'Toys for Tots' now underway

Members of the Student Life Committee at Western Texas College are the latest to lend a hand to the Toys for Tots program — an endeavor sponsored locally by the Jaycees — which brings holiday gifts to children that might otherwise not have them.

"This is fun. We're ready now to help deliver toys," grinned Becky Bynum, president of the committee at Western Texas College.

Rudy Garza is the Jaycees' director of the project with David Hines as his assistant. President of the Jaycees is Joe Hernandez.

The Student Life Committee got into the spirit by sponsoring a dance at the college and charging as admission a toy or $2. The group raised some $50 and two boxes of toys. They plan to help raise more donations and to aid in the delivery of the toys during the holidays.

Through the Toys for Tots program, Jaycees and their "helpers" delivered approximately 2,000 toys to between 425-450 youngsters last year.

"Once you see those kids' faces, you'll never forget it," Garza told the committee from WTC. "They get so excited."

Jaycees need used toys in good condition, new toys, or monetary donations. People wishing to donate may do so at Everybody's Thriftway and the Central Fire Station. Toys may also be taken to the West Fire Station on El Paso Ave. from 6-9 p.m. next week.

Jaycees will also pick up donations from those who are unable to deliver them. Anyone having items to be picked up may (see TOTS, page 8)

'Happening' opens Sunday

The Christmas Happening, which has become a local tradition under the sponsorship of Scurry County Museum and Western Texas College, will unfold its 1989 edition Sunday.

The public is invited to attend.

Santa Claus will visit with children from 3 p.m. until 5 p.m. but the museum will open at 1 p.m. for those who wish to shop the Country Store and view the Christmas trees on display. Christmas crafts especially for children will be demonstrated in the museum through the afternoon and photographs in an old-time sleigh will be made from 2:30-4:30 p.m. Pinata breakings are planned on the museum grounds at 2:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

In the Fine Arts Building down the concourse from the museum, paintings by John Gibson and ceramics by Ty Brunson will be displayed in a Faculty Art Show. A reception marking the show opening is planned from 1-4 p.m. The show will remain in place through Dec. 15. Shoppers can look over the works of students and faculty for sale in the ceramics studio.

WTC's music department Christmas concert is planned at 2 p.m. in the Fine Arts Theatre, with Brent Hardegre and Jane Womack directing performances by the WTC Choir, the Collegiate Singers, the Women's Ensemble and the Flute Ensemble.

Students from Snyder Junior High will perform in the theatre under the direction of Melanie Smith at 3:15 p.m.

Refreshments will be served throughout the afternoon.

In conjunction with the Christmas Happening, the Cornelius-Dodson House on the Scurry County Coliseum grounds will be open from 2:30-4:30 p.m. and will also serve refreshments.

There is no admission charge to any of the Christmas Happening activities or the Cornelius-Dodson House.

"This is the 11th year that the Christmas Happening has been offered as our gift to the community," museum director Shirley Leftwich said. "We appreciate the support we receive from everyone and look forward to seeing many friends out Sunday."

Proctor encourages TDJC class to be 'a moral example of rules'

Texas Department of Criminal Justice Board member Mamie M. Proctor Thursday night told Western Texas College's fourth class of graduating TDCJ guards that they must be "a moral example of the rules" as they perform their duties.

Proctor addressed the WTC Fine Arts Theatre audience by saying departmental personnel "are bonded by an esprit de corps or brotherhood of self-discipline and honor that is seldom witnessed outside the battlefield.

"You are there not only to enforce the rules but to be a moral example of the rules, to be an example of what might have been for those who have failed..."

The Houston attorney said the late 1980s "are the best of times and the worst of times," with space travel and organ transplants co-existing alongside "unacceptable unemployment and violence and lawlessness."

She added that the criminal justice system is part of the solution to modern-day crime problems.

The 7 p.m. ceremony opened with an invocation by Price Daniel Unit Chaplain Stanley Wilson and a welcome and introduction of guests by Snyder Daily News Publisher and county economic development committee member Roy McQueen.

Along with local city and county officials, McQueen introduced State Rep. David Counts of Knox City.

Proctor was introduced by Roy Baze, a WTC trustee and chairman of the economic development committee, who said she has developed "a warm relationship with Snyder," having visited the city three times now.

Proctor was also here for the July opening of the Daniel Unit and then for the AJRA National Finals Rodeo in August. Baze noted.

The graduates were presented their diplomas by Daniel Unit Warden Les Woods and WTC adult education and extension services director Mike Thornton.

Assistant Warden Charlie Streetman gave the benediction, and a reception for the graduates was held afterwards in the WTC Student Center.

Hospitality was by the Chamber of Commerce Sparklers.

The new graduates are Serapio G. Almanza of Rotan, Cynthia A. Ball of Gail, Sidney K. Brunson and Joel H. Buckley, both of Snyder, Wilford W. Buckner of Roby, Mikeal P. Cade and Leo (see GUARDS, page 8)

The SDN Column

By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "A sense of humor makes most things tolerable."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors: Snyder's W.T. Whitehead recently gave us an article about what some call "the good ole days." The down-home philosophy about the horseless carriage was written by Dick Briscoe.

"The automobile is the second curse of mankind. Remember the leisurely date with your lady-love? You take a bath early in the evening, put on your best clothes, and amble a few blocks to where she lives, on foot of course. And when she is ready to go, the pair of you walk thru the cool dark of the evening on your way downtown to see the latest movie at the Savoy or the Cozy.

"Who cares, or even thinks about, the 16 blocks to town. The only thing to sweat about is, do you spend your money for a hamburger feast, or do you rather sit in the dark balcony...the balcony usually wins.

"Without wheels, you do not have to decide between a fast dash to Bigtown, or do we buy a six-pack and go hollering through the countryside.

"Speaking of trips to Bigtown, time is when we go only once a year, maybe, and that is to go to the state fair, and we park the car and walk thru all the exhibits, missing not even the littlest red hen, because the once-in-a-lifetime event has to be savored to the fullest.

"And we come straight home because there is a curfew in both towns, and anyway, that 10-gallon tank of gasoline cost a dollar eighty, even at Mahlon McKellar's Marathon station.

"To go shopping takes some planning first. Not only is it a long walk to town, but if you forget something, there is no walking a second trip. Too, with no car, shopping centers are not invented, so if Kress does not have it, you may do without it."

Next week: More good ole days.

—Q—If the county closes all the community centers will it also close the coliseum and parks in town?

A—According to County Judge Bobby Goodwin, the county does not intend to close the community centers, the coliseum, or the parks.

In Brief

Gets asylum

WASHINGTON (AP) — Romanian gymnast Nadia Comaneci, who fled her homeland for Hungary earlier this week, traveled to the United States today after being granted political asylum, U.S. officials said.

Justice Department spokesman David Runkel said Comaneci, a former Olympic star, had been granted refugee status and was "in the air on her way to this country."

U.S. officials, who asked not to be identified, said Comaneci, who complained of repression in her homeland, was granted refugee status by U.S. consular officers in Europe.

Suspect in kidnap plot to waive extradition

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — An unemployed Tennessee man who the FBI says plotted for seven years to kidnap Fort Worth billionaire Robert Bass said he will not fight extradition back to Tennessee where he faces charges of racketeering and extortion.

Austin James Veleff, 57, will waive his right to an extradition hearing before being returned to Memphis, Tenn., to face charges there, said his attorney, Stephen Shankman.

Shankman, of Memphis, said Veleff would be returned in a couple of days.

"I think it's in his best interest to go back to Memphis," Shankman said Thursday. "I reasonably expect that upon his return ... that 'not guilty' pleas will be entered to this charge and any following indictment."

Shankman said Veleff, who lives in Germantown, Tenn., has had no comment about his arrest.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Carroll Andre in Memphis said investigators think Veleff's trip to Fort Worth was for "reconnaissance," not to act on the alleged plan.

"According to the affidavit (filed by Andre's office), he was to make this trip to accomplish certain things and then perform the abduction later," Andre said.

Veleff was ordered held in the Johnson County Jail at Cleburne. The FBI says Veleff had plotted for seven years to abduct Bass and then demand a total of $25 million ransom.

Bass has a history of keeping a very low public profile. A woman who answered the phone at Bass headquarters Thursday said the company would have no comment and referred all calls to the Dallas FBI office.

FBI agents from Dallas arrested Veleff Wednesday near Fort Worth after he had driven to Texas with an undercover FBI agent, who he thought was going to help him, the FBI said.

The arrest came after Veleff had taken pictures of City Place, a 33-story office complex built by the Bass family where Robert Bass, 41, has his office.

Andre said Veleff had never met Bass and had no connection with him. He had made Bass the target of the kidnapping plot after reading about him in a business magazine, Andre said.

"He was trying to pick someone that had a lot of money, it appears," Andre said.

Andre said the Bass family was told of the investigation. He said the Bass' private security team led by a former U.S. Secret Service agent cooperated with authorities in the investigation.

A woman who works at City Place who asked not to be identified said security seemed to be tighter this week.

"They've (security guards) been driving around, parking, using their binoculars, a lot of increased surveillance," she said.

Investigators searched Veleff's residence Thursday and seized two rifles, a pistol and a stun gun, which Veleff allegedly intended to use on Bass if he resisted during the abduction, officials said.

FBI Special Agent William Fallin in Memphis said Veleff had purchased some night vision goggles and a device that would detect another tracking device or electronic surveillance equipment.

Although federal authorities had been aware of the plot only since May, Andre said Veleff told the undercover agent he had been planning the abduction for seven years.

Dee Kelly, a lawyer for the Bass family, declined comment, but a source close to the family referred to Veleff as "a crank" who did not have a chance of succeeding in the alleged plot.

Veleff, an advertising salesman for the Memphis Commercial Appeal newspaper for about 20 years, had operated a swimming pool business for about eight years before becoming unemployed at the end of summer.

If convicted, he faces a maximum federal prison term of 5 years and a fine of up to $250,000.

FBI agents said an informant told them about the plot after being asked to help in it. The informant introduced the undercover agent to Veleff on Nov. 16.

Andre said that in addition to $5 million ransom, Veleff had talked about filming Bass "in distressing situations" and asking for an additional $20 million.

The plot called for the $5 million to be flown toward Fort Stockton from the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Then, the pilot would be informed to drop the money on a specific mountain about 45 miles south of border, Andre said.

The museum will host the 11th annual Christmas Happening this Sunday. Call 573-6107 for more information.

CRMWD schedules December 7 meeting

BIG SPRING—Financing of a $28,000-ac. ft. water quality reservoir designed to upgrade surface water quality will be decided by directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District at their meeting Dec. 7.

The proposed lake will be built in western Mitchell County to hold excess poor-quality water diverted from the Colorado River and tributaries above Lake E. V. Spence. Two existing side-storage reservoirs have proven inadequate to handle the volume of poor-quality low-flow of the river and tributaries. This, plus unprecedented spillage from a since-enlarged natural dam lake west of Big Spring, compounded the quality problem at Lake Spence.

Plans are being completed by Freese and Nichols in Fort Worth for the new reservoir which will be located on an existing pipeline system capable of transfers from one reservoir to another. The project is estimated to cover over $6,000,000, and work is due to commence in the spring of 1990.

Directors also will consider a resolution revamping recreational regulations at Lake J. B. Thomas and Spence, and the upcoming lake at the Stacy site. Also on the agenda are naming of an additional member of the legal staff, selecting an auditor for the annual check of the district's books, and authorizing year-end inter-fund transfers.

Action is due on authorizing five annual payments of $47,219 to take care of water royalty under-payments from May 1979-89, and an additional $23,150 to the U.S. Geological Survey for two more rain gauges above the Stacy reservoir site and $10,000 toward a continuing water quality study.

Resolutions are expected to bring the Employees Pension Trust documents in compliance with latest federal regulations, and for continuation of the self-insured health insurance plan.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1989 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Last year you solicited contributions for the Korean War Veterans Memorial. Your readers responded with a total of more than $350,000. You are to be congratulated.

Abby, the Korean War has a very special meaning to me because I am a Korean man who fought in that war. I was a young medical student when the united forces liberated my small town in North Korea in 1950. I quit medical school to join the Korean army. (We North Korean refugees were forced to fight for South Korea on the front line.) Miraculously, I was one of only 26 survivors from the refugee forces.

When I left my home in North Korea, I promised my mother that I would return in three days. Little did I dream that 33 years would pass before I could return to my homeland.

After the war ended, I found myself on the streets of Seoul, broke, with little hope of fulfilling my dream of returning to North Korea and becoming a doctor. Then fate intervened when a former professor, whom I accidentally met on the street, offered me a job and the opportunity to apply to a local medical school in Seoul!

If the old saying "Adversity builds character" holds true, I am a prime example, because I not only graduated from medical school magna cum laude, I was offered an internship at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis, Mo. — half a world away, in the United States of America!

Today, I am a well-established physician and have authored several textbooks on cardiology, which is my specialty. I have a thriving office practice and am enjoying a splendid home life with my wife and our two sons in Long Beach, Calif.

I salute all American servicemen and women who participated in the Korean War, which gave freedom to hundreds of thousands of refugees like myself. That war was not forgotten — those of us who fought in it will never forget it.

Abby, I know that you have very little time for outside reading, but I am taking the liberty of sending you the book I wrote titled, "The Three Day Promise." It is the story of my life.

If you think your readers would enjoy it, I will make it available to them for a donation to the Korean War Veterans Memorial. I will leave it to you to set the price. Every penny that the book brings shall go directly to the Korean War Veterans Memorial.

DONALD C. CHUNG, M.D.,
LONG BEACH, CALIF.

DEAR DR. CHUNG: You were right. I have very little time for outside reading, but after reading the first chapter of "The Three Day Promise," I was positively hooked! I didn't close that book until I had read the last page — which is the ultimate compliment for a 400-page book.

You gave me an intimate view of life in North Korea as seen through the eyes of an 8-year-old son of a poor woman who raised her family in a war-torn country. Yours is one of the most fascinating, educational and inspirational books I have ever read. What a wonderful Christmas gift it would make for teenagers, and also for adults who enjoy reading for pleasure as well as expanding their knowledge.

Readers, to obtain Dr. Chung's book, "The Three Day Promise," send your check or money order in the amount of $15, made out to Korean War Veterans Memorial, to the following address: Donald K. Chung, M.D., 2865 Atlantic Ave., Suite 253, Long Beach, Calif. 90806.

One hundred percent of your money will go to the Korean War Veterans Memorial, and it's tax-deductible.

"How to Be Popular" is for everyone who feels left out and wants an improved social life. It's an excellent guide to becoming a better conversationalist and a more attractive person. To order, send your name and address, plus check or money order for $2.89 ($3.39 in Canada) to: Dear Abby, Popularity Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054. (Postage is included.)

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: My husband was diagnosed as diabetic five years ago. He's been able to control this through diet. Now he's experiencing substantial pain in his hands, arms, legs and feet; yet his doctor doesn't want to perform surgery at this stage. A neurologist wants to cut all the nerves in his legs to alleviate the pain. To further complicate things, at 46 he's become impotent, and its caused major problems in our marriage. What's your advice?

DEAR READER: One of the major complications of diabetes is neuropathy, the malfunction of various nerves in the body. This can lead to weakness, numbness and tingling of arms and legs. Neuropathy is believed due to poor blood supply to the nerves, resulting from the premature arteriosclerotic blockage that is common in diabetics. Impotence and constipation are additional consequences of this metabolic abnormality.

Your husband should be under the care of a diabetes specialist who will be able to offer advice about how to cope with this problem. For example, certain medicines — such as Dilantin, anti-depressants and carbamazepine — may help to improve nerve function and alleviate symptoms of neuropathy.

Although an operation to sever the nerves (sympathectomy) may be necessary in advanced cases marked by intractable pain, I believe this treatment should be a last recourse, to be used only when other, less drastic medical therapies have failed. Despite the advanced stage of your husband's diabetes, there is much he can do to help the situation. A diabetologist is his best resource.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Diabetes Mellitus." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: My fiancée and I are excited about purchasing a wonderful piece of property — wonderful except for the fact that due east, across the wide Intercoastal Waterway, sits the St. Lucie Nuclear Power Plant. What are the effects caused by residing near a nuclear plant? Is there a higher rate of birth defects and is gardening safe? Your help would be appreciated.

DEAR READER: As far as I know, properly operated and maintained nuclear power plants represent no hazard to people living in close proximity to these installations. Specifically, gardening is safe, and there is no proved increase in birth defects.

As most people know, potential danger does exist if the power plants experience problems with their reactors, leading to leakage of radioactive material into the environment. Although this is a theoretical threat, it could be a real danger, as most Americans know from reading about the difficulties caused by faulty power-plant management in other parts of the world.

Changes sought in sealing process for court records

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Supreme Court has been urged to act promptly on a proposal to halt what the court was told is a growing practice of judges indiscriminately sealing court records.

A lawyer for Texas Media, David Donaldson Jr., said the coalition of professional journalism groups favors restrictions on the practice.

Donaldson, of Austin, said the public perceives that "sealing is available to those with corporate clout, with influence, with some 'in' with the court that assists them with the sealing of records."

The Supreme Court, under orders from the Legislature to adopt a rule regulating the sealing of records, held a rare public hearing in court chambers Thursday on such a proposed rule.

Dallas lawyer Charles Babcock told the court that the widespread and indiscriminate practice of judges making records secret is unconstitutional and threatens this country's democratic form of government.

Since 1980, more than 200 non-child related cases have been partially or totally sealed in Dallas County alone, the court was told.

"The indiscriminate and wholesale sealing of court records is unconstitutional, and there is no easy way for the public in the state of Texas to challenge the sealing of records under the current state of the law," Babcock said.

"I think that there are some cases that are being sealed which have overriding interest to the public, and the public's interest is being threatened by such sealings," he said.

"Perhaps most importantly, I think that wholesale sealing that is going on in this state is a threat to our democratic form of government."

Babcock, a member of the board of directors of the Freedom of Information Foundation of Texas, said he has manned a hot line for the foundation, and judging from the calls, the sealing of records "is not just a media issue — we're getting calls from citizens for a variety of reasons."

He urged the court to act promptly, because "the practice is widespread and the practice has grown."

A rule proposed by an informal subcommittee, including Babcock, states that a hearing "must be held in open court, open to the public, at which any person desiring to oppose the closing of court records, whether or not a party to the suit, may appear and have an opportunity to be heard."

Thwarting the defense

By James Jacoby

The defense did a good job, but they could have been put to a difficult test. West led the queen of hearts, taken by the ace in dummy. South led dummy's jack of spades, finessing, and West won the king. West now led the heart three to East's king. East might have tried to cash another heart, but that would only be three tricks for the defense. So East led the diamond three. Declarer could do no better than rise with the king. West won the ace. Because West knew that East would not have led a low diamond at this particular point without an honor, he was safe in leading the jack of diamonds. That was four tricks, setting the contract.

This was precise work for the defenders, but what would have happened if declarer had refused to win the heart ace at the first trick? Of course East can overtake with the king and lead back a diamond for two tricks, and later West will take the setting trick with the spade king. But would he? It's a little unnatural to make a play that will give declarer a finessing position with dummy's A-10 of hearts over West's remaining jack. If declarer does duck the heart ace at trick one, he can win the second heart. When declarer loses the spade finesse, West will not be able to get East on lead to come through the king of diamonds, and later the fourth club will provide a parking place for declarer's potential losing diamond.

Snyder hosts final in Class 2A action

Snyder is set to host the Class 2A regional finals in the state football play-offs tonight at 7:30 in Tiger Stadium. The contest pits De Leon against Panhandle. The Bearcats of De Leon, 6-6, are District 8-2A champs while the Panthers come in as runners-up in District 1-2A. De Leon advanced by beating Iraan last week, 28-11. Panhandle comes to Friday night's contest by virtue of their 25-7 victory over Shallowater last week. Last Friday's play-off win brought the Bearcats' record to the .500 level for the first time this season. They will feature a pounding ground attack. De Leon passed the football just three times against Iraan a week ago. The leading rusher for the 'Cats is Jody Dixon. Dixon has run the ball for over 1,000 yards this season. His mates in the backfield include fullback Greg George and quarterback Aaron Saldivar. Sophomore Trey Weaver is the receiver to watch when De Leon does slip into a passing mode. Defensive leaders include linebacker Barry Hooker, tackles Brad Dyson and Casey Stone, and defensive backs Eric Golden, Pete Harris and Weaver. The Bearcats became the loop champions when Eastland was disqualified by the University Interscholastic League just prior to the start of post-season play for using an ineligible player. For Panhandle, standouts include running back Glenn Frick, the leading ground gainer for the Panthers, quarterback Brian Barnett and flanker Ryan Biggs. Biggs weighs in at just 135 pounds but is the fastest member of the Panhandle team. Defensive linemen Lazero Chavez and Shelby Meier, both over 200 pounds, anchor the defense for the Panthers. Their 9-3 season record includes just one District 1-2A loss, a 12-7 affair, to eventual loop champion West Texas.

Lady Tigers drop first round contest to Wylie

The Snyder Lady Tigers, participating in the Coahoma Tournament, lost to Abilene Wylie, 52-44, Thursday night. Wylie bolted to an early 23-11 lead and held on as the Snyder girls fought back. "We played real good the last three quarters," said Snyder coach Kenneth Housden. "We didn't score but six in the third quarter but we didn't give them but nine." Evette Housden led Snyder scorers with sixteen points on the evening. Housden hit five buckets from the floor, including two three-pointers and was four of four free throws. Ann Osborn was also in double figures for the Lady Tigers, gathering 12 points on three hoops and six free throws. Osborn also led the squad in rebounds on the night with eight. Snyder was without the services of Vinnie Clay and Freida Clay, both of whom are recuperating from minor ankle injuries. The pair is expected to return sometime next week. The Lady Tigers, 2-3, will see

Snyder frosh overcome early deficit for victory

Snyder's freshmen boys whipped Colorado City Thursday, 55-30, with Stephen Bollinger leading the way for the Tigers with 20 points. Snyder got behind, 15-10, after one quarter but a superb defensive effort in the second allowed the Wolves just five points, closing the gap to 20-18 at the half. The Tigers scored 18 points in the third stanza and gave up just three baskets to take the lead for good. Snyder poured in 19 in the final

SHS to battle Golden Tors

The Tigers travel to Lamesa today as SHS and the Golden Tornadoes renew an old rivalry from the days when both squads were in the same district. Snyder's boys, 1-3 on the season, are coming off a 70-52 pounding from 7-4A Brownwood Tuesday night. The Tigers have also lost to Midland Lee and Levelland, both on last-second three-point shots. Snyder takes last season's All-District wing pick Tracey Brazier and sophomore post man Hayward Clay into the fray tonight. Lamesa's chief weapons include Dwight Mason, who canned 25 points for the Tors in a 72-66 win over Frenship, recently, and Bert Butler who score 23 in the same game. Lamesa's record on the year is 5-1. The Snyder JV boys and varsity girls are competing in the Coahoma tournament this weekend.

The Western Texas College Westerners dropped their conference opener against Midland College Thursday, 110-99, in Midland. Midland, ranked 15th nationally in pre-season polls, were tabbed to take the Western Junior College Athletic Conference crown for the 1989-90 campaign. The Westerners had some different ideas as they battled the Chaparrals to a nearly-even 53-52 score at the half. Dominick Byrd led a group of five Westerners in double figures. Byrd hit nine shots from the floor and was a perfect five of five from the free-throw line for 23 points. Tony Joyce added 14, Jeff Shelley, who was also perfect from the charity stripe with four of four, had 13, Ken Critton pounded out 11 and Alfredo Porter and Cedric Mason carded 10 each. Midland's leading scorers were Kethus Hanks with 28 points followed by Kerwin Harris and Tim Owens with 24 apiece. The Westerners' next action will be Monday's home game against Clarendon College. Workers' comp... Conference committee's prospects are considered AUSTIN (AP) — The lengthy battle over workers' compensation reform was back in the Texas Senate today, with sponsors of a business-backed plan uncertain about its fate.

He issued a strong call for religious freedom for all believers which included a reference to the Ukrainian Catholic Church that had been suppressed by Soviet dictator Josef Stalin.

Freedom of religion guarantee assured

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Mikhail S. Gorbachev pledged in a historic meeting with Pope John Paul II today that the Soviet Union will soon guarantee freedom of religion at home and establish diplomatic ties with the Vatican.

The House approved 122-23 a business-backed workers' comp overhaul similar to one that was written by Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby.

The pope welcomed the meeting — the first between a Kremlin chief and Roman Catholic pontiff — as a "promise-filled sign for the future" and promised support for Gorbachev's attempt to reform Soviet society.

He also said the Holy See was following with interest Gorbachev's efforts to renew society and promised support for "every initiative" to protect the rights of people and help ensure peace.

In his address after about 70 minutes of private talks, John Paul referred to the "painful trials" that Soviet believers suffered in past decades.

The so-called Hobby plan was gutted in the Senate by Sens. Kent Caperton and Carl Parker.

Guards

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — U.S. warplanes today joined the battle to save President Corazon Aquino's elected government after military rebels bombed the presidential palace in the strongest bid yet to topple her.

U.S. warplanes join in battle to defend Philippines' president

President Bush authorized military assistance to back Mrs. Aquino's government after rebels also seized two air bases, including the air force headquarters, and were moving artillery and armor into the capital.

Trinity due for hanging of the green

Damages were weather related

A criminal mischief case that was reported Nov. 27 at the Kid's Kampus day care center on 37th St. has been dismissed because police determined that damages to a swimming pool there were weather-related.

Smoke scare

Firemen responded to a smoke scare at 8:50 p.m. Thursday at the Park Village Apartments. A department spokesman said the smoke came from a pan of grease in an apartment. The name of the apartment's occupant was not released because she is under county protective services, he said.

Blanket missing

Sheriff's deputies are investigating the theft of an electric blanket from a woman who lives on Arah Rt., northwest of Snyder. Dean Cooper told officers at 12:10 p.m. Thursday that the $129 light blue Sears blanket, with dual controls, was missing.

Lawmaker: Bush wants Houston for summit

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Bush administration official says the president is expected to name Houston as the site for the annual economic summit of the world's leading industrial democracies next July 7-9.

But leaders in San Antonio, which had also competed for the summit, said they remained optimistic of their chances.

Rep. Jack Fields, R-Texas, said he was informed by the White House on Thursday that President Bush would announce Houston had been selected for the seven-nation meeting while in Malta, where he is attending a summit with Soviet President Mikhail S. Gorbachev.

The lawmaker said the decision gives Houston, which calls itself the energy capital of the world, a chance to showcase itself to other countries.

"This is coming at the perfect time because we are coming out of a severe economic downturn," said the Houston-area congressman.

An administration official, who spoke on condition of anonymity, also said Thursday that Houston was the likely choice but was not made official because final details were being worked out.

In San Antonio, Mayor Lila Cockrell was unwilling to concede defeat in the city's race against Houston to host the 1990 summit.

"Until there is an official announcement, I continue to remain hopeful," Mayor Lila Cockrell told the San Antonio Express-News.

U.S. Rep. Lamar Smith, R-San Antonio, said he would reserve comment until the president's announcement.

"The congressman (Smith) doesn't want to undermine any efforts city officials still have going," said Sherri Burkholder, a Smith spokeswoman who said

Smith was away from the office. Publicly, Bush indicated he wanted the summit to be in his adoptive home state of Texas. He said recently the contest was between Houston and San Antonio.

Held last summer in Paris, the summit is attended by heads of state from Great Britain, Canada, France, Italy, Japan, West Germany and the United States. The summit's location is rotated among the participating nations. This year is the United States' turn. The meeting will take place July 7-9. The conference is a forum for the nations to discuss a wide range of economic, trade and political issues.

Fields said administration officials, who had been looking for a city with a scenic backdrop for the summit, will find beauty in Houston. "I've always thought refineries were beautiful, ships coming down the Houston Ship Channel, representing economic progress," said Fields. "It's beautiful to go to the Texas Medical Center and walk through the labs and have explained the great research that's being done. Going out and touring the space station (under construction at Johnson Space Center) is a perfect backdrop for the future."

First Baptists slate revival in Justiceburg

The First Baptist Church in Justiceburg is planning a revival tonight through Sunday, with Tim Pruitt of Fort Worth as the evangelist.

Nightly services begin at 7 p.m. and Sunday services begin at 10 a.m. with Sunday School and will be followed with worship at 11 a.m., a basket dinner at noon and a 1 p.m. closing service.

Pruitt was reared in Togo, West Africa. His parents were Southern Baptist missionaries. During his last two years of high school, he was a pastor at Hitchland, Okla. He also pastored at Chelan, Wash. for two years.

Pruitt is now a student at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. His wife, Lori, will sing at each service. She has toured in Europe for three summers with the Continental Singers, a sacred choral group.

Riley Miller of Justiceburg will lead the singing. Each service will feature congregational singing and four special musical presentations.

Dodson House open Sunday for tours

The Cornelius-Dodson House will be open for visitors from 2:30-4:30 p.m. Sunday afternoon and refreshments will be served.

Visitors can also see the Dermott School, now undergoing restoration, weather permitting. There is no charge for admission to the Cornelius-Dodson House, which is under the oversight of Historic Scurry County, Inc.

Volunteers spent Thursday decorating the Dodson House for Christmas.

Dickerson at home with Trinity group

Having been in Snyder only five months, Rev. Rusty Dickerson and family are at home with their congregation at Trinity United Methodist Church.

Rev. Dickerson was appointed to Trinity when Rev. James Merrill was assigned to another congregation. "Trinity is a good church. The congregation lives up to our motto, 'Our Family is Love.'"

Methodist preachers are appointed, and Rev. Dickerson was first appointed associate minister of St. Luke's Methodist Church in Lubbock after his graduation from Asbury Theological Seminary in 1984. Prior to seminary, Rev. Dickerson earned a bachelor's degree in history with a minor in English literature from West Texas State University.

After 2½ years with St. Luke's, Rev. Dickerson was appointed to First United Methodist Church in Hamlin. Driving to Abilene to buy groceries was worth the 40-mile trip according to Rev. Dickerson, who said he prefers living in Snyder where he can buy anything he needs within a mile-and-a-half spread.

"The people are good here. They are really friendly," he said. He praises his congregation, which has 243 members, for averaging 140 present for Sunday morning services. He said Trinity has had the highest percentage of membership present for Sunday service in the conference for past several years. Youth is another quality Rev. Dickerson enjoys about the congregation. "We have a lot of young people and good leadership. It's great to come into a situation where there are so many young families," he said, adding that many young fathers do not attend services regularly.

Rev. Dickerson and his wife, Connie, are both originally from Amarillo. They have a 3-year-old son, Caleb. When they first thought of having children, the Dickersons wanted to name a son Joshua, but when all the couples at seminary named their sons Joshua, they chose Caleb.

Northeast drawing winners named

Joni Gonzales won a large basket of groceries in a drawing sponsored by the Northeast Elementary Parents Club recently. Tickets for the drawing were sold for 25 cents each, and Leon Grover sold the winning ticket.

A second, smaller basket was won by Bill Lyon. Wes Martin sold him the ticket. Both students selling winning tickets won $5 gift certificates to Wal-Mart. Cathy Tatom sold the most tickets to win a cash box with $12 inside, and James Taylor placed second, winning a $10 gift certificate to Wal-Mart.

Monica Levya placed third among students selling the most tickets, and she won a $5 gift certificate to Wal-Mart. Mrs. Martinez's second grade class had the highest selling average in the event. Money raised will go toward improvement of the playground facility.

To make up the grocery baskets, students and parents donated food, then, just before the drawing, the parent club bought meat gift certificates from Lawrence IGA. They also bought fresh fruit and vegetables for the baskets.

Angie Dooley was chairperson for the fundraiser.

Your Birthday

Dec. 2, 1989

In the year ahead there is a chance you might participate in an enterprise where you'll have a minor but rewarding role. In this situation how you profit will be more gratifying than the spotlight.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) There's a possibility today that you may be more mentally than physically restless. These inclinations can be gratified if you select companies with whom you can exchange stimulating ideas. Get a jump on life by understanding the influences which are governing you in the year ahead. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today by mailing $1.25 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Have your trowel and mortar ready today, because there is a possibility you might be able to lay the foundation for a future accomplishment.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Appearances are important today, so put on a positive face if you hope to impress or command others. If you want to be a leader, you must look and act like one.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Your intuition and perception could turn out to be extremely valuable assets today. They may provide you with insights your logic failed to reveal.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) In your involvements with friends today try to keep everything light and breezy. If heavy issues are introduced, it could put a pallor over the get-together.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) A meaningful objective is achievable today, but you must be single minded regarding your purpose. If you spread your forces too thick, the results may be only nominal.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) As of today, start making an effort to broaden your perspectives. When you widen your horizons, it will provide you with greater possibilities for new opportunities.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Your skills for researching, probing or detecting are likely to be keener than usual today. This is a good time to investigate something about which you've been curious.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) In order to make your one-to-one relationships more enjoyable today, make an effort to see things from the other guy's point of view. Things won't go too happily if you're infected with tunnel vision.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) It might not be wise today to start something that is a trifle too complicated for you to manage on your own. If you run into trouble be sure there is someone around to help you.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You might experience a bit of group pressure today to go along with something you do not find too enjoyable. However, do your best to abide by the will of the majority.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Do your best today to complete to your satisfaction anything that you begin, because what you leave undone will cause you to collect guilt.

Hepatitis B more common among blacks

ATLANTA (AP) — Hepatitis B, suspected for years to be more common among blacks than whites, strikes blacks at a rate four times higher than whites, according to a new statistical analysis from health researchers.

In the first nationwide scientific survey for hepatitis B infection, covering more than 14,000 people over five years, 4.8 percent showed signs in blood tests of having been infected with hepatitis B virus some time during their lives.

Among blacks, 13.7 percent tested positive, compared to 3.2 percent of whites, the national Centers for Disease Control reported Thursday.
