might good laughs down football stadium watching the past 40 and fat cit-izens on homers and getting to 2nd because they are rounding 1st. Not all acrobatics happen on the other. A foul ball down base line always causes the old boys to do some things in the air as they hit the dirt. Its all good and the spectators enjoy breeze in the stadium.

War Bond Premier at the Theatre Tuesday night called nothing short of success. Andy Thomas, of the theatre, was all the place, seeing that people looked after the speaker system, and the auctioneer who sold the bonds. The program was very long and due to the crowd the temperature was warm at times but left. The Westex Theatres due a lot of credit for generosity in aiding the bond drive by donating the Palace Theatre and Tuesday night.

The air conditioner is perfectly. Of course it is a few major adjust-ments that only requires a few hours each afternoon.

Premier Sponsors Thankful For Cooperation

Bond Chairman Loy Nichols and Andy Thomas, manager of the Palace Theatre are thankful for the cooperation given them by everyone who took part in the show.

Too much praise cannot be given Jimmy Unger, manager of the Interstate Theatres in Wichita Falls. Mr. Unger was auctioneer and sold more than $10,000 worth of Bonds. He did a jam-up job.

Major Pooley of Sheppard Field was on hand to lend his assistance and cooperated with Burkburnett in every way he could. Cpl. Larry Levin of Sheppard Field was Master of Ceremonies for the All-Star Bond Wagon Stage Show. The orchestra, under the direction of Cpl. Grady Mullins, furnished music for songs and dance numbers. Every number on the show was a hit and some were called back again and again for encores.

Business Houses To Close July Fourth

Following the usual custom, Burkburnett business houses will close for the holiday, July 4th, which will be next Wednesday.

With the exception of drug stores and cafes, everything will be locked up tight, according to Ray Hill, manager of the Chamber of Commerce who made a canvass of the town.

Richard Reilly received a $50 Bond from the Burkburnett Clinic and the Corner Drug Store at the theatre.

Swain was a singing school teacher. They will also be accompanied by their eight year old daughter who also plays the piano and sings.

The revival will be conducted in the open air on the west side of the church at the corner of E. College street and Avenue B. These meetings will begin each evening at eight thirty.

Lions Club Paper Pick-Up Success

Members of the Burkburnett Lions Club are sponsoring the salvage paper gathering here. The first pick-up was last Friday afternoon. More than 2,000 pounds of paper was gathered in the residence part of town.

Those who gathered the paper report that for the most part the paper was separated and tied securely in bundles. This is very necessary, for under the present set-up, only paper that is sorted and tied can be handled.

Attention Teen Town Members

Because the water is being changed on Tuesdays at Sandy Beach, the swim parties will be on Wednesday instead of Tuesdays.

Wednesday, July 4th is the next swimming date.

Regular dance Friday night, June 29th at 8:30 P. M.

Mrs. Florence Hale of Stamford, Texas, returned home after a few days visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ferguson.

Dorothy Preston Wins Contest For Miss Victory

Miss Dorothy Preston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Preston, won the title of Miss Victory in the contest sponsored by Burkburnett merchants, in support of the 7th War Loan drive. She was crowned at the Palace Theatre Tuesday night at the War Bond Premier.

There were 14 girls in the contest and each one worked hard selling bonds and soliciting votes. This contest created more interest and enthusiasm and sold twice as many Bonds as all other efforts combined. At the start of the drive there was very little bond buying and it was through the efforts of the girls and their sponsors that the drive was kept going here.

When the ballot boxes were unsealed Tuesday morning and the votes counted a total was run on the dollar value of bonds represented by the vote tickets. A total of $70,850 worth of bonds was purchased.

Miss Preston received a $100 War Bond as a reward for first place winner. Miss Mary Frances Kelley was second place winner and received a $50.00 Bond. Each of the other contestants received $5.00 in War Stamps. Awards were made by Bond Chairman Loy Nichols from the stage at the theatre.

Lions Club

At the meeting Tuesday night the program time was taken up installing new officers and directors for the coming year. The club dismissed early in order that members could attend the War Bond Premier at the Palace Theatre.

The club will be represented at the State and District meeting at Abilene today (Thursday) by retiring president D. F. Douglas, incoming president A. E. Harrison, secretary P. A. Johnston and Ray Hill.

Last Friday afternoon Lion members assisted by City employees gathered more than 2,000 pounds of salvage paper from over town. Those who gathered the paper wish to thank Burkburnett citizens for their response to the need for waste paper and for the way they had it tied and sorted. Please save all your paper and tie it up and place it near the curb to be picked up again Friday afternoon, July 6th.

Lion Ford Albritton of the Wichita Falls club was a visitor. Program for next week will be in charge of Lions Clifford Dodson and Harry Dodson.

Appreciation Day Program Next Tues.

Since the Fourth comes on Wednesday this year, the regular Appreciation Day program will be held here next week on Tuesday the 3rd. The following week the program will be on Wednesday as usual.

Larger crowds are attending the event each week and merchants report that Wednesdays are almost equal to some of the Saturdays so far as volume of sales is concerned. The arrangement has its advantages for both purchaser and seller. Customers find that they can be waited on more readily on Wednesdays than if they wait until Saturday to do all their shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Boyd left this week for Olney, Ill., after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Boyd.

Miss Ruth Jeffers is visiting friends and relatives in Burkburnett this week.

$40,633.75 Short Of Final Goal

Burkburnett is still lagging behind in its efforts to raise $160,000 in the 7th War Loan Drive. Of this amount the quota for E Bonds is $96,000. We are still short $8,868.75 in this series.

In the F and G and other series Burk still lacks $31,765.00. Some of those who signed applications for bonds at the Premier Tuesday night have not yet given their checks to the issuing agents. Those who have not purchased their pledged bonds are urged to do so. Something over $1,200 worth of Bonds have been pledged and not called for.

Those in charge of the drive have no doubt that Burkburnett will go over the top if all those who have not yet bought Bonds will do so before the drive is over. Some farmers who always buy large amounts of Bonds have not made their purchases yet. They have been busy in the harvest fields and have not gotten around to bond buying this time.

Some of the oil companies who operate here always allocate bonds to Burkburnett but so far the amount to be allocated in this drive has not been determined.

If you have not yet bought all the Bonds you can afford, it's not too late to make your purchases. The drive officially closes July 7th. Burkburnett has never fallen down on any of the previous bond drives, and we must not fall short on this one. The money is in the bank—transfer it from checking accounts to Bonds.

Car Stamps Due By July First

Auto owners must have new tax stamps on their cars by July 1st. The old stamp expires June 30th. Stamps may be purchased at the Post Office and are good for one year. Follow directions for displaying the stamp and filling it out.

FOURTH OF JULY

Into a Declaration of Independence poured the passionate faith of its creator, prayer for its preservation, a dedication of poignant words that were to preserve the rights of men. This was not the first charter to represent certain truths, the Magna Carta, the Mayflower Compact were intended to promote the principles of freedom. Those were words that were significant for the needs of the times. Since then we have had many bills of rights, Monroe Doctrine, Dunbarton Oaks, Atlantic Charter, as commitments and negotiations.

The feeling of "America first," of proclaiming its privileges and virtues, exalting its name, lauding its tradition, had become popular in public reading of the Declaration, in historical addresses, graduation speeches, orations by politicians, studies in classrooms. That was when we took out our patriotism. Go to the period from the end of World War I to the Pearl Harbor horror for our point. Recall how false we were in regard to the national traditions, past heroes and causes, inalienable privileges. We were not as keen about our Fourth of July as about Italy's road building project, Russia's communism, Germany's Youth movement, Europe's culture. Maybe we poked some fun at folks who used high-sounding words about liberty and pioneers, as we were busy streamlining automobiles and joining societies, bringing up the subject of the Gettysburg Address at commencements as a matter of course, looking upon the western wilderness and covered wagon days as a back-drop for a movie, the Founding Fathers and Plymouth Rock with the 49'ers and Spanish-American War vets, as a lot of old stuff. We were pushing a Good Neighbor policy and trade agreements. Forget the Liberty Bell and concentrate on auto-gyros. Then BANG.

About December 7, 1941 we took off those sophisticated masks and became what we really were down underneath, not cynics laughing at a Burkburnett man's talking of pioneering as a test of Americanism, but sobering over the flag and "God Bless America," looking again for the courage and stamina of those forebears. We took our patriotism out of moth balls, for we hadn't seem to need it in those intervening years between wars, as we took our singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" with feeling, proudly proclaimed our thankfulness in being an American. We dusted off the Declaration of Independence for every day use, lifted our eyes reverently to the heavens and thanked God for men like Washington, Lincoln and Jefferson who started us along the road to freedom. We wept over the uniforms, shouted over victories, prayed over defeats. We became Americans again, fighting at home and abroad for the same principles that made 1776 a historical year. That document of Jefferson's was as good today, as worth fighting for today, dying for today, and when its poetry first flowed from the pen.

There was an artificiality about that period between wars that boded ill for all of us. It was not a way of life that had made this country fine. Must a war, self-sacrifice, suffering, be the necessary force to awaken us, make us cognizant of the mighty facts that come first to every decent man; love of his God, his country, his home. Each of us facing the land of the free, home of the brave, rocky coasts, fertile prairies, cities of might, villages of quiet, are making America what she is, never too busy to regard the benefits America offers us. This is always what the Fourth must mean—a precious possession to be cherished Every Day.

OKINAWA

Why was the taking of Okinawa so difficult, just an island at the entrance to the East China Sea. Because when Japan was making ready for this war she made of this island a defense that must hold at all costs, since it was one of the home Japanese Islands. After eight weeks of trying to take Okinawa, we have a report of the defense put up by the enemy for that period. It took three American divisions forty-four days to advance 15,000 yards. Navy ships pounded over 25,000 tons of shells into Jap positions in those weeks. In just one night of fighting the Japs hurled up to 10,000 rounds of artillery shells into a 8,000 yard front. The enemy sacrificed over 2,000 airplanes, six warships that we know of, an estimated 50,000 lives. In six weeks the American loss on land and sea fighting for Okinawa was 27,803. And we are asked to take the Okinawa and Iwo Jima in such safe and effortless ways back here at home.

There is the European problem of establishing order over there. There is a food shortage there, a lack of raw materials, political fussing and lots of unemployment.

Poland is a situation, the matter of Trieste a thorn in the Allied side. We almost are tempted to throw up our hands in disgust and say "what's the use." To keep our heads, to iron out policies through leaders, of not giving up hope, of advancing a policy of understanding is the way we will take the Okinawas and Iwo Jimas and hold on to them. We must accept the situation in all of these foreign matters as the soldiers on these Pacific Islands have accepted their jobs, and though under political gunfire, we will keep on fighting the good fight and NOT throw up our hands in despair and hopelessness.

History

As revealed by the files of the Star 17 years ago.

During the Friday rain storm the railroad dump was washed out just north of the city, which left the rails swinging and delayed the passing trains for about three hours while it was being repaired. The break was caused by the onrush of water from the McMan lease—a greater volume than could be carried thru the railroad culvert at this point, and the back water washed the embankment out just above. The washout is said to have been about fifteen feet deep and twenty long.

Mike Begun was in an exceptionally good humor when met by a Star reporter one day this week. He had shown the Rebekah ladies some acts of kindness. Not to be outdone, the ladies made and presented Mike with a nice quilt. "Nothing," he said, could have been given me that would have been more appreciated. Tell the ladies, through the Star, that Mike said so."

R. W. Canada, under sentence of two years for forgery, who escaped from the county jail several weeks ago with Claude Reeves, was recaptured last Saturday in Chatanooga, Okla., and returned to Wichita Falls Saturday night by Dick Morris, deputy sheriff and constable N. P. (Dad) Sanders. Canada will be remembered as the young man who tried to defraud the P. G. Williamson Motor Co., out of a new car.

Reeves was recaptured a few days after the break and since his return has been taken to the penitentiary to start serving an aggregate of 7 1/2 years imprisonment.

Dr. and Mrs. I. D. Russell, who attended the American Medical Association meeting in Indianapolis, Ind., returned home Saturday, reporting a most enjoyable trip.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Harwell and children are spending two weeks in Mineral Wells for a vacation outing.

The splendid new building being erected on East Main Street, to be occupied by the Rexall Drug Store, will receive the finishing touches at the hands of the contractor, in about two weeks. The concrete floor is now undergoing a seasoning period of several days.

Life Saving

Seven days after being wounded in the Saipan invasion, Pfc. Richard F. Morris of Indianapolis, former Red Cross water safety instructor, saved two fellow soldiers from drowning—just in time to stand in review before commanding general.

Sunning himself on the beach at a Central Pacific hospital, he heard cries for help from two soldiers swimming 150 yards off shore. Though still weak from his wound, Morris ripped off his shoes and other clothing, swam out, towed the more helpless of the two in a cross-chest carry and instructed the other in reaching shore.

Watch Out For Summer Diseases

This is the season when dysentery, diarrhea and summer complaint are most prevalent throughout the State, and Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued a warning to parents of young children regarding the prevention of these diseases. The chief causes of these intestinal diseases are impure milk, water and food; allowing a child to become overheated; using too much sugar and cream in the diet; and under or over-feeding.

Dr. Cox said. For the young infant, mother's milk is usually the safest food; however, if other milk must be used, the supply should be clean and pure. Water should be free of impurities, and is safest when boiled and cooled before drinking. All foods should be fresh and clean and left overs should be properly refrigerated to prevent spoilage.

TCU Beauty Is Student Prexy

MISS JOAN GARDNER

First girl to be elected president of the student body in the 72-year history of Texas Christian University, Miss Joan Gardner also ranks tops for beauty and brains. She was selected as one of the 12 campus beauties for the '45 yearbook and will graduate in the top 15 per cent of her class. Senior from Fort Worth, she will receive the degree of Bachelor of Science in Commerce at commencement exercises June 25.

Fixed Laws

Economic laws are laws of nature, rigid. They are divine laws in the same sense that the law of gravity is a law of God. Such laws were in force long before the first man-made statute was ever written, and no natural law was ever repealed by act of parliament. Natural laws can be broken but they all carry within themselves suitable penalties for violation; hard to escape.

Under natural law, every producer earns a profit when he serves the public well; takes a loss when he serves the public poorly. When manipulators, government planners or any other kind, use artificial price controls, they violate natural law. It makes no difference whether the aim is greed or to protect "lame ducks" from loss. Price controls encourage incompetence.

Wheat Price Parity

Claude R. Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture, recently told an audience of wheat growers in St. Paul that U. S. production last year was 1100 million bushels compared to 800 million in a typical prewar year. This is deemed to forecast a post-war over-production of 160 million bushels or more a year. There is a law compelling government to hold up wheat prices for two years after the war.

Taxpayers may as well brace themselves. It is time to start wondering what it's going to cost per bushel to prop up the wheat price and hold it at parity; or what bonus per acre must be paid to non-growers of wheat for not growing wheat. Another wonder: Can the price support be removed after two years or must the taxpayers continue guaranteeing a wheat price indefinitely?

Observe Natural Law

There is an honorable way: Leave each industry's problem for men of that industry to solve. Using wheat as an example, permit the Department of Agriculture to prepare such data as Mr. Wickard gave the farmers and make the figures available to the whole industry. Let the farmers use their own judgment in the light of the facts. They will do a better job than government men, and it will not cost the taxpayers anything.

One advantage is obvious: Men of an industry can consider an industrial problem unblinded by a dust storm of political considerations. Government's proper function is to serve the citizens. Government can get statistics more conveniently than an organization of business men, and government experts undoubtedly can offer valuable interpretations, but interference is not help.

Men Can Think

Business men can understand government figures, interpret them and apply what they have learned. Figures from the Department of Commerce and the Census Bureau have benefited many industries in the past, interpreted by statisticians in the employ of trade associations. If wheat is over-produced one year, bread will be cheap. The next year, wheat men can plan more cautiously.

What did the cotton subsidy do but open the gate for rayon to storm the cotton planter's market? A fictitious wheat price can only bring that industry some similar calamity. It is bad enough to have loyal citizens taxed without mercy to build a false price structure; worse when you know that the result will be to lift a big essential industry off its economic foundation and permanently cripple it.

When first exposing the winter softened skin to the sun, it should be realized that no defense to the sun's burning rays exist. This defense only can be developed gradually by pigmentation, that is, by a slow tanning. Attempt to force this process end in painful sunburn.

The State Health Officer said that the first day's exposure to the summer sun's rays should be limited to no more than fifteen minutes, with gradual increases of time as the skin becomes increasingly pigmented. Those persons who are very fair skinned, and who are unable to suntan normally, should not indulge in sunbathing. Instead of the coveted suntan, they will only acquire a case of sunburn.

Jim Musselman, an American army officer who was captured on Bataan and spent years in a Japanese prisoner-of-war camp, is the son of Charles A. Musselman, veteran field representative of the United War Chest of Texas. He has recently returned, and with him he has brought a tragic story of suffering by Americans forced to become victims of the Nips.

But he has brought home something else—a philosophy developed in those long months of captivity.

Recently, in the midst of a discussion of Jap prison life, his father asked Jim: In all those long months, didn't you ever lose hope?

Jim smiled wanly. Then he replied simply: "No. Those who lost hope died."

Those who lose hope DO die. That is the reason for the National War Fund.

The 22 agencies of the National War Fund are designed to provide both morale aid physical services to our fighting men and their allies the world over, and to aid suffering war victims in liberated countries. But their real job is to prevent loss of hope—loss of confidence, among those who are fighting the war and those who are suffering from ravages of battle.

Without hope, people die. So, if we want a better world—if we want peace to follow victory—we must keep alive the hope that alone can give the world confidence to carry on.

This year, more than ever before, the National War Fund has a great job to do.

Texans continue to win honors wherever they fight, and that is on every battle front.

Pfc. Claude Pool of Austin and Sgt. Boyd Middleton of Rockdale have been awarded Silver Star Medals for battle bravery. Pool distinguished himself by running through heavy fire during the battle of the Cabaruan Hills to reach a disabled tank and turn its 75 millimeter gun against the Japs. Middleton won the medal by crawling through bullet-whipped grass to reach a wounded companion, then rejoined his unit and neutralizing a Jap machine gun displacement.

Lt. Carlisle Plattner of Bastrop was cited for heroic achievement against the Germans just before V-E Day.

Lt. John Thomas, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Thomas of Mansfield and a B-29 bombardier flying from Ainian Island, now is wearing the Air Medal with cluster. He received the award for his part in precedent-shattering low altitude incendiary bombing missions against the Japanese mainland.

And Sgt. Travis C. Harper of Coryell county has won battlefield promotion to the rank of second Lt., as result of bravery and coolness during fighting against the Nazis.

If Texans at home do as well as Texas fighting men abroad, there will be no danger of the Lone Star State falling down on its war bond or war fund quotas.

TWILIGHT TEA AND SHOWER HONORS GENE BROOKSHEAR BRIDE-ELECT OF R. M. ROBINSON

A twilight tea and shower was the courtesy extended Miss Gene Brookshear, bride-elect of Robert M. Robinson on Friday, June 22 at the home of Mrs. Carl J. Morrison with Mesdames O. E. Especially attractive was the unusual flower arrangement, a heart shaped colonial nosegay featuring detached blossoms of Gladioli and sweetpeas. The buffet held a similar heart arrangement flanked by tall white candles in a bed of sweetpeas.

Mrs. J. F. Kelley presented Miss Peggy Dot Busby who sang "God Gave Me You" and "Always" accompanied by Miss Mamie Browning. Miss Norma Lincoln played a violin solo "Csardas" by Monti, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. R. A. Lincoln.

First Baptist Church

Sunday School, 9:45.
Preaching Services, 11.
Training Union, 7:30.
Preaching Services, 8:30.

Last Sunday was a good day for our attendance. Over the 300 mark, quite a bit.

However, last Sunday will not suffice for this Sunday. Will you be in Sunday School Anywhere next Sunday? Surely the day should not go by without you being in the preaching services of one of the churches. There are some churches in town at which you are welcome—Let's find our place, will you?

Our training union attendance was also up some. Which gave us one of the best Sunday night preaching crowds we have had for several Sundays.

How obligated everyone of us are to ourselves to be in the house of the Lord on the Lord's day—that does not mean just Sunday morning—nor just Sunday night. We have a few members who seldom miss the morning services but who never make it back for the evening. We wonder if they are reading the commandment—"Remember The Sabbath Morning." Then, too, there are some who are just a regular for the night, but never feel like getting up for the morning. We wonder if the Lord will not some of these times show these people that if they can take His day for rest, He will give them several days of rest—maybe in the bed sick—etc.

Through the summer months every Christian should strive to be very loyal and faithful to his Sunday School and church services.

Thrice welcome to the First Baptist Church.

ROBINSON-BROOKSHEAR MARRIAGE SOLEMNIZED SUNDAY, JUNE 24th

A double ring ceremony, distinctive in its simplicity, was performed Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Brookshear, of this city, to unite their daughter, Miss Gene Brookshear, and Sgt. Robert M. Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben L. Robinson of Wichita Falls. A. O. Colley, minister of the Church of Christ of Wichita Falls, directed the services at 4 o'clock in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a frock of powder-blue crepe designed with sweetheart neckline and a softly draped skirt. Her accessories were of brown lizard, and she carried a shower of white gardenias atop a white Bible.

Vows were exchanged as the bride and groom stood beneath a beautiful arch entwined with white blossoms and banked with greenery. Flanking the bower were burning white tapers in branched candelabra and spreading arrangements of white gladioli. The musical background was provided by Miss Mary Florence Marrs of Rockdale, Texas, who played the traditional wedding processional and recessional from Wagner and Mendelssohn and also muted interpretations of "Clair de Lune" and Miss Peggy Dot Busby sang "Because". C. A. Geisert of Wichita Falls lighted the candles preceding the ceremony.

Miss Beth Brookshear attended the bride as maid of honor. She was attired in a white frock with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Attending the groom as best man was Homer Garrett of Burkburnett.

Reception

A reception was held in the Brookshear home following the ceremony. Throughout the reception suite and at the handsomely appointed refreshment table were lovely arrangements of mixed spring flowers. Featured at the board was the three-tiered white wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Floyd Marten of Wichita and Miss Jayne Johnson of Ft. Worth presided at the refreshment table, while Miss Francis Wilson of Sherman secured the signatures of the guests for the brides book. Also in the house party was Miss Mary Florence Marrs of Rockdale.

The reception preceded the departure of the couple on a wedding trip to Austin.

"Belle of Yukon"
At Palace Theatre
Sunday-Monday

Headliners in this technicolor musical include Randolph Scott, Gypsy Rose Lee, Dinah Shore and Charles Winninger, Bob Burns, plus the "Yukon Belles."

The action takes place in the little town of Malemute, where Honest John Callhoun (Randolph Scott) is not above a bit of thievery now and then. Miss Lee, as Belle DeValle, arrives with her troupe of Belles and instantly recognizes in Honest John the embers of a former flame. The last time he got away, but this time she is determined to hog-tie him with a marriage license.

Miss Shore is the daughter of Charles Winninger, manager of the local groghouse, and Burns portrays a slick gambler. Hec-tic romance between Miss Lee and Scott plus a more conventional one between Miss Shore and William Marshall alternate with Scott's involved schemes for defrauding the miners of their gold dust and provide the hilarious action.

Guinn "Big Boy" Williams as a dim-witted peace officer, Robert Armstrong as a gambler, Florence Bates, Victor Kilian and other noted players have impor-tant roles. Miss Shores two new and "Like Someone in Love."

Russia

Since the beginning of 1945 I saw a mid-Victorian rig, a horse and buggy, pass an automobile on a graded road. It was not a race. The car was not running. The motorist was out changing a tire. The driver of the rig sat up straight and pressed his horse for a bit of extra speed going by, which was funny. The car owner made the change and drove into town far ahead of the buggy.

Between 1923 and 1938 the United States, the world's outstanding industrial nation of all time, had an industrial depression. Meanwhile the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics was moving forward; not rapidly, but at an increasing rate. In those years it was being transformed from an agricultural to an industrial nation, a stage through which America had passed, half a century before.

A Wind-Broken Nag

Russia was driving a horse named "Central Planning." The rig made an interesting dash for improve-ment; not very fast however, nor very spectacular. Claims made for the animal's speed were funny; cer-tainly not all true. Living condi-tions in Russia were not as high as those in America in the pit of our depression; never have been before nor since. It was a splurge, better than Russia had before, but far below American achievement.

There is nothing new about Cen-tral Planning. It's as old as horse-drawn equipment. Kings, tyrants and dictators have always used the idea. Some have done better with it than others, depending on the ruler. Russia's recent rulers have been anything but stupid. Their military leadership has the world agog. Russia has made a marvel-ous fight, using American equipment extensively.

For National Safety

You would think that Russia, liv-ing next door to an armed desper-ado for 25 years could have ade-quately prepared for war. No; Cen-tral Planning couldn't do it. It took a raid on Pearl Harbor to wake America from a sweet dream of peace, but America went into action with Private Enterprise and, in four years, armed the United Nations for victory. This demonstrates which system is better for national safety.

But war is never America's main objective. We are a peace-loving people and want to work and prosper and live well. Some say that America, in view of Russia's achievements, ought to junk Free Enterprise and adopt Central Plan-ning. Knowing that Russia's achieve-ments have never compared to our own, the suggestion is preposterous. Let's examine the figures of an ex-pert for a moment:

Development Compared

Leopold Schwarzhild, in his re-cent book called "Primer of the Coming World," shows some index figures to make a fair comparison of industrial gains in similar peri-ods—Russia, while at her best in 1928-38, and America in a similar period. Here are three for a sample:

	U.S.S.R.	U.S.A.
Coal Mining	599	1,332
Railroad Building	38	918
Automobiles	129	2,066

The Russian government is an autocracy. One political party controls everything, including newspa-pers and radio, but not more than 2% of the people belong to it. . . . the upper class. Kick up a rumpus about it if you want to go to the salt mines and serve your country for insufficient board and clothes. The system overcomes unemploy-ment, but wages are only one-sixth of wages in America and the stand-ard of living only one-sixth as high. I am in favor of keeping Private Enterprise here.

Mrs. John Brookman left Mon-day afternoon for Santa Cruz, California to visit with relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Burt Matthews left Mon-day for San Francisco to see her brother who has returned from overseas.

Gets Bronze Star

"For his coolness and efficiency in the landing, assembly and as-signment of his casual com-mand," Major William H. Parks was recently awarded the Bronze Star Medal. Parks went overseas in April, 1943. Prior to his mili-tary service, Major Parks was employed as Southeast Texas sales representative for the Quaker Oats Co. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. King and a sister, Mrs. Hazel Sides, reside in Terrell. His wife, Mrs. Lucille Parks, a native of Burkburnett, now makes her home here.

Mrs. J. C. Adams visited her son, Cpl. J. C. Adams and fam-ily in San Antonio last week. She also visited Mrs. Matthews and daughter, Margaret, of that city. While there, Mrs. D. R. Peevey, of Austin, formerly of Burkbur-nett, also visited in the Matthews home.

This thrilling war film at the Palace Theatre Tuesday, July 3rd, celebrates the heroism of the K-9 Army Corps. War dogs have contributed their share in the Pacific war where they were used to hunt down Jap Snipers in the jungles on every island attacked by our forces.

Carrol Chapman, who is station-ed at Norman, Okla., visited his parents over the weekend.

Edward Bankhead visited his parents over the weekend. He is stationed at Corpus Christi.

Mrs. J. C. Underwood of Rus-sell, Kansas, spent a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ferguson.

Flagpole No Obstacle For Tyler & Sons

Raising or lowering flagpoles is all in the day's work for W. J. Tyler & Sons. It was their pulling machine which was used when the pole back of the Clinic was lowered recently under the direction of Pop Hood.

The Burkburnett job was not the first one for Mr. Tyler and his boys. Recently when it be-came necessary to lower and then again raise the flagpole at the Boy Scout Camp on Perkins Farm, Mr. Tyler was employed to do it because of his experi-ence in such operations.

Mr. Tyler has made his home in Burkburnett since 1919.

Relic of Ancient Battle of Wits Instead of Weapons

One competition held during the annual literary congress in Wales is believed to be the last relic of those ancient contests in which heroes fought with their wits instead of weapons, says Collier's. A poet attempts to sing a pennill, or improvised verse, to a tune played by a harpist, who introduces unique variations to confuse the singer and also frequently ends the music unexpectedly to catch him in the middle of a sentence.

Reconversion No Great Obstacle to Industry

Many Factories Making Consumers Goods For Services; Numerous Others to Require Only Minor Changes.

By BAUKHAGE

WNU Service, Union Trust Building, Washington, D. C. Reconversion has begun and it looks as if one prediction, made back when conversion had been accomplished with many an ache and groan, would come true. Then the experts predicted that reconversion would be easier than conversion. Eighty per cent of the factories, we are now told by officials of the department of commerce, will not have to do a major reconversion job. This is largely because many industries now furnishing supplies to the military will continue to manufacture the same supplies for civilians—clothing, food, printing, electrical appliances—you can think of a whole lot of others yourself. It will be no great problem for the makers of such products to shift from one market to another—from Uncle Sam to John Q. Consumer.

Some industries whose present final product differs considerably from the civilian goods they make won't have such major difficulties either. It will please the ladies to learn that even the folks who have been making parachutes will have little or no trouble changing back to stockings. The nylon people simply have to change spools. There are a number of other predictions concerning the future of businesses, big and little, and one of them is that 40 per cent of the industries, although they won't do the business they are doing today with Uncle Sam as a customer, will have a bigger demand to meet than they had in the boom year of 1929. And this condition will continue, say the prophets of profits, for two or three years on the impetus of the present pent-up buying power of the nation. If we keep our heads meanwhile, there is no reason why the period of prosperity cannot be extended.

But what about the other types of business which were expanded by war demands for products which we won't have any civilian market? Well, our American business ingenuity and our native mechanical inventiveness, they tell us, are going to step into the picture again. Then there will be the natural evolution which will eliminate the below-average business man and establish a survival of the fittest.

Yankee Ingenuity To the Fore What started me off on this topic was a typical example of how this inventive genius, stimulated by war demands, has laid the foundation for turning what started as a little two-room factory into a big, small-town business. The man with the inventive genius is a frequent Washington visitor these days. His name is Burl E. Sherrill. The name of the town is Peru, Ind., population 13,000. Sherrill is a modest Hoosier genius in his forties who managed to make a living from tinkering and selling the patents on the gadgets he invented. Then one day he made something he liked so well he didn't want to part with the idea behind it, so he decided to manufacture it himself. It was a popular-priced magnetic compass for use in steel-bodied automobiles and trucks. Sherrill rented three offices right on the public square of Peru, turned them into his factory and started out. Soon he began to expand, pushing lawyers, doctors, real estate men out of the way. But I am getting ahead of my story.

Sherrill was a born inventor, although he didn't realize it and started off to study law. After two years at the University of Chicago he found that his hunger for the law was appeased, his hunger for three meals a day was not. He went to work managing a little neighborhood shoe store in Chicago. This gave him a chance to tinker in the kitchen-laboratory in his flat. Then he got a chance at a job back in Indiana—repairing radios in Peru. This gave him lots of opportunity to tinker and he patented inventions and sold them, which bolstered his income considerably. Finally he evolved the compass which he wouldn't part with. He was able to hire a small staff of workers—then came the war and no more civilian autos.

But there were lots of military vehicles and after our blind tanks had lost themselves in the African des-

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for July 1

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

GOD'S JOY IN CREATION

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 1:1-5, 10-12, 15-18, 26, 27, 31. GOLDEN TEXT—God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good.—Genesis 1:31.

The destiny of this world seems to be in the balances in our day with wicked men ruthlessly trying to destroy that which is good and upright. We are deeply concerned in our hearts that the right should triumph and that a just and righteous peace should come. In such a day it is good to remind ourselves, as we will in our three-month series of studies in Genesis, that man did not make this world, nor is it the product of natural forces. God made it. God, who is eternal, infinite, and knows all from the beginning, is not moved by the impulses of the moment nor staggered by the catastrophes of a day. He made the world. He made man. He had a plan for them, and still has a plan which He will in due season work out for His own glory.

I. God Made Heaven and Earth (vv. 1-5, 10-12, 16-18). The biblical account of creation—"In the beginning God"—stands as a dignified, satisfactory, intelligent explanation of the origin of things, and in bold contrast to the confusing and almost unbelievable theories of men. The best of scientists admit that they know nothing of the origin of things, and some say that they never will know. The answer to this query, with which every human philosophy opens, is the affirmation with which the divine account in Genesis opens—"In the beginning God."

Space forbids full discussion of the account of creation, but a study of it will reveal its beautiful order, symmetry, and completeness. Compare that orderly account with the absurdities of the ancient human cosmogonies, and you have a new regard for Scripture.

II. God Made Man in His Own Image (vv. 26, 27). Although man has often so de-based himself by sin and disobedience to God that it seems almost unbelievable, it is nevertheless true that he was made in the likeness and image of God. Because that is true, we never give up hope for him. Because of that image, no matter how deeply defaced by sin, man still may be touched by redeeming grace and restored to fellowship with God.

The likeness and image of God in man refers to a moral and spiritual likeness. Man is a living soul with intelligence, feeling and will. He is a moral being, knowing the difference between right and wrong. He is a self-conscious, personal being. To man God gave dominion over the earth and all its potential powers. Sometimes one has been hopeful that man was making good progress in the development of the earth's resources for his own good and the glory of God. But one is sad to see how he has used this great God-given opportunity for destruction and death. Only a revival of real Christianity can bring him back to his senses. Let us pray and work for it.

Observe that the family was established as the center of man's life on earth, as God gave him a "help meet unto him." Woman was taken "not out of man's head that she should rule over him; nor out of his feet to be trampled upon; but out of his side to be equal with him, under his arm to be protected by him, and near his heart to be loved by him" (Matthew Henry).

The decay of family life and the modern substitution of social and civic units as the basis of life have led to disastrous results, one of which is juvenile delinquency. Not only do we need a revival of religion, we also need a revival of the home life of the nation.

III. God Made All Things Well (v. 31). When men do recognize the hand of God in creation, they often seem to feel that what He made was rather limited and defective. It would almost seem that God should be grateful that man has been so clever about perfecting His work, developing it and making it useful.

As a matter of fact, God, who had all knowledge and whose standards are higher than man's standards could possibly be, looked over His creation and "behold, it was very good" (v. 31). It was a "finished" job (2:1).

Man has destroyed much of creation's beauty. Sin came in and marred it. What man's inventive cleverness has developed of the possibilities of this world is only a minute fraction of what is yet available. Instead of boasting, man might well be distressed at the pathetic slowness with which he has "thought God's thoughts after Him."

Instead of fighting and destroying, he ought to give his energies to building, developing, and above all, to loving God with all his heart and his neighbor as himself (Matt. 22:37-40).

Christian Science Services

"Christian Science" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 1.

The Golden Text is: "Lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees; and make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed" (Hebrew 12:12, 13).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee" (Isaiah 60:1).

The Lesson Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "As time moves on, the healing elements of pure Christianity will be fairly dealt with; they will be sought and taught, and will glow in all the grandeur of universal goodness" (page 329.)

Grace Lutheran Church

The Christian religion has been assailed times without number, but no man has been able to offer anything substantial or tangible in its place. It has been, is, and ever will be the greatest balm and source of comfort to mankind. It greets us at the cradle, sustains us through a troublous life, and its gentle and merciful ministrations enable us to face the end with hope, with courage and with fortitude. In Christ and the Christian religion rests the hope of mankind.

Put Christianity to a test! Attend Church next Sunday and do your part toward the building of a better world!
