WARNING TO ALL DRIVERS

There have been several complaints lately of automobile drivers passing school buses while they are loading and unloading school children. It is a very serious violation of the law to pass a school bus when it is stopping or stopped to pick up or discharge school children. If the bus driver or any individual sees a violation of this sort and will get the license number and report it to a law enforcement officer, it can result in a very heavy fine for the violation. Aside from traffic violation, think how it would feel to accidentally run over and injure or kill some child because of a thoughtless act such as this. Please keep this in mind when you see a school bus stopping or stopped and come to a complete stop and wait until the bus starts up again before passing it and help keep our children alive.

Invest in America's Future Leaders.

Note of Appreciation

Fair recently. It is most gratifying to know that we have men and women in our town who are willing to give of their time and talents to worthwhile civic projects.

The Bible - The Word Of Life

The 18th annual National Bible Week will be observed during the week of October 20-26th. Once again it is sponsored by an all faiths group, the Laymen's National Committee, Inc. This year's theme is "The Bible—The Word of Life". It is taken from the 2nd Chapter, 16th Verse of Philipians.

National Bible Week is dedicated by men and women of all faiths as a tribute to the world's greatest book. By a daily reading and study of the Bible we may hope to arouse a newer and greater spiritual force—a force that is desperately needed in today's troubled world. Those who know and follow the precepts of the Bible will always fight the effort to substitute the pagan state as arbiter of what is right and wrong in our lives.

The Vice President's Tax Program

Vice President Nixon has joined the long list of authorities who believe that a thorough overhaul of our tax system is needed.

Mr. Nixon would repeal the excise taxes, save for the traditional ones on liquor and tobacco, and replace them with a general manufacturer's excise of 1 1/2 per cent. He would reduce the personal income tax rates in the top brackets, on the grounds that present rates are almost confiscatory, and prevent risk taking and encourage tax avoidance devices. He would reduce the corporate income rate, and believes that this act, by stimulating business activity, would "lead to more, rather than less revenue." And in order to encourage industrial investment and expansion, he would adopt "more liberal treatment of depreciation for business taxation purposes."

Any tax program is bound to draw dissent, and the Vice President's is no exception. Principles of taxation provide plenty of room for honest controversy. But the kind of thinking that lies back of Mr. Nixon's proposals can hardly be opposed. Our tax system has grown like Topsy. Taxes have been raised and lowered in a helter-skelter fashion, as the emergencies of the moment seemed to dictate, with little regard to the system as a whole. The result is an oppressive hodge-podge that is the enemy of economic growth. A sound tax system must do more than produce money for government. It must encourage industrial activity and jobs necessary to the development of the nation.

Thinking Wishfully

The oil industry has probably changed more than any other major industry since the war, yet in the future, it must show an even greater willingness to seek out, test, develop and adopt new methods and ideas.

This is the view of a leading oilman, M. J. Rathbone, president of Standard Oil of New Jersey. As he sees it, in an industry made up of so many different segments, and where newcomers can and do join our ranks every day, the fellow who thinks he can stand pat is thinking wishfully, if he is thinking at all.

The needed improvements in the way the industry operates, Mr. Rathbone believes, must go all the way from the well to the customer's tank. Research is a vital factor here, for it is research which develops the new products, new processes and new uses which have a direct $231 million on research and this year the figure will be materially higher.

Competition, of course, is the driving force in oil's progress. As an example, Mr. Rathbone cites the facts that there are now some 25,000 private brand oil outlets in this country, and they have captured a substantial part of the retail gasoline business in some areas. This obviously, presents a real challenge to the other gasoline dealers. The moral is simple. In a competitive free enterprise economy, the individual or the enterprise which stands still is going to be left out of the race.

Set The Farmer Free

In a lashing editorial on the folly and failure of our government's agricultural policies, publisher Tom Anderson of Farm and Ranch writes: "Government control will work only in Heaven where they don't need it or in hell where they already have it. Let's get the government out! Lets set the farmer free."

It is argued of course, that government supports and controls are essential to the very existence of farming, and the chaos would reign if they were dropped or even materially reduced in size and scope. But those arguments have a mighty tenuous base so far as fact is concerned. All the evidence indicates that the surplus problems have been the direct and inevitable result of long established government policy. Instead of producing to meet public demand, farmers produce to meet a political condition.

For example, Dr. Herrell De Graff of Cornell, who is one of the most highly regarded agricultural economists in the country, has said this: "Over the past 35 years, during which so called surpluses have been almost chronic, a modest 2% increase in livestock could have eaten up all the surpluses. This would have happened had agriculture been free." Other agricultural economists are now emphasizing the need for expanding animal agriculture—which, incidentally, is free market agriculture.

Meat animals convert grains into foods which practically everyone wants, needs and likes. It would certainly seem high time the government thought in terms of putting crops to productive use—instead of into storage. That will be done if we set the farmer free to produce what consumers will buy.

ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF WICHITA COUNTY

Homer G. Maxey Company

Homer G. Maxey Co. Mr. Liddell has done his work effectively, accomplishing it in an unobtrusive manner. Mr. Liddell, busy as he always is, manages to do his share in any movement calculated to benefit the community as a whole. His modesty will not permit him to say the things about himself which are said by his countless friends, who do not hesitate to recommend Mr. Liddell as a civic and business leader who at all times is ready to work to the advantage of the people of Wichita Falls and vicinity.

White Stores, Inc.

It is an honor to include Mr. Edwards of White Stores, Inc., in this review of progressive business men of Wichita Falls.

To become accepted as one of those business men who can always be depended upon to recognize his responsibilities to the home community and one who will readily back up his sense of duty by active participation in the support of worthwhile civic movements, is an enviable position. Such a person is Mr. Edwards.

Mr. Edwards has gained a lot of friends who are always glad to have his assistance because of his cheerful disposition and enthusiasm for any project that will benefit the community. He applies the same brand of enthusiasm in his business dealings and these attributes have gained for him the success he has attained.

Paine Drilling Company

Mr. Frank D. Kinney of Paine Drilling Co. of Wichita Falls, has won the respect and good will of the people of Wichita Falls and the surrounding country for the progressive manner in which he has kept his company in the forefront of the business and civic life of this entire district. Also for the efficient and friendly willingness he has displayed in accepting his responsibility in aiding civic undertakings.

Mr. Kinney does not make himself conspicuous by the manner in which he runs or conducts himself either in business or other matters. His quiet reserve and his confidence marks him as a man of good judgement whose opinions and advice are sought and listened to with respect.

Mr. Kinney is indeed worthy of congratulations on his successful business and also for his constructive advice and help on civic affairs in which he has found time to participate. We are proud to call him a friend.

Factory Outlet Shoe Store

It is a well known fact that a person's true character must come through in his work, whether in business or professional activities, or in public life. So when a man conducts himself in such a manner as to cause the public to recognize in him certain qualities, over and above the average, he is deserving of a few words of praise. Such a personality is Mr. Shelton Henson of Factory Outlet Shoe Store in Wichita Falls.

Mr. Henson is a recognized leader in business and civic activities which has furthered development in this area. In addition to being one of Wichita Falls' outstanding business men, Mr. Henson is never one to shirk his civic duties, handling them cheerfully and with enthusiasm and optimism.

Frank Wolf Barq's Distributor

Having a well earned reputation for dependable judgement and complete knowledge of business above the average, Mr. Frank Wolf of the Barq's and Grapette Bottling Co., in Wichita Falls, merits a brief tribute in this review.

Without assumption or seeking public acclaim he has filled his place in the community as one of its citizens, performing his duties of citizenship quietly yet efficiently. As a leading and progressive business man, Mr. Wolf holds a high esteem of the public generally.

It is not only as a practical business man whose sound judgment and farsighted planning has brought such fine things to himself but it is because of his inspiring optimism and loyal friendship that Mr. Wolf is held in such high regard by the people of this entire area.

We gladly praise the record of this progressive business man.

Highway Garage

It isn't the size or volume of a man's business which determines its value to the community in which he makes his living, but rather by the manner in which it is conducted. Which, to a greater or lesser degree, reflects the personality and character of the individual. The value of the business to the city is a reflection of the progressiveness and determination to render the utmost in service, a policy which has caused Mr. Sal of Highway Garage, 1701 East Scott, to be so well thought of and so widely patronized by the people of Wichita Falls and the surrounding vicinity.

That same progressiveness and ability which has made him so successful has also fitted Mr. Sal to be of assistance on community projects and public drives. He also takes pleasure in helping in one way or another, when ever he can on such projects. Furthermore, he does so cheerfully and with a friendly spirit of cooperation that is always more than welcome.

Congratulations From The Bottlers of:

- Grappette Barq's Orangette Lemonette Wichita Falls Texas

Burk Royalty Co.

In mentioning some of those men who are taking a progressive part in the evolution of business and civic life of Wichita Falls we would be failing in our duty if we failed to include Mr. George Kimbell of the Burk Royalty Co., located in the Oil and Gas building in Wichita Falls. Mr. Kimbell is recognized as one of the leading business men in Wichita Falls.

Mr. Kimbell is the type of citizen whose fairness and friendliness and sincere desire to be of service are accountable for a great measure of his success. As time goes on his personal interests have become more closely interwoven with the business and civic affairs of the city. As a result he has, quite naturally, become accepted as a man who can be called upon and who will cheerfully do his part to further the development of those community activities to which he is best fitted to lend assistance.

Mr. Kimbell has, by the conduct to his business and his attention to civic affairs, earned the friendship and good will of his fellow citizens.

Bob Gaston Gulf Wholesale

Performing outstanding services for the people of Wichita Falls and the surrounding area, Mr. Bob Gaston, manager of Gulf Oil Warehouse City Sales in Wichita Falls, has achieved an enviable reputation for his progressive policies of business administration. The establishment is a credit to Wichita Falls. Mr. Gaston is a man of ideas and practical as he is aggressive in putting those ideas to beneficial use in furthering the services he renders to the people of this area. His sound business judgement and unwavering honesty are characteristics which place him in the rank of the business leaders of Wichita Falls. Yet he is unassuming and modest in his personal contact with the people; always ready and willing to listen to their ideas and desires.

We are glad to pay tribute to this type of business man, for it is such men who are making Wichita Falls a city to which prospective investors and residents turn with ever increasing favor.

Robert Beaver has returned to his home here from a Wichita Falls hospital. He is reported doing nicely at the present time.

1959 Chevrolets Go On Display October 16 at Mathis Chevrolet

1959 Chevrolets, dramatically restyled and boasting an abundance of mechanical improvements will go on public display at the Mathis Chevrolet dealer show here Thursday morning.

It is customary with the complete presentation here to give a festive background of information which will be held simultaneously with the introductions at retail locations across the country.

New models have been introduced in secrecy. Advance word from Detroit, however, describes them as the most unusual in the history of the company's experience. The passenger body carries a unique design and the cars reportedly include equally as progressive changes in the chassis.

Representative models of the new passenger car line and the new lineup of 139 commercial vehicles are slated for the introduction here. The formal announcement period will continue with the remainder of the month.

According to Chevrolet, a re-styled series identification is being used for the passenger cars. The Impala, introduced with a new sales results as part of the Air family a year ago, has been expanded into a commercial series. Other models making their debuts will be now Bel Air, Biscayne and Sation Wagons.

The Chevrolet will bring out its new models in the wake of an aggressive promotion and advertising campaign. The newspaper alone covers 7,500 daily and weekly.

FRIENDLY BLUEBIRDS

PETROLEUM—basic to the needs of our time

Oil and natural gas have powered most of the great technological advances of modern times; petroleum hydrocarbons have transformed the dreams of inventors into the realities of engineers... Today, in the United States, oil and natural gas provide about 75% of the country's energy requirements; and large quantities of oil, available for production beyond immediate need, are necessary to the national security.
 An obvious example is the gasoline that powers our automobiles; another is the diesel fuel burned by post-war railway engines. But do not overlook electric power plants, the airplane, whether jet or propeller driven, factory power plants, farm mechanization, and the revolution since World War II in home heating devices. Oil provides the energy that moves the trucks, airplanes, ships and tanks of our Armed Forces.
 But petroleum as a source of energy is only part of the story. In the past two decades, the petrochemicals have supplied the country with a vigorous new industry: already most of our rubber is made from petrochemicals... the ubiquitous plastics derive from petroleum products... paraxylene, a petrochemical, is the raw material for one of the most useful of the new fabrics. In this area, wonders never cease; the petrochemicals contribute more each year to the efficiency, comfort, and convenience of modern living.
 Thus, oil's progress has made other progress possible all along the front of American industry... Petroleum is the American resource that is basic to the needs of our time... that is essential to our national security.

 The Humble Company, established in 1917, has developed with the industry.
 Humble's exploration activities extend from Florida around the rim of the country to California, Oregon and Washington, and beyond to the new State of Alaska... The Company is a leader in the production of oil and gas in the United States... Humble Pipe Line Company is a public carrier transporting not only Humble's oil but that of many other companies and independent producers to Gulf Coast terminals... Baytown refinery is one of the nation's great manufacturing plants... And Humble is a marketer in the Southwest, supplying the needs of motorists in modern service stations.
 The Humble Company believes strongly in research, maintains two outstanding research facilities, and annually budgets considerable sums for this activity... Humble research has made substantial contributions to the discovery, production, and utilization of petroleum.

The Ford Company To Show 1959 Ford Line Of Cars October 17th

The 1959 Ford car line, which has received an award at the Brussels World's Fair for its elegance, will go on display at Ford dealerships on Friday, Oct. 17th. J. O. Wright, Ford Motor Company vice president and Ford Division general manager, announced today.

The 1959 Ford car is new in design and new in style. Mr. Wright said. "The 1959 styling is a good taste, a result of the demand for more elegance and dignity in automotive design as opposed to gaudiness and extremism," he added.

In addition to Ford engines, the 1959 Ford has been designed for fuel economy. Ford of quality designed construction a new, lighter Ford transmission with 105 parts than in 1958, Mr. Wright said.

Every piece of body sheet in the 1959 Ford has been designed to reflect the good taste of the Thunderbird—America's most successfully-styled car. The Thunderbird's crisp, taut lines give the Ford a formal and the impression of a heavier car without the bulk," Mr. Wright said.

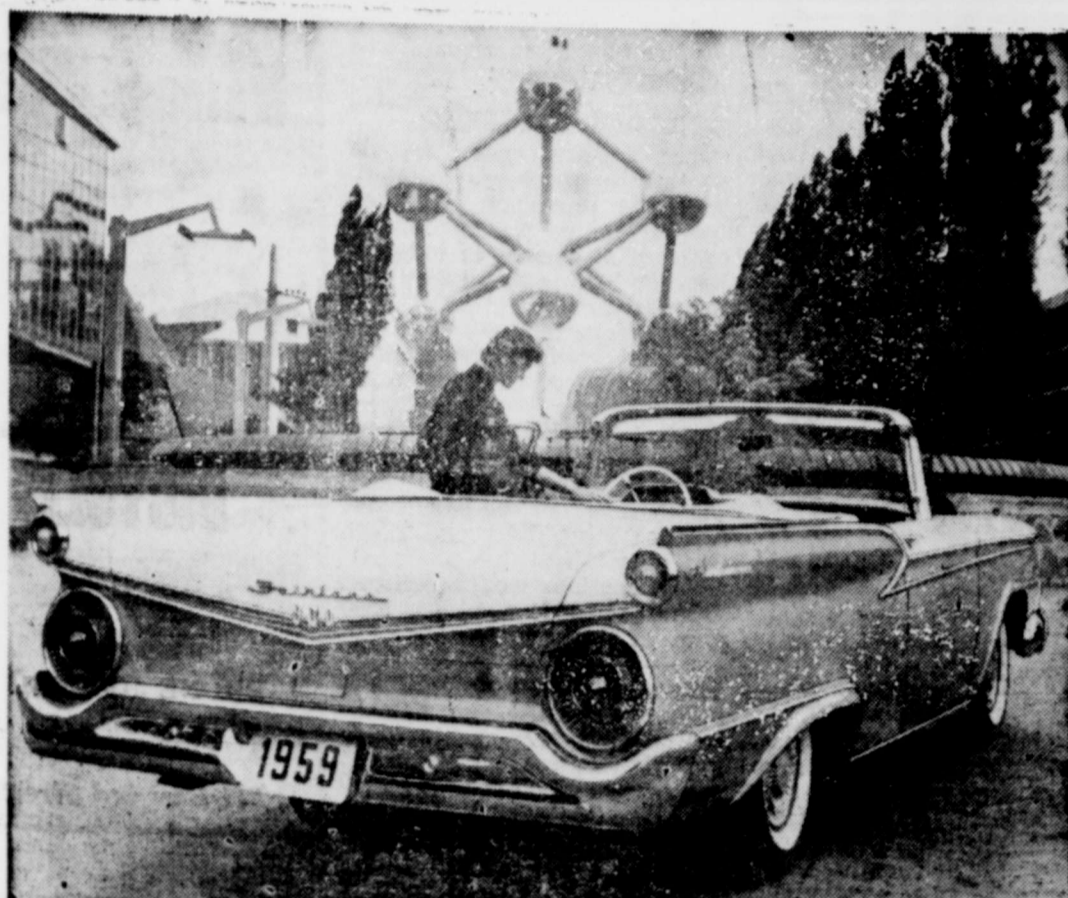

The 1959 Ford engines offer operating economy and improved engine performance in normal driving ranges, 30 to 40 mpg. Ford recommends regular grade gasoline in all standard models.

ard engines, which can result in a saving of up to one dollar a tank full. These benefits have been achieved in part by a slight horse-power reduction.

Mr. Wright said every 1959 Ford is "equally designed," a term Ford engineers use to define the emphasis placed on quality in the basic design of the car, starting from the drawing board stage. The result is a simplified design where possible, elimination of unnecessary parts as in the case of the new transmission, and more durable parts, such as Ford's new extended life muffler and Diamond Lustre finish, an enamel that requires no waxing for the lifetime of the car.

Windshield area has been increased 280 square inches, or 29 percent over 1958 Ford models.

The safety concept of "packaging the passenger" against injury, which Ford introduced to the auto industry, includes as standard features the extra-rugged, five cross-member frames with wide flared side rails, safety door locks and the Lifeguard steering wheel. Safety seat belts, padded instrument panel and padded sun visors are available as optional equipment. Laminated safety glass, which Ford pioneered, is used in the windshield and side windows. The roof is strongly supported at the four corners and reinforced by channel section cross braces.

Shown in a picturesque Brussels World's Fair setting is a 1959 Ford Sunliner convertible. Ford offers two convertibles in 1959: the soft-top Sunliner and the retractable hardtop Skyliner. Ford's tasteful styling theme in 1959 is a result of consumer demand for more elegance and dignity, as opposed to gaudiness or extremism. In the background is the Atomium, prominent landmark at the Brussels World's Fair.

HERE TOMORROW! THE WORLD'S MOST BEAUTIFULLY PROPORTIONED CARS

These Fords you've got to try! For left is the new Thunderbird . . . center, the new Custom 300 Tudor Sedan . . . and above, the 9-passenger Country Sedan.

AWARDED THE GOLD MEDAL for beautiful proportions—by the Comité Français de l'Élégance at the Brussels World's Fair

The elegant new Fairlane 500 Town Victoria

Stylish, powered and priced for today's driving! There never was a Ford like this before! Its classic new design was awarded the Gold Medal of the Comité Français de l'Élégance at the Brussels World's Fair! With new Thunderbird flavor in each lively line and tastefully new interiors, these '59 Fords are beautifully proportioned for elegant driving.

Power, performance and economy are served up in new proportions, too. All standard Ford engines—Six or Thunderbird V-8—thrive on regular gasoline at regular prices. You save up to 5 cents on each gallon! There's a new aluminum muffler that normally will last twice as long as conventional mufflers used on other cars . . . full-flow oil filtration that lets you change oil at 4000 miles instead of the 1000 often recommended . . . new Tyrex cord tires for greater economy and safety . . . a brilliant new Diamond Lustre Baked Enamel Finish that's so durable you won't have to wax it ever . . . and two new economy power-transmission teams that will bring you savings automatically. That's why we say, for '59, Ford is truly a masterpiece of underpricing!

NEW economy team Number One! Get all the high performance of a completely new Fordomatic Drive teamed with a Six or Thunderbird V-8—at a price that puts automatic driving within everyone's car budget. It's a simplified Fordomatic with nearly 1/3 fewer parts.

NEW economy team Number Two! Take Ford's versatile new Cruise-O-Matic Drive, add the responsiveness of Thunderbird Special V-8 power and you have the last word in automatic driving plus the "built-in" overdrive savings of an economy-geared axle.

Altogether NEW in everything you can see, feel or touch!
