virgilio Barco has extradited four Colombians to the United States, including three last Saturday, since a crackdown on drug trafficking began Aug. 19.

"The Extraditables" said in a communique soon after the crackdown began that they would kill 10 judges for every Colombian extradited. Jimenez was the first judge killed since the drug sweep started. It was not immediately known if Jimenez had been involved in any recent extradition cases.

There are varying figures on the number of judges that have been killed in Colombia, but the Justice Ministry says that about 50 judges and 170 judicial employees have been killed since 1982.

The Association of Judicial Employees says 1,600 of Colombia's 5,000 judges have been threatened with death in the last 12 months.

Meanwhile, the newspaper Vanguardia Liberal of Bucaramanga, heavily damaged by a bomb on Monday, hit the streets with a 16-page edition today. The newspaper had joined in a condemnation of cocaine barons.

There had been doubts that Vanguardia Liberal would be able to publish today. The paper usually publishes 24 pages each day. Four employees of the newspaper were killed when a car bomb wrecked its building in northeastern Colombia.

The newspaper's publisher blamed drug traffickers for the bombing in Bucaramanga, a city of 400,000 people 175 miles north of Bogota.

Four journalists were assassinated by unidentified gunmen last week in the cities of Medellin and Monterria.

Some residents wish they'd stayed home during the hurricane GALVESTON, Texas (AP) — The terror from Hurricane Jerry was in the eye of the beholder, with some residents who fled from the storm wishing they stayed at home, while others who rode out the storm wishing they had left.

"I squatted down behind the bar and started screaming into the telephone," said Terri Steers, 35, describing winds which she said rocked her home, which rests on stilts along Galveston's west end just off the Gulf of Mexico.

"I think a twister hit the front of the house and it lifted it up and slammed it back down. We didn't think it was going to be very bad. We did have a lot of water come through the windows but only one of them broke."

Mrs. Steers said she and her husband fled their home earlier this summer when Hurricane Chantal threatened Galveston but caused few problems. When Jerry approached Sunday, they decided to stay.

"When the tornado came, I looked at him and said, 'See, we should have gone,'" she said.

The high winds snapped a utility pole in front of their house, leaving a power line dangling. But electricity was restored Monday and she even drove her 12-year-old son to school as life quickly returned to normal.

Jerry, however, was not as kind to Tony and Angie Corso, both 64, who evacuated their beachfront home only to get trapped in storm-tossed waters in their car with their possessions while their house escaped serious damage.

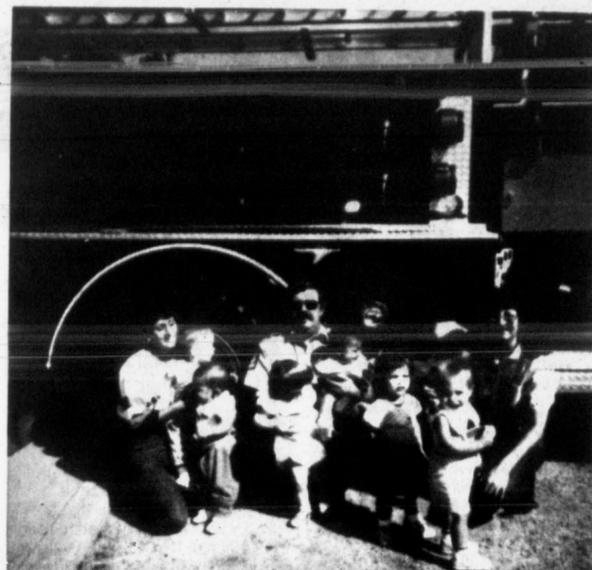

"We didn't stay here to our regret," Mrs. Corso said. "We'd have been better to stay here. Nothing happened here. Instead, all of our nice clothes were damaged. I took a few things I wanted to keep. They all got soaked."

Corso, who works at a Galveston supermarket, said he couldn't leave work early because the store was so busy. By the time he arrived home, the storm was reaching a peak, but they jumped into their little Chevrolet Chevette, crammed with clothing and pictures, and headed toward town.

They became stuck in water chest-deep and had to be rescued by men in an amphibious vehicle.

"We couldn't see where we were going," Mrs. Corso said.

Michael Metyko, 44, of Houston, was spending his day Monday shoveling mud from the driveway of his beachfront home.

One wreck victim due discharge from hospital

Paige Campbell, 6-year-old daughter of SDN staffer Bob Campbell, is expected to be released from Lubbock General Hospital today after suffering injuries in a two-vehicle accident Sunday night south of Lubbock that killed five and injured five others.

Those killed in the mishap included her mother, Jamie Aaron Hall, 28, of Seminole who was driving a 1983 van carrying nine persons.

Also killed were Mrs. Hall's husband, Gy Layne Hall, 28, of Seminole; Darla Aaron Tubbs, 31, of Littlefield; and Brandon Berry Bell, 4, of Lubbock.

The fifth victim was Roy Albert Pinkert II, 18, a student at Ropesville High School who was a passenger in a 1981 pickup driven by Cody Lee Pinkert of Lubbock.

Also injured were van passengers Donna Bell, 27, and her husband, George Bell, 30, both of Lubbock. Also injured seriously were Shady E. Hall, 7, of Lubbock and Joshua Bell, 2, of Lubbock.

The mishap occurred about 9:05 p.m. Sunday at a rural intersection south of Lubbock. The DPS is still investigating the accident.

Services for the Halls are pending in Levelland with Geo. C. Price Funeral Directors, and services are pending in Ropesville for Roy Pinkert.

Accident victims treated, released

Police worked four accidents Monday, including two in which victims were treated and released at Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Elida Rodriguez, 36, of 405 31st St. was treated and released after the 1988 Ford van she was driving was in an 11:59 a.m. collision with a Texas Electric utility pole in the 3000 Block of Ave. E.

Damage to the electric pole was undetermined.

Also treated and released at Cogdell was 42-year-old Burnett Chase of Rt. 2, Hamlin. His 1982 Pontiac was in collision with a 1986 Ford pickup driven by Morris Light of 2600 34th St. at 11:35 a.m.

At 12:14 p.m. in the 1700 Block of 30th St., police investigated a collision involving a 1988 Grumman mail truck driven by Billy Wayne Gleastine of 2807 Ave. Q and a 1987 Cadillac driven by Donna Fowler of 2907 33rd St.

At 1:48 p.m., a 1989 Ford pickup driven by Vincente Olivarez of 1205 15th St. was in collision with a 1987 Acura driven by Bryan Hunteley of 4738 Belden Cir., Palm Harbor, Fla., and a 1984 Chevrolet driven by Pauline Carrisalez of 605 19th St. The accident took place at Ave. E and the East Hwy.

Police arrest two on warrants

Police arrested two men on warrants Monday, including one from Colorado City.

At 10:25 a.m., a 37-year-old male was arrested at the police department on a criminal mischief warrant and two other warrants issued from JP court.

At 3:55 p.m., police picked up a 19-year-old Colorado City male at 1412 30th St. for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle and transported him to the county jail.

Chamber plaintiff in 132nd suit

A lawsuit filed by the Snyder Chamber of Commerce seeks $370 from two Lubbock residents who helped promote a recent Maines Brothers Concert in Snyder.

The suit, which was filed last week in 132nd District Court, seeks payment of a note which was signed by Mark Chapman acting as an agent for Nadine Brown. Both Chapman and Brown are defendants in the suit.

Public records in Sunday's edition incorrectly stated that the City of Snyder is a plaintiff in the suit. The suit is styled Snyder Chamber of Commerce of the City of Snyder vs. Nadine Brown and Mark Chapman.

White Buffalo Days winners announced

Scurry County celebrated its annual White Buffalo Days Saturday and Scurry County Museum marked its 15th anniversary this weekend as well.

A fly-in at the local airport kicked off Saturday's festivities. According to a chamber of commerce spokesman, some 300 persons took advantage of airplane rides sold throughout the day. All proceeds from this event will benefit the United Way.

Many organizations and groups sponsored booths featuring a variety of food, games and contests. The Snyder Jaycees sold out of buffalo burgers again. They had prepared some 60 pounds of meat and sold 170 burgers. The museum sponsored a Mexican buffet Sunday afternoon with some 140 persons in attendance. Approximately 300 people visited the museum Sunday afternoon.

School board meeting

Others are Ed McAnally, Burnell Hargrove, George Adams and Gerald Greene. SISD Superintendent Dalton Moseley will serve as chairman of the group, which will aid in the selection of future textbooks.

Instructors will review textbooks pertaining to their basic courses of instruction and to the grade level at which they teach.

Approved as a music teacher at West Elementary was Marcia Dennis, a graduate of Abilene Christian University. It will be her first year to teach.

Moseley informed the board that the boundary change—moving the boundary separating Northeast and Central elementaries from 18th St. to 20th St.—was necessary to balance the number of students, primarily in classes for 4-year-olds. Moseley said parents with children involved have agreed to the change.

The board also agreed to accept the two former Hobbs students who are now attending school in Snyder. The Hobbs ISD recently decided to close the school due to a lack of students. Moseley told the board that the Scurry County Commissioners Court will draw the new Snyder ISD boundary, which will take in all of Hobbs ISD that lies in Scurry County—some 40 square miles. The new boundary will then be accepted by Snyder and Hobbs school boards.

In informal action Monday, the board heard from Classmates In

The following winners were named in various White Buffalo Days contests. All winners are listed in the order they placed. Winners in the Calico Cutie and Buffalo Kid contest were not available at press time and will be announced at a later date.

Buffalo Chip Throwing Contest: Homer Matlock, 71 feet, 1 inch; Andrew Garza, 68 feet, 2 inches; and Chad Morris, 65 feet, 3 inches.

BB Shoot: Todd Collom, 12 and under; Curtis Cox, 13 and over.

Stick Horse Rodeo (3 and under): Jed Martin, barrels and flag; and Cade Bowlin, goat tying. (4-5) Brady Reed, barrels and flag; and Wes Martin, goat tying. (6-7) Clay Preston, barrels; Jace Forman, flag; and Tabitha Bowery, goat tying.

Turtle Race: Josh Rambo and Max; Cara Best and Carolyn; and Cara Best and Becky.

Action President Julie Johnson, a sophomore at Snyder High School. She spoke on the drug-awareness group's success and future activities, which includes a "red ribbon campaign" on Oct. 22-29 and a dance following the Oct. 27 varsity football game between Snyder and Sweetwater.

Jim Erwin, principal at East, also informed the board of activities at the school and introduced teachers by way of a slide show.

The board also approved the minutes of the previous meeting and paid bills for the month.

Trustees absent from the meeting were Mike Jordan and Ygnacio (Junior) Benitez.

Illusionists return home

LAS VEGAS (AP) — Illusionists Siegfried and Roy returned home to a reception of squealing kids and squirming white tiger cubs after a year-long tour that drew 1.4 million people from Japan to New York City.

"There's nothing better than sweet home," Roy said, holding a restless white tiger cub as it nuzzled a microphone at an airport welcoming ceremony Monday. "I'm ready to stay here the rest of my life. I missed the people. I missed the sunshine."

The stars of the airport welcome ceremony were three white tiger cubs born July 3 in Japan and named Red, White and Blue.

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm a 28-year-old female with Raynaud's disease. I've been to many doctors, as well as two vascular surgeons, and they haven't come up with any real reason for my symptoms. My weight has decreased from 170 to 135 pounds in about one year. Is this related? I've been to so many doctors, I'm frustrated and ready to give up.

DEAR READER: Marked arterial spasm of unknown cause, associated with disruption of circulation, is called Raynaud's disease. The spasm occurs in cyclical attacks, affecting the fingers and toes — and, occasionally, the nose and tongue. It may last for minutes or hours, during which the involved tissue is deprived of oxygen; this can result in pronounced skin changes (tightness, shininess, ulceration) over the digits, possibly progressing to gangrene.

Patients with Raynaud's disease must protect themselves against cold, avoid smoking and be cautious of certain medications (such as beta blockers) because all three factors accentuate arterial spasm.

Raynaud's disease is treated with drugs, such as prazosin and calcium-channel blockers, that relax spasm. In severe cases, sympathectomy (surgery to sever nerves to the arteries) may be necessary.

I am concerned that you may have an underlying disorder causing arterial spasm. Raynaud's phenomenon is secondary to a number of diseases, such as rheumatoid arthritis, scleroderma (a disease of the body's connective tissue) and lupus erythematosus. It's important to distinguish between Raynaud's disease and Raynaud's phenomenon, because treatment of the latter condition involves therapy for the underlying disorder.

If your doctors are convinced that you have the disease and not the phenomenon, you are a candidate for vasodilator drug therapy or sympathectomy. Weight loss is not usually a symptom of Raynaud's disease, but it can be a symptom of some of the diseases that underlie the phenomenon. Don't give up. Request a referral to a vascular laboratory at a teaching hospital where super-specialists may be able to discover a cause for your problem and suggest treatment.

Because lupus is a common cause of Raynaud's phenomenon, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Lupus: The Great Imitator." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I have a salty taste in my mouth at all times. The use of commercial toothpaste and mouthwash makes it worse. Three different doctors have laughed off my condition. Does this indicate a certain malady?

DEAR READER: A salty taste often indicates dental infection. Check with your dentist to make sure the source of your problem isn't a tooth abscess that can be easily treated.

Texas investors wait, then start purchasing some stock

By The Associated Press

With memories of the 1987 stock market crash foremost in their minds, Texas investors initially waited, then began buying "the bluest of the blues" Monday, the first trading day after the largest drop in the stock market since the Oct. 19, 1987, crash.

The trend apparently was followed nationally, as blue chip stocks led the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials up 88.12 points, the fourth-largest point-gain in the history of the widely watched indicator.

The average plummeted 190.58 points Friday, and there had been fears Monday would see a repeat of the 508-point drop of two years ago, which had followed a 108-point fall the previous Friday.

"The bluest of the blues are the ones that are getting attention," said Rod Chisholm, branch manager of Paine Webber & Co.'s office in downtown Fort Worth.

Investors were looking for "companies with good earnings, a good strong balance sheet, companies with little or no leverage (debt)," he said.

Chisholm said the activity was a reminder of the days before speculation in takeover stocks drove much of the market. "Maybe we're calling this investing again," he said.

"We've had a busy day, but it's been rather orderly by comparison" with expectations, said Bob Trimmer, head of equity trading for Dallas-based brokerage Rauscher Pierce Refsnes Inc.

"It's very, very clear that (investors) did a fair amount of homework and picked their spots," he said. "We saw ... a lot of high quality buying, with people looking for value."

Brokers agreed investors had learned from the experience of two years ago.

"The public this morning, initially they were very worried — I don't blame them, I was worried too," said Jim Webber, manager of a branch office for Epler Guerin & Turner Inc., a Dallas-based brokerage. "They were sitting on the sidelines."

But after seeing the market begin to rebound in the morning, "there's been virtually nothing but buy orders," Webber said. "They're confident that it is not going to be a repeat" of 1987.

Jim Lane, branch manager in San Antonio for Shearson Lehman Hutton Inc., said he was surprised to find many clients were expecting the activity the stock market has demonstrated the past two days.

"The general consensus of opinion out there of clients is that they were expecting this correction and looking forward to it," he said.

There was caution at the start of the day, he said, but added: "The institutions as well as a lot of the clients have stepped up ... and started buying." He said many clients are buying "quality issues at what they see as bargain basement prices."

Lane said he bought stock himself Monday morning at what he believed was bottom-level prices and by noon saw a 2 percent to 3 percent return. He would not say which stock he purchased.

Dennis Kamphoefner, vice president and resident manager of A.G. Edwards & Sons Inc. in San Antonio, said most clients today are buying stock, particularly blue chip, or "high quality growth stock."

"I think the fact that they lived through a much, much worse situation just a couple of years ago and then they've seen it rebound back ... I think they have felt much more confident."

The trend was also evident in El Paso.

"We had a lot of sales early in the day and we had a lot of buys coming in the last few hours," said Brooks Faulkenberry, an investment broker for Texas Securities Inc. in El Paso. "Early in the morning most of my clients called up. They were all pretty concerned, but I talked to them and most of them held on."

He said sells outnumbered buys Monday morning about 10-1, but by Monday afternoon the ratio had evened out.

Investors "are not panicking," said Suresh Nayar, investment broker for R.G. Dickinson & Co. in El Paso. "I have gotten a few calls from concerned clients, but no one is jumping out the window."

"Individuals in my view have become a lot smarter so when they see the profit they take it," Nayar said.

In Austin, one broker sounded a warning note, however, saying investors who don't hold blue chip stocks have taken "another serious shaking of their confidence."

"It's taken us two years to get them back in the market, and then one day we have the rug pulled out from under us in that they don't anticipate this," said Hollis Jeffries of A.G. Edwards & Sons Inc.

Fungus may hurt live oak trees

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — San Antonio Mayor Lila Cockrell has asked city staffers to determine what steps, if any, can be taken to prevent the spread of a fungus that could decimate the live oak trees in the city.

The mayor said Monday that the measures would be taken to prevent an outbreak of oak wilt, a fungus that can kill a live oak tree within six weeks of an infection.

"I really view it as a serious threat," the mayor said. "It would be a shame to have the disease make inroads in trees here."

At least one suspected case has been found in San Antonio, where an oak tree is believed to be infected.

Austin city officials have already taken steps to halt the disease there by passing an ordinance requiring landowners to remove any trees with the infectious disease.

Other efforts include a program of digging trenches around infected trees to stop the spread through root systems.

The mayor said she would ask staffers to study Austin's efforts to see what could be implemented in San Antonio.

Councilman Nelson Wolff said he, too, fears the fungus could rage through the city's oaks, but he fears that the fungus can't be stopped from spreading.

"Once that sort of thing starts spreading, there is just no end to it," he said. "It is something to be concerned about and act on."

Wolff said he would support City Council measures to prevent an oak wilt epidemic, but was unsure what efforts would be pursued or how much they would cost.

Wolff pointed out that it would be expensive for residents to remove infected trees as required in Austin.

Judge says that Meese associate sold influence

NEW YORK (AP) — A judge sentenced attorney E. Robert Wallach to six years in prison, saying the close associate of former Attorney General Edwin Meese III sold his influence on the White House back stairs in the Wedtech scandal.

U.S. District Judge Richard Owen also fined Wallach $250,000 and ordered him to forfeit $425,000 in illegal payoffs he got from Wedtech Corp. to influence Meese and other government officials to help the South Bronx defense contractor win government contracts.

"Too much success can bring failure. I am the epitome of that and I am paying for it," Wallach, who has known Meese since they attended law school together, told Owen during Monday's sentencing.

A jury convicted Wallach, 55 of San Francisco, on Aug. 8 of racketeering, two fraud charges and conspiracy to defraud the U.S. government for his dealings with the now-defunct Wedtech.

"The litany of these things, I am sickened to talk about them," the judge told Wallach. He scolded Wallach for selling "your influence on the back stairs of the White House."

Owen also gave prison sentences and stiff fines to Wallach's two co-defendants, former Meese financial adviser W. Franklyn Chinn and Chinn's business associate R. Kent London.

Owen sentenced Chinn, 47, of San Francisco, to three years in prison and fined him $100,000, and sentenced London, 46, of Honolulu, to five years in prison and fined him $250,000. The judge also ordered Chinn and London to forfeit a $1.14 million consulting fee they received from Wedtech.

Chinn and London were convicted of racketeering, racketeering conspiracy and fraud charges stemming from payments Wedtech gave them.

Wallach, who would be eligible for parole after serving two years in prison, was free pending appeal. Lawyers for Chinn and London also indicated they would appeal.

Evidence at Wallach's and other Wedtech trials showed that the one-time small machine shop grew into a multimillion-dollar military contractor through various bribe schemes.

Probation granted in tot's overdose case

RICHMOND, Texas (AP) — A mother was sentenced to 10 years probation after being convicted in the cocaine overdose death of her 17-month-old son.

A jury in State District Judge Ogden Bass' court last week convicted Nealie Beaty, 26, of third-degree injury to a child in the Sept. 28, 1987, cocaine overdose of her son, Robert "Bubba" Beaty Jr.

The maximum sentence she could have received for that offense was 10 years in prison. Jurors found her innocent of the first-degree charge, which carried a possible life sentence.

Mrs. Beaty's husband, Robert, 27, is serving a life sentence on his first-degree injury-to-a-child conviction. He was subpoenaed by the state, refused to testify against his wife and was sentenced to an additional 18 months in prison and a $1,500 fine.

Prosecutor Dale Summa expressed disappointment Monday in the outcome of the week-long trial, which was moved from Brazoria County to Fort Bend County because of pretrial publicity.

"There are a lot of battles in this war against drugs," Summa said. "I think this was a losing effort here."

He said a cocaine possession charge is pending against Mrs. Beaty in Brazoria County, and prosecutors may pursue aggravated perjury charges against her after recent testimony differed from an earlier deposition.

In each advertisement on this page you will find the contestants in a prominent football game being played around the country this weekend. On the entry blank at the bottom of the page, fill in your selection of the WINNING TEAM only...opposite the name of the business firm on the entry blank. Then clip out the entry blank and send it to FOOTBALL CONTEST EDITOR, Snyder Daily News, Box 949, or bring it by the news office at 3600 College Ave. Entries must be in the hands of the editor by 5:00 p.m. Friday. Games ending in a tie must be specified as a tie or else it will be considered a miss.

To avoid splitting the prize money a TIE-BREAKER slot will be provided on each entry blank. Pick the total points of the score for that game and in case of a tie the one who picks the winner and the nearest number of total points will receive the prize money. The same formula will apply to second and third place winners. In the case of a perfect score, the formula would apply for that cash prize.

There will be fun for the entire family. Only one entry blank will be permitted for any one person. More than one will disqualify all that person's entries. Entries must be on the official entry blank (No Copies Please). Scores listed on the entry blank will have no bearing except in the case of the tie-breaker. Sign your entry blank and list your address and phone number and watch for the winner's story in next Tuesday's SDN. Employees of the SDN and their families are not eligible to enter.
