Two Nursery Departments at Baptist Church

Beginning this Sunday the First Baptist Church Sunday School will have two Nursery departments. Nursery I with Mrs. J. F. Kelley as superintendent will be for babies in beds and toddlers. It is located on the second floor of the educational section. Nursery II with Mrs. W. A. Minick as superintendent will be for little children ages 2 and 3.

Toddlers in Nursery I and all children in Nursery II will have a class where they will be taught.

Nursery I will have beds for the babies. They will have clean linens that will be changed after every time used. There will be a play pen and an ample supply of sheets, safety pins, talcum powder, baby oil, a bottle warmer, sanitary toys suitable for tiny hands, and all other things necessary to give the baby the best of attention.

Each worker in this department will be asked to wear a white uniform. These will be furnished and laundered by the church.

Both nursery rooms are being repainted. They will be covered with linoleum from wall to wall and this linoleum mopped with disinfectant. Each room is equipped with a germicidal lamp. This floods that room with ultraviolet rays, killing air borne bacteria.

Special effort is being made this week to have a great number of babies and little children present this Sunday in these two departments. Arrangements have been made to take moving pictures of all those attending. Pictures will be taken at about 10:00 A. M.

Take Fair Curios To Adams Drug

man from the Burkburnett Garden Club for Curios, relics and antiques, to be entered in the Iowa Park Fair, is asking all

Burkburnett's fighting Bulldogs will meet the strong team from Valley View here at Bulldog Stadium Friday night. The game is called at 8:00 o'clock.

With a defeat chalked up against the local team in the first conference game with Iowa Park last Friday night, the team will be in much better condition for the second conference tilt. The local team is inexperienced, but with each contest they are improving fast.

Plenty of tickets on sale at the gate Friday night. Grandstand seats for every fan.

New Metal Street Markers Arrived For Entire City

In the very near future Burk-burnett citizens will be proud of new metal street markers for every intersection in town.
The signs, on order since the first of the year, arrived this week. The letters and numbers are black on a white background, bordered in black. Each complete sign has four plates, held in place by brackets to make a beautiful, compact, lifetime marker. Plates are 18 in. long, six inches wide, with letters 3 1-2 inches high.

No city can boast of more beautiful or durable markers.
In the past, it was next to impossible to direct strangers in our city. Very few streets were marked, and too few homes display numbers.

Members of the Burkburnett Lions Club purchased the signs with proceeds of a Negro Minstrel. Cost of each sign is slightly more than $7.00. The City will furnish two inch metal posts and erect the signs in the next few days. City Manager P.
A. Wiggins was so proud of the markers that he had one erected on the corner at the Methodist church the same day they arrived.

C. R. Chambers At El Paso Meet

C. R. Chambers of Burkburnett will attend the annual conference of the League of Texas Municipalities in El Paso from October 4th to 6th.

On the convention agenda in the far West Texas metropolis will be the need of cities for a greater share in revenue now paid by city dwellers to the state.

Mayor Dan Ponder of El Paso has proposed that the State turn back to the municipalities a direct proportion of funds collected from the sale of automobile licenses and from gasoline taxes.

The state will be asked to authorize funds for emergency public housing and to bear at least part of the right-of-way costs of its urban highway projects.

Also in the program will be a move to allow the sale of liquor by the drink on a county option basis; to provide that county governments should participate proportionately in the construction and maintenance of city streets; to permit insurance companies to construct low cost public housing projects in Texas; and to give the cities free rein in levying occupation taxes.

NOTE—The above release was sent in from El Paso. Locally
we are informed that Mrs.
Chambers will accompany her husband, also Mr. and Mrs. P.
A. Wiggins will be in attendance. Mr. Chambers will attend lectures on tax assessing and collecting, while Mr. Wiggins will attend City Managers' lectures.

First Wax Polishing In 500 Years

ST. AUGUSTINE, FLA.—Look at the shine on the shell of this 500-year-old Galapagos Island tortoise. It's the first cleaning and polishing the old boy has received in his lifetime. Note the dull shells in the foreground as contrasted to the one which has been polished with liquid wax. These tortoises are believed to be the oldest in the world.
The Galapagos tortoises are desert dwellers in their native islands and do not care for water.

Giant Double Wheel Ready to Startle State Fair Visitors

portable ride ever seen in the South, will be introduced las, Oct. 9-24. Both wheels rotate independently as they chase each other up around in the sky. Other spectacular rides at the Fair this year include the Hurricane, Hi-Ball and $100,000 Roller Coaster.

We Had It Coming

A famous Briton says that England has reached its all-time low, in the opinion of the majority of nations. We can't say as to this, but we do know that Britons have changed their opinion and attitude about Americans. Citizens, who have recently visited there, assure us there is a decided difference and — in our favor. There are probably a lot of the British who would debate this, but, on the whole, we are favored. The idea of a generation or so ago, that Americans were principally gangsters, Indians, cowboys, were crude, money-grabbing citizens, has altered. It is said, where we used to be ridiculed for our "American speech", returning visitors from England, say that many Britons are imitating our manner of speaking. So it appears that we are credited for progress in economy, culture and position. As a Burkburnett man says, "It's about time."

Not Over Yet

Chickens shouldn't be counted until they are hatched and a presidential election that seems won in October can be lost in November. There is a strong conviction that the Republican candidate is going to get the enjoyment of that new porch at the White House. But, all is not clear on the political horizon. The "Dixie Rebellion" didn't cause the split that was earlier expected. Seasoned observers say farmers are inclined to support the party in power, as long as farm prices are up, but agricultural states are reputedly Republican. Previously, organized labor threatened to desert the Democratic party, but the strongest groups in labor today, have chosen to "stick." Neither side can be assured of a victory and we here in Burkburnett feel that both parties had better be stoking the locomotive for full steam ahead.

Maybe It's Just Habit

During the war when clothing manufacturers were making cuffless trousers, there was also difficulty in buying suits with vests. Came the return to cuffs, but what happened to the vests? Double-breasted suits can carry along but the single-breasted suit needs the vest, the constructive buyer believes. Or, perhaps it has just become a habit. A certain line of men's suits, today advertises them as "vestless", indicating this is fashionable. Some Burkburnett men don't feel well-dressed without a vest, find the vest affords them more warmth in winter and, best of all, makes wonderful storage space for check-book, glasses, watch, pencils, pen, notebooks, and so forth. Free and easy may be the vestless look, sort of a careless nonchalance, but we are of the school of thought that feels a fellow can't ever be a man of distinction unless his suit includes the vest.

AROUND THE HOUSE

On washdays wear an oilcloth apron made of an old tablecloth. This keeps you dry from neck to hem. If there is enough material, you can make a matching bag in which to carry clothespins.

Baked apples served a la mode make a party dessert. Put vanilla ice cream on a warm half of the baked apple.

When making jellies and preserves, keep a small saucer on the side of the stove to hold the spoon after stirring the mixture. If rested on the stove the sirup frequently bakes to the stove and this hardened mass is difficult to remove.

Convenient storage place for playthings for the convalescent child is a fabric shoe bag which can be hung beside the bed. Crayons, pencils, scissors and paper fit easily into the shoe pockets.

Put a sponge in a bowl of left-over starch and let it absorb the starch. Then when you have a petticoat ruffle that needs a bit of starch, dampen the sponge and squeeze the sponge into water for sufficient starch.

If one key in an otherwise well-behaved piano suddenly refuses to play, don't send for the repairman. First, look inside the instrument to see if, as so often happens, some small object has fallen on the strings.

Nearly all of the farmers who operate the more than 150,000 farms in Kansas grow one or more crops for export and benefit directly from foreign trade, according to a United States State Department report.

The report cites Cuba's importance as a purchaser of this country's farm and other products and comments that under the stimulus of the Reciprocal Trade Agreements program, Cuba's imports of wheat flour from the United States increased from $2,935,000 in 1933 to $5,383,000 in 1938, or about 83 per cent.

Rathke - Kaspar Nuptials Solemnized Sunday Evening

The Trinity Lutheran Church of Clara was the scene Sunday of the impressive twilight ceremony solemnized to unite Miss Mildred Kaspar and Mr. Rudolph Rathke in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Kaspar of Clara and the groom is the son of Mrs. John Rathke of Wichita Falls. Rev. H. Leimer, pastor, officiated.

The central decorative scheme of the nuptial setting featured beautiful arrangements of white chrysanthemums and gladioli. Series of graduated candelabra, bearing lighted cathedral tapers, flanked the altar and extended to the base of the chancel. The candelabra were linked with garlands of greenery and interspersed with smaller arrangements of chosen white blossoms.

As wedding guests assembled in the church, Rev. C. M. Beyler, organist, played the pre-nuptial concert and wedding march and accompanied Vincent Engleman as he sang "O Perfect Love," and "The Lord's Prayer." During the ceremony he played a muted interpretation of "Traumeri" and remained at the organ console to provide the recessional.

The candles were lighted by Donnis Kaspar, brother of the bride. Miss Dolores Kaspar was maid of honor for the bride. She was attired in a blue faille taffeta frock designed with sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves, fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. She also wore long blue net mitts and carried a fan-shaped bouquet of bronze and gold chrysanthemums.

Misses Marcella Engelman of San Antonio, Elizabeth Rathke, Helen Ruth Rathke and Louise Rathke all of Wichita Falls were bridesmaids. They were attired in toast net frocks fashioned over blue taffeta and designed with rounded necklines, cap sleeves, basque bodice, and bouffant skirts. The skirts featured circular skirt yokes accentuated at the hiplines with wide shirring. They wore long mitts and carried fan-shaped bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums with blue ribbon and lace shower.

Attending the groom were Henry Rathke of Wichita Falls, as best man and Fain Kaspar of Clara; Louis Krottinger, Herbert Holtzen of Wichita Falls, and Bill Danner of Fort Worth as ushers.

Lovely Bride

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a Maurer original gown of white slipper satin. The gown was designed with sweetheart neckline, closely fitted bodice finished with petal point trim to match the long sleeves which were trimmed with self covered buttons. The softly gathered skirt extended into a formal-length train. Her finger-tip veil of imported French illusion was attached to a halo headdress trimmed with clusters of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis blossoms.

The bride's parents were host and hostess for a formal reception held in their home to honor the bride and groom. For the occasion the reception room featured an all white decorative theme with beautiful arrangements of chrysanthemums used at vantage points.

Other members of the house party were Miss Carolyn Kaspar of Dallas, who attended the bride's book; Mesdames O. H. Kaspar and H. C. McAmis who presided at the punch bowls and Miss Virginia McCormick and Miss Marie Rathke who served the wedding cake.

Popular Couple

The bride is a graduate of Burk Burnett High School and attended Port Arthur College in Port Arthur. Recently she has been employed in Wichita Falls with the Texas Company.

The groom is a veteran of World War II, having served three years overseas in the army signal corps in the European Theatre. At present he is employed in Fort Worth with Consolidated.

Mr. and Mrs. Rathke departed from the reception for a honeymoon trip to South Texas and Mexico. The bride chose to travel in a smart coffee brown gabardine suit designed by Frechtel, with harmonizing blouse and other accessories of a deeper brown shade. She completed the ensemble with a gardenia corsage. They plan to return to Fort Worth to establish residence.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS Indian Troops Invade Hyderabad, Endanger Country's Shaky Peace; Russia Confuses Crisis in Berlin

By Bill Schoentgen, WNU Staff Writer

INVASION: Hyderabad

Events in India were a far cry from the days when Mohandas Gandhi's philosophy of passive diplomacy prevailed among the affairs of that sub-continent.

Indian troops, strongly supported by armored units, had invaded the princely state of Hyderabad (see map) whose Moslem ruler—called the Nizam—had refused to join with the other Indian dominions even though Hyderabad's population is predominantly Hindu.

THAT WAS THE whole story. The Nizam and his small, compact Moslem court would not agree to follow the other Indian princely states in acceding to the Dominion of India which was established last year.

The Nizam, often called the richest man in the world, and the only surviving heir of the great Mogul empire, wanted to rule an independent Hyderabad.

Whether he could have succeeded in doing that, even if the dominion government had not opened hostilities against him, is questionable. Hyderabad is completely landlocked and has no access to the sea except by courtesy of the states surrounding it. All of its imports and exports, therefore, must pass through India.

WHILE HYDERABAD might profess its independence as a state, chances are that the economic and political conditions of actual independence never could be achieved.

Can India's invasion of Hyderabad be justified? Not too easily, if at all. It was not a matter of sending a police force into the state to quell internal disorders. It was, apparently, a deliberate act of aggression and as such should go before the U. N. Security Council for judgment.

From a practical standpoint there was not only no need for the invasion but there is an actual danger involved. There are no linguistic or racial differences between Hyderabad's Hindus and the Hindus of adjacent states. The boundaries of Hyderabad are arbitrary and historical, not dependent upon the geography of the vicinity.

INDIA MIGHT have refrained from pushing the issue for a year or two, pending a peaceful settlement.

The potential danger lies in two phases of the situation:

1. THE HYDERABAD war might prove to be the factor that will precipitate violent conflict between Hindu and Moslem Pakistan, whose more or less peaceful relations now are strained and uneasy.

2. IT IS A BLOW to the British Commonwealth, to which both India and Pakistan still belong. With the Russians acting the way they are, any disturbance of the delicate balance of power that still prevails in the East could bring still another catastrophe down upon the world.

RUSSIANS: Fantastic

Not even the most starry-eyed Pollyanna could deny that the U. S.-Soviet fracas over Berlin was downright fantastic and getting more so every day.

The whole thing simply had stopped making sense, even to many of the diplomats who were embroiled in the situation.

WHAT CHANCE was there for any logical kind of peace when, even while western diplomats were in Moscow attempting to work out a formula with Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov, the Russians in Berlin were inciting riots, kidnapping western sector policemen and firing on American planes engaged in the airlift?

One complication was being piled on top of another, with the ensuing result that any possibility of a peace-

THICKER THAN FLIES

Russia Is Well Supplied With Manpower

Russia and the Soviet satellites are appallingly well supplied with manpower for military purposes, according to official estimates in Washington.

The Last Mogul

Sir Mir Osman Ali Khan, sometimes called the richest man in the world, is the Nizam of Hyderabad, land-locked princely state in India which was attacked by India's dominion troops.

ful solution was getting buried deeper and deeper.

That all this confusion was being fostered deliberately by the Soviets was quite evident. Their purpose for so doing was more obscure.

THE RUSSIANS want full control of Berlin, taking that as their immediate objective. Ultimately they want to force American occupation troops completely out of Germany, after which Russia could take over the great German industrial potential, including the inestimably valuable Ruhr section.

However, there might be still another reason for this display of Soviet diplomatic aggression which was planned almost a year ago to erupt this fall.

The Russians might be trying to harass the western nations to the point where the entire Berlin issue will be dumped in the lap of the United Nations. Once the crisis comes under U. N. jurisdiction the Russians might plan to use the inevitable squabble as a pretext for resigning from the world organization and taking their satellite states with them.

THE EAST-WEST split into two opposing power spheres then would be complete. Moreover, the U. N. itself probably would be reduced to total impotency in guiding international affairs.

And the question of whether the Soviet Union is entertaining motives like these might be answered by the end of the year. For the western nations were determined that if they didn't get some satisfaction from Moscow soon they would arraign Russia before the United Nations this fall.

COTTON: Lift Dat Bale

With the largest cotton crop since 1937 being harvested this year, Uncle Sam is making ready to stage a comeback in the cotton buying business.

Of the 15,219,000 bales to come off the land, the cotton trade estimates that about a third will go into storage under federal loan.

TWENTY-ONE MILLION people in the United States depend on cotton for their livelihood, and the fate of the cotton crop, therefore, is not only a personal but a national concern.

The federal government is coming into the picture because cotton prices are coming down. They have reached 31.04 cents a pound, which is pretty close to the support floor of 30.74 cents.

Here's what happens: WHEN THE COTTON grower hauls his crop to the warehouse he gets a receipt for it, and then he either sells the cotton at the market price or accepts the government's standing offer to lend him money on it.

If he chooses to accept the loan, he is paid 30.74 cents a pound on the average—the exact price depending on the kind and quality of the cotton.

Then he is free, for one year, to sell the cotton for more money, provided the price goes up. If he doesn't sell it within a year the government becomes owner of the crop.

PROBABLE EFFECT of this operation will be to keep a lot of cotton off the market this year, thus preventing the price from dropping through the support floor. Also, it will result in the government's ending the year with several million bales of cotton on its hands.

BIG FOUR: Or Little 14?

The U. S. government's spectacular suit against the "big four" meat packing companies—Swift, Armour, Cudahy and Wilson—promised to be one of the biggest anti-trust actions since President Theodore Roosevelt said something about carrying a big stick.

Filed by the justice department in federal court in Chicago, the suit asks that the four companies be broken up into 14 separate firms. Specifically, the U. S. wants Swift and Armour to be carved into five separate companies each and Wilson and Cudahy each to be split into two firms.

TOM CLARK, attorney general, said in a statement: "The four defendants named in the complaint are charged with suppressing competition in the sale of meat and meat products." The Sherman anti-trust law is being invoked in the action.

Clark described the suit as "another in a series of cases instituted by the department of justice in furtherance of its program to free the production and sale of food and food products from monopolistic restraints."

THE PACKERS had another story to tell, however, with "playing politics" as one of their key phrases.

Said John Holmes, president of Swift and Armour: "It is significant that the charges appear at the beginning of this fall's political campaign. Apparently an attempt is being made to shift responsibility for inflationary price trends.

"No one can control either livestock prices or meat prices," Holmes fumed.

INFRA-RED: Frost Killer

The day—or night—of the old-fashioned smudge pot as the main buffer between plants and killing frost may be nearing an end.

Science has taken over to come up with a new kind of frost killer, development of which was sponsored by the American Iron and Steel Institute.

THE CONTRAPTION, known as the Plymouth infra-red lamp, is in a fair way to affect materially the nation's agricultural system, the institute thinks.

Reporting on the new device, the institute pointed out that while farmers will find the lamp invaluable in saving crops during the first touches of frost, the growing season actually may be extended as techniques for its use are developed.

Dr. Arthur W. Farrell of Michigan State college, one of the men responsible for development of the infra-red machine, cited an example: "On September 2, 1946, to take one example, Michigan had a two-hour killing frost. The next frost did not occur until October 1, a month later. Had tomato and melon growers been able to protect their crops for about two hours on the morning of September 2, they would have had four more weeks of very favorable growing weather. As it was, they lost everything.

"THE FROST dispeller, made up of sheet steel and a little ingenuity, will put an end to some of nature's nonsense."

The lamp is composed of a circular piece of stainless steel, shaped in cone-shaped steps, with an oil burner within the framework. When the burner is put into action, the steel heats until it becomes cherry-red. At this point, infra-red rays are thrown off, spreading over the area to be warmed, even entering the ground in their intensity.

Too Many Farmers?

WHY, with the increased demand for farm products and the fact that farming is more prosperous than ever before in its history, is there a continual and rapid decrease in farm population?

The bureau of agricultural economics in answer to that question told this reporter that the basic reason is simply that there are too many farmers. As a matter of fact, the farmers can do the job they are doing with many less farmers than there are today.

Actual farm population of the country as of January 1 this year was 27,439,000 which is a decrease of three million since 1940. So in seven years there was a migration of three million persons away from the farms and to the cities.

Even so, there are still more than enough farmers to do the gigantic job of production which has been asked of the farmers of the nation, for one out of every three adult persons who live on farms has either a part-time or full-time job in the cities and towns.

In 1944 which was one of the peak years of farm production there were only 25,630,000 persons living on farms, the main reason being that the young men had gone to war.

There simply isn't room enough or work enough on the farms to take up the population born on farms. Farm population would double itself in a generation. The birth rate in the rural areas is 19.1 as compared to 17.1 in urban areas to every 1,000.

For three decades, technological development, increased yields per acre despite rapid population increases of the nation as a whole and consequent increased demands for more food, have brought about a trend of migration away from the farms. And were it not for the higher standard of living brought about by the advent of electricity and other conveniences on farms, this migration would be even more rapid than it is today.

Machine and power tools, better housing and schools, the automobile—all have been a deterrent to prevent this out-farm movement, but it hasn't been enough and the simple fact remains that the nation still could do with fewer farmers and still produce sufficient quantities of food to feed the country and part of the world.

Even back in 1930 when there were not many jobs in cities, one out of seven farmers went to the cities to work. In 1940 one out of five farmers worked in cities and towns and as pointed out above, today one out of three adults make their living or part of it working off the farms. While this migration has been mostly from the smaller and less economically prosperous farms, even on large commercial farms and the better family-size farms the ratio of adults working in the cities holds good.

Cabinet Post

Many of the political dopsters here say that the next secretary of agriculture, if Governor Dewey is elected, will be Congressman Clifford Hope of Kansas, chairman of the house agricultural committee.

Probably standing head and shoulders above Congressman Hope as a statesman is Sen. George D. Aiken (Rep., Vt.), who will head the senate agricultural committee in the 81st congress, and who is author of the new long-range farm bill. But Senator Aiken is too independent and too liberal.

This column predicts the next secretary of agriculture, provided, of course, Dewey is the choice of the people, will be someone like Milton Eisenhower, president of Kansas State college and brother of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower.

Farm Co-ops Grow

Despite fights being made on farm co-ops by some politicians, membership in the past year has increased by 400,000 to 5,436,000 members according to the co-op research and service division of the farm credit administration. Business of the 10,125 co-ops increased 16 per cent to $7,116,000,000 for the year. Sixty per cent of the business was in the 10 states of California, Minnesota, Illinois, Iowa, New York, Wisconsin, Ohio, Missouri, Indiana and Washington.

All-Time Best Seller

Lesson for October 3, 1948

IF ALL the Bibles sold in one year by one manufacturer, the American Bible society, were piled on top of one another, flat—not endwise—that pile of Bibles and testaments would be 26 miles high. In 1947 that firm put out the astonishing total of 9,310,439 Bibles, testaments or portions. During the first 125 years of the society's existence, 305,579,217 copies of Scripture were printed and sold by them, this would make one shelf 870 miles long.

The Bible is the best selling book in the world. No other book is in its class.

Not to know the Bible is not to know the most widely read book in the world. The American Bible society publishes it in only 167 languages, but parts of it have been translated into as many as 1,000 languages and dialects.

Many Authors

SUCH popularity must be deserved. There are many reasons why the Bible continues to be, year after year, the all-time best seller. But one of the reasons is its impressive variety. It is not one book, it is a library of books. Whatever your mood, whatever your need, there is a page in the Bible, somewhere, for you.

A Christian will try seriously to appreciate the whole Bible and not merely one or two parts of it. Yet there is such variety in it that invariably some persons are attracted by one feature of it while another feature makes stronger appeal to others.

Our studies these next three months will be in "The Literature of the Bible" and each week we shall be noticing a different feature. This week we give a thought to the tremendous variety of the Bible, along with its underlying unity.

Many Types

LOOKING through the Bible you find all varieties of literary types; you find poetry and prose; stories, essays, sermons, biographies, dramas; rhapsodies, love songs, funeral dirges and battle hymns.

Here are pages as prosaic as a telephone book and here are pages more exciting than any fiction. Here are simple, straightforward ideas that a child can understand as soon as he understands the words and here are mysteries so profound that the world's mightiest and boldest minds shrink back in awe.

The Bible is not like a piece of music played on one single instrument, like a tune on a piccolo; it is more like an immense symphony—the more often we listen to it, the more we hear in it.

Many Times

NO ONE knows exactly how long it took for the Bible to be written. Let us suppose that the earliest parts came from the pen (or stylus) of Moses, and the latest part from about 100 years after Christ (John and the Revelation). If Moses flourished around 1200 B. C., that would mean that the Bible was completed 13 centuries after it was begun.

In 13 centuries much can happen, and much did. There is hardly any circumstance or crisis, there is scarcely any time, however humdrum or thrilling, which does not have its match in the Bible. Its writers were inspired men; they knew God. But they also knew the times in which they lived, and thus can speak to ours.

One Theme

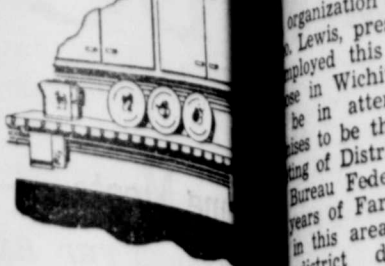

FOR all the vast variety of the Bible, there is in it a deep and lofty unity. It is bound together by its mighty purpose, which throbbled in the heart's blood of every man who wrote a line of it. That purpose is to make God real to man, and to bring man to God. The writers of the Bible may have had their lighter moments, but they did not write these pages then.

They wrote under the irresistible impulse, born of the Holy Spirit, to make plain to other men what God had revealed to them.

So as you come to the Bible, remember its purpose is not to make you admire or revere it as a book; its great purpose is to be transparent, a window through which you shall see God.

Modern life with its hurry and very irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and alcohol—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter wastes and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, pricking or stinging leg pains, swelling—feet, ankles, face, tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are spots, times burning, acidity or too frequent urination.

"Farm prices have dropped 30 per cent in the past nine months, and farmers' buying power has been reduced 18

Texhoma Offers Good Fishing

The cool north winds that swept Texomaland during the first days of September bore the promise of good news for fishermen.

Based on past experience, the fall months on Lake Texoma are among the best fishing months of the year.

Last year fishing on Texhoma was excellent from the time the water started cooling off until shortly after Christmas when the severe winter weather came.

The cool winds early in September have not yet started cooling Texhoma's waters perceptibly, but experts are saying, "It won't be long now."

Lakeside observers report that black bass and crappie already are biting better than they were during the summer. Sand bass catches are about the same. Fishermen who know how to fish for channel cat have reported uniformly good luck throughout the year.

Sportsmen in Texoma Land are turning their thoughts more to hunting. Dove hunting on the Oklahoma side of the Lake has been outstandingly good, and indications are that duck hunting will be good on both sides of the lake.

Chick Chats

(By Clark Gresham)

A NEW DRUG PUTS HEX ON WORMS

Up until recently, poultry tapeworms have been a considerable problem — especially in regard to removal. This is not to say that they are no longer a problem, for they are. Poultry raisers in many parts of the nation have been troubled by tapeworms for years, and absolute control over them will be a long time coming, if it ever arrives.

However, a new discovery has made it possible to achieve a much stricter control over chicken tapeworms than has ever before been possible. This discovery is hexachlorophene, a new drug that is highly effective in removing certain troublesome species of chicken tapeworms, heads and all.

Hexachlorophene is not being used by itself to remove tapeworms. In combination with nicotine and phenothiazine, roundworm and ceal worm-removers respectively, the new drug is available to poultry-raisers in a tablet that removes all three kinds of worms.

The action of hexachlorophene is so efficient that it is said to remove 95-100 per cent of the tapeworms of the species affected. These species are three very common and destructive ones, occurring in chickens. Work has not been completed concerning the effect of hexachlorophene on other species of tapeworms.

Previously, tapeworm removers have been efficient only in getting parts of the worms. Tapeworms, as you may know, are made up of a head and segments. Up to now, wormers have succeeded only in removing segments, often leaving the head clinging to the bird's intestinal wall, where it would continue to bud off new segments.

Now, hexachlorophene removes "heads" and all, thus ridding the bird of the entire trouble-making organism. Where there is no head, there can be no tapeworm.

Of course, treatment with tablets containing hexachlorophene is only one portion of the complete tapeworm control program. Other steps that must be taken to control tapeworms include control of intermediate hosts (flies, beetles, grasshoppers, etc.) and thorough-going sanitation in keeping poultry house and yard clean, especially.

New Testament Church

There are many scriptures in the New Testament that all innovations in the work and worship of the church. The use of mechanical instruments of music in such an innovation, and, as such, should be by all people who respect God's word and who for the New Testament church.

Matthew 15:9, Jesus said, "In vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrine the commandments of men." Music in worship is not a commandment of the church; it is a commandment of men, and contrary to the New Testament. In 1 Cor. 4:6, (Revised Version), Paul writes, "We are not to go beyond that which is written." Paul writes, "Who uses mechanical music in worship has been taught that which is written. Again, Paul wrote, in 1 Cor. 13:1, 'And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus.' It is impossible to use mechanical instruments in the name, or by the authority, of the Lord Jesus." It is not authorized by precept, example, or tradition. In John 16-13, Jesus told the apostles that the Spirit would guide them into ALL the truth, and that the Spirit would never mention, in any of their writings, the use of mechanical music in worship. It is not a part of the truth. In 2 Peter 1-3, the apostle writes that we have received ALL things that pertain to life and godliness; therefore, the use of mechanical music does not pertain to life and godliness. The apostle Paul wrote Timothy, in 2 Tim. 3:16, 17, "All scripture is profitable for doctrine, for instruction in righteousness, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." Since God's word, to the church, does not mention the use of mechanical music in worship, it is not a good work in the sight of God.

In the closing of the New Testament, the Lord warned, "And unto him the plagues that are written in this book." 22-18. How can anyone have the courage to add mechanical music to the New Testament when such a warning as this is given.

Do you lay aside this unscriptural and sinful form of music? It is impossible to be the New Testament church and use mechanical music in worship. IF NOT, YOU ARE NOT!

THE CHURCH WITH THE PIPE ORGAN & CHIMES

Church School, 9:45 A. M. Morning Worship, 11 A. M. M. Y. F., 6:30 P. M. Evening Service, 7:00. Wednesday, Choir Practice at 7:00 o'clock P. M.

This is Christian Education Week, and many timely articles have been written by laymen and ministers on the importance of Christian Education. However, the most significant of these which has come to our attention was published in the Dallas News for Sept. 28, and reads in part as follows:
Daily Devotional Period At School Paying Off
 Each school day morning at 9 o'clock the chatter and scraping of a thousand Highland Park Junior High School students stops abruptly.

Over a loud speaker in the class rooms and gymnasium come the strains of a hymn. Then a student speaks. The student says something like this: "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it."

Like Helpy-Selfy
 "Life is like a helpy-selly grocery store. Every item is plainly marked and you take what you want and pay for it."
 The student speaks on for about four minutes, delivering a message to the students in simple language.
 The broadcast is the school's daily devotional period. It is the one time of the day when all the students but the one at the microphone are quiet.

Miss Maude McElvaney, who sponsors the devotional program and writes many of the messages, said they are designed to create better understanding among students of all faiths, build character and correct misdoings among students. The program could be called the school's editorial page.
 For instance, she said, a classroom teacher came to her last semester and complained about the cliques among students in her classroom. It made association difficult for new students, the teacher said.

Miss McElvaney prepared to attack the clique practice. The next morning the devotional started like this:
 "But be ye doers of the word and not hearers only deceiving your own selves."
 "Do you know what a snob is? Have you ever met a snob? Did you like him or her? What is the difference between a snob and an honest to goodness real person?"
 Other problems are approached with the same treatment.
 One devotional discussed the United Nations, while another spoke on good manners.
 What are you doing about the Christian Education of your child? Come to church Sunday. You need the church. The church needs you.
 T. Herbert Minga, Pastor

Your Most Important Right

Now that the bandstand has been painted, and the park re-landscaped, we have about the nicest village green in the county.
 And it's all because, at the last town election, folks got out and voted—85 per cent of them! That way, they passed the amendment calling for park improvements—over those opposing it.
 Reminds you again how important the right to vote is in this country. And it's a right we can retain only by exercising it! ... like all the other individual liberties—from freedom to enjoy a glass of beer or ale, to a woman's right to vote along with men.
 Folks can thank themselves that on summer evenings they'll be able to listen to band concerts in a well-kept park... enjoying a bottle of beer or soda pop (whichever they prefer). Because from where I sit, that's a freedom they've earned by exercising a still more important freedom: Voting!
