T. Felty received the awards presented by Clark Gresham, outgoing president, for many extra hours of work and consideration each gave to the community, not only during 1953 but in the past years as well. More than 250 persons representing 10 surrounding towns from both Texas and Oklahoma attended the banquet. L. J. Byars was installed as new president of the Burk Burnett Chamber of Commerce during the banquet. He explained the necessity of guidance and disciplined control of youth by their parents and adult leaders. Advice To Adults: He warned also that leaders of a community live in glass houses and their every action is observed and recorded by the impression youth who often mold his own life to follow the pattern of a particular adult. By setting the right examples and by molding the youth of today we can form our town of the future. Hill, recipient of the award for outstanding service is manager of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Felty has been engaged in Burk Burnett youth programs and Parents-Teachers Association. New Postoffice Building for Burk Is Possibility

There is a possibility that Burk Burnett may become eligible for a new Postoffice building, IF... Senator Majority Leader William F. Knowland is pressing for early Senate action on the so-called lease-purchase bill which could bring about the construction of federal buildings in Wichita County costing $436,000. The projects, authorized by Congress in the past, include a post office building at Iowa Park worth $211,000 and another at Burk Burnett costing $225,000.00. Under the terms of the measure, the government would enter into a lease-purchase agreement with a private firm. The firm would construct the building according to the government's specifications. The agreements would run from 10 to 25 years and by the termination date of the contract the federal government will have paid off the "mortgage" on the property and assume title to it. The Chamber of Commerce at Iowa Park has already appointed a committee to work on prospects to secure a site for the proposed building.

Fishing Paradise to Be Created In Okla. by Burk Burnett Man

A fisherman's and camper's paradise is being created in Oklahoma on Cache Creek, according to Ray L. Reeves, former Burk Burnett grocerman. Moose Camp, located seven miles south and two miles west of Temple, Oklahoma on Cache creek, will soon become a first class fishing and camping resort, according to the new owner. Reeves has purchased the facilities formerly owned by Jim Smith and began construction and complete remodeling last week. The site is located on U. S. Highway No. 70, 8 miles East of Randlett on the Waurika highway. Reeves said that his plans include the construction of a modern grocery store at the present site, the construction of modern cabins and the creation of a picnic area with tables, chairs and fireplaces. The camp is serviced with REA electricity, and plenty of good drinking water is available. There will be no fees for fishing at the camp. The only thing necessary is an Oklahoma fishing license, which may be purchased at the store headquarters. Reeves says he will have the best channel cat fishing site in the country. In addition, sand bass, drum and black bass are abundant. The large store at headquarters will carry a complete line of groceries and picnic and fishing supplies. The picnic site will be amid large, shady pecan trees. Deal Closed Last Week A Moose Camp fan for about four years, Reeves said that he had had his eye on the camp for the past two years and closed the deal last Tuesday for its purchase. Reeves is married and has two boys and two girls. They have moved to Oklahoma and are making their home in Temple, where the children are attending school. In connection with the fishing facilities on Cache Creek, Reeves plans to have good boats for rent, all kinds of fishing tackle, licenses and also plans to operate a live bait stand. Need Is Seen Reeves said that he had seen the need for such an establishment in this part of the state which is sadly lacking in resorts of this type. Construction will be speeded, the new owner said, so that the resort will be ready for the spring fishermen. First, Reeves will clear the area surrounding the camp site, and then start construction on several new cabins, the main store, and the setting up of the picnic area. Construction is to take from 30 to 60 days, according to Reeves.

Mrs. Shirks Guest Speaker For Nurse Home Election

Mrs. Wilmer Shirks, chairman of the Wichita Falls League of Nursing Education, has been secured as guest speaker at the Town Hall on Wednesday, Jan. 27th, at 2:00 p. m. on the important issue of the nurses' home bond election set for Jan. 30th. This meeting was arranged by department chairmen of the Current Literature Club; Mrs. F. M. McMurtry, Welfare; Mrs. Francis Kauer, education; Mrs. W. B. Short, American homes; and Mrs. R. W. White, Americanism; and should be of interest to everyone in this country. The purpose of the meeting is for the public to familiarize themselves with the need of the nursing home and also to show the plans of the home. The home would be built directly behind the present home at 1800 Ross St. It would provide facilities for 66 students. This would increase the School of Nursing at Wichita General Hospital from the present approximately 40 students to about 100. It would contain both living quarters and classroom space. The demand for professional nurses in this area far exceeds the supply, but with these modern facilities, more young girls of this area would choose the nursing profession as a career. It is also pointed out that the average taxpayer's share of the cost would be about 54c per year for a period of 20 years.

Damages Denied In Accident Suit

A 78th District Court jury late Tuesday afternoon denied W. G. Shipman of Wichita Falls damages in his $25,098 suit against A. H. Lohoefer, Burk Burnett postmaster. Shipman's petition alleged he was struck by a car driven by Lohoefer on Tenth near the Marchman Hotel, Dec. 5, 1952. Shipman claimed left leg and left hip injuries. The trial opened last Thursday. Testimony was completed Friday and the case went to the jury Tuesday morning. Jurors returned a verdict shortly after 5:30 p. m. Judge Temple Shell presided. "Find a way to secure food and habitation for the millions of Europeans, Africans and Asians, not by gift—but by the honest sweat of their own effort and work—and the turmoil that generates revolution, anarchy and communism will subside." This is the considered belief of a scientist who has studied the unequal battle between the human race and starvation—and who has been doing something about it. In an inspiring address to the national state Agricultural Commissioners, Dr. Robert White-Stevens, a nutrition scientist at Lederle Laboratories, Pearl River, N. Y., lifted the curtain of famine shrouding a world that now produces about 40 percent of minimum needs in food and fibers—and let some light shine through "Perhaps the County Agents of today," said Dr. White-Stevens, "are the forerunners of a great host of men and women who will go out from America in years to come, not to conquer men of other lands, but to lead them by the hand to conquer their own problems of need and want. They can show the backward peoples of the earth how to help themselves rather than trying to feed them off the farms of America, a hopelessly impossible task on the face of it.

To indicate how impossible, Dr. White-Stevens resorted to Arithmetic. "There are now approximately two billion people on this earth, and despite war and famine, disease and disaster, the number increases by at least 40 million new mouths to feed and new bodies to clothe and shelter each January first."

The farms of the world total two billion acres, and "by present world-wide average methods", Dr. White-Stevens calculated five billion acres would be required to support the present population "at a bare subsistence level."

The solution, he thinks, can only lie in world wide application of the knowledge now available to agriculture and the continued search for improvement in soil, plants and animals—including investigation of new "areas of food and fiber production—so called barren lands, lakes, oceans, microbes, undomesticated plants and animals and insects.

In spite of America's tremendous strides in scientific agriculture, Dr. White-Stevens admits that we are not quite up to scratch here at home. "If all the knowledge now on the books were fully applied on the farm," he said, three times our current agricultural production could be accomplished on half the land now cultivated in the US" But, because of our agricultural education system, we have been able to show the world tremendous progress already.

Thus, he thinks the world's best hope of a full dinner pail lies in the capable hands of America's County Agricultural Agents. They must plant the seed of knowledge in fertile ground before the discoveries of research can be harvested.

HEADS UP!

This is going to be a good year for eclipses — according to scientists of the General Electric Company. Following that total eclipse of the moon on January 18th, enthusiastic eclipse-watchers will be happy to know the year will provide four more.

If you happen to be a hundred-mile path starting in northeastern Nebraska and extending northeasterly across Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, across Ontario and Quebec to the coast of Labrador, and even on a ship in the right spot on the Atlantic, you will see a total eclipse of the sun on June 30th. In the central and eastern part of the country, you will have to be satisfied with a partial eclipse. On July 15th the moon, after it's complete blackout in January, will give a partial eclipse as an encore. The sun will put on two more performances during the year, but you'll have to arrange to go to South America for a good look. These will not be total, however, so maybe you won't want to bother.

We might also mention there was a partial eclipse of the income tax this year.

BUTTER BATTLE

The Russians, at last report, were willing to pay 40 cents a pound for perhaps 10,000 of the 131,000 tons of our most embarrassing surplus—that butter.

Butter, of course, as Secretary of Commerce Weeks has pointed out, is on the non-strategic list. Bue we suspect the whole Administration would be on the strategic list with the American housewife if that 80 cent butter went to Russia (of all places) at half price.

And that was what we used to say about "Food will win the war".

MJF Met Jan. 10th At The Church

The MJF met Sunday night, Jan. 10th at the First Methodist Church. The meeting was called to order by our president, Judy Hofacket. The minutes were read and approved by our secretary, Julia Ann Henry. We sang songs and hymns. Mrs. Melton told us about Puerto Ricans in New York. Mrs. Pirtle told a brief story called "New York for Pablo."

Delicious refreshments were served by Margaret Faulk to Judy Hofacket, Pat Kay Inlow, Gary Wood, Patsy Groves, Carmen Ware, Sharon and Richard Rood, Eddie Eastman, Susie Revier, Julia Ann and Michael Henry, Margaret Faulk, Kay Zimmerman, Allen Greenup and Thomas McDonald. We had one visitor, Mrs. Faulk.

Anyone who would like to come to our meetings, is welcome. Our MJF stands for Methodist Junior Fellowship. Anyone between the ages of 9 and 13 is welcome. Time is 6:00 to 7:00 p. m. Sunday nights.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Adams visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mills of Electra Sunday. Mr. Mills has just been returned to his home from a Snyder hospital where he was seriously ill for several weeks. Their son Earl Wayne was called home from England to his bedside. Open Even When He's Closed

Must have been daydreaming on my way to a meeting down in Centerville the other night. My car ran dry before I thought to look at the gas gauge, but I managed to coast into a gas station—and found it closed!

Well, I thought my plans were ruined for sure until I noticed a gasoline can with a sign: "This is emergency gas. Just help yourself and leave the can with $1.00. Thanks."

Got started, made the meeting on time, and had enough gas to get back home again—a trusting friend.

From where I sit, folks trust their neighbors more than ever. In fact, I've had a personal preference, way of trusting your neighbor. Sometimes I prefer a glass of beer in the evening. I'll always ask you before I pour yours.

LIONS CLUB

Meets at Town Hall, 7:00 P. M. Each Tuesday

Two baby Lions were introduced: Brack Preston, Jr., and Glen L. Schroeder.

Lions Homer Gilbert and Jas. Foyce had charge of the program. Gilbert introduced Curtis Cook, editor of the Wichita Falls Record News, who brought his annual report on World Affairs.

Cook, who made a total of 214 speeches last year to various clubs and organizations, has a keen insight on world conditions as they exist, and possible future happenings. Last year Cook was permitted to visit behind the iron curtain in Eastern Germany and Eastern Austria. Some twenty years ago he visited in Austria and was deeply impressed by the friendliness of the freedom-loving people. On this last visit he noted a decided contrast in the feelings and actions of the people. Under the heel of the Russians, the Austrians fear and suspect everyone. No questions were answered until cleared by some higher authority.

Cook said the Russians are losing more soldiers in Austria than all the other satellites combined. If uprisings should come the Austrians will deal the Russians plenty of misery. Cook stated the Big Four Foreign Ministers were meeting Tuesday night to set up the agenda for talks to begin probably on January 26th. The European Defense Compact will probably come up for discussion and the outcome of the decisions concerning it will affect us vitally, as well as the rest of the world. Cook predicted failure of the U. S. proposal that atomic information for industrial purposes be shared by all nations. He also predicted failure for the contention of a united Germany. In his opinion Russia will never permit free inspection of industrial plants behind the iron curtain.

The Wichita Falls editor said Trieste could be the next explosion point, with northern Indo China the other hot spot. The decisions in Berlin between the foreign ministers may well decide the events for some time to come.

In conclusion Cook reminded all present that this is an interesting political year. He urged everyone to get a poll tax receipt and vote in every election. "Only by the exercise of our freedoms can we protect them," Cook warned.

Next week C. J. Lippard and John Lilley will bring the program. The club collected some $118 to be applied on the purchase of a new piano for Town Hall.

Jr. Garden Club Holds Meeting

The Junior Garden club held its regular monthly meeting in the home of Irma Ned Riley, Jan. 15. The brief business meeting was presided over by Charlene Preston, President. The group decided to hold its February meeting in the form of a valentine party and accepted their President's invitation to meet in her home. The door prize was won by Charlotte Johnson. Mrs. Walter Riley was in charge of the workshop. Each member was urged to bring her notebook and use it at every meeting. A balanced program of horticulture, Nature study, conservation, simple flower arrangement and civic beautification has been planned for the group by the Burkburnett Garden Club, sponsor of the Junior Club, it was advised, and each member should make notes on instructions given. Mrs. Riley stated another necessary item to bring to the meetings, is a box containing scissors, needle point holder, modeling clay and a container. The group was then given simple basic rules for an arrangement and Mrs. Riley constructed an arrangement according to the rules. Mrs. O. E. Melton assisted with the meeting. Refreshments were served to eleven members and one guest.

Ever add up the TAXES you pay with your TELEPHONE bill?

OUT OF YOUR TELEPHONE BILL last year was paid an average in Texas of $42.36 per telephone in taxes. Of this amount, almost half - $18.96 - was Federal excise or "luxury" tax. This tax we simply collected and turned over to the Federal government, at the rate of 15 per cent on your local service and long distance calls costing less than 25 cents, and 25 per cent on long distance calls costing 25 cents or more. If you subtract this tax from your bill, doesn't the actual cost of your telephone service look like an even better bargain than you thought it was? SOUTHWESTERN BELL... Lone Star Gas Co. Executive Staff Increases

An increase of Lone Star Gas Company's executive staff to include six new vice presidents, an executive vice president, and the elevation of two vice-presidents to the rank of senior vice-presidents, has been announced by D. A. Hulcy, President and Chairman of the Board, following a two day Dallas meeting of the Company's board of directors.

The action, unprecedented in the company's history, is designed to meet the increasingly complex problems resulting from the tremendous growth of the company and its operating territory, Mr. Hulcy said. While some branches of the company's operations have more than doubled in the past 10 years, other segments have almost tripled, he pointed out. From 1942, for example, through 1952, the company built and added more property that it had accumulated in all of its previous 33 years. Since World War II, number of customers has increased from 363,000 to 685,000.

In last weeks board action, Vice President Elmer F. Schmidt and Chester L. May were elected senior vice-presidents. L. T. Potter, assistant to the president, was elected vice president and a member of the Board of Directors. Six new vice president were elected, including M. L. Bird, operating manager of the company's general distribution division. Other new vice presidents are Marshall Newcomb, general counsel and board member; J. L. Foster, general superintendent of transmission; E. A. Brown, manager of exploration and gas supply; W. F. Wright, general manager of Dallas distribution operations, and Joe C. Darrow, general manager of the Fort Worth distribution operations.

company's strong and steady growth through their respective positions. Mr. Schmidt, heading transmission and production, has been a leader in gas conservation methods and through his leadership Lone Star has developed its gas reserves position as the "strongest in its 44 year history." Mr. May, as head of distribution pioneered in building gas distribution systems for Southwest communities far removed from the supply in the field. Both men are members of the Board.

Lone Star's new executive vice president, L. T. Potter, a native Dallasite, has been with the company since his graduation from Texas A&M College in 1928. He worked in gas measurement before transfer to the company's headquarters offices as assistant production engineer and was appointed production superintendent in 1941. In 1945 he was named assistant general superintendent of the Transmission Division and two years later was appointed assistant to the president.

Mr. Newcomb, who has represented Lone Star in many litigations and legal transactions including the reorganization of the company before the Securities and Exchange Commission in 1942, was elected to the Board of Directors in 1949. He joined the company in 1927 and has served as general counsel since 1948.

M. L. Bird, one of the newly elected vice presidents, retains the operating management of the general division of distribution to which he was appointed in October, 1949. In this post he

New Oldsmobile Go On Display Year In Advance

Oldsmobile for 1954 goes on display, Wednesday, January 20, one full year ahead of schedule.

"The new 1954 Oldsmobile models originally were planned for release in 1953," according to J. F. Wolfram, general manager of Oldsmobile and vice president of General Motors. But original plans were scrapped early in 1953 when it was found possible to move the 1955 model up to 1954. The result of this skip-a-year program is the most completely new, completely changed, completely advanced Oldsmobile in many years.

The new models, "88", Super "88" and "98", are a full three inches lower than their predecessors without sacrificing ground sweeping changes as an all new body by Fisher, a new wide, wrap-around, panoramic windshield, new sweep cut fender and door design and many other styling innovations.

The new "Rocket" engine is bigger—up in horsepower from 165 to 185 in the Super "88" and "98" models, (170 in the "8" models) and up in compression ratio from 8 to 1 to 8.25 to 1. Engine displacement is increased from 303 to 324 cu. in., and the entire car is engineered so that the increased power is useable power, power that the driver can put to use in the medium and low speed ranges, in ordinary, every day, driving situations.

Many of the new styling features were inspired by the General Motors experimental dream cars, particularly the Oldsmobile Starfire. All models in the "88" series are not only three inches lower, but are two inches longer and this of course gives the cars the new, low-level silhouette. The panoramic windshield and sweepcut door and fender treatment are outstanding styling features and contributes much to Oldsmobile's new "sports car" look, even in the conventional two and four door models. Fenders, front and rear are higher almost level with the hood in front and with the rear deck in back.
