Stray Dogs Still Running Loose

According to City Manager T. R. McCasling, many complaints are still coming in about stray dogs running loose all over town. Many claim they are afraid to let their small children play outside because of the danger of their being bitten by a rabid dog. A City Ordinance prohibits dogs which have not been vaccinated against rabies from running at large over town, and also provides a penalty for the owners of dogs not vaccinated. One rabid dog could bite dozens of small school children on the school grounds. From one to two dozen dogs may be found on the school grounds any time during school hours. Children are urged to leave their dogs at home. They are also warned to stay away from all dogs on the school grounds because it is sometimes impossible to tell when a dog does have rabies.

When you have your dog vaccinated against rabies, it is compulsory that you register the vaccination at the City Hall. There is no charge for the registration. Since the problem of loose dogs is growing worse, and the threat to the safety of children greater, McCasling indicated that whatever measures were necessary to control the situation will be employed. Have your dog vaccinated against rabies. Register that vaccination at the City Hall, and if possible, keep your dog on your own premises.

Mr. L. R. Todd, former resident of Burkburnett but who has resided in Electra, for the past ten years, has recently moved back to Burkburnett to make his home. ## THE RACE, AND THE GOAL

Census experts say that our population in 1975 should be around 200 million or more persons. It is a prediction that warrants sober thought and planning.

Hugh populations are a liability rather than an asset if they are non-productive and without equipment or resources. That is where capital comes into the glowing picture which the experts paint—capital goods and equipment on a larger scale.

Our 1975 labor force is expected to be around 88 million—a third larger than it is today. Jobs necessarily must be created for 22 million new workers, most of them in business and industry. There is a $12,000 investment behind the average job in America today, which means we'll need around 264 billion dollars of new investment by 1975 to provide equally productive jobs for our increased work force. ETAOIN SHRD CMFWMM

So here's the 264 billion dollar question: Will government costs and taxes be cut enough to permit the saving and investment needed for the future? That is a fervent hope, for the benefit of the glorious goal to be won, and the generations to come.

YOU ARE, OR YOU AREN'T

Let us suppose that you are asked a simple, direct question—which can be answered with a simple, direct "Yes or No."

The question is this: "Are you a Communist?" If you are not—and if you are a loyal American—your answer would be a resounding "No."

But suppose you say, "I refuse to answer that question on the ground that it might incriminate me. I invoke the Fifth Amendment."

Are you a Red traitor to America, or are you not? It's as simple as that. If you are not, why shouldn't you say so?

By executive order, President Eisenhower has directed that any government employee who invokes the Fifth Amendment before a Congressional investigating committee runs the risk of losing his job. It would seem that Ike wants the Communist question answered by a straight "Yes" or "No."

Solution To Sales Problem

Of late, the great farm equipment industry has been facing a sales problem. The problem resulted from a decline in farm income which, naturally, caused farmers to tighten purse strings and think twice before buying.

The farm equipment people haven't just shaken their heads and said the situation is bad but there's nothing to be done about it. Instead, they've come forward with a positive and far-sighted solution—new and better products.

The story is told in a Wall Street Journal News Article signed by Ray Vicker. It begins, "Farm equipment makers are giving a flock of pointers to other industries plagued with sluggish sales. They're rushing new products in production and giving fresh features to old ones." Mr. Vickers describes many of the improvements and they are striking and important ones, not just gimmicks.

Another point of interest is the attitude of the leaders in the industry. Mr. Vickers quotes an executive of one major concern as saying, "Production of greatly improved machines is in our best interest, and it is also in the best interest of our farmer customers." Another said, "If you sell 1954 equipment at the right prices, you can interest customers. If you try selling 1948 equipment at high prices, you are headed for trouble." Still another told him, "Farm labor is scarce and high priced. This, coupled with softened farm commodity prices, makes cost-reducing implements all the more important to farmers."

These views are typical of the entire industry. The upshot is that the farm equipment makers look to the future with confidence—and the farmer is getting the best tools the world has yet seen.

HE'S FIXING UP THAT FARM

The second Eisenhower term is already in the news, probably because the President himself has told White House visitors that four years in the toughest job in the world would be enough for him, and that he does not want to run again in 1956.

Republican leaders, however, don't seem too impressed. Other presidents have said the same thing, and meant it—and still have been dragged into another term. Also, they reminded us that in 1951 and early '52 General Ike insisted he would not quit his NATO job and run for office—even the top office.

But maybe President Eisenhower remembers that too—with nostalgia.

COOL COMFORT

It is nice to know that a plan for "effective defense" of the US against atomic and hydrogen bomb attack has been drawn up even though we are told at the same time what we had assumed all along, that "complete protection" is not possible.

Chairman Leverett Saltonstall of the Senate Armed Services committee, commenting on the hush hush report compiled by Robert C. Sprague, an engineer and manufacturer of North Adams, Mass., aided by top Government experts, said: "The measures now under way and planned for in the future, should, together with our offensive forces, provide an effective defense for the United States commensurate with the threat."

Which would seem to me that if an enemy waits till we are ready, and doesn't hit any harder than we expect him to, the nation should survive. But at least, Senator Saltonstall didn't reveal any military secrets.

2,368 Lives Lost In Texas Accidents

The 1953 highway traffic death book for Texas was officially closed today, according to Homer Garrison, Jr. Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Final figures for last year disclose that 2,368 persons lost their lives in motor vehicle traffic accidents during the period. This is a 5.2 percent decrease over 1952 when 130 more persons died than during 1953.

Garrison said that this reduction gave the state a 6.4 death rate—the lowest in the history of accident analysis in Texas. The death rate is figured on the basis of the number of fatalities per each 100 million motor vehicle miles travelled.

"We are gratified by the 1953 record and the continuing decline in the death rate," Garrison said.

son said. He pointed out that less people were traffic fatalities last year in spite of the fact that motorists racked up nearly 1-2 billion more miles of travel than during the preceding twelve months.

Total number of injuries dropped, also to 110,097, which was 2,871 below the number for 1952. The economic loss declined by more than $5 million to a total of $148,958,000 for the year.

Even the total number of accidents decreased too. The final figures showed 233,176 traffic mishaps, some 5,000 less than for 1952.

December again proved to be the most deadly month of the year according to the DPS statistical report, accounting for 258 of the traffic fatalities. August was next with 233.

The 2,368 traffic fatalities for 1953 was the lowest for any year since 1949. The traffic toll that year was 1,957 but the death rate was 7.3.

Accidents Claim Nine Lives This District

Wichita County, Texas, has lost nine lives in traffic accidents during the first six months of 1954, according to a report by the district attorney, K. B. Hallmark, Jr. announced today.

Hallmark says that again speeding violations led this district in being the number one traffic violation and that his 17 patrolmen arrested two hundred and fifty one and warned five hundred eighty two for the offense of speeding, improper passing was second with twenty-five people arrested and sixty-five warned for this violation. He pointed out that statewide the three leading traffic violations are speeding, drinking drivers and wrong side of the road or passing violations.

The seventeen patrolmen contacted a total of 2,209 violators of which 465 were arrested and 1,744 were warned of the warnings 532 were for violation of inspection law and the Captain warns that of the total 95,363 vehicles registered in his district only 40,277 have been inspected leaving approximately 55 percent to be inspected between now and April 15th, the deadline and urges that all who have not had their cars and trucks inspected do so now to avoid the last minute rush and avoid being penalized, as his men will arrest violators after the April 15th deadline and that violators can be fined from one to two hundred dollars for that offense.

In contacting 2,209 violators in February the twelve patrol cars in the Wichita Falls District were driven over 60,000 miles and the patrolmen encountered many different tasks in attempting to serve the people of North Texas for example one patrolman came to his Sergeant with the problem of what to do, as he had arrested a midget driving a regular size car while intoxicated and wanted to know if he should charge the midget with being "Half Drunk" as he was only half size.

Capt. Hallmark says that although his men are working many hours both day and night in attempting to assist the traveling public and make the highways safe for you and your

Junior High News

Plans are already being made and feelings are becoming enthusiastic concerning the Eighth grade banquet. This banquet will be held on April 30, at the Town Hall. Eighth graders and their guests will be present. This is one event that all grade and Junior high students look forward to.

Mr. R. J. Covington is the teacher of social studies in our seventh and eighth grades. The first semester the students study history; the second semester they study geography. The eighth grades study world geography and give world week reports once a week. These reports are optional, but students receive extra points if they make them.

The seventh grade students are studying Texas geography, and they, also, are allowed to make reports. At the present time all classes are in the process of making salt maps and placing on them the leading products of the countries or states they are studying. Mr. Covington invites parents to stop by his room and see these maps or visit his classes.

Grade School News

Mrs. Hardin and Miss Schaffer have just finished their unit on the study of birds. They have been studying this unit for almost a month. They made notebooks, pictures and bird trees. The children all enjoyed this work very much.

Since Easter is just around the corner, the children have started planning their Easter decorations, parties, etc. It seems there is one thing after another for the children to do in order to have a happy school year. We are always ready to start working on the next holiday's events.

Let us alert not to talk or perdict ourselves into a depression; rather let us look to the future with great expectation and plan for it.

Rock Hudson Hits New High In New Cochise Adventure At Palace Theatre Sun. - Mon.

Rock Hudson and Barbara Rush co-star in the technicolor drama of Apache warfare "Taza, Son of Cochise."

Through blazing battle and historic triumph, the wise ways of a great Chief are made to prevail among the Apache Indians in Universal-International's spectacular Technicolor production of Taza, Son of Cochise which opens Sunday at the Palace Theatre. And Rock Hudson, starred in the title role in vigorous command of the exciting sweep of events from the moment he receives the mantle of Apache rule from the dying Cochise.

Entrusted to pursue the peace the Cochise had fought for, Hudson undertakes the tremendous challenge of rebellious members of his nation, the evil plans of a bitter brother and the ominous threat of Geronimo who is waiting to stage the uprising that would wreck Cavalry rule and with it the legacy of Cochise.

Hudson is at first successful in winning the Cavalry over to his plea that only Apaches should punish Apaches. To effect this policy, a reservation police force is formed with Hudson as leader. However, when Geronimo breaks out and mobilizes the insurgent Apaches, the Apache patrol is abolished, whereupon Hudson gathers his loyal followers, rides into battle against Geronimo just as the Apache rule is about to be annihilated in a trap. With the traditions of Cochise preserved, Hudson begins a reign of peace and Geronimo is hustled off to federal prison.

Legion Notes From The Commander

Civil Defense officials, according to the preparedness conscious American Legion, estimate that a simultaneous atomic attack on 67 major American cities would result in about 11,000,000 casualties dead or injured.

What is there about an atomic bomb that makes it such a frightening weapon? Is it the deadly radiation? The intense heat? The terrifying shock wave? Perhaps it is something else—something we haven't given much thought to.

The national security experts of The American Legion say that actually the one and only contributing factor which makes an A-bomb so devastating effective is not to be found in the bomb at all. It is to be found in the target. Eliminating the target can be done in two ways, either by leaving the target area or by going underground. Leaving the target area in our metropolitan areas is virtually impossible. It leaves no alternative but to go underground. Going underground can be accomplished by the average family by merely building a lean to type of basement shelter. Atomic tests have proved that home shelters provide maximum protection with little expense and even less effort. One of the test houses near ground zero was completely swept away by the shock wave, while the simple basement shelter left a department store manequin unharmed.

An effective Civil Defense organization, with home shelters as an integral part, can contribute as much toward deterring World War III, as a strategic Air Force or a powerful Army and Navy. The Atomic bomb is here today. We must meet its threat by first being prepared at home.

Tonight there will be a called meeting and all members are requested to be present. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Beasley attended the all day singing convention at Bowie, Sunday.

Mr. Hal Mabry is slowly recovering from his recent illness. He is able to sit up now and would appreciate his friends coming to visit with him.

The party rooms were decorated with arrangements of spring flowers and the buffet table was centered with a bouquet of the selected flowers emphasizing the bride's chosen colors of pink and white. The wedding cake was ornamented with a miniature bride and groom.

The host and hostess greeted the guests on arrival and introduced them to the bride and groom. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Jack Witt who presided at the bride's book, and a niece Miss Laverne Witt, who served the cake. Others were Mesdames Grady Northcutt, R. U. Flatt and J. T. McCurtry aunts of the bride. Approximately 35 guests attended from Wichita Falls, Burkburnett and Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Arrington will establish residence in Wichita Falls.

Income Taxes

By R. D. Laney

Government represents the difference of opinion between themselves and the investigator, sent out by the Director of Internal Revenue, by paying a little more tax than was reported on their income tax returns.

Thousands of young persons are eligible to be reported as dependents by their parents, learn the first step in tax evasion by not earning an amount in excess of $600. A provision in the income tax law permits a tax payer to deduct from his income tax $600 for each dependent. As soon as the income of the dependent reaches $600, however this tax payer can no longer take deductions. In the highest brackets, an extra dollar of a dependent's earning can cost a family as much as $500 in increased taxes, were it not possible to include the dependent in their return.

Congress is now being pressed to consider changes in the law in regard to personal exemptions, and some change along this line would be welcomed. By merely raising the limit on incomes permitted to a dependent would free young peoples by the thousands from they will not be caught, but if caught, they can compromise the difference of opinion between themselves and the investigator, sent out by the Director of Internal Revenue, by paying a little more tax than was reported on their income tax returns.

Thousands of young persons are eligible to be reported as dependents by their parents, learn the first step in tax evasion by not earning an amount in excess of $600. A provision in the income tax law permits a tax payer to deduct from his income tax $600 for each dependent. As soon as the income of the dependent reaches $600, however this tax payer can no longer take deductions. In the highest brackets, an extra dollar of a dependent's earning can cost a family as much as $500 in increased taxes, were it not possible to include the dependent in their return.

Congress is now being pressed to consider changes in the law in regard to personal exemptions, and some change along this line would be welcomed. By merely raising the limit on incomes permitted to a dependent would free young peoples by the thousands from the heaviest of temptations to forget to be honest and to chisel their taxes. But until this is done, the temptation remains and will be taken advantage of by them in order to be able to earn an amount in excess of the allowable $600.

Surely many young people will work harder, longer, earn more money and pay more taxes and have a better stimulus to ambition and training in citizenship when some more sensible measure is enacted and which will improve present methods of dependent exemptions. They should be allowed to start their taxpaying lives other than present temptations to tax evasions which they believe to be the only protection against a legal absurdity.

President Eisenhower in a recent speech over the radio in regard to the reduction of income taxes at this time, stated that it was sponsored by the Democrats in a movement of "political expediency." The president has to stand up against the unusual task of voicing his honest opinion that the 411 to 3 vote in the house of Representatives to cut "luxury" excise taxes is a mistake at this time, and that he will have to oppose such a reduction.

The President was boldly bucking a threatened stampede to the glittering attractions of "tax relief." It would appear to many that he made a very good case. The fact that his administration is making large and genuine savings in federal expenses gave him a sound basis. The average citizen has only begun to feel the results of these savings, but the President graphically pictured the size of them.

No one escapes taxes. For instance, everyone who buys even a loaf of bread pays in hidden taxes added to the price part of the heavy corporation income taxes levied on producers. Taxation is not a simple subject, and particularly at a moment when it is not clear whether the economy is going to need extra stimulus. But only citizens who enjoy being fooled will accept a face value of all "tax relief" schemes. And only citizens who are willing to sell their votes cheaply will trade them in irresponsible tax cuts at a time when the nation's responsibilities are so grave.

Congress could be wrong in their present tax program, and which is objected to by the President. It would not be the first time it erred when voting tax cuts with one eye on an election. The blame for that does not belong wholly to Congress; it falls also on citizens who lead Congress to think tax cuts — no matter how reckless — will be paid with votes.

There comes the time when a nation, as well as its people, must make the choice between tightening its belt or run the risk of losing its pants.

Other things being equal, that is the best government which most liberally lets its citizens alone. Thru the whole range of authority, he governs best who governs least.

Traffic conditions would improve if there were more cooperation between horsepower and horse sense.

Texas State Dept. of Health

By Geo. W. Cox, M. D.

Sufficient sleep is an important part of healthy living. Adequate sleep helps you to feel well, and builds up your resistance to diseases, declares, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. An occasional night of too little sleep will not hurt you. However, when you habitually go from day to day without enough sleep, damaging results are felt.

In addition to ruining your disposition, insufficient sleep plays havoc with your coordination and timing. Workers who are short of sleep and rest tend to be accident prone. Some men who try to hold an extra-time job to increase the family income, have paid a heavy penalty in damaged health and accidents.

Good sleeping habits take practice. It's like anything else you do. No one can learn to become an expert swimmer, just by reading about various strokes. You have to spend hours practicing to become a good swimmer.

Listening to the radio watching television, or working on hobbies that persons are loathe to quit are sometimes causes of staying up too late. Late entertaining also cuts out many hours of sleep. A regular time and routine for getting ready for bed will help you in the mood for sleep. The routine may mean reading the evening newspaper or a light story after you are ready for bed. Or it may be listening to soft music just before you turn out the lights and snuggle under the covers.

A regular routine for getting children to bed also helps put them in the mood for sleep. It helps when mothers are relaxed and pleasant when it's the children's bedtime. After reading them a quite pleasant story the children will probably be ready to turn out the light and fall asleep. This helps form good sleeping habits which mean much to a child's health. Young children need lots of sleep — about twelve hours for the preschool youngsters, and nine to ten hours for older children.

"Immunization is superior to all other means of communicable disease control because immunity becomes part of oneself and is always there as a defense against certain diseases. This is the statement of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, who adds: "Immunization is the best and most effective means of protection against diphtheria, tetanus, smallpox, whooping cough and typhoid fever." According to Dr. Cox the ages that are best for immunization of children are: for diphtheria and tetanus, 9 to 12 months; Schick test, 6 months later, re-immunize if immunity has not been established; small pox 6 to 12 months. Tetanus or lock-jaw is not common; however when it does occur it is usually fatal. The tetanus germ gets into cuts, scratches, abrasions and particularly deep wounds, so that it has always been an important problem of public health as well as military medicine.

Other ways to fight disease are thru good sanitation measures. The provision of safe water supplies, the pasteurization of milk, the supervision of food and other precautions have in many communities reduced typhoid fever to a minimum. Isolation and quarantine have their place and are extremely valuable, but none of them has the quality of immunity, of being a part of oneself, and consequently always available.

Hypervitaminosis is a long word meaning too many vitamins," says Geo. W. Cox, State Health officer. The diseased condition probably was derived from the tendency of some persons to think that if a little bit does good a lot will do better. This is not the case in taking vitamins or medicine whether prescribed by a physician or taken on one's own initiative.

Millions of dollars are spent yearly in synthetic vitamin preparations by persons who mistakenly believe they will counteract careless eating habits or cure numerous ailments. Unless prescribed by a physician for a specific need, synthetic vitamin purchase are usually a waste of money.

Nutritionists have long urged that, except when prescribed by a physician, vitamins be secured from the grocery store in the form of green, leafy and yellow vegetable and dairy products. This is the more beneficial and economical way of assuring an adequate intake of these necessary substances.

It has been established that Vitamin A and D taken in excessive amounts are harmful. Other excessive uses of vitamins have resulted in cases of vitamin toxicity. Excessive intake may be as dangerous as deficient intake. Take vitamins only when prescribed by a physician and only in the amount ordered by him.

New Hi-way Map Now Off Press

Publication of the Official Hi-way Travel map for 1954 was announced in Austin today by D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, and it is now available for free distribution.

Incorporating many changes and new features, it is believed that this is one of the best travel maps the Highway Department has published, Greer stated. For the first time this year type has been used for all names and symbols appearing on the map, instead of the hand lettering previously used. This greatly improves legibility of all names.

A different size and type face was selected for the various categories of names that appear on the map; counties appear in one type, cities of similar population density will have the same size type; mountains will have their own lettering style, while rivers will appear in still another size and type face, Greer stated. In all, thirty-three different styles and sizes of type were ordered for the new map.

Over 1300 villages, towns and cities are to be shown on the new guide.

Mission Emphasis Week Set At 1st Baptist Church

Beginning Sunday night with a Foreign Missionary, the other nights of the week, there will be a District Missionary, State Missionary, Home Missionary, etc. The services will begin at 8:00 each night. Everyone is invited to hear these great servants of the Lord.

The following services are announced for this Sunday: The Church in Bible Study at 9:45 A. M. Classes and departments for every age. We are expecting a great crowd for the study of God's Blessed Word.

The Church at Worship, 10:55 A. M. Sermon by the pastor. Subject: "Wednesday of Crucifixion Week." This is the 4th message in a series of six on the Last Week of The Ministry of Jesus in the flesh. Hear this sermon and pray the Lord to bless it to His glory.

Training Union at 6:45 P. M. There are Unions for all ages. Evening Worship at 8:00 P. M. Sermon by Rev. B. W. Orrick. The visiting preacher served 33 years as missionary at Montevideo, Uruguay. This is an opportunity to hear a good servant of the Cross.

Babyland will be open for all of these services. Capable attendants are in charge. Let the Lord bless you as it is preached by true men of God. The Pastor

News From The Congress By FRANK IKARD

For sometime there has been growing dissatisfaction with our aid. This program has undoubtedly been of some benefit as far as immediate results were concerned; however, it has had more than its share of the extravagances and busts. It cannot be kept as a long range program for the simple reason that we cannot afford it. In addition to this it fails to meet our need for many reasons, the most important of which are that: (1) in many instances it is based on the premise that friendship can be purchased; (2) it does not take into consideration that the conflict in which we are engaged with the Soviets is a conflict for the minds of men and over a way of life that may last for two or three generations, and (3) it puts our representatives abroad in the position of telling the people of other countries that their way of doing things is wrong and that they should follow the American example which many times is impossible to sell to the people of other countries. If we are to ultimately win this conflict, we must find some way to permanently instill in the hearts and souls of the people of the world the ideas that have made this country great. We must somehow let them know the feeling of free men, the effectiveness of free institutions, and the happiness of an individual who possesses freedom of mind and body. We could accomplish this very desirable result in a way that would be more effective in the long run and be a whole lot less costly to us, by selecting outstanding young people in the countries of the world and let them come to the colleges and universities in this country. We could bring them to the smaller colleges and universities in the South, Southwest, and Midwest where they could learn first hand the advantage of the Democratic way of life and where they could study our great institutions. By selecting outstanding young people who had qualities of leadership in the fields of medicine, law, science, farming, business and labor, we could be assured that when they returned home their country would have enlightened leadership that was devoted to the cause of free men. It is interesting to know that the Russians are at this time educating thousands of the Indonesians in Russia and her Satellites. With this in mind, it becomes clear that the Communists do not need to defeat the French in Indochina by military aggression this year or next, but by educating the future leaders of that country and by sending them home to assume positions of leadership, they can eventually wear France and her Allies down. The number of young people from Indochina being educated in this country are less than one hundred; so you can readily see how badly outnumbered we will be over the long run.

A program such as this would also have advantage of very effectively destroying the Communist line of propaganda for a person that had spent a year or two in this country studying and had come to know Americans and their ways, could, when he returned home, better than anyone else, refute the idea that we were a warlike country bent on aggression or that everyone except a very few economic slaves. The cost of this program would be a mere fraction of what we are now spending around the world to combat Communism.

The Supreme Court refused to permit Alabama and Rhode Island to file their suits challenging the State's rights to the tidelands. This apparently rings down the final curtain on the dispute over the tidelands.

Veterans Information Center

Q—What is the status of a person who is killed in an accident while enroute to report to his draft board for the first time. Is he covered by the Government's free $10,000 indemnity?

A—No. The law clearly states that only draftees who are enroute under orders from the draft board to an induction center are covered by the indemnity. In the case you cite the person had not yet received orders to proceed from the draft board to an induction center.

Q—I have a $10,000 GI life insurance policy on which I am paying premiums on a monthly basis. How do I go about changing my payments to an annual basis and where do I find out how much the annual payment will be?

A—Write to the VA District Office to which you are paying premiums, asking what the annual premium on your policy would be and the earliest date you may start payments on an annual basis. That will give you the information you need to determine whether or not you wish to make the change.

Q—I am a Korean veteran discharged before August 20, 1952, when the Korea GI Bill was enacted. I understand I have to be in school by August 20, 1954 if I wish to take advantage of the Korea GI Bill. If I enroll in a summer course this year and am in school by August 20, would that qualify me for further education under the GI Bill?

A—Yes. Summer school courses are permitted under the Korea GI Bill, so if you are in a summer school before your deadline for starting education, you would be permitted to continue after that date under the Korea GI Bill.

Q—I notice that you keep advising veterans to check all contracts before purchasing a home under the GI loan program. Does that include a deposit agreement, too, or do you mean just the GI loan contract itself?

A—That means every contract or agreement you are requested to sign as a part of the deal. If you are in doubt about any agreement or contract, see your lawyer first before you sign.
