Reigning over the 12th annual rodeo as queen will be Wendlyn Goins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Goins. Wendlyn is an excellent rider. She has been riding since she was 2 1-2 years old, starting out on a small Shetland pony. She will be presented in the rodeo arena each night.

Katie Luke was runner-up in the queen's race. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Luke. The race was the closest of any previous contest. Only forty-four points separated the two top candidates. Katie is also an excellent rider. She and Wendlyn both ride with the famous Mounted Square dancers who will appear here.

Other candidates, closely behind the winners were Charlotte Simons and Vyvan Morris.

Wheat Crop Is Disappointment

The wheat crop around Burkburnett is a decided disappointment. Some six weeks ago the prospects were brightest in several years. Rain set in and each downpour lessened the chances for a bumper crop.

Fields estimated to make up to forty bushels per acre have been producing 12 to 15 bushels average. Some yields reported have been down around the five bushel per acre mark.

A hard rain and wind and hail Tuesday night just about put the finishing touches on even the most optimistic guessers. A lot of wheat was already broken and falling down. Another good bit of it is joining the other loss.

At most, a half yield may be harvested. This is an especially hard blow to farmers, most of whom have not been able to get in any cotton so far. A few have planted twice, only to have it washed up by hard rain.

Joe E. Brown, Famous Comedian To Attend Rodeo

Joe E. Brown, celebrated stage and screen star, will attend the Burkburnett rodeo Thursday (tonight). He will be the guest of Col. Edward H. White, base commander at SAFB, who will attend the rodeo with his aides.

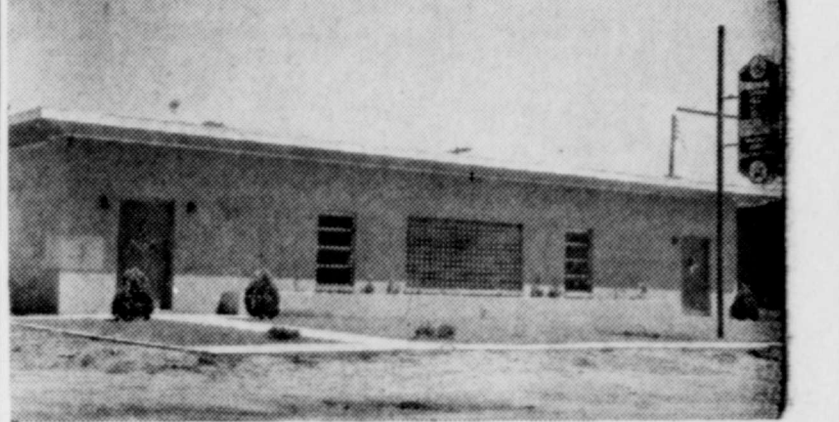

The famous comedian will serve as honorary referee for the Air Force World Wide Track Meet being held at Sheppard Air Force Base.

THANKS, NEIGHBORS

James Dodson was the guest of his brother Harry Dodson.

Jim Pirtle, program chairman presented Dr. Carl Morison, who told of the late techniques in speeding up dental work. New high speed drills can be turned up to 200,000 revolutions per minute. High speed cuts down on friction and heat, relieving much of the pain usually associated with drilling on hard teeth.

C. A. Morgan and Floyd Marten introduced Gene and Bobbie Clark, rodeo clowns who will work with the Burkburnett show. They put their chimpanzee through his paces, which included catching a basketball, riding a tricycle, playing the piano, jumping a rope and eating strawberry shortcake from a bowl with a spoon. The chimp will be presented each night at the rodeo in special stunts.

The model was built by Mr. Scruggs and is complete with derrick, boiler, steam engine, etc.

The public is cordially invited to come by and view the steam engine in operation.

Hook Final Rites Held Wednesday

William M. Hook, 89, died Tuesday afternoon in a Wichita Falls hospital. He had been in ill health for several years. A retired school teacher and Spanish American War veteran, Hook was born in Overbrook, Kans., in 1867.

Services were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Owen and Brumley Funeral Chapel, Burkburnett, with Rev. Leon Turner officiating. Burial was in the Walters, Okla., Cemetery.

Survivors include his widow, three sons, Elliott Hook, Leon Hook and Kenneth Hook, all of Washington Springs, S. D. Other survivors are two daughters, Mrs. C. C. White, Miller, S. D. and Mrs. Juanita English, Denver, Colo., 11 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The older generation thought nothing of getting up at 5 o'clock in the morning, and the younger generation doesn't think so much of it either.

It is estimated that the average housewife now spends 1 1-2 hours a day preparing the family food as against 5 1-2 hours 30 years ago.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

PANHANDLE, TEXAS, HERALD: "With a socialistic trend developing in government, more and more people are losing their initiative. They are wanting security with smaller prospects. This information has been learned from surveys of high school and college graduates. Let's hope there are enough fighters left in America to keep the small, independent business man going."

CORVALLIS, ORE., GAZETTE-TIMES: "Newspaperdom can take pride in this year's Pulitzer prize awards to newspapers. Recognition of The Oregonian for its expose of the vice and corruption involving municipal officials and officers of the Teamsters Union and the Chicago Daily News for determined and courageous public service in exposing a $2,500,000 fraud in the office of the state auditor of Illinois is recognition of one of the prime services of good journalism."

TELL CITY, IND., NEWS: "We usually criticize the post office department. It would not be playing fair if we failed to give it credit when it is due. This is on the brighter side. A mountain of red tape consisting of 1,685 different government forms has been eliminated by the department's forms control program since January, 1953."

HUNTINGTON, N. Y. TIMES: "Washington has no consideration for money. Once it is allocated, the bureaucrats insist it must be spent."

LENNOX, S. D., INDEPENDENT: "One hears a great deal about the 'big Oil monopoly' that supposedly controls the U. S. supply of petroleum products. Yet since 1925, while the price of clothing has increased 67 percent, household furnishings 62 percent and food 71 percent, the price of gasoline has increased only 15 1-2 percent. And the gasoline you fill up with today is a vastly superior product to what you purchased in 1925."

ABUSE OF THE TAXING POWER

Abuse of taxing power by federal, state and local governments is "one of the most important aspects of government policy contributing to unstable conditions in transportation." That forthright statement comes from a top authority—Chairman Clarke of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

He then laid special stress on the federal three percent excise tax on freight shipments—which, with an accompanying 10 percent tax on passenger fare, was imposed as a World War II emergency measure, but is still on the books 12 years later. He said, "The present excise tax of freight is one of the most important reasons why private carriage is experiencing such a phenomenal growth at the expense of the for hire transportation industry, the lifeline of our American economy."

Those who think a three percent tax isn't so very forbidding would do well to ponder an illustration cited by Mr. Clarke. Today most banks are paying three percent on savings deposits, a higher figure than in the past, as an incentive to possible depositors. To quote Mr. Clarke again, "As a three percent return is sufficient to stimulate the flow of funds into our banks, it is likewise more than sufficient to stimulate the growth of private carriage. What hard-headed business man won't take a second look at any opportunity to achieve a three percent savings in his transportation costs?"

Anyone who wants to use private carriage is entitled to do so. But there is no reason or justice in government stimulating the trend artificially by continuing a special tax on the commercial carriers—a tax which acts as a brake on a great industry which is absolutely vital to our domestic prosperity and our military security.

MILITARY TEAMWORK BEST

Our first Secretary of Defense, James Forrestal, said: "Whether it be in business, government, or military operations, I mistrust the principle of relying on a single genius to make all basic decisions."

The assertion that a single chief of staff system is efficient, economical and desirable from a national standpoint is not supported by history, fact or experience. The concept has fatal defects from military, political and economic standpoints.

Our Joint Chiefs of Staff organization has in practice demonstrated the genius of the American people for democracy. This system has solved the problem which has long plagued democratic republics, the difficulty of being militarily strong without becoming militaristic. Other advantages of this system are many and certain.

It has demonstrated that where speed of decision is required, it can meet the test.

It assures our nation that vital decisions are arrived at after a sound deliberative process. Our national survival is based, not upon the whim of an individual, but upon the decisions of the best military minds our nation has available.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff organization assures the proper development and employment of our land, sea and air forces.

A short time ago the New York Stock Exchange celebrated its 165 birthday—in a nation which itself is only 181 years old.

Newsweek reports that the gross National product (which is the total value of all goods and services produced in this country) was at an annual rate of $247 billion for the first quarter of 1956 23 billion above the comparable period of year before.

UP AND UP

Most of us have read that the demand for oil products following World War II was far beyond expectations. Even the experts were fooled at the size of our appetite for oil. Yet, as we all know, the demand was met, with hardly a delay or a dislocation.

In the years that lie ahead, according to oil men who spoke at a meeting of one of the sections of the American Petroleum Institute, demand is destined to rise to new high after new high. One of these speakers forecast that domestic crude oil requirements in 1965 will be one and one-half times those of today. Another said that the industry's world-wide cost of expansion to meet the demand of the next 10 years will be at least $115 billion.

Can the industry do it? The oil men answered that question too. One said that the producers will continue to find and get out of the ground all the oil required—if the industry has such essential incentives as a fair price. Another mentioned a favorable tax and regulatory climate.

Such a climate, of course, is necessary to the growth of any industry—and most especially to the growth of an industry in which great risks must be taken, such as oil. About one wildcat well in nine is a producer, and the rest are worthless. In addition, the cost of drilling wells has skyrocketed, due to higher wage and material costs, and to the need for going deeper and deeper into the ground in search of oil. But given the opportunity to profit if they succeed, the oil men will continue to run the risks and get the job done.

Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District News

Range cover on all pastures and ranges is an immediate possibility, according to Elvy Sargent, Work Unit Conservationist for Soil Conservation Service at Iowa Park.

Benefit of range cover to the rancher might be listed as protecting the soil from the first impact of the raindrop that detaches soil particles, increases water intake into the soil, reduces water losses from evaporation brought about by higher soil temperatures, and increased yields by having added available water, Sargent stated.

Water stored in the soil may produce a pound of grass for each 600 pounds of water used by the plant. Grass production can be measured in pounds of beef and soil protection.

Ben Osborn, Soil Conservation Service, found in his studies that 5,000 to 6,000 pounds of cover per acre gave complete protection, and that soil splash increased rapidly when cover fell below 2000 to 3000 pounds per acre. Osborn also found that quantity of cover was more important than quality of plants.

Recent moisture penetration studies by Soil Conservation Service show some soils wet only to a depth of 24 inches where land is rolling and has poor cover. Moisture is down to more than 66 inches where adequate cover is on the range.

Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District supervisors and Soil Conservationists urge land owners to use the time of high rainfall to grow and save needed land cover.

Mrs. W. B. Sanders and Madlyn left Tuesday for Plainview, Tex., to visit relatives and attend the Coston-Smith wedding. Madlyn will serve as a bridesmaid in the wedding.

Mounted Square Dancers Added Attraction at Rodeo This Year

One of the most popular acts at the Rodeo for many years has been the Burkburnett Mounted Square Dancers. Although the group had been disbanded, popular public demand brought them together again, just for this year's Celebration Rodeo. Every movement of the square dance is painstakingly performed to music and the caller's chant. Fast horses, good riders and perfect timing are a necessity for this performance.

"If she is unbelievably happy at 7:00 A. M. every morning, I now hold her 1957 Ford responsible. If she is off for the day at 7:02 A. "If she arrives home remarkably refreshed, I refer you to the lower, more comfortable seats, the wider wrap-around windshield and the other peace-of-mind features of her new 'Inner Ford.' If she's just a bit more spoiled, don't blame her. With optional power steering, power brakes, power windows and seat—who wouldn't be?"

"And if she is constantly raving about the savings her new car brings her, she's merely confirming what I've been telling her about Ford for years! Sure, we're a two-Ford family now. ## Decorated Floats Will Be Numerous in This Year's Big Parade

One of the greatest attractions in any parade is the beautifully decorated floats entered by clubs and business concerns. This year's entries will probably top all efforts of past years. Above is a winning float of a former year.

ROAD BUILDING SPEED UP—

Texas State Highway Commission is moving swiftly to take advantage of new laws designed to speed up highway construction.

A meeting of the Commission and key personnel was to be held in Houston this week. Objective: to hasten the day when traffic can move safely and smoothly along multi-laned super highways with no crossroads.

Principal legislative changes are (1) provision for the state to go 50-50 with cities and counties on land buying costs and (2) new authority for the state to obtain land for and have control of super roads through cities.

Goal for 1970, according to Highway Engineer D. C. Greer, is 900 miles of expressways linking Texas' population centers.

First of the new laws means car and truck owners will pay 10 percent more for their next license plates. Second means state will set speed limits on state highways through towns, no local speed traps.

But one "speed up" law failed. Legislature decided against raising present 60 mile-per hour limit, no matter how good the road.

TOUGHER FOR TEENS—

Law enforcement officers will in effect, have a new hickory stick for teenage troublemakers after Aug. 22nd.

New laws to go into effect then provide:

1. Youngsters 14 and over can be fined $100 for speeding, DWI or driving without license.
2. Parents will be liable up to $300 for property damage by minor children.
3. Drivers licenses for youngsters under 16 will be harder to get. Department of Public Safety, rather than local county judge, will have say so.

4. A Special "license" will be needed for driving motor bikes and scooters.

Taking a more optimistic view of the same subject were the more than 100 experts, educators and parents in Austin for the Texas PTA's youth development workshop.

Today's youth seems to be sailing along, they opined, but suggested more interest by fathers might help.

AT LEAST IT'S WET —

More and more rain and less and less crops is the farm report from many parts of the state.

Beside flood damage, losses are expected to mount high from wind, hail, rust and insects. And continued heavy rains have washed out more fields, delayed much needed work in others.

Any more rain will mean complete loss of North Texas grain crops, according to observers. U. S. Dept. of Agriculture reported weather too wet and cool for cotton in all areas but South Texas.

Even so, the stored up moisture makes farmers generally hopeful. With some clear weather now, some say they might yet get the best crops in years.

For ranchers outlook is even better. Hill County Hereford Association reported record-breaking sales as grass grows higher, cattle fatter.

BUILDING BOGS DOWN —

Continuous rain has brought construction to a "virtual standstill" in many parts of Texas this year.

Building authorizations for the first four months of 1957 were one percent higher than last year, reports the Bureau of Business Research. But actual construction was 4 percent less due to the weather.

Increase in the authorization totals was attributed to higher costs rather than more building.

BUSINESS ACTIVITY UP — Almost all indicators show Texas business moving slowly but steadily ahead of what it was in 1956.

University Bureau foresees good retailing for the rest of the year, but with fierce competition and a ruthless squeeze on profits and margins.

SHORT SNORTS —

Virgil T. Seaberry of Eastland has been elected president of the State Bar of Texas, according to Austin headquarters. He will take office at the bar's annual convention in Ft. Worth in July. ... First high state official to announce for the 1958 elections is Railroad Commission Chairman Olin Culberson. He has been on the Commission since 1941. ... Cotton planting deadlines have been extended until June 20 for farmers in 69 East and Central Texas Counties. Agriculture Commr. John White said the extension was against my better judgement as far as pink bollworm control is concerned, but that farmers should not be deprived of a good cash crop.

News From The County Agent

County farmers should close watch on their crop for army worms. If you check closely, you will find them either on the ground or on the stalks. They do some serious damage to grain crops. Several farmers are now spraying their crops for army worms.

The prospects are still good for a grain crop in the county. Some farmers think the harvest will get underway about June 15. We do need rain on wheat.

Some farmers are waiting for fields to dry up so they can plant cotton. Alfalfa is also in good shape.

Some farmers should have a good pecan crop in 1957. The heavy rains of recent weeks have helped pecan trees that suffered from years of drought. A high percent of trees in the commercial areas have already "set" a crop or else are in the process of doing so at the present time.

A good crop in prospect. Growers are concerned with the problem of control of the pecan nut casebearer, the most serious insect pest in Texas and almost everywhere. A direct cause of the casebearer is the several million pounds of casebearer eggs that states B. T. Haws, county agent.

Just a few weeks ago, growers tried to control casebearer. Many growers were skeptical of the value of spraying because they had seen neighbors spray and, in some cases, obtain erratic results because of one or a combination of the following: Improper, inadequate equipment, improper application of material.

Cotton farmers last year were more than $15,000,000 in debt against weeds and using three practices, they, post emergence oil, naphtha oils and spot treatments. B. T. Haws, county agent says the savings can mean even more to farmers generally are behind in their farming practices and the heavy rains make weeds and grass an ever greater problem. Local agents have detailed information on the practices.

In 1954 the number of farms has increased by 30 since 1933 the trend had been downward. The farm population makes up only 13.2 percent of the state's total population but this figure is dropping because of the rapid increase in the urban population. B. T. Haws, county agent.

Home gardeners will find information in a recent Extension publication, "Vegetable Gardening Made Simple" available from local county extension offices.

"Work and live," is the latest slogan from the Texas Farm and Safety Council. "Don't" the Council, let common sense and good judgement be the guide for the urgency of delayed farming operations.

From perspiration, fruit grass, oils grease, etc are problem during summer months. Left in garments over a long period of time, or treated improperly can ruin valuable clothing.

For best results, extension clothing specialists suggest prompt treatment of stains, before drying occurs, if possible. Classify the stain before applying the remover. Most stains can be classified as a grease, sugar or syrup, coloring matter, or resinous or gummy substance.

Next classify the fabric. Textile fibers are divided into different classes or as blends: Animal fibers such as wool and silk vegetable fibers such as cotton and linen; synthetic fibers such as rayon, nylon, dacron, etc. These groups react differently to heat, sunlight, moisture and to different cleaning agents.

After the material and the stain have been classified, apply the proper stain remover.

A copy of Extension Bulletin, "Removing Stains From Clothing," will help you select the proper stain remover. Get a copy from your local home demonstration agent, Thelma Wirges, 305 Federal Building, Wichita Falls.

A well organized sewing center is a must for any home, if clothing is to be properly cared for. Mrs. Sidney Smith, from the Ray Club, has one you might like to see.

Many farmers in Wichita county have not been able to plant their cotton due to rain. The cotton varieties making the highest yield at the Iowa Park Experiment station are Lankart 57-5, Paymaster 54-B Kasch No. 7, Rogers' Texcals, 5455, Northern Star 11 and Lockett 140.

The Wichita Valley DHIA Association ranked second in the state in average pounds of milk which was 910 lbs and tied for first place in the state for average pounds of fat which was 34. The Holstein Dairy Show at the T-O Fair this fall will be open to female and registered bulls. The dairy show will be held Friday and Saturday, Sept. 27-28. B. T. Haws, county agent, urges all dairy farmers to make plans now to show animals at the show. There will be approximately $750.00 awarded in prize money.

RODEO IS BIG BUSINESS

When the action explodes in the arena of the Boomtown Rodeo next week, area fans will see another professional edition of the roughest competitive sport in the world.

As one of the 500 odd rodeos approved each year by the Rodeo Cowboy's Association, the Boomtown Rodeo will be in the sport's major league, conducted under nationally recognized rules that assure the spectators of the best stock in a hard-riding contest open to the best cowboys in the business.

Slated to compete for a share of the prize money here will be Jake Bogard from Bula, Tex., and Dick Barrett of Ryan, Okla.

A one event specialist, Bogard will enter only the calf roping event at the Boomtown Rodeo. Last season he won first-place money at Strong City, Kans., Pauls Valley, Okla., Vallejo, Cal., and Burwell, Nebr. At the seasons last purse rodeo in Madison Square Garden in New York City, Bogard won sixth place honors in calf roping.

Barrett will enter the bareback bronc riding, calf roping, steer wrestling and bull riding here. So far this season Barrett placed sixth in steer wrestling at Houston in February and split fourth place money at Vernon early in May.

Like all RCA rodeos, the contest here will be built around the five standard professional events, bareback bronc riding, calf roping, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling and brahma bull riding. To tempt the top hands to bet their skills against their entry fees, the rodeo has put up a purse of $2,250, $450 for each standard event.

All entry fees will be added to the purse and every dollar won in competition here will count one point in the standings for the annual world's champion ship.

In the professional bareback bronc riding the rider has only a simple leather handhold on a surcingle, no saddle or rein. He must spur the horse over the point of the shoulders on the first jump out of the chute and should spur to the end of the ride to win. He must hang on for eight seconds and cannot touch the horse or the rigging with his free hand. In calf roping, the contestant works against a stop watch. He tries to rope a calf, dismount, flank the calf and tie any three feet together in the shortest time possible. He gets two tries if he carries two loops made up into the arena.

To make a qualified ride the saddle bronc rider must spur the horse out of the chute as in bareback riding and stick it out for eight or ten seconds, depending on the rules agreed on here. He rides an "association" saddle whose standard design has been approved by the RCA and has only a rough braided rope reign to hang onto.

If he loses a stirrup, touches the horse, reign or saddle with his free hand, he is disqualified. And to earn the winning marking he should spur the horse from shoulder to cantle board throughout the ride.

The steer wrestler drops from the saddle of a highballing horse to the horns of a galloping steer, brings it to a stop and twists it down until all four legs are pointed out free. His is a race against time. To help the steer run straight, he has a helper, or hazer, riding on the opposite side of the animal.

Rodeo's roughest contest is brahma bull riding. The bull rider has only a loose rope without knots or hitches that is held around the bull solely by the pressure of the rider's grip. He must ride for eight seconds with one hand free. But the ride is only half of it since the brahmas are always ready to kill a man with their hooves or horns.

The Boomtown Rodeo in Burk Burnett will run June 13 thru the 15th and will feature three performances.

Are you still using the same house cleaning practices on the new finishes for floors, walls, upholstery furniture and bathroom fixtures? If so, chances are you are doing it the hard way. Your home demonstration agent offers the latest information on cleaning in the bulletin on House Cleaning Made Easier.

A beautiful, well kept lawn adds to the material value of a home and is the basic requirement for an attractive yard. As an aid to those interested in establishing, improving or renovating a lawn, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service now has available a revision of a very popular publication B203, Home Lawns. Copies may be obtained from the offices of local county extension agents.

Saddle Bronc Riding

HIGH ON THE HURRICANE DECK of a pitching saddle bronc, a cowboy spurs over the break of the shoulders and hangs onto the rope halter rein. If his free hand touches any part of the horse, the saddle or himself he's disqualified and he can't wrap the rein around his hand or change hands while riding. He must ride eight or ten seconds to qualify, depending on the rules set at the rodeo, and spur the horse from shoulder to flank all through the ride to earn the high score it takes to win.

Nationally Famous Mounted Square Dancers to Perform Here

Burkburnett's nationally famous Mounted Square Dancers have been re-organized in order to perform at this year's Boom Town Rodeo June 13-14-15. The group had been disbanded, but popular demand caused them to come together again and brush up on the finer points of following square dance music on horseback. The picture above shows them promenading at full gallop. Each performance is closed with the Grand Figure Eight, where horses cross in the middle of the arena at full speed. This particularly hazardous act is not even attempted by many of the other mounted dance teams. The Figure Eight is so breathtaking that many spectators cover their eyes.

Burk Dairy Has Fine Record

Gene Robertson, a young dairy man operating seven miles north east of here, believes in getting the most production from every cow.

He tolerates no boarders. The results is that his 75 cows produce in peak season some 3,400 pounds of milk per day, a fine record for almost any dairy herd.

Robertson and his daughters,
Jan and Lee find time not only for milking and feeding their herd but also for participating in the many dairy shows held about the area. In these shows they have garnered many championships and dozens of blue ribbons, testifying to the high quality of their animals.

Robertson is president of the Wichita Valley Dairy Herd Improvement Association. He thinks every dairyman should be a member. "I don't see how a producer can stay in business without being a member," he declared this week.

Accurate records of each cows production is absolutely vital if boarders are to be culled from the herds, he maintains. "Without those records, a dairyman will get fond of a cow and keep her even though she may be costing him money.

A good operator will keep only those animals which are paying their way, he insists.

Robertson's "Janlee Farms," named after his daughters, is located on the banks of Red River. For feed he is growing barley and oats. Ordinarily he grows sudan for pasture.

His Grade A dairy barn is modern in every respect. It is kept spotlessly clean.

Last year his cows produced an average of 9,800 pounds of milk and 380 pounds of fat.

"My goal is 10,000 pounds of milk and 400 pounds of fat per year for each of my cows," he said. "I plan to cull all that do not deliver that amount.

Those who know this young dairy farmer have no doubt he will reach his goal.

Mrs. John Purdy of Muleshoe and Mrs. James Hudson and girls of Haile Center visited relatives in Burk Burnett over the weekend.

Burk Elevators Show Light Yield

With wheat harvest about one half finished in the Burkburnett area, approximately 200,000 bushels of wheat has been brought to the local elevators. An additional 35,000 bushels of oats and 24,000 bushels of barley have been harvested, according to reports of the two grain elevators in Burkburnett.

The rainy season preceding and during the harvest period has served to reduce the test and also the yield, as so much of the wheat was damaged by wind, hail and wet weather. Most of the wheat is testing about 55 percent and the yield per acre, though not yet known is expected to be about half normal.

There are approximately 20 custom combining crews operating in the area, each having from two to eight machines in the fields.

Builders Class Met June 5th With Mrs. Van Cleave

The minutes from the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Harris. A fair report was given by each group captain.

The social hour was passed off talking over old times and our future. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served to 14 members and two visitors.

MYF Met Sunday Night At The Methodist Church

MYF president opened the meeting Sunday night by asking Kathryn Alvey to lead in prayer. Then John Robinson told the MYF's about the meeting that he and Leslie Boyle attended at the First Methodist Church in Wichita Falls. The meeting was to discuss the talent show that will be held in two weeks and three days. Two committees were needed to help plan the talent show. The food committee is Mrs. Turner and the talent committee is Colette Boyle, Jean

Wood and Leslie Boyle for the senior MYF, Irma Ned Riley and Glenda Turner for the Intermediate MYF. These committees will pick the food and talent for our church. There will be others churches to have food and talent at the talent show in Wichita Falls.

Colette Boyle was asked to close the meeting by leading the MYF members in the MYF benediction. There were 16 members and one visitor present.

Last month a large paper headlined an important editorial:

"How much are household goods worth including everything in kitchen gadgets to the TV set?" the editor asked. Then he observed: chances are long that rough estimate you will be far below the figure. They're also that if a fire strikes and destroys those goods, insurance will be distantly inadequate when it is replacing them. In case, you'll have to dig into your own pocket to make up the difference or go without."

According to insurance company loss adjusters your income is $3,000, your furnishings clothing are worth $5,000. If you're $5,000 - $7,500 income, et, you have between and $6,750 worth of items. So it goes—UP."

Why do most people have much MORE money in household possessions than they realize? The reason is that the items usually bought over a period of time, and get the investment. And—and very big—rate that economic deflation.

"A chest of drawers paid $50 for some years would cost well over that now. So would about everything else bought in the past."

The prudent course is to itemize and inventory household possessions, bring your fire coverage in line with the total. Stop by for a handy inventory booklet—the best in insurance circles.
