Knock On Every Door For '54

Tuesday, October 20, members of the American Legion from some 800 posts in Texas begin their annual membership campaign for the second consecutive year. This day is designated by the governor and the mayor as "L Day" or "Legion Day."

"Knock On Every Door For '54" is the theme of the American Legion's membership campaign. It is the objective of our post to see that every eligible veteran in town gets an invitation to join this great veterans organization dedicated to "God and Country."

We like the idea of giving the veterans of World War I, World War II and the Korean War an opportunity to maintain membership in the American Legion through a personal invitation of the membership committee. Too often folks never join in any community venture, for the simple reason "no one asked me."

We believe that every veteran who can should join the American Legion. It is a great force for good through more than 17,400 posts in the USA and its annual membership of close to three million members.

Through its programs of Americanism, rehabilitation, national security, child welfare and others it has been demonstrating these past 35 years that all of the programs endorsed by the American Legion are designed to be of service to the community, state and nation.

In the long run of proven performance we can truthfully say "What is good for the American Legion—is good for America."

From the first days of organization when the American Legion denounced communism in no uncertain terms, they have been right more often than not in the mandates of their convention thinking.

Legionnaires can point with pride to their records of accomplishment in the field of veterans legislation, youth training and child welfare.

If you have served your country in time of war, the American Legion gives you a real chance to continue serving in the day to day performances of the Citizen-Legionnaire, who serves his post best by serving his community.

Answer that friendly 'knock' on your doors—Join NOW and help keep the American Legion strong. If you are eligible to join, we know you will want to enroll in an organization that is truly 'All-American.'

Undefeated Teams to Match Brawn and Wits Friday 8:00 P. M.

Burk Beats Seymour In Conference Tilt By Score 19 to 7

Last Friday night the Burkburnett Bulldogs journeyed to Seymour for a conference game and came from behind to win 19 to 7. At the half-time Seymour led 7 to 6. Three passes from Kenneth Richardson figured in Burk's scores. Two were fired to Richard Ragsdale, and one to Jackie Wright. Donald Knox, in the lineup the first time this year, due to a last year's injury, accounted for the lone extra point.

Olney Here Friday Night

This Friday night, October 16, the Bulldogs will be hosts to the Olney Cubs. Last Friday night Olney beat the Childress team, which was picked by many as the strongest contender for the district championship. Olney has a very strong team, but with the Burk team in top shape, the Bulldogs should be able to pull a win out of the bag.

Legion Notes

From The Commander Frye Vaughn Post 264

Last Sunday, Oct. 11th, Commander Jack Alexander, Adjutant Waldo Huddleston and 3rd vice Commander Bill Allen attended the 13th District Convention of the American Legion in Graham, Texas. The Convention was held in the Ligon-Daniel Post No. 34 Legion Home which is one of the finest and most beautiful buildings its has been our privilege to be in. We arrived in time for the noon luncheon which was really swell. It consisted of baked turkey with all the trimmings, candied potatoes, hot rolls with butter, coffee and cream pie.

Harlan Sloan, 4th Division Commander, was the featured Speaker on the program following the luncheon. Fred Brookman formerly of Burkburnett, and VA Service officer at the present time, spoke on the veterans' benefit. He stated that the Budget Bureau in Washington had to cut the Veterans Administration's appropriations to such an extent that veterans would no longer be able to enjoy most of the benefits they do. It is almost impossible, he went on to say, for a veteran with an non-service connected disability to get in a veteran hospital. He called for all the Legion Posts to fight back for these benefits.

A business session followed the luncheon and Nocona was chosen as the 13th District Convention city for next spring. Tonight there will be another business meeting so please come out and bring a prospective member for 1954.

PEACE-MAKERS PLEASE NOTE

Practically every US American knows Canada as a producer of Royal Northwest Mounties, star hockey-players and as a haven for big game.

But Canadian businessmen, who very generally know our country as a whole about as well as we do, would like to clear up the idea that they go around on snow shoes with a rifle in the crook of the arm. And when you consider that Canada is our best customer, buying more US products than any other nation—more than France, Germany and Italy combined—that Canada pays cash for these goods and has never yet sought nor received a direct US loan or grant—we certainly should know more about our fellow Americans north of that unguarded border.

And now, with the opening of that huge aluminum smelter at Kitimat, British Columbia, we will be importing more thousands, perhaps millions, of man hours of work-to-do for our fellow Americans! Actually, the Aluminum Company of Canada will be sending down well over 200,000 tons of aluminum ingots every year to be fabricated in US shops into a million and one consumer and defense items, from fabrics and cooking pots to window-sash and bombers. And for every Canadian required to produce this metal, seven US workers will be needed to convert it into the thing we want.

Each ton of this aluminum requires 20,000 kilowatt hours of electricity to produce, hydro-electricity that is low cost and plentiful in Canada, and Periodically short of our needs here at home. Thus, in turning to Canada for an important part of our aluminum ingot supply, we are conserving electrical resources that will power seven times as many jobs and support seven times as many families as they would if they were used to produce aluminum at home.

Good neighbors in America have always swapped over the back fence whatever each has the most of. The US and Canada have grown up together in this spirit. —which we refer to our global thinkers as the only workable basis for international peace.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

AFTON, Wyo., Star Valley, Independent: "Farmers must realize that an era of 'false prosperity' will always have a day of reckoning, and unless they face problems realistically they can be unnecessarily hurt."

CHISHOLM, Minn., Free Press: "The Constitution of any government, if it is to withstand human corrosion and deceit must contain meat for strength, and bread and salt for stability. Nothing since the penning of our own great Document has ever reached such near perfection. Under it's protective wing, men and women of all races and creeds have found nourishment and life."

SAUGERTIES, N. Y., Daily Post: "The principle on which this country's government was founded is that of civilian authority over the military. When the majority of Americans forget this safeguard, it will be an ominous turn in the history of these United States."

LOVINGTON, N. M., Leader "The sooner that everyone realizes that everyone can't work for the government and that some work elsewhere, the better off this country will be. Someone has to pay the taxes to pay the government workers."

LIBERAL, Kan., Southwest Daily Times: "The people really want government by the people, not by bureaucrats."

REAL AMERICANS

The Enterprise-Record, of Chico, Calif., recently ran an unusual editorial. It observed that we hear a lot of talk these days about what "real Americans" ought to be, but most of that talk is disappointingly general in nature and leaves us wanting something more definite.

Then the paper offered its own specific example — a worker in a local service station belonging to a leading oil company. Of him, it said: "You don't have to watch this fellow very long before you realize there's something special about him. Soon enough it hits you: He's a throwback to an earlier day, an earlier America."

"Why? Because he has old fashioned pride in doing a good job in giving his customers superb service, in putting out a full day's work and more. He belongs to the era when skill in a craft was important, when most men found joy in the personal mastery of their tasks."

"Though it's harsh to hear, it's true—nowadays too many of us play little games called Getting Through The Day or Just Getting By. The old pride of achievement is getting harder and harder to find."

All over the country, there are service station men like the one to whom the Enterprise-Record paid tribute. Some own their stations, some are employees. By and large, they are the kind of citizens this country needs.

We are very busy this week taking a few tests that some one said that were necessary. Most of the tests are just routine work that we do every day, and we do not worry about the results. Well we are happy to cooperate with the teachers in trying to figure out something to put on our cards.

We are having a lot of fun watching the men build the Cafeteria. It is so easy to get over in the way of what they are doing and to help them move the small rocks and bricks but we do not always move the rocks to the place that has been so designated for use. It is always fun to watch them doing part of the work and we feel like we could help them a lot if they would call upon us for assistance.

Gasoline for Sunday driving . . . or Natural Gas to cook next Sunday's roast?

Most people think only of gasolines, lubricants, and fuel oils when the petroleum industry is mentioned. The fact is, practically all oil producers are also natural gas producers. So today the driller of a wildcat, or exploratory well, calls his venture successful if the well discovers either oil or gas.

If it is an oil well, then he has helped to supply the country's increasing needs for oil and oil products; if it is a gas well, he has discovered additional supplies of an efficient, economical fuel for household and industrial use.

The petroleum industry's development and conservation of the country's natural gas resources is a practical demonstration of the progress to which Oil Progress Week invites attention.

Beginning with the location of the well, advanced geological and geophysical studies of underground formations aid in the selection of likely oil or gas producing areas, but still the odds against a wildcat well producing either gas or oil are eight to one.

If a natural gas field is discovered, reservoir engineers immediately begin their studies to determine the best producing methods to conserve the underground energy and to obtain the maximum production for the longest possible time.

If the gas that is discovered is "wet," it is processed in gasoline plants which remove the liquid parts and send them to refineries for further processing into motor fuels and aviation gasolines, or to petrochemical plants to be converted into a long list of useful chemical products, among which are the plastics and synthetic fabrics with which you are so familiar. "Dry" gas, the residue from gasoline plants, and sometimes produced direct from the gas field, is the natural gas that burns in literally millions of homes throughout America and under the boilers of thousands of American industries.

So, whether a wildcat well discovers oil for gasoline or natural gas for the kitchen stove, it adds to the available energy resources of the most highly mechanized nation on earth; it supplies products essential for today's and tomorrow's high living standards; it gives additional strength to measures for National defense.

 The Woman's Society of Christian Service completed their study Wednesday of the first mission study for the year 1953 and 1954. Mrs. Leslie Finnell, district president, brought the study "What shall we Do?" Mrs. R. C. Moser brought the worship service.

Noodle Supper

The first chicken noodle supper of the 1953-54 session was held at the church annex Thursday night. The Woman's society of Christian service sponsored this supper to raise money for the year. The menu included chicken and home made noodles cream potatoes, cole slaw, home made pie and coffee. The meal was served family style.

Cooper Club

The Cooper Home Demonstration club met Monday for their regular meeting at the church annex in the form of a covered dish luncheon. The business meeting, after lunch, was conducted by the president, Mrs. R. C. Moser, at which time plans were made to participate in Achievement Day for Wichita County Oct. 29. The annual business meeting was held. The vice president, Mrs. R. R. Koller, was in charge of the program which included ideas for Christmas gifts and a report from the 27th annual state convention held in Galveston recently. Mrs. Moser was a delegate from Wichita County to the convention and she gave the report. Some of the highlights of the convention were phrases of the lectures given by Mrs. J. M. Perkins. She selected as her subject "Home, the corner stone of Freedom." Mrs. Perkins warned we neglect to give a personal pronoun to a majority of the things in our every day life. She illustrated this by saying if you hear a group repeating the pledge to the flag, nine out of ten people never say I pledge.

Select Nation's Outstanding 4-H'ers as Honored Delegates to Club Congress

(Above) Discussion periods are a feature of the Club Congress. All delegates are divided into "huddles" of six, these units reaching an opinion on various "agree-disagree" questions. Then the groups reassemble for final deliberation. Most questions at the 1953 Club Congress likely will concern the theme—"Working Together for World Understanding."

CHICAGO—Special—More than 1,200 outstanding rural youth—mostly farm boys and girls—from the 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico, will be honored delegates to the 32nd National 4-H Congress in Chicago, November 29-December 3. They are the "cream of the crop" selected by the Extension Service as state, sectional and national winners in the 1953 4-H award programs of projects of agriculture and homemaking.

The youthful delegates will represent more than 2 million active fellow members throughout the United States.

Expenditures of the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, a citizens' group, total approximately $900,000 in grants annually to assist the Cooperative Extension Service in furthering the program, membership and influence of 4-H. The major portion of the grants, which are provided by some 40 industrial organizations, foundations and prominent public-spirited men and women, are used for 4-H merit awards, including medals, savings bonds, trips, college scholarships and leader training.

Among the corporations and foundations providing grants are Allis-Chalmers, American Forest Products Industries, Carnation Co., Firestone Tire, Ford Motor Co. and Ford Tractor Division, General Motors, Hercules Powder, International Harvester, Kellogg Co., Kerr Glass, Mathieson Chemical, Montgomery Ward, Nash-Kelvinator, Sears-Roebuck Foundation, Simplicity Pattern, Spool Cotton, Standard Brands, United States Rubber, and Westinghouse Educational Foundation. Cooperation is also provided by the Illinois Central, North Western, Rock Island and Milwaukee Railroads, Procter Electric Co., Spinnery Yarn, Toni Co., and Wm. Wrigley, Jr., Co. and Gene Autry.

Oil companies collaborating include American Oil, General Petroleum, Pan-Am Southern, Pure Oil, Standard Oil Foundation, Inc. (Chicago), Standard Oil Co. (Kentucky), The Standard Oil Co. (Ohio), Stanolind Oil and Gas, and Utah Oil Refining.

Individual donors include The President of the United States, Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen, Thomas E. Wilson, Edward Ross Wilson and Conrad Hilton.

"So fundamental and significant are the accomplishments of the 4-H Clubs that their principles have been accepted and initiated in more than 30 countries around the world," said G. L. Noble, director of the National Committee. "This is a splendid record," he continued, "considering that at the same time there has been consistent growth and a stronger foundation of sturdy citizenship laid at home. In part this accounts for the growing support of 4-H by our agricultural and industrial leaders."

they start by saying the pledge and leave off the personal pronoun. She concluded her speech by saying our home corner stone to be strong must be built on love, holy attitude, confidence and God given talents.

Other highlights of the convention were Miss Iris Davenport who spoke on Mental grooming. Miss Davenport is a staff member for the Progressive Farmer magazine. She reminds the women that she could not tell the country women from the city women and won't it be nice when you can't tell one country from another.

Mr. O. C. Wimpee of Dallas spoke on the danger of narcotics and he stressed the point that we are 72,000 teachers short in the state of Texas due to the fact the teachers are so poorly paid, yet Texans spent 5 million dollars for cigarettes and 9 million dollars for liquor last year. Wake up Texas we are spending much more to put the brain to sleep than we are to educate it!

Miss Hogan, regional director of the Southeastern region spoke on Boivia. She contrasted the Bolivian Woman's life with that of a home maker from Texas.

Civil defense, safety in the home and on the farm and mental hygiene were other highlights of the meeting.

The Cooper club had 7 members present for the meeting Monday. The next meeting will be Oct. 26th in the home of Mrs. J. D. Kennedy.

FHA-FFA Box Supper Enjoyed By Members

The Burkburnett chapter of the FFA and the FHA enjoyed a box supper at the youth center Monday Oct. 12. Boxes were auctioned off by several of the FFA boys. All boxes brought in from one to three dollars. After an enjoyable dinner, the members and their visitors enjoyed a few square dances.

Mr. Duke, the FFA leader adjourned the meeting.

The box supper was held to raise money for the annual trip to the Dallas Fair, Saturday, Oct. 17th. Net proceeds were $37.45.

Modern Art Takes a Licking!

Did you know we had a real artist in town? Yes sir! Handy Jackson was a contributor to the Sculpture Exhibition at the Centerville Fair last week. His work was streaky pink and curved all around—sort of streamlined. Caused quite a stir. Nobody was sure what it was supposed to represent, but some liked it and thought it was good art. Handy gave me the lowdown: "Why, it was nothing but a piece of cattle salt our cows have been lickin' at for months. I just had it mounted. Fooled a lot of folks—one fellow even wanted to buy it!" From where I sit, Handy's "modern art" just shows how some people can be led astray. Some even get to be "experts"—especially about the other fellow's business. Whether it's art or music, or a simple thing like choosing, say, beer or milk with a snack, we should live and let live. There's no call for either of us to set ourselves up as a "model" for the other!

Meet Kaiser's "Million Miler!"

He's Louis Prante, who has driven 929,000 miles, in "buffalo country" and is heading for his millionth mile in his 9th Kaiser!

Driving upwards of 325 miles a day over rugged, "Wild West" territory, Louis Prante, of Cody, Wyoming, knows cars as well as he knows his hilly two-state wholesale newspaper route. And he picks Kaiser over all others for ruggedness . . . comfort . . . and low-cost!

Loads up to 2750 pounds!
 "At present our car runs about 325 miles per day," he writes. "The load varies from 750 to 2750 pounds. Speeds range from 55 to 65 miles per hour."
 "In this number of miles (929,000), we have not 'knocked out' either a rod or main bearing, have not replaced a clutch in any of these cars, and have not replaced a drive shaft or rear end."

Other make failed!
 "During the period September, 1950 to April, 1951, I tried one of the 'Big Three' on this job and in a period of 60,000 miles we replaced one clutch, and all bearings in rear end and transmission."
 "There may be other makes that will do as well for us, but I doubt that any will do better than the eight Kaisers we have used and our present Kaiser."
 Signed Louis Prante

Your Senator Reports

by LYNDON B. JOHNSON
(Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, writing from Washington, gives a weekly report on happenings in the National Capital as they affect Texas and Texans).

TRAVELING TEXAS: Since Congress adjourned and I came back to Texas, I have done a lot of traveling. I have visited in literally hundreds of towns and have talked with thousands of Texans.

I really enjoy this part of my job. It is a great pleasure to travel over our wonderful state. It is a genuine privilege to get to talk with so many of my fellow Texans.

Before the next session of Congress begins in January, I hope to have spent some time in every congressional district.

Sound Sense: I find that Texans generally have their traditionally sensible attitude toward the problems facing our Nation. They want no backing down from the Communists.

They unhold a strong national defense program.

They want United States aid to foreign nations sharply curtailed.

They favor a non partisan approach to our international and domestic problems.

They want and need an early lightening of their tax burdens. They oppose weakening the Taft-Hartley Act.

These are among the subjects on which most Texans have very definite opinions. It helps me greatly, during this better-sessions period, to get their views.

Farm Problem: My travels have taken me through many important agricultural areas of Texas. In all of them, I have found a deep uneasiness on the part of the people about the future of agriculture.

Drought and falling prices have put the farmer and rancher between a rock and a hard place. They need help.

The future agricultural program is one of the most important matters that will come before the session of Congress beginning next January. Between now and then, I would like to hear from as many of you as care to write me about the kind of program you think will best meet the situation.

Cost of Living: Unfortunately, the fall in farm prices has been of little or no help to the consumer.

port says living costs are now at an all time high. The food price index is up. One factor behind the increase is said to be higher prices for beef and veal.

The farmer gets less. The cattleman gets less. But the consumer pays more.

Sales Tax: It looks as if the Administration is backing away fast from the idea of trying to get a sales tax through the next session of Congress. The President has said he opposes a sales tax. He left the way open, however for possible support of a "manufacturer's excise tax."

I personally think we must make further cuts in Government spending. Economy is not easy for a government or for an individual. But sometimes it is necessary. This is such a time.

Thrifty Meat Meals: The Department of Agriculture has published a booklet containing over 100 recipes and suggestions for the selection, preparation, and serving of the cheaper grades and cuts of beef, pork, veal and lamb. Name of the booklet is "Meat for Thrifty Meals." If you would like to have a copy write my Washington office and say so. It will be sent promptly. Bee Seeing You I hope to see many of you in person within the next few weeks. It's great

Garden Club Council Meets In Home Of Mrs. Tom Britton

The Garden club council met in the home of Mrs. Tom Britton Tuesday, Oct. 6th for a morning coffee and business session. Ten members and 2 guests were present.

Many plans for the Flower Show, "Autumn Glory" Oct. 29 at Town Hall, are completed, with others still in the process of completion. It was decided to have a silver tea table at the flower show. Tea or coffee with cookies will be served all the guests as they are given an opportunity to give their offering to help pay the expenses of the show.

The Burkburnett Art club is making the posters advertising the flower show. Decorations are being made by garden club members.

Mrs. Neal Hall, a guest, from the Unity Garden club, displayed a frame of flower stamps, all foreign, as the United States has no stamp with a flower on it. She gave twenty reasons why the United States should have a flower stamp or set of flower stamps. The council will sponsor a petition to the post master general to be signed by the clubs of this district and the Santa Rosa society asking for a flower stamp. The public will be given a chance to sign this petition at the flower show where the frame of foreign stamps and the reasons for a United States flower stamp will be on display.

Mrs. Troy Miller, president, reminded all present of the lecture, slide show and flower arranging to be given by Mrs. Jasper C. Ferguson of Wichita Falls, Oct. 21 at Town Hall.

Mrs. A. L. Gilbow, general chairman for organizing new garden clubs, was given a rising vote of thanks for her effective efforts in organizing new garden clubs. The Fashion Rose club has about completed its organization with Mrs. Harley Evans as general chairman. Two other clubs are almost completed. Women desiring membership in a garden club should contact Mrs. A. L. Gilbow.

"Tulips of Holland," a color slide show will be given by Sgt. Platte some time in Nov. at Town Hall. The exact date will be given later. There will be a charge of fifty cents. The money from this show will be used in the highway beautification project.

Delicious coffee and sweet rolls were served to those present by the gracious hostess.

Texas State Dept. of Health

By Geo. W. Cox, M. D.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that it is the duty of every citizen, young and old, to help in preventing the spread of disease. Every man, woman and child in Texas has a personal obligation to keep as well as possible, and to do all they can to protect others from illness. Even a child in kindergarten can be taught to cover a cough or sneeze and thus help in preventing the spread of colds or other diseases that start with the symptoms of a cold.

Dr. Cox emphasizes the fact that the local health officer can do little to break the chain of communicable disease in the community if he does not have the whole-hearted support of the people. Every case of illness that looks suspicious of being a communicable disease should be promptly reported to the health officer. Physicians report to the county or city health officer the cases of communicable diseases they diagnose, but parents often fail in this duty. The local health officer cannot start control measures unless he is informed of cases or suspected cases of communicable diseases.

Some signs and symptoms which often accompany diseases are running nose, coughing and sneezing, dizziness or faintness, swelling about the neck, sore throat, unusual paleness, ear ache or running ears, feverish appearance, rash, vomiting or diarrhea and irritability or other change in normal behavior and appearance.

Help to prevent the spread of communicable disease in your neighborhood by observing correct health practices and reporting promptly any appearance of suspicious symptoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White visited Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McCall and their new daughter, Carolyn Sue, in Berger over the weekend. Carolyn Sue was born Oct. 7.

Unity Garden Club Has Guest Speaker

Mrs. George Beavers and Mrs. Mark C. Neal of Vernon were guest speakers and demonstrators of flower arranging at the meeting of the Unity Garden club Thursday, Oct. 8th in the Mary Martha class room of the First Baptist church.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Troy Miller and Mrs. A. L. Gilbow.

Mrs. Ralph White, president, introduced Mrs. J. M. Patterson, Mrs. A. H. Lohofener and the members of the Fashion Rose Garden club as some of the guests present.

Mrs. White also gave a brief report of her trip to Alpine to State Fall Board meeting. She said one of the high lights was a showing of color slides of the wild flowers of the area.

Plans for a request to the post master general for a United States postage stamp or set of stamps with flowers on them was presented by Mrs. Neal Hall.

The Fashion Rose, flower of Burkburnett, is being purchased by many garden club members and their friends. Efforts are being made to secure good two year old plants for anyone who desires them. Any garden club member may be contacted for this purpose. Mrs. C. M. Archer of the Burkburnett Garden club is chairman of the project.

Mrs. Beavers said in her talk "A thought out plan in arranging flowers makes a better arrangement."

Quoting Mrs. Neal, "Harmony means the spirit of your completed arrangement."

Both were interesting speakers but even more interesting as demonstrators. They criticized the several lovely arrangements on display by local members.

Mrs. White reminded those present of the lecture and slides at the Town Hall, Oct. 21 at 2 p. m. presented by Mrs. Jasper Ferguson of Wichita Falls. She stressed the fall flower show "Autumn Glory" at Town Hall Oct. 29.

Delicious cookies and punch were served to the members and their guests.

Baby Boom Here Points Up Home Equipment Woes

Although there'll always be a change in the weather and a change of all this year in Texas will be in diapers. The U. S. Bureau of Vital Statistics is father to this thought. Its records show that during the first seven months of this year 129,643 births were recorded in the state. And this bumper production shows no signs of let-up since there were 108 births registered in July alone.

Gas appliance people, who make studies of these things, say that changes in the homes of these new-born Texans are considerably more far-reaching than those demanded almost hourly by the infants themselves. In fact, the Gas Appliance

Manufacturers Association says when a new baby takes over in the average home, the hardest hit appliance of all — aside from the parents, of course — is the hot water system. That's because 12 to 18 freshly laundered diapers are required in a 24-hour period in addition to normal hot water demands for bathing, cleaning and dishwashing. At the bottom of all this is the too-frequent tendency of home owners to install undersized heaters, GAMA points out. Where heaters are of sufficient tank capacity, there's no need for Father to sacrifice his hot shower or shave, or for Mother to neglect the dishes or family wash just so the diaper demand can be met.

Outdoor drying — dependent as it is on the vagaries of weather — is another thing that changes with the arrival of a baby since dry diapers must be available rain or shine. That's one of the main reasons, GAMA says, for the tremendous growth in popularity of the gas clothes dryer. It will fluff dry a full day's change of diapers in 30 minutes and simultaneously keep Mom from keeling over from exhaustion from trotting in and out to the clothesline with another bundle of wash.

And there's one final thing that should change for the better with the arrival of the baby, the climate, if it isn't already as good as modern home-heating apparatus can make. That's the reason, GAMA claims, there's such a trend to gas heat in new homes since many gas operated heating systems distribute controlled warmth through a duct network which can be used for sending cool, filtered air thru the house during the summer. This means year-round comfort and elimination of dust, smoke and odors from the atmosphere. And that, GAMA remarks, is nothing to be sneezed at!

Just A Little Boy

He was just a happy, innocent little boy. His eyes were blue with long lashes, red cheeks, and hair of redish hue. He wore a crimson sweater, with small trousers to match. He had a habit of whistling and like to ask questions, and was usually accompanied by a small forlorn looking dog. It has been some time now since he appeared. His mother has a very pleasant house and much company. Her visitors would say, "Ah it is pleasant here. Everything has an orderly putaway look!"

But her eyes were aching for the sight of whistling and cut paper on the floor; tumble down card houses; of wooden sheep and cattle; of poggans, bows and arrows, whips, tops, go carts, blocks and trumpets. She wanted to see toy trains and their tracks, toy pistols with their scabbards and belts, crumbles of bread on the carpet and paste spilled upon the table. She wanted to see the chairs and tables turned wrong way about; yet those things used to fret her.

They say: "How quiet you are here. Ah! one may settle down and be at peace." But her ears were aching for the pattering of little feet; for a hearty shout a shrill whistle, for the crack of toy pistols caps, the noise of drums and fifes and trumpets; yet these things used to make her very nervous. She longed to be asked for a bit of string or an old newspaper, for some money to buy an ice cream cone or a lollypop. She wanted to be asked for a strip of cloth for gibs and mainsails, and the makings of a kite. To be followed by little feet all over the house; teased for a bit of dough for a little cake or to bake a pie in a saucer; yet those things used to fidget her.

They would say: "You are not tied at home. No confinement for you. How delightful to be always at liberty." But she wanted confinement. She wanted to listen for the school bells mornings, to give the last hasty wash and brush, and then to watch, from the window, nimble feet bounding to school. She wanted frequent rips to mend, and to replace lost buttons; to obliterate mud stains, and paints and colors. She wanted to be sitting by a little crib of evenings, when weary feet are at rest, and prattling voices are hushed. The mothers may sing their lullabies and tell over the oft-repeated stories, they didn't know their happiness then those mothers. Neither did she who used call all of these things confinement.

She longs again to see a tired little boy in a long white nightgown, lying in his crib, with her sitting by, holding his hand in hers, pushing the locks of hair back from his forehead, watching his eyelids droop, and listening to his deep breathing.

Oh, if only she had her little boy again, how happy would she be! How much would she bear, and how little would she fret and scold! But fate has intervened, and she can never have him back again! But there are many mothers who haven't yet lost their little boys. I wonder if they know they are living their best days and that now is the time really to enjoy their children?

Mighty Midget Starts Revolution

THIS IS A "TRANSISTOR" . . . the most important single invention ever developed by telephone scientists. Now used mostly for military purposes, it promises to revolutionize the design of many everyday electronic devices, from hearing aids to television sets. In telephone equipment it is expected to replace vacuum tubes — doing the same job, but taking up far less space and using far less power. Not all the new ideas developed by telephone research are as exciting as this. But every year an average of 260 inventions and improvements are made to help us keep our telephone service high in value — low in cost. SOUTHWESTERN BELL . . .
