Burk Bulldogs To Play Henrietta Here Friday Nite

Friday night, the Bulldogs will play Henrietta on the local Gridiron. The kickoff is set for 8:00 P. M. sharp.

Burk Loses to Temple
Last Friday night the Temple Oklahoma Tigers invaded the Bulldogs' den and riddled them to the tune of 26 to 19.

During the half time period Capt. Geo. Ingle introduced Airmen from eleven foreign countries, who are training at Sheppard Air Force Base.

Temple received the opening kickoff on the 50 where the ball was downed. After four tries they had gained only six yards and lost the ball on downs.

On the first play for Burk, Pude Fewin went off tackle, wormed his way through a host of Temple boys and outran two of them for a touchdown. Bowden Maben kicked the extra point. Burk fans were wild.

Temple bounced back for score. A 35 yard pass, Keith Michael to Ed Eschler was taken on Burk's 39 and raced across for a touchdown. Michael kicked the extra point. Everything was tied up in the first quarter.

In the second quarter, Burk recovered a Temple fumble on the Burk 36. Fewin grabbed the ball on the next play and raced 64 yards for a touchdown, with a number of Temple boys in hot pursuit. The try for extra point failed. 13-7.

In the same quarter, Temple reached Burk's 8 yard line and Michael went over for 6 points. He also kicked the extra point. Temple was leading 14-13 at the half.

In the third quarter Temple scored twice. Michael from the 1 yard line and Gandy over from the 8. Both extra point attempts failed. Burk was trailing 26-13.

In the final quarter Bowden Maben scored from the 7. Burk had received a kick following a Temple touchdown on their own 8 yard line. Maben, Fewin and Kelley had advanced the ball to the seven.

Temple's team was quite a bit larger than Burk's little Bulldogs. What the local boys lacked in size they made up in determination to win. Many, many times, Temple's big 215 and 190 backs were stopped at the line of scrimmage or were thrown for a loss.

Looking mighty good for Burk on the defensive were E. C. Mann, Harold Turnbow, Arnold Oliver, Wendell Hale, Joe Don Prescott, Donald Gee and Jack Bernethy. Big Donald Chambers also piled up many Temple plays near the goal line.

In the back field, it goes without saying that Pude Fewin was outstanding with his two brilliant long runs for six points each. Bowden Maben was effective with his passes, but swamped many times on long end runs. Until he received an injury, Kenneth Richardson was doing effective work. James Kelley, limping with a painful charley horse, turned in some nice long runs near the last of the game. Donald Knox gave effective blocking for some of the long gains.

The fighting spirit of the Bulldogs which drives them to play their hardest when the going is toughest is appreciated by every Burkburnett football fan. Even against a much larger team the Bulldogs looked better at the end of the game than they did at the start. When the other teams are about played out, the little Bulldogs are just beginning to turn on the steam.

This shows that Coaches Joe Bob Tyler and James Whitaker believe in perfect physical conditioning, along with the various plays they must try to master.

Important Meeting For Quarterbacks

A most important meeting of the Quarterbacks Club will be held Monday night, September 24, at the High School auditorium. 7:30 is meeting time.

Every Quarterback, and every one interested in the Bulldogs, is urged to be present for this meeting. Get behind the Bulldogs. Work with the Quarterback Club.

NOTE: This past month our expenses run abnormally high because of clearing up some old bills and purchase of new Police car and purchase of electric wire for future use.

Considerable work has been done on the electric system in the past six weeks. New transformer capacity has been added to Roselawn and the auto-transformer has been grounded so as to prevent voltage trouble at light loadings. We now have adequate voltage to serve any customer in this addition. By dividing up the load on some of the primary circuits a great deal of line loss has been eliminated and better service can be given. A larger transformer bank behind Burk Motors has been installed to give this circuit proper voltage. Additional transformer capacity near the B & B Grocery on Wichita Highway has been installed and now we can give excellent service to this area.

GENERAL INFORMATION:
All of the Lions Club street signs have been put up and poles painted. The interior of the City Hall and Fire Station have been repainted and cleaned up. We have put into service the new Police Patrol car which is the first for Burkburnett. We have purchased and installed our own gas pump and tank and the first month it showed a saving of $150.00 over the average cost of gasoline for the past months recorded in the last two years.

Suggestion of Augdon Beasley Receives Award

Augdon W. Beasley, civilian foreman of the Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Branch, Air Installations Division, Sheppard Air Force Base, was awarded $275.00 for a suggestion which will be adopted immediately and which will effect an estimated annual saving of $7,023.60 at the Base.

Presentation of the award in behalf of Headquarters was made September 14th at a meeting of Air Installations foremen by Lt. Col. S. J. Knuckley, Air Installations Officer.

Mr. Beasley, a resident of Burkburnett, suggested a device wherein the refrigerating condensers on reach-in refrigerators could be cooled by water. Formerly air-cooled they were forced to operate continuously resulting in frequent breakdowns and expensive repairs. The new device operates much more satisfactorily and maintains temperature in the refrigerators more evenly.

The award was the maximum allowable at Sheppard AFB. It is being forwarded to the Air Training Command for evaluation with the recommendation that an award be made at that level if deemed appropriate.

Mrs. J. H. Brumley and Mrs. Ray Hill visited in Seymour Sunday.

Notice

Those who wish to enter Canned Goods in the Fair at Iowa Park, bring entries to the Thaxton Hardware not later than early Monday morning.

T-O Fair Opens Monday, Sept. 24 At Iowa Park

IOWA PARK, TEXAS, Special: The enchantment of the fair is felt by thousands as time draws close for the 23rd edition of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair to be presented, beginning Monday, Sept. 24th.

Preparation for the big six-day panorama has been underway for several weeks at the half-million plant. A new agriculture exhibit wing with 5000 feet of floor space and a permanent ticket office and turnstiles at the front entrance gate have just been completed.

New paint has been splashed on both inside and out of some of the eight buildings, new offices have been added, with a huge map of the grounds, painted on the wall of the manager's office and one of the entire fair area, spotted with cooperating newspapers and radio stations on one entire wall of the newly redecorated public relations office.

The first major move toward permanent lighting was made when 38 new floodlights, carrying 1500 watt bulbs, were placed at strategic points over the grounds, spotlighting walkways and buildings. Asphalt paving has been run on the independent midway, a concrete floor run in the exhibits building; arena space has been rearranged and a large number of smaller improvements have been made for the benefit of fair patrons.

Advance reserved seat tickets are mounting to the headline attraction, TOP HAT N' SPURS. Out of town mail orders will be accepted by the T-O Fair office through Friday of Fair Week. Price of the tickets are $1.50, tax included.

In the "multi-million dollar" livestock showing will be a record breaking Hereford show, with 219 entries received on deadline date. These come from five states. Blue Ribbon Quarter horses and Jersey and Holstein dairy cattle will be in the barns.

Junior livestock department entries will more than double that of any previous year in the beef calves, swine, dairy and sheep divisions.

From all indications agriculture and women's department entries will be at an all-time high.

A comparatively new feature of the fair is the high school band contest, with between 25 and 30 area bands expected to compete Tuesday through Thursday. Outstanding community participation shows held on the same three days.

Coronation of Pioneer Queen and the pioneer celebration on Tuesday will be one of the record days at the fair.

Quarter horse shows with both open and matched roping and cutting horse contests will be held on Friday and Saturday night.

Informative and educational displays galore will be set up during fair week from the District Agriculture Workers Council, Sheppard AFB schools, Texas National Guard, ham operators, Tuberculosis and Cancer Societies and many others.

Victory Exposition Shows, the mammoth mile-long midway, will have a minimum of 17 new, thrilling rides, sensational side shows, including Spencer and his fighting lions, which played at the Texas State Fair last year.

Seven acres of FREE parking space, enough to park approximately 7,500 cars within two blocks of the grounds has been arranged for. This space will be patrolled.

On the eve of opening date an area-wide religious service will be held in the auditorium with Dr. W. Harrison Baker of Dallas as speaker for the occasion. All activity on the grounds will be stopped for one and one-half hours during the service.

EUROPEAN SERVICE LAGGING

The United States has doubled its army since the start of the Korean War, while Western European countries have increased their military forces by only 20 per cent, the nine man Foreign Relations subcommittee has reported to its fellow senators. The Europeans have promised, however, to provide 75 per cent more divisions in 1952, and 40 per cent more in 1953.

Spain and Yugoslavia, the senators felt, should be brought into the "master plan," but not into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Apparently these countries must eat at the "second table" until their governments provide more of the human freedoms to which the N. A. T. O. is consecrated.

Franco, we hear, is in serious need of 400 millions, (dollars, not pesetas) and no doubt Tito will write a letter to Santa Claus, if he hasn't already. So, it's just possible the clouds over Spain and Yugoslavia may dissolve into a warm rain of human justice.

LOOK OUT FOR THE "GOOPS"

The millionth American to die for his country since the Battle of Lexington, fell on a Korean battle field on Labor Day. At home, on the same day, an all-time record in traffic deaths brought highway fatalities so close to this number that it may be passed before the year is out.

Since 1940, traffic deaths have increased 29 per cent, and the cost of traffic accidents has increased more than 100 per cent. As a result, state after state is increasing automobile insurance rates, and insurance men have undertaken extensive researches to analyze these accidents and provide facts to aid in reducing them.

In most states that have been surveyed, drivers under 25 have more than their share of accidents, and in four states are responsible for twice as many fatalities as the older drivers. And traffic-wise, the city is far safer than the country. While 10,200 persons were killed in towns and cities, the death toll in the country was 24,800!

Bad judgment, carelessness, drunkenness and mechanical failure cause accidents, and always will. But all four of these killers combined can not claim as many victims as just plain bad manners! Life should be pleasanter if we could be decent to each other . . . and it would definitely be longer.

PITILESS PUBLICITY?

British and Canadian atomic energy officials met with our own in Washington from September 14 to 16 to overhaul security rules on atomic information. It is expected that the meeting will decide to release data that was secret during the war, but is now known by the Russians.

However, they may not find much to release that the average high school chemistry student doesn't already know, at home as well as in Russia. The Air Force announces letting contracts for an atomic-powered plane.

C. is bragging that so far as it knows, nobody has stolen anything really important since 1946!

Even the President has gotten into the act, with his announcement last week of "fantastic new weapons."

Perhaps when these officials gather, it might be better to try for some rules to impose secrecy rather than relax it. Even though there's nothing left to secure at the moment, our scientists might think up something the American people would like to keep for their own protection.

A Pretty Expensive Dinner

President Truman has accepted an invitation to attend the $100 a plate, fund-raising dinner in Los Angeles on October 8th, sponsored by the Democratic National Committee. That seems quite a way for a busy man to go for dinner . . . especially when it's rumored he'll go by train, the presidential one with the back platform.

Prison Rodeo Boasts Toughest Stock and Riders

Only the toughest riders in the Texas penitentiary will be allowed to ride in the 29th annual Prison Rodeo opening at Huntsville next month on October 7th. Likewise, only the roughest bucking stock the prison system's vast herds can produce will be driven and prodded into the chutes in the Prison Stadium when the show begins.

Right now it's round up time in the prison system's river bottom pastures and the farthest corners are being combed for rodeo stock that hasn't seen a human being since last year's show. Driving them out of their favorite grazing haunts and loading them for transportation to Huntsville is a big job, what will happen when a wild convict cowboy gets on one's back is anybody's guess.

Tickets for the most famous show in the southwest are on sale now, reserved seats are $2.40, tax included. Send your check or money order to L. J. Craig, Prison Ticket Office, Huntsville, Texas, for your reservations.

Army Making Drive for Officers

"Now you can be an Officer," is the theme of the U. S. Army's new drive to secure large numbers of urgently needed officers, M-Sgt. Robert W. Bridges, United States Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Officer for the Wichita Falls, Texas area, announced today that young men and women with a High school education or the equivalent may enter the Army's Officer Candidate School directly from civilian life. The first step is to contact the local Recruiting Station where applicants will be told how to submit applications. Those who are accepted may enlist specifically for the Army's Officer Candidate School.

Those who complete the six months training and study as an Officer Candidate will be commissioned second lieutenants in the Organized Reserve Corps of the United States Army. To qualify, men must be 19 but not more than 28, and women 19 but not more than 27 when they enter Officers Candidates School. Officers commissioned under this program will serve at least 18 months active duty with the Army. They will be assigned as officers to Army units in this country and overseas.

"This is a chance of a lifetime for patriotic young Americans," Sgt. Bridges declared. "An officer's commission insures a career in leadership. It offers many opportunities difficult to match in any other career field."

Sgt. Bridges urged interested young men and women to visit the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station, Room 215-16, Federal Building, Wichita Falls, Texas where they will receive prompt attention and full details of the OCS program.

combination of the new in show with the old in show—that's the recipe for making up the Top Hat and Spurs stage revue at the Oklahoma Fair in Oklahoma City, September 29th.

of the show circled by the lovely Texas chorus, will be presented in the Fair's auditorium, with Jugglers and June, Christi, the Don Payne and his imitations and the voice of Vocalist Jean Oliver being featured in the eleven act show.

World famed Christi will offer his "Burning Girl" illusion, in which the audience is startled by a beautiful girl in a flaming casket, while Jugglers Mundes and June will treat Fair crowds to a demonstration of the precision which has made their performances renowned on three continents.

These veteran showmen will be augmented in the Top Hat and Spurs bill by the antics of Master of Ceremonies Don Payne and his hilarious imitations, while the musically-inclined will find the smooth vocal work of Singer Jean Oliver and the Durward Cline band made-to-order. Then, for the spice which makes the show unique, the Texantettes, chorus lovelies, will take over for the three snappy line presentations. Precision will be the order of the day as the cuties get the Texas cowhands, changing later to the ever-popular French Canadian and the Hawaiian Hula.

Other layers of the Top Hat and Spurs entertainment cake will be studded with the performances of the show world's top specialty acts, according to Producer Tex Dudley.

The Revue will be featured during Texas-Oklahoma Fair Week, September 24 through 29, in Iowa Park, Texas.

Deno Tufares, from the House of Representatives at Austin, visited in Burkburnett last week and dropped by the Star Office.

Mr. Tufares asked us to announce through the star that he is very much interested in hearing from those who may or may not have complaints in connection with the old age benefits.

He stated that he had had complaints, not only from the receiver of the pension, but relatives and friends, who were interested in securing more aid for the old people.

Please address your letters to Mr. Tufares at the House of Representatives at Austin.

Mr. Tufares is also interested in receiving any information relatives to those selling narcotics to teen agers. He is gathering this information prior to meeting with the Crime Investigation Committee.

Sidewalk Art Show Saturday

Just like the exhibitions on the sidewalks of Gay Paree — we hope.

Anyway, we do want you to take a few minutes and come downtown to view the art and crafts that the adults and children have accomplished. You will be pleasantly surprised with the knowledge that there is much talent here in Burk Burnett.

The purpose of our Sidewalk Exhibit is to stimulate interest in both arts and crafts, and to create plans for a better means of helping those who are so very talented, and those who merely accomplish these fine things as a hobby.

In each of us is a desire to have lovelier things; to learn to appreciate finer things, and to create, if we can, some item made of our own hands. It is this inner quality that we want to bring forth to help by having our Art Exhibit.

In the exhibition you will be able to view the following adults' entries in Art Work. Mesdames Vivian Cannon, Bennie Lee Dodson, Kathryn McKinnis, Elma Kelley, Margaret McCabe, Virginia Sheriff, Maude Bohner, Velma Bohner, John Netherlain, Mr. Russell Duvall, Misses Sadie Beth Tevis and Alice Millikin. Ceramics will be displayed by Mesdames Madolyn Hill, Gwen VanLoh, Martha Britton, Janet Thompson Flusche, and Patsy Robinson.

Mr. Josephine Haynes and Mr. Toni Peed will enter some original articles of sculpturing. Mrs. Haynes, who recently moved to Louisiana, was well known here for her beautifully sculptured heads of numerous Burk Burnett citizens. Be sure to see these two people's entries. They are most interesting.

The enthusiasm shown by tiny tots to high school students has been most gratifying, and those whose names we have entered items of art and craft in the present article are: High School: Jimmy McMurtry, Susan Sheriff and Bill Lundberg; Junior High: Jackie Trotter, Judy Gellner, Dixie Williams, Richard Goode, Charles Steele, Bryan Teal, Ray Cook, Wanda Edwards, Joyce Redfield, Patsy Harrison, Leroy Taylor, Tommy Wright, Jerry Bob Shaw, Jeanne Dodson, Sammy Keith, Johanna Ruth Teague, Doyce Walker, Kerry Clark, Ray Allen Charboneau, Barbara Lowery, Mickie Hoffman, L. B. Boren, Jr., Judy Carver, Frank Morton, Robert Turnbow, Jimmy Blackwell, Carl Wayne Hamilton, Darrell Christenson, Tommy Dickson, Dan Fowler, Kenneth Estes, Johnny Veach, Kathryn Alvey, Rosemary Roark, Ivan Reeves, Donald Johnson, Carol Hageman, Patsy McCabe, Vivian Morris, Dan Lee Koeren, Robert Giles, Charles Good, Iva Ruth Tarver, Dorothy Turner, Everett Walden, Johnny Keown and Charles Boyd.

Last, but surely not least, a list of names entered by Mrs. Dessie Grubbs of several Kindergarten children: Barney Fudge, Sandy Steele, Ken Van Loh, Raymond Massey, and Charles Davey.

Aside from all the other activities, Mrs. Margaret McCabe will demonstrate finger painting technique during the exhibition.

Don't forget, from 1 until 4 P. M., it's all yours, Burk Burnett! Come see it.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Most amateur photographers will have a better opportunity to make this type of football action shot than pictures featuring All-Americans. However, the principle's the same and the photographer who made this shot tripped the shutter at just the right time to catch the youngster's foot before it began the downward movement.

At the Peak of Action

ALTHOUGH the words "peak of action" seem to suggest action at its fastest, they don't always mean that. For in many cases the high point of action is characterized by a moment of stillness—and that moment of stillness is the factor that enables amateur photographers using simple equipment to get really good sports shots.

Pictorially speaking, those moments when action is poised, are just as vivid and interesting as the moments when action is greatest.

Baseball has a number of moments which are full of poised action. The pitcher winds up and then unwinds to throw his speedball. In that instant, between winding and unwinding, action is suspended, yet a picture of it tells a story of speed and power.

Pole vaulting is another excellent example. At the very top of the action, when the vaulter's body flung out horizontally over the bar, it is relatively quiet—yet it's the very best pictorial moment of this event.

Football offers excellent possibilities too—for example, if you are in shooting range when there's a punting play, watch for the instant when the punter's foot is at the top of the kick and snap your picture before the downward motion begins.

To picture moments such as those described above, you don't need a camera with a high shutter speed. Working swiftly and taking the picture at just the right time is the most important factor. However, if you have one of the fast shutter speed cameras you can snap action shots at practically any point in the play.

Knowledge of the sport you are photographing is another very valuable asset. Familiarity with the action enables you to judge when this precious moment of poised action is coming and you can be ready for it.

Tufares Confers With Governor On Water Shortage

Representative Deno Tufares of Wichita County, has talked with the Speaker of the House of Representatives regarding a Special Session of the Legislature for the purpose of relieving the State's critical water shortage. Tufares also stated that he had met with the Governor and the Governor would not call a Special Session for water shortage only but stated that if the Constitutional Amendment, raising old age pensions, was passed he would call a Special Session and would allow Tufares to introduce his proposed water legislation.

Tufares, Member of the House Committee on Public Health, stated that it is imperative that something be done to eliminate the water shortage and to protect the health of the public by eliminating health hazards that are developing.

In the Special Session the Legislature could give power, both temporary and permanent, to the Board of Water Engineers and Public Health Department, in order that water could be distributed more equitably and conveniently throughout the State. Not only would this be for domestic use but also for industrial and agricultural use.

Through stronger pollution laws the health of the public could be aided and at the same time more water would be available for general consumption. Tufares pointed out that in a certain part of the State septic tanks have polluted the surrounding area to such an extent that all wells drilled in that area are unsanitary and unfit for human consumption. He stated further that some of our streams are in the same polluted condition due to misuse by industry.

A Special Session of the Legislature could set up a Special Committee to investigate the building of dams in the more critical areas and prepare a definite program for presentation to the next Regular Session of the Legislature. Since a Constitutional amendment cannot be passed in a Special Session and this problem demands considerable research and investigation, the Committee could present a well planned program to the next Regular Session at which time a Constitutional Amendment could be offered for bond issue to build dams under State control, to take care of future water shortages and the same dams could also be used for future flood control. By using State funds in place of Federal funds we would eliminate Federal control and retain the power in the State where it belongs.

Tufares, who is also Chairman of the Committee on Commerce and Manufactures, states that electrical power from these dams could be leased out to private enterprise, bringing an income to the State and thereby doing away with State or Federal Government competing with private enterprise. Such plan would eliminate future water shortages, encroachment of Federal power on the State's rights and promote private enterprise in our State.

Oil Progress Week To Be Observed

You are familiar with the fact that the Oil Industry Information Committee is a national organization sponsored by the American Petroleum Institute to give the public facts that will develop understanding of the American oil industry under our free enterprise system. The activities of the OIIC is directed by thousands of volunteer workers.

Each year at this time the committee sponsors Oil Progress Week, and I take this means to acquaint you with our plans. I am serving my first year as chairman of the North Texas District with local OIIC committeemen in each of the towns of this 12-county district which includes Hardeman, Knox, Foard, Wilbarger, Baylor, Wichita, Throckmorton, Archer, Clay, Young, Jack and Montague counties. Mr. GEO. BYERLY is our OIIC committeeman in Burkburnett. You know, I'm sure, that we have a twelve-month program, but the big event of the year is Oil Progress Week on October 14-20.

Sincerely,
 W. H. WRIGHT, Chairman
 North Texas District, OIIC.

Flush Door Makes Table Top

Here is an idea for the homemaker who is looking for something "different" in an occasional table.

A flush door of hardwood plywood, faced with handsomely figured veneer, becomes an attractive and serviceable table when set on either wood or metal legs. Resistant to sagging, warping and buckling because of plywood's cross-grain construction, the flush door will make a sturdy, durable table top. Such a utility unit could be used as a writing or study table, or for various other purposes.

Flush doors are coming into increasingly greater use as "doors" in both new and remodeled homes because of their fine appearance and stability. The smooth, hard-to-mar veneer surface of the flush door—which makes it suitable for a table top—means ease of maintenance because there are no dirt-catching moldings.

You can't say that the man with the moustache is a bare-faced liar.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Snap pets in surroundings in which they feel at home. That way you'll avoid an unnatural and frightened expression.

Pet Pictures

PICTURING pets is very much like picturing children. The two subjects have many similarities. Both make the kind of picture that brings a warm smile from the viewer—and bot's are likely to be adverse to assuming and holding a pose for any length of time. It's a good trick in either case to give them something on which to focus their attention. It helps keep them still. Or, of course, it makes for better pictures when you can catch them off-guard and get your picture before they are aware of the camera. Granted, the pet won't recognize a camera when he sees it, but he'll sense that there is something going on to which he's pretty important. We are accustomed to trying to bring out a child's personality in a picture—but it can also be done with pets. As any one knows who has ever owned pets, each has its own individual characteristics. And they are all subject to moods and capable of a wide variety of expressions. If you picture them well, your snapshots will tell us much about the pet as they do about the people who are your subjects. Another picture taking rule that applies to animals as well as people is to move in close—close enough to make the figure important in the picture. Since the average pet is on the small side, comparatively speaking, it's easy to lose him against a background of trees or shrubbery. If you can't get close enough without risking ruining the pose, shoot from a distance and later crop out the excess space and have the actual pet picture enlarged. The picture illustrating today's column is a good example of what everyone expects a healthy kitten to look like. The picture taker caught him in a position of having achieved a small triumph in the matter of tree climbing and looking over his world in wide-eyed fashion. —John van Guilder

"Cattle Drive" Palace Sun.-Mon.

"Cattle Drive," in Technicolor, starring Joel McCrea and juvenile star Dean Stockwell, will thunder across the screen of the Palace Theatre Sunday-Monday. McCrea and young Stockwell were previously seen together in the heartwarming "Stars in My Crown." CATTLE DRIVE is their second film together. The new Western presentation is a thrilling outdoor film from start to finish and has as its motivating theme the friendship that grows between a cowpoke and the stubborn 14 year old son of a railroad magnate whom destiny throws together on a two weeks cattle drive headed for Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Nature's Half Acre Palace Sun.-Mon.

This is the newest of Walt Disney's Truelife Adventure series; a fine novelty documentary of birds and insects, at the Palace Theatre Sunday-Monday. Half-hour documentary abounds in excellent photography. No less than 11 lensmen captured closeups of various birds feeding their young, snapped scenes of caterpillars emerging from their cocoons, caught scenes of bees collecting pollen and shot scores of other entomological incidents to give filmgoers a new perspective on bugs and birds. Miss Lillie Roark plans to leave Saturday for a vacation trip to Tennessee.
