One is designed for elementary school personnel and another for superior high school students.

The day is advertised by posters, made by the students. Each class enters a poster in a contest and one winner from each grade is chosen. Shown below are the winning posters from each grade. The Sixth Grade winner is Carol Davis from Section 6-6. HELP WANTED

The Youth Center is desperately in need of the following personnel:
Tennis Coach for the Summer months — both boys and girls. Short hours and a great feeling of satisfaction in knowing you are helping the youth of Burk Burnett.
Also a Boys' Diving Coach when the pool opens and a Coach for a girls' aqua ballet team. Qualifications for the above jobs are: a sincere desire to help young people, a love for clean wholesome fun and satisfaction in seeing a job well-done. Our goal at the Center is to see that every boy and girl in Burk Burnett has the opportunity to become a member of a wholesome recreational activity during the Summer months. The baseball program is doing an outstanding job, but there are hundreds of youth still without a recreational home — let's help them find one — before they are placed in another kind of home. Visitors in the G. C. Henson home this week included Mrs. Henson's sisters, Mrs. Vera Poole, Tucson, Arizona; and Mrs. Russell Hall of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; and nephews, W. A. (Bud) Griffin, Los Angeles, California, and Joe Boy Griffin and family of Waurika, Oklahoma.

Here's A Real Loophole

If you are a businessman, you have been figuring out your federal income tax under new rules that apply to your transportation, lodging, meals and entertainment costs. And remember, there is no exemption allowed for productive time lost in daily bookkeeping.

It doesn't set well with a hard-pressed private citizen when he reads of the loose manner in which Congressmen are permitted to list their expenses for travel on junkets around the world, for which tax money pays. Instead of an itemized statement they turn in a report that reads, for instance, lodging $400, meals $800, transportation $500, miscellaneous $300. No details are required about who, when or how they fed a guest, whether the cost for entertainment, transportation and lodging pertained to government business, etc.

Why shouldn't a Congressman be required to fill out in detail the same kind of an expense account as a private citizen, before he turns it in to the government for payment? After all it is public money he is spending and that should be more carefully accounted for than personal income.

If the government is really trying to plug tax-loopholes, why not include the public officials who travel at taxpayer expense, as well as the private citizen who travel at their own or company expense? In other words, let government set a good example.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

PECATONICA, ILL., NEWS: "If every individual would attempt to give something to life, instead of trying to take something, there wouldn't be any need to debate the virtues of capitalism and Communism."

OPPOROUNITY, WN., SPOKANE VALLEY HERALD: "I was raised on a farm, where you have the advantage of seeing my basic philosophy working. Sometime I feel I did my three sons a disservice by not making their home on a farm. In a modern push-button home it is not hard to understand why young people sometime

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

Calvin Coolidge is reputed to have once said "When there are a great many people out of work, you have unemployment." And it is this question of national unemployment which is causing great concern in Congress.

Big Labor of course, keeps urging and bargaining for a shorter work week, on the premise that this would force more employment. There seems little support for such a move at this time.

But perhaps by far the most interesting proposal to solve the problem is contained in a bill introduced into Congress by Rep. James O'Hara of Michigan. He would make it a law that overtime must be paid for at double time instead of time and a half.

The premise is that if such a provision were made, law, employers would hire additional people rather than pay such a premium for overtime.

This measure appears to be in the language of Madison Avenue, a "switch" on the employment policies put into effect in Italy by the late Benito Mussolini. Faced with hordes of unemployed, his Fascist government went to all employers and arbitrarily told them how many additional people they had to put on the payroll.

And even though Il Duce started his ill-starred political career as a Socialistic editor, he kept the Italian wages among the lowest in the world.

He also made it a jail offense for any Italian capital to be kept in foreign investments.

And it is perhaps a sad commentary on the American economic plight today that employers find it costs less to pay time and a half for overtime than to hire more people.

Yet any employer, faced with the necessity of making substantial contributions to federal and state welfare programs with each new employee hired, plus making contributions to various union-enforced "fringe" benefits, finds that it is cheaper to pay time and a half. This does not take into account the extra clerical and accounting work to keep records for government involved in hiring more people.

The entire system has now been set up to the point where hiring of new people is undertaken only as a last resort.

And no matter how humane Rep. O'Hara's motives are in seeking to alleviate the plight of the unemployed, means sought promise little improvement.

There is a most basic principle involved. More jobs depend on more employers. And new employers are only created when the independent entrepreneur feels he has a chance of success in some undertaking.

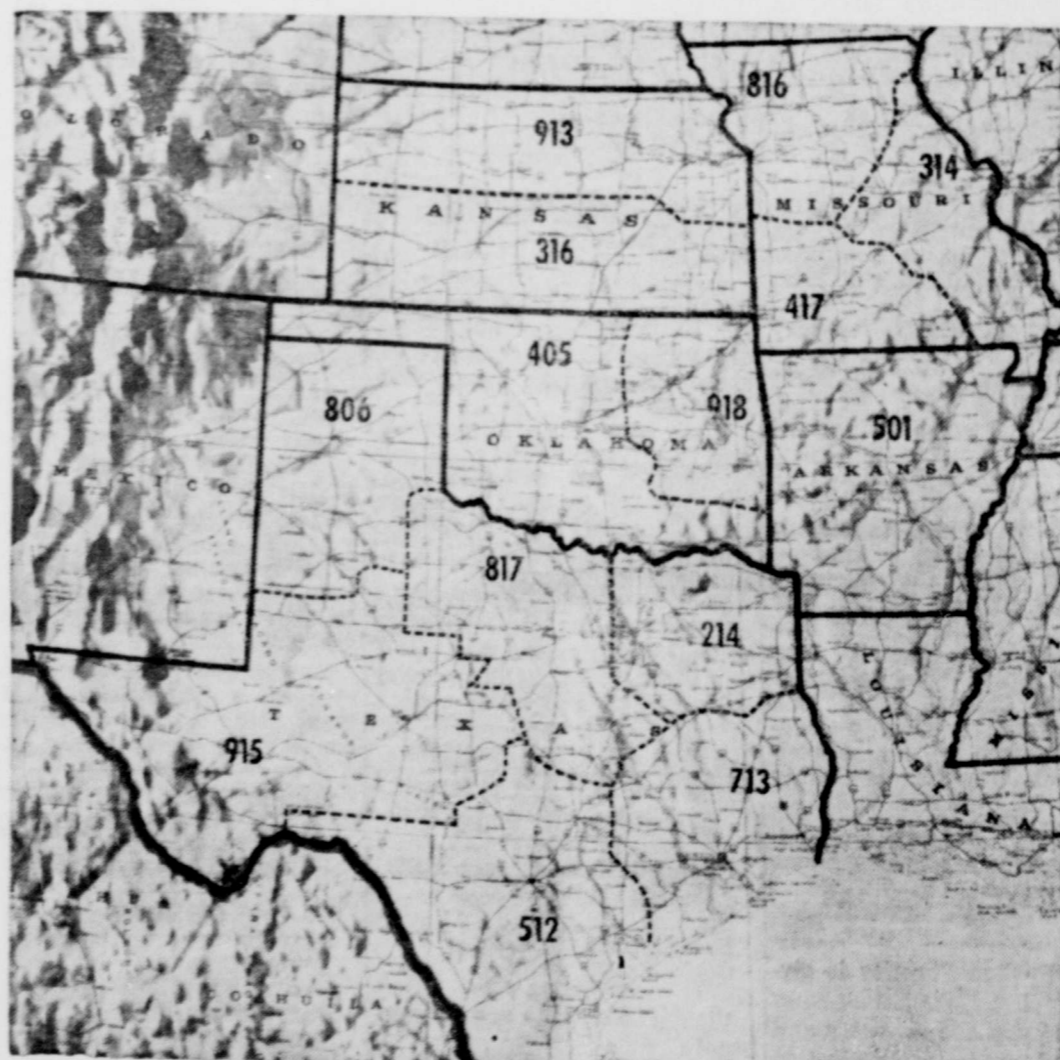

But taxation policies, welfare programs, union regulations, low cost imports from cheap labor foreign nations, and ruthless illegal competitive tactics by monopoly minded corporations have destroyed the confidence needed to start new enterprises. And until such time as confidence is restored, unemployment will continue to mount.

miss the point of life. On a farm, they would learn that if they wanted to eat they would have to plant the seed and then labor mightily until their muscles ached to see that seed bear fruit for their use. In more primitive times, they would have learned that failure to labor thus would have resulted in a hungry winter."

DON'T GET LOST

In hunting in rugged country precautions should be taken against getting lost. Throw a light rope, such as a clothesline across the highest outside limb of the nearest dead tree or sparsely-limbed sapling. Next tie a red bandana or other brightly colored cloth to the dangling end of the line. Then pull the bandana to the top of the tree. It will serve as a beacon that can be seen from afar.

BOYS' CLUBS FIND "THINGS THAT COUNT"

Boys' Clubs of America encourage and promote talent. A recent national talent search will give many youngsters an opportunity to record a professional "Spoken Arts" album. Others are studying music and art under the Steven David Epstein Memorial Foundation scholarships.

The Boys' Clubs of America is the first social agency to offer advanced administration workshops. Over a four-year period, most Boys' Club directors are expected to participate in week-long "Executive Program" seminars conducted in cooperation with New York University under a $168,200 W. K. Kellogg grant.

Boys' Clubs "help youngsters discover the things that count." From marbles to music, homework to hobbies, sports to service, in fact, all the "things that count" may be found at any of the 625 Boys' Clubs of America.

Nine Million Steps to Physical Fitness—Many juvenile problems start with kid's feet because they don't use them enough, claims Vern Carroll, who walked 4,100 miles from Dubuque to Alaska in behalf of Boys' Clubs of America. He relates his adventure in his forthcoming book "I Didn't Walk Alone."

Boys' Club training can save lives. Swimming lessons for two 12-year olds at a New England Boys' Club enabled them to save two other youngsters from drowning. They credit their heroism to swimming and water safety instructions received through membership in the Boys' Clubs of America. Thousands receive such training daily.

DISCUSSES FLORIDA

any money, or even the property they bought." They were content to receive a purchase and sale agreement" which they did not bother to file at the Court House. They merely gave their note for the sales agreement; then they sold this at a profit to someone else, who in turn, sold it to another party. A man could build $1,000 up to $100,000, swapping one piece of paper for another.
 Finally the crash came, and the last party lost everything.

FLORIDA MUNICIPAL BONDS

Farmers were not the only ones taken in. Many banks failed. And municipal bond prices collapsed. Saratosa bonds fell from $100 to $20;
 Orlando bonds fell to $40;
 the bonds of the City of Sanford dropped from $100 to $10.
 Beautiful homes costing $500,000
 sold at 10 cents on the dollar.
 Most people called it a panic,
 but it was more like an epidemic of diphtheria or typhoid, except that it was mental. Will it come again? I don't know; but there are no signs of it now.

People are no longer speculating in pieces of paper. Most speculators are buying large acreage and dividing it into house lots. People are buying one or two lots on speculation, but their total loss would be not more than $5,000 even if the development company went into bankruptcy. The difficulty is that these companies sometimes fail to put in water systems or hard roads or other improvements promised. There is still considerable speculation in Florida land, but it is legiti-mate; the lots have been bought and the deeds recorded.

WHERE TO BUY?
 I do not answer specific questions which come to me, as I cannot afford to get involved in any lawsuits; but I am willing to say that anyone who buys a small house and an adjoining lot in a Florida City of 20,000 or less, in which he plans to live, should make a good and healthful investment. He however, should first drive down to Florida and take a trip around the state. The local bank of any city will give the name of a reliable real estate agent.

It is a mistake to put all your money in any one thing, whether it is a bank or the stock market or an orange grove.
 Many orange groves are good investments if they are in frost-protected sections and old enough so that a freeze will not hurt the trees even if the fruit is lost for a year.
 However, if I had all my investment in orange groves,
 I should certainly sell one-half and invest that money
 in the stock of General Foods
 Co. or Coca-Cola (which owns Minute Maid). I also advise all subscribers to this newspaper to read THE DAY
 MONEY STOPPED by Caroline Bird (LOOK MAGAZINE for March 12th).

DIFFERENT SECTIONS OF FLORIDA DISCUSSED

If buying land for speculation
 — by the acre or by the foot
 — I would surely get ocean front property. For many years there will be plenty of available land in Florida, but ocean front will be very scarce; the most expensive is on the East Coast north of Miami.

The Everglades should be avoided on account of mosquitoes and other insects. The most attractive area at present is the West Coast south of Sarasota — including Venice, Punta Gorda, Fort Myers,
 and Naples. A portion that has appealed to friends of mine is Sanibel Island. A bridge to Sanibel is soon to be opened and a second bridge to Pine Island is under construction. If prices have not increased too much in anticipation, seashore property on one of these islands might be attractive.

In high altitudes the Llama is used as a beast of burden.

Whether gardening, golf or mains outdoors for any great length of time.

This can be remedied by heating the key in the flame of your lighter or a match for a moment before inserting the key in the lock.

concrete gutter, leading from downspouts away from the house, will reduce soil erosion. Such a gutter can be installed easily by digging a trench in the soil of the desired length, 12 inches wide and 6 inches deep. Concrete is then placed in the trench and shaped with a shovel, tile or similar item.

Concrete for the gutter need not be a matter of measuring and mixing the proper amounts of sand, gravel and cement. You can save a good deal of time and trouble by using Sakrete Concrete Mix, a ready mixed, ready-to-use product sold by most hardware, lumber and building material dealers. Mix water into the dry material as directed to provide a strong concrete mixture, ready for use.

William R. Byars Nominee For The Young Texan Award

William Richard Byars, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Byars, 316 Hayworth Street, Burk Burnett, has been honored as Optimist District 7 nominee for the Young Texan of the Month Award sponsored by the Optimist Clubs of Texas and the Troy V. Post Foundation of Dallas.

Byars' selection as District 7 nominee was based on his overall accomplishments in his community, school, church, and on his potential as a future leader of Texas.

As a district nominee, Byars will receive a handsome Certificate of Merit from the nominating club, and a medallion key chain featuring the seal of the Troy Post Foundation.

The purpose of the monthly presentation is to spotlight those young Texans who, through service, scholarship and sportsmanship epitomize the many outstanding teen-age citizens of the state.

The Troy V. Post Award, presented to each monthly winner, includes a walnut and bronze plaque, an engraved wrist watch and a sterling silver key chain with medallion.

The yearly winner in the Young Texan program will be eligible to win one of three scholarships to be awarded at the annual banquet in February—one in the amount of $2,000 and two others in the amount of $1,000 each. In addition to the $2,000 scholarship, the Young Texan of the Year and his parents will receive an expense paid, one week trip to Washington, D. C.

Texas Couple Honored by Methodist Home

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Willson of Floydada were honored last week for their interest in the 400 children who live at the Methodist Home in Waco. Mr. and Mrs. Willson were presented to a gathering of Texas Methodist leaders at a luncheon climaxing the nationally known "Willson Lectures on Child Care" held annually at the Methodist Home in Waco. The lectures are endowed by Mr. and Mrs. Willson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Willson of Floydada, Texas, were honored for their interest in the children of the Methodist Home and their philanthropies throughout Methodism, Thursday in Waco, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Willson were presented to over 200 Methodist leaders at a luncheon closing the seventh annual Methodist Home Willson lectures on Child Care. Mr. and Mrs. Willson made the lectures possible through an endowment fund. Featured lecturer this year was Miss Claire E. Stone, Associate Director of the Leake and Watts Children's Home in Yonkers, New York, and an acknowledged leader in the field of child care.

Mr. and Mrs. Willson have endowed 22 lectureships in Texas and other Southern and Southwestern states. Mr. Willson is a successful businessman and farmer in Floydada. He and his wife are active members on a number of Methodist university, hospital, and institutional boards in Texas. Mr. Willson is a past president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, has received the Top West Texas Award, and is a past District Governor of Rotary International.

The Willson lectures are delivered to Methodist Home Staff members and special guests from public and private agencies concerned with child care. The Methodist Home today cares for over 400 children, and since its founding in 1890 has cared for a total of over 8,000 boys and girls.

Miss Stone lectured the staff and guests on communications with children, helping the child meet and cope with difficult emotional situations and individualization of the child within the group.

In discussing the increasing number of serious family breakdowns that cause children to be placed in the Methodist Home and similar institutions, Miss Stone placed considerable blame on the reluctance of parents to seek competent professional help in solving their marriage problems. She also urged churches, schools and public and private agencies concerned with family stability to coordinate their efforts and make known the services offered.

Miss Stone noted that young couples of all economic levels are "having trouble," but do not seek help because they fear family or community censure for going to a social agency. "This fear prevents them from getting the help they need in time to prevent another family breakdown that shatters a home and orphans a child," she noted.

Miss Lena J. Martin, Director of Child Welfare of the Board of Hospitals and Homes for the national Methodist Church, told the gathering that the denomination is taking the lead in meeting history's greatest need for child welfare programs. Miss Martin emphasized that children placed under the care of Methodist institutions today are "emotional orphans" who require specialized services not required by the child whose parents are dead. Miss Martin called the Willson Lectures "one of the finest things being done in one of our institutions" and paid tribute to the Methodist Home for its program of child care.

Air Conditioner Buying Guide Offered by NBBB

With spring in the air and summer getting up steam, it's time to plan for hot-weather comfort. This often means shopping for new room air conditioners.

The wide choice of room air conditioners now available could be confusing to buyers if it weren't for a new, nationwide system for designating cooling capacities.

This system, called the NEMA Certification Program, is described in a 12-page illustrated pamphlet designed to help families select a room air conditioner that will meet their specific cooling problems.

Recently revised to include up-to-date information, the booklet describes the basic types of room air conditioners, what they do, and how they are installed. It also explains the NEMA (National Electrical Manufacturers Association) Certification Program, in which room air conditioner capacities are rated by British Thermal Units per hour, a more accurate way of designating cooling capacity than the old horsepower or ton ratings. Watt and ampere requirements also are certified.

To obtain a copy of "Room Air Conditioners—How to Choose the Model Best Suited to Your Needs," ask your local Better Business Bureau or write to Department A, National Better Business Bureau, Inc., 230 Park Ave., New York 17, N. Y., enclosing a stamped, self-addressed business size envelope.

Insulation Muffles Noise In Apartments

If you're planning a home and want it to be quiet why not take a tip from award-winning builder Louis Beckenstein? His idea might work for you, especially if the children's playroom is to be upstairs.

To overcome the apartment house bugaboo of noise transfer between floors, Beckenstein is putting thick bits of mineral wool insulation between floors in the 156 electrically heated luxury apartment units he is building in Bloomfield, Conn., near Hartford.

The two-story garden apartments now under construction will be completely insulated to make them comfortable winter or summer and to conserve fuel. But mineral wool is also being installed between floors of the two-story units to deaden sound between apartments.

In your own home, the noise bugaboo might come from the pit-pat of little feet, the banging of toys, or rainy day roller skating overhead. A layer of insulation will muffle these healthy children's noises.

Among the national awards Beckenstein has won are the Better Homes and Garden Idea Home award; The Portland Cement Association Horizon Home award; American Home's Best Home for Your Money award; and American Builder's Hidden Value award.

SELECTING BOOT TOPS

Don't wear excessively high boot tops when unnecessary. The added weight can slow you down perceptibly on an arduous hunt. Also, they put additional pressure on the tendon back of the ankle. For usual wear a seven inch top, or even a pair of high top shoes, is ample. Use high top boots only in swampy, snake infested areas.

When you're on an extended hunting trip rust is likely to appear on your gun barrel to constant exposure. Such rust easily can be removed by dipping in oil a piece of long shell (or an empty shell) then rubbing it in fine abrasive such as powdered charcoal. Family FINANCIAL PROTECTION

Policyholder Questions Answered by the Institute of Life Insurance

Q. Is it necessary to have insurance on your wife?
 A. A wife makes an important economic contribution to her family, regardless of whether she actually brings in any income. In rearing the children, caring for her husband and keeping up the home, she performs valuable services which would be difficult and expensive to replace if something should happen to her. For this reason, it is important to the family's welfare to have life insurance protection on the wife. Many life insurance companies offer family plan policies which provide a base of permanent insurance on the father, plus term insurance on the wife and children. Many families also buy permanent policies on the wife.

Q. Why do ordinary life insurance premiums differ among insurance companies?
 A. Actually, premium rates among life insurance companies do not vary a great deal. The biggest difference arises from the fact that some policies are issued on a "participating" basis, while others are "non-participating." Premiums for "non-participating" policies run somewhat lower, but this difference is offset by dividends which are paid to policyholders. Normally no dividends are paid on "non-participating" policies. But, since dividends are never guaranteed in advance, there is no way of knowing ahead of time which type of policy cost less. Every company's premium rates are affected by death rates among its policyholders, earnings on its investments, and the company's operating expenses. These factors vary among companies. Premium rates are also affected by seemingly minor differences in benefits provided under similar policies. For example, a policy that builds up cash values at a faster rate may require a slightly higher premium. But later on, the policyholder will have more cash value to provide himself with a retirement income or for some other important purpose.

Incoming Shots

For many shotgunners the incoherer is the toughest shot of all. The trick is to blot out the bird with the gun muzzle as you shoot.

If you can see your target when you press the trigger, you can be sure you are not leading enough.

CLAUDIA FAYE MORREN-WAYNE
EDWIN KING VOWS READ APR. 12

Miss Claudia Faye Morren, daughter of M. Sgt. and Mrs. Keith Davis, became the bride of Wayne Edwin King, son of M. Sgt. and Mrs. Buren E. King, Friday evening, April 12th in the Janlee Baptist Church.

Officiating in the 8:00 o'clock ceremony was the pastor, the Rev. Travis McMinn.

Twin candelabra holding white tapers flanked by arrangements of white gladioli in floor baskets adorned with shrimp-colored ribbons formed the background for the candlelight ceremony. The white candelabra were entwined with greenery and accented with shrimp bows.

Mrs. Glen Smith, organist, and Mrs. Ann Paul Ragan, vocalist, presented a program of traditional wedding selections. The bride was given in marriage by her step-father. She wore a gown of white nylon illusion lace over white satin, featuring a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and short sleeves. She wore matching nylon illusion lace mitts. Matching lace trimmed her veil of illusion which was attached to a coronation style tiara of white satin trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white orchid centered in garlands of shattered white carnations atop a white Bible. The white ribbon streamers were tied in love knots.

Mrs. Tommy Antwine of Wichita Falls attended her sister as matron of honor, and Miss Janice Letnier was bridesmaid. They were identically attired in sleeveless dresses of shrimp silk styled with a high scooped neckline in front and a low scooped back neckline and featuring bellshaped skirts. Their headdresses were matching tiaras with brief veils of illusion and they wore corsages of white shattered carnations.

Lea Ann and Lynn Ann Smith, twin sisters, were flower girls. They wore sleeveless dresses of white cupini accented with shrimp silk sashes. In their hair they wore white shattered carnations tied with shrimp ribbon. They carried yellow mums in baskets covered with shrimp net over white satin. Serving as ring bearer was Keith Davis, four-year-old brother of the bride.

Gary L. Tubbs of Lawton, Oklahoma, served as his cousin's best man and groomsman was Maurice Alexander. Ushers were Frank Hodge, Ray Brammer, Melvin Tubbs, cousin of the groom and Ron Holder. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carliss Tubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Tubbs, Ronnie Means and Sheila Underwood, all of Lawton, Oklahoma. Following the wedding a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. A large floral arrangement using the bride's chosen colors centered the refreshment table which was covered with a beige imported hand-embroidered cloth of linen cut-lace. The arrangement was flanked by lighted, white tapers in crystal candelabra. Crystal appointments completed the setting. Other floral arrangements were featured in decorations throughout the room.

Reception assistants were Mmes. Ralph Glandon and Edwin Green, and Misses Ramona Bridges, Mary Durham, Katherine Siber, and Virginia Eaton. Miss Marilyn Vaughn registered the guests.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts for a rehearsal dinner held Thursday night, April 11, in their home at 607 Sycamore.

The bride is a senior at Burkburnett High School where she is vice president of her class, secretary of the Pep Club and DECA Sweetheart. She was recently named BHS "Homemaker of Tomorrow." She is employed part-time by Bills TV.

A 1962 graduate of Burkburnett High School King is now attending Midwestern University where he is a member of Pershing Rifles Drill Team. He is employed part-time by B. H. Alexander, Jr., Builder.

After a wedding trip to Dallas, Texas, the couple are residing at 501 Magnolia in Burkburnett.

The Protecting LIGHT

This lighted tower is a light shining in the darkness to guide sailors and ships through the night. Our Lord is our light who guides us faithfully through life, even though it be as a stormy sea — He knows the way. His word, as proclaimed in His church, will light your way and bring peace, joy and comfort.
"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." Psalm 119:105.

Attend the church of your choice this coming Sunday and receive the blessings awaiting you.

THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE
The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

FINISH
Whether they are "natural" or provide coloration, modern finishes for wood paneling are transparent to reveal the wood grain.

With a natural finish, the golden color of Southern Pine is left unchanged, but the surface can be glossy or dull, as the user prefers. "Stain" finishes provide blues, biege, grays or other hues, which look just as natural as the wood's actual color.

Proper seasoning, as applied to Southern Pine, and application of penetrating sealer or other moisture resistant coating will make the finish last indefinitely.

KEY MEN
More than three-fourths of all Southern Pine Lumber is distributed through retail dealers.

FOOLING A BUSHY-TAIL

Two hunters are better than one when it comes to stalking squirrels—if the hunters work together. Squirrels know how to get out of sight when danger approaches, usually by slipping around to the other side of the tree. So the trick is for one hunter to remain perfectly still while the other one makes a great-to-do of approaching the tree from the other side. The squirrel then will scurry around to the side away from the noisy hunter. This gives the lurking man on the opposite side a perfect shot.

Girls have strange ideas at twenty and eighty, but men are dependably stupid.

I am especial fond of women who make a real effort to be pleasant.

STEROID DRUGS

Q. What exactly are "steroids" as used for arthritis and what are the damaging side effects?

A. The word "steroid" refers to a general group of chemical substances. Certain steroids have been found useful in medicine. For example, corticosteroids (cortisone and cortisone-like compounds) are used in management of arthritis. However, it is now known that even with "steroids," there is no cure for arthritis. Like all potent drugs, corticosteroids may produce unwanted effects, especially when taken for long periods. A discussion of such effects is far beyond the scope of this column.

FARMER'S LUNG

Q. What is "farmer's lung"?

A. Farmer's lung is an acute inflammation of the lungs due to exposure to moldy farm dust (hay, grain, tobacco, etc.). Characteristic symptoms are chills, fever, and shortness of breath within a few hours after exposure to moldy dusts. There is no specific treatment. Workers who develop this condition should avoid further exposure to farm dusts.

We package prescriptions in safe, efficient containers that protect the medicine against possible harmful effects of light, air or moisture.
