Johnson Warns We'll Win or Lose In Few Hours

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson said Sunday that America cannot rely upon a "crystal ball" method of guessing Soviet intentions in "an age of fifteen minute attack."

In a radio broadcast to his Texas constituents, Sen. Johnson said that modern technology has reached a point where, in the event of aggression, "we will win or lose according to the forces that we have on the day of the attack itself."

"If we have sufficient force to strike back at once, it is unlikely that an aggressor will even dare to attack. But if we do not have such force, our prospects would be bleak indeed."

Sen. Johnson said that one of the basic problems of defending our country is to determine just what constitutes "enough" in the way of defensive forces. In the past, he said this country has tried to answer that question by determining Soviet capabilities. "The new Secretary of Defense, Mr. Gates," he continued, "says that we are now basing our programs not upon what the Soviets can do but what they intend to do."

He said that the Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee and the Armed Services Preparedness Subcommittee are trying to bring out all of the facts of the impact of this new theory upon our defense program in hearings which started Friday.

Modern Study Club To Participate In Sewing Contest

Pattern books and travel folders will make favored reading for many members of the Modern Study Club starting today.

Mrs. Bill Reasoner has just announced the clubs plans to enter the 3rd Annual Fashion Sewing contest sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and Vogue Pattern Service, in cooperation with the Woman's Forum club Service Bureau of New York City. First prize in this national contest is a trip to Europe, with other awards including trips to the Federation's annual convention in Washington, D. C. next spring.

All contestants are required to make and model an outfit which they consider the "Ideal Costume for the Clubwoman's Wardrobe." The winning entry will be selected on the basis of adaptability for various club occasions, overall fashion effect, becomingness to wearer, and workmanship. Judging of entries from the local club is scheduled for a later date. The winner of this judging will be eligible to compete in the Federation's District judging to be held March 1st and 2nd in Ft. Worth where she will vie with winners of other club contests in the District. The District winner, who will receive a subscription to Vogue Magazine and a high fashion pattern, become eligible to compete in the State Federation judging. Prizes at the State level consist of cash awards of $100 and $25 to the first and second place winners.

In the final round of the Fashion-Sewing Contest, the top winner from each state will go on to represent her State in the National judging, to be held in New York City in mid-May. The grand prize for the first place National winner will be a complete three-week fashion tour of Europe for two people. Second and third place winners will receive $500 and $250 respectively. The two top winners will also attend the 1960 GFWC Convention as part of their honors, and the clubs represented by all three National winners will receive important cash awards.

Six Research Fellowships to Be Awarded Texas College Students

Six research fellowships in atomic energy for graduate students in Texas colleges and universities will be awarded this summer by the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation & the General Atomic Division of General Dynamics Corporation, it was announced today by J. The recipients of the six research fellowships will work under the direction of General Atomic scientists on the controlled nuclear fusion research program being jointly sponsored by General Atomic and the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation at the John Jay Hopkins Laboratory for Pure and Applied Science at San Diego, California.

The students will assist in theoretical and experimental research in controlled thermonuclear energy as part of the world's first and largest privately financed program in the use of nuclear fusion for the generation of power and energy. Dist. Engineer Highway Dept. C. of C. Speaker

L. B. Dean, Wichita Falls, District Engineer for the Texas State Highway Department, spoke at the C. of C. monthly luncheon group Monday noon. Mr. Dean laid part of the blame for the delay in purchasing right of way for the expressway from Burkburnett to Wichita Falls on the Federal government, and part on the Texas Highway Department. Mr. Dean told those present that the Federal government's road building and right of way funds, and also those of Texas, were depleted about the time this right of way should have been bought, some two years ago.

Mr. Dean praised Clark Gresham, Commissioner of Precinct No. 2 for his cooperation on the project and assured those present that the business of buying right of way would proceed as rapidly as it can under the slow process of appraisals which must be followed according to law.

From Mr. Dean's talk, it can be assumed that the actual work of building the expressway will not be accomplished in the very near future.

In answering a direct question, Mr. Dean stated that it was his understanding that the Texas Highway Dept. is ready to begin work on the new Red River bridge East of Burk, any time the Oklahoma Dept. is ready.

Mrs. A. H. Lohofener read the minutes of the previous meeting in the absence of Marjorie Hofacket, secretary, who was busy issuing car licenses in the office.

C. A. Morgan, president, was in charge of the meeting. Sixty-four attended.

Yardstick Of National Well Being

There's a great deal of controversy over Russia's economic and scientific achievements. But one thing is sure, the Soviet leaders are masters of propaganda. The Russian people are deluged day and night with words designed to make them believe that communism does more for the masses than any other system. And Russian visitors to this country, from Khrushchev down the line, take every conceivable opportunity to try to "sell" Russia's progress and superiority.

Well, no one can blame them for that—it's their job as dedicated communists. But when we get down to facts, the picture takes on a very different hue.

There's only one way to judge the material well-being of a people—and that is by the yardstick of how much the average man's income will buy in the market place. With one month's wages, an American can buy 6 1-2 suits and 24 pairs of shoes. With one month's wages, on the other hand, a Russian can buy half a suit and a single pair of shoes. The situation is comparable in the case of most other consumer goods beyond the bare necessity level.

In Russia, the government produces practically everything and practically everything is sold in government stores. Government decides all questions, what shall be produced and sold, of what quality, at what price. There is no competition.

In America, on the other hand, there's competition every inch of the way from the source of raw materials to the finished goods offered at retail. The producer or retailer who is able to offer the widest choice and best quality at least cost gets the trade. And that's one of the main reasons why the American worker, with his month's pay, can buy so many suits and shoes if he so desires, and the Soviet worker so few.

Mass merchandising methods, pioneered in the United States, gives customers super services in foods and all manner of personal and home necessities not enjoyed elsewhere. ETAOI ETAO Eii4

Potentialities Unlimited

J. Russell Duncan, president of the Minneapolis-Moline Company, a leading producer of mechanized farm equipment, has made some interesting proposals concerning the vexing farm surplus problem.

For one thing, he says, there should be an extensive research program designed to develop new uses for farm products in clothing, plastics, chemicals and so on, and to put existing farm acreage to different crop uses. This field, he points out, is virtually untouched, and the potentialities are almost unlimited.

For another thing, he goes on, we should be far more active, far more aggressive, in selling farm products to other nations. The American farmer is the lowest cost agricultural producer in the world, despite high American wages. So Mr. Duncan urges that the sale of farm products be promoted in times of surplus with the "Same ingenuity of pricing and merchandising" as shown by the automobile industry when it is faced with overproduction.

There will be differences of opinion as to just how to go about such a program as this. But, administrative details to one side, something like it will have to be undertaken, and soon, if order is to take the place of an incredibly expensive chaos in American farm production and surpluses.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

SPOKANE, WISC., HERALD: "If a fraction of the money appropriated for armament were directed toward true assistance of the underprivileged nations, the whole earth could be transformed into a garden of Eden, provided men do not forget the art of work and enterprise."

CLARISSA, MINN., INDEPENDENT: "Over United States objections, the Social Committee of the United Nations General Assembly decided that reporters should 'gather' news, not seek it. The vote was 30 to 29 with 7 abstentions. The discussion brought out that the public in the West expects to be informed on world affairs by 'probing' reporters, whereas the communist bloc and other dictatorial-minded nations regard them as international gate crashers, noisy trouble makers and spies. We prefer the freedom of the press of our country, which enables the press to make Americans the best informed people in the world."

Legion Notes

Francis Perry, Commander

Our regular business meeting night and we urge Legionnaires to be present. Have a buddy you think is eligible to become a member, invite him to come and sign up. Our meetings are at 8:00 p. m. and let us be punctual if possible as not to miss anything of interest. We have reached our goal that we had hoped to reach with more new members. Every one should get at least 10 members a month for that makes an organization prosper. For the past meetings, our Legionnaires have made a very good job by being present and voting in of new officers is almost here, so you to be ready to vote one you think is capable of most eligible to fill the position. The only way you can find out who the right man is due to your presence at regular meetings and among legion members. Over Legionnaires, the man to put in office will be you.

The American Legion Post 264 wants to thank each and every one who participated in the contributions the past year in making needy families happy and more comfortable. We gave 21 boxes of groceries last Christmas. The American Legion gave clothes and bought shoes for the underprivileged children and elders besides. We also gave many boxes of assorted candies, fruits and nuts to the little children here in this city and surrounding areas. We wish to thank Preston Dairy for the part they played in donating milk which they have done in the past several years. We wish to thank the Henry Bakery for donating cakes and donuts for the past several years and what they did last year in helping make someone happy.

Our Ladies Auxiliary club will hold their regular business meeting tonight, opening at 8:00 p. m. Mrs. Helen Flemming, president and Mrs. Mary Mathis, secretary would love to see every lady member present so as to get familiar with the Parliamentary procedures. These ladies have achieved quite a lot in the past months. All you ladies who have husbands or relatives in the Legion should by all means become members of the American Legions Ladies Auxiliary club. Once a member, always a member that is their motto. During the past meetings, there has been a nice turn out of the wonderful lady members of this club and they are continuing to be cooperative and active. Ladies of the Auxiliary club, our hats off to you for your good work. After the meeting there will be a social with refreshments.

At this time we Legionnaires would like to salute the Man of the Month. This gentleman is well known to everyone of this city and other localities. We take great pleasure in making mention of Mr. Billy (the Barber) Reynolds. He and his wife have been active in this post and we Legionnaires owe them a big round of applause. We have known Billy as just one of the boys and his wonderful wife as just Vicki. They have some fine children who are loved by everyone. Billy and Vicki Reynolds, we think you are just wonderful and with that statement from us Legionnaires, you good people will never be forgotten as long as we live. Just keep the good work up.

The group found that just any old shade won't do. A shade must become the base, balance it in width and depth, the fabric must be in keeping with the base, and in harmony with its surroundings. Best way to get the right kind is to try the shade on the base. You may have to cover a frame in order to get the right fabric and color to fit other furnishings. Lurking in the attic may be an old shade of right proportions to recover. Frames should have at least 6 ribs, 8 are better. After sanding frame, it is painted with white enamel.

Covering your own shade is easy if you follow a few recommended steps, according to Thelma Wirges HD agent.

Amount of fabric to buy depends on size of shade. Measure along a rib from top to bottom, then add 3 inches. Measure along lower rim between 2 opposite ribs (half the circumference) & add 3 inches. Measurement along rib must be on lengthwise grain of material. Two sections this size is needed for lining.

About 3 packages of bias twill tape or 1 inch bias rayon strips are needed for covering. Matching thread is used for stitching seams and sewing bias trim over ribs. For sewing cover to frame a special glaze twist is used. Fold trimming for top and bottom is glued in place with transparent fabric glue which will not turn yellow. Sharp pins may hold bias fold while glue is drying. Pointed bias tabs are pulled over edge to trim ends and give professional finish, the goal of the workshop members.

Following the pre-workshop 23 leaders were selected to attend a two day workshop where they will cover shades. After the leaders receive training they have plans to conduct small workshops in all parts of the county and teach 169 other homemakers.

Leaders selected are: Mesdames C. E. Nolan, Chas. Wells, Ocie Merritt, Roy Tatum, J. A. Fouts, Nettie Culpepper, Margaret Littiken, E. W. Roderick, H. W. Krusemark, Lee Cooper, Frank Midkiff, Ernest Masters, Albert Arnold, Bill Lalk, W. H. McAlister, A. J. Reynolds, Geo. Wyatt, Ross Allen, J. L. Cato, A. L. Dowden, Hettie Rogers and A. Johnson.

If interested in learning to cover a shade, contact one of the leaders for instructions and dates for their community workshop.

Mesdames J. L. Graham, Emil Flusche, Howard Smith, Sidney Smith and Elizabeth Smith assistant county HD agent and Miss Thelma Wirges county HD agent attended a district training meeting on hat making, this past week.

They were trained with other agents and club members from the district in Vernon, the District office. If interested in learning to make a hat contact one of the above. If there is enough interested similar training will be given in the county. Since training is given by an out of county leader, there is a charge for the lesson.

Mesdames V. C. Lamb, J. L. Graham Elizabeth Smith and Miss Thelma Wirges attended a training meeting for work with the Texas Home Demonstration Association this week. The training was given in Benjamin, under direction of Mrs. Clarence Davis, vice president for the district. Plans were made for district meeting, as well as work for the year.

What's the Outlook for the rest of 1960? This is a question received many times during January, says Thelma Wirges, county HD agent.

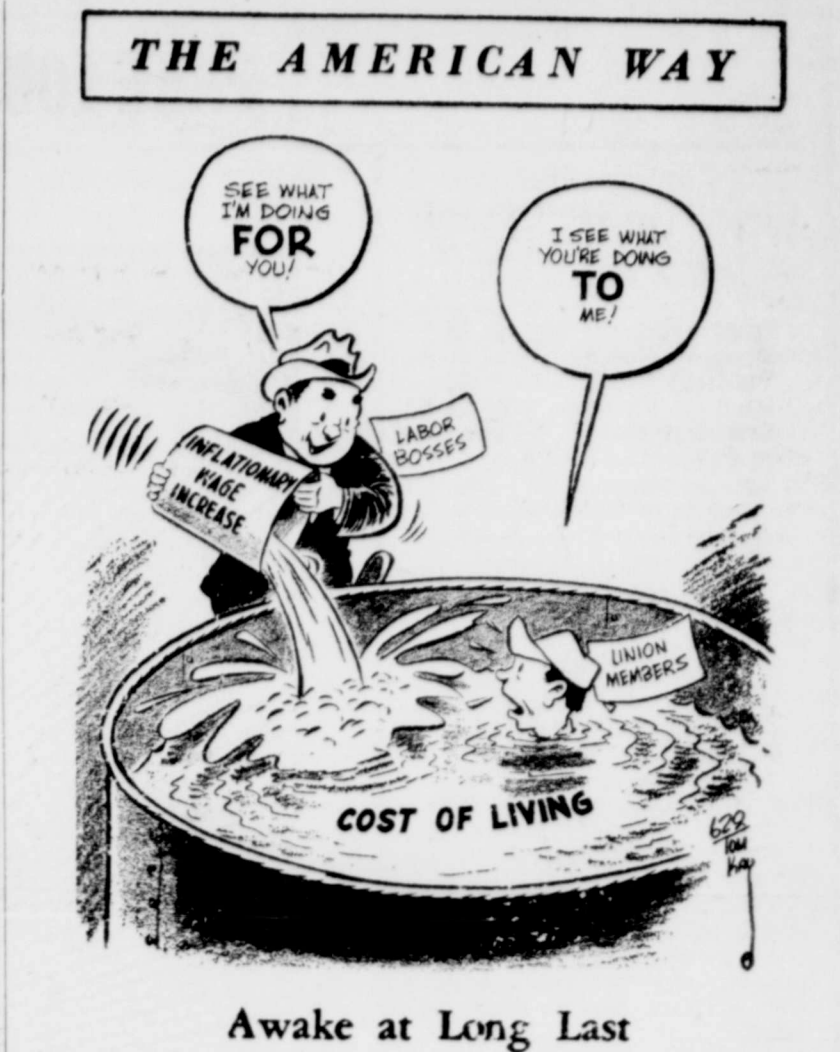

The general picture is for a continuation of rises in production, sales and retail prices of major household appliances and furniture in 1960. No radical changes or improvement in equipment design or function are expected.

Prospects for the passage of a Federal Fair Trade Act during the next session of Congress are regarded in various quarters as ranging from 'poor' to 'good'. The enactment of such legislation would largely affect prices of household and small electrical appliances which are currently being sold far below manufacturers list prices.

The trend to upgrade items, that is, shift them gradually up the quality scale, may continue. This means that yesterday's deluxe or luxury item is today's standard model, but by tomorrow it may be obsolete.

Manufacturers and distributors now provide a great deal of information on furnishings and equipment. Information to guide consumers is also available from county HD agents offices.

The trend in cities for both rental and owner occupied dwellings has been upward for some years. The expectation for 1960 is that rents will continue to increase moderately, as costs to landlords increase. Likewise costs for homeowners are likely to rise. Property taxes have been increasing steadily as the cost for local service increases and as needs for a growing population must be met. Demand for both rental and home owner units will continue strong in most areas.

Prospective home builders may expect increases in prices of building materials, averaging in the neighborhood of 1%. Government supported mortgage rates have advanced this year to 6 1-4 percent for FHA loans including the 0.5 percent insurance premium paid by the borrower and 5 1-4% for veterans loans, the highest rates ever allowed in these programs. Mortgage interest rates will show some additional increase.

The above information was taken from a report on the Washington D. C. conference.

With the upward trend in cost of furnishings and equipment, the home demonstration program is making an attempt to help families make an attempt to help families make the most of what they have and plan before they buy. To do this the following activities are being conducted for all interested homemakers.

1. Miss Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent has trained 23 leader to cover lamp shades and give those old lamps a face lifting. These leaders are now teaching other home makers in small workshop groups.
 2. A workshop on refinishing furniture has been planned for March. All interested homemakers may attend a pre-workshop meeting, Thursday, March 3rd in the Texas Electric auditorium.
 3. Buying large Electrical equipment will be studied and very helpful information presented in a special group meeting in May.
- If interested in participating in any of these, contact one of the Wichita County Home Improvement Committee members. They are Mesdames Gale Lowrance, J. L. Graham, Marcie West, Knox Smith, T. C. Adams, and V. E. Halton or Miss Thelma Wirges, county HD agent, 305 Federal building.
- The home improvement committee planned this work and will soon plan for another year. They welcome suggestions from any Wichita County Homemaker.

The Wichita County homemakers met this past week for a pre-workshop meeting on covering lampshades.

The group found that just any old shade won't do. A shade must become the base, balance it in width and depth, the fabric must be in keeping with the base, and in harmony with its surroundings. Best way to get the right kind is to try the shade on the base. You may have to cover a frame in order to get

TAKE YOUR PROBLEMS TO CHURCH -- MILLIONS LEAVE THEM THERE

New doorways are fascinating, especially strange exotic doors. They are so because they promise unexperienced wonders, untasted experiences. Old doorways are friendly because they promise the security of the known and the comfortable.

The doorway to a church is of still another kind; it is a doorway to hope. Man works and plays with great zeal, but in the end he knows that something greater than work or play is the real meaning of life and so he goes to Church. There he worships the Giver of meaning, Our Father in Heaven. Be sure you open this doorway and let hope shine into your life.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

In a poll conducted by the National Federation of Independent Business of the nation's independent businessmen, 76% favored the bill introduced by Sen. John Sparkman to permit tax allowances for inventory increases.

Perhaps this bill, more than any one single measure, would reduce distressed selling, cut down bankruptcies among independent retailers and wholesalers.

It is a sad commentary on the times, but the fact remains that in the high level of bankruptcies of the past few years, many business firms have gone to the wall which were in a fairly healthy condition except for one thing.

That was lack of liquid cash.

There is an easily understandable explanation for this.

For most businesses, there is no practical way of keeping books on a cash basis. Instead, an accrual system is used. The business is not taxed on the amount of cash it has at the end of the tax year, but rather on the increased assets in the business at the end of the year, of which inventory is a large part.

As an example, it is well to consider a car dealer, although the same principle applies to an appliance dealer, a dry goods merchant, or others.

So, to carry out this illustration, at the start of his tax year an auto dealer has in stock $10,000 worth of cars. In his area, due to strikes, unemployment, or other factors, his business is depressed, so that sales are low.

Yet, due to new models coming in during the year, or to meet terms of a franchise agreement, or even due to having to take back substantial repossessions, or for other reasons, at the end of the year his inventory has jumped from $10,000 to $30,000.

Under the tax formula, his assets have increased $20,000, thus this is a taxable amount.

But in the meantime, all of his cash has gone into this inventory. Now this may be all sound merchandise, and given the chance to work out this inventory at the proper times, he can recover.

However, tax bills demand immediate cash. So he is forced to cut prices to the bone to raise cash, but sometimes this strategy will not raise sufficient cash.

Thus, this business becomes bankrupt for the lack of cash, although as far as accountants are concerned, including tax accountants, the assets of the business showed a healthy gain during the year.

It is also possible in a year of big government spending for foreign give aways for inflation during the year to boost the inventory values for tax purposes.

The bill introduced by Sen. Sparkman proposes to permit businessmen who end up a year with increased inventories to deduct up to $10,000 from taxable income to offset what is often tantamount to disaster.

In the long run, by preventing, or at least mitigating, ruinous price cutting to raise cash, or bankruptcy, the government would gain in tax collections, because once a business goes under, it is no longer a taxpayer.

SPORT BITS

By NORMAN WILSON

Combine fried chicken, home made rolls and pecan pie with a speech by TCU head coach Abe Martin and you have the ingredients for a fine time. This is just what the folks at Olney did Saturday evening at the annual district 2A-9 football banquet.

There were the usual introductions and recognition of the all-district team of which our own Carlos Ramsey was a part. Each boy received a certificate for his outstanding effort. But the center of attraction was Coach Martin.

Othol (Abe) Martin, reputed to be a past "cotton pickin' champ of Jack County, immediately established a rapport with his audience with his folksy manner. A different kind of speaker would never have been able to do this, using high sounding phrases. It was not the time and place for such a speech.

Abe related several anecdotes about his coaching career, among them, some stories about Chuck Curtis, late of TCU, now head man at Jacksboro. It seems that Coach Martin's three year contract had one year left on it when Chuck began to click, resulting, according to Coach Martin, in a brand new contract. "Abe" maintains that Chuck is one of his favorite people to this day.

Talking about the parents who wanted to know why my boy is sitting on the bench when he should be on the first string, Coach Martin said that the only man that could really lose was the coach. The boy had had the privilege of being with fine boys and men and had been given the opportunity for an education. Education, according to Coach Martin was really the main thing. Unoubtedly, there are few who will disagree.

After hearing his speech, it is easy to see why a boy would like playing football for Abe. However, he is sure to have a stern streak in him somewhere. His teams have won three southwest conference championships since he took over as head man in 1953. To sum it up, coach Martin is just "Ole Abe."

When we asked about his 1960 edition of the Froggies, he remarked that there would be a lot of enthusiasm, but little else. It always pays to stay on the safe side. However, the boys in purple and white always bear watching.

Coach Clovis Riley of Olney is to report to a new school in Abilene on April 1st. The new school as yet unnamed, will not be in district competition for a couple of years. Good luck.

News From The Congress

By Congressman Frank Ikard

The Administration's budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1961, was officially received by the Congress last week. It calls for expenditures of $79.8 billion, which is $1.4 billion more than estimated expenditures for the fiscal year ending this June. It provides for a slight reduction in spending for national security but proposes increases in nearly all other functions of government. It estimates that revenues in the fiscal year will be $84 billion, which would mean a surplus of $4.2 billion.

There are many facets of this budget that are worthy of consideration and deep concern on the part of both members of Congress and taxpayers. It is doubtful, for example, whether the prediction of a $4.2 billion surplus is real or illusory, since it is based on many "ifs", a highly optimistic forecast of industrial production for the next fiscal year and sharply increased tax receipts; higher postal rates; higher taxes and continuation of excessive Korean War tax rates.

It is a large budget, and there are serious doubts on the part of many Congressmen about whether it nevertheless ignores vital defense needs and accents unnecessary and expensive programs, Clarence Cannon, the highly respected Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, summed up the feeling of many members when he said in a speech on the floor of the House. This budget is too high. It is inflationary. We must cut it. We should probe deeply into every item.

It is questionable whether the budget provides sufficient resources for the United States

Mustangs this fall. The big back was "red shirted" in 1959, giving his three more years eligibility.

Lee Coleman and Julius Jenkins have been elected to captain the 1960 Bulldog football team. Coleman, a back, was a slow starter last year, but came along fast in the later stages of the season. Jenkins, is a regular from last season's aggregation. He is one of the returning linemen.

Glen Lynskey has been elected to head the Burkburnett Quarterback club for 1960. Glen is known far and wide as an ardent supporter of Bulldog athletic teams. He will be assisted by Harold Engel, vice president, and Hugh Veach, secretary-treasurer. Here's to a sizzling '60 fellows.

to close the gap which has opened between ourselves and Russia in the development of missiles. This is a vital matter about which the Administration seems to feel little concern.

The Congress will also have to examine means to reduce the public debt, which at January 1, stood at the staggering total of $290,924,917,718. It has increased more than $25 billion since 1953 and over $240 billion since 1940. The cost for simply paying interest charges on the debt will amount to $9.5 billion in the next fiscal year. Reduction of this huge sum before it chokes our economy is one of Congress' most pressing problems.

It is with these things in mind, the big "ifs" of the surplus; maintenance of the defense establishment; reduction of unnecessary spending and easing of the tremendous debt load, that Congress will approach the President's proposed budget.

The difference: The Soviets try to make their people work for the good of Communism; Americans try to make capitalistic work for the good of the people.

Some people think the ideal occupation is one that doesn't keep them occupied.

One of the most alarming aspects of modern juveniles is that they believe money comes from the government.

YOUR NEW Social Security

Some farm workers in this area are not receiving social security credit for their earnings and are depriving their families of valuable financial protection, according to Erton Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls social security office. These are farm employees who have worked at least 20 days or been paid $150 cash wages by one employer during the year. Either their farm employers do not realize that such earnings should be reported or they feel that it is just too much of a bother," Mr. Tate stated today.

The protective value of proper social security reports filed once yearly was emphasized recently by the death of a local man whom I shall call Ray Sanders," he continued.

Mrs. Sanders and her 3 small children will not be eligible for any social security benefits because the farm operator for whom her husband worked is also deceased. He did not report the employees wages and left no records. Mr. Sanders worked for him only a short time but this credit, if it could have been established, would have been enough when combined with that from his other jobs to give him and his family social security protection. This could have made his family eligible for payments of at least $11,000 in benefits before their baby reached age 18 and additional payments for life to Mrs. Sanders at age 62.

"This, although not a typical case, could happen to almost anyone. Don't let it happen to your family," concluded Mr. Tate. "be sure your farm employer reports your wages; if in doubt, contact your social security office."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS CONCERNING THE NEW CITY SEWER SYSTEM

At the present time the sewer contractors are working on the installation of the sewer line system and construction of the disposal plant. There have been numerous questions asked about it, such as, when will it be completed, what will it cost to connect, etc. The following will maybe answer some of the questions:

Question—When can I tie on?

Answer—No one will be able to connect and start using it until the disposal plant is completed, which could be sometime in the late summer. When the plant is completed each water customer will be mailed a notice that he can connect and start using it.

What will it cost me to connect to the sewer?

It is the opinion of the city commission to have any connection charge for 90 days or possibly 120 days after the sewer is put into operation. After that time there will be a connection charge made. It is very possible that you will be contacted by a plumber about running your service line about the same time the main line is installed. By getting your service line in as far as your septic tank, it will save both time and also tearing up your yard a second time. This will be a deal between the property owner and the plumber.

Can I install my own sewer service line?

Yes. The state plumbing law provides for the owner to be permitted to do his own plumbing work in his own home, provided, that he secures a plumbing permit from the city and has the work inspected by the city plumbing inspector.

Will the sewer main be laid where the stakes are driven?

Not necessarily. Those are grade stakes to be set for laying the pipe to grade and are usually set from the pipe location from 3 to 4 or 5 feet. The line will be located so as to miss the most obstructions and to cause the least property damage. Where there are obstructions in the way or there is a utility easement, you will be contacted about it before the line is installed.

Will the line run in front or to the rear of the house?

With but a few exceptions, the line will be at the rear. That is the way most of the houses are plumbed and it will be less expensive to the owner to hook on that way. Of course, there will be a few cases where the line may be in front for some reason, but very few.

These are some of the questions that seem to be uppermost in many people's minds and it is hoped that this will enlighten them to some extent.

Wherever there is progress there will be problems arise that require the co-operation of everyone concerned to work them out.

If you have any questions concerning the sewer system, please feel free to call the city manager's office and we will try to answer them as nearly as we can with the information we have at hand.

Completion of the Interstate Highway System, including 3,033 miles of top standard expressways, may save as many as 300 Texans a year from traffic deaths. State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer says that accident records show that controlled access expressways are three times safer.

Also he said, they move three to four times as much traffic. Greer estimates that the Interstate Highway System when completed, will save one life a year for each 10 miles of road.

Target year for getting Texas highways to desired standard is 1975. By that time, said the state highway engineer, the state probably will have 70,000 miles in the state highway system compared to the present 60,000. There will be 5,500 miles of multi-lane highways compared to 2,168 today.

MORE SPEED?

Whether speeds in excess of 60 miles per hour should be legalized for some of the state's top notch highways will be subject of study between now and the next Legislature.

Committees of the Texas Good Roads Ass'n are to consider this and whether gasoline taxes should be upped to gain school funds.

Gov. Daniel has suggested the possibility of raising money for school improvement and teacher salaries through a higher gasoline tax. TGRA, made up of people interested in road building, has, in the past, opposed draining taxes paid by road users for non-highway purposes.

Higher speed limits have been proposed before for four-lane highways, but have failed to pass the Legislature.

DEFICIT GROWS—

Deficit in the state's general revenue fund has reached $78,647,301, an all time high, says State Treasurer Jesse James.

Things should look better after May 1st, when corporation franchise taxes will be paid, he adds.

APPOINTEES—

Appointed by Gov. Daniel to the Texas Commission on Educational Standards are Mrs. W. D. DeGrassi of Amarillo, Horace K. Jackson of Gatesville, Reynaldo Garza of Brownsville, Cullum Greene of Ft. Worth & Mrs. E. P. Lamberth of Dallas. To the Educational Commission, Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey names Everett Collier of Houston, Joe Anderson of Lufkin, Sens. William Fly of Victoria, Floyd Bradshaw of Weatherford, and Ray Roberts of McKinney.

House Speaker Waggoner Carr designated Mrs. Harry Patterson of Houston, John McKee of Dallas, Reps. C. T. Matthews of Yoakum, Leon Thurman of Anson and Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville, as his appointees to the Educational Commission.

NEW GAME HEADS—

Frank M. Wood of Wichita Falls has been elected chairman of the Game and Fish Commission to succeed Herb Frenley of Houston. New members of the commission are Carl L. Dupuy of Lufkin, H. A. Walsh of El Paso, J. F. Corley of Houston and W. O. Reed of Dallas.

BUG DELAYS DECISION—

"Flu Bug", besides felling Texans by the thousands, contributed to a delay in deciding one of the state's most talked about issues, the new Safe driving Insurance Plan.

With the other two State Insurance Board members ill, Chairman Jenn Jackson said it would be at least several days before the board would announce changes, if any, in the plan.

Board member Robert W. Strain was in bed with the flu, and Joe P. Biggs, other member was convalescing from a heart attack.

Under the merit plan the Board set auto insurance premiums lower for drivers with no record of accidents or traffic violations and proportionately higher for those who have accident and violation records.

Gov. Daniel has said that he hoped the Board would make "some changes" in the plan, but declined to elaborate. Some legislators declare that unless non-accident causing violations and the three year retroactive features are taken from the plan, it will be so unpopular the Legislature will have to change it if the Board doesn't.

But most Texas insurance men declare that, given a fair chance the plan will grow in favor with the public. They believe there will be an over-all drop in insurance costs as the driving public learns the relationship between bad driving habits and high insurance premiums.

Anti Narcotics Aid Promised—

Gov. Daniel has promised El Paso every possible help in combatting its problem of being "a major distribution point of an international narcotics ring."

In response to a telegram in which El Paso Judge Woodrow Bean cited the city's "major" problem, the governor conferred with state and federal authorities. Daniel said he was assured after talking with Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety that DPS men were and would continue to work with local law enforcement officials in El Paso in fighting narcotics traffic.

Also, said the governor, he has been told by the Federal Narcotics Commission that eight federal customs agents in El Paso also do anti narcotics work. Federal Commissioner H. J. Anslinger promised the governor to survey and consider the request for a special federal narcotics agent in El Paso.

Lower Train Fares Sought—

Railroad Commission has set a hearing Feb. 9th on a request by Texas railroads to reduce passenger fares between Houston and Dallas and Ft. Worth.

Railways want to reduce the round trip fare from Houston to Dallas from $13.05 to $9 and the fare from Houston to Fort Worth from $14.80 to $10.

A spokesman for the Railroad Commission said that no opposition was expected from rail companies not making these runs.

SPORTS BITS

by NORMAN WILSON

Mrs. Richard Lindsey and her ulated for an outstanding sea- "B" team girls are to be congrat- son. They won a convincing 12 out of 13 games, losing only to the powerful Lockett girls. This is Mrs. Lindsey's first year at the helm, but if this is a pattern then next season should be a good one. Mrs. Lindsey coached last year at Azle. Rheba Friels walked off with scoring honors for the season, dropping in 113. Mary Durham is to be commended for dependability. Mary played 49 out of 52 quarters played this season. Several of these girls should give Coach Carol Smith bright prospects for the coming year.

The girls "A" team was again on the victorious side of the ledger when they won a close one 35-31 over Jacksboro girls Friday night in a 3 minute overtime. Janice Martin and Sharon Nix were high with 12 each and Janelle Sanders was very close behind with 11.

In games involving the "A" team boys last week, they lost to the Nocona Indians Tuesday night 31-49, with Bobby Lewis winning high point honors with 14. Eddie Eastman had 8. Friday night, the boys tackled the Jacksboro Tigers and lost 32-46. Lewis again copped point honors with 15. Don Kennedy, spoh. center was next with 8. Monday night of this week, the Iowa Park Hawks won handily 23-55. Sharp shooting Bobby Lewis was again the man of the hour for the orange and black and dropped in 15 markers. Don Mason, freshman center had 4. Friday night, the "A" team boys and girls will team for a twin bill with the Olney Cubs in Olney. Next Tuesday, the Decatur Eagles will come to Burkburnett for a joust with the boys and girls "A" teams. In other action next week, Friday night will see the Bulldogs on the home court of the Bowie Jack-rabbits.

Get the quiet proof of Chevrolet's superior performance on the road—No other car in the low-priced three can match the borne-on-the-wind sensation you get from a ride in the 1960 Chevrolet. But that's not surprising when you consider to what lengths Chevy has gone to provide for your comfort at no extra cost to you. As you drive, count the ways Chevrolet has been thoughtful:

Supple Full Coil suspension—Coil springs at all four wheels melt bumps as no other suspension can. Taking the punch out of rough roads is their only function—they don't have to anchor the rear axle.

Butyl rubber body mounts—Thicker, newly designed body mounts further insulate you from the road. Body by Fisher—Only Chevy in its field offers the polish and craftsmanship of Body by Fisher.

Foam cushioned seats—Chevy offers foam cushioned seats in both front and rear in all series but one. Safety-Girder frame—X-built and not merely X-braced, the Safety-Girder frame affords greater rigidity to minimize twisting and squeaks.

Hydraulic valve lifters—Oil hushed hydraulic valve lifters reduce engine noise to a whisper.

Cushioned steering shaft—A universal joint and cushioned coupling keep those annoying road tremors from the steering wheel.

Precision balanced wheels and tires—Here again Chevy has shown concern for your comfort by eliminating vibration in this vital area—tire life is longer, too.

Easy steering ratio—Chevy's high ratio Ball Race steering takes the work out of steering for you.

Superior weight distribution—Chevy rides better, handles better and stops better because the car's weight is more equally divided between the front and rear wheels.

Wide choice of power teams—Choose from 24 different power combinations to satisfy the itchiest driving foot—more than any other car.

Now—fast delivery, favorable deals! See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer!

Mrs. John Brookman
Hostess February 1st
Dorcus SS Class

The Dorcus class of the First Baptist church met in the home of Mrs. John Brookman Feb. 1st with Mrs. Charles Boyd, president, presiding. Group No. 4 with Mrs. L. B. Horr as group captain, were hostesses. In the absence of Mrs. Ray Mills, who was in the hospital, Mrs. J. C. Adams had charge of the program. Mrs. Cheney brought the devotional on Love and then had special prayer by Mrs. Lohofener for all the sick and absent members. All the group joined hands and sang Blest Be the Tie that Binds. Roll call was answered by a Valentine given by Mrs. Adams, signed and sent on to the vice president, Mrs. Mills.

A very interesting contest was carried out and was enjoyed by all the group. Reports were given by all the committees and work planned for the coming month.

Twenty members, one visitor, Mrs. Good of Kilgore, Tex., sister of Mrs. G. C. Harris, two service group members, Mrs. Minick and the gracious hostess, Mrs. Brookman, were served a delicious plate carrying out the Valentine motif.
