Much Enthusiasm In Square Dance At Youth Center

Seventy teen agers attended the square dance class of Mr. Bert Hazelwood at the Youth Center on November 4th. Much enthusiasm is being shown for this activity and it will be continued as long as possible.

The Center Board of Directors will meet at the Junior High library Thursday, November 6, at 4:00 P. M. The Center will be forced to close in another month unless something can be done about the youth not paying their dues. Only 81 paid dues for October and over 300 used the Center. We have no other means of paying our director's salary of $75.00 and unless enough dues are paid, the Board of Directors will have to make up the November payment. Surely, it is enough to the parents that their sons and daughters have a safe, clean place of recreation for them to insist that the teen agers pay their Center dues.

Burk Loses First Conference Game To Quanah Here

Burkburnett Bulldogs lost their first conference football game of the season last Friday night on the local field when a powerful Quanah team outscored them 34 to 6. Each team was playing its first conference game of the season, with their sights set on the district crown.

Quanah scored once in each of the first three quarters, and twice in the last. As the last minutes of the first quarter ticked away, John McCrary of Quanah intercepted a Burkburnett pass on his own 32 yard line and returned it to the 41. Line smashes and long end runs put the ball on Burk's 9 yard line. Francis Srader got to the 1 and on the next try made a touchdown going thru the line. McCrary missed the try for extra point kick.

In the second quarter Burk got down to Quanah's 9 yard line, but the Indians held and took the ball over on downs. Passes and end sweeps took Quanah to Burk's 31 yard line. A pass from McCrary to Jack Cromartie was completed on the 10 yard line and he went the remainder of the way untouched. McCrary converted for the extra point, making the score 13-0.

The third score play originated on Burk's 44 yard line. Four yards through center and 26 more around right end placed the ball on the 14. Bobby Williams raced through the line for the score. McCrary again converted, 20-0.

Two scores came in quick succession in the last quarter. In a 60 yard sustained drive, Williams scored from the 10, with the extra point kick good, 27-0. Another pass interception set up the final Quanah score. The interception was made on Burk's 35 yard line with a 14 yard return. A pass from McCrary to Williams scored, with the kick going between the uprights. The score at this point, 34-0.

Burk's touchdown came from a 50 yard drive from mid-field. Gerry McCabe passed to Richard Ragsdale for 20 yards, a line plunge brought Burk to the nine. Gerry McCabe went off right tackle for the score. Bowden Maben's try for extra point with Ragsdale holding, was wide.

Practically every seat at the stadium was occupied, with a great number standing along the sidelines. The game was hard fought, with Burk holding the edge on yards gained from scrimmage, at half-time, although they trailed by 13 to 0. The boys were in excellent physical shape, holding the ball as the final whistle blew and still showing plenty of pep.

The next conference game will be played this Friday night when the Bulldogs journey to Seymour.

Flowers, are the best way to express affection, appreciation, congratulations or sympathy and

Flowers, add brightness and cheerfulness to the humblest dwelling and

Flowers, uplift the morale and spirit of the sick and

Flowers, because of their color and beauty are a source of inspiration to artists, and

Flowers, have the power of adding flair to entertaining, table decorations, home decorations and personal adornment and

Flowers, have a universal language which can express the proper sentiment anytime or anywhere and

"BIGNESS" IS NO CRIME

At frequent intervals, someone rises up and declares that the oil industry makes too much money, and something drastic ought to be done about it.

The best reply to that lies in what the oil industry is and what it does. Collectively, it is "big business" for the plain and simple reason that only big business could supply us with the incredible quantities of oil we and our friends abroad need and want. And it is a risky and complex business. For instance, it costs a lot of money to drill a wildcat well in search of oil—and only about one in five turns out to be a producer. If the oil people didn't stand a chance to make a profit, they wouldn't venture their capital on such hazardous undertakings. And if that occurred, a future oil shortage would become inevitable.

The American people spend about $7,000,000,000 a year on oil products. And half of that—$3,500,000,000—goes right back to the government, through the Federal, state and local taxes levied on the industry and on oil products. A great deal of the rest goes to the $2,000,000 well paid men and women the oil industry employs.

Then, when current bills are paid, oil companies must pour out huge sums to build and improve refineries, pipelines, tankers, and all the rest of their vast physical plant—the plant which converts the crude into a thousand and one useful products used by consumers. Does anyone really think that a financially starved enterprise could accomplish this tremendous job?

The amount which finally winds up in the pockets of the industry's tens of thousands of owners as dividends, represents one of the smallest slices of the oil dollar.

GRASS ROOT OPINION

CHESTER, S. C., REPORTER: "The United States was the first country in the history of civilization founded for the preservation of individual freedom. In establishing the 'New Order of the Ages,' the Continental Congress recorded in the Declaration of Independence a list of grievances against the tyrannical King George III, among which were: 'He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.' One hundred and seventy-five years later we find a swarming bureaucracy within our borders that threatens individual freedom."

ST. IGNATIUS, MONTANA, POST: "We see the vast importance to our local, state and national economy of having private enterprise. Tax paying institutions, whether little or big are the very life blood of our society."

ARTESIA, N. M., ADVOCATE: "Americans want our armed forces to have everything they need, but there is too much waste and too much extravagance. Those directing the spending and handling of the goods which the tax dollars buy are going to have to be just as efficient, just as economical and just as wise in using and spending as the Average American is today. We can't afford as a nation to continue to increase our tax bill . . . We must be saving . . . and . . . spendwisely if we expect to continue as a nation."

Steps to Save STEPS

Do you stumble over tangles of extension cords every time you cross a room in your home? Fumble in the dark for a switch? Wait around for appliances to do their work?

You can stop these annoyances with adequate wiring. It takes these three easy steps to give you the kind of wiring that keeps your home up-to-date electrically:

- ! An adequate service entrance—for now, and future use of electricity.
- ! Enough circuits—big enough—to handle your present appliances, plus the ones you'll add later.
- ! Enough outlets and switches.

P. S. With adequate wiring you'll save money—and time—every day.

WICHITA-WILBARGER Soil Conservation NEWS

Mike Hartmangruber, farming 4 miles south of Iowa Park, reports that his alfalfa is coming up to a good stand. Mike applied his fertilizer and water and then seeded his alfalfa.

Production of 5500 bales of alfalfa hay from 23 acres is likely the highest production obtained by a farmer in the Wichita Valley. However, another observation of importance is that since growing alfalfa on the soil, time required to apply water to a border has doubled. As a result, Hartmangruber will reorganize some of his irrigation system to reduce the lengths of runs and reduce the time required to water. Technician of the Soil Conservation Service assisting the Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District will assist in the planning and application of the reorganization.

J. C. HINKLE, operator of the O. L. Clark farm near Burkburnett, has completed enlargement of a farm pond and a diversion terrace to divert water into the pond. About 60 per cent of the cost of construction is being paid by Wichita A. C. Program.

R. L. Underwood, Wichita Falls District cooperater and owner of the lazy T P Ranch, has completed reterracing his cropland. He had an old terrace system that did not operate satisfactorily which was leveled and a new system of channel type terraces installed.

Shem Cunningham, District cooperater of Wichita Falls, had completed leveling 22 acres of cropland. Roy Thompson, Jr., engineer for the Soil Conservation Service, furnished the engineering assistance.

Clubs Are Planning Game Nov. 17th

Yes, it is a night at the Town Hall. Monday night, November 17th, 7:30 P. M. Sure, the Bluebonnet and Unity clubs will raise money for the new highway through our city. The planning of the game is the home of Mrs. Mesdames C. R. Chambers, C. C. Netherlain, Will Teal and C. F. Bohner; from the Burk Burnett Garden Club are Mrs. Tom Boyd and Mrs. J. C. Adams; and from the Unity Garden Club are Mrs. R. C. Gilbow, Mrs. Bill Crosby and Mrs. Ralph White.

Mrs. A. C. Reeves is president of the Bluebonnet Garden Club; Mrs. J. M. Willingham of the Burk Burnett Garden Club and Mrs. Troy Miller of the Unity Garden Club.

cooperation they have received from the highway department, the city manager and the agriculture teacher of the high school.

A highway beautification program has been outlined as state and national garden club projects. It is the desire of the local garden clubs to cooperate and make our fine new highway beautiful as well as useful.

To do this it is necessary to raise funds for the purpose. It is the finance committees from the clubs that have planned game night for this purpose. On the committee from the Bluebonnet Garden Club are Mesdames C. R. Chambers, C. C. Netherlain, Will Teal and C. F. Bohner; from the Burk Burnett Garden Club are Mrs. Tom Boyd and Mrs. J. C. Adams; and from the Unity Garden Club are Mrs. R. C. Gilbow, Mrs. Bill Crosby and Mrs. Ralph White.

Mrs. A. C. Reeves is president of the Bluebonnet Garden Club; Mrs. J. M. Willingham of the Burk Burnett Garden Club and Mrs. Troy Miller of the Unity Garden Club.

What a chance! To share in this worthy project and have the fun and relaxation of this huge evening of fun. No one will want to miss.

Only fifty cents a person or one dollar a couple. All Garden Club members will have tickets for sale. Contact one of them early for your ticket. If you are uncertain of your plans or fail to see a Garden Club member, tickets can be purchased at the door of the Town Hall on Monday night, November 17th, as we want everyone to share in the Game Night.

Legion Notes

From the Commander Frye-Vaughn Post No. 264 The American Legion

The Armistice Day breakfast will be held at the Legion Hall. Comrade Jim Johnson has promised ham and eggs, hot biscuits, marmalade and hot coffee at 5:30 A. M. to those who will assist in decorating the cemetery.

Colonel James R. Williams, Wing Inspector at Sheppard Air Force Base, is to be the featured speaker at the breakfast. Colonel Williams recently returned from Germany where he has been Provost-Marshal of the Air Force. During the Berlin Air-lift he was Inspector-General for the Air Lift planes.

Much of the significance of Armistice Day has been lost in the past few years. Too many people felt that it only celebrates the end of a war which we won, and then lost the peace which followed. But it means much more than that. It is the day when Americans everywhere give thought and prayer and hope that a lasting and honorable peace may eventually be achieved. In it, we have memories of the past linked with a hope for the future. On this day we honor those who fought and died that we might live.

Our entire program is not complete at present, but promises to be worthy of the attention of everyone.

Since the awards of cards for time in the Legion, dues for 1953 have been paid and added new names to the list. Yours truly became eligible for a 5-year card.

Payment of 1953 dues added the following in the 10-year bracket: Mrs. Ruby K. Russell, Doyle L. Stoker, J. T. Dickson, Lewis R. Cashwheeler.

In the 15-year group we have added C. C. Gilbert and Chester E. Lundberg.

Homer Gilbert and Sidney E. Askins have each qualified for 20-year cards.

Ben Givens, Luther A. Hatch and Henry Prinzing became eligible for 25-year cards and certificates upon payment of 1953 dues.

Last week we held our initiation. John H. Melton, Cur-ris Curry Millstead and P. D. Vaught rode the goat and became true comrades in the great work of the Legion. There are several more to be initiated and another ceremony is planned for Thursday, November 13th.

There will be a ceremony at the cemetery on Armistice Day, November 11th, at 11:00 A. M. Everyone who can is urged to be present.

Those Legionnaires who have not already paid their 1953 dues are requested to do so as soon as possible. About seventy-five have already paid. We are far short of our goal, but that goal can be easily achieved with a little cooperation on the part of all of us.

Local ministers will be asked to deliver the invocation and the benediction at the breakfast. Another will be requested to participate in the ceremony at the cemetery.

We know we must still be short many names of Gold Star parents. If anyone knowing of Gold Star parents will call 403 we will see that these parents receive tickets to the Armistice Day Breakfast. These parents are to be our honored guests.

There will be a return engagement of the Rhythm Masters from Sheppard Air Force Base at the Legion Hall on Thursday, November 20th. All veterans and their families are cordially invited.

The Rhythm Masters will be coming back with a bigger and even better band than they had before, including a Bass player that they say is tops both in musical production and comedy.

For tops in Western music, the Rhythm Masters are hard to beat. Those who heard them before will certainly not want to miss this night. And this is an opportunity for those who missed them to get in on some excellent entertainment.

Remember—this entertainment is not restricted to Legion members. All veterans and their families are welcome as our guests.

Tonight is family night at the Legion.

Let your motto be "Count on me for '53!"

Huge Pecans Grown By J. S. Gore

Pecans grow big in Burk Burnett. J. S. Gore brought in a twig taken from one of his pecan trees which had a cluster of six large pecans at the tip. The circumference of each pecan was six inches around the long way, measured over the hull. Mr. Gore says he has not watered the tree all year—just cultivated blackeye peas around his trees. The sample was from a sixteen year old Success tree, one of many nice trees at his place in the Western part of the city.

To prove that pecans are not the only thing he grows, he also brought in some 11 ounce pears pulled from one of his trees.

Mrs. Vance Returns From Visit to Ft. Worth, Dallas

Mrs. W. T. Vance returned to her home here in Burk Burnett after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ellis McNeil at Fort Worth, Mrs. Edith Goodlett, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Wanda Nowles, both of Dallas.

While she was in Dallas, Mrs. Vance was visited by Rev. and Mrs. Boyd I. DeVore, who were former residents in Burk Burnett when Rev. DeVore was a pastor of the Methodist church here.

Mrs. Vance reports that the water shortage in Dallas and Ft.

Worth area is severe. Dallas is drier than Burk Burnett, with each person just being allowed one bath a week. The fine for watering lawns or wasting water in any manner is from $50 to $300. Several have been fined there.

W. C. Vann Gets Giant Size Eggs

W. C. Vann is proud of the eggs his hens are laying now. One dozen of the nice white eggs weighed 39 ounces. The average weight of eggs usually runs 24 ounces to the dozen.

Amled over to Bob's Restaurant Tuesday for lunch and noticed a new sign "Left Ham Sandwich, 40¢ ... Right Ham Sandwich, 30¢." "Why the sign, Bob?" I asked. "Don't tell me you believe hogs scratch more with their right leg than with their left—so's the left ham is more tender?" "No," he says. "I don't take any stock in it. But, some people have ordered those 'left' sandwiches. When I explain to them that there's nothing to that fable, that the sign is just a business-getter, and I've only one price, they enjoy a regular, old fashioned, plain ham sandwich all the more!" From where I sit, stories like "right" hams being tougher than "left" ones are with us because some people get ideas into their head and hang onto them for dear life. It's like those who think an adult like myself hasn't the right to a glass of beer with my supper. I say let's keep our opinions free from being "sandwiched-in" by misinformation.

Sparks Easily Jump Narrow Gap

This barn and the smaller building to the right were situated too close together with the result that when one caught fire the flames quickly spread to the other. Farm buildings should be at least 150 feet apart. Fire frequently is spread by flying sparks, but fire-resistant asphalt roofing materially lessens the hazard.

Erect Farm Buildings in Line To Restrict Spread of Fire

Farm buildings should be situated to keep fire from spreading easily from one building to another.

It is easy for sparks to jump the gap when buildings are close to one another. As a general rule, 150 feet between buildings is considered a safe distance.

The direction of prevailing winds should be taken into account. If the house, the barn, and other main structures are placed in a line that runs at a right angle to the usual wind direction, chances are good that sparks will blow harmlessly to one side.

As a further safeguard against flying sparks, all buildings should be protected by asphalt roofing or other fire-resistant material, says the National Fire Protection Association. Sparks from field fires and trash fires are as great a hazard as sparks from burning buildings. Fire-resistant roofing is essential because the roof is the largest surface of a building on which sparks are likely to fall.

Farm Bureau News

The annual convention of the Wichita County Farm Bureau met in the W. F. George High School in Iowa Park on Tuesday night. In recommendations adopted the county organization went on record as favoring 100 per cent parity at the market place with a 90 per cent parity support price; opposed to the Thornton Bill which proposes to put the school tax, bond assumption money, Colson Briscoe (Farm to Market road money) car registration fees and gasoline tax (which is now refunded to farmers) into one fund and handled by the Texas Highway Department; opposed to any legislation that would take away the .04c refund on gas used in tractors and other non-highway uses; stricter enforcement of laws, regulating the strength and mixing of all insecticides and herbicides, to keep livestock off the highways and concerning labeling of ingredients in drugs and food.

Tom Pace was in charge of presenting recommendations. T. H. Eckelkamp was re-elected president, Sol T. Tuttle first vice-president and Mont Bowles second vice-president. Directors elected were Wymore Downing, with W. T. Jenne alternate to serve with present director G. D. Rigby in Precinct 1; J. L. Caffee, Jr., with Arthur Evert alternate to serve with G. O. Bailey present director of pre-precinct 2; Otho Childers and Will Spruiell with Tom Pace as alternate to serve in precinct 3 and Herbert Detmer with Tommy Barwise alternate to serve with George Streit present director of precinct 4. Delegates to the State convention include Tom Pace, T. H. Eckelkamp and Wymore B. Downing. Also going with the delegation will be Glenn Shelton. Reporter, Marye Eckelkamp

Athletic Field In Rededicated At Karnes City

Before a stadium crowd of 2,500, people Friday night Dick Kleberg Field was formally rededicated and renamed in memory of the late John Weldon Johnson, Karnes City athletic coach for 12 years, who died July 27, 1952.

The Honorable Richard M. Kleberg, of Kingsville, for whom the field was named originally, gave the dedication address and ordered the unveiling of the 17-foot name plate of perforated steel installed on 14-foot poles on the west side of the field. When two ex-Badgers, James T. Chapman and Don Mabry, lowered the veiling, the first vision of the field's new name came into view.

The letters, POSS JOHNSON FIELD, were painted aluminum and attached to the perforated steel orange back outlined with black steel border.

In Mr. Kleberg's address, he referred to the memorable life of the late coach. He pointed out that the colorful athletic man was fit to live—fit to die, because he lived with faith, served with faith, and that his faith in God and example in living, should give strength to his fellowmen to go to victory in whatever be their vocation.

Marvin Butler, member of the Athletic Council, spoke briefly and introduced Mr. Kleberg.

D. E. Moore, superintendent of Karnes City Schools, gave the welcoming address. Steve Crews

III, president of the Lettermen's Association, reviewed the brilliant record of the late coach.

The school Alma Mater was played by the high school band and the Pleasanton-Karnes City football game followed immediately.

The field dedication was a home coming event for ex-lettermen.

At half-time, the 60-piece band, directed by C. J. Morrissey, and pep squad, composed of 42 girls, in full dress uniform, under the direction of Miss Melanie Yeary, marched on the field and made the formation spelling out COACH in memory of the late Coach Johnson. The lights were turned out and in still darkness, except for a tiny light held by each student in formation, the band played "Home Coming," a selection composed by Director Morrissey and dedicated to the memory of Coach Johnson.

In another formation the band and pep squad formed the letters, MEYER, in honor of the present Karnes City athletic coach, Francis E. Meyer. The ceremony was concluded with the K. C. FIGHT song.

Seated in a reserved section of the stadium were Mrs. J. W. Johnson, wife of the late coach; his mother, Mrs. Clara Johnson, of Commerce; and other relatives including Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Tarwater, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Tarwater, Jr., and Linda Lou, of Caldwell; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kleir, Dickey and Nancy, of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wattenbarger and Clint Gardner, of Commerce.

Mr. Johnson was a brother of Mrs. D. F. Douglas of Burkburnett, a member of the local school faculty.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS—

ASPHALT OLD AND NEW
The weatherproofing qualities of asphalt were known 5,000 years ago in Mesopotamia where asphalt was used as mortar and to waterproof pools of water for bathing or ritual purposes. A chief use of asphalt today is in asphalt roofing, which comprises more than 85 percent of all the roofing used in the United States today.

INSULATE COLD PIPES
As a safeguard against freezing, cold water lines should be insulated. This also prevents moisture from condensing on the outside of the pipe and dripping on the floor.

TO LOOSEN WINDOW
If windows stick after a room has been painted, cut around the sash with a sharp knife to break through any paint that has hardened in the crack.

SEARCH FOR CAUSE
When an electrical fuse blows, don't replace it until you've found and corrected the short circuit or overload that is the cause.

FOR SHINY TILE
Tile shines more brightly when it is washed with water containing a little starch.

ROOF FIRES INCREASE
In the decade from 1940 to 1950, the number of fires caused by sparks on roofs fell from 62,000 to 18,000, the National Fire Protection Association says. This reflects greater use of fire-resistant asphalt shingles.

RUG COLORS DEEPER
Many rug colors are deeper and brighter because new synthetic fibers, such as carpet rayon and acetate, take color more readily than some of the natural fibers used previously.

INSPECT CHIMNEYS
Chimneys should be inspected and cleaned at regular intervals, particularly if sooty fuels are burned. Immediate inspection is imperative if the chimney suddenly fails to function properly.

TAG PLUMBING VALVES
All plumbing valves should be tagged to show exactly what their purpose is. When a valve has to be used, it's often an emergency and there's no time to waste.

5,000 FIRES A DAY
There are 5,000 fires a day. About one-fifth of them are dwelling fires.

FACTORIES BURN
There are 88 factory fires a day.

Use Different Shingle Colors On High and Low Roof Levels

If you have a house with more than one roof section and if the sections are at different levels, Howard Ketcham, color and design engineer, has some suggestions that might help to make your home more attractive.

Ketcham does it with color. These are his ideas:

"Use different shades of the same basic asphalt shingle color on different roof levels," he says. "Assuming that a house has two roof levels, it's possible to make the two seem more nearly the same or it's possible to accentuate the difference. You can call attention to the difference or not, depending upon how good-looking this architectural feature is.

"First, take a case where you want to minimize the difference in height. The thing to do would be to select a dark asphalt shingle for the higher level and then to use a lighter shade of the same color on the lower level. The dark shade would make the high roof seem lower, and the lighter shade would make the low roof seem higher. That would create a visual illusion to bring the two together.

"You might use a dark blue-green blend and a light blue-green. Another pleasing combination would be pink-gray and a tint of the same blend.

"Reverse the color combinations for the opposite case, where you want to make the difference in height more pronounced. Use the lighter one on top and the darker below.

"In that situation, the visual effect would be reversed. The high part would seem higher, and the low part lower."

Stopping action by open flash is effective, as proven by this picture made by Jack Fields. From 1952 Graftex Photo Contest.

STOP ACTION WITH FLASH

A great many box camera owners by-pass some wonderful action shots because the slow shutter speed of the cameras—about 1/30 second—won't stop movement.

For picture-taking indoors, however, there is an ideal solution. Midget flash-bulbs fired by the open flash method will stop almost any action that takes place indoors.

Taking pictures by "open flash" means nothing more than opening the shutter of your camera, firing the flash bulb, and then immediately closing the shutter. The midget flash bulb, in this case, stops the action. The light from the bulb lasts for only 1/200 of a second. Since the shutter is closed immediately, the only image recorded on the film is that which was lit by the flash for 1/200 of a second.

If your camera is synchronized for flash the entire process is simplified. Just insert the bulb and fire away. For cameras not synchronized, the open flash method will prove very satisfactory.

The flash-gun need not be attached to your camera. In fact, you can get a better picture by holding it above and to the right of your camera. With a fixed aperture camera, stand eight to ten feet away. It may be easier, too, if you let someone else fire the bulb while you operate the shutter.

A Clean Stove Saves Fuel

The easy way to clean an oven. Leave a bowl of soapy water and ammonia in the oven overnight with the door shut tight. Next morning, suds the interior with a stiff brush. Dirt and grease wash off easily, thanks to pre-softening.

These are days of hearty meals and much home entertainment—and time to check the efficiency of your kitchen to save you time and money. A good start is the kitchen range.

Sputtering burners and smoky ovens are signs of trouble and wasted fuel. A good rule to follow is "a clean stove cooks better, saves fuel and lasts longer." But don't make a chore of it. Keep your stove in working order. Like the proverbial "stitch-in-time," constant care saves hours of hard labor.

Wipe the top and burners with a soapy cloth after each use, but let the stove cool first. Enamel may crack if water is applied while hot. However, wipe up spillovers at once with a DRY cloth or paper towel, lest they leave permanent stains. Follow with soap and water when the stove has cooled.

To keep carbon from jamming the pilot light, first turn it off; then scrub the housing with a soft wire brush and wash with a soapy cloth. Make sure surrounding surfaces are completely dry before you relight it, and that connections are "seated" correctly.

Pour grease off the broiler while it is still warm, but let it cool before you soak and scrub it in hot soapsuds. Rub mineral oil on the racks occasionally and they'll resist rust better and longer.

Treat the deep well cooker as you would any aluminum kettle. Lift it out and scrub with hot soapsuds, particularly along the outer edges. Non-insulated covers can be tub-washed, but insulated covers should just be wiped clean with a damp cloth.

Ikard Stresses Co-operation With Neighbors

A way to world peace with a beginning on the neighborhood level was outlined by Congressman Frank Ikard to the Hardin Grade School P-T A Tuesday night, October 21st.

Ikard enlarged on his topic, Appreciating Our Neighbors, saying that by cooperating with them at home and abroad, we can bring about world peace. Co-operation with one's own neighbors was one of the important means of achieving harmony, according to Mr. Ikard, in our relationships with other nations.

At a short business session, Mesdames Vernon Duke, Walter Lacy, J. D. Grizzle, John Durham and E. E. Welborn, were elected delegates to the State P-T A Convention to be held in Wichita Falls, Texas, on November 19, 20 and 21st.

During the social hour following, refreshments were served to over 150 members and friends of the association.

Speaker Rayburn Predicts Demo. Victory In Texas

House Speaker Sam Rayburn, chairman of the Stevenson-Sparkman Committee, predicted this week that Adlai Stevenson and John J. Sparkman, Democratic nominees for President and vice-president, will win a solid victory in Texas in next Tuesday's election.

"All indications point to the greatest vote in Texas history," Mr. Rayburn said. "That is good for our side. There are simply more Democrats than non-Democrats in Texas. So, if the true Democrats go to the polls—and they are so aroused they will go—Texas will remain Democratic."

Mr. Rayburn has been highly critical of misrepresentations in which he says the so-called Democrats for Eisenhower have engaged in the campaign. He predicted that the majority of the people in Texas will administer a stinging rebuke to them in Tuesday's election.

"Texans remember how things were in 1932 after 12 years of Republican rule," he declared. "Texans know how things are with them today after 20 years of progressive Democratic leadership. Texans don't want to go back—Texans want to go forward. They will continue to go forward with the Democratic party."

12-Inch Pipe Line To Oklahoma City

Contracts have been awarded and construction will start this week on a $4,180,000 12-inch crude oil pipe line from Ponca City, Okla., to Wichita Falls, Texas. It is scheduled for completion by January 1, and will enable Conoco to transport crude from its oil fields in the Wichita Falls area to its refinery at Ponca City.

The 127-mile pipe line, which will have a daily capacity of 53,000 barrels of crude oil, will connect with Continental's 8-inch line from Oklahoma City to Ponca City. It is scheduled for completion by January 1, and will enable Conoco to transport crude from its oil fields in the Wichita Falls area to its refinery at Ponca City.

Friendship Class Members Entertain Husbands at Party

On October 23rd, members of the Friendship Class entertained their husbands with a Halloween party in the basement of the Baptist Church.

Guests were conducted thru a dark passage infested with strange noises and witches. After this initiation they met the Halloween queen and then had their fortune told in a very amusing manner. Then the guests unmasked and were led in a sing-song by Mrs. Jimmy Johnson, assisted at the piano by Miss Louise Stamps. Various games were played, including apple contests, dangling donuts, and molding of figures. With lights turned low, a ghost story was told by each one adding a line as it went along.

Lovely refreshments were served to 38, all of whom enjoyed the evening immensely.
