Car Show Scheduled For Sheppard Air Base On Sunday, June 29th

SHEPPARD AFB, Tex. — A "first" is on tap for Sheppard Air Force Base June 29 when "Concours d'Elegance" (Car Show) unfolds at the picnic area adjoining Sheppard's U.S. Air Force Hospital.

Set to begin at noon, the show is being organized by 1st Lt. John G. Tockston, commander of the 3775th Student Squadron.

According to Lieutenant Tockston, a "Concours d'Elegance" means a "gathering of elegance" in the form of vintage automobiles.

Unlike the usual concours, however, this show is open to any kind of car, not necessarily classic and antiques. Classes will be provided for dune buggies, drag cars, sports cars and custom cars.

Even a factory stock family car can enter and be eligible for one of 14 trophies. The only rule is that the car must be clean.

Anyone is eligible to enter. Residents of Wichita Falls and outlying communities, base civilian employees and of course military personnel are encouraged to participate.

Judging will be handled by members of the Wichita Falls Police Department, the Texas State Highway Patrol and Sheppard's Security Police. Lieutenant Tockston will brief all judges upon arrival at the grounds.

The automobile on display should be as clean as the owners can make them. Engine compartments must be immaculate, trunks must be like-new and the passenger compartment should be showroom fresh.

All entries should have fresh way jobs and paint chips should be "touched-up." Immaculate cars will stand good chances for a trophy. Two trophies will be awarded in each class provided there are at least three cars in that class.

Heavy emphasis will also be placed on safety. All lights must operate and all cars must conform to the Texas Safety Inspection Code.

Classes will be composed as follows, Late Model (1960-69), Post-War (1946-59), Pre-War (1900-44), Custom cars (both mild and radical custom, Sports cars and dune buggies (any year), Drag and Road Race cars (any year), Worst car in show and Best car in show.

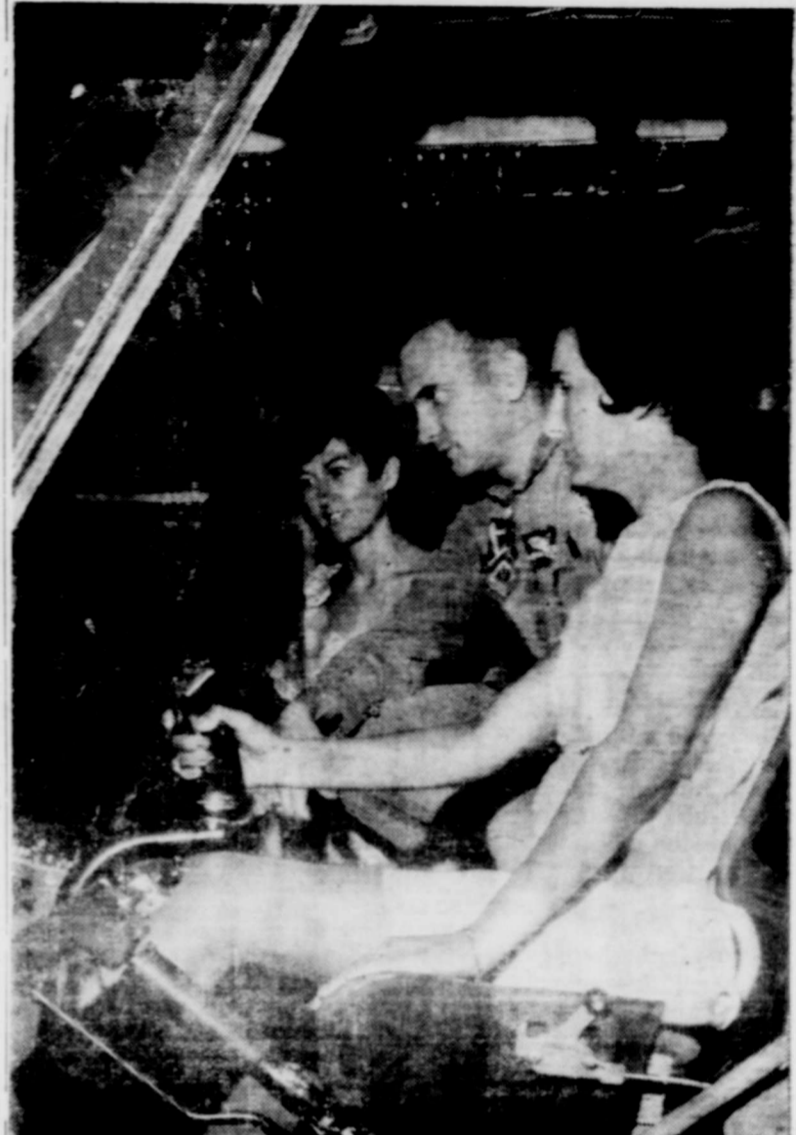

For information, contact Lieutenant Tockston at Sheppard extensions 6365/2305 or 692-5672.

Jogging Man Bitten By Dog

The brand new sport of jogging has its dangers, too.

Take it from Leonard Kalinowski, stationed at Sheppard AFB and living in Burkburnett.

Kalinowski was jogging along in the 700 block of Park Street at about 8 p.m. Sunday enjoying himself, feeling his muscles strengthen and his wind improve.

When suddenly he was interrupted — by a dog — who promptly proceeded to take a bite on the airman's right calf.

The injured man said he would report to SAFB Hospital for treatment.

The dog, which was not vaccinated, is to be held in the local veterinary clinic for 10 day observation.

FACT AND OPINION

Based on today's economy and driving conditions, Goodyear reports that the average American family will buy about 80 tires at a total cost of some $1,400 in the usual 30-year driving span, exclusive of tires delivered on autos bought during that time. In the past decade, U.S. production of pneumatic tires has more than doubled, from 102-million tires in 1958 to an estimated 215 million in 1969.

Today's housewife can choose from over 8,000 food items on supermarket shelves. But, if necessary, she and her family could subsist for many months on just four foodstuffs, according to San Francisco internist Dr. Albert E. Tobolski. All man really needs in order to survive, he says, is powdered milk, cooking oil, fortified cereal and multivitamin capsules. But, he also adds that a bottle of whiskey might be needed to help endure such a stringent diet.

SHEPPARD AFB, Tex. — Sgt. Verne Ayers, an instructor in the Department of Comptroller Training, 3750th Technical School at Sheppard, has won first place in Washington School of Art's Tenth Annual International Contest.

An instructor in the Graphic Presentation and Illustration Techniques course, Sergeant Ayers received $200 for his winning entry "Anchored in the Inlet," a composition of acrylic on canvas. The acrylic was applied with a knife, using a gel medium to acquire the desired texture.

As an instructor his students are taught commercial art layout in illustration, cartooning, lettering, audio-visual aids preparation and construction, figure drawing and reproduction methods and processes including photography, silk screen, diszachrome and printing.

He explained that this is the first major contest he has ever won, although he won several poster and art contests while in high school.

An artist by profession, Sergeant Ayers was the advertising and display manager for a department store before entering the Air Force.

The contest is conducted annually by the Washington School of Art for students who have completed at least 17 lessons of the 32-lesson correspondence art course or who have recently graduated. Sergeant Ayers completed the course Jan. 17, 1969.

The Washington School of Art teaches basic drawing techniques and composition principles as well as water color and oil painting, and various commercial art techniques such as reproduction, television art and cartooning.

"Anchored in the Inlet," along with other award-winning art works, will be featured in Washington School of Art's summer show beginning July 7, 1969, in Port Washington, Long Island, N.Y.

REACHING NEW Heights

Man has explored most of the earth, and has now set out to conquer space.

While achieving these marvelous works, let us not forget our creator.

"When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; what is man that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet..."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

TAKE A NEW LOOK AT BLINDNESS

How does a person react when blindness strikes? Where can he go for competent assistance?

Actually, each person reacts differently, according to M. Robert Barnett, executive director of the American Foundation for the Blind. The key factor in adjusting is professional counselling, which is available through local agencies for the blind all over the country.

Unfortunately, blindness for centuries has been linked with helplessness, and today many people still think and speak of "the blind" as a class apart from our normal society. The fact is that there are more than 30,000 blind college graduates in the United States.

There are blind teachers in public schools, blind college professors, blind executives in business and government, blind computer programmers, and blind scientists in many fields. There are blind children attending school with their sighted peers.

This progress is largely the result of the assistance and guidance of hundreds of community agencies for the blind. Helen Keller was the inspiration for much of the work which has enable blind people to win independence and a place in our sighted society.

Miss Keller, who triumphed over deafness as well as blindness, was associated with the American Foundation for the Blind from 1924 until her death just a year ago. The Foundation is carrying on her work, cooperating with other agencies throughout the country, and urging all Americans to rededicate themselves to the spirit and service of Helen Keller.

If you are not acquainted with the agency for the blind in your community, the Foundation suggests that you get to know it, to learn about its services and its needs.

If you do not know the name or address of your local agency, or if you know a blind or visually handicapped person who does not know where to go for professional assistance, write to the American Foundation for the Blind, Box 111, New York, New York 10011.

For Goodness Sake, Serve A Luscious Citrus Salad!

You'll travel in the right circles with your guests when you serve a generous platter of Florida grapefruit sections, orange slices and sweet onion rings. Besides their marvelous flavor, citrus fruits offer many nutrients in addition to daily-needed vitamin C.

The sweet-tasting, seedless Valencia oranges and plump, juicy grapefruit from Florida combine deliciously with the flavor of sweet red onions. Weather permitting, Florida expects to supply the nation's produce markets with an ample amount of top quality Valencia oranges and grapefruit through June, or about one month beyond the normal wind-up date for quantity shipments of fresh citrus.

A French dressing made with grapefruit juice is wonderfully zesty poured over this salad, and it's not too rich for the average person's diet. If overweight is a problem, enjoy this refreshing salad with just a vinegar dressing or one of the many commercially prepared dietetic dressings available.

Orange, Grapefruit and Onion Salad

- 4 Florida oranges
- 2 medium-sized sweet onions
- 2 Florida grapefruit
- Crisp salad greens

Chill fruit before preparing. To peel fruit, cut slice from top, then cut off peel round and round, spiral fashion. Go over fruit again, removing any remaining white membrane. Slice oranges crosswise, 1/4-inch thick. Section grapefruit by cutting along side of each dividing membrane from outside to middle of core. Remove section by section over bowl to retain juice. Slice onion 1/4-inch thick and separate slices into rings. Arrange orange slices, grapefruit sections and onion rings on assorted salad greens and serve with Grapefruit French Dressing.*

- YIELD: 6 servings
- *Grapefruit French Dressing
- 3/4 cup salad oil
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 cup vinegar
 - 1 teaspoon paprika
 - 1/2 cup Florida grapefruit juice
 - 1 teaspoon tarragon or chopped parsley
 - 1 teaspoon sugar

Combine all ingredients and shake well before serving. YIELD: About 1 1/4 cups.
