NUMBER 34

Coming At Calvary Baptist Sunday, Mar. 10

Years ago this coming Sunday, Ray C. Morrow and the pastorate of Calvary Baptist Church, College and Main streets, will be celebrating the anniversary of the church's first service. In October, 1945, he became pastor in Election Precinct No. 1. In November, 1947, he was called to Calvary Baptist Church again called him as pastor. He has been laboring in this field here ever since.

A few years ago the anniversary of the pastor's first service was celebrated as a day for special all-day services. It was called "Homecoming Day," and has been regularly observed as such ever since. The ladies of the church prepared their dinners to the pastor and our visitors stay and enjoy the hour of refreshments and fellowship with us. Then after lunch the pastor's special singing and visiting pastors and congregations come to the church and we make it a day never to be forgotten.

There have been no special invitations sent out, but every one who reads these lines can count this as your special invitation, because all are welcomed. We especially urge all members and friends to join with us on this grand occasion.

Calvary Baptist Church does not make special plans for membership and Sunday School building, we have an interest in every individual in our community, and we will do all we can to share the love we hold dear with any and all who will let us. We feel that God has given us a definite message here to teach and witness to Him. Though we know we have failed in many ways, yet we are proud that we have had our God-given part in pointing many to Christ, and establishing many in the faith. We thank God for several pastors and evangelists who received their training at Calvary Baptist Church. The long hard battle has been won while when we see and feel God's hand blessing on our ministry. We are ready to go on for Him. Come and enjoy the whole day with us Sunday. You will be glad you did.

Masonic Lodge Moving To New Location

Last Monday night the members of the Burkburnett Masonic Lodge met in the quarters above the Palace Cafe for the last time. This has been the home of the local lodge for the past 38 years. A sizeable percentage of the membership were present for the last meeting, after which they made an inspection tour of their new quarters on Second street between Ave B. and C.

Among the members present on Monday night was our local postmaster, Al Lohofener. He had the singular distinction of having been present at the first meeting in the old hall in 1919 as well as the last meeting in 1957.

W. T. Zimmerman, Worshipful Master of Burkburnett Masonic Lodge, has received official permission from Paul Turney, Grand Master of Masons in Texas, to move the meeting place. This move will take place between now and their next meeting night on the 18th of March. The plans are now under way for formal dedication ceremonies which will not be held for several weeks.

The members are now working feverishly evenings and Saturdays cleaning the new area, painting and moving furniture and equipment from the old quarters.

The Smart Shop In New Location Ave. C and Main

Mrs. A. L. Scott announces the opening of the Smart Shop in its new location in the building formerly occupied by the Corner Drug store on the Corner of Ave C. and Main street. This new location provides twice as much floor space as the old location and the new merchandise has been attractively displayed for the convenience of the customers. A spacious fitting room is also another feature of the store.

The Smart Shop carries a complete line of Women's ready-to-wear and hats, bags and accessories. A line of children and infants wear has been added.

Adults are invited to come in and register for $50 in merchandise to be given away at 6:00 p. m. Saturday, March 16.

Four in Race for City Commission

Four men have entered the race for posts on the City Commission. Two are to be elected in April.

Those announcing before the filing deadline were: J. F. Kelley and R. P. Reagan, seeking re-election, and Winston Freeman and John Page.

Farmers Want Rain to Stop

Rain, in the amount of some two inches has fallen here since last Saturday. Light rain fell practically all day Wednesday, with a few sputters of snow. Standing water had a thin skim of ice Thursday morning. Although the weather man says cloudy and cold, the sun is shining bright and temperature climbing.

Wheat is growing alarmingly fast. Some farmers are hollering for cold weather to slow it down. The fields have been too wet to turn stock in to graze the rank growth down. Some fear wheat will stem out too soon or be frozen back by a late freeze.

Stock tanks in this vicinity have gathered very little water. Although several inches of rain has come since the first of the year, it has come slowly over long periods of time and there was little or no run-off.

Additional survivors are one brother, J. C. Jennings of Mac farland, Calif., one sister, Mrs. Lillie Thompson of Bowie, Tex., eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mr. Cook spoke on World Affairs, elaborating on the Near East problems, the Russian situation and the opening of the Suez Canal. He painted a very gloomy picture of the middle Eastern disturbance. We would say that Mr. Cook's prediction for the past sixteen years have been 90 percent correct. Harold Van Loh was responsible for this enlightening program.

Virgil Brookshear urged all members to make up attendance and to attend regular meetings.

Bob Tevis introduced Al Lohofener as a guest of John Brookman; May Jones, sec. of Wichita Falls club, as a guest of Jim Barnett and twelve visiting Rotarians from Wichita Falls.

The highway marker at the East edge of town is being changed from 267 to 281 Business Route.

Confusion had been caused by the previous marking. The main highway is 281. Strangers seeing the 267 taking off toward town had no assurance they could come through town and eventually get back on 281 North.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

KNOXVILLE, Iowa, Express: "The big question today is not whether a lot of men try to beat the government. It is whether the government can beat you with vicious taxation, inflation, etc."
STURGEON BAY, Wisc., Advocate: "The future of polio is certain. Its past will be with us for some time. We must not forget those for whom the vaccine came too late. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will not forget them. We must not forget the Foundation. Give as generously as you always have to the March of Dimes. Help clean the slate of Polio."

NAPLES, TEXAS, Monitor: "A country newspaper is nothing more or less than a reflection of the town it serves."

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Leader: "There's been a postponement of the meeting of the central committee of the Soviet Communist Party. An obvious reason: too many Communists talking on a party line."

BENNINGTON, VT., Evening Banner: "We don't want to burden you with another resolution that you may find difficult to keep. But we've made one that doesn't involve much extra effort. Nor extra time. We have resolved NOT to be a litterbug, as of January 1, 1957. We feel pretty good about this resolution because it's the kind that has something in it for everybody. . . . Keeping our highways, roadsides, parks and city streets clean ensures beautiful surroundings for everyone. That is why each and everyone of us must correct the thoughtless habit of littering public and private property."

DILLON, S. C., Herald: "The television giveaway programs get bigger and bigger. Successful contestants get richer and richer. Perhaps one of the days we'll be able to get the Secretary of Treasury on such a program and pay off the national debt."

LEESBURG, FLA., Daily Commercial: "Up to now, railroads have been barred from any combinations. Regulated by government, they have had to struggle along in a tough competitive period without the lift other corporations have had. Recently, however, rumbling started which suggests that key lawmakers in Congress might take a different view and allow the roads some ventures afield, into airlines, trucking, barge lines and even pipelines."

Molly-Coddling No Answer

As everyone who reads or listens to news accounts knows, juvenile crime has become a problem of grim dimensions in this country.

A leading authority, J. Edgar Hoover, of the FBI, has devoted a signed editorial to it in a recent issue of that organization's law enforcement bulletin. He says, "Recent happenings in juvenile crime shatter the illusion that soft-hearted molly-coddling is the answer to this problem." And he asks, "Are we to stand idly by while fierce young hoodlums—too often and too long harbored under the glossy misnomer of juvenile delinquents—roam our streets and desecrate our communities? If we do, America might well witness a resurgence of the brutal criminality and mobsterism of a past era."

Mr. Hoover also demolishes the idea, held by some people, that there isn't any more juvenile crime than there used to be—that it's just better publicized. In the past four years, the population of 10-17 year olds has risen 10 percent. In the same time, arrests of individuals in that age bracket have increased at twice the rate.

Finally, Mr. Hoover makes a strong case against the common custom of not publishing the names of young criminals. As he puts it, "Publicizing the names as well as crimes for public scrutiny, release of past records to appropriate law enforcement officials and finger-printing for future identification are all necessary procedures in the war on the flagrant violator, regardless of age."

We have tried the soft-hearted approach, and it has failed. In the name of self-preservation, it is time to toughen up.

Liberty and Justice For All - Except GI's

Juan Gomez, a 52 year old sheep herder, went into District Court the other day to collect $94 he claimed was due him in back pay, we learn from the Belen (New Mexico) News Bulletin.

The paper editorialized on "the thoroughness and solemnity with which this small case was handled during the three-hour courtroom hearing," and saw in this incident "a bit of America in action, symbolic of our American ways of life."

Our judicial system, The News Bulletin pointed out, is a fundamental thing and a precious and heart-warming thing that must be guarded.

"It is a privilege that many humans do not enjoy in other countries."

Indeed, if Juan Gomez (or his son) were wearing the uniform of the US on duty abroad, he would be anxious to keep away from courts.

To repeat, the American concept of justice "is a privilege that many humans do not enjoy in other countries"—including American soldiers under the Status of Forces Treaty!

Ashaway Fishing Club Offers Cash Prizes

Both fresh and salt water anglers will have an opportunity in sharing the $7,250 cash prizes being offered to members of the new Ashaway Fishing Club in a contest beginning immediately and ending December 31, 1957.

Five awards will be made for the largest fish in each of seven species, with a total of 350 prizes, additional trophy awards including a 1957 Oldsmobile, and several Johnson outboard motors to top money winners.

To compete, all anglers must be registered members of the Ashaway Fishing Club, a non-profit organization with headquarters in Ashaway, Rhode Island. There is no age limit and membership is open to anyone interested in fishing.
Included in the club dues of $1.00 a year is an insurance policy to members with the National Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut. The policy protects members from accidents from the time they alight from the conveyance in which they travel to the fishing grounds until they board the conveyance in which they leave the fishing grounds. The policy provides for accident expenses in excess of $25 up to a maximum of $250 and other benefits up to one thousand dollars for accidents incurred while fishing.

The objectives of the club are the promotion of interest in sport fishing, encouragement of sound conservation laws, aid in the fight against stream and lake pollution, and the promotion of scientific research for the improvement of fishing generally.

Sponsors of the Ashaway Fishing Club include Ted Williams of baseball fame and President of Ted Williams, Inc.; W. H. Jonas of Johnson Motors; W. Gerald Bryant of the Bead Chain Manufacturing Company; H. S. Carter, president of H. C. Cook Company; A. B. Taylor of Cuba Specialty Manufacturing Company and Julian Grandall, president of Ashaway Line & Twine Manufacturing Company.

Application forms may be obtained from club headquarters in Ashaway, Rhode Island, sporting goods dealers, and any Johnson outboard distributor.

FARMERS DISCUSS RESEARCH WITH GOVERNOR — Two Texas Farmers are shown discussing the need for an expanded agricultural research program in Texas with Governor Price Daniel (right). They are B. J. Gist (left), stockman and cotton farmer from Abilene, and Loys Barbour, grain and hog farmer from Iowa Park. Barbour is secretary-treasurer of the Texas Farm Bureau, and Gist is a director in the organization. The TFB is seeking an appropriation of $10.5 million for agricultural research in Texas over the next two years.

From Your County Agent And Home Agent

If a dairyman is in business to stay, raising herd replacements will pay, states B. T. Haws, county agent.

No milking barn or parlor should be considered properly equipped unless it provides some method of weighing the milk produced by each cow, at least on a monthly basis. Enthusiasm for pipeline system and bulk tanks has caused this important feature to be overlooked in many barns. No dairyman can do the job right and ignore this basic principle of dairying.

The Wichita Valley DHIA Association ranked first in the state last month in average pounds of fat, which was 35 lbs and second in the state in average pounds of milk, which was 900 pounds.

Gov. Price Daniel has proclaimed the period from March 2-9 as 4-H week in Texas. The same period will also be observed as National 4-H club week and the 117,257 Texas 4-H members will join with the more than two million in the nation observing the special week. Local observances are being planned in most counties and all citizens are invited to participate in the activities.

4-H club work is the junior phase of the Agricultural Extension service's work with rural residents. Forerunners of the present day 4-H clubs were the corn clubs for boys and the tomato clubs for girls. The first such club organized in Texas by a county agent was in Jack County in 1907. The late Tom Marks was the county agent. Today 4-H members conducted demonstrations covering most phases of farming, ranching and homemaking.

Chemicals of many kinds are used by agricultural producers in ever increasing amounts as a regular part of their production program. But warns the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, all chemicals should be used exactly as the manufacturer suggests. Failure to observe the recommendations given for safe handling and use of farm used chemicals can result in great personal injury or even death. Don't take chances, follow the manufacturer's directions to the letter.

Rules and regulations for statewide production programs involving corn and grain sorghum hybrids have been announced. Details on both may be obtained from local county agents.

A soil test is the best available means for determining fertilizer requirements for pastures. Forage yields can be greatly increased through the use of fertilizers.

If you are interested in making draperies for your home, you might contact Miss Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent, or Mrs. Sidney Smith, The Wichita County home demonstration clubs are sponsoring some drapery workshops.

In these workshops, everyone will make draperies. Miss Wirges and Mrs. Smith will teach the workshops.

Mrs. Smith has been a club member for only two years, but she has surely done an outstanding job. During this time she has taken advanced dressmaking and furniture refinishing and taught it to the Ray Club. She has also served as a club president. At the present time she is serving as council delegate and family economics demonstrator. As a family economics demonstrator, Mrs. Smith is organizing a business center and family inventory. A household inventory is a must for anyone that proves to be as good a manager as Mrs. Sidney Smith.

Mrs. Smith is well qualified to help teach the drapery workshop. She has recently completed draperies for her home. She made draperies by several methods. From experience, Mrs. Smith can give the advantages and disadvantages of these various methods. She is glad for anyone to stop by and see hers. Each lady that takes the workshop will serve as a leader in helping others.

If you are interested, contact Miss Thelma Wirges, 305 Federal building, Wichita Falls, or Mrs. Sidney Smith, Rt. 1 Wichita Falls. They can give you details and instructions for getting started.

Mrs. Gale Lowrance is a food and nutrition demonstrator for 1957. She plans to organize a planning center in her kitchen where she also plans to organize a recipe file. Her plans also include work with poultry, work on table service and plans for special and party meals.

There will be eggs and more eggs in February. So give the family a treat and cook those good eggs dishes that you have been putting off cooking, like sponge cakes, Meringue pies and souffles, suggests Thelma Wirges, county HD agent.

Try this quickie lunch dish: Mix 2 slightly beaten eggs with 1 can of cream of celery soup undiluted. Melt 2 tablespoons of butter in a saucepan and put in the mixture. Cook over low heat. Stir occasionally with a fork until set but moist. Season with 1-4 teaspoon pepper. Serve with crisp bacon. Eggs contain high quality protein and valuable minerals and vitamins needed every day for good health. Make the most of eggs while they are plentiful.

A number of farmers in the county have prepared their gardens for planting vegetables. Some of the vegetables that have been planted are English peas, asparagus, cabbage, onion. Some of the vegetables that should be planted after March 1st are carrots, collards, corn, lettuce, mustard, potatoes, spinach and turnips.

If you are planning on using a commercial fertilizer in your garden use 16-20-0.

Equal control of cotton insects can be obtained with simple one-nozzle per-row arrangements as with more costly and complex nozzle arrangements. In tests conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station over a five year period, insecticides applied by using a single cone type nozzle per row gave slightly higher cotton yields than the use of the more costly and complex nozzle arrangements.

Root Knot disease can be controlled in garden soils by fumigation. B. T. Haws, county agent says the fumigant should be applied from 10 days to 2 weeks before planting and soil moisture should be adequate for germinating seed. Local county agents can supply details on the process.

If you are interested in seeing a new home with lots of conveniences and eye appeal, stop by and see Mrs. R. F. Krull. She is president of the Ray home demonstration club and has surely put all home demonstration teachings to practice.

Mr. and Mrs. Krull surely planned well, which is the secret of most all success. There isn't one bit of wasted space. They also did all the work, which makes one even appreciate it more.

The color scheme is so well planned it carries you gently from one room to another. It makes you feel that it all belongs together. Mrs. Krull used fabrics and wallpaper to match. She says this is surely a conversation piece, since many people do not know it is available.

The kitchen is a dream come true for any homemaker. Mrs. Krull studied all her home demonstration work simplification principles and finds there are no wasted steps. Lots of homemakers would find they had more time for family, friends and various activities if they could save their wasted steps. To save these steps she organized a bakery center, a serving center, a cleaning center and a cooking center. Regardless of what she is doing, everything is in arm's reach.

Mrs. Krull is now serving as a food and nutrition demonstrator for her home demonstration club. Her goals for this year are to include more vegetables in the family diet, to work on party refreshments and to work on the organization of her home. She also plans to work on work simplification, planning in advance, and buying in advance effort and money saved. The family is also a brush in hand, but she sees just what planning little work can do for

Time of Your Life

By Alden Smith
(The following article was written by Alden Smith of Burkburnett, and a student at Texas A&M College at the present time, and concerns his trip to the 35th National 4-H Club congress held in Chicago recently.)

"America, America, God shed His grace on thee, And crown thy good with brotherhood, from sea to shining sea."

Many times I have sat and wondered about those words trying to grasp their true meaning. Finally began to understand them as I became an active member in the world's largest rural youth organization, the 4-H club. Yes, the world is uneasy because of the strife and hatred among nations. Countries distrust others and people in nations unable to live side by side in peace. But there are many thousands of youth in the United States and other nations who today are working for world improvement. Armed only with the 4-H's these youth are out to help make the world a better place in which to live. I am proud to be a member of these marching thousands who despite youth have a sense of value for farm life, in making new friends and neighbors regardless of race or creed, in being able to have a feeling of satisfaction for a job well done new methods and ideas in making the farm and country a better place to live. Armed with the 4-H's and the desire "To make the best better." I recently reached a goal all 4-H'ers strive for in their work.

This goal was a trip to the 35th national 4-H club Congress held in the city of Chicago each year. Congress with all its honor and excitement does not mean we have reached a medium in 4-H work, but it incites us to work for greater goals and achievements in the years of 4-H work we have remaining.

In Chicago I say many things which were new and different. The International Livestock exposition, Lake Michigan, beautiful churches and magnificent buildings, the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, the slums of the southside and the stately mansions, each in their own way holds a different and wonderful place in my memory. There were views and ways of life, different from those in rural Texas, which I shall always remember during my lifetime.

Attending 4-H Congress means one or more of the important "firsts" for many of the delegates. Staying at a large hotel like the Conrad Hilton was an important first for me. Outside of a family home I have never seen such nice accommodations as we held in Chicago. The management, employes and service were so nice that you were completely at ease and made to feel that these people were like "the folks on the next farm."

Each day I had the opportunity to hear some of the world's finest speakers, both men and women. Not being able to remember everything that was said, I do remember what each person wished to stress, that rural Americans have a heavy burden placed on their shoulders and we as future farm men and women must be ready to accept the challenge placed before us. I had a warm-thrill within me as I realized that the leaders of our nation, in both industry and agriculture are looking and counting on us to preserve this democracy in which we live.

As I sat in the lavish ballroom of the Hilton Hotel, I began to realize how the farms and the cities of our nation were being bound together in unity. Here leaders of science and industry were meeting us, who represented the corn growers of the mid-west, the lush fields of cotton in Dixie, the cattle and sheep ranchers of the southwest and the truck farmers of the Pacific Coast. Here at this meeting, we delegates would tell of our projects, farms and ways of living back home. Our sponsors would tell us of their work, families and the way they worked and played in the metropolitan areas. At National Congress, rural and urban Americans learn and understand how each plays a vital role in the American way of life.

Probably the most valuable experience I had as a delegate was meeting and associating with delegates and leaders from the great 48, and the international representatives from the nations throughout the world. Here I could learn about the 4-H programs in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, discuss cotton production with a delegate from Alabama, swap ideas on livestock with a boy from Montana, or discuss youth work with the representatives from the new nations of Israel and West Germany. Even though I am attending A&M College I received a basic education there that you cannot learn from books or discussed in a lecture.

From the first moment I arrived at Congress I could sense the feeling of friendliness in the air. Everywhere you went people would be willing to talk with you and exchange views. Here I met many people that I shall never forget. There were delegates from Vermont, Ohio, North Carolina, Wisconsin, Florida and other states that will always help me remember National Congress as a place of friendship and brotherhood.

Attending national 4-H Congress was the thrill of my life. I realize that without the help of my family, leaders, agents and sponsors, we could have never been able to accomplish the job we set out to do. Many thanks are due to a great many people for making 4-H work and Congress possible today.

First I wish to thank each parent everywhere for making it possible to attain the highest goals we have set out to conquer. I would like to thank my own family and those of other delegates who if it were not for their sacrifices we could not have attended Congress. May God bless parents of 4-H'ers everywhere who realize that they are helping the future leaders of tomorrow train today.

My local leaders and agents deserve my second vote of thanks. It was by your much needed help and inspiration that we have come so far along the road of success. Thank you for giving us so much of your valuable time which could have been spent with your own family and home and teaching us that to help others is ones great est gift.

To the sponsors of 4-H work goes a third thank you for the help you have given us. Without your cooperation and support there would be no National 4-H Congress and no awards. Thank you for helping prove that youth is ready for responsibility and leadership and will be able and ready to carry on the job as leaders on the American farm scene. Words cannot express how much I enjoyed the 35th National 4-H Congress but it was truly "the time of my life."

Yes, rural American youth, you have the opportunity of being members of the worlds greatest farm organization, the 4-H Club. But as a member of this club you have the challenge of learning new ideas and methods in agriculture and helping others who are blinded by the darkness of prejudice, distrust and fear. Dreams and goals can be reached if we work together despite the complications and obstacles placed in our way.

I am honored to have been chosen to attend the 35th National 4-H Congress and it was here that I learned the true meaning of the words "And crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea."

Establishing Coastal Bermuda

Time to establish coastal bermuda grass is close at hand, according to Elvy Sargent, Soil Conservationist of Iowa Park.

Coastal Bermuda grass has met a definite grass need in tight soils in Wichita Valley, Sargent declared. Some of the soils are too tight for field crops and a grass that will stand application of water over a long period of time has been a definite need. Coastal Bermuda grass will meet that need, he said.

If farmers sod their coastal grass Soil Conservation Service technical guides call for placing of sods on 4 feet centers and 3 feet centers when sprigs are used.

It will require from 2,700 to 3,000 chunks of sod and 5,000 sprigs. Sprigs weigh from 75 to 100 pounds per 5,000 and sell for about $7.50 per hundred. Plenty of local sod and sprigs are available.

Wichita County ACP offers $12.00 per acre on sodding and $8.00 per acre on sprigging as cost-sharing. Establishment should be from April through June for sprigging and April through July for sodding.

Following are a list of observations by district cooperators who have had experience with coastal Bermuda grass:

1. Bermuda grass should not be fertilized until well established.
2. Elimination of competitive plants is important and date of planting should be selected that would give least competition.
3. Most successful establishment is by sod.
4. Sprigs should not be completely covered.

With improving Soil Moisture conditions, many District cooperators are planning on seeding Madrid Sweetclover according to Lloyd Ladd, local Soil Conservation Service employee. Madrid Sweetclover fits very well in a conservation cropping system and gives good protection from soil losses, improves fertility and is a good hay or grazing crop. Sweetclovers have the ability to reach deep into the subsoil and bring up minerals which have become exhausted on the soil surface and no other legume penetrates the plowsole and opens up the soil for aeration and water penetration as good as this plant. Madrid can be planted in the fall or spring so you have "two shots", at best moisture conditions in fitting this legume into a conservation cropping system. Now is the time for planting (Jan. 15-April 15) and 10 to 15 pounds per acre should be drilled. The seedbed should be firm, if you have dead Sudan or Sorghum stubble on the soil surface your chances of securing a stand will be improved. Use the proper inoculant and plant to a depth of 1-2 to 1 inch. One of the more succes-ful growers of madrid. Mr. Wilber Prechel of the Clara community, has combined up to 600 pounds of seed per acre and baled 2 tons of hay. Madrid is a drought resistant plant and will produce good grazing thru the summer months of the first year, early summer grazing the second year as well as a seed crop. Local seed dealers and a few District Cooperators have seed available for present planting needs.

The ASC office supports this practice with cost sharing. Corn planting time is just around the corner and that should mean, says B. T. Haws, giving consideration to the question of the best corn hybrid for your area. Dry weather cut corn yields in Texas last year, but adapted hybrids outproduced open pollinated varieties by 25 to 30 percent according to the local county agent for the recommended varieties.

Many of today's poultry marketing and distribution problems can be traced to a definite need for more concentration of the industry's production in limited areas, says B. T. Haws, county agent. Greater concentration would result in a superior product for the consumer and lower cost for the producer.

Eighty-one percent of all water used by plants in Texas goes to brush and weeds, according to Water Research and Information Center. This reference further shows grasses as using seven, field crops, and commercial timber five percent of water used by plants.

Soil Conservationists cite this overuse of water to point up need and encourage elimination of brush and weeds on our ranges. Brush alone should be removed from 153,000 acres in Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District according to Fenton Dale, chairman of the board.

Soil Conservation Service technicians point out that mesquite can be controlled by aerial application of 2-4-5-T, ground application of same chemical, grab bing by dozer or by hand and root plowing. Mesquite should be controlled by aerial application not less than 40 or not more than 90 days after first leaves appear on mesquite in spring. Best results are had when moisture has been adequate for 30 days before spraying. Normal growth requires an application of 1-3 lb. of 2-4-5-T acid in 1-2 gallon of Diesel oil mixed with enough water to spray 3 gallons per acre.

Aerial application will effectively control mesquite 5 to 8 years and cost $2.25 per acre. Further information on control may be obtained from Soil Conservation Service according to Elvy Sargent.

Color Doesn't Have to Be Bright

Maybe we can blame it on the deep impression made on us by the traditional red and green Christmas decorations—or the bright red and green crayons we treasured in our kindergarten days—or the constant warnings we heard about watching the red and green traffic lights. But somehow too many of us have a preconceived notion about color film—a misguided idea that it should be used only when the scene is rich in tones of red or green.

Most of us think about color film when the fresh greens of spring first appear—when summer's brilliant sunshine lights up the dark green foliage—when autumn leaves blaze into their annual crimson glory. Not so, however, when November gives the nod to December—then we just let our cameras retreat into a world of black-and-white until spring rolls around again.

Personally, we've regarded this as a mistake. There are remarkably color pictures to be had through the bleaker months—lack the brilliant tones of seasons. Artists have known this for centuries. That's why they have given their names to capturing the mists and grays of leafless trees, ice-blue waters and blue-gray coasts. And the world has missed many a masterpiece when the artist's eye has missed beauty and harmony in a more subtle color scheme. So, our advice to you: drop your color film when temperature starts dropping your camera and get a black-and-white palette that provides at this time of year.

Forty-Two Years for Lone Star Employee

Ben R. Newbery, director of purchases and materials for Lone Star Gas Company (Dallas) retired February 28th, only five months short of completing 42 years of Company service.

His outstanding career, etched with honors, covered virtually all of the major growth years of his Company.

A former president of the National Association of Purchasing Agents and holder of the coveted Shipman Award for 1955 for outstanding services to the purchasing field, Newbery began his Lone Star career July 28, 1915.

A transmission company at that time, Lone Star had its headquarters in Fort Worth, boasted a total of 13 general office employees, some 200 miles of transmission line serving Dallas and Fort Worth, one compressor station, two automobiles and a motorcycle. Presently the company serves over 782,000 customers in 452 Oklahoma and Texas towns through a pipe line network extending over 150,000 square miles of operating territory.

News From The HD Agent

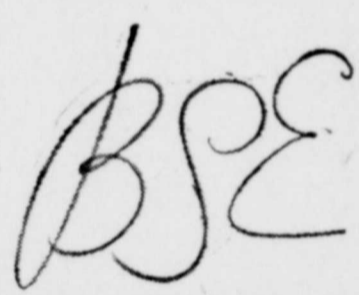

Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent says kitchens are taking new color trends. Pink and yellow, two leading colors for kitchens, are about to take "second place" to the two new exciting colors, aqua and orange.

In addition to appearing in curtains, contemporary lighting fixtures and walls, these four favorites are used in both standard and built in appliances and minor kitchen accessories. All four are good for accepting the beauty of naturally finished wood cabinets, according to extension home furnishings specialists. Today more than 85 percent of kitchen cabinets being installed are wood.

Pumpkin or tangerine (vivid orange), combine well with richly grained, dark-hued cabinetry as does yellow. Aqua is favored with lighter toned cabinets. Today we see color coordination in both kitchen appliances, utensils and small accessories.

Copper and brass are favored accent notes with the bright new kitchen colors. Like the natural figure pattern of wood cabinets, they will harmonize with any colors, yet have a distinctive character of their own.

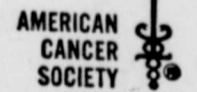

These bright colors now being used in kitchen accessories have boosted the use of wood cabinets as the permanent element of the decor. Modern wood cabinets are built to last as long as the home. The beauty of their natural grain is timeless and combines well with a variety of colors.

News From The Congress

By Congressman Frank Ikard

Many times people don't realize just how many different bills are introduced in the House, and the volume of legislation seems to be growing each year. For instance, from the beginning of the session up to the first of March, 3500 bills were introduced in 1953, and 4500 in 1955 and 5500 in 1957. Each of these bills is referred to a standing committee for its consideration before it comes to the Floor of the House. The Committee on Ways and Means of which I am a member had 4500 bills referred to it as of the First of March, 1953, and 455 bills on the same date, 1955, and almost 800 bills so far this year. It is just physically impossible to consider every measure that is introduced in Congress; therefore, many bills have to be reintroduced three or four times before they can be heard by the Committee and acted on in the House.

At long last it seems that an agreement has been reached between the Army and the Interior Department over what will be done with the Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge. This great Wildlife Refuge and recreational area is widely used by all the people in Southern Oklahoma and Northern and northwestern Texas. It now appears that an agreement has been made between the Army and the Fish and Wildlife Service so that the Army will not get title to the 10,700 acres out of the southern part of the Refuge that they have long been seeking, and that the Wildlife Refuge will be kept intact. This Wichita Mountain area is famed as a reserve for wild turkeys and oddly enough Texas longhorn cattle as well as buffalo and other Southwestern wildlife. The people interested in

Be It Ever So Humble — Home Isn't Safe

The American home today is the scene for injuries and deaths which rival battlefield statistics. The warnings to "Drive Carefully" should be matched by a home slogan to read "Live Carefully," for more casualties occur in homes than on the highways. In 1955, nearly 100,000 deaths and uncountable millions of serious mishaps happened where we consider ourselves to be safest—in the home.

Careless citizens burn themselves to death—in kitchens, lighting furnaces, and by smoking in bed. They are electrocuted in bathrooms by touching electric appliances with wet hands. They slip, stumble, and fall in dark bedrooms while half asleep, and maim themselves on stairways. They take "headers" on loose rugs and on the kiddies toys, which should have been put away. Their children take poison left in handy places for their little hands. They gas themselves to death through faulty kitchen stoves and fall asleep in cars left in the garage with motors running.

Simple rules can stop much of the slaughter. 1. Anchor loose rugs on slippery floors. 2. Keep furniture in accustomed places—a misplaced stool can mean broken bones. 3. Keep stairs well illuminated, paint the top and bottom basement stair dead white. 4. Remove all electrical switches which can be operated from a bathtub. 5. Keep bottled poisons in a plastic bag out of reach. 6. Promptly fix gas stove leaks. 7. Keep a rubber mat with suction cups in the bath tub, and on tiled bathroom floor. 8. Type these reminders and post them prominently in the home. Your doctor of chiropractic presents these rules in cooperation with the National Safety Council.

LOWANNA

Group activities for the Lowanna Camp Fire girls for the month of February included sponsoring a Junior Red Cross First Aid class to be held each Saturday morning for a period of six weeks. Nineteen Eighth grade girls enrolled for the class which is taught by Mr. Dink Lawson, qualified instructor. At the conclusion of the course the Lowanna group plans to entertain the girls completing the course.

The Lowanna group held a workshop Feb. 4th in the home of Mrs. Walter Riley. The devotional was brought by Charlotte Johnson, hostess for the meeting. Prayer was led by Mrs. Lee Johnson. President Irma Ned Riley welcomed the guests. Mrs. A. C. Auld and Mrs. Lee Johnson, who assisted in the workshop. Each member is making six dinner napkins to be used when the group holds a dinner early in March. Delicious refreshments were served the guests and members by the hostesses.

The candy sale for the Camp Fire girls of Burk was started by the Lowanna group Feb. 9th. The profits earned from the sale will be used to help carry out their projects.

Mrs. George Hodges honored the members of the Lowanna Camp Fire group and their guests with a lovely Valentine party Feb. 12th in her home. The party decorations carried out the red and white color traditional of Valentine. The en-

Top 4-H Honors for Texas Youth

Outstanding accomplishment in 4-H Tractor, Soil Conservation, Safety, and Poultry programs won top state honors for Texas Club members. Their reward is an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, Nov. 25-29.

Knowledge, skill, and good judgment are important factors in getting the most out of the 4-H Tractor program, and Frank Morton, 16, of Wichita Falls has all three. A week at Club Congress provided by Stanolind Oil & Gas Co. is his reward.

A 4-H'er for seven years, Frank learned that care is more important than repair for maximum tractor operation. He assisted with county tractor school in 1954 and encouraged 4-H boys to fill out tractor maintenance books. Outstanding in tractor demonstrations, he is president of the Wichita County 4-H tractor club.

Frank also is a good business man, having made a nice profit raising grand champion steers. Ralph Swinford is his leader.

The 4-H Soil and Water Conservation program means a lot to Arden Walker, 17, and his family's farm in Jayton. As state winner he will be honored by Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., donor of his Congress trip.

A 4-H'er for seven years Arden practices all phases of soil and water conservation. Subsoiling for deeper moisture penetration, brush traps, crop rotation and stubble mulching are employed. He is now working on a mesquite control program.

Arden won district honors twice, was secretary of his club and past president of the county 4-H council. His local leader is W. E. Walker.

Safety first, last and always is the motto of Mary Sellers of Whitesboro. By participating in tainment for the evening followed a fast-moving program of games and contests planned by the girls. At the conclusion of the party, refreshments featuring individual heart-shaped cakes were served the members and their guests.

The Devotional was given by Irma Ned Riley when her group met at her home Feb. 19th. Reports were made by the different chairmen on the candy sales, First Aid and the progress being made on the napkin project. The remainder of the meeting was devoted to a discussion of the various requirements to be met before the members could take their next rank. The hostess, Irma Ned Riley, served a refreshment plate to the members present.

Learn About Shrubs

One of the most interesting meetings of the year was held Feb. 26th by the Red Bud Junior Garden club of the Lowanna Camp Fire girls group when they met in the home of their Chairman, Mrs. Walter Riley. After the devotional by Linda Gale Lawson, Mrs. Riley led in prayer. Minutes of the previous meeting was read by the secretary, Iletha Herring. Shirley Hodges led the sing song. Linda Gale Lawson, program chairman, presented Mrs. Riley, who led a discussion of the shrubs which do well in the Burkburnett area. Specimen of twelve shrubs, with a short description attached were passed around for the members to examine. In a few minutes, these were removed and the specimen passed again without being named as an identification check. The girls and their guests exchanged papers and checked the score. Several had identified ten out of the twelve specimen correctly. A trip was made into the yard where the shrubs were again identified. Following this a scrambled flower name game was played. Linda Gale was hostess to her group and served delicious refreshments to the guests. Mrs. Opal Wallace, Mrs. Johnnie Herring and Carol Barnaby and to the members of her group.

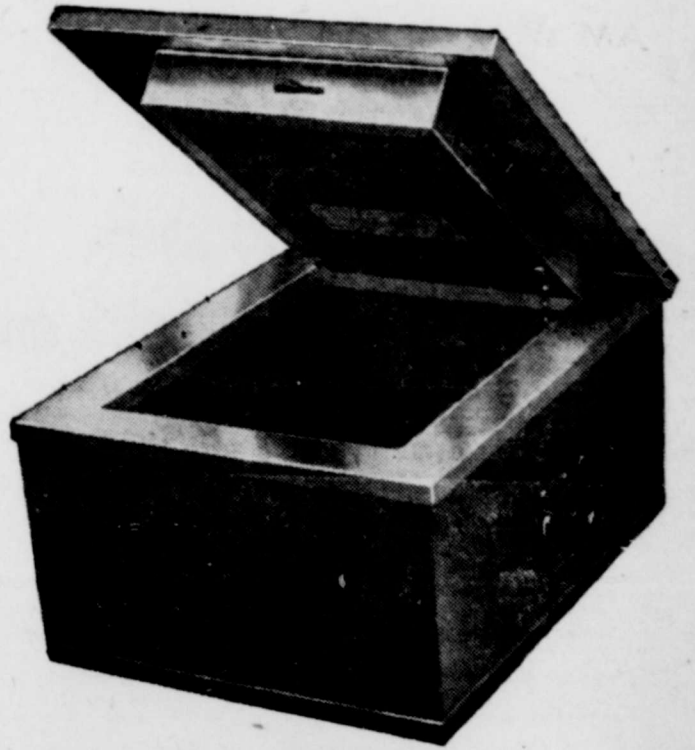

Examined For Rank

The Lowanna Camp Fire girls group met Tuesday, March 5th in the home of Irma Ned Riley, president of the group. After the meeting came to order, Linda Gale lighted the wohelo candle and led the pledge to the flag. The devotional was given by Iletha Herring. Mrs. Walter Riley led the prayer. Mrs. Harry Elliott was welcomed as a visitor. Members were told about the Burkburnett Garden club flower show to be held April 27th. The Red Bud Garden club unit of the Lowanna group will exhibit in the show. Mrs. Elliott, long active in camp fire, examined each girl on the rank being worked for. Five of the members are working on the Fire Makers rank and two girls the Trail Seeker's Rank. The hostess for the meeting, Charlotte Wallace. Refreshments were served members present and to Mrs. Harry Elliott.

Federated Society Met March 1 With Mrs. A. R. Bunstine

The Federated Missionary Society met in regular session in the home of Mrs. A. R. Bunstine on March 1st with Mrs. V. C. Skipwith as co-hostess.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. W. C. Gage, and the meeting opened with the group singing Amazing Grace. This was followed by the opening prayer by Mrs. Hattie Buchanan. The members answered roll call with scripture verses. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. W. B. Short.

Mrs. W. R. Carswell gave a most inspirational devotional in her own inimitable way. The theme used was In As Much and was taken from Matthew 25: 40 and Proverbs 14:31. She presented this in the form of an allegory, telling the story of a cobbler who loved God very much. As he worked each day he pondered and fervently prayed that the Lord would visit him. He listened and looked for days. Finally one day 3 different knocks came to his door, each time his thinking it would surely be the Lord. One was that of a beggar man, then a little old stooped woman and finally a lost child. He ministered tenderly to each in turn, showing that he had fulfilled his mission after all. This was to show that the Federated Society and each of us as individuals should help those in time of need. She concluded with a beautiful poem, Looking Upward Each Day.

Mrs. Weaver offered prayer at the conclusion of the devotional.

Reports were heard from the Welfare committee, Mesdames J. B. Ady and Jessie Jones, relative to the work done at the state hospital. It was voted to give $5.00 to a needy family. Also reports were heard on the card and flower committee, Mrs. Patterson. Reports of cards sent and to be sent were discussed. Mrs. G. D. Scruggs expressed her thanks to the group for their kindness during her recent illness. Dues were collected for the first half of the year.

Mrs. Vann dismissed with prayer.

A lovely refreshment plate was served to one guest, Mrs. D. M. Lowery, and the following members: Mesdames B. A. Browning, B. N. Cauthorn, Jessie Jones, W. C. Gage, G. D. Scruggs, H. C. Gilbert, J. B. Ady, Hattie Buchanan, W. R. Carswell, J. W. Keller, C. A. Morgan, W. B. Short, Sam Weaver, W. C. Vann and the hostess, Mrs. Bunstine and Mrs. Skipwith.

Junior High News

Among the 4-H club boys and girls from Wichita County who appeared on the TV show RFD-3, emanating from Wichita Falls, was Miss Patricia Simons, 7th grade student from Burk Burnett Junior high. The program on February 26th, at 12 noon, launched National 4-H club week, March 2-9. County Judge Guy McNeely signed a proclamation proclaiming the week. The girls and boys presented on the program showed results of demonstrations and projects in which they had taken part. In addition to Miss Simons, Burk was represented by Olen Baley, High School student. His demonstration was based on his work in the electric program. Patricia, whose work has been primarily in clothing, wore a dress which she had made, and showed several other garments and items that she had made. The dress she wore was the one which won her the junior division title in clothing in the County Dress Revue. Patricia recently entered the county contest in dairy foods held at the Valley Farm clubhouse. Janelle Hinkle, Pam Duke and Kay Hick were other students who entered the contest. 4-H club work on schedule is the Poultry show to be held on May 4th, with the use of chickens, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. The annual 4-H project show, sponsored by the Farm Bureau will be held this year on April 22nd, at the Texas-Oklahoma fair grounds in Iowa Park.

Grade School News

We have enjoyed working on the program for our parents that they might see some of the ways we work at school. We do like for Public School Week to be in our school program and to have our parents to come by and see how we live at school. We are always happy to have our parents to come by and see our work, and our home at school.
 We are very happy to have many of the boys and girls back in school and to know they have conquered minor ailments. Some have had a seige of virus and others have had a short joust with Scarlet Fever. We are very happy to report that we have these two villains on the run and are now trying to cage them that we might ship them to some foreign destination.

Spelling entrants for the Elementary School Interscholastic meet, to be held in Bowie on March 22nd, will be two 7th grade students, Karan Burton and Sharon Nix.

Students working in ready writing are Irma Ned Riley, Linda Holt, Margaret Faulk, Carolyn Clement, Thomas McDonald, Jim Davey, Donnie Cul-

Chevy is America's "hot" car —officially!

Chevrolet Wins Coveted Manufacturers' Trophy at Daytona Beach as "best performing U. S. automobile"!

Want facts about performance?
 Then look at the official figures from NASCAR's* internationally famous Daytona Beach competition for stock cars. Here's what you'll find: Chevrolet, in two weeks of blistering competition, proved itself as America's Number One performance car. Nothing in the low-price field could touch it.

No other car, regardless of price, scored such a sweep. And Chevy walked away with the famous Manufacturers' Trophy, hands down!
 The 1957 Chevrolet is, by all odds, the most astonishing performer ever produced in the low-price field. Best of all, this superiority isn't limited to just a few extra-cost high-performance models. Every type of Chevy—from the six-cylinder models right up to the 283-horsepower "Super Turbo-Fire" V8's, from the single-carburetor V8's with Powerglide to the stick-shift "270's"—is a championship car.

Eastern Star No. 655

On Tuesday, Feb. 26th Burkburnett chapter no 655 OES met in regular session with Ethel Wofford, worthy matron in the East. Officers drill was observed and the meeting opened in ritualistic form. George Benton, worthy patron, led the chapter in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of our country. One visitor, Mrs. Lorene Eidson of Holliday chapter No. 851 was recognized and given a hearty welcome, also past matrons and patrons were asked to stand and were heartily welcomed. Worthy matron expressed joy at having some members present who had not been able to attend for some time.

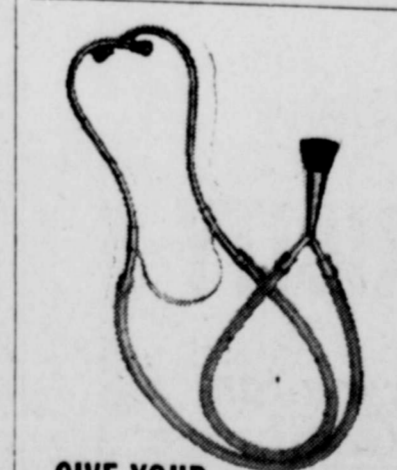

Minutes were read and approved. Under new business, a resolution was read in loving memory of Bro. George S. Dowell, past worthy grand patron, and a beautiful memorial service conducted by sisters Edith Eidson conductress; Josie Magee, Associate conductress protom, and sister Vera Reed, chaplain, under the direction of the direction of the worthy matron. A song, Face to Face by sisters Jessie Jones and Gladys Carswell accompanied by sister Beulah Parks, was beautifully rendered. Sicknes and distress were reported. Bro. George Benton, worthy patron advised the chapter that he would be leaving soon and expressed his appreciation for all the chapter had done for him. The worthy matron and others expressed their regrets at his going and assured him that he and his family would have their blessing. Under good of the order several good talks were made and worthy matron thanked each protom for their service and all members for their presence.

There will be practice at the Masonic Hall Monday evening, March 11th, and initiation Tuesday evening March 12th. Every member is urged to be present.

Mrs. O. B. Wofford, Mrs. W. Allen and Mrs. Robert Rose motored down to Graham, Tex., Sunday, March 3rd and visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Shepherd. Mrs. Shepherd is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Wofford.
