The 1964 Wheat Certificate Plan Will Lower Prices In the Market And Increase Controls to Producer

By J. W. Tole, Vice President Wichita County Farm Bureau

In the event that the Wheat Referendum carries the market price will be certain to level off at the feed wheat price of $1.30 per bushel and the certificates to be issued by the Secretary of Agriculture will have a value of 70c per bushel. This added to the $1.30 in the market place will give the producers the $2.00 per bushel wheat as advocated by the Secretary of Agriculture for 80% of his allotment times the average yield. Upon enactment of the Wool Act, which pays compensatory payments to the producer of wool, the market price for wool fell to the minimum level. A similar situation could prevail under the proposed wheat program.

The Wheat Referendum vote on May 21 will decide many things but for the wheat grower its approval would mean the tightest and most restrictive controls ever devised on any farm commodity. It not only limits the number of bushels each farmer can sell at the certificate price but also authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to control wheat and wheat products to the consumer as provided in Section 379B of the Food and Agriculture Act of 1962. "During any marketing year for which a wheat marketing allocation program is in effect, all persons engaged in the processing of wheat into food products shall, prior to marketing any such product for human food in the United States, acquire marketing certificates equivalent to the number of bushels of wheat contained in such product and all persons exporting wheat or food products shall prior to such export acquire marketing certificates equivalent to the number of bushels so exported."

The Secretary of Agriculture will have tremendous power to cut acreage allotments sharply below the 1963 level in future years, which has been based on the 55 million minimum acres. Reduced allotments usually increases yield per acre which only adds to the surplus, contrary to the primary purpose of all past programs.

The Wheat Certificate Plan on which farmers will vote in the referendum continues to ignore market demand. Producers of inferior quality wheat would receive certificates for a pro-rata share of their production, even if their wheat is completely unacceptable to the milling industry. All producers would have to sell part of their production in the non-certificate market. Obviously, this means producers of high-quality wheat would be penalized.

The Secretary of Agriculture is in control of diverted acres and may require all acres retired from wheat production to be the same land year after year. Congress has only made provision for diverted acres payments through the year 1965.

Many wheat farmers invite your consideration of the opinions of the majority of the farm magazine publications, the American Farm Bureau Federation, the American National Cattlemen's Association, National Livestock Feeders' Association, Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, and the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association before making up your mind on how to vote. In opposing the Wheat Referendum on May 21, farmers will be paving the way for a good, sound and sensible program for agriculture that will allow the farmer control of his farm.

Grass Roots Opinion

ODESSA, TEX., AMERICAN: "Apparently the Amish of Independence, Iowa, are going to be fined or jailed again and again unless they bow down to the awesome might of the state. They must either send their children to the tax supported institutions or must provide facilities approved by the state for their own church school. It would seem that every individual who claims to believe in freedom would jump in to help these farm folks who seek to train their own young people in the way they believe they should. For, if those in the school hierarchy are successful in closing the 'unauthorized' schools of the Amish, they'll start next on the Free Methodist, the Baptist, the Seventh Day Adventists, the Jews, Episcopalians, Lutheran and Catholics."

JUNCTION CITY, ORE., TIMES: "Two sons and ten years ago our fathers brought forth upon this nation a new tax. Now we are engaged in a great mass of calculations, testing whether that taxpayer or any taxpayer so confused and impoverished can long endure."

RIVERTON, WYO., RANGER: "Attempts at news management are nothing new from government leaders. But the new refinements may cause the nation new difficulties. The press of the nation isn't trying to give away any vital secrets when it goes after the news. The record of the press is good in keeping secret news matters that actually affect the national security. More dangerous than the press getting the facts to the people is the people's willingness to swallow a government line that distorts truth. When the government and the press agree, the republic will be gone."

MOVILLE, IOWA, RECORD: "The difference between Rip Van Winkle and the merchant who doesn't advertise is that Rip finally woke up."

WASHINGTON AND THE SMALL BUSINESS

By C. WILSON HARDER

A most interesting fact is that West Germany has budgeted $400,000 to subsidize a sell-off of West Germany's iron and steel plants and machinery to the U.S. government. This kind of deal is being done by German industrialists and the German government—a few from the relations firm handling the deal.

The picture shows all his disclosure, filled with other information, shows most dangerous of monopoly business.

Of course, around Washington, there are many interests working to discredit and break down U.S. anti-trust laws.

And in his connection, it is significant that Krupp, the most German metal and arms manufacturer, is on the march again. It was Krupp which built two German world war machines.

And while the Krupp empire was supposed to have been broken up it is now stronger, employing more people than ever with possible expansion of war years when Krupp operated with profits of slave labor.

Now Krupp is doing a $5 million a year business with countries behind the Iron Curtain, despite the Berlin Wall. It is being done with the encouragement of the West German government. It is also a matter of record that Alfred Krupp and Wilhelms-Krupp have in the recent past met and exchanged official amenities, even though at one time the U.S. National Production of Independent Nations.

For 28 years, through German triumph and defeat, the Krupp monopoly has grown greater and greater while Krupp's income, also, has grown. The U.S. anti-trust laws permit further concentration of U.S. economic power into monopoly complexes, time will then be ripe to "bury American capitalism."

It is known, for example, that Hitler had an easy time of controlling all Germany when he commanded Krupp.

Now Krupp has not ordered the Berlin Wall torn down and turned his back on the German problem. He is still selling for the eventual communization of all Germany. That he has no objection against setting the communist nations under his control and to Krupp's economic power.

Because he knows, to master new many demonstrations people make in the Berlin Wall against his regime, Krupp has and spirit cannot prevail against monopolized power.

Thus, the Krupp monopoly is in the air. He knows that whenever the time is right Krupp will deliver him Germany back, stock and barrel, plus all the improvements made through millions of dollars of American through give away.

During the 1950's United States citizens invested about $200 million a year in the Latin American countries. With the coming of the socialist program of the Alliance for Progress, plus the reestablishment of the strong Communist base in Cuba, American investment in Latin America has declined almost to zero. Dr. Kerviner and Latin American capital is leaving something like ten times faster than the Alliance for Progress can pour it in.

Socialism and capitalism are opposites. They do not permanently mix. Sooner or later one will drive out the other. The policy of our government seems to be directed, both in our own country and abroad, toward putting an end to the era of capitalism and bringing in a Socialist economy. History shows that this will mean the end of freedom and self-government.

There is nothing in the record of socialism to make it appear attractive to intelligent people. Nevertheless, because ambitious men propagate socialism in false but they terms its essential principles appear to have been accepted in Washington. Even so, the people are still in control and they can correct this situation if they will arouse themselves to action. It must be prompt and decisive however for the time is rapidly approaching.

The press corps in Washington numbers about 1300 of whom about half are actually press correspondents. To keep these people properly supplied with information the United States government employs 1300 press and information officers. Our government certainly makes a mighty propaganda on behalf of its own ideologies and activities. It is too bad that some of this effort could not be devoted to skillful worldwide anti-Communist propaganda. Instead thereof, and most unfortunately, the greater part of the efforts of our publicity people are directed toward the justification of further socialization in our own country.

On April 21st a goal of 350 has been set for Sunday School attendance, which will break all attendance records. An attendance of 340 broke all previous records on April 21st. The last Sunday of the revival a goal of 403 has been set by the leadership of our Sunday School.

A special invitation is given to every person living in the Burkburnett area to attend these services. TAKE TIME FOR GOD and plan now to attend every service possible.

LOOK TO THE "LINING"

How well a home is "lined" has a strong impact on air conditioning costs and efficiency. According to the Southern Pine Association, an ideal "lining" is a layer of solid boards between the frame work of outer walls and surfacing materials. The high insulation value of this lumber makes the home cooler in summer and increases air conditioning efficiency.

BUNIONS NOT "INHERITED"
Q. Can bunions be removed surgically? Is this condition inherited?
A. "Bad feet" seems to run in families but heredity is as important as some people think, one would expect to see many more bunions in children. Instead, most bunions sufferers are adults. The condition seems to be due to weakened foot muscles, brought on by age and stress. Yes, bunions can be removed surgically but the operation should be performed by a physician skilled in foot care. Removal of the bunions usually also requires reconstructive surgery of the "toe tendons" to prevent recurrence.

WRINKLE-REMOVER COSMETICS WORTHLESS
Q. Will hormone creams actually remove wrinkles?
A. Hormones used in "wrinkle-removing" skin cream and other cosmetics haven't been shown effective and may be dangerous. This is the conclusion of a physician who recently reported to the American Medical Association's Committee on Cosmetics.

There is no need to leave a sick person alone while you make a hurried and worried trip to pick up the medicine. We'll deliver it promptly to your home.

Seek Safe Building Codes In New Suburban Areas

Rigid fire-resistance tests by Underwriters' Laboratories are the first step in making sure asphalt shingles qualify for the UL label. A panel of roofing, above, is exposed to a 1300-degree F. gas flame.

Most families who live in large cities are protected by building codes that bar the use of unsafe building materials. But what about the millions who live beyond city limits, where the biggest shock-waves of the building boom have been felt?

A tragic rash of conflagrations that devastated many cities years ago spurred the adoption of ordinances calling for fire-resistant roofing on all homes in many cities. But equally strict codes have never been adopted for residential construction in many suburban areas that have sprung up in recent years.

To be on the safe side, a family planning to build or buy a home outside city limits should see to it that the builder or contractor use approved materials.

For example, they should insist on roofing approved by the Underwriters' Laboratories. The UL label on a bundle of asphalt shingles means that the shingles have passed a rigid series of laboratory tests for fire resistance. UL technicians also make the shingles receive the UL label. UL technicians also make the shingles receive the UL label. UL technicians also make the shingles receive the UL label.

Testimonials On Driver Education

— FROM —
Judges of Local Traffic Courts
— AND —
Other Local Officials

Dorman Gibbs (Chief of Police, Brady)
There is such a marked difference in the attitude of the trained young driver and in the way they drive that it is foolish not to have the course everywhere. Brady High School has had it, but does not have it this year for lack of finances."

O. E. Cannon (Judge of Corporation Court, Crocus Christi)
"Practically no Driver Education trained drivers come into my court. At least, far fewer ever do."

Mrs. Maxine E. Crowe (Judge of Corporation Court, Vega)
"I have two boys who have had Driver Education, a girl who has not. The boys are much better drivers; they drive by the book. A teacher can tell students with authority things a parent cannot."

J. B. Masterson (Judge of Corporation Court, Deer Park)
"Everybody in Deer Park High School gets Driver Education. I have no trouble with the 14- and 15-year olds. My trouble is with the older untrained teenagers. The school is doing a wonderful job with the students."

Lawrence C. Lang (Judge of Corporation Court, San Antonio)
"I have very little trouble with Driver Education - trained students; they have a proper regard for the law. San Antonio is not reaching all our students with training; I wish we were."

Robert Alcorn (Judge of Corporation Court, Kingsville)
"A normal person who takes Driver Education never appears in traffic court."

Titus Mitchell (Judge of Corporation Court, Wichita Falls)
"High School Driver Education is the most beneficial thing that has happened traffic-wise in many years. I would rather have a trained 14-year-old driver, er, even given his license the day he is 14, than an untrained 16-year-old-driver." (A Driver-Education student cannot get his license on the day he is 14, under Texas law; he is more likely to be 14½ when he completes the course.)

H. W. Whitten (Judge of Corporation Court, Nacogdoches)
"I have not had before my court any Driver-Education-trained drivers. Driver Education is a wonderful thing. Drivers HAVE to be educated to drive today's cars in today's traffic."

William R. Hasley (Justice of Peace, Palacios)
"Driver Education - trained drivers don't 'hot rod.' They are old hands when they get through with the course. They really know how to drive."

Tom H. Nealy (County Judge Hudspeth County, Sierra Blanca)
"There are three independent School Districts in sparsely populated Hudspeth County. They do not have enough school taxes to pay Driver-Education teachers. They NEED state aid and need it badly. We do not want the parents teaching the children to drive, because the parents do not know how themselves. I am Juvenile Judge also, and the juveniles tell me that their parents violate every traffic law in the book. With proper help these children could be made into good drivers. The schools are doing a good job of Safety-Education, and with help could offer Driver-Education courses. The three schools are too big to be without Driver Education and too little to finance it."

L. R. Tyus (Judge of Corporation Court, White Settlement)
(Does he believe in Driver-Education? "I sure do," he answers.) "Our trained young drivers are guilty of only minor offenses, if any; they are never involved in serious accidents. My big problem with teenagers is with the untrained ones who are not in school; I have VERY little trouble with the trained ones. I DO have a problem with under-age, unlicensed drivers."

IT'S UP TO YOU

By Howard E. Kershner, L.H.D.

ON January 1st the Social Security tax rose to 7½ per cent divided equally between employer and employee. To get some idea of where this tax is eventually going we have only to note that in Italy it is now more than 20 per cent of payroll and is rising. If the President's Medicare plan is to be financed through Social Security the rate will of course rise much more rapidly.

The utter immorality with which the scheme was sold to the American people may be seen from the following facts. If a worker had paid the maximum Social Security tax from 1937 when the program started and retired this month at age 65 with a wife the same age he and his employer would have paid in a total of $1,158. If he had not and his wife had her normal expectancy and there are no more rises in benefits they will draw out a little more than 10 times the total amount paid in. Of course this deficit will have to come from somewhere and it means that younger workers now entering the scheme will have to pay more, much more, than they themselves may expect to draw out in benefits.

The case is even worse when we look at the facts for self-employed persons. If one entered self-employed Social Security when the scheme was started in 1951 and paid the maximum each year he would have paid in a total of $1,724. If he retires at age 65 this year and his wife is the same age and both live their normal expectancy they will draw out 18 and two-thirds times the total amount paid in.

It is the normal desire of parents to leave something for their children, but Social Security reverses that normal human instinct and levies upon children and grandchildren an enormously heavy burden of caring for the aging generation.

Social Security looked very attractive in the beginning, but like all other means of obtaining something for nothing it proved to be a hollow mockery. What could be more immoral than the frightful spectacle of the older generations stealing from the younger?

Household Hints by Joan March Worden

Director, Fine Cleaner Information Center.

Ask a woman and you'll get an opinion — especially on subjects close to home like house-cleaning.

Interviewers for the Gallup Survey rang doorbells recently with 6 questions for the lady of the house. If they didn't get to you, here's a chance to measure your answers with those who got counted.

- Q. Do you think a household cleaner should also act as a disinfectant, deodorant, or both?
A. 79 per cent of the women interviewed wanted triple-duty products.
- Q. Have you changed to a pine oil cleaner recently?
A. One out of every eight women said they changed from nontoxic pine oil brands within the last year.
- Q. Do you use disinfectants in your home?
A. 81 per cent of the women interviewed do.
- Q. For what purposes do you use disinfectants in your home?
A. Big use is in the bathroom (8 out of 10 women use them here). More than half use disinfectants in general cleaning.
- Q. Do you use a disinfectant in doing the laundry?
A. 39 per cent of the women who use disinfectants use them in the laundry.
- Q. Is pine oil added to household cleaners to make it smell better, to improve cleaning, or to kill germs?
A. Women interviewed gave various opinions. The correct answer to this one is that pine oil is added to improve cleaning and to kill germs — the pleasant aroma is an added plus.

For a set of six free "Household Hints" leaflets, write to Dept. CR, Fine Cleaner Information Center, 1028 Connecticut Ave., Washington 6, D. C.

Don't Walk-In Behind Pointer
Many bird hunters make the mistake of walking-in behind a pointing dog to flush birds. This not only encourages the dog to break point, but such an approach can scatter the birds. To flush birds, walk-in from the dog's side. Birds will bunch better when flushed, thus making better targets.

WHEN DUCKS FLARE AWAY
When ducks flare from your blind, after showing that they want to come in, look around to find out what they don't like about the setup. It may be your cigarette smoke, empty shotgun shells, or scraps of luncheon paper fluttering in the wind. Pick up telltale evidence and see what happens.

Fish are an aquatic crop, capable of being managed and harvested on an annual yield basis.

UL LABEL-Your Guardian

Did you know that even incubators for premature babies carry the Underwriters' Laboratories label? It's the symbol of protection for the precious occupants.

And did you know that thousands of other products besides your electric blanket, lamps, toaster, and coffee maker pass rigid tests to earn the UL label — things such as gypsum wall-board, glass bricks, concrete blocks, and some asphalt shingles.

If you're shopping for a new roof or buying a house, look or ask for shingles with the UL label — it means they've passed strict laboratory tests and been checked during production to assure "reasonable satisfaction" with performance as well as safety.

stand direct sunlight. A few will thrive even in the dark part of a room where light is quite dim.

If you want to grow begonias, you'll need a location that receives indirect sunlight. This calls for a sunny spot with a light curtain to break the glare. Begonias also need warm temperatures — 80 to 85 degrees during the day, the temperature often found near a sunny window, and no lower than 65 degrees at night. But begonias also like medium to high humidity. This is not easy to provide in houses with heating systems that tend to keep humidity low. Some spots — like a kitchen window above a kitchen sink — may be moist enough for begonias in a house that is other wise too dry.

Or, would you prefer a green foliage plant? They provide attractive accents to modern furnishings and are most popular now. But they, too have special requirements.

Philodendrons are an example. Some form of philodendron need a support to grow on; some don't. In general, philodendrons do best in warm temperatures and away from direct sunlight. They need to be kept moderately moist, but they're not too fussy about humidity. Over-watering can cause trouble.

Mrs. George Wyatt is a real pro. when it comes to growing and using house plants for home decoration. She has them well arranged so they have a real place in her home.

Information like this can help you decide what plants are most likely to thrive under the conditions you have to offer. It is available in "Selecting and Growing House Plants," a publication of USDA's Agricultural Research Service. You can get a copy by writing Thelma Wirges, 305 Federal Building, Wichita Falls.

When the job at hand is serious, a pleasant manner is not especially pleasing to those most concerned.

TREE HUNTER'S AID

Deer hunting from a tree produces good results but it's often dangerous. An accident easily can occur if a hunter tries to turn around on the limb where he is standing. Unfortunately he turns instinctively when he hears a sound behind him that might be an approaching buck. A small mirror angled just right to cover the immediate terrain, to the rear of the hunter, will eliminate the necessity for movement.

PREVENT FOREST FIRES

Dry fall months can be even more dangerous than those of summer when it comes to forest fire danger. Nippy weather of fall causes more campfires to be built. Help prevent a blaze from originating at your campsite by clearing a large circle around the spot where you intend to build your fire. Also keep the fire itself as small as possible.

IT'S UP TO YOU

By Howard E. Kershner, L.H.D.

WHY did the United States' veto the desire of the delegates to the Organization of American States to send an ultimatum to Moscow during the Cuban crisis? Our government took the position that we must trust U Thant who has shown his Russian bias at every opportunity.

In like manner Washington recognized the left-wing revolutionary government of Yemen, installed in that country with the help of Nasser's Egyptians. Nasser's forces were equipped with Russian armor and vehicles and it is the results they have accomplished which we have now recognized.

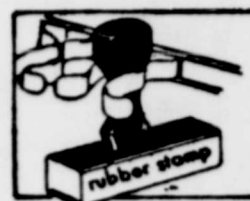

And so it goes on and on. Communism achieves one triumph after another only because it is recognized and aided by our country. This has been going on for a generation, ladies and gentlemen, and now the armed forces of U.N., financed from money wrung from the American taxpayers, are becoming the spearhead of Communist aggression.

U.N. is also pushing pro-Communist propaganda; a recent case in point is a protest by Lord Conesford in the House of Lords in London. Lord Conesford called attention to the fact that UNESCO had issued a booklet called, "Equality of Rights Between Races and Nationalities in the U.S.S.R." in which it was asserted that the Baltic States voluntarily joined the U.S.S.R. The noble lord rightly contended that the statement he quoted from the UNESCO book was exactly the opposite of the truth. He protested against helping to pay for such false propaganda. Again, our taxpayers foot the greater part of UNESCO's bills and so against our will, we become a party to these diabolical falsehoods. The Baltic countries fiercely desired their freedom but they were smashed, looted, raped, and gutted by the U.S.S.R. Their more important citizens were deported and now we finance propaganda to the effect that they have joined the U.S.S.R.

How long, my fellow Americans, will we take part in such falsehoods and make it possible for U.N. and its subordinate agencies to continue deceiving the people of the world?

Christian Freedom Foundation, Inc. New York 19, N. Y.
