Water Meters Increase Steady

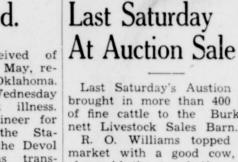

Dave McNeill, Superintendent of the Water Department, furnishes the following figures to show the steady increase in the number of water meters in Burkburnett. On a state-wide basis for all cities in Texas, a city water meter represents a fraction over four people. On that basis, Burkburnett would have more than 5,000 residents, a figure possibly a little high, but the number is somewhat greater than generally accepted.

In spite of pleas for conservation, warned Atwood A. Hyde as secretary. that the water table is dangerously low in numerous districts, we have not felt the need to curtail daily use and waste. Drastic measures have to be taken when there is a water shortage. Washing the car, permitting faucets to leak, filling bathtubs to overflowing, wasting water on wash days, we blithely go our way. Feeling it is ever flowing we shudder to think of how we would manage without it. Few in Burkburnett ever stop to worry about a water shortage. Those who know the circurstances are already casting eyes about for additional sources of water.

BOBBIN' AND JOGGIN' ALONG

Let's start off the New Year by delivering ourselves a sermon upon careful driving, make resolutions to help reduce automobile accidents. Adhering to all the rules of the highway is not enough. There is the matter of fandangles and doodads to consider, for instance. Impartial vision causes accidents. Clear vision is as essential as a brake. When you adorn the windshield with birds that bob up and down on a stick, suspend cupie dolls from a visor, dangle ball fringe, joggle plastic figures on curtain pulls, cover windows with Venetian blinds and cretonne curtains, you have obscure vision. Don't distract with folderols. Such trappings don't imand MAY not improve the appearance of the driver, whatever the chassis looked like, BEFORE the accident.

The LeBlanc Corp. has purchased a $250,000 steel and concrete building with 35,000 square feet of floor space in Lafayette, La., and will remodel it at a cost of more than $50,000 for the national headquarters of Hadacol, famous B vitamin and mineral preparation.

Dudley J. LeBlanc, Founder and President of the LeBlanc Corp., announced the purchase of the building. The small building which now houses the Hadacol factory will be converted into a garage for the fleet of Hadacol trucks and for storage space. The office headquarters of Hadacol, which now occupies a building in downtown Lafayette, will be moved to the new building. The new Hadacol building was built in 1945 and is of excellent construction. Remodeling work already has begun and the LeBlanc Corp. plans to move into the new headquarters early next year. Mr. LeBlanc and officials of his organization already have begun making plans for a gala opening of the new headquarters. "The office and manufacturing facilities will be the most modern possible," said Mr. LeBlanc. "The building will be air conditioned and will have many other features. It is just another forward step in the remarkable progress of Hadacol."

What Can The People Believe?

When the anti-trust lawyers in Washington filed their suit to put the A&P out of business, they immediately handed out for all the newspapers of the United States a story giving in detail their "allegations" against this company.

When we published advertisements giving our side of the case, they protested, even though they had made, and have continued to make, in newspapers, in speeches and over the radio these charges that would seriously damage our business, if they were believed by the public.

Every week millions of American housewives patronize A&P stores. Many of them would not want to deal with the kind of people that the anti-trust lawyers represent us to be.

We think we have a right to protect this 90-year old business which has made it possible for millions of American families to get more and better food for their money, which is providing high-wage employment for 110,000 Americans and which is helping millions of farmers to improve the methods of distributing their produce.

No answer by us would be necessary if the anti-trust lawyers were always right.

But they, like all other human beings, can be wrong.

In this case we know they are wrong.

They have been wrong before.

In case after case they made charges against A&P which were proved in court to be utterly without foundation.

Hogs do become infected with this disease, although the symptom of abortion is not nearly as prevalent in hogs. A sow may have the disease and not abort. The prevalence of swollen joints and lame-ness is an important symptom in infected swine herds. The herd boar, unlike the bull, is an important carrier and spreader of Brucel-losis, and one infected boar may cause the entire sow herd to become infected. The anti-trust lawyers tell the public that they won a previous anti-trust suit against us at Danville, Illinois. They did.

What they do not tell you is that they brought case after case against the A&P in federal courts all over the United States. Before they won this case they suffered three defeats.

The anti-trust lawyers have told everybody about the time that the courts said they were right. We think you are entitled to know about the three times the courts said they were wrong.

Now we are going to tell you about the first one. In future advertisements we will tell you about all of them.

The Washington Bread Case

In April, 1941, the anti-trust lawyers brought a criminal suit in Washington, D. C.

They charged that the A&P, two grocery chain competitors, two labor unions and other good American citizens had conspired to fix the price of bread.

Can anyone imagine any charge calculated to be more damaging to a retail grocery business? They asked millions of people to believe that we were the kind of grocers who would take bread out of the mouths of poor people and make it harder for a wife and mother to feed her family.

These charges were false.

In that case it developed that the A&P and the two competitors who were charged with conspiring with us to maintain high bread prices actually sold bread cheaper than most of the other stores in Washington.

The anti-trust lawyers presented and argued their case. When they were through, Federal District Judge Allen T. Goldsborough ruled that A&P and the other defendants did not even have to put in a defense. He ordered the jury to bring in a verdict of "not guilty."

Judge Goldsborough said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"If you were to show this record to any experienced trial lawyer in the world, he would tell you that there was not any evidence at all.

"Honestly, I have never in my over forty years' experience seen tried a case that was as absolutely devoid of evidence as this. That is the honest truth. I have never seen one like it."

So here was a case in which the anti-trust lawyers made seriously damaging charges against the A&P, in support of which, in the words of the court, they did not have "any evidence at all."

This was not the only time the anti-trust lawyers made charges against the A&P which the courts said were not true. In future ads we are going to tell you about these other suits. We are not going to duck, either. We are going to tell you about the criminal suit that the anti-trust lawyers won at Danville, Illinois.

The anti-trust lawyers say that they are not attacking "bigness" or efficiency. They have to say that because the courts have decided that "bigness" and efficiency and selling at low prices is not a crime.

But the fact is crystal clear that they only brought their bread suit against the big companies and against companies that sold good bread at the lowest prices; just as in this current suit they are attacking a big company that sells good food cheap.

We are going to show the American people that the suit to destroy A&P is really a suit against efficiency and against real competition.

The real question involved in this suit is whether businessmen are going to be encouraged to do a better and more efficient job; or whether we are going to let the anti-trust lawyers in Washington blow the whistle on anybody who gets big by giving the people more for their money.

No one can make us believe that it is a crime to try to sell. the best quality food at the lowest possible price.

D., 1949, in this cause, numbered 46640-A on the docket of said court and styled Geraldine Richey, Plaintiff, vs. Leonard J. Richey, Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, towit

After alleging jurisdiction, plaintiff further alleges that she and defendant were legally married in Lawton, Oklahoma, on July 10, 1948, and that they continued to live together as husband and wife until on or about March 1, 1949. when by reason of the cruel, harsh and outrageous conduct on the part of the defendant towards her, has rendered her further living with him as his wife insupportable; that there were no children born of this marriage and that there was no property acquired by either of them during said marriage.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays that the defendant be cited to appear and answer herein, and that upon trial hereof, she have judgment for divorce and for such other and further order that the court may deem proper.

Landmarks for farms are no more important than landmarks in religion. Example: The religion of the Jews had its boundaries as plain as a stake or stone in the earth. To go beyond was to remove God's landmark: "Ye shall not add unto the word which I commanded you, neither shall ye diminish from it." (Deut. 4:2). Nadab and Abihu, two priests of God, were guilty of removing God's landmark: " . . . took each of them his censer, and put fire therein, and laid incense thereon, and offered strange fire before Jehovah, which He had not commanded them." (Lev. 10:1). These priests stayed within the boundary except in one point and were cremated.

What is the boundary today? Not the Old Testament laws because Christ took them out of the way nailing them to His cross, Col. 2:14. Christ has given the New Testament boundaries, called, "law of the Spirit" (Rom. 8:2); "the law of Christ" (Gal. 6:2); "the perfect law of liberty" (James 1:25).

God affirms unmistakable landmarks in religion today, "Whosoever goeth onward and abideth not in the teaching of Christ, HATH NOT GOD: he that abideth in the teaching, the same hath both the Father and the Son. "If any one cometh unto you, and bringeth not this teaching, receive him not into your house, and give him no greeting: for he that giveth him greeting partaketh in his evil works." (II John 9:11). Any teaching not found in the gospel of Christ is beyond God's boundary of today. No matter how scholarly a preacher may be who tells you not to be narrow but broad-minded and flaunt the boundaries. God will curse him when he extends the ancient landmarks. (Gal. 1:8, 9). Men who love and abide by the Truth do NOT "go beyond the things which are written" in the New Testament, I Cor. 4:6. Friends, is everything you practice in religion written in the New Testament?
