C. C. Luncheon Interesting Meet

Directors and members of the Chamber of Commerce held a very interesting business meeting and luncheon Monday noon at Town Hall.

A. R. Hill, new president, was in charge of the meeting.

Clark Gresham gave the invocation.

Following the meal, Marjorie Hofacket, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved.

Cliff Wampler, chairman of the membership committee, reported the drive was going well. Some new memberships have been secured.

T. Leo Moore of Electra, executive vice-president of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair, held each year in Iowa Park, gave a most encouraging progress report of the fair for 1957, listing new departments added and other features to make the fair more interesting and enjoyable.

He invited all the citizens of Burkburnett to be more active in helping make plans and working in the interest of the fair this year. Dates will be September 22-27.

Those present were reminded of the annual chamber of commerce banquet date, Jan. 17th. Chester Lauck, "Lum", of Houston, will be the featured speaker.

Clark Gresham, precinct No. 2 commissioner, reported work going forward on purchase of 4 lane right-of-way from Burkburnett toward Wichita Falls.

Directors met with the president immediately following dismissal of the main group.

Poll Tax Paying Deadline Is Near

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Officially, poll tax sales begin in October. But nobody pays too much attention.

However, after the first of the year, organized drives get under way, in a deadline month appeal to induce citizens to protect their right to vote by payment of the poll tax.

But a good percentage of potential voters ignore it all. Many, jolted at the last minute, flood into courthouses after knocking off work Jan. 31st. Penalty for the put-offers is usually a long wait in line.

Many more never get there at all. Texas Almanac reports show that in past non-presidential election years, less than half the potential voters paid poll taxes or secured exemptions.

Poll tax costs $1.75 and usually may be secured at several different places in every community. No charge for 21 year olds getting their first vote and those 60 years and over, but an exemption certificate must be obtained. (Persons living outside cities of 10,000 or more may vote on affidavit without an exemption certificate.)

Deadline for poll tax payment is midnight, Jan. 31st.

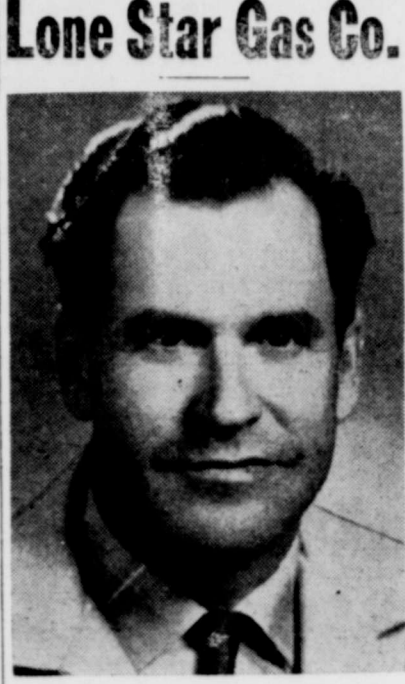

Mrs. Marjorie Hofacket, Secretary Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce Dear Mrs. Hofacket:

Thanks very much for the invitation to attend your annual chamber banquet on January 17. I do not know at the present if I can attend or not, but we shall surely be represented by someone from our staff if it is at all possible.

We shall let you know more definitely prior to that date.

Yours very truly,
Fred H. Husbands
Executive Vice-President
West Texas C. of C.

W. T. Donnell Local Manager Lone Star Gas Co.

W. T. Donnell of Wichita Falls has assumed his duties as manager of the local Lone Star Gas Company office. Mr. Donnell has been with Lone Star eight years, working all that time in Wichita. The Donnells have an eight year old son and will move to Burkburnett after mid-term is finished this month. They are members of the Church of Christ.

W. R. Milam, local manager here for the past six years, is being promoted and sent to Commerce, Texas. He will be district manager at his new location.

Last Rites Were At Corsicana For Rachel Vernon

Mrs. Rachael Vernon, 81, who has lived in Burkburnett the past three years, died at 2:45 p. m. Saturday in a Wichita Falls hospital.

Mrs. Vernon was born Oct. 7, 1876 in Navarro County and lived in Corsicana before moving to Burkburnett.

She is survived by two sons, E. R. Vernon of Burkburnett, and A. M. Vernon of Ralls; four daughters, Mrs. Myrtle McDonald and Mrs. Chattie Mann, both of Burkburnett, Mrs. Velma Davis of Electra and Mrs. Lucille Raney of Red Oak; a stepson, Dick Nelson of Corsicana; 24 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The funeral was held at Corsicana Monday under direction of Corley Funeral Home of Corsicana.

Arrangements at Burkburnett were under direction of Owen and Brumley Funeral Home.

WMU Held All Day Meeting At Church

The WMU of the First Baptist church met Monday, Jan. 6th for an all day meeting and covered dish luncheon.

The meeting opened with the group singing Praise Him. Mrs. Warren led in prayer.

Mrs. Brister, president, presided over a short business meeting. Mrs. Cheney gave the invocation before the luncheon.

The Fuller Circle presented the Royal Service program. Mrs. Harbuck brought the devotional Liberty through Christ Jesus. Scripture was taken from Luke 4:18 and I Cor. 13:14. Mrs. Preston discussed the Ministry to Language groups, Italians, Chinese and Japanese. Mrs. Will Teal discussed work among the Spanish speaking and the Russian people. Mrs. Meyer played soft music while Mrs. Harbuck gave a dedicated prayer for the missionaries which was titled, Give me your Tired, your poor. Mrs. Meyer dismissed with prayer.

Last Rites Today For R. D. Butts

Funeral services have been scheduled for Thursday at Morton, Texas for Mr. R. D. Butts, 72 who died at his home there early Tuesday morning following a heart attack.

Mr. Butts is a former resident of the Clara community and is a brother of S. M. Butts and H. S. Butts of Burkburnett.

School Census Being Gathered

Annual school census enumeration for all school children living in the Burkburnett Independent School District, will get under way Monday, Jan. 6th, through the home-room teachers.

It is urgent that the parents cooperate in the census because school funds are allotted to this district on the basis of school population.

All school children between the ages of 6 and 18 as of Sept. 1, 1958, are to be listed.

The Gilmer-Akin law passed six years ago made average daily attendance the basis for all aid above the minimum, which was a great boon to the Burkburnett Public Schools, but minimum aid still is based on the scholastic population as determined by the enumeration census. For this reason it is important that every child within the age limit be counted in the census.

During the latter part of January, faculty members will make a house to house canvass for any students not reached through the regular home-room teacher.

Any parent having a beginning child next year that is not reached by a census taker, please call JO 9-3261 and a census enumerator will be sent.

LUTHERAN MEMBERS APPRECIATE THEIR PASTOR REV. J. H. KOLLMMEYER

Members of the Grace Lutheran Church of Burkburnett wish to express their appreciation to their pastor, Rev. J. H. Kollmeyer, for his faithful service these past few years.

With his guidance, the fund drive committee and the membership have retired all notes on their church building which was completed in 1950. A special thanksgiving service was held at the church last Sunday to commemorate this occasion.

A. F. & A. M. Lodge Members Met Jan. 6

Members of Burkburnett Lodge No. 1027 A. F. & A. M. Burkburnett were treated to a pleasant surprise when they gathered at the new Masonic Temple for their regular meeting on Monday night, Jan. 6th.

They found the Hall with all the final touches of work on the building completed to the last detail. The ceiling of the lobby and refreshment room had remained unfinished since the Temple was dedicated in June, 1957.

The members were even more delighted when it was revealed to them that all expense in connection with the construction and furnishings of the building had been paid in full and that the new Temple now stood finished and completely free of debt in any form.

The Lodge gave a hearty vote of thanks to the members of the finance committee for a job well done. The membership of the committee composed of Bros. W. T. Zimmerman, J. H. Ferguson, C. L. Clements, P. H. Miller, O. R. Magee, A. R. Faulk, H. W. Fowler and G. G. Taylor, had remained intact during the terms of four different Master of the Lodge.

Following the evenings regular meeting the members present were treated to a delightful banquet, compliments of worshipful Master, G. G. Taylor and past Master W. T. Zimmerman.

Some twenty-six members were present including six past masters of the Lodge.

Chester H. Lauck, Famous as 'Lum' C. of C. Banquet Speaker Jan. 17th

Chester H. Lauck, executive assistant, Continental Oil Company, is better known as the beloved "Lum" of the international famous radio and motion picture team of "Lum and Abner."

Since becoming associated with Conoco, Mr. Lauck has traveled more than 100,000 miles throughout the company's 27-state marketing area, speaking at annual Chamber of Commerce dinners, business meetings, and state national conventions. Constantly on the move, he has delivered as many as eight speeches in one week in five different states, in addition to carrying out special assignments for his firm.

Although known primarily as a radio and movie personality, he was first successful as a banker and businessman. A native of Allene, Ark., he attended grade and high schools in Mena, Ark., and was graduated from the University of Arkansas, where he majored in journalism and edited the school's humor magazine.

Mr. Lauck became associated with the Union Bank of Mena following graduation and later served as manager of the Citizens Finance Corp. in that city. He was active for several years in the business and civic life of Mena, where he was president of the Lion's club and the Retail Credit Association, a director of the Chamber of Commerce and Exalted Ruler of the Elk's Lodge.

In 1931, together with Norris Goff, his boyhood friend, he formed the radio team of "Lum and Abner." They began their radio career in Hot Springs, Ark., and in less than 2 months signed a network contract, broadcasting first from Chicago and later from Cleveland and New York. Their careers took them to Hollywood, where in addition to their radio work, they were starred in motion pictures for RKO Studios. Some of the Arkansas team's films are still being scheduled on television stations in many cities.

"Lum and Abner" are credited with a number of "firsts" in the entertainment world. They made the first major network broadcast in 1933 from Radio City in New York; the first marathon broadcast for charity (more than 12 hours); the initial show for the Mutual radio network; and the first international broadcast by a radio team, a show produced simultaneously in studios in both London and Chicago and heard throughout the United States and Great Britain.

Mr. Lauck also is a director of the American Capital Life Insurance Company, Houston. Besides his careers in the business and entertainment fields, he once was well known as a rancher, having owned and operated until recently a large horse and cattle ranch in Southern Nevada.

Today's dollar seems built more for speed than endurance.

Texas Faces Another Tidelands Fight

When Congress passed the submerged lands act of 1953, Texans thought that the tidelands question was settled for good. The issue of ownership of the offshore submerged lands had been fought bitterly then for some years, ever since the Supreme Court in a series of opinions ruled that the United States had "paramount right" to them. This doctrine was unheard of and without foundation in jurisprudence. Never before in its more than a century of statehood had Texas' claim to its historic seaward boundary been challenged.

This boundary, founded on Spanish law, was three marine leagues, or almost 10 1/2 miles, offshore. It had been accepted by the United States when Texas entered the Union.

The act of 1953 which confirmed the states' rights to their historic boundaries had the approval of President Eisenhower prior to its passage. In fact, the tidelands were a big issue, and no doubt the decisive one, in the 1952 election in this state. Candidate Eisenhower declared in Houston, on Oct. 14, 1952, that Texas owned "the submerged lands extending three marine leagues seaward into the Gulf of Mexico."

Now his Department of Justice has asked the Supreme Court to find that the federal government owns all lands beyond the three mile limit, cutting off more than two thirds of Texas' tidelands.

The President still says he is convinced that Texas should have the right to explore for and exploit oil deposits out to the three-league limit and has ordered that statements he has made to that effect be included in documents filed with the Supreme Court. Still, he gives aid and comfort to ex-Atty Gen Brownell's suit by saying that he thinks Texas' claim should go before the court once again to be settled once and for all.

And so an issue that was settled "once and for all" in 1953 is revived. Texas again faces a Supreme Court fight for its rights and a lengthy period of uncertainty as to the outcome of an issue raised by one of the President's cabinet appointees. It is difficult to understand Eisenhower's present position when he is so unequivocally on record as to the justice of Texas' claims.

Course Of Nations Is Disillusioning

Remember how so many of us Americans blithely assumed not many years ago that the formerly colonial countries would be beacon lights of benevolence and tolerance because they knew what it was to be the under dog?

Such is not the case, and its painfully disillusioning to many idealists.

Worst disappointment of all, of course is India with its leader Nehru. Surely, it was thought, the gentle Indians would be respectful of others' rights. Surely they wouldn't embark on a course of imperialism of their own. Surely they would be in the forefront of those nations condemning injustice anywhere.

But India occupied Kashmir and is holding it by force to keep Pakistan from having it. Nehru is refusing the Kashmiris a plebiscite because he knows the majority of the people would vote for union with Pakistan. So pacifist India must spend money for armaments instead of for industrial plants, agricultural machinery, health measures or any of the vast needs of her low standard population.

The latest indication that once-colonial peoples can be as avaricious as the former imperialist powers is given by President Sukarno of Indonesia. He is demanding that the Dutch get out of Netherlands New Guinea although its people are not Indonesians and the territory could not be worth much to his country if he got it. He is seizing Dutch properties and expelling Dutch citizens.

The plain fact is that Sukarno has failed to keep Indonesia's prosperity up to the level it enjoyed under the Dutch and is trying to divert attention from its failures.

The government of newly independent Morocco is another that finds it easier to wave the flag than to improve the conditions of the people and is trying to seize a worthless stretch of sand that is under Spanish control.

President Nasser of Egypt couldn't wait until the Suez Canal concession ran out a few years hence but seized the canal and ran out the English, probably losing more than he gained in the process.

Leaders of the formerly colonial peoples make a big point of denouncing "imperialism." But what they are talking about is Western imperialism and this amounts to whipping a dead horse. The real imperialism of today—the Soviet brand as exemplified in Central and Eastern Europe—doesn't seem to disturb them.

The Institute of Life Insurance makes some telling observations about inflation.

First, it points out, inflated prices are taking a bite out of every dollar you earn.

Second, on top of that, taxes are taking at least one day's pay out of your weekly salary.

Third, rising prices can make a mockery out of any raise in pay you get.

This is all self-evident. It is equally self-evident that continued overspending by the government, along with excessive wage demands and settlements, can make inflation far more destructive still. No domestic problem is as pressing as the need to preserve what is left of the dollar's value.

Litterbug Drive Has Good Results

Highway business is picking up. Any member of a highway maintenance crew can tell you but this time it's bad news. Pick up litter thrown on the highways of the nation costs more than $50,000 a year in tax dollars used to clear trash from the highways and right of ways.

In an effort to combat the trash-throwing litterbug in Texas, the Texas Highway Dept. recently conducted a survey to see if the distribution of litterbugs to motorists, as recommended by the national Keep America Beautiful, Inc., and other organizations, would reduce the litter problem along Texas highways. A litterbug is a paper sack for stowing away the normal debris which collects in a car or truck during a trip. During a four-month test period (June, July, August and September), the Texas Highway Dept. through its seven Highway Travel Information Bureaus at various entry points on the Texas border distributed 50,000 litterbugs to motorists. The litterbugs were furnished by the Texas Motel Association.

At the completion of the test period, a poll of 200 highway maintenance foremen throughout the state was taken to get their opinions of the litterbug. The fact that very few of the bags were found discarded along the roadsides indicated that the bags were being used, emptied and reused by the traveling public. Approximately 70 percent of the foremen were in favor of the litterbug idea for reducing highway cleanups.

The survey clearly indicated that the worst litterbugs were local people, not the out of state visitors nor motorists from another area of the state, but local residents who discarded trash, bottles and cans from automobiles and trucks. As one foreman put it, "People will do things at home they wouldn't dare do away from home."

Crewmen who clean the highways and right of ways stated that a wide distribution of the litterbugs to both local and out of state motorists through the facilities of filling stations, restaurants, motels, hotels and allied tourists services might do a great deal toward making Texans conscious of the litterbug problem.

All personnel polled suggested that a widespread educational program be initiated to boost the use of the litterbugs. Motorists don't realize that the habit of tossing litter on Texas highways is not only costly and dangerous, but is also against the law. Violators can be fined up to $200 and costs.

One foreman commented, "There are two relatively new innovations in automobiles which will help hold litter to a minimum. Air conditioning and the built in rubbish compartments. People are reluctant to roll a window down in an air-cooled automobile and get a blast of hot air just to throw something out the window. In some 1958 models, the manufacturers have installed a simple litter compartment which will keep a lot of rubbish off the roads. Perhaps the service station attendants could empty them as a free service. However at present the best solution seems to be the litterbug."

Though progress has been slow, indications are that one day Texas highways and roadside parks may be free of unsightly litter, and the litterbug vanquished by the litterbug plus a genuine desire among motorists to keep the roadside clean.

McDonald-Long Vows New Years Eve First Baptist Church

The First Baptist church in Burkburnett was the scene for the New Years night wedding of Miss Margaret Dell McDonald of Burkburnett and Mr. Huey Long of San Diego, Calif.

The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Leroy Meyer, pastor. Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Leroy Meyer. She also accompanied James Doughty, popular soloist from Bowie and NTSTC at Denton. He is a cousin of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McDonald of Burkburnett and Long is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Long of Grandfield, Okla.

Vows were exchanged before an arch banked with tiered candles, baskets of white chrysanthemums, stock and greenery. Pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chantilly lace over tulle and taffeta. It was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and fitted lace sleeves tapering to points at the wrist. The tightly molded bodice extended in torso lines to a bouffant ballerina length skirt accented at the hemline with 8 inches of pleated tulle. Her waist length veil was attached to a tiara of seeded pearls. She carried a bouquet of red rose buds.

The maid of honor was Miss Marilyn English of Burkburnett. Her gown was a waltz-length blue taffeta. She carried a pink nosegay centered with pink carnations.

The candle lighter was Miss Reba Shipman of Burk. She wore a waltz-length gown of blue taffeta and wore a pink corsage.

Best man was the groom's brother of San Diego, Calif.

Ushers were Gad Garland and Bill Shipman of Burkburnett.

The bride was a 1956 graduate of Burkburnett High School and has been employed at Sheppard Air Base as a clerk typist in the 3750th Hospital Food service office.

The groom was a 1957 graduate of Grandfield High school at Grandfield, Okla., and is employed at the Naval Supply Depot in San Diego, Calif.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The brides table was covered with a white linen cloth and was centered with the wedding cake surrounded by pink roses, the punch bowl and a basket of white chrysanthemums.

Presiding at the serving table was two aunts of the bride, Mrs. W. L. Norwood of Gainesville and Mrs. Boyd Doughty of Bowie. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. T. L. Thompson of Munday registered the guests.

Out of town relatives of the wedded couple that attended the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Thompson of Munday, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Norwood of Gainesville, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Doughty and son James of Bowie, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Owens, Jo and Glenna McDonald, all of Sunset, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. The groom's relatives included his grandmother, Mrs. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Long and daughters, John Long and Miss Juanita Jackson all of Grandfield, Okla.

The couple will be at home in San Diego, Calif., at 2226-B Abbott St.

Federated Missionary Society met in the home of Mrs. W. C. Gage with Mrs. H. C. Gilbert as co-hostess Friday, Jan. 3rd. President, Mrs. Gage opened the meeting and extended greetings for the New Year. Opening song, Savior more than Life, Mrs. A. R. Bunstone gave the opening prayer. Mrs. G. D. Scruggs brought a very lovely devotional. We press On. She quoted, "I press toward the mark." Phil. 3:13-14, and how essential it is to Christians that we press on. We center a great deal of thought upon the proverbial new year but as a matter of fact every day we face celebrates a new year. So to live triumphantly, each daily morning should mark itself as an important event. The years do not count in themselves, but what we do with them does. Mrs. Kent reported on the basket we sent to a needy family at Christmas. Mrs. Short called the roll and was answered with a scripture verse. Mrs. Gage appointed committees for the coming year. Mrs. Carswell read the biographical leaders for each month out the year. Mrs. Buchanan closed the meeting with prayer.

Sennett I. Hill
Returns From Tour of Pakistan Dec. 24

Sennett I. Hill of Houston became a Girl Scout leader in 1944. He returned to his home after a two-month tour of Pakistan as an observer for the Girl Scout Council of Houston. Hill flew into Dallas from Los Angeles, Dec. 24th and with his wife and daughter, he returned to Houston. Hill was accompanied by Mrs. B. M. Cropper in Ft. Worth. Hill is the former chairman of the Girl Scout Council of Houston. She received her schooling at the University of Oklahoma. Hill made her trip to Pakistan by plane, stopping in London, Paris and at the Girl Scout Camp in Switzerland. She spent a month in Athens, Istanbul and Ankara, where in three months she visited what are termed the "Four Big Cities" in every town of the country. Hill's Girl Scout movement is older than the Girl Scouts themselves. She first visited India in 1912; she became an independent Girl Scout leader in 1947. Hill is predominantly a Hindu population of the Moslem religion is in the program of Girl Scout activities. Her activities include knitting, block printing, crocheting, and a little bit of camping. Her strict Moslem girls do not wear their faces in public. Her camping must be conducted in an area surrounded by a wall. For this reason, all troops are segregated as male and female. Teachers of the troop leaders. Over 1,000 girls attended a Girl Scout rally at Lahore, Mrs. Hill, a representative to the rally. Only one troop came with their own four servants to their meals. The rally also had the services of a man to wash and iron the girls' uniforms. The first for Pakistan. The man was a necessity because the Pakistan Girl Guides wear white tunics over loose-fitting trousers which reach to the tops. With the uniforms wear green duputtas, a white scarf. Hill was allowed to attend only when her troop promised her father there would be no train wrecks on the train, and if the girl was in a train wreck, she would be hurt. Hill's Girl Scout movement in Pakistan has a total membership of 100 girls and leaders, including the wife of Pakistan's first president Mirza and Mrs. Fatime, sister of the first president of Pakistan. Hill's limitations in Pakistan are the only recreation for girls there outside of sports program in the Hill found the Pakistan very friendly and hospitable. She explained that the friend of a friend is a guest in your home. Hill stayed in both private homes and hotels. For most of her trip, she was escorted by a visitor-observer in a last summer. Hill traveled through Pakistan by plane, train, bus and in East Pakistan she rode an elephant. The education of Pakistan citizens speak with a heavy British accent, she found little language barrier. Hill was a guest at a Moslem wedding where the bridegroom and bride saw each other in a room for the first time after the elaborate Moslem ceremony. Hill's Pakistan Guide group traveled with the new moon which are emblems of the country, was presented to Hill at the conclusion of her trip. She has also received the Bronze Arrow of Achievement which Girl Scouting can award to a worker. Hill was selected as a visitor-observer for Pakistan by special committees representing local and national boards. Her trip was one of 12 such trips sponsored by the Juliette Gordon Award Fellowship Fund. The trip took her completely around the world. She left Houston Aug. 28th and returned Jan. 24th. Hill is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lohofener, of Burk Burnett.

Old Farview Alumni Reunion Held Here New Years Eve

Fairview, a community five miles northwest of Burk Burnett, consolidated with Burk Burnett many years ago, but there always seemed to be a spirit that lasted twenty years. Tuesday night the same spirit ran higher as three hundred former residents and friends gathered at the Burk school cafeteria to talk and visit after twenty years. Pounds of weight, bald heads, grey hair, wrinkles, children, grandchildren, all added more excitement to the reunion in the beautifully decorated cafeteria. Miss Marilyn Felty, sophomore music education major at Midwestern, furnished piano numbers for the evening. Names were pinned on each guest and the year they graduated or last attended the Fairview school. Mrs. R. D. Watkins had scrapbooks with classes, ballgames, pictures, parties and favors that proved why this spirit was still strong. Any pupil could find their picture some where in these books. Invocation was given by Dr. Ligon of Midwestern University followed by a wonderful dinner. Dow Estes, being the master of ceremonies, asked special guests to speak: Y. C. Pascall, former supt.; Dr. Ligon, referee for basketball games; Mr. E. G. Gregory, former pastor, now Benevolence director of Baptist Orphans homes of Texas; Dr. R. D. Watkins, basketball coach, now Athletic director at University of Wyoming. The following school board members were recognized: Doc Goins, L. R. Horr, Bill Cantborn, Wiley Bloxom, Ben Winkles, Buster Morgan. Pictures were taken of classes represented from 1915 every five years until the school consolidated. The three hundred guests traveled many miles from all parts of Texas and other states. The next meeting was planned for same date in 1960. A larger attendance will be expected at the next meeting.

James F. Kelley — Sandra Ann De Good Married December 21st In Houston

The Bering Memorial Methodist chapel in Houston, Tex., was the scene of the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Sandra Ann De Good and Mr. James Frank Kelley, Jr., both of Houston.
Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. Glenn De Good of Nevada, Missouri and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kelley of Burk Burnett. Dr. Marcus M. Chunn officiated at the vows which were read Saturday, Dec. 21st at 4:30 p. m. Following the traditional color selection of white, tall silver vases on either side of the altar were filled with white chrysanthemums and white gladioli.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of imported white velvet fashioned with a scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. White satin emphasized an empire waistline which tied in a lavish bow and cascaded to the hem of her dress. A scoop of white satin held by side satin bows, white kid gloves and white satin shoes completed her ensemble. A sheath of white roses flowed from the white satin Bible she carried.

Miss Barbara Jane Etter was maid of honor. She wore a gown of American Beauty velvet fashioned similarly to the brides gown, and carried a simple arrangement of white chrysanthemums and rosebuds.
Mr. J. F. Kelley served as best man for his son.
The church parlor was the setting for the reception immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table carried out the theme of white and was centered with a large bouquet of chrysanthemums and stephanotis. Members of the house party included Mrs. Charles P. Pharris, sister of the groom, Miss Marjorie Lou Welch and Miss Trudy Clark.
For travel, Mrs. Kelley chose a sheer wool suit of gunmetal grey with black accessories.
The couple will make their home at 515 Colquitt, Apt. 9, Houston, Texas.
Mr. Kelley is a graduate of Burk Burnett High School and received a BBA degree in 1956 from Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas. At present he is employed by the Federal Envelope Co. in Houston.

News From The County Agent

Is your farm shop a safe place to work? It can be or it may be an accident or fire trap. B. T.
Haws, county agent, says winter is an excellent time to remodel, rearrange and clean up the workshop. A little effort now may prevent an injury or even a death.

Haws lists these ways to make your farm shop safer:

1. Reserve one side of the shop for repairing heavy machines.
2. Paint the interior with a light color and use large windows to improve lighting.
3. Provide safe heating and adequate ventilation.
4. Never forget the danger of carbon monoxide gas from operation of a gas engine in a confined space.
5. Never use fuels to clean the shop floor.

You can build safety into your farm shop but careful attention to all known safety practices is necessary to make it a safe place to work.

Good results can be obtained during winter by applying 2, 4, 5-T and ammate to undesirable brush and trees by individual plant treatments.

Livestock producers are advised by B. T. Haws, county agent, that this is the season when lice numbers build up to cause losses of milk and meat. He suggests that livestock be checked during the winter months for the profit grabbing pests, and if number justify, that control measures be used. Local county agents can supply details on control practices.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, M. D. Commissioner.

Three of the greatest public health programs in history are generally acknowledged to be immunization against infectious diseases, chlorination of water and pasteurization of milk.

Now, after years of investigation, a fourth has been added, fluoridation of water to reduce tooth decay.

What was the hope of a generation ago is now fact of preventive dentistry, says the American Dental Association. Today, the overwhelming accumulation of evidence on the effectiveness and safety of fluoridation is a matter of record.

Almost 1,500 United States communities, with a combined population of well over 25,000 are now drinking artificially fluoridated water. Millions of others are drinking water in which fluorides are naturally present.

So thoroughly has the effect on tooth decay been investigated that the American Medical Association has recently given its unequivocal endorsement to the program, thereby joining practically every other reputable health and medical organization in the United States.

The nation's second and third largest cities, Chicago and Philadelphia, are among the cities which have fluoridation programs in operation. Other major cities now giving their children the benefit of the progressive measure are Cleveland, Baltimore, Washington, St. Louis, San Francisco, Milwaukee and Pittsburg.

In addition to the ability to reduce dental caries by as much as 60 percent among children, and most authorities are convinced the benefits extends thru out life, fluoridation of community water supplies is shaping up as one of the best public health bargains of all time.

For less than 15 cents per person per year, the ravages of tooth decay can safely and conveniently be cut by two-thirds. The cost of a single filling would pay for the fluorides for one person for many years.

From an engineering standpoint, according to a water works association, the mechanism of adding fluorides to water supplies is no more involved than adding chlorine. Furthermore, fluorine is not a medicine any more than chlorine. It is not a cure all. It cannot entirely eliminate tooth decay.

It can do nothing about teeth that are already decayed.

In fluoridation we have the weapon tooth decay that men of all ages have sought. Not a single valid argument can be raised against it. To deny it to children is to deny the best that preventive dentistry has to offer.

IT'S THE LAW In Texas

There is no time like the present to start a procedure that will aid you with next year's tax calculations. That is to maintain a record of your income and outgo. Such a record can be simple and brief but it may save you tax dollars and many hours of work filling out tax forms.

The average man who works for a wage or salary doesn't have to concern himself about keeping books and records, at least so he thinks. His employer keeps a reliable record of his earnings and Uncle Sam looks primarily to the employer for information on his earnings and for the withholding of various taxes out of his wages.

But whether or not you run a business of your own, you have a partner each year is claiming a substantial interest in your personal income. And the law requires you keep books for him in case he ever asks for an accounting.

Perhaps you own your own home or are paying it out in installments. It's likely that some day you may sell that house. When you do you'll want to be able to prove whether you realized a gain or a loss on that sale. If a gain in capital resulted it probably will add to your income tax. If a loss was suffered it probably will reduce your income tax.

WISE CHOICE

A wise choice for back-to-school wear is this dark cotton dress. Styled by Shirley Lee, the floral striped dress has a high bow neck and elbow length sleeves. Photo from Seventeen Magazine.

You may have made certain Or perhaps you received that little summer cottage on the lake as a gift from your father. If you ever sell it, you should be able to show Uncle Sam not only the cost of improvements you made on it while you owned it, but also what its fair market value was at the time Dad gave it to you.

It may be that you are receiving an annuity on an insurance policy. If so, do you know how much that policy costs you and how much of that cost you have recovered tax-free to date?

There are many kinds of transactions you enter into that may some day affect the computation of your personal income tax. The best proof of the cost of anything you have purchased is a receipted bill or canceled check. If one of these pieces of evidence relates to any transaction that may affect your income in later years, it's a good idea to keep it. Your "pardner" may some day ask to see it.

Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District News

The United States Department of Agriculture has a new tool to meet the objectives of the great plains program developed in cooperation with Great Plains Agricultural Council. Public Law 1021, The Great Plains Conservation program, supplements existing conservation programs such as technical assistance, cost sharing, research, credit and education, according to Soil Conservation Service Technicians.

D. A. Williams, Soil Conservation Administrator, points out that the Great Plains conservation program is distinctive in these ways: First by public law 1021, the program must be based on a farm or ranch conservation plan; Second, needed long term cost sharing can be provided to meet up to 80 percent of the cost; 3rd, climate hazard is emphasized; 4th, management and practice application is combined.

Anyone owning or controlling land in a county designed by the Secretary of Agriculture in the 10 great plains state is eligible to participate. A farmer or rancher must have a workable plan of operation based on land capabilities and needs that provided for needed land use changes, needed cropping and grazing systems, proper combination of needed soil and water conservation practices and a schedule that calls for carrying out all measures in a period not to exceed 10 years.

Soil Conservation Service is authorized to enter into contracts for the Federal Government with farmers and ranchers who present such a plan. Soil and range site maps and other information will be provided by Soil Conservation Service.

Each participating county has developed a county program of eligible practices. The county program committee is composed of agency representatives of Department of Agriculture. More than 60 counties in West and Southwest Texas have been designated. Wilbarger and Foard counties are located on eastern Edge of Designated counties. Wichita, Clay, Archer and Baylor counties are in Great Plains area but have not been designated by Secretary of Agriculture.

"I'll have to tell you about a true experience," said Morris Journey, a friend from Norman, Oklahoma, as we visited not long ago.

"A group of us goose hunters got permission to dig a pit blind in a farmer's field last year. We had a lot of good hunting, but at the end of the season we all forgot to fill up the pit. Last spring in moving some equipment, the farmer dropped a small combine in it. It broke the combine badly. In fact, the damage came to about fifteen hundred dollars."

"How did you come out?" I asked. "Fortunately," he said, "I had personal liability insurance. It paid for the damage. That's one time it really came in handy."

"More people should have it," I said. "It honestly costs less than $1.00 per month, in its cheapest form, and even less than that when combined with some other types of insurance. I don't see why any hunter, sportsman, or property owner can justify NOT having it."

Morris smiled. "You don't have to convince me," he said. "I'm sold from here on out."

Eastern Star chapter No. 655, will meet Tuesday evening, Jan. 14th, at 7:30 p. m. for a regular stated meeting.

Gasoline Taxes No Small Figure

Gasoline taxes paid by Texas highway users during the first six days of 1958 reached the sum of $3,777,000—as much as was once collected in gasoline tax revenues in Texas in an entire year.

This was pointed out by Charles W. Alcorn, president of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, in commenting on present estimates that Texas' 5 cent state gasoline tax will take in $171.8 million during 1958, while the 3 cent federal tax will swell the total tax cost to motorists in this state to a predicted $273.6 million.

This, he noted, means that Texas highway users are now pouring motor fuel tax revenues into the tax coffers at the rate of $1 million every 32 hours, or as much in six days as Texas' original 1 cent gasoline tax brought in during the whole year following its enactment in 1923. The federal tax was not added until 1932.

"This 72 fold increase in annual gasoline tax revenues can be explained partly by the fact that there are now 5 1-2 times as many motor vehicles in Texas as there were in 1923, but it must also be noted that the present combined tax rate is now 8 times as high," Alcorn said. He added:

"An interesting thing about gasoline is that this is one product on which the price today, excluding taxes, is actually lower than it was back in the 20's." He noted that in 1920, the average price of regular gasoline in Texas was 29.1 cents a gallon.
