Texas 1955 Retail Economy Increases

Texas' 1955 retail economy is booming along at a pace above the national average and well above 1954, considered a good business year, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

That includes farm-products sales. Eleven of 12 Texas crop-repeating districts bettered the first half of 1954 by 7 to 34 per cent.

Texas retail sales in the first six months of 1955 were up 12 percent over the comparable 1954 period. The national increase ranged from 8 to 10 percent.

Record business in June and early July was reported across the nation. Sales of new and used automobiles slowed from earlier weeks but still held well above last year. Food sales kept a moderate lead over 1954 except in resort areas, which were doing an all-time record business in many lines.

House furnishings sold well above last year with sudden strong demand for air conditioners, heavy appliances and outdoor equipment and supplies.

Customers continued to purchase on installment credit at near-record rates. Debt on automobiles alone has peaked at $12.14 billion. Payments on installment debts also are running high.

Robert Lee Wyatt, President Still On The Job And Going Strong

Last week's Star carried an article from the Abilene office of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce announcing Harry C. Dodson, Editor and Owner of the Burkburnett Star, had been appointed a new director of the WTCC. The Editor didn't edit this copy closely enough and let one slip by. It should have read "co-owner".

John W. Brookman is and has been owner of a half interest in the Burkburnett Star since the two formed a partnership early in 1944. Mr. Brookman has just returned from a vacation and is on the job, with lots and lots of mileage left.

"The Bridges At Toko - ri" Palace Aug. 7 - 8

The intensely human and highly suspenseful story of our fighting Naval jet flyers who so gallantly fought the recent Korean war is the subject matter of Paramount's brand new Technicolor production, "The Bridges at Toko-ri," showing at the Palace Theatre August 7th and 8th.

Based on the James A. Michener best selling novel of the same title, the film stars William Holden, Grace Kelly, Fredric March and Mickey Rooney.

Filmed on location in Tokyo and off the Korean coast aboard the massive aircraft carriers that just a few scant months before were locked in deadly combat with the enemy, "The Bridges at Toko-ri" is a hard hitting, searing document on modern warfare. Never before in the history of film making have such startling scenes of aerial warfare been photographed.

In addition to the scenic excitement, the picture abounds with the taut and explosive drama of men in the midst of death and destruction. It is also the story of the fleet admiral, Fredrick March's relationship with his men, particularly that with a young flying lieutenant, William Holden, whose family has just arrived in Tokyo from the States. It is Holden's duty to fly a mission regarded as the most dangerous of the entire campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brookman and Debby will leave Saturday for New Orleans, La., where they will make their home. Donald is in the Navy and reports back for duty Monday after several days' leave.

THANK YOU, Burkburnett area friends for visiting our new MOOSE CAMP DRIVE IN. As you know, we are serving delicious Southern Fried Chicken and Fresh Catfish Dinners, family style, also COLD BEER. Come again soon.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

ELK GROVE Calif., Citizen: "With the completion of the 19 millionth home in the United States since 1945, it is safe to say America has built more homes in a decade than any other country in history. It illustrates how the many cogs in the free enterprise machine work in harmony for building construction is not merely a matter of putting materials together. Back of the construction industry is the vast army of producers and suppliers, along with the banks and other financial institutions, which gather individual savings and mobilize them for building and other useful purposes."

NORWALK, Conn., Hour: "Automation does not necessarily mean fewer jobs. It means greater production by more skilled and better trained workers. It also should mean a higher standard of living for the workers who can qualify as the new operatives, as well as to the public generally through greater production."

TWO DOWN - SIX TO GO

However classified the speed of the Sea Wolf, America's second atomic submarine may be, sailors, who attach great significance to launchings, are sure she'll be the fastest ever. So quickly did the mighty hull respond to the launching button at the Groton, Conn., shipyard the other day, she had moved beyond arm's length of her sponsor, Mrs. W. Sterling Cole, before that lady could smack the bow with the traditional bottle of champagne. But Mrs. Cole, who is the wife of the chairman of the House Atomic Energy committee, heaved the bottle at the fast-disappearing Sea Wolf in a mighty effort to make everything shipshape in Bristol fashion, as the saying is. But while the Sea Wolf got away from bottle number one, a workman aboard the vessel grabbed a second that the Navy had stashed on deck. Just in case, and did the honors.

Thus, we hope Mrs. Cole will not feel to chagrined over her performance. For one thing, it's not the first time a lady has required a little help in christening a vessel. For another, the bottle she threw did smash in a beautiful sudsy explosion, on the launching gear, if not on the ship. And for a third, perhaps the Navy will let Mrs. Cole try again, since it was revealed there are six more atomic subs presently authorized, the keel of number three being laid on the Sea Wolf's launching day.

DON'T SPEND IT YET

Optimistic taxpayers may recall that President Eisenhower in his State of the Union speech last January expressed hope for a tax reduction in 1956. They may be further encouraged by the prognostication of various "practical" politicians that the Republicans will propose some tax cuts in advance of next year's election.

But, on the last day of the fiscal year of 1955, a Senate vote extended the national debt limit of 281 billions for another year, thus preventing it from crashing down to the former ceiling of a mere 275 billions.

And since the year ended on June 30th with the Government owing three billions more than on the same date of 1954, no one should spend to much time dreaming about what he will do with the extra money the Government might be going to let him have.

HEAD FIRST

Now that the matter is becoming pretty important again, especially to the younger set, that old-wives tale "it is bad for your ears to dive" is being resuscitated.

Thus, we are happy to advise "it is safer to dive than to jump into the water feet first."

For this good news, we have the word of E. J. Myers, Board of Radioear Corp., Pittsburg, and formerly President of the American Hearing Aid Association.

In diving, says Myers, water is less likely to enter the nose and cause possible inflammation to the ears, than when you plop into the water seat first.

And here are some more things you ought to know (if you don't already) before taking off from the springboard. "Don't rely on ear plugs of a bathing cap to keep water out of your ears," warns Myers. "They are of little help because it is the nose that channels water to the ears."

Like most hearing aid experts (he entered the field in 1925), Myers believes you should put nothing smaller than your elbow in your ears, unless, perhaps, it's a good hearing aid receiver. "After bathing," he advises, "dry the ears thoroughly, preferably with a handkerchief. Don't use cotton on the end of a stick or a hairpin. you have a perforated ear drum or a sinus condition. Swim

THEY WOULD READ YOUR AD TOO, IF IT APPEARED HERE

Mast Optical in Wichita Falls is currently offering its annual "Back-to-School Visual Service for Children". This special public service to school-age children is just one more of the many services offered by Mast Optical, 918 Indiana Avenue.
 School age children are urged to visit the Mast Optical office accompanied by a parent. This special visual analysis is free of charge, and there is no obligation. Parents learn the exact condition of their youngsters' eyes, and whether glasses are needed to help them study better during the approaching school year. Glasses are prescribed only if necessary.
 Mast Optical originated its "Back-to-School Visual Service for Children" last year, after surveys proved that 85% of students making unsatisfactory progress in school were found to have vision problems.

Synthetic Fabrics Last Longer With Use of Soft Water

Miracle fiber garments, worn and washed perhaps three times as much as apparel that needs ironing, demand the best of laundering treatment to live a full life span.
 Regular tubbing in soft water and a mild soap will make them last as much as a third longer than if they are washed in hard water, Burkburnett Culligan Soft Water Service, emphasized today.
 Sudsy soft water leaves no residue of soap curd to yellow or gray synthetic fibers and shorten their life. This soap curd forms in hard water when hardness minerals and soap combine.
 Soft water laundering retains the brilliance of white nylons and other synthetics, if they are laundered apart from colored apparel. Also, soft water will keep colored synthetic fabrics bright, according to Oscar McBride, distributor for Culligan Soft Water in Burkburnett.
 In Burkburnett, many families obtain soft water in their homes without investing in equipment, McBride said. They have a softener installed on a basis similar to electric or telephone service.

Roger and Gill To Korea With CROP Shipment of Cattle

Bennie Rogers of Kamay and Leland Gill of Bellevue, 4-H boys who are representing Wichita and Clay counties on the Texas CROP shipment, have recently sent word concerning their journey.
 Both youngsters wrote their parents and friends from Panama City after completing the first leg of the 12,000 mile trip to Korea. The boys are tending livestock donated by farmers and stockmen of Texas to the Korean boys and girls enrolled in 4-H club work there. The donations will be used in Korea to furnish projects and demonstrations for the children who need something to work with.
 Bennie and Leland report that neither of them have been seasick yet, and that work begins at 5:00 a. m. on board ship. Usually each boy is thru feeding and tending to his pens of animals by 10:00 a. m. and is off duty until about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. At 3:00 they start the work again and wind up about 7:00 p. m.
 During their free time the boys can rest, write letters, play cards and watch the ocean. Rogers stated he didn't know there was that much water anywhere. The boys report that the work is hard as each youngster has six pens to care for, but that the food is good and the ship's crew has been very nice in making their trip enjoyable.
 Each boy is taking a series of colored slides to show upon return to the states. Jack Lewis and Glen Dunkle, county agents, report they plan to use the boys a great deal in rural meetings in the fall to tell about their trip and the things they observed about Oriental agriculture.
 The S. S. Sylvia Lykes is due for another stop in Hawaii and from there the boys will report on the second leg of the trip. If all goes well the 4-H'ers will be in Korea by the end of July and will spend two weeks there on tour and visiting with farmers.
 After completing the tour the Texas group will be flown back to the United States by the Air Force and make several stops along the way. The Texas delegation is made up of several adults including several ministers and Jack Sloan, representing the A&M College Extension Service. The boys were selected from counties over the state that gave the largest contributions of livestock and money for the overseas program operated by CROP.

Texas State Dept. of Health
 Dr. Henry A. Holle, M. D.

Parents, has your child had a physical examination this summer? In just a little more than a month he will be starting to school, and if he is in good health he will have a happier more profitable year. It's up to you to give him a healthful start, says Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health.
 After he has his checkup by the family doctor, be sure to take him to the family dentist. Teeth are mighty important, and decayed ones often cause a heap of trouble. They might start infection in other parts of the body. Strong, healthy teeth add attractiveness to appearance and personality. Help your child to grow up with good teeth, see that he has a dental examination twice a year.
 Sometimes children need glasses and their parents don't realize it. An examination by an eye specialist is important. A child who needs glasses, if taken to an eye physician now, will have time to get used to them before school starts.
 When children are grouped together in a classroom, they expose each other to communicable diseases. Has your child been immunized against diphtheria and smallpox? Does he know he should use only his own drinking glass? Does he know he should avoid boys and girls who are victims of colds? Do you keep your child at home when he shows signs of a cold?
 Plenty of exercise and recreation, the right kinds of food daily, and 12 hours of sleep a night, are necessary for a child of elementary school age.
 Get your child an appointment for a checkup today, the first day of school is not far away.
 Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cecil last week were Mr. and Mrs. John W. Self and son Phillip of Atoka, Okla. They are former residents of Burkburnett and they commented on how our little town had grown in the past 15 years.
 James and Bill Johnson spent Friday evening and Friday night with their aunt, Vera Johnson in Wichita Falls.
 Mrs. Margaret Woods of Tulsa is visiting in the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Smith this week.

GENEVA

By R. D. Laney

At the opening of the Geneva Conference Eisenhower said, "we are not here to repeat the same dreary exercises that have characterized our negotiation the past 10 years." And Premier Bulganin of the Soviet Union responded that if all had come to the conference with a desire to find ways to overcome the difficulties between them, that would be a guarantee of success.

The importance of Geneva lies not in the fact any visible progress was made in persuading the Soviet leaders to accept Western views on German unification and on NATO, or vice versa. Such progress may or may not be made in the future. The importance lies in the fact that the Iron Curtain has been riddled with so many holes. Indeed, you might argue that the Soviet peace offensive will have a deeper effect, potentially, at least, on the Communists than it will have on the rest of us. Of course, any such conclusion is premature. We are at the mere beginning of a long story.

Confronted with a detailed proposal by Britain Prime Minister Eden for German unification in a framework which at the same time would give Russia Western guarantee against an attack by a rearmend Germany, Premier Bulganin was obliged to say flatly that in the Soviet view, "conditions are not yet ripe for Germany to be reunited." Any such reunification, he added, would take a long time and must be approached step by step.

Many persons in the USA believe that the present Soviet system could not stand up permanently in the face of extensive contact with the West. The free world is a very impressive place. Western Europe today is prosperous beyond expectations of a few years ago; the United States is even more so. The capitalist system seems to be working extremely well. This is sharp contrast with the Communist world where there is a great privation in the satellite states and shortages and stress of a major sort in the Soviet Union itself. And hundreds of men who will return to Moscow and to the other Communist capitals are seeing it all. A few short years ago, in Stalin's time, most of them never would have been allowed beyond Russia's boundaries and such a few as went were apt to be purged on their return.

If the only outcome of the Geneva Conference is the permanent puncturing of the Iron Curtain it will have been a great gain. But the Western leaders hope for more. They hope, ultimately to persuade the Russians that they will be safer with Germany unified and inside the Western security system than they would if Germany remained divided and resentful, or stranded in a vacuum of two worlds.

Essentially, the Western approach is that if there is to be a less tension, which Moscow professes to desire, this must be attained by resolving some of the questions which produce tension. To the west the most obvious such question is the continued division of Germany; hence its emphasis on reunification. Now, it is quite possible that from the Communist point of view the thing which causes the most tension in Moscow is the fact that the Soviet Union feels ringed about in Europe and Asia with American military forces and bases on the territory of allies committed to the preservation of their own freedom.

The Geneva Conference is passing into history. The "summit" meeting of heads of governments has been spectacular and compelling in its grip on world attention. It was one of those meetings which had to take place. Yet, having taken place, people will ask themselves, "What has it accomplished?" It has accomplished approximately what was expected of it. The men who bear responsibility for directing the policies of great countries, masses of millions of people, have had an opportunity to meet each other, for impressions, state the positions of their governments, and take important proposals back to their capitals for study.

And this is no small function in the promotion of peace and understanding in the complex atom-minded modern world. In it one man occupied a role of towering significance even before his extremely daring proposal of armaments inspection. He has borne it humbly, simply and sincerely, as is his want. He is President Eisenhower, the only actual chief of state, technically speaking, among the Big Four delegates. The great differences produced by Geneva is that the Russian Communists now have become willing to let international relations be carried out in the language of civilized people instead of that of reffians and boors.

From Your STATE CAPITOL

By VERN STANFORD
Texas Press Association

State Auditor C. H. Cavness suggested last week that Texas use part of its oil and gas income from public lands for current school expenses.

Freeing this money, Cavness said, could ease the strain on the state's general fund, even possibly reduce taxes.

Royalties and lease payments from state lands now are deposited in permanent funds of the public schools and the University of Texas. Only income earned by investment of the fund is available for spending.

Under Cavness' plan only 27 1/2 percent of the royalties would go into the permanent funds, now totaling more than a half billion dollars.

Copies of the proposal went to the governor and Legislature. Execution of the plan would require both a constitutional amendment and revision of statutes.

Criticism came promptly from University President Logan Wilson who compared the plan to "eating seed corn."

It conflicts, he said, with the present plan to increase University income by easing restrictions on investments of the permanent fund.

A constitutional amendment, approved by the recent Legislature and awaiting vote of the people, would allow University officials to invest up to 50 percent of the fund in corporate stocks. At present all investments must be in low interest bearing government bonds.

Highway Bids Taken

Low bids totaling $14,197,575 on road and bridge projects were tabulated by the State Highway Department last week.

Two major highway improvements, on US 80 east of Big Spring and on US 83 north of Brownsville, were included in the 402 miles of road work.

A contract was let to build a bridge in Dallas across the Trinity River. It will eventually connect with the Dallas-Fort Worth toll road.

Parr Documents Sought

Attorneys for George Parr have asked to inspect 89 checks and other documents the government will use in its income tax evasion against the South Texas political boss.

Prosecuting attorneys protested, urging the the defense was trying to find out what specific evidence the government would introduce.

Federal Judge Ben H. Rice, Jr. took the motion under advisement. Trial is set for Sept 6 in Austin.

Morrow Showdown Expected

Wright Morrow's party status was to be determined by the State Democratic executive committee in Austin on Tuesday.

Gov. Allan Shivers recently indicated he thought the Texas national committeeman should resign to promote party unity. Morrow has been unacceptable to national party leaders since his support of Eisenhower in 1952. Committee members also were to lay plans for control of 1956 precinct, county and state conventions.

Opposing plans for convention control were made by the Loyalist wing of the party at an earlier meeting in San Antonio.

Oil Allowable Unchanged

Texas crude oil allowable for August will be on the same pattern as for July.

At a statewide proration hearing last week the Railroad Commission ordered the present 15 day production schedule continued.

Under that formula, permissive flow on July 16 was 3,028,324 barrels daily. Some August increase would result from allowable grants for new discoveries.

Segregation Ruling Studied

Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd last week withheld comment on an El Paso district judge's ruling that Texas school segregation laws are unconstitutional.

He would have to make a detailed study of the decision first Shepperd said.

Judgement resulted from a Negro's girl suit for entrance to Texas Western College. University of Texas regents had two weeks previously voted to admit Negroes there.

Board of Regents Chairman Thomas Sealy said he thought the judge's ruling was moot. However, he said he believed any effort by Negro undergraduates to enrol immediately in the main University could and would be successfully resisted.

Integration Impact Felt

Desegregation has rubbed out growth plans for at least one Texas Negro college.

Prospect of competition with the University of Texas had that impact last week on Huston-Tillotson college in Austin.

"A first class small college" of 500 to 600 students, rather than an increase to 1,000 to 1,200 students, is the current president announced.

Crop Acreage Drop

Total acreage of Texas has dropped five percent according to the US Dept. of Agriculture.

Allotment restrictions on wheat, cotton and rice abandonment of planted acreage account for the drop. Partially offsetting this record sorghum acreage.

Patrol Extends Deadline

Deadline for highway job applications has been extended from July 25 to August 1.

One hundred new officers to be hired by the patrol were provided by the legislature by raising drivers fees.

News From The Congress

By FRANK IKARD

This week promises to be one of the busiest in recent times in the House of Representatives. Due to the fact that every effort is being made to adjourn sometime during the first week in August, it will be necessary this week to act upon the bill setting up a Federal highway program. The tax provisions in this measure have been scaled down considerably from what was originally provided. The controversy with regard to this legislation is whether or not there will be a pay-as-you-go highway plan which would require increased taxes on gasoline, diesel fuel, tires and trucks, or whether some plan similar to that recommended by the Administration which would be financed by a bond issue with no new taxes. Other matters on the program are the Upper Colorado Storage Project, Polio Vaccine Assistance Act, the Housing Bill, and the Amendment to the Natural Gas act that would limit the jurisdiction of the Federal Power Commission. Each of these is important and highly controversial. To say that consideration of them can be completed in one week can only mean we will probably have to be in session every night.

Due to the fact that Congress will adjourn shortly, this will be the last weekly report that I will send out. Immediately after adjournment, I plan to return home and will be in the District most of the time from adjournment until the first of the year when the next Congress convenes. I expect at some time during the late summer and fall to be in every County and Town in the District. My office in the District is at 206 Federal Building in Wichita Falls. While during the time Congress is not in session, I will spend most of my time being out around over the District, this office will be open at all times.

Another important bill to be considered next week is the military Reserve Bill. This bill passed the House in a different form than the bill the Senate approved; therefore, it was necessary for it to go to Conference Committee. The bill that was worked out in the Conference Committee that now comes before the House, in my opinion, is a much better bill than the original House version in that it does not require extensive reserve service by those who are at this time in the Armed Services or who are ex-service men. In other words, it does not place a great burden of reserve service upon those who have already served their time in one of the branches of the Armed Services. In view of the changes that have been made in this bill by the Conference Committee, it now seems highly probable that this bill will pass without a great deal of difficulty.

Visitors from home this week were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lane of Wichita Falls.

Charley Knight Is New Addition To Texas Oil Bowlers

Texas Oil Bowl Coaches Pat Gerald and Claude Gilstrap today announced Charley Knight, spectacular Albany end as the newest addition to the Texas squad.

Knight, a flashy pass-grabber on the top-notch Albany team during the 1954 season, is the fourth Texas boy selected for the 18th annual Oil Bowl Football Classic to be played in Midwestern Stadium, August 19th.

Texas' top high school football stars will meet the cream of the crop from Oklahoma highschools in the annual fracas sponsored by the Maskat Temple of Wichita Falls and the Oklahoma Coaches Association.

The games have raised more than $125,000 which is divided among the Polio Fund, the Cerebral Palsy Clinic, and the School of Listening Eyes of Wichita Falls and the Oklahoma Crippled Children's Hospital, Oklahoma City. Knight sparkplugged the Albany team to the finals of their class 1-A division. An outstanding player, he was instrumental in the Albany 26-21 upset over the highly rated Paducah team in the semi-final play.

An all-district and all state football player, Knight netted 123 points for his team during the 1954 season. The speedy end caught 13 touchdown passes and kicked 45 extra points.

The 6' 2", 190 pounder also lettered in track and basketball. After the Oil Bowl game, Knight's destination will be Rice Institute where he will be a candidate for the freshman football team.

Telephone reservations for tickets to the game may be made at 2-2501, or by mail address to the Oil Bowl office, Room 530, Wichita National Bank Building, Wichita Falls, Texas.

SHORT SNORTS—John Sealy Hospital at the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston will begin Sept. 1 charging $3 a day for indigent patients $1.50 more per day for pay patients. Cause was laid to low legislative appropriations.
