Melvin O. Griffith Trucker of the Year

Melvin O. (Jack) Griffith, 48, has been named by the American Trucking Associations as 1961 Driver of the Year. A veteran of 28 years as a tank truck driver for Eagle Transport, Mr. Griffith is a resident of Big Springs, Tex. He was cited for more than two million miles of accident free driving and for his quick thinking in aiding seriously injured victims of a 2 car collision. Mr. Griffith earned Texas the distinction of being the first State to have national drivers of the year in consecutive years.

State Representative Vernon Stewart Here Wednesday Morning

Vernon Stewart, State Representative, was in Burk Burnett Wednesday morning and paid a call to the Star Office.

Mr. Stewart briefly reviewed the past session of the Legislature and defended its actions in this respect:

Although some seem to believe the Legislature did nothing, since a tax measure or measures were not passed, Mr. Stewart said this was one of the hardest working sessions in his memory. Many good bills were passed, while no bad ones got through.

Representative Stewart does not believe a general sales tax bill is necessary at present. He cited a great number of inequities under present tax laws, which, if equalized, would bring in enough revenue to tide the state over another two years. Vernon believes the Legislature should, in the coming special session which convenes July 11th, equalize taxes, and get by as long as possible without a sales tax.

Vernon, on the Oil and Gas committee, is serving his district well. He is one of the most conscientious, hard working representatives Wichita County has had in many, many years.

Annexations in 1960 Set New Record

Municipal annexations in 1960 broke several records, with the number of annexing cities over 5,000 population totaling 712.

As reported by John C. Bolens in an article in the forthcoming 1961 Municipal Year book, the total amount of land absorbed by cities in 1960 was the largest in the last 13 years, 1,083 square miles, two-thirds more than the previous high of 644 square miles in 1956.

Kansas City, Mo., and Oklahoma City, Okla., completed annexations involving two of the largest amounts of territory ever annexed in the history of cities in the United States. Five areas were approved for annexation by the voters and will be added to the city at various times over the next three years. Okla. City annexed 149 square miles. In the two year period of 1956-60, this municipality has grown from 88 to 430 square miles.

Okla. City now is the second largest city in the United States in land area. The third largest annexation completed in 1960, acquisition of 69 square miles by Mobile, Ala., ranks among the annexations of the past 50 years.

City Department Heads Issued Account Books

Clovis Mann, City Manager, presented each Department head an Account Book in a department head meeting, Tuesday afternoon.

The account book shows the balance of appropriated funds remaining in the department's budget account and in each budget item of expenditure. The Department head will present his account book to Mrs. Lahoma Wood, bookkeeper on the 1st of each month for posting of the previous months expenditures and new balances.

In explaining the operation to the department heads, which is new for the city of Burk Burnett, Mann stated "This is just like your bank book. Before requesting a purchase order to make a purchase you will first determine whether or not you have the money to make the purchase. This will help you to control your budget."

If there is a sufficient balance in the budget account, a purchase order showing the account number and the budget item to which the purchase is to be charged is made.

Mann later explained that the "Department Heads Account Book" is not only new to Burk Burnett, but in as far as he knew is the first time that such has been used in any city. Our new budget accounting procedure is the acceptable procedure in most American cities, however, cities usually issue a large sheet at the end of each month full of figures, meaningless to the average department head. This actually offers him no information on which he can have adequate budget control, and for this reason some cities have discontinued the monthly expenditure report, Mann stated.

Mann has wanted to affect the Department Heads Account Book system for a number of years, but this is the first time he has had the opportunity to put it into effect. He claims the time involved in posting the account books is not as great as the time involved in preparing the old report, and that it will give the department head better control.

The City Manager commended the department heads for expenditures to the minimum. Considerable time is involved in obtaining bids on purchases, in talking to salesmen, etc, but with the employment of a City Clerk to help in these matters has already affected a drop in expenditures by as much as $3,000 a month. Mann explained to the department heads that the citizens have a right to expect and demand as much efficiency in governmental operations as there are in any other business.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bowles and boys have returned to their home in Austin following a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chambers and other relatives.

Mrs. G. A. Herrington of Kansas, visited her father, Mr. J. N. Anthony, here several days last week.

Municipal Band "Boomtowners" Receives Praise

Citizens from other towns throughout the area had many comments of praise for Burk Burnett's City band, after hearing them perform for the Boomtown Rodeo.

Several informal invitations were made to the band to come to their city and give an open air concert. Dr. R. M. Sims stated, however, that no formal invitation had been received. Asked if he would accept an invitation, Dr. Sims stated that such an invitation would have to come through the Burk Burnett City Managers office. Transportation might be a problem, but I imagine such things could be worked out if our city should want us to represent them in this capacity.

Clovis Mann, City manager, stated that he had not received any definite invitations for the band to appear in another city, but that city officials from some of the neighboring towns discussed the possibility with him. Mann declined to state whether the band would be permitted to accept such invitations. These details will have to be worked out when the time comes, Mann stated.

Symposium Guest Thanks Electric Co.

June 16, 1961

Dear Mr. Ady: It was my privilege to attend the Nuclear Science Symposium at Texas University in Austin this week under your company's sponsorship. I wish to express my gratitude to you and your company (Texas Electric Service Co.) for permitting me to attend this exercise.

The quality of the program presented was excellent, as well as the food and rooms. The major number of speakers pioneered in the subject of their lecture, thus making these lectures very informative.

I would sum up the results of this experience in saying that said program and experience were most beneficial in two manners:

The students attending were able to observe and converse with noted scientists of national fame, and the students who attended received an incentive to continue to study in the direction of science and physics in particular.

Yours truly, Charles K. McClean

The public is requested not to call City Hall or the Fire Department (except to report another emergency) as the phones must be kept clear to handle emergency calls only. Personnel on duty have instructions to refuse any information to the general public over the phone, and to hang up immediately in order to clear the line.

Please become familiar with the following signals, as they give all necessary information:

1. Steady continuous sound for 3 minutes: An attack probable. You are to tune your radio to CONELRAD-640 or 1240—for instructions. Civil defense workers are to report to their places of assignment.

2. Warbling tone for 3 minutes: Attack imminent. You are to take cover immediately in best available shelter; or Tornado has been sighted and is headed toward Burk Burnett. You are still to take all possible precautions immediately.

3. Steady continuous sound for at least 5 minutes: All clear signal. The "All Clear" signal will be sounded after all oncoming danger has passed.

You should become thoroughly familiar with the above 3 signals as they are for your benefit. The following signals are primarily for firemen, however, they are listed here for your information. The rules on phone usage still apply:

4. One steady continuous signal for at least 30 seconds but not more than 1 minute: Fire within the city limits.

5. Two distinct signals, not more than 30 seconds each: Fire outside the city limits.

6. Three distinct signals, not more than 30 seconds each: Other emergency where firemen are needed.

Your cooperation in this matter will be appreciated.

And Then He Screamed

Most people pay their federal income taxes via the withholding system. The employer keeps back a certain percentage of the paycheck and turns it over to the government.

Many workers don't have any accurate idea of just how much is deducted, so some concerns have adopted novel ways of driving the lesson home.

One, for instance, set up two adjoining pay windows. At the first each employee was given his full check, without deductions. But he had to go at once to the second window and shell out his tax for that pay period.

Another used a different means of achieving the same purpose. An employee whose pay was $100 a week was given the full amount, without any deductions, for three weeks. But at the end of the fourth week the pay envelope held a paltry $23.60. When he screamed in protest the tax story was explained to him. His four-week bill was $76.40, and the company had taken it all in one big bite, instead of four smaller ones.

A publication of the Florida Power and Light Company, after telling of these two devices to make employees more tax conscious, observes: "Employees who suddenly have been jolted by the size of the tax bite, usually develop a less complacent viewpoint. They see the connection between high federal spending and the lump of tax money chopped from their paychecks."

The country needs more of that kind of jolting of the taxpayers.

Grass Roots Opinion

MOSINEE, WISC., TIMES: "Will the proposed minimum wage increase (up to $1.25 an hour) hurt the ones it's supposed to help? Let's dig a bit. "Sure we favor everyone getting a fair shake on the job. But since when did raising the cost of labor increase the number of job opportunities? We've always found the reverse to be true."

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

It is more than of passing interest that Luther Hodges, Secretary of Commerce, is talking quite openly of putting representatives of small business on the Business Advisory Council of the Commerce Dept.

As of this writing, this has not been done, but orders have gone out that sessions of this council shall be open to the press whenever a government man is addressing the council.

Some time ago the Hon. C. W. Harder, Secretary of Independent Businessmen, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, requested that small business representatives be included in the Federal Reserve Board. This expressed intention of Secretary Hodges is along the same line.

For many years now, the Business Advisory Council composed only of executives of huge enterprises, have periodically sequestered themselves at some spot such as Sea Island, Georgia, and in closed sessions formulated economic policies for the guidance of the executive branch of the government.

But up until this time, no one in official position such as Secretary Hodges has pointed out fallacy of developing programs and policies from viewpoint of huge business alone.

After all, the bulk of American employment is afforded by small and independent business, and there are many great and profound differences between the viewpoints and the needs of the giant corporations and independent enterprise.

So many of these differences are so obvious that it seems almost ridiculous that the executive branch of the government, unlike Congress which set up the House and Senate Small Business committees, has never brought small business into these consultations.

For example, there is bound to be profound differences of opinion between the head of a huge corporation operating in many counties throughout the nation, and an independent company operating on Main Street and depending on sales through the Main Streets throughout the nation.

In addition, there is no mantle of infallibility deserved by Big Business.

Perhaps the best example of this fact is the way that Detroit slept while foreign built compact cars made huge inroads into the American market to the detriment of many people including their own dealers.

As a matter of fact, small business is always more sensitive to what is going on. After all, it but makes sense. The more reserve cash either an individual or a business has, the less sensitive it becomes. But those who operate on limited capital must of sheer necessity have keen awareness of what is going on at all times.

Thus Secretary Hodges' desire to put small business representation on the Business Advisory Council, if put into action, could do a great deal to make Commerce Department an integral part of U. S. welfare instead of the vague, little understood, and ineffective bureau it has long been.

Highway Patrol Accident Report

The highway patrol investigated 23 accidents on rural highways in Wichita County during the month of May, according to Sgt. F. E. Webster, highway patrol supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for one person killed, ten injured and a property damage of $25,469.00.

This brings the total for the first five months of 1961 in this county to 71 rural traffic crashes resulting in two persons being killed, 30 injured and a combined property damage amounting to $47,651.00.

After noting the accident picture for this county for the first five months of this year, the Sergeant pointed out another significant fact. As summer approaches with longer days and additional good driving weather the driver should be especially aware of the danger period at dusk. Many accidents happen during this period. One cause of this is the driver fails to turn his lights on soon enough. Although the law sets out when lights must be turned on, the driver should also use his own good judgement. Any time a driver cannot see an unlighted object approximately one-half mile away, he should turn his lights on. He may be able to see the other driver, but can the other driver see you?

Henry Clay is credited with saying "I'd rather be right than president."

Melvin Jones, Founder of Lionism Dead

Melvin Jones, Founder and Secretary-General of Lion's International died at his home in Flossmor, Illinois, June 1st at the age of 82. Thousands of Lions, civic leaders and governmental dignitaries paid their respect at the funeral home where he lay in state.

It was in 1915 when Jones became a member of the Business Circle of Chicago, which held their weekly luncheon in the Old Boston Oyster House. Jones was in the Insurance business.

The Business circle, like hundreds of similar business men's clubs throughout the country, was composed of leaders in many fields of trade and commerce. Its slogan, as one surviving member has said, was "You scratch my back and I'll scratch yours." The purpose was business, pure and simple. They met solely for the purpose of advancing their own interest.

In his work with the Circle, Jones began to feel that something was wrong. Here was almost 200 successful, influential business men joined in a club which, if its potential were realized, could have great group influence for good in its community. Why, asked Melvin Jones, couldn't this selfish group power be directed to unselfish service in other areas of community life?

Pursuing this thought, Jones began to write letters to other similar groups with the idea of forming a national association, dedicated to service to others.

On June 7, 1917, at the invitation of Jones, 20 delegates representing 27 clubs from various parts of the United States met in the East Room of Chicago's Hotel LaSalle. The meeting went smoothly and the consensus favored the formation of an association.

Jones had done considerable research into legend, heraldy and zoology and was convinced that the lion stood for courage, strength, fidelity and vital action. On a secret ballot it was tentatively decided to call the new group the "Association of Lions Clubs," and the nucleus of the organization remained to be perfected at the first convention to be held in Dallas, Tex., on Oct. 8-9-10, 1917, and at the second convention at St. Louis, in Aug. of 1918.

In 1950, when Lion membership had passed the 400,000 mark, the International Board of Directors conferred upon Melvin Jones the title of Secretary-General and Founder of Lions International for life.

Many honors came to Melvin Jones in his lifetime. In 1939 the Cuban government decorated him with the National Merit Order of Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, the most cherished of its civilian decorations. In 1945 he was awarded the Order of Merit and Honor of the Cuban Red Cross. In 1932 President Herbert Hoover of the United States named him to a select group of business executives who attended a White House conference to discuss economic problems.

In 1945 Melvin Jones attended a White Conference for preliminary planning of the United Nations, and in April of that year he was in San Francisco representing Lions International as a consultant at the historic organization of the United Nations.

Jones changed the whole concept of club membership with his insistence upon one simple phrase in the constitution of Lions International. "No club shall hold out as one of its objects financial benefits to its members." His homely philosophy of life. "You can't get very far until you start doing something for somebody else," has become the byword of devoted men of good will doing something for the needy and the handicapped of the free world, the miracle that was only a dream short yesterdays ago.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon June 5th, with services at the First Methodist Church of Chicago, the Chicago Temple, and burial in beautiful Mount Hope Cemetery. The last rites were conducted by Dr. Preston Bradley, pastor of the Peoples Church of Chicago, who delivered the eulogy and Dr. Charles Ray Goff, pastor of the Chicago Temple.

Wilbarger-Wichita SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Mesquite control by aerial spraying should be supported by range deferralment, according to Elvy Sargent, Soil Conservationist of Iowa Park. Grasses have had to compete with brush for moisture and often times have been overruled to the extent that plants are shallow rooted and weak.

Burnett Ranch of Iowa Park has sprayed about 6000 acres of mesquite and is now deferring the range until the end of the growing season.

Terraces and a waterway were planned and staked for construction on Mrs. Maude Hicks farm of Burkburnett during the past week. J. C. Hinkle is the operator. Terraces were staked for H. C. Preston of Burkburnett. Hardy L. Gage of Wichita Falls has constructed diversion terraces. Elgin Denny of Iowa Park and Albert and C. H. Arnold of Electra report good increases in wheat yields following Austrian Winter Peas.

Supervisors for the Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District are urging farmers to enter the National Stubble Mulching contest, July 26, 27, and 28.

Hot Brings Cold

Hot water heaters are used to cool water in Smiley, Texas. Sounds outlandish to say the least, doesn't it?

This happy sounding town in Gonzales County, in the central part of South Texas, has a powerful artesian well that pours forth its own hot water.

The town of Smiley pipes this hot water right into the homes. These fortunate Texans have all the hot water they need. But the residents use hot water tanks, not connected for heating purposes, to store the water long enough for it to cool for drinking purposes.

So when in Smiley, remember to turn on the hot water faucet for a cold shower.

Eat Lightly, Live Longer

People in the United States have been made well aware of the virtues of balanced nutrition. Yet overeating is still a major national problem. Even household pets are overfed. Vets do a brisk business in beloved cats and dogs nearly killed with kindness, their delicate digestive systems overloaded with quantities of unnecessary food. Meanwhile, the pet's master and mistress court the undertaker with excess poundage and their children are bloated with gallons of milk and goodies. "Kitty likes it, so we let her eat it." "Junior loves milk with his cake." If some is good for you, more must be even better, seems to be the theory.

There is little doubt that most of us would feel more alive and alert if we ate light nutritious meals. The body is a marvelous and beautifully balanced instrument for living, and it deserves respect. Never overeat at any meal. Eat slowly, eat calmly. (Save those business & problem discussions for a better time.) The chances of your starving to death are mighty slim. On the other hand, the more you eat, the more you can eat and will eat.

Few of us lead active enough lives to need rich, heavy meals. Frontiersmen could consume 10 pounds of buffalo meat a day, but there is more evidence of nervous activity today than of hard physical labor. That means the more easily digested the meals we eat, the better. Try the lighter, natural foods during the hot summer months and see if you don't feel better.

Simple prepared meats and fish, fresh fruits and vegetables, fresh fruit juices and milk drinks, rather than sweet artificial beverages, can all provide necessary nutrition without taxing the digestion and building up fat. A little of the right food will satisfy you more than quantities of the wrong types of food.

One of the major errors in our diet, according to nutritionists, is apt to be a lack of high quality protein. This affects general health and work output and therefore is important enough to the welfare of the country as a whole to have required the particular attention of nutritionists.

Buffalo Clover Festival

Buffalo Clover is what the old settlers called it. Now it's known as the byword of devoted men of good will doing something for the needy and the handicapped of the free world, the miracle that was only a dream short yesterdays ago.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon June 5th, with services at the First Methodist Church of Chicago, the Chicago Temple, and burial in beautiful Mount Hope Cemetery. The last rites were conducted by Dr. Preston Bradley, pastor of the Peoples Church of Chicago, who delivered the eulogy and Dr. Charles Ray Goff, pastor of the Chicago Temple.

Every April the town of Marlin in Central Texas (Falls County) holds a "Bluebonnet Festival." Beautiful models are provided to pose for the amateur photographer and to compete in the annual photo contest.

Sharon Nix At Girls State

Sharon Cecilia Nix of Burkburnett, a citizen of the American Legion Auxiliary Bluebonnet Girls State now in progress in Austin, at the Texas School for the Blind, was appointed to the Texas Youth Council, and was elected as Federalist Candidate for County Judge of County I, in tonight's election.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nix and was sponsored to Girls State by the local American Legion Auxiliary unit, No. 264.

Girls State was organized as a national Americanism activity in 1937 by the American Legion Auxiliary. Non-partisan and non-political, the purpose of the Girls State program is to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age, to afford them an opportunity to live together as a self-governing group and to inform them of the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities which they will assume when they become adults. They learn the problems of government by performing the same duties as real office holders in the everyday world.

The 1961 session of the American Legion Auxiliary Bluebonnet Girls State has grown from an experimental conference of 94 girls, held at Baylor University in 1941 to become the largest single extracurricular educational program for high school girls in Texas. This year, 399 girls are in attendance, making a total of more than 5,400 girls in Texas who have participated in this top-level citizenship program. Citizens are selected at local level, principally on a basis of character and leadership from students who have just completed their junior year in high school each year.

Associate Justice Meade Griffin of the Texas Supreme Court will administer the oath of office to the various elected state officials of Bluebonnet Girls State, Monday, June 19th in the Rotunda of the State Capitol.

Climaxing the session will be the selection of two outstanding citizens of 1961, who will be sent to Girls State in Washington D. C., by the American Legion Auxiliary, where the two young representatives will continue their study in the respon-

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

Galaxie styling is inspiring more admiration (and imitation) than any other car on the road!

This is the look that started with Thunderbird—sired the Galaxie—and quickly became the styling success of the Sixties. Many cars have tried to copy it. No car has succeeded. Incomparably beautiful, the 1961 Galaxie maintains its distinction—as originals always do. Styling is only part of Galaxie's distinction: this is the car that's beautifully built to take care of itself. The '61 Ford goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications . . . 4,000 miles between oil changes. Brakes adjust automatically. The muffler is built to last three times as long as ordinary ones. The body is specially treated to resist rust and corrosion. The finish never needs waxing. Wouldn't it make sense to STOP spending money on an old car that can never do for you what a new Ford can do? SWAP right now while your Ford Dealer's sales are booming—and the swapping is easier than it's ever been before. SAVE with the Ford that makes saving fun!

In Memory of "Granny" Hale

Ropesville, Texas June 13, 1961

Dear Mr. Dodson

Greetings to all of you there in the office. Just a few words to tell you how much we appreciate the Burk Star each week. We scan each page to find out what is happening in Burk. The first thing I look for is to see who has passed away. As a rule your paper mentions two or three each week. And just recently I saw the account of Granny Hale's passing, (or should I have said promotion) for I believe it was indeed a promotion for her.

I don't believe anyone appreciated her life of service more than I. Always I felt honored to have her in my services. I feel that she, like the Apostle Paul, could say, "I have not shunned to declare the whole counsel of God," and on her last days here on this earth, she could also say with Paul "I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith. Henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which The Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day." 2nd Tim. 4:7-8. Also I believe when true greatness is fully known, and rewards are passed out, Granny Hale, with her crown of many battle stars, will far outshine many who have been very popular down here and when, and if I am fortunate enough to make it through to that celestial city, I expect to see her feasting on the fruit from the tree of life. May God bless her memory to all who knew her.

Respectfully,
A Former Pastor
Roy McCoy

Richmond Honors Fighting Secy

An impressive statue of Mirabeau Buonaparte Lamar, valiant military hero and acclaimed Father of Education in Texas, stands in Richmond, Tex., southwest of Houston.

Lamar served as Secretary of War and was the commander of the cavalry at the Battle of San Jacinto.

He was well known for his service both as President and vice President of the Republic of Texas and was instrumental in securing a public endowment for Texas schools.

The new Rodeo Queen, Wendlyn Goins, 17 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Goins, receives roses from the 1960 Rodeo Queen, Janet Mathis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mathis. Wendlyn was Rodeo Queen in 1957 and runner up in 1955.

Children from Burkburnett with their wagons, etc., decorating the "Kiddies Parade" held Saturday morning, June 17th. Children as young as two and as old as ten participated in the parade, led by the Burkburnett High School Band.

GOOD FRUITS

"The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and GOOD FRUITS."

There are two forces at work in this world, evil and good. We have the freedom to choose between these two things.

"O taste and see that the Lord is good:
 blessed is the man that trusteth in him."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

What Are Your Chances of Survival In Case of All-out Nuclear Attack?

Do you believe that Western Christian civilization will survive to the year 2000?

Of the group of suburban housewives contacted in a special poll, 100 percent said "yes." "How" was another matter.

In the same poll, the women were asked to say whether they felt nuclear attack on this country was (1) impossible, (2) unlikely, (3) possible or (4) probable. Eighty-two percent chose "possible." Remainder said "unlikely."

Asked what they would do if given two hours attack warning time, 76% gave answers reflecting some knowledge and forethought. Only six percent said they would try to get out of town. Most said they would snatch up canned goods, water and children and head for a basement or some other "safest area." Remaining 24 percent said they had no idea what they would do.

Asked what they would do if they had only 15 minutes' warning time, 64% said they would take whatever shelter was available as quickly as possible. Other 36% gave answers such as "panic," "pray" & "nothing."

Asked if they felt the country's civil defense preparedness (both individual and collective) was adequate to enable the country to survive nuclear attack, 100% said "no." Asked if they felt it could be done, 78% said "yes." Remainder expressed some degree of doubt.

Some volunteered suggestions such as, "The government should build shelters into schools." Others urged more government encouragement for shelter building.

The women questioned do not constitute what professional pollsters would call a "true sample," with a proportionate combination of ages, sexes and socio-economic groups. It was made entirely among housewives in one of the "better-off" neighborhoods of a medium-sized Texas city that is regarded as a target area. It was heavily and purposely weighted toward people in the responsible "middle years," people with minor children at home and people who could normally expect to live to the year 2000.

Almost all evidenced concern about civil defense, and none refused to answer the questions. A number asked where they could get civil defense information; others said, "I've got some pamphlets here somewhere I've been meaning to read."

All were required to answer immediately without time for thought or research. Purpose of the poll was not to jar anyone into action nor to gain any accurate statistical measurement of civil defense home preparedness. It was to try to develop some feeling as to the answer to the question of our time: "Will we survive?"

Arnold Toynbee, the eminent British historian, lists 21 civilizations known to have existed since man took charge of the earth. Of those, 16 have passed away. Only five remain, of which ours is one.

Mr. Toynbee further believes that civilizations are born, develop and continue to flourish as a result, not of ease and security, but of the response that is stimulated by harsh, threatening circumstances. He also suggests that civilizations can be "spoiled by success" so that they "rest on their oars" and fail to respond to meet the last and fatal challenge.

Whether we as a people are responding adequately to the threat of our day is an open question. You might make your own poll and draw your own conclusions.

There is an oft-told, but pointed, tale of how a crab reacts to the problem of having one claw staked down to the ground so that he cannot move. According to the story, if the crab is confronted with some sharp and obvious danger, such as the approach of a deadly enemy he will pull loose and save himself, even if it means tearing off a claw.

But if the crab is faced only with gradual starvation, he will stay where he is — and die.

Mrs. Arlis Key and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson in Carthage, Tex.

Warm days increase moth damage in rugs and carpets. Rug moths and carpet beetles love warm, humid spring days. Eggs of both moths and beetles hatch rapidly under those conditions and the larvae begin at once to gorge themselves. Moth larvae feast for 40 days while those of the beetle continue to eat an entire year.

In addition to heat and humidity, larvae thrive on dirt and darkness. Too often shades and blinds are drawn and insects are left to enjoy themselves.

The best protection is a thorough cleaning in advance of hot weather, according to Thelma Wirges, county HD agent. This will help get rid of moths, larvae and eggs and will remove the dirt & stains which encourage infestation. Be sure to move heavy pieces of furniture and clean areas regularly where beds, heavy chairs, tables or divans have been placed.

Day to day care is very important. For best results, use the carpet sweeper daily on floor coverings and vacuum at least once a week. Give particular attention to breaks, creases, seams and baseboard areas, all of which are favorite hiding places for insects.

Rugs, carpets and upholstered furniture should be sprayed several times each year to protect against moth damage. Use a 2% chlordane, 0.5% lindane or 0.5 percent dieldrin household spray.

Entomologists advise a five percent DDT oil solution on rugs and carpets every 12 to 18 months. For a 9x12 foot rug of average weight, you will need 1 1/2 to 2 quarts of spray. Rug pads of animal hair or wool, will need spraying on both sides unless they have been treated previously.

When spraying wall to wall carpeting give special attention to edges and parts that have been under a piano, sofa or other heavy furniture pieces.

Call on the expert help of a carpet-cleaning or pest control firm if you have qualms about doing the expensive rugs.

Mrs. R. C. Lawhon has recently cleaned her own carpets with a rented cleaner, while Mrs. Sidney Smith had hers cleaned. Both represent good approved methods. To do the job at home directions must be carefully followed. Every few years it is wise to call an expert.

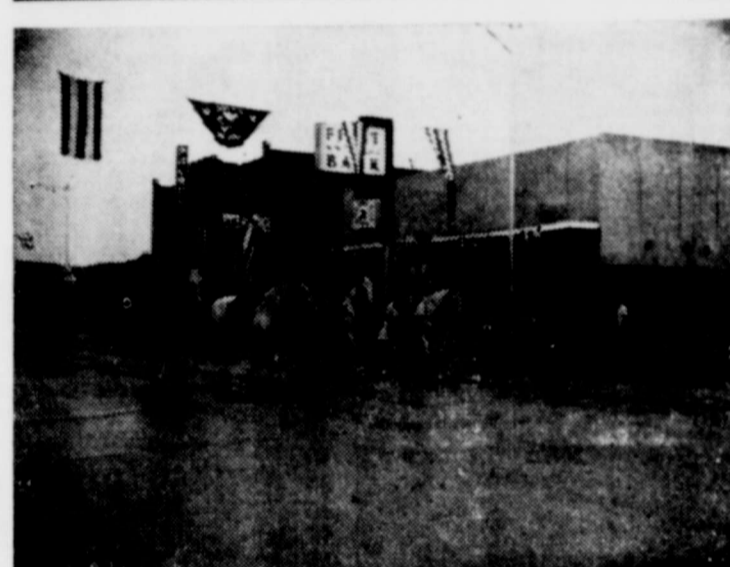

If the sun fades your curtains or draperies, look for fabrics with special qualities of sun-light resistance. Thelma Wirges, county HD agent says there are several such fabrics on the market.

Solution-dyed acetates are color fast to sun fading. The color is added to the liquid cellulose before it is spun into yarn which seals in the color.

You will find numerous solution-dyed acetates with a shiny back to resist fading. These fabrics do not require a lining. Another choice is 100% for-tisan in combination with one of the solution-dyed acetates. Still another choice is fiberglass available in unusual weaves and colors.

Take time to read the labels on drapery fabrics. Under the recently passed labeling act, curtain fabrics will give the name of fiber or fibers and their percentages, when each makes up more than 5 percent of the fabric.

If making lined draperies for west windows, it is good to interline them. Rays from the sun can cause the lining to deteriorate so they can't take a good cleaning.

Various scenes from the Boomtown Rodeo Parade held Thursday, June 15th in downtown Burkburnett. In the Little car is Mayor George McClarty and Bill Browning, president of the Chamber of Commerce, the Senior High School Band, the Junior High School Band, the Muskat Temple clowns which always add color and laughter to the scene, and the mounted color bearers.

Texas Safety Association

A Texas Department of Public Safety spokesman suggested that Texas citizens might better their traffic safety records by concentrating on the principal cause of all traffic accidents—attitude.

Major Harry Hutchison, Regional Commander of the DPS, said that "There is no single cause to which all accidents, even preventable accidents, can be charged." He noted, however, "That there is general agreement that the great majority of such accidents are traceable to the attitude of those involved." In citing examples of poor driving attitude, Maj. Hutchison mentioned "The speeder who says I am a good enough driver to handle the car doing 90; the elbow bender who says I'm not too drunk to drive home; the businessman who piles along in his car preoccupied by office problems; the lady who thinks she can drive and still inventory show windows, and the adolescent who defies the challenge of being chicken."

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Deckard the past two weeks were Mrs. Mildred Audas and Sandra of Gladewater, Tex., J. T. Audas of the U. S. Navy Medical Corp. Oak Harbour, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Polkinghorne, Fresno, Calif.

Texas has 182,932 oil wells in 1,669 fields. (Mar. 29, 1958).

From The County Agent

Heavy rains over the county have reduced thrips populations in many fields. However, as the rains continue, the re-hatching of eggs should be carefully watched for the extremely small, wingless thrips. These insects are very hard to damage will continue to spread because of the hatchings. In Wichita County, the cotton insect, you should up your 1961 cotton spray at the county office. Hoppers is another insect showing up in some rows and fields in the county. The insecticide to control grasshopper, Dieldrin, Aldrin, Septachlor, Toxaphene, or bait. For precautionary insecticides for control contact the agent. A dairy meeting at 8 o'clock, June 22nd, will discuss the possibility of adults entering dairy animals in the Dallas Fair. All interested dairymen are invited to attend.

The 1961 Poultry conference will be held at Texas A-M College on June 28-29th at the memorial Student Center. The Department of Poultry Science invites you to attend this conference and to participate in the discussion.

If history repeats itself, and it usually does, there will be another drouth. It takes a lot of good soaking rain to break a drouth. Usually heavy downpours follow a long dry period, & unless provisions have been made to hold such rainfall, too much will be lost.

County agent, B. T. Haws offers several suggestions for holding a maximum amount of water from heavy rains should they occur. Don't go out, he advises and buy expensive equipment for doing the necessary work, but do use what is available on the farm or ranch. Net wire spreaders do an effective job of slowing runoff water. They stop drift and hold water well even on slopes. Too, they are cheaper to build than dirt spreaders and there is no dam to be washed out or blown away.

Trees and brush thrown into the heads of gullies will greatly aid in slowing down and spreading runoff water. Brush piles placed in gullies at intervals will tame running water and also catch soil and cause more of the runoff to be soaked into the soil. Fallen brush scattered over the pasture holds water and helps grass seedlings get started by giving them protection, the county agent adds.

A range which is dotted with wire spreaders, pits and piles of fallen trees and brush holds many times more water than a range which is bare of vegetation or man-made constructions. The bare areas should be pitted for little water will be absorbed if measures are not taken to break the surface crust which will shed water, especially if the rain comes as a downpour continues Haws.

Many good soakings are required to get drouth ravaged ranges back in good shape. Any device, construction or practice which can be put on the land to hold water will help the comeback. Most of these jobs can be done piecemeal and with available equipment and labor. They will not cost much money, but can be great aids in shutting the gate to keep water where it falls, concludes Haws.

The dairy industry is big; its essential, modern diversified & has stability, said B. T. Haws, county agent, as June Dairy Month gets underway. Dairying he added is the greatest single source of farm income in the nation. One out of every five dollars in cash receipts from farm products comes from dairying.

Man-made situations can cause shade tree trouble. Soil added or moved by bulldozers or graders may be responsible for the death of many shade trees. Too much fill soil around new homes may cause trees to die after three to five years or even longer, says B. T. Haws, county agent.

This reminder from the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council — There's a line in the ocean where by crossing you lose a day. There's one down the middle of a highway you can do even better. It was put there for your protection.

THE AMERICAN FLAG

On July 4th this year the American flag will have 50 stars. From the first 13 star flag grew the 48 stars by 1912. Last year we added a 49th star for Alaska, and this year we say "Aloha" to Hawaii by adding the 50th. For 184 years, the Star Spangled Banner has waved "o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave," the proud and sacred symbol of the freedom, equality and justice for which America stands.

The original design, with 13 stripes representing the 13 states, and a star for each state dates from June 14, 1777, making it one of the oldest national flags. Before and during the Revolution, the colonies had flags of their own, as the states do now, and there were individual flags for single regiments and companies. A white flag with a green pine tree in the center, and the motto "An Appeal to Heaven," was then popular throughout New England. It was used by Massachusetts for its State Navy. Commodore Esek Hopkins, Commander in Chief of the American Navy, flew a yellow pennant with a coiled rattlesnake in the center and the words "Don't Tread on Me." It was probably first hoisted by Lt. John Paul Jones on the Alfred at Philadelphia on Dec. 3, 1775. Washington used the Pine Tree flag for his ships. Something Continental was needed, and a committee of Congress led by Benjamin Franklin discussed the subject with Washington in 1775.
