Beverly Preston Holds Fifth Place In Miss Diamond Jubilee Contest

Have you saved yourself fifty cents? Have you given your support to our candidate for Miss Diamond Jubilee, Beverly Preston? Have you bought your ticket to the spectacular Diamond Jubilee? One step on your part will allow you to answer Yes to all three questions. Buy your coupon NOW.

There are only two weeks remaining in the Miss Diamond Jubilee contest. That means you have only that short time to save fifty cents on your ticket to the Diamond Trail, mammoth historical spectacle. The coupon you buy, to give Beverly votes in the contest, entitles you to a one dollar fifty cent general admission or you may apply its one dollar fifty cent exchange value on a box seat which is two dollars fifty cents or reserved seat which is two dollars. Children and students admission tickets which will be seventy five cents can be acquired by exchanging one one dollar coupon for two of these tickets.

Coupons turned in next Tuesday, April 30th in Beverly's behalf will be awarded a bonus of ten percent of the total points of the coupons. Coupons turned in on the final date, may 7th will not be awarded any bonus points, so the earlier you buy your ticket, the more votes you are casting for Burk Burnett's candidate.

Coupons are now on sale in the following places: C. of C. office, Elite Dress Shop, Adams Drug, Corner Drug, B. and B. Grocery, Clodella's Beauty Shop, Burk Tailors, Preston Creamery and by Winston Freeman at Famous Dept. Store, Mrs. Savage at the school tax office, J. C. Hinkle, Lois Bean, Mrs. Wickersham in Junior High and Mrs. Averitt in the grade school, by the candidate and members of the Forum Study Club.

The Forum Study Club is sponsoring Beverly as the queen candidate from Burk Burnett and the proceeds they receive from the sale of the coupons will be applied on this year's project, which is to purchase equipment for the City Park.

Following the second vote tabulation at 6:00 p. m. Tuesday, April 23rd, Beverly was still holding 5th place. The contest closes May 7th, so buy your coupons now and support Burk Burnett's only candidate.

Glenda Rudd And James Gibson To Mary May 30th

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Rudd, 522 Ritchley street, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Miss Glenda Gale Rudd of Dallas, to James L. Gibson, also of Dallas, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gibson, Burk Burnett.

The ceremony is planned for May 30th in the home of the brides parents with members of the families present.

The bride-elect is a Gainsville high graduate, attended Gainsville college and NTSC at Denton. She is employed by the IBM Machine company. Mr. Gibson graduated from Burk Burnett high school and Texas A&M's class of January, 1957. He is employed at Temco Aircraft.

Minimum Charge To Be Made For Use of Town Hall

From this date a minimum charge will be made for the use of Town Hall. City Commissioners have given a lot of study to this subject and arrived at the conclusion that the only fair way was to make this charge.

For the use of the hall only the charge is $2.50. If both the hall and kitchen are used, the charge will be $5.00.

For years the Lions and Rotarians have been paying for use of the hall. Other organizations and in some instances, private parties, were not being charged.

Many do not realize the expense involved in keeping the hall up. Every so often there is the expense of redoing the floors. This is quite an item for a place that size. The breakage of dishes is almost unbelievable. Bowls disappear by the dozens; glasses by the hundreds in a year. The laundry bill is no small item. Linens for the tables, towels, dishcloths, etc. for the kitchen. It all amounts to a big figure for the year.

It is admitted the hall belongs to the city. But consider the small percentage of the people of our town who use the hall. Probably ten percent have been enjoying these convenient accommodations. The other 90 percent have been paying a like share for the upkeep without reaping benefits from its use. Hence the minimum charges.

LIONS CLUB Town Hall Each Tuesday 7:00 P. M.

Tom Burnett was the guest of C. M. Archer. Chas. West, guest of Winston Freeman, and Joe Janek, guest of Jack Alexander.

W. H. Holt, in charge of the program, presented City Manager A. W. Newman, who told of progress on the improvement of the water department. Mr. Newman said most of the 12 inch pipe to the new water wells was on the ground. Some of the sixteen inch pipe and fittings, to run from the filtering plant to the city, have arrived. At the present rate of progress, Mr. Newman believes abundance of water will be available around June first.

Next week J. Frank Kelley will bring the program. Thirty-nine Lions were in attendance.

Kangaroo Court Saturday For Violators of the Jubilee Spirit

Saturday afternoon, between 3 and 4 o'clock, kangaroo court will be in session in Burk Burnett. The docket is heavy. Lots of good men have fallen by the wayside and violated the spirit of the Wichita County Jubilee.

Many have been subpoenaed to appear before the august body, and give cause why they should not be assessed the just but severe penalty.

Every defendant will be given a fair trial before being convicted.

Some of those subpoenaed, and the charges, follow: Winston Freeman, shaved his beard off after getting a good crop of whiskers. J. C. Adams Jr., has made no effort to grow whiskers; habitual violation. J. C. Hinkle, harvested a rank growth of E. P. side burns. Howard Clement, habitual violation of every code in the book. Rudy Robinson, no Jubilee spirit, no whiskers. Charlie West, a nice crop of whiskers, but charged with visiting the beauty shop for coloring. Woe be unto any defendant who fails to appear. That's contempt of court, an offense more serious than robbing a bank.

THE FUNDAMENTAL REFORM

Senator McClellan of Arkansas, who has earned widespread praise for his performance as chairman of the Senate committee investigating union racketeering, recently appeared on the "Meet the Press" TV-radio program. The evidence so far produced by his investigating body, he said, shows the need for federal laws to protect union funds and to guarantee free union elections.

Then he made a significant observation—that it may prove to be "imperative" to enact a federal right-to-work law, though he personally hopes that the states will do that on their own hook and so make federal action unnecessary.

There is every reason to believe that the right-to-work law (which simply provides that either membership or non-membership in a union cannot be made a condition of employment) is the biggest and most fundamental reform now needed. The union shop, under which a man must join up or be fired within 30 days after getting a job, amounts to a form of involuntary servitude. It also creates union monopolies, and monopolies in any field are classic sources of corruption. If a man is forced to become and remain a dues-paying union member in order to feed, house and clothe his family, the union doesn't have to "sell" itself on the basis of service, integrity or anything else. The union heads are dictators, with the power of dictators, and we are learning now that some of them have shamefully abused these powers.

No good and honest union, and there are a great many of these, officered by men of high principle and ability, need fear right-to-work. If the heads do a good job they'll get the membership, as a matter of course. Right-to-work is a potent weapon against the goon, the exploiter and the racketeer.

BULGING MAIL BAGS

"Bulging mail bags crammed with calls from the folks back home to 'cut that budget' are piling into many a Congressional office," writes Douglas B. Cornell of the Associated Press. Some of the writers, as is to be expected, want the economy move to be confined to projects in which they aren't personally interested. "But," Mr. Cornell adds, "the general run of merchants, housewives, laboring men, Republicans, Democrats, people of every description, is setting up a howl that the Eisenhower administration's record peacetime budget of $72 billion is too big and that taxes are too high."

It is reported that Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey is getting 1,700 letters a day of this nature, the greatest response to any public question since he took office.

So much for the tide of public opinion. Can the budget be cut substantially?

The Citizens Public Expenditure Survey has gone into the budget in detail and states that it can be reduced by more than $4.5 billion by cutting non-defense spending back to the level of three years ago, without touching any defense spending.

Senator Byrd, a recognized Congressional authority, believes that a $5 billion cut is possible, and he intends to show Congress where and how.

Other studies have produced similar opinions.

John S. Knight, of the Knight Newspapers, has this important comment: "We can't curb inflation by telling labor and industry to be good boys, or urging economic discipline upon the individual if the government goes all out for bigger and better spending."

Regulation Goes With Subsidization

A recognized authority in his field, Roger A. Freeman, formerly Research Director of the Education Committee of the U. S. Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, refutes a number of commonly held conceptions concerning the nation's schools.

One fallacy he cites is that schools are being discriminated against in the allocation of public funds. Actually, education has for many years been the largest item of public expenditure in this country, save only for the national defense. The United States spends a larger share of its national income on schools than any other country of record.

Another fallacy is that teacher shortage grows worse and worse. The teacher-pupil ratio in 1900 was one to 36.7, in 1930 it was one to 30.7, and in 1955 it was one to 26.9. He adds, "Much of the teacher shortage is due to inefficient use of the available teachers."

Another fallacy, and an extremely important one today, is that the states and communities lack the fiscal capacity to meet school needs, so the federal government must provide support. Mr. Freeman quotes the Education Committee with which he was associated as reporting no state is unable to support an adequate school system, and that the federal aid is not necessary.

Finally, Mr. Freeman points out that if the government is going to pay for the schools, it is ultimately going to run them. As a U. S. Supreme Court decision said in 1942: "It is hardly lack of due process for the government to regulate that which it subsidizes."

Notes from HD Agent

Women complain that many of the new synthetics developing unattractive color in washing, which is hard to remove.

Much of the discoloration is due to one of three factors, according to extension home management specialists.

First, is the static electricity produced by some of the newer fibers. This attracts soil and dirt from the floor and surroundings. Ordinarily washing will remove this type of soil.

The water used is a second factor. White garments, will absorb the soil from the water and become grey looking. Be sure that the water is clean and that a good detergent is used. Curds formed by hard water and soap will also discolor synthetic fabrics. If soap is used, be sure to use a non precipitating water softener with it.

A third type of discoloration comes from washing synthetic fabrics along with something that is dyed a deeper color. Avoid this by sorting carefully before washing.

For best results, rinse garments several times using same temperatures of water used for washing.

Always check labels for washing instructions.

Insect activity usually increases as the weather becomes warmer. Flies, ants mosquitoes, moths and other insects endanger health, feed on fabrics, contaminate food and are general nuisances. Up to date control measures are needed to fight these insects. A new leaflet compiled by extension entomologists offers directions for choosing and applying insecticides.

The new bulletin, Texas Guide for Controlling Household Insects, classifies all major pests except the termite into specific categories relating to type of damage. Insects are illustrated for identification, and concise control measures are given for each insect. Also listed are some important cautions to observe in using insecticides.

Copies of the Texas Guide for Controlling Household Insects are available from Thelma Wirges, home demonstration agent, 305 Federal Building, Wichita Falls, Texas.

This week Wichita County joins more than 6 1-2 million homemakers throughout the nation who are observing National Home Demonstration Week from

World's Largest Oil Reservoir

UPON DISCOVERY THAT THE CLAY at Amuay, Venezuela, was impermeable enough to hold oil without any appreciable loss from seepage, the U. S. owned Creole Petroleum Corporation, with the help of experts from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, has drastically cut storage costs in the construction of this 8,500,000 barrel earthen storage reservoir—the largest in the world. Covering nearly 29 acres, it is 60 feet deep and has an earthen dam 275 feet wide at base around two sides. This type of storage, built at a cost of $2,800,000, cuts cost to about 35 cents a barrel compared with $1.65 to $2.00 for conventional tank storage.

April 28 to May 4. More than 36,000 Texas homemakers are taking time out to tell of their work and invite other homemakers to join them.

Wichita County Home Demonstration women have planned special activities for the week, including educational exhibits in every town in the county, recognition programs for outstanding members, television and radio appearances, recreation nites for family members and a county-wide luncheon.

Today's Home builds Tomorrow's World is the theme for this national observance. During this time, volunteer local leaders are especially recognized. These volunteer leaders play a very important role in the home demonstration club program. These leaders are the officers of home demonstration clubs and the women who attend special training to learn and then teach better methods of homemaking to club members, neighbors and friends. This year the leaders have taught various methods that help homemakers to be better business women and have better business procedures in their own homes. The leaders also taught methods of food planning and preparation to have better fed families. Leaders taught drapery workshops as a result of training they had received.

Some of these leaders are Mesdames J. L. Graham, T. H. Barwise, Ross Allen, Jack Marshall, C. A. Grisham, W. P. Wyatt, J. R. McKinney, J. G. Leonard, C.

TELEPHONE TALK

C. A. Deuschle, Manager

MOTHER'S DAY CUSTOM

Telephones will be ringing all over the country Sunday May 12, when the annual custom of Mother's Day Distance calling is observed once again. On weekdays, it seems almost every family has at least one "branch" separated from the rest by hundreds of thousands of miles. A call home on Mother's Day is always a special event—even though reunions and Distance may be pretty frequent throughout the rest of the year, too.

If you're planning a call on Mother's Day this year, forget the money-saving way to do it: call stationery. Rates are approximately 1-3 lower than on long-distance person calls. And as usual—to save time, call by number. Your Distance calls will go through twice as fast if you give the operator the out-of-town number you're calling.

Give Her A Telephone

While I'm on the subject, I'd like to offer another Mother's Day suggestion. Additional telephones make useful gifts. They're attractive, too, when you select one of the eight available models. An additional phone for kitchen or bedroom, or next to a sewing table, is the kind of gift that will make a mother or grandmother. She'll remember and appreciate it all year long, because it will always be useful as the day it's installed. It's easy to arrange gift service, even for someone who lives in another city. Just call the telephone business office. We'll take care of it.

Don Davis Calling

Don Davis, our telephone news reporter (he writes a column that comes with your monthly telephone bill), has received a number of letters telling of exciting, interesting or humorous real-life experiences in which the telephone played a major part. Don is hoping to collect more stories like these. Are there any telephone calls you'll never forget? If such an experience especially stands out in your memory, and you'd care to tell him about it, he'd appreciate hearing from you. Just write Don Davis, care of the telephone business office, Burkburnett. We'll forward your letter to him.

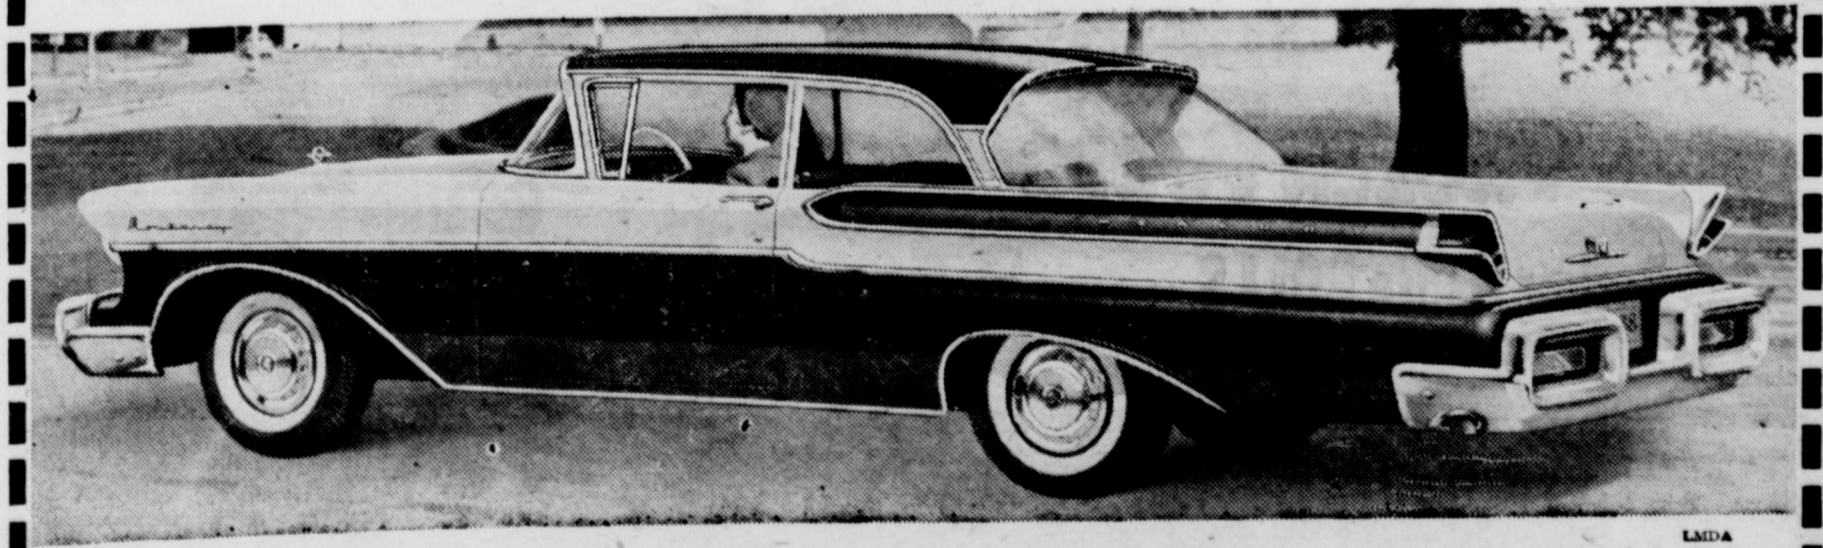

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

A Famous American Ship

Twenty years is the average life of a steamer, but the grand old Lake Michigan steamboat CHICAGO served 45 years. With her giant paddle-wheel boxes, great arches and two tall smokestacks athwartships, she was typical of the best in Great Lakes design of the day. She was one of the best known Great Lakes passenger steamers, lasting until 1919. Today's Great Lakes vessels are very different. With the coming of the St. Lawrence Seaway, new ocean-type ships are being planned by a score of leading American-flag steamship lines for service between Lake ports and the outside world. America's fourth coastline, long a dream, is approaching reality, according to the American Merchant Marine Institute.
