Bikes Across Big Spring kicked off at Hangar 25 Air Museum with a police escort on Saturday around 2 p.m. Riders had seven stops to make in order to gather their cards before ending their ride at Crossroads. In addition to the first through third place winners being announced there were other fundraising opportunities available during the closing ceremonies. This is the fourth year for Bikes Across Big Spring which is sponsored by Star Dodge in an effort to raise awareness for motorcycle riders.

The motors were running, the kickstands raised and the support rolled in as Bikes Across Big Spring, hosted by Star Dodge, rallied riders for the fourth year in a row. This is the second year that D.A.V. Chapter 47 has been the recipient funds raised during the event. There were almost 80 riders who took part in registration which was held at the Hangar 25 Air Museum. Riders set out to gather their cards at 2 p.m. with a police escort. Before heading out to their seven locations, riders made a special pass in front of the West Texas VA Medical Center and a short stop at the Vietnam Memorial.

Members of the Disabled American Veterans Chapter 47 were on hand at registration and the Vietnam Memorial. Before heading out, Commander Ed Meiser delivered a short explanation of what the local chapter does in regards to helping support veterans. Monies raised through the D.A.V. provide a hand up for local veterans who may need assistance with food, rent, utilities, medical expenses and more. Throughout the year the local chapter also makes it a point to not let veterans in local facilities feel forgotten during the holidays. Veterans at Lamun Lusk Sanchez Texas State Veterans Home are able to enjoy a hearty holiday meal. Each month, veterans at the State Veterans Home also are able to enjoy a birthday party with cake and ice cream sponsored by the D.A.V. Veterans in the CLC and Domiciliary at

Auditions for Vox Cordis community choir Wednesday

By ROGER CLINE
 Managing Editor

Are you a singer? Were you in choir in high school, or do you sing in your church choir? Maybe you just really like the way you sound singing in the shower. Big Spring High School Choir Director Gershom Garcia might just have an opportunity for you.

Garcia is forming a county-wide community chamber choral ensemble called "Vox Cordis," and he's going to be auditioning for group members of all ages and backgrounds.

"The purpose of this ensemble is to give talented singers in the West Texas region the opportunity to sing in a professional choral setting, promoting, performing and escalating the appreciation for the choral art," Garcia said. "Vox Cordis is dedicated to education and expanding the love for choral music to people of all ages and backgrounds."

Garcia said Vox Cordis - which is Latin for "Voice of the Heart" - will perform an eclectic repertoire encompassing a wide range of music, and will showcase the diversity and talent of the group. Plans include four concerts for the 2022-23 season, including a Veteran's Day Concert of Honor, The Sounds of Christmas, Valentine's Love Songs and Desert Concert, and the Vox Cordis Spring Concert to close out the year.

Rehearsals will be Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Big Spring High School Choral Department.

Auditions for the group are scheduled this Wednesday, Sept. 28, from 4 to 6 p.m., and Friday, Sept. 30, from 5 to 8 p.m.

According to Garcia, auditions will be a three-part process including vocalization to show off your low and high range, an optional solo to enhance your audition, i.e., a song of your choice such as a hymn, art song, Broadway song, the Hallelujah Chorus, etc., and a brief sight reading exercise.

"Please do not worry about the sight reading," Garcia said. "We are not looking for perfection, only that you have reasonable proficiency. Auditions will take approximately 10 minutes."

Those who opt to sing a solo during the audition should provide two copies of the song - one for Mr. Garcia, and one for the accompanist.

To register and to sign up for an audition time, access <https://forms.gle/UZ-1eSYXGPVgxGrWb6>.

Results will be announced no later than Sunday, Oct. 2, and the first rehearsal will be held Tuesday, Oct. 4.

"I hope that you will consider auditioning for Vox Cordis! If you have questions, please email gershom.garcia@yahoo.com and I will communicate as promptly as possible," Garcia said. "Thank you for your consideration of this invitation and we look forward to seeing and hearing you!"

Mother settles lawsuit over Texas arrest

FORT WORTH (AP) — A Texas city has settled a federal civil rights lawsuit filed by a Black mother after she and her daughter were wrestled to the ground and arrested by a white police officer following a dispute with a neighbor.

Jacqueline Craig and one of her daughters were wrestled to the ground and had a stun gun pointed at them by Fort Worth officer William Martin in December 2016. Another of Craig's daughters, who filmed the incident on her cellphone, was also arrested.

Charges against all three were later dropped. Martin served a 10-day suspension for violating departmental policies.

The city agreed to settle the lawsuit for $150,000, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram reported Friday. The settlement is pending City Council approval.

As part of the settlement, the city admits no other fault and there are no other requirements, a Fort Worth spokesperson said.

Craig has alleged the neighbor grabbed and choked her young son after seeing him litter. Craig and the neighbor both called police.

Video of the arrests, which was posted on Facebook and viewed more than a million times, raised accusations of racism.

Mayor Pro Tem Gyna Bivens told the newspaper she was glad the lawsuit was settled.

"This put a big weight on her. It put a big weight on the city, and I hope the settlement is enough for everyone to feel refreshed and ready to move forward," Bivens said.

NASA spacecraft closes in on asteroid for head-on collision

CAPE CANAVERAL (AP) — A NASA spacecraft closed in on an asteroid at blistering speed Monday in an unprecedented dress rehearsal for the day a killer rock menaces Earth.

The galactic grand slam was set to occur at a harmless asteroid 7 million miles (9.6 million kilometers) away, with the spacecraft named Dart plowing into the rock at 14,000 mph (22,500 kph). Scientists expected the impact to carve out a crater, hurl streams of rocks and dirt into space and, most importantly, alter the asteroid's orbit.

Telescopes around the world and in space were poised to capture the spectacle. Though the impact should be immediately obvious — with Dart's radio signal abruptly ceasing — it will be days or even weeks to determine how much the asteroid's path was changed.

The $325 million mission is the first attempt to shift the position of an asteroid or any other natural object in space.

"No, this is not a movie plot," NASA Administrator Bill Nelson tweeted earlier in the day. "We've all seen it on movies like 'Armageddon,' but the real-life stakes are high," he said in a prerecorded video.

Monday's target: a 525-foot (160-meter) asteroid named Dimorphos. It's actually a moonlet of Didymos, Greek for twin, a fast-spinning asteroid five times bigger that flung off the material that formed the junior partner.

The pair have been orbiting the sun for eons without threatening Earth, making them ideal save-the-world test candidates.

Launched last November, the vending machine-size Dart — short for Double Asteroid Redirection Test — navigated to its target using new technology developed by Johns Hopkins University's Applied Physics Laboratory, the spacecraft builder and mission manager.

A mini satellite followed a few minutes behind to take photos of the impact. The Italian Cubesat was released from Dart two weeks ago.

Scientists insisted Dart would not shatter Dimorphos. The spacecraft packed a scant 1,260 pounds (570 kilograms), compared with the asteroid's 11 billion pounds (5 billion kilograms). But that should be plenty to shrink its 11-hour, 55-minute orbit around Didymos.

the West Texas VA enjoy these special meals as well.

"We wish you all a good trip. Keep your kickstands up and your rubber down and bring those bikes to life. See you at the Crossroads," Ed Meiser Commander of the Big Spring Chapter 47 D.A.V. said. "Thank you for coming out and supporting the Disabled American Veterans."

Once Commander Meiser had shared with the crowd, D.A.V. Chaplain Carlos offered up a prayer for those riding in Bikes Across Big Spring.

"One of the things we know as veterans, one of the reasons we joined the D.A.V. is it has a sense of camaraderie that we lose when we get out (of the service); that's one of the reasons we joined. One of the things I saw as you rolled up in the parking lot was that you all have that camaraderie too, through motorcycles," Carlos, D.A.V. Chaplain, said.

The day-long event concluded at Crossroads where riders were able to turn in their cards to see who would take the winnings for First Place, Second Place and Third Place. Those who were at Crossroads waiting for the riders to come in were able to take part in an auction for a chance to take some unique items home. First Place was claimed by D Kerfman; Second Place was claimed by Michael Allen; and Third Place was claimed by Don Green.

Bikes Across Big Spring was started in an effort to raise awareness for motorcycle safety. According to the U.S. Department of Transportation, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration; Federal Highway Administration data, motorcyclist fatalities increased from 2018 to 2020. In 2020 there were 8,317,363 registered motorcycles and 5,579 fatalities which can be expressed as 67.08 fatality rate per 100,000. According to the data, more motorcyclists are killed on the weekend compared to during the week, and most accidents occur between 6 p.m. and 9 p.m.

"We extend our gratitude to all those who joined us for the 2022 Bikes Across Big Spring event. Every dollar we raise makes a difference in a veteran's life," Tabitha Clark, Bikes Across Big Spring event organizer and Star Dodge Public Relations, said. "We want to extend a big thank you to Star Dodge for sponsoring this event and helping us raise awareness for motorcycle riders. Now that this year's Bikes Across Big Spring is over we are starting our plans for next year. We are looking for bigger and better. If you didn't make it this year, we hope to see you next year."

At press time all monies had not been turned in. An update will be provided once final monies raised have been counted.

Hurricane Ian nears Cuba on path to strike Florida as Cat 4

By CRISTIANA MESQUITA and CURT ANDERSON

Associated Press

HAVANA (AP) — Hurricane Ian was growing stronger as it barreled toward Cuba on a track to hit Florida's west coast as a major hurricane as early as Wednesday.

Ian was forecast to hit the western tip of Cuba as a major hurricane and then become an even stronger Category 4 with top winds of 140 mph (225 km/h) over warm Gulf of Mexico waters before striking Florida.

As of Monday, Tampa and St. Petersburg appeared to be the among the most likely targets for their first direct hit by a major hurricane since 1921.

"Please treat this storm seriously. It's the real deal. This is not a drill," Hillsborough County Emergency Management Director Timothy Dudley said at a news conference on storm preparations in Tampa.

Authorities in Cuba were evacuating 50,000 people in Pinar del Rio province, sent in medical and emergency personnel, and took steps to protect food and other crops in warehouses, according to state media.

"Cuba is expecting extreme hurricane-force winds, also life threatening storm surge and heavy rainfall," U.S. National Hurricane Center senior specialist Daniel Brown told The Associated Press early Monday.

The hurricane center predicted areas of Cuba's western coast could see as much as 14 feet (4.3 meters) of storm surge Monday night or early Tuesday.

In Havana, fishermen were taking their boats out of the water along the famous Malecon, the seaside boardwalk, and city workers were busy unclogging storm drains ahead of the expected rain.

Havana resident Adyz Ladron, 35, said the potential for rising water from the storm worries him.

"I am very scared because my house gets completely flooded, with water up to here," he said, pointing to his chest.

In the southern city of Batabanó, Alexis García was using his tractor to help pick up garbage from people's homes ahead of the storm.

"This will not take us by surprise," he said.

On Monday afternoon, Ian was moving northwest at 13 mph (20 km/h), about 155 miles (250 kilometers) southeast of the western tip of Cuba, with top sustained winds increasing to 100 mph (155 km/h).

The center of the hurricane passed to the west of the Cayman Islands, but no major damage was reported there Monday, and residents were going back into the streets as the winds died down.

"We seem to have dodged the bullet" Grand Cayman resident Gary Hollins said. "I am a happy camper."

Ian won't linger over Cuba, but will slow down over the Gulf of Mexico, growing wider and stronger, "which will have the potential to produce significant wind and storm surge impacts along the west coast of Florida," the hurricane center said.

A surge of up to 10 feet (3 meters) of ocean water and 10 inches (25 centimeters) of rain was predicted across the Tampa Bay area, with as much as 15 inches (38 centimeters) inches in isolated areas. That's enough water to inundate coastal communities.

As many as 300,000 people may be evacuated from low-lying areas in Hillsborough County alone, county administrator Bonnie Wise said. Some of those evacuations were beginning Monday afternoon in the most vulnerable areas, with schools and other locations opening as shelters.

"We must do everything we can to protect our residents. Time is of the essence," Wise said.

Floridians lined up for hours in Tampa to collect bags of sand and cleared store shelves of bottled water. Gov. Ron DeSantis declared a statewide emergency and warned that Ian could lash large areas of the state, knocking out power and interrupting fuel supplies as it swirls northward off the state's Gulf coast.

"You have a significant storm that may end up being a Category 4 hurricane," DeSantis said at a news conference. "That's going to cause a huge amount of storm surge. You're going to have flood events. You're going to have a lot of different impacts."

DeSantis said the state has suspended tolls around the Tampa Bay area and mobilized 5,000 Florida state national guard troops, with another 2,000 on standby in neighboring states.

President Joe Biden also declared an emergency, authorizing the Department of Homeland Security and the Federal Emergency Management Agency to coordinate disaster relief and provide assistance to protect lives and property. The president postponed a scheduled Tuesday trip to Florida because of the storm.

Playing it safe, NASA planned to begin slowly rolling its moon rocket from the launch pad to its Kennedy Space Center hangar, adding weeks of delay to the test flight.

Flash flooding was predicted for much of the Florida peninsula, and heavy rainfall was possible for the southeast United States later this week. With tropical storm force winds extending 115 miles (185 kilometers) from Ian's center, watches covered the Florida Keys to Lake Okeechobee.

Bob Gualtieri, sheriff of Pinellas County, Florida, which includes St. Petersburg, said in a briefing that although no one will be forced to leave, mandatory evacuation orders are expected to begin Tuesday.

"What it means is, we're not going to come help you. If you don't do it, you're on your own," Gualtieri said.

Zones to be evacuated include all along Tampa Bay and the rivers that feed it. St. Petersburg Mayor Ken Welch urged residents not to ignore any evacuation orders.

"This is a very real threat that this storm poses to our community," Welch said.

The hurricane center has advised Floridians to have survival plans in place and monitor updates of the storm's evolving path.

Howard Co. Area Football Roundup Week 5:

Big Spring and Coahoma win at home to improve to 4-1, Forsan suffers first loss of the season in a nail biter at Kermit.

By PATRICK GONZALES

Herald Sports Writer

Heading into week 5 all three Howard County teams were looking to keep the winning momentum up after coming away with big victories in week 4. Both Big Spring and Coahoma were looking to improve to 4-1 on the season while Forsan was looking to improve its perfect record to 5-0. Big Spring and Coahoma came away with wins at home this past Friday night. Big Spring would stave off a late rally from Snyder to get a close win over the Tigers 27-24. It was Coahoma's homecoming Friday night and the Bulldogs were hosting the Merkel Badgers. The Bulldogs high powered offense continued to shine as the Bulldogs shutout the Badgers 21-0. The Forsan Buffaloes were the lone Howard County team that hit the road on Friday as they headed to Kermit to take on the Yellowjackets. The Buffaloes got off to another strong start early in the game, but the Yellowjackets defense proved to be too much for Forsan as Kermit came away with a nail biting victory 14-13.

Coahoma's defense held the Badgers to just 231 yards of total offense. Austin Perkins led the Bulldogs in receiving with five catches for 121 yards and two touchdowns. Following after Perkins were Billy Bailey 5-84 yards, and Tristan Guerrero 1-18 yards and touchdown. Coahoma's running back Jaidyn Vineyard led the rushing attack as he finished the night with 19 carries for 114 yards. With the win the Bulldogs completed their non-district schedule as they have bye this week. Coahoma will open up district play on Friday Oct. 7 where they get set to host the Littlefield Wildcats.

FORSAN BUFFALOES 13 KERMIT YELLOWJACKETS 14

KERMIT – The Forsan Buffaloes were the lone Howard County area team to make a road trip Friday night. The Buffaloes traveled west to take on the Kermit Yellowjackets in their last non-district game before district play. Forsan was 4-0 heading into the matchup and were looking to improve that record to 5-0. The Yellowjackets (2-3) were looking for their second win of the season. The Buffaloes dominated for most of the game as they held a 13-8 lead heading into the fourth quarter. However, at the start of the fourth quarter the Yellowjackets scored its second touchdown of the game to give them a one point lead over Forsan. Forsan's offense could not respond back as they got the ball back late in the fourth quarter but it was Kermit's defense that would prove to be too much for the Buffaloes. The Yellowjackets made the necessary adjustments after halftime as they held the Buffaloes offense to just 198 yards. Forsan quarterback Cade Wallis finished the night with 4-16 pass attempts for 28 yards. Kevin Kligora led Forsan's rushing game once again with 21 carries for 93 yards. Following after Kligora were Huston Stockton 3-55 yards, Cade Wallis 6-16, and Brycen Cervantes 3-3 yards, 1-touchdown. Kade Nichols led the Forsan's receiving corp with 1 catch for 19 yards followed by Haden Brown who finished the night with 1 catch for 13 yards. The Buffaloes will have a bye this week before opening up district play. Forsan will play on Friday Oct 7 in Forsan as they will get ready to host the Reagan County Owl for their first district game. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. at Buffalo Stadium.

BIG SPRING 27 SNYDER TIGERS 24

The Big Spring Steers continue to impress as they came away with another win on Friday night at Memorial Stadium. The Steers improved to 4-1 on the season as they defeated a tough Snyder Tigers team 27-24 in a non-district matchup Friday night. The Steers got off to great start on offense unlike their previous two games. The Steers scored all of their four touchdowns in the first half where Steer quarterback Gavin Padron connected with four different receivers for a touchdown. The Tigers would get their first score of the game in the second quarter thanks to a 27 yard touchdown pass before halftime.

The second half would be all Snyder as they were able to stifle the Steers offense for the remainder of the game. The Tigers offense would also find its momentum as they scored twice in the fourth quarter and managed to get a safety to cut the Steers lead by three. The Steers defense once again made the crucial stops when it mattered to help secure the win with a final score of 27-24. Padron would end the night completing 29 out of 40 pass attempts for 302 yards and four touchdowns. Steer running back Kavien Ford led the team in rushing with 19 carries for 71 yards. The Steers wide receiver corp had a great game with Donavyn Hilario leading the way with 5 receptions for 100 yards and 1 touchdown. Following behind Hilario were Zeyire Franklin 4-56 yds, 1-touchdown, Eli Cobos 6-54 yds, 1-touchdown, Kavien Ford 7-50 yds, 1-touchdown, and Derrick Walleck 5-24 yds, 1-touchdown. The Steers will travel to Seminole this Friday to take on the Indians at Wigwam Stadium to wrap up non-district play. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m.

COAHOMA BULLDOGS 21 MERKEL BADGERS 0

The Coahoma Bulldogs are on fire as they came away with another huge win this past Friday. The Bulldogs took care of the Merkel Badgers Friday night in their homecoming game beating the Badgers 21-0. Coahoma's offense continues its hot streak thanks to its young quarterback in Boyd Cox. Cox completed 10 out of 18 passes for 259 yards and threw three touchdowns in the Bulldogs win. The Bulldogs scored all three touchdowns in the first half with two of them in the first quarter and one in the second quarter to put the Bulldogs up 21-0. The Bulldogs offense would finish the night with 460 yards of total offense while

Contract Bridge

A rash decision

South dealer. East-West vulnerable.

SOUTH
♠ 3 2
♥ A Q 10 9 8 7
♦ 4
♠ A K Q 8

The bidding:
South West North East
1♥ Pass Pass 2♠
3♣ 4♠ 5♣ Dble
Pass 5♠ 6♣ Dble

Opening lead — six of spades.

This deal occurred in a duplicate pairs event. The results varied widely at the many tables where the hand was played, running the gamut from a plus 790 to East-West for making four spades doubled, to an assortment of plusses for the North-South pairs.

At one table, the bidding went as shown, with South ending up in six clubs doubled. West led a spade, and South had no trouble making the slam with an overtrick for a score of 1,190 points. He ruffed the spade lead in dummy, played a club to the ace, ruffed another spade in dummy and led the jack of hearts. Whether East covered or not, declarer would score six heart tricks and discard all four diamonds from dummy to win all the tricks. Not a bad result, considering that East-West held 23 high-card points!

The key to South's success was his three-club bid over two spades. Had South simply bid three hearts, which happened at many tables, East might well have become declarer at four spades, which could not be defeated.

The most bizarre result came from a table where the bidding went:
South West North East
1♥ Pass Pass 2♥
3♥ 3♠ Pass 4♥
Pass 5♦ Pass 6NT
Dble Pass Pass Pass

East's decision to bid six notrump with no club stopper was, to put it mildly, somewhat rash. He apparently did not like the prospect of a heart lead by North through dummy's king, and so elected to make himself declarer. This decision did not turn out well when North-South collected seven club tricks and six heart tricks to register a 3,500-point set!

Double the Delights

First, Venus and Pluto behave like the kindly caretakers offering up some pocket cash as we head on out. It's good to feel taken care of, especially when you anticipated having to do things all by yourself. A few hours later, Mars and Saturn serve up another jolly round of good fortune in the form of social ease and breezy problem-solving.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). You'll try new things and enjoy the process of becoming. Being driven to improve is not a rejection of who you are, rather it's a gift to yourself -- a vote of confidence in your power to walk the world in your preferred way.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). You'll expand your circle. Barriers between you and those you don't know will melt away. You'll feel as relaxed and easygoing around strangers as you do around your nearest and dearest.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Sometimes you want things but are afraid to ask. Make a conscious effort to be direct and to voice your interest. If you're not asking the right person, it's better to find that out quickly so you can redirect.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). You're getting mentally prepared to do a job even as you prepare your physical surroundings. This entails sharpening your tools so you're ready with what's needed. Your motivation and your skill will grow together.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22).

Despite being unable to control other people's happiness, you can contribute to it. Take into account what the others expect and play with that expectation. You'll delight in their smiles knowing you had something to do with it.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You can still be independent without making things harder than they need to be. Use the help you're given and avoid redundancy. You'll start where the last person left off and build ever higher.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Laziness isn't always a fault; sometimes it's a skill. Those who don't want to work too hard often think of an easier way to do things. Also, overworking can cause injury that can be avoided by a more relaxed approach.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). The ease of life is largely determined by how well we are getting along with our nearest and dearest. Tend to relationships. Stick up for your friends. Take everyone's opinion with a grain of salt.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Some goals take longer to realize, and it would be pointless and ineffective to rush them. There's no need to be frustrated over processes you cannot control. You're better to trust the timing of the universe.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). The term "friendly competition" can be a descriptor or an oxymoron. Some people's serious drive to win prevents them from playing around. To them, every game is war. Recognize and avoid these types now.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). The lake may appear calm from the shore, but it teems with activity under the surface. There is always more to know if you care to go a little deeper. Whether or not you need to or should, that will be the point to ponder.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Just by being you and doing the next right thing, you'll have the impact you wish to have on the world. You can't change anyone, but you might make them want to change, thereby affecting destiny.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Sept. 27). A beautiful relationship sets the tone. You understand each other with minimal efforts within the magic world you co-create. New ways of organizing your life will have you accomplishing more with your days with greater pleasure. More highlights: a stellar invitation, a view from above and a cash prize for your special skill. Libra and Aquarius adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 2, 22, 18, 39 and 1.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: Whether sharing lifestyle tips or filming movie projects, Gwyneth Paltrow applies her natal Libran elegance. Paltrow possesses the strong aesthetic of one born when the sun, Mercury, Uranus and Pluto were all in artistic Libra. Venus in playful Leo shows an endless wellspring of creativity and a strong connection to children, while Mars in Virgo lends organization and practicality.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
