Burk Star to Be Published Twice Weekly Beginning 12th

The Burkburnett Star is approaching two mile posts, separated by just one day. On September 11th, the Star will start on its 55th year of publication. On the following day, September 12th, the Star will be published twice weekly, on Tuesdays and Thursdays.
For the past several years the Star has been adding new and better equipment, a piece or two each year, as finances permitted and the needs demanded. This newspaper has, for some years, realized that our community was growing steadily. The paper has tried to keep up with that growth, in order to have the facilities necessary to offer more and better newspaper coverage when it was needed. We feel that the time for expansion has been reached.
For more than two years many merchants have expressed the wish that the Star be published more often than once each week. A few have been extolling the virtues of a daily publication for Burk. The history of young dailies in Texas, over a period of some 30 years, makes very poor reading for those who might want to invest in such a venture. The casualty rate has been terrific—most have fallen by the wayside.
We shall try to make our Tuesday edition just as newsy and interesting as the Thursday edition. To us there will be no difference between the two papers. Happenings from Thursday to Tuesday will appear in the Tuesday edition. News from Tuesday to Thursday will be published Thursday. For the present, the Thursday paper will carry some of the Tuesday paper's articles for this reason: The Tuesday paper will not be mailed to our regular subscribers. It will be hand delivered to every house in town, but it will miss a great number of our subscribers who do not live in Burkburnett. Later, we will make the Tuesday edition available to regular subscribers.

A special program has been arranged.
County Wide 4-H Electric Clinic Slated
Arrangements have been made for a County Wide Electric 4-H Clinic, for Wichita County boys and girls, either, already working in electricity or who are just starting in electrical work. The clinic is to be held Thursday, August 31st, at the Youth Center in Burkburnett. Activities will begin at 4:30 p.m. with a weiner roast supper, sponsored by the Burkburnett Community 4-H Club. SCHOOL STUDENTS TO TAKE OVER CITY GOVERNMENT

Burkburnett High School Students will take over City Government for a days' operation on October 1st and 2nd, a weeks campaigning in which a "City Council" elected and various other appointments made.
The activity, to be known as "Lions Student City Government Day," is being sponsored by the Burkburnett Club, in cooperation with City and School officials. The Board of Commissioners approved the proposal at a recent meeting.
The students will elect their "City Council," and officials will be appointed to parallel the City's governmental organization. Monday and Tuesday (Oct. 9-10) devoted to campaigning, followed by an election of the City Commissioners will be elected. The elected Commission will then elect a Mayor and Pro-Tem from their number; appoint a City Manager, a City Judge and City Attorney.
The newly appointed "City Manager" will appoint a City Auditor of Finance, Director of Utilities, Director of Public Works, Chief of Police and City Inspector. Other appointments will be made by the appropriate departments with the assistance and approval of the "City Council."
Monday, Oct. 16, the appointees will take over City Government, with an assist from the regular officials. Monday afternoon the newly elected Council will receive reports from the various departments and then will meet again with the regular City Council on Monday night, in which recommendations, if any, will be made to the regular City Council. The following evening, the student City Council and City Manager will meet with the Lions Club to give a report of their activities.
Mayor George McClarty stated that the City Office is very pleased with the planned program, and is happy to cooperate in "Student's Day." He believes the program will prove valuable to the students, as well as others, in that they will gain first hand information and knowledge as to the operations of their local government. "We appreciate both the Lion's Club and the school for inaugurating such a program and hope it will become an annual affair," Mayor McClarty said.

Plenty of Strings

Supporters of federal aid to education say that Washington will dole out dollars without any strings attached. However, the facts show otherwise, as the Chamber of Commerce of the United States points out. Whenever the U. S. Office of Education has passed out money, it has exercised controls. them: The Office of Education dictated curriculum and them: The Office of Education dictated curriculum and administrative practices of a guiding and counseling institute in Tennessee. Under the same Office's regulations a language laboratory in an Illinois school must remain idle when not used for teaching modern languages; it cannot be used to teach Latin. A federal employe threatened to remove a school adding machine from a Minnesota school if it were used for any purpose but science, the government had helped buy the machine. In Alabama the government set minimum wages to be paid on a school building for whose construction federal funds were used.

So it goes. And no one should be surprised. Back in 1942 the Supreme Court held that "it is hardly lack of due process (of law) for the government to regulate that which it subsidizes." That pretty well tells the whole federal aid story.

Grass Roots Opinion

CHICAGO, ILL., AMA NEWS: "Extremist viewpoints are likely to arise out of any controversy. So it is with the current dispute over providing medical service to the elderly through the Social Security System. The medical profession, in opposing social security medicine, does so primarily because of the belief that society would suffer, that the quality of medical care a physician was able to provide his patients would deteriorate."

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

There appears to be a gathering force on Capitol Hill a growing but determined band of patriots bent on stopping the outflow of tax dollars to support and comfort the enemy.

For some time men such as Rep. John Dowdy of Texas have deplored the practice of the State Dept. whereby any nation that wants to dip into U. S. foreign give away funds only has to make protestations that unless this C. W. Harder cumshaw is paid, they are going to have to go communist.

Recently Rep. Dowdy had bitter things to say about ransom negotiations that were carried on with Castro.

Although this venture was not launched as an official government project, it did highlight fact there are people in this country who are willing to negotiate blackmail.

And there are signs that Congress is getting more and more wary of letting the bureaucrats swing as much power as they have been doing. Rep. Richard Roudebush of Indiana, said recently on the Edward Yellin case, "It is discouraging that government agencies need prodding by Congressional committees before they can act in flagrant cases involving persons whose loyalty to the U. S. is questionable."

Rep. Roudebush was referring to the recent scene in Washington when the House Space Committee held hearings which forced the National Science Foundation to cancel the awarding of a $3,800 tax paid scientific fellowship to Edward Yellin, 33, a University of Illinois student.

In 1958, before a Congressional Committee, Yellin refused to say whether or not he was a communist. He was convicted of contempt of Congress, and the verdict was upheld by a U. S. Court.

Yet against this background, the bureaucrats of the National Science Foundation gave him a two year scholarship in advanced engineering and refused to rescind the error until forced by Congress.

There seems to be a tendency in certain professional education circles to brand any inquiry into a man's belief on communism as "anti-intellectualism."

This phenomena is a peculiarly American one. In Russia there does not seem to exist this "anti-intellectual" hue and cry when someone gives strong suspicion of being a capitalist. If he is lucky enough to escape a hole in the head, it is a certainty the Russian purse is not going to be used to subsidize him to get an education.

The terrifying aspect of all this is that National Science Foundation has awarded some 18,000 of scholarships at cost to taxpayers of some $45,000,000.

The public can only wonder if this bureau "goofed" on other appointments. As Rep. Roudebush says "A communist in a college community is a cancer that cannot be tolerated, as one communist on a college campus, well-trained and disciplined in communist tactics, can attract and influence good American students who may be politically naive." There seems little rhyme or reason for taxes to support such people.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

SPRING VALLEY, N. Y. LEADER: "Where will the federal government get the money to give the states for federal aid to education. Why, from the states, of course. Federal aid to education is merely a promise which the states are called upon to make good."

HELPER, UTAH, JOURNAL: "One of the best bits of advertising these days is the one dealing with the gasoline tax situation which, briefly stated, is that 10 gallons of this vital commodity yields the state and federal government $1, or five times as much as the impost on diamonds."

BRANSON, MO., LEADER: "Taxes originally, in theory were to assure protections. Generally they were to provide peace officers. Now we have added so much fringe adornments in the nature of social welfare, that the peace and safety are small items."

M. D. Groenewold, Student Counselor, and Roy Silkwood, High School Principal, have been very busy the past week counseling and otherwise helping students with their selection of study courses.

The average man believes there are three things he can always do superbly well: sing tenor, manage a baseball team and make the driving rules.

One thing can be said for backseat drivers: they never lose control of the car.

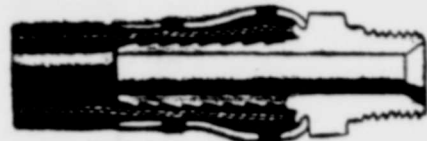

The hand that lifts the cup that cheers, is not the hand to shift gears.

If you just made a left hand turn from the right hand lane, you are probably just careless, and not what the driver behind you called you.

In Full Bloom

Flowers in full bloom provide beauty and are a joy to all who behold them, they can bring cheer to the ill, they express our feelings to those we love, they show our sympathy for those in bereavement. Flowers in full bloom say what we cannot always put into words. A child of God, serving the Lord, is like a flower in full bloom. "Serve the Lord with gladness; come before his presence with singing."

© Coleman Adv. Serv., P. O. Box 4887, Dallas, Texas

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Falls Creek Baptist Assembly Attended By 1st Baptist

A group of young people from the First Baptist Church, Burkburnett, have returned from Falls Creek Baptist Assembly grounds where they attended the third week of this summer's assemblies.

The grounds are located seven miles south of Davis, Okla., in the Arbuckle mountains and are operated by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. Almost identical programs are held during the three week long assemblies annually.

Preacher for the final week was Dr. Duke K. McCall, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.

Attendance for the third week was 8,160 and total attendance for the 3 weeks was 23,101. The encampment is believed to be the largest kind in the world.

Featured are two worship services daily, classes on all phases of religious life, and recreation, including competition in certain sports between churches.

Sponsors for the Burkburnett group were Mrs. Howard Bentley, Mr. Roy Harris and Rev. Leroy Meyer. Cooking for the group were Mrs. Goldie Gilbert, Mrs. Thelma Fowler and Mrs. Leroy Meyer.

LARGE PUMPKIN

O. A. Nichols of Burkburnett was a visitor at the Star office Friday. He was proudly displaying a pumpkin which he raised at Valiant, Okla. The pumpkin measured 46 inches in circumference and was 51 inches long.

Are you confused by all the laundering terms used on television, in magazines and newspapers? Here are some explanations from Thelma Wirges, county HD agent, that will clear up the meaning on some of these popular terms:

Anti Static agent—This is a laundering aid which you can add to the final rinse to prevent build-up of static electricity which causes crackling and clinging in some fabrics.

Fabric Softeners—When you add this product to your water, it gives softness or fluffiness to all washable fabrics. It will reduce wrinkling and make ironing easier. Often used on infants' garments.

Brightener—A product which clings to fabrics like a dye to produce greater whiteness or brightness. Brighteners are included in most washing products, but are also available separately.

Rinse Conditioner—to be used in your first rinse to prevent minerals in hard water from forming a curd. It will also dissolve detergent residue from previous washes.

Water Softener—There are 2 types: One "locks up" minerals in hard water to prevent them from forming curd or film. The other combines with the minerals in hard water and forms insoluble particles that settle to the bottom.

Read labels before you buy and follow directions carefully when you use any of these products, urges the agent.

A convenient place to store these and other laundry supplies is a must, if you use them when and how you need to. Mrs. Jim Roberts from the Merry Makers Home Demonstration club now has plans on paper for arranging her utility room, where all supplies, equipment, etc will be easy to see, easy to reach and easy to clean. Most well planned home improvements start on paper.

Patricia Simons, the Wichita County entry in the District 4-H Dress Revue had the new look with her soft fitting skirt. Her suit was a light weight wool and the skirt was gathered. The jacket was very short.

Fall coats and suits are arriving in the stores and are now featured for the early shopper. This will inspire the home-sewer to check her fall wardrobe. She may find that she needs a coat or suit this season.

A variety of styles will be featured in coats. New coat shapes will be flared from the high rising or low slung waist line. Many will give a full sweep falling from the shoulder line. They will be buttoned in single or double breasted style or not at all. Collars will vary from the small notched ones to the cardigan and deep shawl. Three quarter length, wide sleeves seem top redominate. All will have controlled flare with a soft look.

Suits will have the same variety of styles. The demi-fitted, flared "riding habit" type paces the new coat shapes flared from various levels. Chanel's loose fitting jacket will be worn with slightly flared skirts this season. New cut away styles and tubular breasted models with low belt detailing is being shown. Box pleats, bias-flared and slim skirts will be worn.

News From The County Agent

Just how important is Vitamin A for calves in the feedlot? B. T. Haws, county agent, says it is important enough not to ever be forgotten. Cattle store vitamin A in the fat of their bodies and in their livers when its supplied in their ration. Older cattle naturally have larger livers and more body area for fat deposit than calves. As long as they have access to any green feed, they get their vitamin A. Any excess of requirements is stored for times when little or no green grazing is available. Here is where the calf needs are taken care of from milk. Therefore, when you wean the calf and put him in dry lot, you have to supply the same nutrient that the cow did.

A 250 to 400 pound calf can develop vitamin A deficiency symptoms within 45 to 60 days or less, unless your ration takes care of their needs.

Haws says that leafy green alfalfa hay, alfalfa leaf meal, or pellets are good sources of vitamin A. Commercial synthetic vitamin-A preparations are now available for mixing in rations also. Small amounts per ton of feed are required and they are considered inexpensive.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

Gov. Price Daniel, pointing to the record of most other states that have a general sales tax, warns Texans that without concerted efforts to shave state spending the Texas tax could grow to three or four percent in the future.

More than that, he said, unless there is "prudent economy and reorganization of state funds and services," a state income tax might become law.

To make his point, Gov. Daniel reported that two-thirds of the 34 states that have general sales taxes have increased the rate to three percent or more, and there are now four states charging a four percent sales tax.

He again made clear his dislike for the two percent Texas tax, but added: "So much for the good and bad which will result from the new tax bill. On September 1st it will be the law of our state and as long as the law is in effect, it behooves all of us, whether we like it or not, to co-operate in its enforcement. This I shall do and I believe every good citizen will do likewise."

Meanwhile State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert is being swamped with questions about the new tax. After checking with other states which have pioneered in this field he has become reconciled to the likelihood that confusion will reign for some time to come. A spokesman for his office pointed out that "California and Illinois got a sales tax in 1933 and they're still issuing rulings."

The Texas Research league has noted that the tax bill exempts sales of animals ordinarily eaten by humans. Also feed for such animals. Exempt too are seeds and plants edible by humans and raised for sale, fungicides and insecticides for such plants and fertilizer used on lands where such food is grown.

But the researchers say this exemption would not apply to tropical fish, grass seed and fertilizer for lawns and rose bushes.

More Work Next Session
Governor Daniel has found several more items to be submitted to the next special session of the Legislature. He plans to call the lawmakers back to Austin again before the end of the year.

Daniel's expanding package now includes maintenance funds for farm roads, loan shark control, municipal annexation, tourist attraction, lobbyist controls, adding banks to the abandoned property seizure law, improved law enforcement measures and action on juvenile crime.

"As long as Texas continues to grow," he said, "there will be more problems to solve, but there are some which should not be delayed. It will be my aim to meet the most urgent of these later this year or in January of next year."

Gov. Daniel vetoed the second year appropriation of $15,000,000 for construction of new farm to market roads in an effort to free these funds for maintenance. The $15,000,000 for this purpose for the first year of the new biennium was not affected.

A law passed in 1949 provides for the use of this yearly amount for new construction. But the Governor insists, "It is just as important to maintain our vast important 33,000 mile farm road system as it is to build new roads. Maintenance costs, now amounting to $18,000,000 annually, are taken from the basic intrastate highway fund which is the poorest of all department programs."

Blue Law Confusion — Under the new Texas "Blue Law," shopping for certain items on Saturday or Sunday may prove a chore.

The law that started out as a device to hit the discount houses operating on Sunday was changed to include Saturday as an alternate because the lawmakers felt a straight Sunday closing law might appear discriminatory to some religious groups who observe the Sabbath on other days.

Included in the list of items merchants are not allowed to sell on one of the two weekend days are lawn mowers, toys, motor vehicles clothing, furniture, kitchen utensils, air conditioners, home appliances, jewelry, cameras, radios and television sets.

The law has teeth—a fine of $100 is provided for the first conviction, going up to $500 and six months in jail for subsequent convictions.

Selling Texas Is Big Job — The State Industrial Commission, given $100,000 by the Legislature and charged with the duty of selling Texas as the place for industries to locate, faces a challenge.

Chairman E. B. Germany told the commission, "It is a challenge to make that $100,000 do what it is supposed to do even though it is not enough to do what we want to do."

Executive Director Walter Wickerson reported 3,000 copies of a brochure entitled "Texas: A Strategic Location" have been printed. Brochure will be distributed to a "very carefully selected group of people who have responsibility for making decisions," says Dickerson.

He appealed to Texas cities to contribute information for the commission's industrial surveys. Such information would be kept on file for the use of industrialists considering Texas sites. This would make it possible for industrialists to choose an area without it being known in advance.

Athletics Not Self-Supporting — State college and university athletic programs, with few exceptions, are not self supporting, says State Auditor C. H. Cavness.

He made the statement in connection with a report on the operations of Sul Ross State College at Alpine where the athletic program showed a $26,357 loss for the year. Income was $56,245, while expenditures amounted to $80,136.

Cavness noted that athletic scholarships and coaching salaries have been paid from educational and general funds.

Hiked Train Fares Asked — On Sept. 6th the Texas Railroad Commission will consider the request for increased passenger rail coach fares of five railway companies operating in Texas.

Companies asking for the hike in fare included Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company, Fort Worth and Denver Railway Co., Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway Co., Missouri - Kansas - Texas Railway Co., and Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway Co.

Duck Hunting Season Set — Ducks will be fair game in Texas beginning at noon on Nov. 18 and ending at Sundown Dec. 27, says Howard Dodgen, Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

Bag limit will be three ducks per day and six in possession. There will be no open season on redheads and black belly tree ducks.

Open season on geese will be from sunrise to sunset from Nov. 3rd to Jan. 1st. Bag limit is five, restricted to one speckled goose and one honker; or two honkers and no specs; plus an aggregate of three snows and or blue.

Labor Day Traffic Dangerous — Gov. Daniels has called for an all out effort to make this Labor Day weekend the safest ever recorded in Texas.

He has issued a special appeal to sheriffs and police chiefs across the state to join with the Texas Dept. of Public Safety in a special emphasis program designed to remove law violators from the highways.

Statistics indicate most fatal accidents involve at least one violation of the law with excessive speed and driving while drinking the leading causative factors.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., DPS Director, earlier announced that some 150 extra patrolmen from the department's other uniformed services will join the regular Highway Patrol force for the three day holiday during which it is predicted, 30 Texans will be killed in traffic crashes.

Short Snorts — Elks Clubs, American Legion and similar organizations won't have to pay the new $2 per member state tax on private clubs, according to an opinion by Attorney General Will Wilson.

UT Student Bar Association has been named outstanding student bar in the nation for 1960-61.

Breakthrough on higher speed limit—70 miles per hour—on the Dallas - Fort Worth Turnpike is legal, only place in Texas where it's over 60.

Heavy fishing last year, depleted oyster beds, point to poor oyster season along Texas coast. Game and Fish department says prospects less than fair.

Attorney General's department has collected $301,008 in inheritance taxes from Blakley - Braniff Foundation; former U. S. Senator William A. Blakley agreed to pay in full without contest.

FALL FASHION — Welcome the first cool days of fall in a slim coat dress of cotton glen plaid. Black buttons accent the front closure, and top stitching calls attention to the dropped shoulder line of this fashion by Ivan-Frederick of California.

MORE THAN 10 MILLION MATTRESSES ARE MADE EACH YEAR WITH COTTON PADDING.

PLEASE HELP ME . . .

I am looking for a good home with a fenced-in yard, with a master who will be kind to me. Although Officer Harry Parks, who posed with me in the above picture, is very kind to me, I feel that my time is running out. All it will take to free me is a license and payment of the impounding fee. I am a Collie with a real good disposition. You have heard that "a dog is man's best friend"; will some man now be my best friend? Will you help me? Just contact the Police Department, 569-2231, and insist on bailing me out—I'm not allowed to use the phone to call my attorney.

 Revue Winner

Patricia Simons, who resides west of the city, was one of the four winners selected recently from 14 contestants in the district 4-H dress revue as the girls modeled the dresses they made in 4-H Club work. Other winners were Carolyn Herron, Fisher County; Gena Adcock, Foard County; and Peggy Joy Simaich of Baylor County.

Entries were judged on construction, records and modeling. The four winners will now enter the state dress revue at the State Fair of Texas.

A special treat for the teenagers and mothers gathered in the Reddy Room of the Texas Electric Service Co. in Wichita Falls was a visit by "Miss Wool," Carol Barre of Yoakum. Miss Barre modeled a number of wool dresses for the group and invited the 4-H'ers, parents and adult leaders to McClurkans for a Coke party and show of wool fall fashions.

families. Until the new amendments were signed, a worker with a severe disability of some years' standing had until June 30, 1961, to apply for his disability insurance benefits. Disabled workers who had been unable to work for some years, and who delayed applying beyond that date, could lose all rights to current and future benefits for themselves and their dependents.

In the 1961 amendments, Congress has given these disabled workers one year more, until June 30, 1962, to apply for benefits thru their social security office under the disability provisions of the law.

More than one half million disabled workers under 65, and their dependents, are now receiving monthly benefits. But there may be other eligible disabled workers who have not yet heard that these benefits are payable. This action by Congress will, we hope, call their attention to their rights and encourage them to make application for their benefits.

To be eligible for disability insurance benefits, a worker must have credit for at least 5 years' work under social security during the 10 years before his disability began. In addition, he must be so severely disabled that he cannot do any substantial gainful work. The disability must have existed for at least 6 months and be expected to continue indefinitely.

While a worker is receiving disability insurance benefits, dependents benefits can be paid to certain members of his family, just as in the case of a retired worker. Payments can go to any of his children who are under age 18, or who have been totally disabled since before they reached 18. His wife, regardless of her age, can be paid benefits if she has in her care a child who is eligible for these dependents' benefits. If there is no child eligible for benefits, the worker's wife may qualify for payments when she reaches 62.

Any disabled worker who believes that he may be eligible for disability benefits should get in touch with his social security office now. A person who is unable to visit his social security office may write for information about filing a claim for benefits.

GI's Should Check Insurance Beneficiaries

Reluctantly and sadly, the Veterans Administration has to make many insurance settlements it knows would not meet the wishes of deceased GI insurance policyholders.

It's all because too many veterans fail to check their insurance records and keep designated beneficiaries up to date, Edward P. Onstot, manager of the VA Regional Office in Dallas said.

"The law gives GI policyholders the right to change their beneficiaries at any time without the consent of the prior beneficiaries," Onstot pointed out. "But unless the change is officially made, no choice is given VA but to pay the claim to the beneficiary of record."

Too often, he added, victims of this carelessness are minor children and widows of a second marriage. If an ex-wife is still the beneficiary of record, VA has no recourse but to pay her the policy settlement.

GI insurance policyholders will soon receive a letter from one of the VA Insurance Centers asking each policyholder to designate or redesignate his beneficiaries, Onstot said.

Policyholders also have several options as to how the insurance can be paid. Information or changes in beneficiaries can be made at any VA office.

Any person convicted of violating any Texas game law may forfeit his hunting license and all hunting rights for one year from date of conviction.

ORDINANCE NO. 256
AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE LICENSING AND CONTROL OF CARNIVALS, CIRCUSES, SHOWS, FEES, WITHIN THE CITY LIMITS OF THE CITY OF BURKBURNETT, TEXAS; PROVIDING A PENALTY; AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF THE CITY OF BURKBURNETT, TEXAS:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful to hereafter hold, sponsor, operate or run a carnival in the city limits of Burkburnett, Texas, unless a permit to hold such carnival is first obtained from the City of Burkburnett in accordance with this Ordinance. Each person aiding or abetting in the holding of such carnival or its subsidiary shows, concessions, amusements, and businesses shall be equally guilty of a violation of this ordinance, when said carnival or circus, or temporary show, operates or runs without such permit.

Section 2. PERMIT REQUIRED. A permit shall be issued by order of the City Manager to hold such carnival or circus when and only when a proper application in writing is made therefor. Such application shall state in detail the different component parts of the carnival including all concessions, shows, amusements, businesses and the proposed location of said carnival, the time it is to run and the number of persons regularly traveling therewith, if any, and the number of local persons connected therewith, and shall give a complete and full plan of the proposed carnival.

Section 3. If the proposed carnival appears to be entirely composed of lawful amusements and lawful enterprises, the City Manager shall determine the number of extra police necessary to properly superintend such carnival and regulate the anticipated crowds and carnival. The City Manager shall instruct the City Clerk how many extra officers shall be needed and whether to issue such permits.

Section 4. The applicant for permit, if the City Manager shall determine that said permit shall be issued, shall then pay a license fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) together with Five Dollars ($5.00) per extra officer for the number of officers that the City Manager shall determine shall be necessary per day for so many days that said carnival is issued a permit to run, and the City Clerk shall issue the permit specifying the length of time and the location. Applicant shall also be subject to any and all additional inspection fees as may be provided by existing ordinances governing such.

Any application for a permit may be referred by the City Manager to the Board of Commissioners for their approval or disapproval, and such action by the Board of Commissioners shall be final.

Section 5. UNLAWFUL GAMES PROHIBITED. If the proposed carnival, or show, consists in whole or in part of any unlawful games, the permit shall be refused and if such carnival is issued a permit and it conducts itself in an unlawful manner in whole or in part, its permit may be revoked by the City Manager and fees paid shall be forfeited.

Section 6. It shall be unlawful for any carnival or circus or temporary show, to operate in whole or in part within 200 feet of any private residence, church, school, or after its permit expires or after it is revoked for cause, and all persons assisting in such operation shall be deemed guilty of violating this ordinance.

Section 7. The Chief of Police shall have supervision of the policing of said carnival, circuses and shows. All electrical wiring, eating establishments and other activities where the public health, safety and interest is involved, must meet the approval of the Chief of Police and the City Inspector.

Section 8. PENALTY. Any person guilty of violating any provision of this ordinance upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not to exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00).

Section 9. EXEMPTIONS. Fairs or local shows, composed of local people for purely local charitable purposes without profit may be exempt from the provisions of this ordinance as applicable to fees charged for permits or licenses upon approval of the Board of Commissioners, except the Board of Commissioners may levy another fee commensurate with any additional expense placed upon the city for the operation of such local fairs or shows.

Section 10. The fact that there is no adequate regulations controlling carnivals and circuses within the City of Burkburnett, Texas, creates an urgency and an emergency for the immediate

Social Security News

The age at which men can apply for social security payments has been changed to 62, according to Erton F. Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls social security office.

Until now, men had to be at least 65 before they could make application for payment unless they were disabled. For several years women have been able to claim their social security payments at a reduced amount when they were 62. Men now have the same opportunity. Tate stated that a man's payments at 62 would be reduced because he would be getting paid three years earlier. By reducing the amount of payments at age 62, he will get about the same total payments as he would by waiting until 65, a claim must be made before any payments can begin.

If you would like more information about payments for men at 62, contact your social security office.

Texas sportsmen should remember that new hunting and fishing licenses will be required beginning Sept. 1st. The resident hunting fee is $3.15; fishing licenses cost $2.15.

Carolyn Clements Crowned Miss Burkburnett

Miss Carolyn Clements, (center), was crowned Miss Burkburnett at the beauty pageant last Thursday evening, August 24. On the left is Sharon Nix, first runner up; and on the right is Patricia Simons, 2nd runner up.

Miss Clements is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clements of Burkburnett. She will reign as Miss Burkburnett for 1961-62.

All-Out Effort To Control Traffic During Holidays

Governor Price Daniel has requested the assistance of every sheriff and chief of police in Texas in combining their traffic forces with those of the Texas Department of Public Safety in a determined effort to make the three-day Labor Day holiday the safest in Texas history.

While Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the DPS, is announcing that 150 patrolmen from the other uniformed services of his Statewide law enforcement agency would join the regular Texas Highway Patrol for holiday supervision, the Governor sought the aid of city and county units.

The Governor told the sheriffs and chiefs, who he praised for their past traffic safety cooperation, the "Labor Day is the one big holiday whose traffic problems are complicated by several factors, notably traffic violations. Since we are all fully aware that a big majority of our traffic tragedies involve excessive speed and driving while drinking, I hope that you will put every available man on the streets and highways this Labor Day to help us eliminate the law-breakers. If we can reduce our traffic crashes, and if we reduce them, we will save human lives and property losses.

Meantime, the Governor had received pledges of citizen support and cooperation from several Statewide sources, all aimed at acquainting the motoring public with the dangers of congested holiday traffic and offering various forms of assistance.

Governor Daniel has been advised by the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce and W. F. Leonard, Jr., of Dallas, vice-president for traffic safety of Texas Safety Association, that the Jaycees are trying to double their 1960 Labor Day safety record. Last year, 76 Jaycee clubs with 1,254 members devoted 10,320 man-hours to serving coffee and soft drinks to more than 41,000 motorists at 84 "rest-and-coffee" stops along main Texas highways. They also handed out 66,000 pieces of safety literature.

"This is the kind of citizen support that creates public interest and commands public respect," the Governor said, "and I am glad to know that the Jaycees will be active again. They are setting a fine example for other Texans, and I believe their efforts will help save lives and prevent traffic injuries over the holiday."

The Teenettes held their first meeting of the year at the home of Carol Ratliff. Officers were elected for the 1961-62 season. President, Francie Mills; vice president, Ann Jennings; Secretary, Pam Duke; Treasurer, Janet Mathis; reporter, Carol Ratliff; parliamentarian, Dixie Van Reenan; Sergeant at Arms, Janelle Hinkle. Several committees were appointed by the president.

Following the business meeting, refreshments were served to the following members: Lee Robertson, Francie Mills Janet Mathis, Kathy Potter, Treva Mills, Dixie Van Reenan, Mitzi Mills, Ann Jennings, Juliene Abdouh, Pam Duke, Pat Mills, Carol Ratliff.

The next meeting will be held Sept. 11th.

HOME SAFETY PROGRAM KICKOFF DUE SEPTEMBER

A year-round home safety program will be launched September 1 by Lone Star Gas Company and the Burkburnett Star.

"National Safety Council findings," Lone Star Gas Company Manager Bill Donnell said here today, "show that home accidents are fundamentally the result of inadequate knowledge, insufficient skill and faulty attitudes. In line with these findings we have produced, as a public service, a home safety program having as its objective the saving of lives and the prevention of home accidents by teaching the individual how to detect and eliminate home hazards.

"A home accident kills an American man, woman or child every 19 minutes," Mr. Donnell continued, "and injures 480 every hour. These National Safety Council figures are stark reminders that our lives and the lives of loved ones are in jeopardy every second of the day and night. We must learn to detect and eliminate home hazards now if we are to make our homes safe places in which to live."

Advertisements and stories on home safety will be published in the Star during September and October.

Other home safety program materials are kits for home study and discussion, and for group meetings.

The home study and discussion kit is designed to give the home study program by family groups. It contains materials designed to picture home areas where accidents can occur, and lists methods of eliminating these hazards. The home safety program guides. These free kits may be obtained from Lone Star Gas Company sponsor offices.

The group meetings include a discussion, a safety and a booklet. These materials are available to interested companies and groups to conduct home safety in their plants and maintained from Lone Star at 415 Ave. C.
