Dyle Vaughn had his son, Dawson, as his guest.

Bill Browning was the guest of his father, Wylie Browning.

He presented Mr. Nicholson, with the American Automobile Association, who showed a film on driver education. The story told of a couple who lost their teenage son in a nighttime car accident because he was "over driving his lights". The father didn't know what this meant until he talked with the state highway patrol—the boy's speed was too great for the distance he could see down the road. Immediately the father and mother set about seeing what they could do to help young drivers. Eventually they were successful in getting a driver education program included in the school program.

Next week Winford Henry will bring the program.

Mr. W. T. (Slim) Holman, County Commissioner, was admitted to the Wichita General Hospital Saturday morning suffering from an infection of the bronchial tubes. His condition is reported a little improved at the present time.

Bulldogs Win Over Holliday 27 to 7

Burkburnett's speedy left half-back, Billy Mize, ran rampart thru the Holliday Eagles, Friday night, overcoming Holliday's one point halftime lead and sparking his Bulldog teammates to a 27-7 victory.

Holliday had swept to a 7-6 lead at halftime after Eagle quarterback Harold Adams snagged a Bulldog pass on his own 45 yard line and raced thru the entire Burkburnett squad to set up a last minute tally from the Bulldog six.

It was Holliday's only spurt in its season's opener, however, and Burkburnett came in the second to smash across three six pointers and score a safety.

Mize, who shouldered the bulk of the leather lugging for the Bulldogs, broke the ice four minutes deep in the second period when he plunged from the one for Burk's first tally. In a six-play series that began on Holliday's 45, Mize accounted for 12 yards via the ground and grabbed a 33 yard aerial from quarterback Jerry Hodges.

Minutes away from halftime, Burk stalled on its own 40, after taking a Holiday punt. Hodges tried the airways and Adams of Holliday gathered it in on his own 45 and raced 49 yards to the Bulldog six before he was downed. Adams capped his performance on the next play, plunging the remaining six yards into paydirt.

J. Erwin, the Eagles' driving fullback, split the uprights for the extra point as the half ended.

It was Mize who finally shook Burk's offensive loose. The determined Bulldog back slashed 25 yards in five quick plays in the closing seconds of the third period to notch Burk's second tally. Lewis McDonald's extra point try was wide, but Burk had taken command of the game.

Early in the fourth period Burk's defense, spearheaded by Doyce Walker, Bill Turnbow, Jerry Gee and Lowell Walkup, smashed Adams for a six yard loss and a Burk safety. Adams was trapped on his second attempt to move the ball outside the Eagle 10 following V. Hubbard's recovery of a Bulldog fumble.

Minutes later Burk was knocking on the Eagles goal line again, once more in the form of Billy Mize, who romped the last 18 yards, McDonald failed to pick up the extra point but the Bulldogs commanded a 21-7 lead at this point.

Donald McKinnis finally broke up Mize's monopoly on TD's in the waning minutes of play when he scored from four yards out after leading a 39 yard drive.

Erwin, Bobby Price, guard R. Stone and end V. Hubbard formed the main line of defense for Holliday with Adams collecting two pass interceptions in the defensive field. The Eagles failed to field a sustained offensive at any time, and were overwhelmed by the Bulldog line.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mays and son and Mrs. Faye Lyons of Petrolia visited in the home of Rev. and Mrs. M. D. Baker and family Sunday.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

MANCHESTER, Tenn., Times: "The Pennsylvania Grit very sensibly says: 'Most U. S. employers agree that minimum wage laws are necessary to protect workers from exploitation. The question is, how far can you go, and still be fair to both employers and employee?' Laws do not have the magic power to create wealth and make it possible for an employer to pay higher wages than a worker is able to earn."

BROWNWOOD, Texas, Banner: "If one is consistent and holds to the principle of private ownership of business, he should be opposed to any form of government ownership of the other fellow's business, as well as his own."

INDIO, Calif., Date Palm: "We have long known that Uncle Sam was the biggest land owner in California. But it wasn't until recently that an inventory, revealed that his holdings amount to 46 million acres. That's 56.4 per cent of the State's total area. The administration has promised greater speed in turning over 'surplus' lands to the states or individual citizens. There must be plenty here that can be turned over."

WHITEHALL, Wisc., Times: "Too many Americans, in this matter of guarding the interests of the public, are content to 'let George do it,' not realizing that George died several decades ago."

THE FOUR YEAR ITCH

Talk of substantial tax cuts from Congressional leaders of both parties have thrown into sharp relief the facts that, two and a half years after inauguration, the Eisenhower promise of a balanced budget has not been realized, the sprawling Federal bureaucracy has not been noticeably whittled down, nor Government extravagance curtailed.

Since these pre-election year near-promises of tax relief, Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey has launched an economy drive in all Government departments and bureaus, and the Defense Department has indicated it might spend a billion dollars less than previously estimated during the current fiscal year. As a result, Mr. Humphrey now expects to balance the budget during the next ten months, provided tax receipts continue rising. Cautious on the subjects of tax-cuts, the Secretary is said to feel that if he can bend downward that rising curve of Government spending, and if more and more tax dollars keep rolling into the treasury, there might be a basis for campaign promises in this direction.

Fiscal-minded Senator Harry F. Byrd, of Virginia, was quick to rebuke the tax reduction proponents with the observation that it would be "foolhardy" to balance the budget, and then immediately unbalance it. Subsequently, Rep. Daniel A. Reed, of New York, the Republican tax authority of Congress, declared that early tax relief would be "premature" in view of international tensions and "inflationary pressures."

Certainly there should be no thought of tax-cutting so long as the Government continues spending more than it takes in. And it seems foolhardy to us Senator Byrd's term, to squeeze the budget balancing funds out of De-wen when we remember that with nine billion unspent in the fence appropriations. Perhaps a stronger word is justified foreign aid kitty. Congress was needed into appropriating three and a half billions more for this "gigantic boondoggle" as Indiana's Senator Jenner calls it.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

"The people of the Republic of Korea and their Government," says President Syngman Rhee in a message to the Tenth Anniversary commemorative meetings of the United Nations in San Francisco, "are more keenly aware than ever of the historic importance of the United Nations organization and its basic objectives. These objectives, peace, freedom and human progress, are shaped by men of good will everywhere."

The realistic Dr. Rhee goes on from there to remind the assembled delegates that "The Fifteen United Nations members who contributed forces for the military action against the imperialist aggressors in Korea stand committed, by the joint policy declaration of July 29, 1953, to the defense of Korea against further aggression."

"The United Nations is also solemnly committed to the unification of Korea, which remains a cause of deepest concern and great urgency to the long-suffering Korean people. All the people of Korea want to survive as an independent, democratic and united nation."

To restore world peace "now", President Rhee urges the withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea. His country asks first, he says, "the withdrawal of Chinese Communist troops, with the assurance that they will never renew their aggressive actions. When they all leave, we know full well the United Nations forces will be happy to return home."

"Only if our neighbors reciprocate the peaceful intentions of the Republic of Korea, shall we be in a position to enter friendly relations, whether it be with Soviet Russia, Red China or even Japan.

As long as these are powers who believe they can conquer the world, talks of peace are practically impossible.

In closing his greeting, Dr. Rhee comes up with a provocative and cogent thought: "We hope all world statesmen will take sides at this time. The so-called neutral nations in death struggle between Communism and Democracy, are friends of one or enemies of the other. No individual or nation can serve two masters in terms of permanent relations."

In view of the foreign advices, requests and recommendations, so aptly and tersely put, we think we can appreciate Dr. Rhee's cryptic closing line: "More power to you on the tenth anniversary of the United Nations."

For Grace and Poise
the Ballet Dancer is Tops

by Lawrence Schiller, San Diego, California, a prize winner in the 1955 Graflex Photo Contest. Taken with Speed Graphic 1/100 second and 1/11 with electronic flash.

LET offers one of photog-raphy's never-ending sources of interesting subject matter. It is that one finds pretty things in the skills of a— and equipped with dainty est. The photographer does these natural resources is measure of his ability. It is the setting, subject and that make a successful picture, according to T. T. Holden, director of Graflex, Inc.,
 New York.
 Photographer Larry Schiller has combined his graceful ballet dancer with columns to produce a photograph which won a prize in the 1955 Graflex Photo Contest. He took the picture with a Speed Graphic with electronic flash and a yellow filter.

The most effective photographs of pretty girls are "high key" photos. That is, they are brightly lit with very few strong shadows. Photos of men, on the other hand, are made more masculine with strong, hard shadows, and are called low-key photos.
 To achieve this high-key effect, Schiller posed his model with white columns and had her don a white costume. Because the sunlight came from the back of the dancer, some light was needed to fill in what would have been the dark area along the columns — this was done with the electronic flash, which produces soft light ideal for such purposes. A less skilled photographer would have faced the model into the sun, causing many harsh shadows.

Mrs. W. H. Holt lead the prayer for those who had gone on to another world. A prayer of thanksgiving for the ones who are carrying on the work of the Society was offered by Mrs. Blake Browning.

Mrs. Melton continued her report with "It has been said that the education of a man begins 300 years before his birth. The Women's Society, tracing its heritage need not go back such distance. Its strength today and its promise for the future are largely the result of those spiritual forces of personality which were in action before the unification of Methodism in 1939."

The report was closed with the singing of "God of Grace and God of Glory" which was adopted as the Society Hymn at the first meeting.

Several committee reports on various coming activities were presented.

The meeting closed with the benediction.

Members present were Mesdames Beulah Hall, A. R. Bunstine, Blake Browning, Paul Browning, Hugh Jones, Felix Kindel, Hugh Veach, B. N. Cauthorn, G. D. Scruggs, W. H. Holt, Lavern Davis, S. S. Reger, R. A. Neal, Bill Haws, Raymond Schuette, D. N. Lowery, O. E. Melton, E. E. Bangs.

The next meeting will be a luncheon. Beginning at 10:30 a. m. at the Wesley Room and adjourning to the basement at 12 o'clock for the luncheon. The guest speaker will be the District President of WSCS, Mrs. Leslie Finnell. Her topic will be "The American Indians."

A nursery will be provided.

Seen Monk's
"Better Half"?

McCarthy's latest creation has the town talking again. You can see it parked in front of the auto repair shop on Maple. Remember last year Monk cut his car in half, and put their heads together? You couldn't tell the thing was coming or going. Sure attracted attention. Now Monk's taken Tog Mor's old sedan and completely cut one half of it. One side good as new, the other looks like well, Tog's old car. "Sort of before-and-after demonstration," Monk told me, "shows folks the kind of work I do."

From where I sit, some of Monk's ideas may look a little wild sometimes... but I wouldn't want to tell him how to run his business any more than I'd like him to tell me what beverage to enjoy. He always keeps a hot pot of tea in his garage—I'd rather have a cold glass of beer—but respect for each other's opinion is "auto"-matic with us both.

units. Likewise, our camping facilities must be expanded. It is always good to remember that all these young Texans are helping themselves develop physical fitness, skill, self reliance, courage and high ideals of service to God and country," Mr. Willis said. "Your contributions to the Boy Scout independent campaign will help us reach our goal."

Some of the budget raised in the thirteen counties will go toward the upkeep of Camp Perkins, where hundreds of local youngsters enjoy summer camp each year. Last year more than 780 camper weeks were spent there by youngsters getting the thrills of their lives.

Camp Perkins is well developed and has facilities to take care of most outdoor activities. At a reasonable cost, youngsters can enjoy swimming, boating, canoeing, handicraft, and camping, all under the guidance of experts.

Scout executives say that in 1956 they plan to greatly increase the number of boys attending camp. Present plans call for every Scout to take at least one hike each month and to spend at least 10 days in camp.

Other funds will be used to supply things that no boy, leader or institution can supply. The money will help maintain the basic Scout program, training for leaders, program material, a service station for supplies and records, advancement standards and awards, and professional leadership and guidance.

"Scouting is not for any select group. It takes in all future Texans. It is for boys of every race, religion and economic background. Contributions to your local Finance campaign will help this fine program move ahead," Mr. Willis concluded.

Jack Mathis is Finance chairman for Burkburnett Scouts.

New Ford Trucks To Go On Display Friday, Sept. 23rd

Ford's 200 new 1956 truck models with greater engine performance and payload capacity go on display in 6,800 Ford dealer show rooms thruout the country, September 23rd.

Two new models have been added to the Ford truck line, a T-750 tandem axle model in the heavy truck series, and a new, longer wheelbase pickup.

Gross vehicle weights extend from 5,000 pounds on the pickup to 42,000 pounds on the heavy duty tandem axle models.

For 1956, Ford's cab design introduces increased visibility of wrap-around windshields and optional wraparound rear windows.

Introduced for the first time to the trucking industry are two standard safety features, a safety steering wheel and safety door latches. Seat belts are optional.

The safety steering wheel is designed with a rim three inches above the horn button to give the driver's chest added protection from the steering column in case of a crash.

Also, a new safety door latch reduces the chance that doors will open in an accident, providing occupants added protection from being thrown out of the cab.

Tubeless tires, standard equipment this year, increased Ford truck economy. Larger payloads can be carried because tubeless tires and wheels weigh less, which is important to a trucker with as many as 10 tires on his truck. They reduce tire-change time up to 70 percent.

Ford's short-stroke, low friction engine design has been continued this year in eight engine combinations developed for more power, fuel savings and durability.

Check Stored Grain For Insect Damage

Wichita County farmers are urged to check their stored grain for grain insects.

Many grain producers suffer enormous losses each year by various kinds of stored grain insects, according to B. T. Haws, county agent. Insects eat as much as an estimated two percent of the nation's farm-stored grain each month. Losses are due primarily to dirty storage structures or to high temperatures and high moisture contents which encourage a build-up of insects infestations.

Grain weevils usually are the most destructive insects attacking stored grain. The rice or corn weevil and the granary weevil are the two most damaging to stored grain in practically all areas. The rice or corn weevil is about 1-8 of an inch long and can fly long distances. The granary weevil is slightly larger than the rice weevil but it cannot fly; consequently, infestations are more limited. Both larva and adult are destructive stages of weevils. They will reproduce freely in clear grain.

Several fumigants are effective for killing stored grain insects. These are formulated as various combinations and are sold by companies under different trade names. The dosages also vary some according to the ingredient used in the formulations. Directions for use as given on the label should be followed. Some of the fumigants commonly used are 1 part tetrachloride plus 3 parts ethylene dichloride, or 4 parts carbon tetrachloride plus 1 part carbon disulphide or carbon tetrachloride.

Other combinations of chemicals used as fumigants include ethylene dibromide, sulphur dioxide, arylonitrile, methyl bromide, trichloro-ethylene and benzene. Manufacturing and formulating companies sell fumigants under trade names; however the ingredients are given on the label. The dosages required for different combinations vary and instructions given on the label must be followed. Fumigants properly applied will penetrate grain and give good insect control to a depth of 10 to 12 feet.

Haws points out that frequent inspections of stored grain should be made.

Winter Legumes Improves All Soil

To make a soil more of a life giving substance, add organic matter to the soil according to technicians of the Soil Conservation Service. Suggested ways of maintaining and increasing organic matter are growing and discing in of legumes, applications of barnyard manure, grass crops, and high residue producing crops supplemented by additions of fertilizers. Soil Conservationists point out that an ideal soil would include 50 percent soil, 25 percent water, and 25 percent air. The addition of organic matter increases water holding capacity, improves soil aeration, improves the soil structure, improves crop production and protects against wind and water erosion. Applicable winter legumes in this area are Austrian Winter peas, Hairy Vetch and Madrid Clover. Winter peas do well on all soils except poorly drained soils and should be fertilized according to soil analysis recommendations, using 35 to 40 pounds of seed per acre. Hairy Vetch grows best on sandy loam and well drained soils. Madrid Clover is adapted to tighter soils.

Here's a simple plan for sending your youngsters through college:

If you want to give your children the benefits of a college education, you'd better start preparing for it now. And one of the easiest, surest ways to do it is by investing regularly in U. S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan.

Here's all you have to do. Sign up at the pay office where you work, and tell the people there how much you can afford to put aside each payday. They'll save that amount for you. It will be set aside from your salary before you get your check.

That money is invested for you in the world's safest investment—U. S. Savings Bonds. The Bonds are made out in your name and given to you. Then you just hold on to them and let the interest pile up.

When held to maturity (9 years and 8 months) each Series E Bond pays an average of 3% per year, compounded semi-annually. And now, with the automatic extension privilege it will go on paying that same fine interest for 10 more years. That means a return of up to $1.80 for each $1.00 invested.

Start right now toward important goals like college for the children and retirement for yourself. Sign up for the convenient Payroll Savings Plan.

Want your interest paid? Invest in 3% Series H: United States Government Series H Bonds are new current income bonds in denominations of $500 to $10,000. Redeemable at par after 6 months and on one month's written notice. Mature in 9 years, 8 months and pay an average of 3% per annum if held to maturity. Interest paid semiannually by United States Treasury check. Series H may be purchased through any bank. Annual limit: $20,000.

Mrs. A. W. Newman extended an invitation from the Woman's Forum workshop for Sept. 29th. Several made plans to attend.

Texas Wild Flower Laws was presented by Mrs. George Hodges. These were received with much interest.

Texas Wild Flowers was the theme of a talk by Mrs. Troy Miller. She listed those to be protected: Texas Bluebonnet, Texas Blue Bell, Mountain Pink, Texas Pink Star and Indian Paint Brush. She deplored unnecessary waste of greenery at Christmas time and praised the lavishness of nature in the flora of Texas. As conservation chairman, she told the need of conserving all the good in our soil.

Mrs. W. B. Short presented a most interesting discussion on parliamentary law, giving its origin and some of its most practical uses.

Mrs. T. J. Campbell, budget chairman, said plans were under way for a game night to raise funds for the club's projects.

Mrs. W. R. Milam was the very capable leader of the interesting program.

The workshop for the club will be held in the home of Mrs. C. A. Morgan Tuesday, Sept. 20th, at 2:00 P. M. Mrs. Ralph Carson and Mrs. Marvin Shilling of Ardmore, Oklahoma, will teach the making of corsages from dried materials.

Are Missing Payments

Considerable number of young children and aged working people who between June 1940 and 1950 have failed to claim monthly benefits payable to them under a 1954 change in the Social Security law, announced by the Social Security Administration, Manager of the Social Security Office in Wichita Falls, announced that those who do not apply for benefits before October 1, 1955, will not be able to receive benefits for all the months back to Sept. 1954, the date of the new provision in the law.

Under this provision, it is now necessary to pay monthly social security benefits to those qualified workers who died between June 1940 and Sept. 1950. If a deceased wage earner had worked as little as a year and a half of work under social security law, the families of many of these workers applied for benefits at the time of the family member's death. Mr. Tate said that they were told that they would receive payments because of the law, as it then was. But the workers had not earned enough social security credits to receive survivors benefits for the period.

Announcements of the change in the law were made in all newspapers, in pamphlets and on radio and television," Mr. Tate said, "and numerous persons in the Wichita Falls area have been claiming these benefits since 1954.

He said that a claim for social security benefits is filed within the first eligible, his payment is made to him regularly for the whole period, but if a claim is delayed for more than 18 months, benefits for some months will be lost. He therefore advised the survivors of workers who died between June 1940 and Sept. 1950 to get in touch with their nearest social security office before October 1, 1955.

He said claimants who apply after that date can be paid back to Sept. 1954.

He said that under this new law, payments to the survivors of such workers who died under social security law for a year and a half, to survivors under 18 years of age, and to their mothers, widows or children surviving a worker, payments can be made to his aged parents if providing their support.

GMC Truck Sales Up In August

GMC Truck domestic sales during August rose to 9,345 units, the highest month's sales total since Sept. 1951, it was announced today by R. C. Woodhouse, general truck sales manager for the GMC Truck and Coach division.

August sales were 66.8 percent higher than in the corresponding month of 1954, Woodhouse said. In the two and one half ton and up GMC weight classifications, sales were 117 percent higher than in the comparative period a year ago.

This substantial rise in sales volume reflects the high degree of customer enthusiasm for the 1955 GMC "Blue Chip" truck line which in the past month has had for the first time this year, virtually all of our 128 newly-designed basic models ready for delivery.

A well balanced line of smartly-styled, soundly engineered new GMC trucks for all vocations and needs, from the half ton to 35 tons, is now receiving the widespread customer acceptance that we had anticipated.

Your Senator Reports

by LYNDON B JOHNSON
 (Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, writing from Washington, gives a weekly report on happenings in the National Capital as they affect Texas and Texans).

Since I've been on my ranch, working at this job of getting completely well, I have been doing a lot of reading and a lot of thinking about the farm situation. I regret to say that nothing I have learned has made me feel good about the outlook for the average farmer.

Another Price Drop: In its August price survey, the Department of Agriculture reported a drop of 2 percent in prices received by farmers for the things they raise. This continues the trend that has been under way for three years.

Farm prices, as reported for August, are 6 percent below prices a year ago. They are 12.5 percent below prices on January 1, 1953.

Farmers Share Less: It is bad enough that farm income continues to drop. It is even worse that the farmer's relative share of the national income is declining steadily.

From 1946 thru 1950, farm income averaged 15.2 percent of the national income. Even in 1952 when farm prices had receded from their high point, the farmer had 12.6 percent of the national income.

But in 1953 the farmer's share dropped to 11.6 percent. In 1954 it went down still more, to 11.3 percent. And the unpleasant truth is that this year, with corporate profits heading an all-time high, the farmer's share of the national income will be even less.

Effects Spread Out: Now, you know and I know that the effects of lowered farm income, bad as they are on the farmers themselves, are by no means confined to the farmers. Already, even with big corporation profits climbing, bankruptcies of small businesses are increasing. Many retail merchants in farming areas have been badly hit by the loss in farm income. Farmers are leaving the land, and their sons are going into the cities.

This is bad — very bad — for Texas — and for the nation.

No Political Football: I am not trying to make the farm situation a political football. What I want is a farm program that is good for the farmers and good for the country. Politics or no politics, I don't believe we have such a program at the present time. I think the constantly falling farm prices are a direct and predictable result of the agricultural policies of the present Administration.

What do you think about this, I will be very glad to have your ideas.

R. D. Laney
Truman is to be a part of the presidential campaign for 1956. This significant move has been made by the Democratic Party by Chairman Butler as spokesman. Mr. Butler definitely decided that Truman was a credit, not a liability, in the 1952 campaign and that he will strengthen the party in the upcoming presidential election.

unable to make his appearance. It wasn't that they didn't want him to come. It was more, it seemed, an attitude of apathy which indicated they just didn't miss him. Now, of course, Mr. Butler is at the Democratic reins and perhaps that is the whole difference. And perhaps, too, even he has been on the fence until now waiting to see how well Mr. Truman was received on this tour before deciding definitely that the former President could make an important contribution next year. Let's look at Mr. Truman in retrospect. When Harry S. Truman was President of the United States he was responsible for some bold and brave decisions, for which a large portion of the American Press, in company with a large proportion of the American public, gave him full credit. Even then, when Mr. Truman was big, he could be very big, but, alas, when he was small, he could be very small. Now that Mr. Truman is no longer President it would be a pity if he were to allow the small, petty, intensely partisan side of his nature to dominate his better qualities. There is probably no one in the country who has a more acute historical as well as personal sense of the power and the responsibility of the Presidency than Mr. Truman. It is not pleasant to see the gentleman from Missouri, who in office had moments approaching greatness, demean himself by political mudslinging and name calling more appropriate to a court-house politician than to a former President of the United States. This of course, does not mean that Mr. Truman has no right to criticize his successor or to engage at the partisan level in the coming, or any other political campaign. Of course he has, and we admire the vigor and enthusiasm that this 71-year-old veteran of the political wars still musters in defense of what he passionately believes to be politically right. But Mr. Truman would do better and would more easily retain hard won affection of the American people if he would moderate his approach, if he would restrain his temper, if he would remember that dignity is expected from ex-Presidents as well as Presidents. Besides he would lose his party fewer votes.

Grade School News

We have renewed many old acquaintances and have made many new friends since the first day of school. We are having a lot of fun, but would like for the days to be just a little cooler. The mornings go by in a hurry but the afternoon and the warm weather makes it very tempting to try and take a little nap. Just as we are about ready to relax up comes a question about Columbus sailing the ocean blue, the thoughts of inviting cool water makes it very pleasant to think about the swim and a fine way to cool off. Next question pops out to name the ships of Columbus' and all of the fine thoughts about cool water are gone. We are steadily gaining new boys and girls and have 638 in our building at the present time. We are glad to welcome many new students from all parts of the United States and may boys and girls from over seas. Sometimes the girl who could marry anybody she pleased, just doesn't please anybody.

B. W. C. MET WITH MRS. W. A. MINICK TUESDAY EVENING

The Business Women's Circle of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. W. A. Minick for Bible study. The meeting was opened by singing To The Work, and was followed by prayer by Mrs. J. G. Cheney. Mrs. Lena Warren had charge of the business meeting. She called upon the new chairman, Mrs. I. C. Evans, to give a report of her officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. C. B. Beldon, community missions chairman, reported the circle had spent $4.80 for a student's lunch ticket. It was voted to help a needy sick woman in Burkburnett. $7.00 was raised for this purpose. The benevolent chairman reported the circle had contributed $22.78 to state missions during the month of September. Mrs. Carl Miller presented a unique project of furnishing a quilt and rug scraps to the inmates at the State hospital. The circle expressed willingness to help promote the project. Miss Jewel Reed taught the Bible lesson which was on the Lord's Supper. The meeting was dismissed in prayer by Mrs. John Brookman.

Historic Mansion Protected By Fire-Resistant Roof

Historic Blount Mansion in Knoxville, Tenn., stands as one of the oldest examples of colonial architecture away from the eastern seaboard. Built in 1792, it was one of the first houses erected in the frontier town of Knoxville, and is said to be the first weatherboarded house west of the Appalachians. Its appearance is much the same as when it was first built, except for the modern asphalt shingle roof, which also protects many other historical monuments from both weather and fire. The mansion was built by William Blount, first governor of the territory of Tennessee, and one of the first senators from that state.

the Snapshot Guild

Mirror pictures are easy to make, nice to have, and fun to show and impress your friends.

It's Almost Like Seeing Double

Yes, when you picture your subject reflected in a mirror, it's almost like seeing double . . . but it also can give you a very striking and effective snapshot.

Mirror pictures are for the most amateur photographers—using the simplest of equipment, as well as for the professionals who are well aware of the effectiveness of this technique.

A simple camera with flash attachment enables you to take these pictures. There are only two things which you have to keep in mind that don't apply to other pictures.

First of all, be sure that neither your camera nor the flash is reflected in the mirror. Secondly, when you figure the distance, you add that between camera and mirror to that between subject and mirror.

This means that if you have a camera that won't let you shoot a picture closer than six feet—and your subject looks best posed a foot from the mirror, you will keep the camera five feet from the mirror. That's all there is to it.

Find a pretty mirror, a good subject, and take camera in hand to make some snapshots that are "different" and make a terrific impression on people who aren't "in the know."
