CARD OF THANKS

We sincerely desire to express our heartfelt thanks to our many friends who so thoughtfully prayed and sent their wishes for our loved one's recovery during her stay in the Wichita Falls and Galveston Texas hospitals. Every act was so deeply appreciated. Words cannot relay to you, our friends, the gratitude which we feel for your many acts of kindness which you have shown in the recent loss of our beloved wife and mother. For the floral offerings, the food, and every act of kindness, "Thank You". We also wish to extend our appreciation to the pastors who were so faithful to the choir, and to the Owens & Brumley Funeral Home staff, who were so gracious and courteous. Our loss appears very great; however, it is many wonderful friends who help to lessen this loneliness. Again, "Many Thanks", and your friendship will be ever cherished, and your thoughtfulness remembered.

Essential Uses of the Dairy Farm

There are four essentials connected with the living and well-being of man. These are: (1) Air, (2) Water, (3) Food and (4) Shelter. In each of these four essential components of living, sanitation plays an extremely important part.

The ever-growing demand for cleanliness in today's modern milk house is nowhere more evident than in the need for proper variety of brushes. The fact is that today's milk house with its bulk tank and milking machine equipment is, in itself, a miniature model milk plant. As such, its sanitation requirements now make it necessary that every milk house, to insure proper cleaning needs, must have several distinct and different brushes on hand.

Rehearsals are held each Friday evening at 8:00 in the Town Hall. Any musician wishing to become a member of the Boomtowners can contact Dr. Sims by calling 569-3241.

Members of the band are:

- Clarinet — Wayne Taft, Dennis Harsh, Carolyn Craft, Janice Leitner, Kathy Steel, Lee Craft, Dwayne Dack, Cookie Sims, Marlene Barmore, Bill Willis, Lois Barr and Ruby Renfroe.

Young Burk Burnett Businessman

'He's a little Go-Getter'. These words have been used many times to describe Lynn Landrum. Lynn has earned his own spending money since he was five years old. He began by delivering circulars for local stores. His current project is making and selling fishing weights. When trucks were lined up in front of the grain elevator, Lynn was there selling cold drinks to the truck drivers.

Lynn, who is eleven years old, is in the sixth grade. He lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Landrum, and three brothers, Ricky, Larry, and Jeff.

What does he do with the money he makes? He saves some; he spends some for the many things an eleven year old boy must have; and he spends some on his hobby which is raising pigeons. He hopes to start racing some of his pigeons in the near future. When he earns twelve cents more he is planning to buy a pigeon racing clock.

SERVANT OR MASTER?

The Saturday Evening Post of May 22nd carries an editorial that was printed at a fortuitous time—just before Memorial Day. And it contains fundamental statements which every American should remember, with pride and gratitude.

In part it says: "America is not a perfect society, and its people are not required to pretend that it is. Our newspapers, magazines, pundits and commentators constantly criticize the Government. The President of the United States reads an astonishing amount of this criticism. Sometimes he gets mad, and sometimes he accepts the advice of his critics. But although this country is by no means perfect, it is constantly changing for the better. The change is sometimes slow, but it happens without bringing up the tanks or purging our political leaders.

"All things considered, we believe that our system of government has enabled its people to achieve a better life than any other system on earth. This may sound like an immodest claim, but what other great nation has combined such a high standard of living with such a high degree of individual freedom? Communism? The Communists have murdered freedom in the streets of Budapest and East Berlin. They have promised a worker's paradise on earth, and they are unable to provide their people with enough to eat.

"We believe that government is not an end in itself. It exists solely to provide a climate in which the people

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

The 19th Century French writer Honoré Balzac once wrote that all politicians seek to get cheap bread for the farmers while getting high prices for the farmer.

Today, many in government are seeking to get cheap medicine for a large segment of the nation, and at the same time hope that the American standard of medical practice remains high.

It is unfortunate that the so-called medicare plan, opposed by nation's independent businessmen through polls by National Federation of Independent Business, should have unleashed so many attacks against the American doctor who comprises a voting minority.

While others spend all their time in college studying how to sway the masses, the aspiring doctors must spend all their time learning how to heal the sick, repair the broken. No medical school has a course in demagoguery.

Perhaps not all doctors are winged saints. But there is some question Pearly Gates will fly open for every politician and bureaucrat. All in all, level of American medical practice is world renowned.

But far greater than this factor is the old Arab proverb against letting the camel get his nose in the tent. Once Social Security gets in the practice of medicine, not only is the quality of American medical practice doomed, but there will be constant increases in social security taxes.

The Wyoming Automobile Dealers Association has developed some interesting figures on how Social Security has operated over the years.

One Wyoming dealer who has averaged 60 employees since SS started in 1937 has seen his taxes for the program jump during this time from $800 per year to $8000, or a 900% increase.

Due to extending coverage, since 1950 when 961 million dollars was paid out by Social Security, the total by 1961 had grown to 12 1/2 billion dollars. Due to these revisions it is estimated that the present beneficiaries, on the average, paid for only about 5% of the benefits they are now receiving.

The auto dealers of Wyoming also point out as significant the fact that six of the seven expansions of Social Security since 1949 were voted into effect in election years.

Thus, from watching the track record since Social Security started, the nation's doctors know that once the bureaucrats establish a beachhead in medical matters, it will not be long until they take over the entire practice of medicine.

So, there is a lot of innuendo today being released against doctors to agitate mass against class. Presumably, in time if it is deemed politically effective to extend Social Security to offer free beer to the populace, and brewers object, the nation will be surprised to hear what rascals the brewers are.

Worms From The County Agent

Wichita County agents are checking their cotton for bollworms, boll weevils, and other pests. The county agent makes weekly cotton checks in the county. Farmers may secure a cotton insect guide in county agents' office.

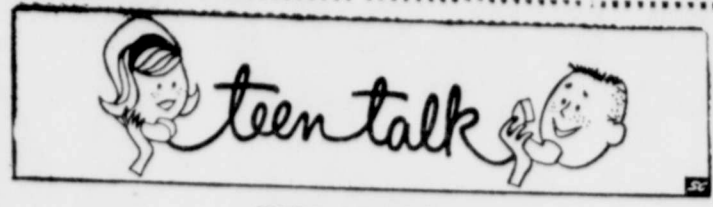

The price of fertilizer did not increase during the period from 1951 to 1960. But, during the same period, wages for hired farm labor increased 34 percent, farm machinery costs increased 29 percent and real estate taxes 62 percent, added Haws.

Texas farmers and ranchers are realizing that fertilizer is a good buy because they increased the amount purchased during this period 23 percent, and there is room for additional increases in fertilizer use.

In considering the use of additional fertilizer, a soil test should be made. A soil test will tell the amount of additional plant nutrients required for a given level of production. Also, it indicates the proper balance between plant nutrients for optimum growth and yields.

The form of fertilizer from which the recommended plant nutrients are obtained will have some influence on their price. Study the various forms and analyses in order to save on fertilizer costs but be sure to buy the kind and amount needed and don't just buy fertilizer, explains the county agent.

To determine just how good a buy fertilizer is on your farm, be sure to leave a check plot.

WHO LISTENS?

By Betsy Blake, Carnation Teen Committee

The gentle art of introduction is one that everyone does and few do well. A bad introduction is not just bad manners, it's bad sense. You can force someone to go through an entire evening totally nameless, simply because you mumbled.

Of course, introductions are difficult. Just keep in mind that everyone is as self-conscious as you. While you're worrying about whether your seams are straight, your dress becoming, your hair smooth—he's worrying if his tie is straight, his cowlick is lying flat and if you think he's All Right.

Zoom people into jet-propelled conversation with an introduction that gives those introduced something to talk about. For instance, "Doris Day, this is Rock Hudson. Doris has the largest collection of piggy banks in Hollywood High. Rock never saw a piggy bank, Doris."

Zoom people into jet-propelled conversation with an introduction that gives those introduced something to talk about. For instance, "Doris Day, this is Rock Hudson. Doris has the largest collection of piggy banks in Hollywood High. Rock never saw a piggy bank, Doris."

Next time there's a bunch of introductions at your house, help ease strangers into conversation with punch and the Dip Most Likely To Break The Ice, made with extra smooth evaporated milk to give it an extra creamy texture.

To make about one cup of Break-The-Ice Dip, melt 2 tablespoons butter and blend in 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour. Gradually add 2/3 cup (one small can) undiluted Carnation evaporated milk and cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Cool. Add 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 1/4 cup chopped parsley, 3/4 teaspoon chili powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, and 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard. Beat well.

Serve Vienna sausages to dip in the goop, and whatever potables are popular with your crowd.

The Carnation Teen Committee, made up of teens in schools across the country, make suggestions for this column. If you have an idea, write to CTC, 124 East 38th Street, New York 16, N.Y. A Teen Party Idea booklet will be sent on request.

ent per 100 plants because significant yield losses occur when 8 to 10 larvae per 100 plants are present.

Since young bollworm larvae are hard to find, control measures should be started when 5 percent of the young fruits are injured regardless of the number of worms present, according to the report. Relatively low percentages of injured bolls if sustained over a long period, may result in yield losses.

able temperature and at a convenient location the year round, recommends Haws.

To be sure of these conditions, the dairyman may want to fence creeks or pools, clean his water troughs more often, provide shade and construct aprons around troughs. Also free access to salt will help maintain normal thirst and promote good drinking habits, adds Mr. Haws.

Attention to details will insure adequate water intake and help maintain milk production, concludes Haws.

TIME LOST

This letter exemplifies the power of the press: "Dear Editor: Thursday I lost a gold watch which I valued very highly. Immediately I inserted an ad in your lost-and-found column and waited. Yesterday I went home and found the watch in the pocket of another suit. You have a wonderful paper."

Marriage, as the woman said, is for adults and not for children.

SPECIAL SALE

In a Hong Kong shop window two American tourists noticed some Chinese housecoats of particularly striking designs and stepped into purchase one. One American undertook to do the bargaining.

"Wantum coatee," said he to the sleepy-eyed Oriental who shuffled up with a grunt. He placed several of the coats before them.

"How muchee Melican monee?" inquired the American.

"It would aid me in transacting this sale," said the Chinaman, "if you would confine your language to your mother tongue. The coat is seven dollars."

The American took it.

The cotton farmer who thinks that low infestations of bollworms are not harmful may be losing considerable production to them.

Though small numbers of cotton bollworms may only slightly reduce the lint quality, they can cause sizeable yield losses, explains Progress Report 2235, by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

When an average of 3.6 of the bolls were damaged, losses of 627 pounds of seed cotton per acre occurred in tests conducted by P. L. Adkisson, R. L. Hanna, and C. F. Bailey, of the Department of Entomology, Texas

A&M College. These tests were conducted to determine the fruit damage and number of worms that can be tolerated before yield losses occur.

Recommendations usually suggest starting control measures when 4-5 young larvae are present.

HOW FAST CAN YOU GO IN A COFFIN?

Next time you are tempted to step on it, ask yourself this question! Last year, 40,000 died on our highways. In 3 out of 10 fatal accidents, drivers were speeding. Obey speed limits. Drive safely.

PLASTIC GAS CAN (AND SOMETIMES CAN'T)

Sportsmen have found dozens of uses for new plastic jugs. (They make dandy bailing cans, funnels, floats and the like.) Recently we suggested another possibility as emergency gas cans since the breakage danger that makes glass jugs so dangerous is eliminated. However, some jugs now appearing on the market are not formulated sufficiently stable to store petroleum products over long periods. Some areas have passed laws against using any of them for this purpose. All of which gives us the occasion to say again that getting an idea here doesn't relieve anyone of the responsibility of checking same carefully under local conditions and with local safety and/or legal authorities.

High School And Adult Homemaking Classes Begin Aug 6

Homemaking classes will begin Monday, August 6, for those high school girls who enrolled for the August session. Girls should report to the homemaking department at the high school at 8:15 a. m. on the day to which they have been assigned. Clothing classes will be held on Mondays and Tuesdays. Foods classes will be on Wednesday mornings, and the Consumer Education group will meet on Friday.

An adult class in beginner's sewing will be held on Thursday mornings from 8:30 to 11:30 for anyone interested in attending. The first class will be Thursday, August 9. The group will meet each Thursday for three weeks. Those planning to attend should bring material and patterns to the first meeting.

Any questions about the classes may be directed to Mrs. Hutchison at 569-3660. She will be in Austin attending the State Homemaking Teachers Conference this week until Saturday, August 4.

THINGS TO REMEMBER

The value of time. The necessity of perseverance. The pleasure of working. The worth of character. The dignity of simplicity. The power of kindness. The wisdom of saving. The virtue of patience. The job of originality. The beauty of cheerfulness. The influence of example. The obligation of duty.

BEFORE—NOT AFTER

All freshly cut lumber is literally saturated with moisture inherited from the living tree.

Gradually, this moisture evaporates. As it does, the wood cells contract and the lumber shrinks. This loss of size is inevitable, regardless of species. The important thing is for the shrinkage to occur BEFORE and NOT AFTER lumber is in service.

To protect users, Southern Pine manufacturers properly dry and "pre-shrink" lumber before it's surfaced to final size.

The U. S. Forest Products Laboratory—world's foremost authority on lumber—describes the drying (seasoning) process as "vitally important."

Make a Wish . . .

FOR HIS FUTURE

A birthday party really thrills the children, and probably the climax comes when they blow out the candles, and make a wish. His wish would probably be for a bright shiny new toy, but you as a parent would wish for him the things that really count, such as good health, happiness, friends and along with these deeper and more serious things should be a prayer for him to have the right interest and relationship to God. You can help these things by taking him to church Sunday.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE
The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Call them red bugs. Call them harvest mites. Call them chiggers. By whatever name, they mean sleepless nights and ceaseless spasms of itching misery.

This is their season. It will last from now until cold weather cuts into their ranks. A few people have an apparent immunity to chigger attacks, but the vast majority of us are oh-so-susceptible.

They—the chiggers—have a special affinity for low, damp places covered with vegetation. Bermuda grass harbors them well, but for some unexplained reason they are not usually found in carpet grass.

Just for the record, it's the larvae which do the damage, attaching themselves with their mouthparts and sucking blood until they become engorged and fall off. The fiery itching is caused by an anti-coagulant material they inject into their host.

Although adult chiggers—large, red and velvety—are probably harmless to humans, their wayward offspring can be serious as well as annoying. Not that they spread any specific disease—at least not in this country—but their bites demand scratching which frequently causes secondary infections in the form of sores and boils.

To learn where chiggers are harboring, stand a piece of black cardboard at end where you suspect their presence. If after a few moments you see tiny yellowish or pinkish mites accumulating on the upper edge you know it's time to check your supply of insecticide.

Chiggers attack lizards, snakes, birds, and rodents with the same vigor and resourcefulness they display in attacking humans. No distinction is drawn between man and lesser animal species, which is hardly complimentary to us Homo sapiens.

Light applications of sulphur dust on lawns and low branches of shrubs have been used successfully for years to control chiggers. Nowadays, the new insecticides such as chlorodane and lindane give better results. Just follow the directions on the label.

A quick word of caution: Be sure to avoid unnecessary exposure to the insecticide. If you spill the concentrated material on your skin, wash it off immediately. And be sure to keep children and pets out of the yard until the spray dies.

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

PIRACY
The colorful pirate of old captured your imagination but not that of the shipowners or the governments that lost their cargoes and treasures.

Pirates were "enemies of mankind." Their acts became crimes against that government as well as against the "laws of nations."

A government would try to catch and to punish them no matter how and where the piracy took place.

From these early days, a rule of international law called "the piracy principle" came into being, as to crimes against mankind. Any nation might seize and punish such a person. He did not need to be one of its citizens. The crimes could be committed inside or outside its territory. Jurisdiction is worldwide.

Now and then some nations may allow a court to try a person "in absentia." Such trials without the accused present
