Architect's Drawing of Proposed Addition to Primary Bldg.

Above is shown the architect's drawing of the proposed $120,000.00 Addition to the Primary School Building located on Avenue F. At left is the five classroom building now in use. The new addition would go back one room, across four rooms, then forward six rooms to complete the U-shaped building. This would give nine more class rooms, plus a tax office and other necessary facilities. Enrollment for 1957-58 already shows that present facilities in the lower grades would not be able to accommodate the increase of students. Anticipated enrollment in future years shows these figures going up and up. Unless more classrooms are provided, it would be necessary that students in the lower grades attend school on one-half day shifts. This situation would be highly undesirable for all.

Bond Issue of $120,000 Be Voted On Here Saturday, February 16, At The Town Hall

Those wishing to vote absentee ballot may do so by 11th. Absentee ballots may be secured at the office in the High School Building. Voting on the bond issue there will be three propositions to be voted on:

PROPOSITION No. 1—Voters will vote for or against the adoption of Senate Bill 116. Senate Bill 116 gives the local school board authority to tax the property in the school district above the $1.50 present property tax rate, interest and principal. If the $120,000 bond issue carries, taxes WILL NOT be in excess of 10%. For example, anyone owning a $10,000 home (value on school tax roll) is now paying a rate of $30.00 total school taxes. Next year, if the bond issue carries, the home will be valued at the value of $2,000.00 and a tax rate of $1.60. The owner would pay $32.00 total taxes to the school, which is an increase of $2.00. We can assure the voters that the rate for next year will not be more than 10%, probably less.

Under Proposition No. 1, any voter living in the school district who has qualified himself or herself to pay their poll tax or being exempt by age, is qualified to vote.

PROPOSITION No. 2 will authorize the board of trustees to issue bonds in the amount of $120,000.00 to be used as follows:

$10,000.00	plus interest	1958
$10,000.00	plus interest	1959
$10,000.00	plus interest	1960
$10,000.00	plus interest	1961
$10,000.00	plus interest	1962
$10,000.00	plus interest	1963
$10,000.00	plus interest	1964 to 1967
		both inclu.

A series of bonds will be for 10 years. Legally qualified voters of the school district who have paid their poll taxes or exempt by age) and own taxable property in the school district and who have rendered the same for taxation on the rolls in the school district for the tax year 1956 shall be qualified to vote on this proposition.

PROPOSITION No. 3 authorizes the Burk Burnett board to levy and collect an annual ad valorem tax to exceed $1.50 on a $100.00 valuation of taxable property in the school district for the further maintenance of public free schools.

Those who qualify to vote on proposition No. 3 must also pay their poll tax and who own taxable property in the school district and who have duly rendered the same for taxation on the tax roll of the school district shall be entitled to vote on this proposition.

In order for the bond issue to carry, all three propositions must carry by the voters. In other words, if proposition 2 and 3 carry and proposition No. 1 fails, it will be necessary to call another election. We solicit your support for all three propositions, voting $120,000.00 in bonds to be paid off in 10 years for the construction of classrooms, tax office, and other auxiliary rooms; for the $1.50 tax and voting for Senate Bill 116. This bond issue is NOT for constructing a high school building, or remodeling the present structure. The new addition would be an addition to the present Primary School Building, located on Avenue F.

The judges and clerks who will hold the election are: Emil Schroeder, Roy T. Magers, Mrs. F. T. Felty, and A. H. Lohofener.

Spotlight On An Airman

(The following article concerns a local boy and was taken from a newspaper printed recently in Puerto Rico).

This week the Tropicair's spotlight searched Ramey AFB Puerto Rico and finally lighted upon A-1-C Donald W. Knox, Donald, a Texan by birth, is a member of Hq. Sq. 72nd Bomb Wing and he is responsible for maintaining the pay records for Hq. Sq. Wing and 73rd Bomb Squadron. Airman Knox came to Ramey AFB from Laredo AFB, Texas in February of last year. While he was at Laredo AFB he had the same duties he performs now.

This 20-year old airman hails from a little town in Texas named Burk Burnett where he graduated from the Burk Burnett High School in May of 1954. When he was in high school he lettered in football for three years and was also a two year letterman in track.

It was also in this little town of Burk Burnett that he became "moon struck." Some people say that when a man gets moon struck he's crazy. Maybe so. In Airman Knox's case, the moon he gazed at and went crazy for happened to be Miss Ima Lee Moon, who is also from Burk Burnett and the girl he eventually married. He and his wife are now living in Aguada, P. R.

Airman Knox came into the U. S. Air Force in July of 1954, two months after he graduated from high school. He was sent to Sampson AFB in New York for his basic training. After basic training he was assigned to Laredo AFB and was then sent to Ramey after 1 year and 4 months at Laredo. At the present time he is un-

A letter from the West Texas C. of C. suggested this organization contact state law makers and ask that the fourth Thursday of each November be declared Thanksgiving, to prevent two Thanksgivings, as we had in 1956.

Twenty-four riders represented Burk Burnett at the Fat Stock Show in Ft. Worth last Saturday. Judy Smith, Burk Queen, was also presented in the rodeo arena.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

WADESBORO, N. C. Messenger and Intelligencer: "Why is it that governmental and other authorities who have to deal with important problems and issues seem determined to use indirect and evasive approaches to a solution instead of hitting the nail pointblank on the head?"

COLFAX, IOWA, TRIBUNE: "Rock and Roll" is just an over activated Indian war dance, only in my estimation the Indians do it much better."

WADENA, MINN., Pioneer Journal: "As long as we taxpayers keep our hands out for government aids, the story will never change. We'll never be our own boss."

LENNOX, S. D., Independent: "It is apparent, that while the Soil Bank program provides a certain type of 'insurance' to the farmers of America, participation in the various plans thus make it equally evident that the farmer still is an individualist, adventurer and experimenter. At any rate, the present farm program as we see it, is in theory and final results a far better plan than over production, expensive storage surplus and government payment for crops for which there is no adequate disposal plan."

COVINGTON, TENN., Leader: "If people who wonder what is becoming of their money would watch themselves closely for 30 days or so, they would probably find out they are spending it."

PORT HURON, MICH., Times Herald: "Every government of oppression that has existed on this earth has been drowned in the blood of its victims. There is no reason to expect that Russia will not meet the same fate."

READY WHEN TROUBLE COMES

Last year, as was expected, oil supply and demand hit new peaks. But, the American Petroleum Institute reports, there was something vastly more significant. That was the way the industry's long range planning paid off in an emergency.

The emergency, of course, was in Western Europe, and it followed the closing of the Suez Canal and other Middle Eastern upheavals. England and the other countries affected needed new oil sources desperately, and the United States represented the only major new source. American oil men, with the full approval of our government, responded immediately. Great quantities of oil have been sent abroad. Every available facility has been used to expediate the job. The shipments have not been as large as Europe wanted—it is a physical impossibility to make up for the whole Middle Eastern loss. But they have been sufficient to keep the countries going, and to prevent potential economic collapse, which would be the biggest boon possible to Russia and to international communism.

This is being done without peril to our own oil supplies. It is generally agreed that the situation contains neither shortage nor rationing threats for American consumers.

A task of this magnitude and complexity was not and could not, so to speak, be accomplished from a standing start. It was made possible, as the president of the Institute points out, "because U. S. Oil men and oil companies alike never ceased in their modernization and expansion programs, and their preparations for the future as well as the present."

They were ready when grave trouble came.

THE AMERICAN THEORY

In past times, a widely accepted theory held that wages came out of profits—and this belief, for obvious reasons, was a source of conflict and mistrust between the owners of business and the workers. The theory is still held valid in some countries.

But a new and very different theory was conceived and acted upon in this country. John Chamberlain explains it succinctly in an article in The Freeman: "The American theory was that wages were paid out of production; that if you increased production, selling more and more items at less and less per item, the wages and the profits would rise together."

Henry Ford was the first to put this theory into practice on a big scale. Out of it came that unique and revolutionary thing—the American system of mass production, which has been accurately regarded as an economic miracle the world around.

But the principle of doing more business at a smaller profit per transaction was not, luckily, confined to production. Had it been the results would have been limited. Retail business, with the chains doing the pioneering and other kinds of merchandisers joining the trend, followed the same idea. In mass distribution, as in mass production, a big volume of sales is made at a very small unit profit—and the result is a satisfactory total profit along with lower prices to the consumer.

Mass production and distribution have brought us unequalled well being.

PREFERENCE FOR NEWSPAPERS

Writing in Editor and Publisher, Philip N. Schuyler says: "A new coast to coast check of representative automobile dealers shows a continued preference for newspaper advertising. A vast majority of 344 dealers questioned, declared they put this local form of advertising ahead of all other media."

An editorial in the same issue of the same magazine refutes the claim that TV is dominant among young people. It cites a factual survey in which 39 percent of 18 and 19 year olds questioned said newspapers are "hardest to do without," whereas only 10 percent said the same thing about television.

Newspapers aren't only here to stay, they're still the leaders of all media.

"low-price" lineup!

This big high-stepping Chieftain started a revolution with a carload of "firsts" and an eye-popping price tag!

The low-price field never looked like this before! The handsome husky you see right here has the boat still rocking... with more power, more wheelbase, more room—and more sheer pride of ownership—than ever before possible on a well-trained budget! Just look at what they're making room for now in the low-price lineup: a strapping 347 cu. in., 10 to 1 compression ratio Strato-Streak V-8... a whopping, road-hugging 122 inches of wheelbase and an all-new suspension system for a Level-Line Ride that's next best thing to a magic carpet! And this streamlined beauty takes on the field with more than six dozen "firsts", all proved by 100,000 of the roughest, toughest test miles a group of facts-minded engineers could devise! If this sounds like a wonderful buy—it certainly is! Our advice is to stop dreaming and price it! At a cost less than a lot of the low-price jobs, this newcomer is making big-time buyers out of former "all-three" owners!

News From The Congress

By Congressman Frank Ikard

Now that inauguration is over, the Congress is in position to get on with its work. At the beginning of each new Congress there is not a great deal done until after the President makes his State of the Union address and delivers his budget message. It is in this way he lays before the Congress his program. As has been pointed out heretofore, this year's budget message calls for the greatest peace time spending in our history and if the program of the President is outlined in this message is carried out, it would make impossible any reduction in taxes during this session of Congress. There is little question in my mind that there are many areas in which the budget can be reduced. It is my hope that Congress will make substantial reductions in the President's recommendation to the extent that we may have some tax relief as well as a balanced budget.

There are many inequities in our present tax laws and many of our tax laws were enacted in their present form during the war years for the purpose of discouraging non-essential activities. It seems to me it is high time that we scaled many of these wartime taxes downward and make a real effort to make provisions for reduced taxes in both the income and excise tax fields.

This is how federal revenues are provided: 51 percent from individual income taxes; 29 percent from corporation income taxes; 12 percent from excise taxes and 8 percent from customs and other receipts. The President in his budget message recommends that total expenditures of the Federal Government be apportioned as follows: 59 percent for military security; 10 percent for interest on the national debt; 7 percent for veterans programs; 7 percent for agricultural activities; 2 percent for retirement of the National debt, and 15 percent for all other activities of the Government combined.

This week the Committee of Agriculture in the House is considering several plans for relief to the drought stricken Southwest. One of the measures being considered is one I introduced which would make available immediately protein feed for livestock in the drought area and would also set up a deferred grazing program which would make it possible for the grazing land that has been affected by the drought to be allowed to recover before it is fully stocked. All indications are that the committee will act rapidly on one of these programs and that action will be taken in the Congress within the next two or three weeks.

Visitors from home this week were Mr. Joe Leonard of Gainsville, Navy Lt., and Mrs. William Russell, Jr., of Denton, now stationed at Patuxent River, Maryland; Mrs. Thrazyr Mayfield, Henrietta; Mr. Bruce Street of Graham; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Waggoner, Mr. Flynn Stewart, Mr. J. P. Coleman, Mr. Wayne Watt, and Mr. Ed Kadane, all of Wichita Falls.

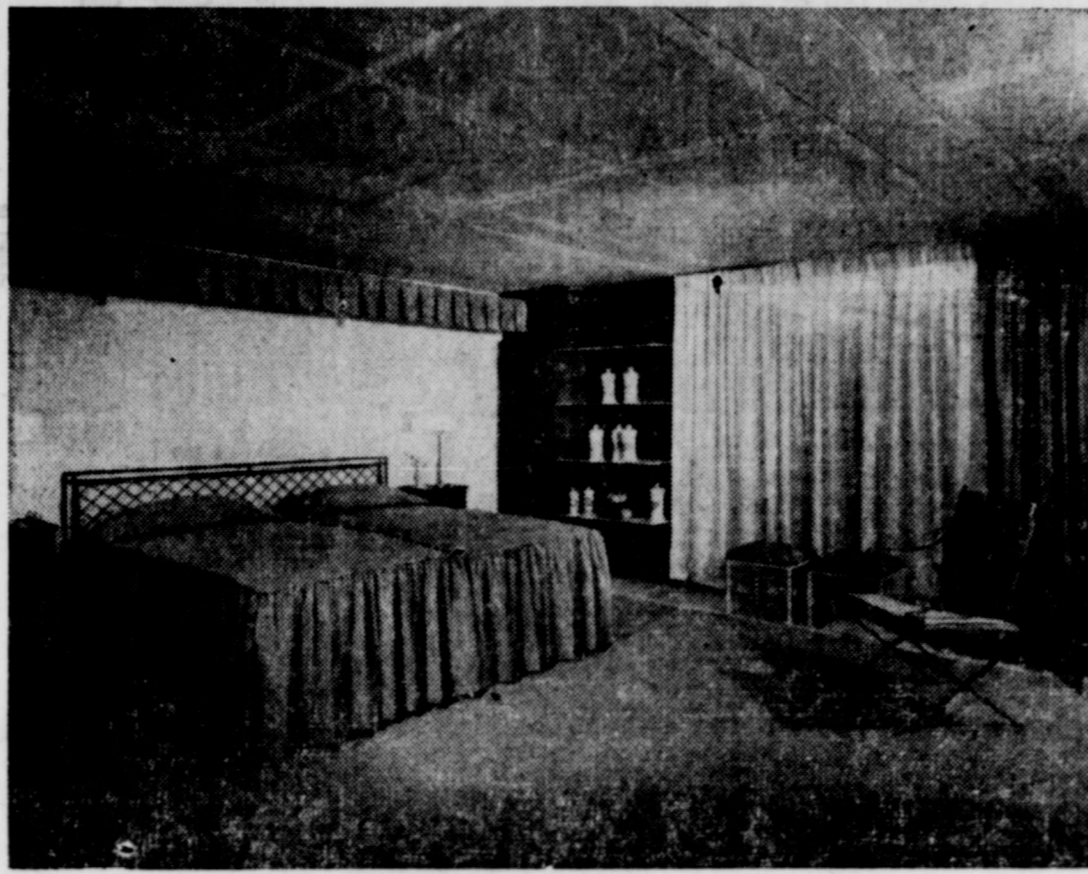

At the beginning of each session of Congress, the President, in his Budget message, outlines what the Administration would like to have appropriations for. The budget is always a very long, tedious and complicated document. This week the President sent to Congress his Budget message for the fiscal year of 1958. It calls for the expenditure of almost Seventy-Two Billion Dollars which is largest peace time Budget we have had in the history of our country. The staggering size of the Budget was both surprising and disappointing. If anything like the amount of money the President requested is appropriated, it will preclude any possibility of any tax reduction. There are many areas in which the Budget can be cut, and it is my hope that Congress will see fit to make substantial reductions.

In the Budget message the President also made many recommendations for legislation among which were the extension of the coverage of the Fair Labor Standards Act (minimum wage), raising of postal rates, the passage of legislation that would free the producers and gatherers of natural gas of Federal control, statehood for Hawaii and Alaska and a continuance and in some areas an increase in foreign aid.

The new Senator from Texas, William A. Blakely, arrived in Washington this week. He has made a very fine impression here. There can be no doubt but what he, during his stay in the Senate, will render an outstanding service to Texas and to the country. Senator Blakely brings to the Senate a wealth of experience in the areas of the greatest concern to Texas in that he is well acquainted with the problems of agriculture, the oil and gas industry and business generally.

Every four years at Inauguration Time, the whole front of the Capitol is almost completely remodeled to provide seats for the spectators and an adequate rostrum for the President to be inducted into office. The work in making these changes for the inauguration took almost six months and will cost well over a million dollars.

Mr. Steve Ford of Wichita Falls was a Washington visitor this week.

"New Dimensions" To Be Shown Friday, Feb. 8th At Town Hall

The above room is taken from "New Dimensions," the largest Do-It-With-Fabrics Exhibit ever assembled in New York.

The New York Exhibit presented by Celanese Corporation of America occupied 11,000 square feet of space and featured Thousands of Yards of Fabrics in Hundreds of Colors and Textures. The exhibit ran for one month and was acclaimed by press and public.

"New Dimensions" has been made into an exciting slide program and will be shown on Friday, February 8, 1957, 2:30 p. m. at The Town Hall Burkburnett, Texas for the Current Literature club and guests. Mrs. Marjorie Kauer chairman, will read the commentary on the 55 color slides in the program which includes 40 room settings and numerous window treatments.

Among the variety of fabrics shown will be Fortisan rayon printed sheers, Celaperm acetate taffetas in rich colors, antique satins, sturdy upholstery fabrics, and many deeply textured fabrics of "New Dimensions" in vivid and pastel shades to please all tastes and budgets.

A feature of the program is a Celanese dress length given as a door prize.

This program actually shows in color slides how to make Decorative Fabric Screens, how to apply Fabric to Walls, how to make Fabric bordered Walls, how to plan unique Milk Glass Shelves; also how to Beautify your Windows Inside and Out when you Do-It-Yourself-With-Fabrics of New Dimensions for the Home.

Seven grain sorghum hybrids cooperatively by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, will be available to farmers for planting in 1957. These hybrids are the result of research work which began in 1921 and are the first practical hybrids to be released from these studies. They are RS 590, Texas 601, Texas 611, Texas 620, RS 650 and Texas 660.

Total fertilizer tonnage sold during the spring of 1956 was about the same as during the same periods for 1954 and 1955. Tonnage of mixed goods sold in the first six months of 1956 was 5 percent less than a year ago, but sales of materials was about 5 percent higher.

According to the United States Dept. of Agriculture, egg production in 1957 is likely to exceed slightly the record output of 169 million cases in 1956. Production may be about 2 percent higher.

In the second half of 1957, the number of layers may be smaller than during the same months of 1956 because of a possible reduction in the number of replacement chickens raised. The usual year to year increases in the rate of lay however, are likely to offset considerably the effects of a smaller number of layers late in 1957, with the result that egg supplies will continue large thruout the year.

Prices of hogs will be higher in 1957 than in 1956. As slaughter this winter drops below last winter, prices should advance and should be much above the depressed prices of early 1956. Higher prices should continue except for seasonal fluctuations, during most of 1957. Depressed hog prices are not in prospect for 1957.

Construction of field terraces increased at the Iowa Park Work Unit office of the Soil Conservation Service, reports Elvy Sargent, Work Unit Conservationist. District cooperators constructed 41 miles during the year with technical assistance from the Soil Conservation Service and cost sharing by the Wichita County ASC.

Waterways established in previous years enabled many of the cooperators to terrace this year. Sargent states. There were 19 waterways seeded this year that will enable more farmers to terrace when grass is established however some of the waterways seeded this year will require reseeding due to the extreme drought according to SCS technicians.

Other practices applied during the year were 1411 acres of contour farming, 4665 acres of cover cropping, 1 0 0 26 acres of crop residue utilization, 1080 acres of rotation hay and pasture, 992 acres of stubble mulch, 2638 acres of brush control, 7645 acres of deferred grazing, 392 acres of pasture seeding, most of which is coastal bermuda grass and 264 acres of range seeding.

Farmers and ranchers properly used 5218 acres of rangeland, stocked 9 ponds with fish, improved 98 acres of wildlife area, 643 acres of border irrigation, 3 miles of diversion terraces, 100 acres of drainage, 592 acres of irrigation water management, 235 acres of land leveling, 7 miles of ditch laterals, 2 miles of open drains, 13 farm ponds, 72 stabilizing measures in drainage and irrigation ditches and 38 acres of waterways.

News From The HD Agent

When you give your child a nickel, you can give him something of enduring value at no extra cost. You wouldn't give him a bicycle without showing him how to ride it, but do you give him money without teaching him its value?

The lessons you teach your child in money management will be something he can use throughout life. An adult he must compete with those whose training in money matters started early. To be successful, he must learn how to earn, spend, and save money.

As soon as a child is old enough to ask for a nickel for ice cream, he is old enough to learn a little about its value, what a nickel will buy and what it takes to earn a nickel. Show him two nickels saved will buy more.

As soon as the children are old enough, let them plan with the family how to get the things the family wants, says Thelma wirges, county HD agent.

If you don't teach him money management, he may spend half his life learning by hard knocks and financial set-backs. Ask your county HD agent for a copy of Extension bulletin "Money—Family Style."

Wichita County Home Demonstration club women are starting their second year of work on family economics. This year, they will work to:

1. Improve their family life insurance programs. Study and work to provide adequate property insurance.
2. Study transfer of property and make wills.
3. Study and learn the benefits and provisions of Social Security and 5. Study the problems

Plan Valley Forge Scout Jamboree

Official Poster of Fourth National Jamboree
Fifty thousand Boy Scouts, Explorers, and leaders from all parts of the nation and some from other lands will camp together at the Fourth National Jamboree July 12-18. A 1,500-acre tent city is being prepared at historic Valley Forge in Pennsylvania. It will have its own water supply, electricity, telephone service, post offices, and other services for the largest gathering of boys in the Western Hemisphere. Jamboree campers, all of them at least twelve years old, holding Second Class rank or higher, will share daily camp chores, cook their own meals, take part in displays, campfires, demonstrations, intercamp visits, and excursions to historic shrines in and near Philadelphia. Outstanding Americans will take part in principal events.

in buying and spend their money more wisely.

While all the members are working on these things, each club will have an individual demonstrator. This demonstrator will set up her own demonstration to improve the business practices of her own home. During the month of January, these demonstrators will make plans for the year. This past week plans were made by: Mrs. Ross Allen and Mrs. J. G. Leonard. Mrs. Allen plans to 1. Take and keep a Household Inventory. This is often required for household insurance. 2. Have a family File. Every family needs to have all family business papers where they can be easily found. 3. Fill out an information sheet on what every family member should know about the family business. Copies of this sheet may be obtained from the county home demonstration agent, 305 Federal Bldg. Wichita Falls. Every family needs a copy in their family file and 4. Plans to get their birth certificate. Mrs. Leonard has her family business organized as she likes it,

George Gershwin Studied
Under the direction of Mrs. Shirley Askins, music classes of 7th and 8th grades have been studying the life and works of the American composer, George Gershwin.

They found that his contributions in symphonic and classic jazz constitute the only real American music. They heard selections in his musical comedies and the greatest of his works, "Rhapsody in Blue."

Bulletin Boards in Use
Students and teachers are cooperating in a campaign to see that bulletin boards in the halls and in rooms are put to use in advantageous ways.

Posters stressing school spirit and dates of athletic events will be made from time to time. The Student Council, under the direction of its president, Eddie Eastman, is especially behind the school spirit drive.

become intelligent citizens with an appreciation of the free way of life and a dedication to high spiritual ideals.

Another February Birthday

During February, America observes the birthdays of several of its illustrious sons—Washington, Lincoln, and Thomas Edison.

Scouting in the United States reaches its 47th anniversary during Boy Scout Week, February 6 to 12.

Since February 8, 1910, more than 26,000,000 American boys and men have been influenced by the Scout Oath and Law.

America is all the richer for it. Many men in high places in American affairs today proudly credit Scouting's influence in their lives.

Today over 4,500,000 boys and men are actively enrolled in 540 local councils with a membership of 111,000 units.

American adults of good character give generously of their time in giving leadership. Others help by raising funds, or in serving as members of local Boy Scout councils.

This summer there will be a "mountain peak" experience for more than 50,000 Boy Scouts, Explorers, and their leaders when they gather at historic Valley Forge in Pennsylvania for their Fourth National Jamboree.

It will be a gathering of youth who will be among the nation's top leaders a few decades hence.

News From The County Agent

Good lawns don't just happen. They are the product of considerable time and effort, says E. T. Haws, county agent. A fertile soil, adapted grasses and drainage along with proper watering, fertilization and mowing are essentials for establishing an attractive lawn.

A sandy loam soil high in organic matter is considered best for lawns. The lawn area should be graded for proper drainage and smoothness. Sand may be added to clay soils or clay to loose sand soils in order to make them suitable for lawns, says Haws. A soil test is recommended in order to know just what kinds and amounts of plant food should be added to the soil.

Only adapted grasses should be used in the lawn. Bermuda is the most widely adapted lawn grass for Texas. St. Augustine grass is recommended for the eastern half of the state. Buffalo grass is recommended for areas where watering facilities are not available.

Haws recommends that only high quality seed of a single grass, or mixture, be used for lawn seeding. Lawns may also be established with sprigs or by sodding depending upon the grass used. The new lawn should be watered lightly and frequently until it is established.

"Thinking of Irrigation" is the title of a publication just released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and it is available without cost from the offices of local county agents, states E. T. Haws, county agent.

Extension Irrigation Specialist R. V. Thrumond, the author has listed in concise form the most important considerations those contemplating an irrigation program for their farm. Illustrations are used to emphasize and clarify the facts listed.

ing water, equipment and planning and designing the system are covered in the publication. The final tests comes, says Thrumond, when these cost factors are all added together, water cost, extra equipment, taxes, maintenance, fertilizer, depreciation, interest on investment, and labor, and compared with the expected increased income derived from irrigation.

To be profitable, the engineer emphasizes that income must be increased enough through the use of irrigation to offset the additional costs. Installing an irrigation system should not be looked upon as a short time proposition, but as a change in farm management and operation which will affect farm production and income for a long period of time, says Thrumond.

Seven grain sorghum hybrids, developed cooperatively by the Texas Agricultural Experiment station and the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, will be available to farmers for planting in 1957. These hybrids are the result of research work which began in 1921 and are the first practical hybrids to be released from these studies.

The seven hybrids, RS 590, Texas 601, RS 610, Texas 611, Texas 620, RS 650 and Texas 660, are the best of several hundred produced and tested during the past 20 years at the Lubbock and Chillicothe stations. Tests were conducted last year throughout Texas and all have thus been grown under limited field demonstrations.

The plant breeders for the Texas station say still better hybrid with improved adaption to various growing conditions can be expected in the near future.

Farmers are advised to plant one or more of the hybrid adapted to their areas and to make comparisons with standard varieties. Further, it is suggested that only certified hybrid seed be planted as insurance that seed planted are correctly labeled.

Planting seed of these seven hybrids are white, but the grain produced will be red in general, the higher the hybrid number the later is its maturity, but none is as late as Plainsman. Yields 20 to 40 percent greater than varieties of the same maturity under most conditions can be expected.

Superior seedling vigor, rapid growth and uniform height and maturity. Since the hybrids have larger heads and are often slightly taller than the varieties occasionally more lodging may occur in the hybrids. Cultural practices for the sorghum hybrids are the same as recommended for sorghum varieties.

Grade School News

All of the boys and girls and teachers are very anxious for the sun to start shining and make it possible to get out on the play ground once again. It is very difficult for the children and very trying for the teachers and we hope that it will be very beneficial to the farmers, but it will not be nice for the mud to be not quite so deep.

Our classes are getting out fifteen minutes earlier than they did before Christmas holidays. We were able to take five minutes from the morning study periods and ten minutes from the noon play period, thus making the fifteen minutes. Our school day has not been shortened in total time but taken up fifteen minutes of excess time during the day.

Clings to the road like a stripe of paint!

The '57 Chevy can give lessons on taking curves and holding the road to just about any car going. Few cars at any price are so beautifully balanced and so smooth, sure and solid in action.

A car has to have a special kind of build and balance to keep curves under control. And nobody outdoes Chevrolet in that department! It "corners" with all the solid assurance of an honest-to-goodness sports car. Chevy doesn't throw its weight around on turns because it carries its pounds in the right places.

And if the road should turn upward, Chevy can take care of that nicely, too—with up to 245 h.p.*

Automatic Car Transmissions Very Popular

Safety, comfort and convenience are fast becoming as important to today's automobile customer as are design and performance, according to Lee F. Desmond, Dodge vice president in charge of sales.

A three year study by Dodge reveals that demand for optional equipment auto accessories is rising steadily. For example, the study shows an overwhelming increase in orders for automatic transmissions. The new torqueFlite is being ordered on 60.5 percent of all 1957 models while PowerFlite is requested on 35.1 percent, making a total of 95.6 percent orders for automatic transmission.

Standard transmission orders total only 4.4 percent in contrast to 8.3 in 1956 and 13.2 in 1955.

Full-time power steering is being ordered on one third of all 1957 Dodge cars, a sharp increase over the 1955 figure of 22.9 percent. Orders for power brakes have increased from 13.7 percent in 1955 to 21.9 on the current models.

Over 60 percent of today's new car customers order radios, compared to 48.2 in 1955. Dual rear antennas are ordered on 30 percent of today's cars; only 19.2 percent requested them last year.

Demand for outside left mirrors, an important safety feature has risen to 90 percent on 1957 models as opposed to 35.4 percent in 1955.

Orders for windshield washers too, have steadily increased from 23.5 in 1955 to 38 percent for 1957, while back up lights are now ordered on 92 percent in contrast to 68 percent in 1955

Those of Jewish faith will hold their observances in synagogues and temples on Friday evening, Feb. 8 and Saturday, Feb. 9. Many sermons, addressed to Scouts, will touch on some aspect of the Boy Scout Week theme.

In hundreds of communities, Scouts, their parents, and institutions sponsoring Scout units, will unite in paying their respects to the volunteer adult leaders whose contributions of time and effort in behalf of youth makes these units possible.

National Scout officials say that 48.7 per cent of all Scout units—and there are 111,000 of them—are made possible by the sponsorship of churches and synagogues of all faiths. Civic groups make possible 30.8 per cent, while schools sponsor 19.9 per cent of Scout units in all three age levels.

Many store windows will be given over to Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers for displays of their handicraft and to demonstrate some of the useful skills they acquire through their programs.

In countless elementary, junior high, and high schools, Boy Scout Week will be recognized in school assemblies through flag ceremonies, acts, and also stunts by Cub Scouts, exhibits of handicrafts by Scouts, motion pictures of Scouting activities, demonstration of Scouting skills and talks by boys of some of their adventuresome activities.

Traditionally on Feb. 8th, the actual birthday date of the organization, Scouts and leaders recommit themselves to the Scout Oath or Promise at 8:15 P. M., in each of the four time zones. These ceremonies will take place, in some instances, at Scout family birthday dinners, while some Cub Scout dens, Boy Scout patrols and Explorer crews will meet in homes of members. Others will meet with their parents in churches and synagogues.

At these Boy Scout Week celebrations many units will review its program highlights and the successes of the first year in the Four Year Program, "Onward for God and My Country", camping and other outdoor activities, and planning for participation in the Fourth National Jamboree which is expected to attract more than 50,000 Scouts, Explorers, and leaders for a week of camping together at historic Valley Forge, Penn., next July 12-18.
