RECOVERING HUMAN ASSETS

Major advances in the re-training of the physically handicapped came after World War II, when special interest was taken in the rehabilitation of disabled war veterans. Thousands were re-trained for new jobs, jobs they were able to perform fully, despite their injuries in war, and for which they had had no previous training.

These facilities developed originally for the veteran are now being utilized for civilian handicapped men and women who have suffered loss of limbs or other injuries in civilian pursuits. The great advantages of the rehabilitation of the handicapped are well recognized—the additional working forces they give the nation and the sense of full participation in the life of the community they give to the disabled.

One of the most interesting examples is the Joseph Bulova School of Watchmaking in Jackson Heights, Long Island, New York, set up in 1945 to train veterans to be watchmakers. Paraplegics, amputees and other veterans were trained in the school without any fees whatever, so they could resume a normal place in the world and maintain themselves by their own skills.

In the ten years since the school began, 465 men have graduated. Each one of them fully trained and is now working. Until 1961, the graduates were 59 percent veterans, but now the school is admitting all disabled who will benefit from the courses, veteran or civilian.

Under the regulations of the school, the applicant is given an aptitude test. If the test shows that he has an aptitude for watchmaking, he is then accepted at the school. There are no fees involved. All costs for training are paid for by Bulova Foundation. The only cost to the student is for his kit of watchmaking tools, which belong to him and which the school provides at wholesale cost.

On graduation, the newly-fledged watchmaker picks up his tools and goes to a job that the school has secured for him. None, however, is employed by the Bulova Watch Company, so there is no thought of the school being run for the company's benefit.

This is but one of the many little-known examples of what modern industry is doing to re-establish the physically handicapped as useful, happy citizens. And it will be news to most that such training is available to all who need it, not merely those who were incapacitated by military service. When American business takes upon itself such a responsibility, we need have no fears for the spirit and morale of the nation.

TRANSLATION NEEDED

In his TV and radio address to the nation on the Asiatic situation, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles told Red China's Chou En-lai that the U.S. is not either a paper tiger, that "if occasion offers, we are prepared to stand firm and, if necessary, to meet hostile forces with the greater forces that we possess."

Mr. Dulles didn't mention Quemoy or Matsu Islands, which Britain wants us (and Chiang, of course) to give to the Reds, along with a seat in the UN as a down payment on peace. And while you're speculating on what happens next, bear in mind too that Mr. Dulles said we were operating in Asia "within the framework of the United Nations Charter."

That's the way we operated in Korea. We could say then, as Mr. Dulles says now, "We have power that is great. We have a cause that is just." The bitter fruit was shame.

ENERGY UNLIMITED

What will be the effect of atomic energy on oil and the oil industry? The head of one of our leading oil companies has made a study of that highly important matter, and concludes that the atom will not displace oil as a source of energy in the foreseeable future. Man's needs for energy will be so great that all presently known sources will be hard pressed to meet them.

The population is growing at a tremendous rate, both here and in other countries. By the year 2000 the world will have 1,900,000,000 more inhabitants. Demand for energy always grows faster than the population. On top of that, so far as civilian markets are concerned, oil and nuclear fuel will be direct competitors in the field of electric power generation only. And power generation now represents but three percent of total U. S. oil use.

Thus, top authorities are convinced that the oil industry will be able to sell all the petroleum products it can produce for as far into the future as anyone can look. It is possible that petroleum will be produced in new forms that cannot be foreseen today. But there is every assurance that oil's future will be greater than in any era that has gone before.

A certain talkative young lady almost spent a night locked in "Doc" White's drugstore.

She entered Doc's store about 12 P.M., going directly to the pay phone. At eleven-thirty Doc went home—not having seen a customer for a half hour. Around midnight he got a call from the store... she had (basically run out of conversation and money) and found the front door locked tight.

NEW 198-HP BEAUTY PICKS UP SPEED CLIMBING 28% GRADE

More power where it counts from Mercury's new Dual-Exhaust SUPER-TORQUE V-8 engine

There's a lot of talk about horsepower these days. The numbers go up and up. But what does all this extra power do for you?

The picture above tells part of the story. There's so much power delivered at the wheels of this new 198-horsepower Mercury Mustang that you can actually pick up speed while climbing the steepest hill you can find. This is one graphic way of demonstrating Mercury's new kind of super-torque power.

More top speed is of little value to most motorists. Cars already can go faster than most legal speed limits. Where you want extra power is in the everyday speed ranges where you do 95 per cent of your driving. And that's exactly where the 1955 Mercury gives it to you... for instant pickup, safer passing power, easier hill climbing.

We've said nothing here about styling—and now there isn't room. But Mercury's year-ahead design is speaking for itself right now at our showroom. Stop in today.

WSCS Held Bible Study March 21st

The WSCS of the Methodist church met Monday, March 21, 8:00 p. m. at the church for bible study. The Master Called For These.

The meeting was opened by singing Jesus Call Us with Mrs. O. E. Melton at the piano. The Lord's prayer was repeated in unison.

Mrs. S. S. Reger, study leader brought a few words on The Compassion of Jesus. Compassion is surely one of the loveliest words in any tongue. It runs like silk thru all the gospels. Mrs. Evans brought some very interesting thoughts from the book, God's Woman, by C. E. Nichol. She quoted Miriam was one of the prophetesses and the first woman mentioned in the bible. She also spoke of Anna, prophetess, who was one of the first mentioned holding the infant savior in her arms in the Temple which she loved so dearly that she never left its precinct.

Mrs. Blake Browning spoke of the subject The Finger of God. On mission fields, too often, suffers refuse to enter a hospital.

because disease, they think is a matter of fate or of retribution for wrong doings in some past life. The master had to deliver his disciples from some cruel prejudices, but God in whom Jesus believed still guides the minds and fingers of doctors, nurses and scientists today. Mrs. J. E. Rigby read scriptures from Mark 12: 41-44. Mrs. M. McDonald brought the story The Woman of Samaria John 4: 4-42 the water of life. The master speaks to his earthly woman of heavenly refreshments of wells filled by eternal springs which can rise within the human heart and overflow enough to shake the world's thirst.

Mrs. O. E. Melton spoke on The Two Sisters and how the Master still calls for every man and woman who will hear and answer and will accept his life within themselves. He still calls Martha, the housewife and Peter the fisherman, Mary, the artist and John the visionary, Lydia, the business woman and Saul, the student. He needs us all, for only thru us can he speak to others. He needed Martha to fetch Mary "Ye that are the Lords remembrancers, take ye no rest." Isa. 62:4.

After silent prayer, Mrs. Nelson closed with a prayer. Those present were Mesdames Cauthorn, Reger, Melton, Neal, Hill, Evans, Jensen, Flatagot, McDonald, Gragg, E. Browning, Gage, Jones, Rigby, Burnside, Veach, Davis.

Ice Sculpturer

A skiing trip in the Andes Mountains of Bolivia led Pablo Gutierrez to take up ice sculpture, a hobby he now hopes will help him in a hotel manager's career.

The young Bolivian is a senior majoring in hotel and restaurant management in the School of Business Administration at North Texas State College. He is also in training at the Hilton Hotel in Fort Worth.

In his hometown of Cochabamba he had dabbled in clay sculpture, but it wasn't until he ventured 14,000 feet above sea level to ski near La Paz that he tried to do anything with ice.

Now he can take a small snow, an isopick and a few other tools that happen to be handy and turn a 300 pound block of ice into a large swan with an arched neck and spread wings in two short hours.

Gutierrez came to NESC in 1952. In Cochabamba he had attended the American Institute. The principal and his wife—Mr. and Mrs. Murry Dickson—came from Denton originally and encouraged him to come to Texas to attend college.

Since coming to this country, Gutierrez has traveled extensively, visiting about 30 of the states. He hopes someday to take over the management of a Hilton Hotel.

says. Different plantings must be fenced separately.

Sweet sudan is adapted to the entire state but does better in humid areas. Common and Tift also are well adapted to Texas conditions.

Highest returns from temporary grazing are obtained thru rotation. Concentrate on a small area, graze it off quickly, then move to another block.

RESEEDED RANGES ARE PROFITABLE IF DONE RIGHT

Texas Ranchmen are learning to live with drouth and profit too. The county agent says the answer, for many, lies in keeping a proper grass, livestock balance on reseeded ranges.

Many attempts at reseeding have not been profitable, and for several reasons, says B. T. Haws, county agent. Reseeding fails because of planting at the wrong time or season, improperly prepared seedbeds, lack of seedling protection and weed control and grazing before the new plants become well established.

Haws advises farmers to determine whether as much as 15 percent of the native, key grasses are still present. If they are, don't reseed. Deferred grazing is a better and cheaper method of recovery.

A reseeding operation should be planned like a cash crop. Fields out of cultivation for long periods seeded to adapted grasses give quickest response. Plant the grasses in rows and follow with a roller or cultivator.

Reseeding is recommended in West Texas in April, May or June.

Management following seeding plays an equally important role in reestablishing rangeland. Do not graze the new grass the first year, or until the plant crowns or at least one inch in diameter.

Turn in the cows only after the new grasses have a firm foothold. But don't run in too many animals. Next comes the job of balancing livestock with forage produced.

STATE AND NATIONAL 4-H WINNERS ON SAFETY PROGRAM

The state winning 4-H safety demonstration team from Colorado county and a national safety award winner from Wichita County will be featured on the program of the Farm and Ranch section meeting of the Texas Safety Conference. The meeting will be held March 21 at 2 p. m. in Houston's Rise Hotel and the public is invited.

David Miksch and Donald Wanja of Weimer are members of the team which copped top honors in statewide competition last summer. Ralph Ray Swinford of Route 4, Wichita Falls last fall was named state individual winner and later a national award winner in farm and home safety.

President J. Walter Hammond of the Texas Farm Bureau and for several years chairman of the Texas Farm and Safety Committee will preside at the meeting. Other speakers include Bill Shomette, radio farm director for station KGBS, San Antonio and C. G. Scruggs, associate editor, Progressive Farmer, Dallas. Presentation of the committee's awards to individual and groups for outstanding contributions to farm and home safety during the past year will be made by C. T. Johnson, Sears-Roebuck Foundation, Dallas.

E. C. Martin, administrative assistant for the Texas Agricultural Extension service and long time secretary of the Texas Farm and Ranch safety Committee, says emphasis on the program is being given to find out how different groups can help carry the safety message to rural people. We are proud of the progress made, adds Martin, but until agriculturists become as safety conscious as those working in other industries, there can be no let up in safety education. A large crowd is expected for the meeting which will be concluded with a short business session, says Martin.

B. T. Haws county agent and Ralph Swinford will leave for Houston on March 20 to attend the Texas Safety conference.

Auto Inspection Deadline April 15

A check with the local car inspection stations reveals that inspections are picking up considerably, but there are still many vehicles not yet carrying the 1955 inspection sticker.

Deadline for having the sticker on your vehicle is April 15th. Better check up on the old one. It may have come unglued and even though you have it with you or in the car glove compartment, you are still subject to a fine, as one local man found out last week.

The inspection is something that must be done, so don't put it off any longer. As the deadline draws near you may have to wait in line for a few days.

Heads Campaign

Stanley C. Allyn, president of the National Cash Register Co., Dayton, O., and a member of the Red Cross board of governors, will head the 1955 Red Cross campaign for members and funds this March.

Mrs. Joy Sessums Hostess University Study Club Mar. 16

A very interesting meeting of the University Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Joy Sessums Wednesday, March 16.

The topic for the day was The American Indian and Later American. Mrs. Leslie Finnell of Holliday, guest of Mrs. Melton and Mrs. P. A. Wiggins, was the speaker. Mrs. Finnell, a former Spanish teacher, received her M. A. degree from Mexico State College at Mexico City. She wore native Spanish costume decorated with the eagle, the national emblem embroidered in sequins. Strangely enough, this costume was designed by a Chinese slave girl and later adopted as the national costume. Mrs. Finnell told us a lot of our American Heritage came from the American Indian, here even before the Mayflower and the only race of unmixed blood. She spoke of the Latin Americans as being very different from our opinion of them. They sacrifice the best for their religious belief. Some of their outstanding characteristics are bravery, love of art and beauty, a deep sense of appreciation, courtesy and gentility. They are not migratory or lazy as is commonly thought, but look upon us as a nation of slights of work.

The guest speaker was presented a lovely gift by Mrs. Melton and Mrs. Wiggins.

Mrs. Melton and Mrs. Cauthorn won door prizes. Those enjoying Mrs. Sessums' hospitality were: Mesdames A. W. Newman, W. R. Millam, B. N. Cauthorn, Brockner, J. H. Rigby, J. M. Pogue, J. D. Majors, R. C. Tevis, Bill Crosley, R. P. Reagan, T. M. Jenson, A. R. Buntine, W. H. Holt, O. E. Melton, W. J. Lacy, E. R. Burns, S. S. Reger, Miss Laura Louise Tevis and the guest, Mrs. Finnell.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Tevis April 6th. The subject, Modern Art.

Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District News

Applying irrigation water at the proper time and in proper amounts may greatly influence yields. Most crops take about 40 percent of their available moisture from the top foot of soil and time of irrigation should be determined by the available moisture content in the top 12 inches of soil.

A simple way of making field determination of available water in the soil is to dig in the top foot and squeeze a handful of the soil into a ball. If the ball crumbles, it has less than 50 percent of holding and water should be applied as soon as possible. Plants will not be wilted but should not be allowed to wilt for maximum growth.

Soil temperatures taken at Iowa Park were 64 degrees at 7 a. m. March 14th, succeeding days at the same time of day were 68, 60, 56, 64, 60, and on Monday, March 21 the Soil temperature was 44 degrees.

The Soil Conservation District Supervisor suggests that among the jobs that Co-operators should do now are seeding of farm pond dams, seeding waterways, seeding retired land, seeding madrid and human clover, floating irrigated land prior to seeding. Technical help on these and other conservation problems is available from SCS thru soil conservation districts.

A farm pond was staked for F. D. Miller, district cooperator 6 miles north east of Iowa Park. Everett McCullough has started seeding about 70 acres of KR Bluestem.

S. J. Ellis completed the leveling of the farm recently purchased by him. This system uses concrete pipe instead of surface ditches.

Mr. Caesar Gilbert and grandchildren Gay Beth and Glen visited Mrs. Mabel Gladden in Jacksboro, Tex., Wednesday.

PLYMOUTH WINS

FOR 1955 STYLING

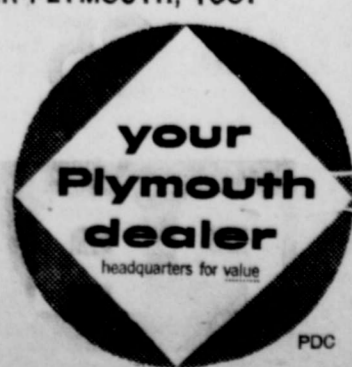

OVER "OTHER 2" LOW-PRICE CARS

BY VOTE OF ALMOST 4 TO 1

THOUSANDS PREFER PLYMOUTH'S STYLING IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

A well-known independent research organization asked thousands of people—in New York, Chicago, Detroit, Atlanta, Dallas, Los Angeles—to compare the appearance of '55 models of the three low-price cars. Opinions were received from men and women—from people of all ages—from owners of all the different makes of cars. The results are below.

HERE'S WHAT OTHERS THOUGHT OF PLYMOUTH!		HERE'S WHY YOU'LL PREFER PLYMOUTH, TOO!
Compared with low-price car "A"	Compared with low-price car "B"	Plymouth '55—with THE FORWARD LOOK—is the only low-price car to offer you honestly new styling, instead of a mere face-lifting. It's bigger than the "other 2" cars (longer than car "A" by 8.4 inches!). It's lower and sleeker, with a host of styling advances that wins the most applause in the lowest-price field. News From The Congress

By FRANK IKARD

The matter of Hawaiian and Alaskan statehood is currently being considered by the Committees here. Each territory has its partisans who are urging statehood, and it is anybody's guess right now as to what action the Congress will take, if any on this question.
Personally, I feel that Alaska is not yet developed to the point where they are ready for statehood, and while it is entirely possible that they may be ready for admission to the Union in ten, fifteen or twenty years, they are not now. As far as Hawaii is concerned, there is serious question in my mind as to whether or not we should ever admit to the Union a country that is not a part of the North American Continent. In fact, it is not generally known here what the Hawaiian State, if it were admitted, would encompass in the way of islands. In other words, the boundaries are not certain by any means. If we ever adopt a practice of admitting territories that are not continuous to this Continent, then any other island or country in the world could make a reasonably good argument for admission. I would favor commonwealth status for Hawaii which would be something comparable to the dominions of the British Empire or like the status that Puerto Rico now enjoys as far as we are concerned. I do not, however, feel that I could support an effort to bring Hawaii into the Union as a state.

Another issue that is re-occurring is the one as to whether or not eighteen year olds should be allowed the right to vote. There is a great deal to be said for allowing them to vote. A young person of that age has almost every other responsibility now; however, it seems to me that this is a question that should be determined by the States and not the Federal Government. In fact as is generally known, at least one of the states now allows eight-teen year olds to vote. I hope the Federal Government does not take any action on this matter.

Each year everyone in Washington tries to guess just exactly when the cherry blossoms will be at their height. The best prediction now seems to be that they will be in full bloom the weekend of the 26 and 27th of March, which, of course, is a little early on account of an extremely mild spring. During the time that these famous blossoms are in full bloom, literally tens of thousands of people come from all over the country to enjoy the beautiful spectacle that they create.
Mr. Glen McDaniel, President of Radio-Electronics-Television Manufacturers Association, formerly of Seymour, was a visitor this week.
Midshipman Richard Hanson, of Denton, who is now on Spring leave from the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, also came by for a visit this week.

Junior High School News

The final contest for the Spelling Bee will be held Thursday afternoon in the Gym. Judges for the event will be Mr. Koller and Mrs. Buck. Mrs. Ragan will pronounce the words. The contestants are Shirley Hodges, Pat Kay Inlow and Louise Sipes.
The Savings Stamp sales hit an all time high last week with a total of $60.00. Betty Carol Gentry has bought twenty bonds thru the school.
A group of Camp Fire girls and a team of Boy Scouts were honored last week by the Rotary club at its regular luncheon meeting. The Camp Fire girls answered questions about their organization, sang songs, and served cup cakes they had made in honor of their 45th anniversary. The girls attending were Irma Ned Riley, Charlotte Wallace, Caroline Clement, Iletha Herring, Loretta Brocker and Jo Ann Hervey. The scout team, composed of Kenneth Durham, Kenneth Alexander, Dennis Har- sal, James Smith and Michael Matherly, gave a First Aid demonstration.

Several students from Junior High assisted at the PTA convention, Shirley Hodges, Caroline Clement, Charlotte Wallace, Iletha Herring, Loretta Brocker, Irma Ned Riley and Jo Ann Hervey, served as Pages at the general sessions: Mrs. Hedrick's art classes made St. Patrick's Day favors for the banquet, and the Girls Chorus and Quartet entertained at the banquet.

Mrs. M. B. Riley was admitted to the Bethania hospital in Wichita Falls last Tuesday and underwent surgery Wednesday. She is reported to be doing fine.

VETERANS Administration

Questions and Answers

Q—I understand a veteran needs at least 90 days of active service to qualify for a GI loan. I entered service January 3, 1955, and therefore I wasn't able to build up 90 days by the January 31, 1955 deadline date for building up entitlement to wartime benefits. Am I out of luck, so far as a loan is concerned?

A—Not necessarily. Generally you need at least 90 days total service to qualify for a GI loan, but not all 90 days need be before January 31, 1955. So long as at least part of your 90 days comes before January 31, you may be eligible, after your discharge.
