FOR A NEATER NATION

The man who wrote, "Let me live in my house by the side of the road. And be a friend to man," probably resided miles from the nearest highway. At least, it's reasonable to believe he never had to rake up the lunch papers and bottles and cans and candy wrappers and partly eaten sandwiches from his front yard, and pick the used match books, punctured balloons, empty cigarette packages and assorted cellophane out of his hedge.

And if he had owned vacant property "by the side of the road," especially if it had a few trees on it, the accumulation of picnic trash, newspapers, old tires, even a junked car or two would definitely have deprived us of his touching poem.

But Keep America Beautiful, Inc., a non-profit corporation organized about two years ago to restore this poetic faith in our fellow man, and to clean up our highways and by ways, our beaches, picnic grounds and sylvan delis, and keep them clean, is swinging into action on a wide front.

Associated with KAE in a nationwide drive against litterbugs are 36 influential, energetic national organizations, including the 4-H clubs, National Grange, Boys Club of America, The American Legion, the Boy Scouts, the Campfire girls, and the National Clean-up, Paint-Up, Fix Up Bureau, National Council of State Garden clubs, the US Chamber of Commerce, the Jaycees, National Recreation Association as well as appropriate US Government departments.

And cooperating with KAE in newly inspired drives against litterbugs are the enforcement agencies of the various states where anti-litter laws, calling for stiff fines and even jail terms, have long been on the books but until recently have received scant or inadequate attention. As of now, state, county and city police, justices and judges are pretty well agreed that motorists will keep America Beautiful, or else.

It is the popular supposition that nice people (like you) are not litterbugs, and that people who strew trash in their wake are definitely not nice. But the sad fact is that all of us are litterbugs, to a greater or lesser extent. And let him who never threw a matchbook or a chewing gum wrapper out of a car window speak up in protest. In fact, he can write to Keep America Beautiful, Inc. at 99 Park Avenue, New York 17, New York, and they will probably strike off a medal for him.

As for how not to be a litterbug, here are KAE's rules: Dispose of your trash in a proper receptacle, wherever you are. (If there isn't any, keep the trash till you find one.) Urge your community to provide plenty of such receptacles conveniently located. Carry a litterbag in your car. Encourage local anti-litter programs. Set a good example to the youngsters, yours and others.

And do not, as the poet says, "Sit in the scorners' seat, Or hurl the cynic's ban" or anything else out of your car window.

THE RIGHT TO WORK STATES

Eighteen states have passed right-to-work laws. While they differ in detail, in broad principle they are all the same. They guarantee that a man has a right to join or not to join a labor union of any other legitimate private organization, and still get and keep a job. In short, they protect him against coercion by either the employer or the union.

One argument against these laws is that they hurt the economy generally. But a survey made of the 12 states which have had the laws since 1947, and so have had a chance to see just what results have been, belies that absolutely. These states have matched or outstripped national average gains in such important barometers of economic health as non farm employment, business in operation, population growth, per capita earnings, retail sales, new construction and bank savings accounts. In some cases the differences are spectacular, business and personal savings, for example, increased 34 per cent more in the right-to-work states than in the others.

No one claims that the laws alone are the reason for such improvement. But the facts certainly prove that the laws in no way hurt workers or others.

Going beyond the statistics, the truth is that the right to work is as fundamental as religious freedom and the right of free speech, free assembly, and free press. Where the right to work does not exist, there is no real freedom.

From where I sit . . . by Joe Manna

She Knew It All The Time

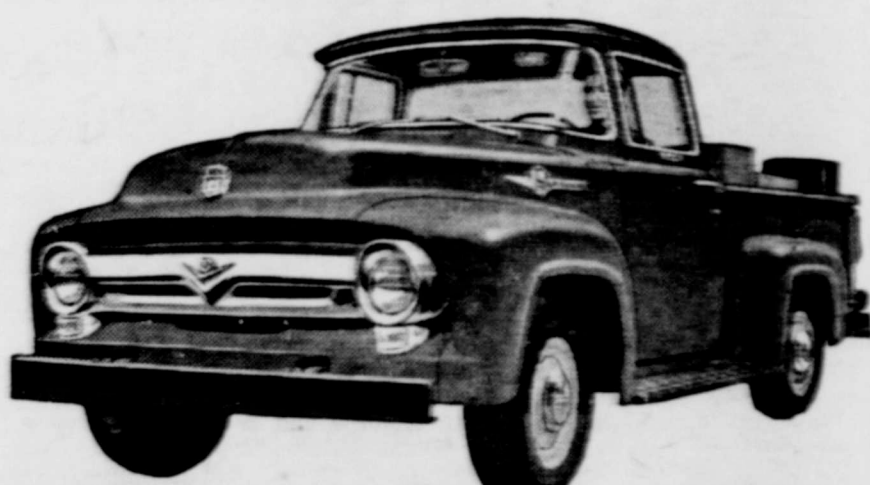

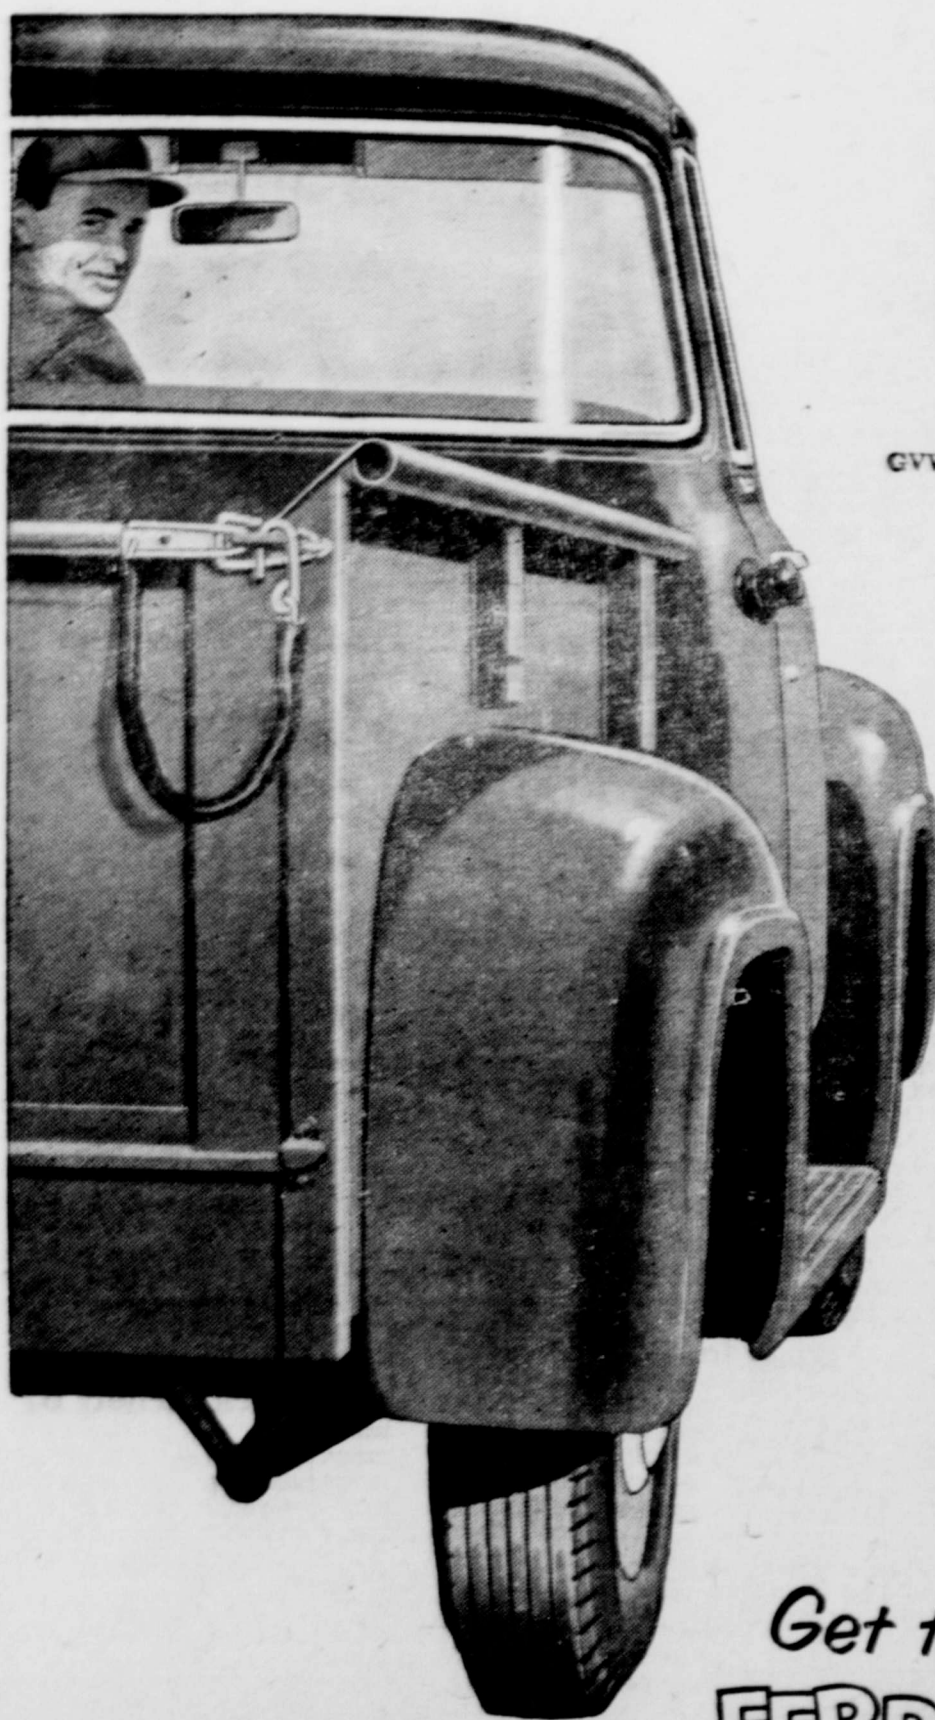

Chances are, long ago your grandma knew how to keep you from catching cold. Mine did. "Stay out of drafts," she'd warn. "Bundle up. Don't get wet." Then, maybe, when you grew up you found that the old lady's theories were considered old fashioned. Germs were the thing—and the way to avoid a cold was to avoid infection by somebody who already had one.

or going without your grandma, take a bow! From where I sit, there's a lot to be sound reasoning behind old customs people believe in. "Early to bed, early to rise," for instance — or the practice of drinking hot milk or a glass of beer at bedtime. I'm not saying you ought to hold with these beliefs yourself . . . but you'd better get the facts before giving the "chill."

Mrs. Landon Cullum Crusade Director Of Cancer Society Dist.

Mrs. Landon Cullum, who has long been active in cancer control work in Wichita Falls, has been appointed crusade director for District 13 for the American Cancer Society's annual fund raising educational crusade, according to an announcement by Joe Polichino, 1956 state crusade chairman.

Mrs. Cullum, who is also a member of the Executive Committee of the Texas Division, American Cancer Society, stated Polichino in making the announcement, "will coordinate the efforts of hundreds of volunteers throughout District 13 to secure funds for support of the American Cancer Society's three pronged attack on cancer thru education, research and service."

District 13 is composed of the following counties: Archer, Baylor, Callahan, Clay, Eastland, Haskell, Jack, Knox, Montague, Palo Pinto, Parker, Shackelford, Stephens, Tarrant, Taylor, Throckmorton, Wichita, Wilbarger, Wise and Young.

Last year, Polichino said, the Texas Division raised over $895,000. This year our goal for Texas is $1,017,640, and for the nation $26,000,000.

Indicating the importance of the annual April Crusade, Polichino explained "the April Crusade is the most decisive factor in saving thousands of lives from cancer each year because thru the concerted effort of ACS everywhere Texans are learning the importance of recognizing the early signals of cancer."

Although Polichino stated, 9,144 Texans died of cancer last year, an estimated 3,000 Texans were saved because they learned the facts of cancer in time. It is estimated that an additional 3,000 persons could be saved thru a greater crusade effort.

The American Cancer Society is spending nearly $6,500,000 nationally in a strongly coordinated cancer research effort by over 1,000 scientists in a total of 152 institutions. More than $250,000 is currently being spent in Texas alone.

Market Silage At Highest Price

Feeding balanced supplement with corn silage greatly increases the selling price of silage that is marketed thru beef cattle, according to analysis of recent college and commercial feeding tests.

Livestock specialists of the Ralston Purina Company research staff have analyzed results of three college feeding tests where different degrees of silage supplementation were used, along with a fourth test of complete supplementation conducted at the Purina research farm in Missouri. The college tests were reported at the 1955 Annual Southern Agriculture Worker's conference. Results point up the tremendous difference in silage utilization that may be obtained.

Calves were started at weaning in all tests. Those in Lot 1 of college tests were fed silage. They showed an average daily gain of 0.76 pounds, requiring 53.9 pounds of silage to produce one pound of gain. With silage valued at $10 per ton, the total feed cost per pound of gain in this pen was 27 cents. Lot 2 got the same kind of silage along with 1-2 pound of soybean meal per head per day. This lot gained 1.12 pounds per day and showed a total feed cost of 20 cents per pound of gain. Steers in Lot 3 got two pounds of soybean meal with their silage. They gained 1.49 pounds per day and the feed costs was 16 cents per pound of gain.

Steers in the Purina tests were fed three pounds of balanced supplement per head per day with the silage. This program produced the most profitable marketing of silage in the four tests studied. These steers gained 1.91 pounds per head per day requiring 13.9 pounds of silage and 1.57 pounds of supplement for each pound of gain. Total feed cost was reduced to 14 cents per pound of gain.

Silage utilization in these tests ranged all the way from a pound of gain from 53.9 pounds of un-supplemented silage to a pound of gain from only 13.9 pounds of properly supplemented silage. Farmers who feed their silage with a balanced supplement are obviously "getting more from what they have."

Texas Safety Association

Any human privilege, whether the privilege of free speech or the privilege to drive an automobile, carries with it certain responsibilities, certain moral commitments on the part of the individual who exercises that privilege.

The point was brought out today by Mr. E. C. McFadden of Dallas, Vice president of Employers Casualty Company and President of the Texas Safety Association, Inc., in the opening address of the State wide drive against traffic accidents being sponsored this month by the Texas Safety Association, the Dept. of Public Safety and the National Safety Council.

Too often we take our rights for granted, as something to be enjoyed and used to our own advantage, Mr. McFadden said. Whereas a right should be counted a privilege to be treasured and used conscientiously, something to be upheld and practiced unflinchingly.

Mr. McFadden pointed out that permission to drive a car is a privilege which is given to the citizen in the expectation that he will fulfill certain conditions and responsibilities which are designed to secure his own safety and that of others in modern traffic.

This of course includes obeying all traffic laws and ordinances, he said, Traffic laws which have been established over the years on the basis of experience and common sense, are made for the protection of the public; hence they are not to be taken lightly by the person who has been given the privilege to drive, Mr. McFadden said.

Mr. McFadden reminded drivers that enforcement officials were taking increased measures against traffic violators and that such offenders could lose their licenses, and be liable for stiff fines and even jail sentences wherever discretion indicates that such penalties are warranted.

The annual traffic toll in this country is an appalling tragedy, and one of the most effective controls that we have on the prevention of traffic accidents is enforcement officials.

Mr. McFadden reminded every driver to do his utmost to make the Know and Obey Traffic Laws program a success. He said he believed that if each individual would accept his responsibility for his own safety and that of others in traffic, the Texas traffic accident toll would be reduced substantially.

Card Of Thanks

We are grateful and extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends for the kindness shown our dearly beloved mother and grandmother, Mrs. Emma King, during her illness and for the sympathy expressed for us in our great sorrow at the time of her death; for the kind words spoken and the nice food. The beautiful flowers were a tribute to her memory and truly a great consolation to us.

We desire to thank each and everyone who assisted us in any way. With sincere appreciation to all,

INCOME TAX FACTS No. 1 How to Save on Your Income Tax

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax returns. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Accountants and the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants.)

The eve of April 15 will see a mad scramble in many households to put together the necessary facts and figures for the federal income tax returns due on that date. (April 15 falls on a Sunday this year, making April 16 the deadline.)

The last minute rush produces not only long lines at Internal Revenue Service offices, but also many careless mistakes by taxpayers.

Most of the errors are very simple. For example, about one million returns are filed every year with signatures missing. (This includes joint returns with only one signature and individual returns with no signature at all.)

Little slips in arithmetic last year resulted in overpayments by taxpayers of $18,000,000. Taxpayers got back these overpayments eventually, after the government discovered the mistakes, but the taxpayer cannot rely on the government to save him from all his errors.

The mistakes of arithmetic favoring the taxpayer were even larger—perhaps not entirely by coincidence. All returns are checked, and when an underpayment is discovered the government not only collects the difference, but also charges interest.

Opportunities Overlooked
Apart from obvious mistakes, many taxpayers overlook opportunities to claim exemptions and deductions, and other ways to reduce their tax.

In order to help you avoid such pitfalls, this newspaper is publishing a series of articles prepared with the help of the national and state organizations of certified public accountants. These articles—if you save them and use them along with the official instructions that come with your tax forms—may save you money.

Your first step is to consider whether you should file at all, and then what kind of a return to file. For income tax purposes you are not required to file a return if your gross income in 1955 was less than $600, or if you are 65 or older and had less than $1,200 gross income. But if you had income from self-employment of $400 or more, the return must be filed for social security tax purposes.

Don't forget that tax on salary or wages may have been withheld during the year by your employer, even if your income was less than $600, and the only way to get it back is to file a tax return.

Advantage of Joint Returns
A common mistake is the filing of a separate return by a wife who had a small income. If the wife files a separate return, she is not permitted to file another return jointly with her husband, nor is her husband allowed to claim an exemption for the wife on his separate return.

Most married couples will save money by filing a joint return, as this "splits" their income to put them in the same bracket as though each of them had received half the total income.

There are unusual cases, however, such as those involving capital losses, in which separate returns might result in a saving. If this is a possibility, it is best to figure both jointly and separately before deciding which way to file.

The instructions that come with your tax forms give further information. Help is also available from the Internal Revenue Service, which urges you to consult a properly-qualified advisor if you need outside assistance.

Lt. Bill Browning
At Fort Polk, La.
Army 2nd Lt. William W. Browning, Jr., whose parents live on Route 1, Burkburnett, Texas, recently was transferred with the 1st Armored Division from Ft. Hood, Tex., to Fort Polk La.

The Division began its permanent move to Fort Polk in December after taking part in "Exercise Sage Brush," the joint Army Air Force maneuver in Louisiana.

Lieutenant Browning, a motor officer in Headquarters Battery of the division's Artillery, entered the Army in September 1955.

The Lieutenant was graduated from Midwestern University in 1955.

Brucellosis Costs Texas Ranchers $10 Million A Year

The eradication of one disease, Brucellosis, would save the livestock industry of Texas an estimated ten million dollars annually. In addition to the direct loss from the disease, B. T. Haws county agent, reports other costs are piling up which are difficult to estimate.

In a year end report, he said, out of state buyers of feeder and breeder cattle are showing some hesitancy in making purchases because of the high incidence of this disease in Texas livestock. Too, the marketing of dairy products within another two years will hinge on the control of the disease.

Haws also pointed out that the human health hazard cannot be overlooked. The disease each year takes its toll of farm people. Although it is seldom fatal, it can wreck the physical well-being of its human victim for a period of years.

The veterinarian spent a major part of his time in 1955 doing educational work aimed at control and eradication of brucellosis.

All county agents and 600 practicing veterinarians of the state have been kept informed on current trends, regulations and methods of attacking the problem. This was accomplished thru meetings and correspondences. Both groups have also been sent information which could be used in their county program.

Dow Estes In Commissioner's Race On Record As Tax Assessor-Collector

In seeking your vote for Commissioner of Precinct No. 2, I am fully aware of the responsibilities of this important office...

I have lived in this precinct 33 years, educated three children in the local schools and have one attending school now...

I have always worked for the best interests of this precinct and Burk Burnett, taking an active part in the city, school and religious endeavors...

No outside interest is backing me, nor have I been approached by any. I am running strictly on my record as a public servant...

Contrary to report, I did NOT seek the job as your commissioner, nor contact anyone concerning appointment to the job prior to Mr. Holman's death...

Mr. Holman had a good program of work planned and I would make every effort to carry those plans to completion...

Every effort will be made to see as many voters as possible before the election, but in such a short time I know I will not be able to see all of you...

This precinct is in good shape financially right now. We certainly need a man on the Commissioners Court who will protect what we have now...

His experience in pipeline construction has given him first hand knowledge of the cost, operation and maintenance of heavy equipment which will be valuable in the administration of county road machinery and equipment...

He is an active member of the First Methodist Church, serves on the official board and is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Masonic Lodge, Lions Club and American Legion...

He has much respect for the able administration of this precinct in the past years by former Commissioner, W. T. "Slim" Holman. If he is elected it is his sole purpose to continue the precedent of sound, devoted management...

He will co-operate with the other commissioners and the Commissioners Court and will not be influenced by any individual group or organization whose motives are not for the best interest of all the people in the precinct...

He is a home owner and pledges to the citizens that the taxes collected and the funds of this precinct will be handled in a business like manner...

He believes I can make you a good a commissioner as you've ever had, if given a chance.

Sell Camp Fire Candy Here Friday

The Lowanna Camp Fire group will sell the same delicious candy they offered last year. The candy will be sold by the members of the group and all proceeds from the sale, above the cost, will be used by the girls to help pay their camp fee this summer. All the members plan to attend Camp Letoli for at least ten days. Rank Conferred In an impressive ceremonial Feb. 11th, Ietha Herring was awarded Wood Gatherers Rank Tuesday night in the home of the group's Guardian, Mrs. Walter Riley. Prior to the ceremonial, the fathers of the members of the group were guests at a beautiful Dad-Daughter boxsupper. The colorful table was laid with a white cloth. A centerpiece of driftwood and red hearts was flanked by tall candles. Each place setting was a box decorated to represent the holiday to be used by the member in the ceremonial. A sing-song was led by Shirley Hodges, group song leader. The invocation was sung by members and guests. The theme of the ceremonial was based on holidays. Each girl entered the Council Circle carrying a candle decorated to represent her chosen holiday. These were lighted one by one at the Wohelo candle held by the group guardian, as the girls explained the significance of the holidays chosen. Membership cards were given during a roll call answered with members' Indian names. A group charter was presented the group by Mrs. Riley, guardian, who explained its symbolism. Three songs were led by the song leader. Rank was then conferred upon Ietha Herring by Mrs. George Hodges, assistant guardian of the group. Ietha gave the Wood Gatherers Desire, and received the rank and the silver ring with its symbols representing her group bound together by the Law of Camp Fire. The ceremonial was concluded with the singing of The Camp Fire Law. During the social hour following, colored slides of the group's activities were shown the guests. Many of the slides were made five and six years ago when the girls were Blue Birds on outings in the Wichita Mountains. The latest pictures shown were those of the Halloween party held by the group last fall. Members and guests present for this annual party were: Loretta Brocker, Ietha Herring, Jo Ann Hervey, Shirley Hodges Charlotte Wallace, Irma Ned Riley and Louis Brocker, J. L. Herring, John Hervey, George Hodges, J. V. Wallace and Walter Riley. The next regular meeting will be held in the home of Shirley Hodges, Monday, Feb. 20th, at which time a check-up on the results of the candy sale will be made.

Other results included: William Morton, sixth place in medium class Angus division and ninth in heavy Angus division; Frank Morton, 11th in heavy class Hereford division with a J. S. Birdwell steer and ninth in heavy class Angus division; Edward Brock, eighth in light class Angus division; Jim Barbour, 15 in light class Angus division and Haws and Allen Turner, assistant county agent, who accompanied the boys to Ft. Worth, said more entries were shown in the Angus and Shorthorn steer division this year than have been shown in several years.

Entries in this year's Fat Stock Show sold at auction Friday, Feb. 3rd.

Frank's champion Angus for $1,500. The Wichita County boys got second place for in clean stalls during the show.

Corner Avenue D and 2nd St. Rev. Thomas W. White, Pastor Bible School—9:45 Morning Worship—11:00 "Peace Like a River" Evening Bible Study — 7:00 P. M. (Acts 5)

One of the most unstable, impetuous, fiery and impulsive characters in the New Testament was Simon Bar — Jonah, whom Christ surnamed Peter. It was Peter who cut off the soldier's ear in the Garden of Gethsemane on the night of Jesus Trial. It was Peter who denied even knowing Jesus during the most trying moments of the trial. It was Peter who argued constantly with his fellow Apostles, who was to have the place on the right hand of Jesus in Heaven. It was Peter whom Jesus asked three times if he loved Him and replied, in the greek idiom, that he liked Jesus. It seems Jesus had to spend more time reasoning with Peter than any of the rest. Doubtless, Peter was reprimanded more times than the Scriptures record. But, it was also Peter whom Jesus took with Him to the Mt. of Transfiguration. It was Peter that Jesus promised the keys to the church. It was Peter whom Jesus told to come to Him on the water then had to help him to keep him from sinking. But, in the end, it was the big lovable, impetuous, Peter whom the Spirit chose to preach the first gospel sermon.

Yet, though he was weak and ignorant, Jesus patiently turned him into one of the greatest preachers and apostles of all times. How much do we have to offer our Master? Only a little bit? But did you know that a little bit, consecrated to the King can be used in a wonderful way by our Lord?

Notes from County Ag. Agent and HD Agent

Food demonstrators for the Wichita County Home Demonstration clubs will begin their plans and work this month. These demonstrators will do various things in their own home on planning foods needed, producing foods, preparing and serving foods, improving eating habits, or improving their kitchen storage. They will work to help fulfill the purpose of the foods and nutrition program, which is to help families plan for and provide the foods needed to make for a good nutrition status of each family member.

home demonstration clubs. Two out of three Americans eat too little breakfast. How about you? Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent says breakfast should supply about one third of the total daily food needs. Studies show that a protein rich breakfast can stay off fatigue hours longer than a breakfast with little protein. Eggs are a good source of protein and are plentiful now. Give your body the proper fuel to start the day right. Potatoes, pork and beef are the three items that headline the USDA's plentiful foods list for February. Other plentiful: Rice, still lots of it; dry beans, broiler and fryer chickens, vegetable fats and oils for cooking and salad use; lard, especially fine for shortening; new pack peanut butter and canned tuna in oil. Eggs are plentiful now, and contain many good nutrients. Miss Wirges says they offer top quality protein for building and repairing body tissues, and important vitamins and minerals. To get enjoyment from eggs, cook them properly, High and prolonged heat will make them tough and leathery. Keep heat even and low to moderate. Don't overcook. Infrared brooders are proving popular on many farms for brooding chicks, pigs, lambs and even calves. They may also be used for thawing frozen pipes or as a heat lamp in the home. Jim Barbour of Iowa Park received a $50. War Bond in the State Co-op Meeting in Austin last week. Jim was the state winner in the 4-H Co-op Contest. He received a free trip to the state convention, along with the county agent. The feeding of stillbrestol, according to recommendations, can save feed but does not cut the feeding time required to give steers the desired degree of fatness. The eradication of one disease, brucellosis, would save the livestock industry of Texas an estimated $10 million annually. In addition to the direct loss from the disease, B. T. Haws, county agent, reports other costs are piling up, which are difficult to estimate. The supply of hybrid grain sorghum seed for 1956 planting is very limited. The new hybrid should be bought only from a reliable seed dealer or seed grower. The future profitableness of the dairy herd may well depend upon the type of selection and breeding program being carried out by each dairyman. Herd replacement can make or break the dairy enterprise.

Poultrymen Using Infrared Lamps For Brooding Chicks

Poultry producers are turning more and more to the infrared lamp method of brooding chicks, says B. T. Haws, county agent. If you are among those poultrymen who have not yet considered this method and have electric power on your farm, you might like to consider a change from your present system, Haws suggests. Infrared brooders are light in weight, easy to set up, move and store. And you can see the chicks without lifting a cover. Readymade infrared brooders are available, with a large range of marketing prices, depending on the number of lamps used, the type of brooder and whether they have automatic regulators. You might make a brooder yourself says Haws. Simple plans for building an infrared brooder have been prepared by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Copies of these can be obtained from your county agricultural agent. Another advantage of infrared brooders, according to Haws, is that the lamps have many other uses around the farm and home. They can be used for brooding pigs, calves and lambs, for thawing frozen pipes, or even as a "heat lamp" in the home.

"HOME HINTS"

By Mary Blake Home Service Director Carnation Company

Is your family caught with its bank account down? Most families object to leftovers, I know. But using those last bits of roast meat, cooked vegetables and cake can make a big difference in the food budget.

Instead of having "leftover" night blues, try some of these tricks--

... toast leftover cake squares or cookies in a moderate oven (350° F.) 5-10 minutes. Crumble and sprinkle on ice cream as a dessert topping.

... Combine 2 cups seasoned leftover mashed potatoes with 1 egg and 1/4 cup chopped onion. Dip in flour and pan fry lightly in hot fat.

... Use leftover cooked vegetables in salads, or combine 2 cups of cooked vegetables with 1 cup of Carnation Cream Sauce* in casserole. Top with buttered crumbs and bake 15-20 minutes in moderate oven (350° F.).

*Carnation Cream Sauce. Combine 1 tablespoon butter with 1 tablespoon flour and 1/4 teaspoon salt in saucepan over low heat. Blend thoroughly. Gradually add 1 cup undiluted Carnation. Stir until thickened and smooth (3-4 minutes).

Savings Bonds Sales Highest in 10 Years

United States Savings Bonds sales in 1955 were the highest in the 10 postwar years totaling $5-368,000,000, 10 percent over 1954 and 23 percent over 1953.

The cash value of E and H
Savings Bonds held by individuals reached an all-time peak of over $40,000,000,000. Of this amount $37,500,000,000 are in E
Bonds and $2,500,000,000 in H
Bonds.

Even if this record meant nothing else, it means that the American people have an abiding faith in the future of their country, a future that will be even more secure and stable as more and more Americans buy a share in their country with U. S.
Savings Bonds.

Proud as we are of country-men's enthusiasm for Savings Bonds, we're even prouder of your enthusiasm because we're realistic enough to know that your generous cooperation was largely responsible for the 1955's record, and that with continued help we will go forward to greater sales achievements in 1956.

Age of Home Cloaked by New Roof

Remodeling lopped a half century from this 80-year-old house. More gracious living was the result, plus better appearance.

Basically, this 8-room bungalow was similar to many thousands of other houses scattered throughout the country. The owner, Miss Helen Maletz, of Pittsburg, Kansas, was born in the house. Though linked to it by sentiment, she wanted to make a number of specific improvements.

She decided that because the house was large enough for her, she'd spend her remodeling funds solely to gain convenience and better appearance. She hired a reliable local contractor to carry out her ideas.

The first item of business was the roof. It reflected the extravagances of the late Victorian period—false dormers and other contractor build a new roof with clean lines. She covered it with green asphalt shingles. The roof color was to set the central color theme for the remodeling.

The covered porch was transformed into a sun porch with movable glass louvers. This modern note was continued in the side walls by installing new ponderosa pine window units with modern horizontal panes. The windows, completely weather-stripped and chemically treated, do not stick. The walls of the house were re-sided with buff-colored brick veneer.

Costs for the interior remodeling were reduced by keeping intact the load-bearing walls. The non-load-bearing partition between the living room and dining room was removed. This opened the way for a 28-foot by 18-foot living room. The living room was decorated in subdued green. This repeated the green color of the roof and tended to unify the exterior-interior decorating schemes.

Size and location are the only two features the attractive remodeled house, above, has in common with its predecessor, right. A clean new roof line was the key to the improved appearance. The porch became a sun-room and its roof was raised to be consistent with the main roof.

Ceilings in the house were lowered. Wall-thick insulation plus a new gas heating unit were installed, reducing heating costs. New hardwood floors were laid throughout the house.

The kitchen got a good share of the remodeling dollar. Modern cabinets and electric appliances were installed. Both the kitchen and bathroom walls were tiled in yellow.

Have Fun When You Travel With Baby

Babies are natural travelers. If you are traveling with your baby on a long train ride, both of you can have a wonderful time. However, it does require a certain amount of planning. Take only one case for yourself and a travel bag for the baby. The shoulder bag for the mother and the travel bag for the baby are made of light weight material and carry your things in it. This will leave your hand free for baby, one for your suitcase.

Your over-the-shoulder bag will be a safe place to carry your purse, particularly if most of your funds are in American Express Travelers Cheques—buy them at your local bank. These may be spent anywhere like money, but if lost or stolen, any American Express office will make a prompt refund.

Get to the train well ahead of time to give your baby time to settle and doze off before he is tired enough to become cross. Wait for the train that is ready to catch it.

Take along some of baby's favorite toys, also a small blanket. Don't worry about keeping too close to baby's schedule. Chances are if you're happy, baby will be too.
