Burkburnett Optimist Junior Gun Club Recently Organized

America has a long and proud history as a nation of riflemen and, through the years of our history, shooting and hunting have always ranked high among our favorite pastimes. In the early days of our Country, when a rifle was a necessity for every family, to provide game for the table and to protect the home, rifle competitions were one of the most common forms of entertainment and sport. Everyone knew how to shoot because they had to in order to live.

After the frontiers had disappeared the boy who wanted to learn to shoot had to go off "on the quiet" with a little group of his friends. The idea of a girl learning to shoot was never mentioned.

Today the situation has changed again. Any boy or girl can learn to shoot with the aid of a qualified instructor. He can participate in the organization and control of a club and he can win a whole series of attractive medals as his skill improves.

The Burkburnett Optimist Club is sponsoring a rifle shooting club. It is called the Burk Optimist Junior Gun Club and is open to girls and boys, ages 12 to 18. Meetings are each Monday evening at seven o'clock at the Youth Center. Members must own or have use of a .22 caliber rim fire rifle with bolt action and sling or peep sights. If you are interested in learning how to handle a rifle safely and properly, shooting just for fun or competitive shooting call Mike Raff, 569-1302, or Wayne Landrum, 569-3081.

Paying Twice For Postal Service

Basically, the Government operates the postal service for all the people as a giant monopoly financed by general taxation. But then, it insists also that postal revenues from mail rates shall balance postal costs.

Under this policy, both the amount of taxes going to support a public service postal system and the rates being charged mail users have gone only one way for many years—up and ever up.

In fact, postal rates have now climbed so high that it is time to ask whether we aren't paying twice, once thru taxes, and again in stamp charges, for the same poor quality service.

First class stamps have gone from three to five cents in two steps since 1951; second and third class rates have increased more than 100 percent in the same period.

This insistence on higher postal rates, in addition to a larger flow of money from the general tax fund to the postal service, is a variance with Federal policy for other departments and agencies rendering important public services. For example, the Federal Government spends approximately $91 million a year for the National Park Service, $205 million on inland waterways, $23 million for the patent office, $5.2 million for Agriculture Department services not billed to farmers. None of these agencies is required to charge fees, in addition, which will approximately balance expenditures.

With postal costs at an all time high, Congress should take a long, hard look at Post Office budgeting, accounting, cost ascertainment and mechanization to cut costs.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

WATERVILLE, Wn., EMPIRE-PRESS: "Perhaps our most republican form of government we have in this country is county government. It is a government that is closest to the people where, if they only knew and took interest, they have the most control. The role of county government is limited; the negotiations and deliberations of the Commissioners are open to the Public. They are,

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

There is considerable thought that one reason for labor trouble is so many employees do not realize how well they are paid.

The average worker, whose pay is subject to withholding, only considers the money he gets after the tax bite as his pay. In addition, neither does the average worker realize what government is costing him, hence increased taxes, increased social welfare levies, et al., seem to him to be something the other fellow pays.

It is perhaps not surprising that this slight-of-hand tax collection system was suggested by Beardsley Ruml who was a top executive of R. H. Macy. Macy's was one of the first of the big department store operators to inaugurate the revolving plan of credit. The customer can keep charging items up to a certain credit limit, as long as a stated monthly payment is made, to which is added 18% interest.

The shopper in so many cases fails to realize that the price of everything she buys under this system is in actuality jacked up by 18%.

Thus, there is a sense of well being and security created.

Thus when Macy's Ruml propounded the withholding tax plan, it was immediately recognized as a very cute device to get more and more out of the worker without the worker being too overly conscious.

© National Federation of Independent Business

For example, a laborer may be working for a base pay of $125 per week, and end up with a pay check of around $80. He does not say he is getting $125 per week, he says he's getting $80 per week. Thus, he can be made unhappy.

But there are some employers around the country who are bringing home to the worker and his wife, the true facts.

Under the law, an employer has to collect the withholding tax, and once a month deposit the collected funds to the credit of the government.

So some employers are paying their workers for three weeks of the month their total pay with no deductions. On the fourth week of the month they deduct the entire tax bite.

Thus, for example, as deductions vary according to dependents, a worker gets his full $125 per week, for three paydays, and on fourth payday receive something like $22.50.

There are several advantages to this method. One is with a large payroll the employer can operate with fewer bookkeepers as once a month computation of individual deductions is far simpler than doing the same process every week. In addition, there is far better labor relations, because this method impresses on the workers they actually are quite well paid. In addition, it is making these workers more conscious of waste in government, and hence more responsible citizens. It is not too far-fetched to predict if a majority of nation's payrolls were handled in this manner, there would be some great economies affected in government.

however, restricted in action by state statutes. On matters of welfare, highway moneys, education and federal aid they have but little control. The trend, unfortunately, is toward more centralization. This was brought about by the federal and state governments usurping their sources of revenue and attaching strings to federal and state aid, matching moneys."

TUCKER, GA., DEKALB TRIBUNE: "It has been said that the power of words is one of the world's most potent powers and judging from what it costs to put words on paper for the public to read, the statement does not surprise us. Fortune Magazine reports that it costs $2 for every word the magazine prints. Before his tragic death, Ernest Hemingway was paid up to $1 per word for his writings."

Policyholder Questions Answered by the Institute of Life Insurance

Q. Aren't life insurance companies "stacking the cards" in their own favor by making people take medical examinations and then issuing policies only to those in the best of health?

A. Definitely not. First of all, a person does not have to be in "the best of health" in order to buy life insurance. Many life companies will issue policies to people whose health is impaired, as long as the impairment does not seriously jeopardize their chances of a normal life-span. In many cases, even people with more serious impairments—for example certain types of heart conditions—can buy policies although usually at higher premiums.

As a matter of fact, only about three out of every 100 applications for life insurance are not acceptable. In only about five out of every 100 applications must the person pay a higher premium due to health or other reasons.

Without medical standards, people in the poorest health might become the biggest buyers of life insurance. Some might never buy a policy until in danger of dying. Death rates among policyholders would run very high, and policies would become too expensive.

Even now life companies pay many millions of dollars annually in death claims on policies which have been in force less than a year. Among policyholders whose insurance has been in force for longer periods, death rates are not very different than among the American population as a whole.

Q. To help pay for my son's college education, would you advise me to take out a 15-year endowment policy for $5,000? Or would it be better to take out a $20,000 straight life policy, on which I can borrow about $5,000 when he enters college?

A. On a question like this, your life insurance agent is the best person to give you specific advice. In general, it would seem that an endowment policy might be a good idea if you have enough other life insurance to provide adequate protection for your family beyond 15 years. Otherwise, a straight life or some other plan might be better.

pany, for example, all steps are equally important: Manufacture of the various materials, assembling of the parts, painting, up-holstering, cleaning, showing and demonstrating. Necessary and significant, too, is inspection of each step in the complicated process of taking an automobile or truck from its initial stages through to the ultimate customer. Nobody can say that the inspector's job is less crucial than any other along the line.

Why Each Job Is Equally Important:
A craftsman's mistake could travel right to the customer and botch a sale if it were not for the inspector's "craft" in checking the work through all its phases. Disappointment because of a faulty product breeds dissatisfaction with the company itself. No amount of advertising can convince a customer that a company's prestige is deserved when he has encountered something drastically wrong in its products.

Individualism may be a good thing in our private lives; but when it comes to making a living, teamwork is all-important. Only through perfect teamwork can employers, employees, and stockholders all get the most out of any operation. A man who makes a tiny electric switch may think his job very unimportant when contrasted with that of a brilliant scientific engineer who designs a space ship. But a multi-million dollar space ship could fail at take-off, could plunge into ocean, or could just plain blow up if anything should go wrong with that tiny switch. So, if you happen to be the man making that small switch, don't think that you are less important than the big-salaried engineer. If you are not responsible on your part of the team, it won't do the engineer any good to be brilliantly responsible on his part of that team.

Teaching Young People Responsibility

A good many young people today are not naturally aware of the necessity of discipline, and unfortunately their families and school teachers often fail to make this need plain to them. That is the reason for the innumerable dropouts from junior high school and high schools throughout the nation. If these children have no sense of responsibility toward their own education, it is not likely that they will assume any when they go out into the business world. Such children grow into adults who consider their jobs of no real value, who do not know the meaning of job responsibility.

Let me warn the parents of today's youngsters that employers are deadset against hiring school "drop-outs." This is a time of specialization. There is 20% less demand right now for common labor than in 1950; and certainly nobody can expect any rise in the going wage rate for those in unskilled categories

Best opportunities are in engineering, advanced mathematics, physics, electronics, data processing, and communications. If you let your children or your grandchildren drop out of school, they will probably never acquire an needed responsibility; and they will never get the training that will make them prospects for the big jobs - perhaps even for any job - of tomorrow. Don't let your child become a "drop-out."

BUILDING or BUYING A NEW HOME?

YOU'LL WANT TO KNOW ABOUT THE ADVANTAGES OF A FLAMELESS ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

There's no better time than right now—while you're planning your new home—to discover the wonderful benefits of a flameless quick recovery electric water heater. Besides the dependable hot water supply you'll get, here are other reasons you'll be glad you chose electric:

- FAST—High-speed electric heating elements are immersed in the water, heating it and not the tank. The tank is insulated all around—including the bottom—to prevent heat loss.
- SAFE—Flameless electric water heating gives you peace of mind. No flame to blow out, no pilot light to worry about.

CLEAN—No by-products of combustion. No unpleasant fumes. No flue to accumulate soot. An electric water heater is as clean as an electric light.

SILENT—No annoying start-up or shut-off sounds. No noise at all while water is being heated. A flameless electric water heater is completely silent and carefree.

INSTALLS ALMOST ANYWHERE—Because a flameless electric water heater needs no flue, it can be installed almost anywhere in the house, close to the point of greatest use. This saves long pipe runs and waste due to water cooling in the pipes.

News From The County Agent

The annual Tri-County Dairy Show will be held in the 4-H Barn in Wichita Falls on Monday, May 6, from 9:30 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. All dairymen are eligible to show animals in the Dairy Show. Free snack lunch will be served at noon.

All breeds of dairy cattle will be shown. Both registered and grade females may be entered but only REGISTERED bulls of age six months and older will be shown.

The recent drop in fed cattle prices has caused considerable concern among cattlemen as to the prospects for the near future, says B. T. Haws, County Agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The average weights of cattle slaughtered under federal inspection so far this year, have been the heaviest since early 1961. This was caused by the low number of cows slaughtered along with heavier weights of fed cattle coming from feedlots, explains Haws.

Even though the nation's population and income levels continue to increase, the effect is not enough to offset the future increases in beef supplies.

Marketing of fed cattle will be very heavy in the West and the Corn Belt during the next three or four months, he says. The April-June quarter should be up about 10 per cent from levels of a year ago.

Haws says the forecasts indicate strengthening fed cattle prices in the West during the late summer and fall.

In view of this situation, feed management should consider holding down on capital investments and should market fed cattle as soon as they reach the desired grade, advises Haws.

Studies by The Travelers Insurance Companies show driver error and lack of judgment were responsible for 32,300 deaths and more than 2,900,000 injuries on U. S. highways in 1962.

CHOOSING SIDES

"Choose you this day whom ye will serve: but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:15.

Children choose sides for a game; we choose someone to serve in this world. But rather than have it be a choosing by chance, ours shall be a definite, thought out, choice. We can choose God "this day" by attending Church on Sunday. As our Lord said in Matthew 4:10, "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve." Let us worship and serve Him through His appointed agency, the Church.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

New, Improved Economy Servant

Do you love to give parties and spread clean-up time? Family meals create lots of waste to carry to the garbage can in soggy paper plates and cups. A food waste disposer, modern servant, banishes the waste even becomes a new General Electric model weighs 9 lbs., is easily installed, gives years of trouble-free service and is priced at $149.95. It shreds food waste fast and washes down the sewer or septic tank. A Disposal under the sink is healthier, cleaner, care-free living.

If the sun fades your curtains or draperies, look for fabrics with special qualities of sunlight resistance. Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent, says there are several such fabrics on the market.

Solution-dyed acetates are color fast to sun-fading. The color is added to the liquid cellulose before it is spun into yarn which seals in the color.

You will find numerous solution-dyed acetates with a shiny back to resist fading. These fabrics do not require a lining.

Another choice is 100 per cent fortisan or fortisan in combination with one of the solution-dyed acetates.

Still another choice is fiberglass available in unusual weaves and colors.

Take time to read the labels on drapery fabrics. Under the recently passed labeling act, certain fabrics will give the name of fiber or fibers and their percentages . . . when each makes up more than five per cent of the fabric.

Miss Wirges also reminds homemakers that drapery construction directions are available in her office.

Miss Amelia Spencer has done an excellent job with drapery construction for the house she is remodeling in the Friberg Community.

Living in a small apartment or house? This seems to be the trend for 1963 living. Here are suggestions on use of color that will help you get a more spacious look.

Use as few different colors in a room as possible. No more than three is a good rule. You can create an interesting room by using only one color. The secret lies in use of a number of different shades or tints of that color.

Here's a good way to enlarge the appearance of the room: Finish both walls and ceiling with a very light tone of a solid color — blue, green or inbetweens. Use the same color on baseboards, woodwork and doors. An especially low ceiling door can be raised by use of a light tone than that of the walls.

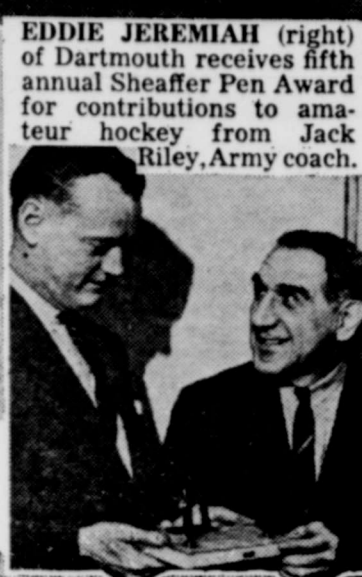

Now for the floors. A wall-to-wall rug or carpet, or one that reaches to within three or four inches of the walls, makes the room look larger. A solid colored rug gives a roomier, less cluttered feeling. Rugs or linoleum with a definite pattern create a "busy" effect and break up spaciousness.

Same goes for window treatment. You'll be a look for more space if you blend curtains in with the color of the walls. Depend on small room accessories such as sofa pillows, books, planters, lamps, ash trays, etc. to add accent or contrast in color.

Keep furniture in tune with the scale of the room and with living needs. Small rooms look smaller sometimes because they are cluttered with bric-brac, knick-knacks, small tables and other occasional pieces. Don't be afraid to underfurnish a small room. It gives you more elbow room, more restful feeling, and it's easier to keep clean.

In a 15-month period federal spending would be enough to buy up everything that Russia produces in one year.

THE LADY OF THE HOUSE ANALYZED

Recent surveys on motivations of American homemakers have answered some intriguing questions. Is she an extravagant housekeeper? Does she want most of the good things in life for herself? Does she settle for merchandise other than the best? The answer to these questions, when she redeems her trading stamps, is a resounding "no".

According to panel members of the Plaid Stamp Homemakers Council, the composite woman they examined thinks of her home and family first. What she accomplishes with her stamp redemptions might prove to be a lesson to government economists.

The panel found that three rooms in the house account for seventy-five percent of the most wanted articles. Bedroom articles lead with thirty-five percent; kitchenware and equipment come next with twenty-five percent, and dining room items follow with fifteen percent, mostly for table accessories. More often than not bedspreads win over glamorous cashmere sweaters with the lady of the house. She may select dazzling white percale sheets — the number one choice on her list — instead of equally dazzling costume jewelry, and party casseroles in preference to snazzy handbags.

She keeps her family happy and improves her culinary achievements with the stamps she uses for electric mixers and skillets. Chafing dishes and lovely dinner and silverware are selected for regal entertainment.

It is the homemakers insistence on quality merchandise that induces manufacturers to constantly improve their products. The Plaid Stamp Homemakers Council, with its recommendations based on surveys of stamp collectors, conveys the ladies' desires to the producers of the fine products available through stamp plans.

With all the facts compiled, the panel has found the typical woman surveyed is, in brief, smart and practical, unselfish and thrifty, and, they might add, "She sure knows her onions."

TORNADO SAFETY RULES

To Know What to Do When a Tornado IS Approaching May Mean the Difference Between Life and Death

- I If you are near a tornado cellar:
When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas or debris; and preferably equipped with pick and shovel. THERE IS NO UNIVERSAL PROTECTION AGAINST TORNADOES EXCEPT UNDERGROUND EXCAVATIONS.
- II If you are in open country:
1. Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.
2. If there is no time to escape, lie flat on the nearest depression such as ditch or ravine.
- III If in a city or town:
1. Seek inside shelter, preferably in a strongly reinforced building. STAY AWAY FROM WINDOWS!
2. In homes: The corner of the basement toward the tornado usually offers greatest safety, particularly in frame houses. People in houses without basements can sometimes be protected by taking cover under heavy furniture against inside walls. Doors and windows on the sides of the house away from the tornado may be opened to help reduce damage to the building.
3. Standing against the inside wall on a lower floor of an office building offers some protection.
- IV If in schools:
1. In city areas: If school building is of strongly reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on the lower floors when possible. AVOID AUDITORIUMS AND GYMNASIUMS with large, poorly supported roofs.
2. In rural schools that do not have strongly reinforced construction, remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.
- V If in factories and industrial plants:
On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for moving workers to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.
- VI Keep calm. It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of the tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that relatively only a few places in a warned area are affected. You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case."
- VII Keep tuned to your radio or television for latest tornado advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado, as your individual request may tie up telephone lines urgently needed to receive special reports or to relay advisories to radio and television stations for dissemination to thousands in the critical area.

Home Life, Growing Through Unity ...Burkburnett Study Club Theme

Hurricane lights, entwined with ivy, lighted the walk that led the guests to the beautifully decorated home of Mrs. George McClarty, where she and Mrs. M. E. Bean shared hostess duty. Mrs. Harold Preston presided over the business meeting. Roll call was answered with My Favorite Hobby. The club voted to cooperate with other clubs in buying a stage curtain for the Town Hall. Several club members reported as having acted as chaperons at the Youth Center. The club is most interested in helping with community projects that will enable our youth to have a better place for entertainment and recreation, both in the parks and at the Youth Center. Mrs. Bear asked that the members give old sheets to the Cancer Center.

Secret votes were cast for the Most Valuable Member for the Year 1962-63 and the Best Program presented during the year. These will each receive a reward, and will be revealed at the Annual Club Dinner which will be held May 13 at the Women's Forum in Wichita Falls. Dinner arrangements will be made by Mrs. James Bohner, Mrs. Howard Henderson and Mrs. D. H. Smith. Entertainment will be furnished by Mrs. Francis Felty and Mrs. George McClarty. Decorations will be provided by Mrs. Philip Carpenter, Mrs. Harold Van Loh and Mrs. Hugh Preston, Jr.

Mrs. D. H. Smith, program leader, led the members in the Lord's Prayer which was arranged to be read responsively by Emily Mary Laslett. She presented Mrs. Jim Frye, who spoke on Newsworthy Developments. Food, Drugs, and Safe Cosmetics. She stated that modern as well as ancient myths and superstitions about food are utilized by faddist promoters. There is quakery in the field of nutrition as well as in the field of medicine. Today the Food and Drug Administration is especially concerned about the promotion of "food supplements" as cure-alls for conditions which require medical attention. Misleading promotion of food supplements violates federal law. "Myth That All Diseases Are Due To Faulty Diet," "The Myth That Soil Depletion Causes Malnutrition," "Myth Of Over Processing" and the "Myth of Subclinical Deficiencies" are but a few of the many topics which trick the average home maker. House wives today do not need the Food and Drug Administration to protect them from rotten strawberries, etc., which might be on sale at the supermarkets... because these conditions can easily be observed by the careful shopper. But what about the short weight pound of butter, the ground coffee which may include roasted chick peas, the baked goods containing incubator rejected eggs, etc. Can the average housewife protect herself and her family from those hidden abuses and violations? This is why the Federal Government has formed the Federal Food and Drug Administration, to protect the consumer from hidden abuses and violations. Mrs. Frye states: that under our American system you have a choice of a vast variety of wholesale, truthfully labeled products to suit your tastes and needs. You yourself, have a voice in determining the kind, style, and variety of products you receive. Everytime you make a purchase of foods, drugs, or cosmetics you are casting your "vote" for the kind of merchandise you want. Manufacturers are guided by your buying decisions... Be An Intelligent Voter, READ THE LABEL.

Mrs. E. D. Potter was introduced and selected as her topic, "Women of the Bible." Her information was taken from the book entitled, "All the Women of the Bible," written by Edith Deen, nationally known Texas writer and lecturer. Mrs. Potter stated that as you read Mrs. Deen's searching studies of the women in the foreground of the Bible, she brings each woman to life with a vivid personality, colorful costume, and even describes her features as she imagines them to be. She seeks to portray each woman's spiritual experiences and their relationship to God. Even with such women as Zezebele, and Herodias, their very lack of faith was significant. The lives of these women made patterns of light and darkness. The first woman portrayed in the dramatic history of man's spiritual development is Sara, beloved wife of Abraham, founder of the House of Israel. The beautiful distinguished Sara and her husband covers more space in Genesis account than does the entire human race from the creation down to their time. We today should appreciate the suffering and willingness of Abraham and Sara to sacrifice their only son as being symbolic of that of the Father of this world in offering his only Son. Sara lived to be 127 years old. She is the only woman in the Bible whose age at death is recorded.

A few years later Isaac married Rebekah. Everyone remembers the story of Rebekah at the well. Mrs. Deen says we can be certain that Rebekah enjoyed peace at home, for her marriage is the first monogamous marriage on record. After 20 years she give birth to twins. Esau and Jacob. Jacob fell in love with Rachael, his lovely and likable cousin and lost no time in asking her father if he might marry her. Jacob offered his own labor for the riches he had to leave behind him. For Rachael he promised to serve seven years. "And they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had for her." These words in Genesis are unsurpassed in the whole literature of romantic love. In fact, Jacob's service to Rachael denote him as the most devoted lover in the Bible. Rachael's younger sister Leah was sent unto Jacob on his wedding night. As Jacob deceived his father, so Laban deceived him. But according to the Bible records, Jacob's union with Rachael was celebrated at the close of Leah's marriage. Jacob however, had to serve another seven years, making fourteen years altogether for his beloved Rachael. Jacob became the father of twelve sons. These twelve sons were Sara's great grandchildren who became the Founders of the twelve tribes of Israel, hearing out God's promise to Sarah that she would be the Mother of Nations.

Now Mrs. Potter turns from these "Women of the Dawn" to those living in the beginning of our recorded spiritual life to two women living in Christ's time. The nameless Woman of Samaria trudged alone to the well carrying a water jug on her shoulder. The last woman Mary Magdalene. Jesus cast 7 demons out of the woman Magdalene. Jesus healed her afflictions, and she became his faithful and devoted follower going with him all the way to the Cross. She is the first to know he has arisen, and to report this to his disciples Peter and John. Since medieval times Mary Magdalene has been one of the most maligned women in the New Testament, largely because some scholars of an earlier period chose to identify her with the unnamed woman of Luke. If we follow the Scripture fully, we see a courage and Love that could not fail, and humility and unselfish devotion to the Savior who had been crucified. Her faith is a monument to the healing power of Jesus. Her actions in serving Him in life and ministering to him when the mob turned against him and had finally left Him in the grave alone, is characteristic of Women in Bible

EIGHTH GRADE OFFICERS

The Eighth Grade Officers, elected from homeroom nominees by the Student Body are Bill Roe, president; Judy Pace, vice president; and Donna Greer, secretary. Dan Carson, Student Council Sponsor, said that the officers were above average in every respect, citizenship as well as scholarship.

Bill, the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Roe, is a member of the Student Council, Vice President of the Band and is active in track, basketball, and football.

Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Pace. Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greer. She was recently chosen Miss Junior High. She is an active member of the band. At a recent contest at Midwestern University, the clarinet quartet, of which she is a member, took 1st place rating. She received a 2nd place for her solo number. She is Band President and pianist for the dance band.

Band Parents Club Elect New Officers

Mrs. Smith said, "Happiness grows at our fireside, and it is not to be picked in stranger's gardens." Delicious refreshments were served and door prizes awarded.

New officers were recently installed in the Band Parents Club by Mrs. Herman Miller. She used a "Lady's Hat" fashion show as her theme. Officers for the coming year are:

President, Mrs. V. H. Van Loh; Vice President, Mrs. E. B. Burton; Secretary, Mrs. Raymond Seidel; Treasurer, Mrs. R. M. Sims; Reporter, Mrs. Reavis Wooten.

Both Junior High and Senior High Bands will go to the area contests at Midwestern. They will play numbers in concert, marching and sight reading. The Spring concert will be in May.

TOTAL PERFORMANCE:

IF YOU KNEW WHAT HE KNOWS...YOU'D BE DRIVING THE 1963 TOTAL PERFORMANCE FORD

Ford is traditionally the nation's Number One police car. The reason: Total Performance!

When it comes to cars the police don't take chances. Put yourself in a State Trooper's shoes. Every day you must patrol hundreds of miles in your cruiser. Mileage and time grind into a man and his machine, but when the bell rings you've got to be ready. Chase. Turn. Corner. Quick stop. You've got to be able to do it all if you're going to do your job.

Listen to a trooper list the reasons why he prefers a Ford and you realize how difficult it is for any car to measure up to his standards. The car must be strong... it has to stand up to big mileage. It must be silent... when you practically live in a car a rattle can sound like a kettle drum. It must be swift... powerful enough to catch any car on the road. It must be sure... dependable even in the face of the unexpected. Strong. Silent. Swift. Sure. A four-word outline of total performance. The police demand it. That is why they choose the total performance Ford. Why should you settle for anything less?

Whatever your special demands and needs, the total performance Ford is the car most likely to satisfy you all the way down the line. You can prove this for yourself.

First, look at Ford's astounding record in open competition this year in the grueling Daytona, Riverside and Atlanta 500's and in the demanding Pure Oil Performance Trials. Only a car with total performance could roll up so many impressive wins.

Second, before you buy any new car, test-drive the solid, silent Super Torque Ford. If you haven't driven one lately, you can't really know what a new Ford is like. Make this important discovery—if it's built by Ford, it's built for performance... total performance.

News From The County Agent

The annual Tri-County Dairy Show will be held in the 4-H Barn in Wichita Falls on Monday, May 6, from 9:30 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. All dairymen are eligible to show animals in the Dairy Show. Free snack lunch will be served at noon. All breeds of dairy cattle will be shown. Both registered and grade females may be entered but only REGISTERED bulls of age six months and older will be shown. The recent drop in fed cattle prices has caused considerable concern among cattlemen as to the prospects for the near future, says B. T. Haws, County Agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The average weights of cattle slaughtered under federal inspection so far this year, have been the heaviest since early 1961. This was caused by the low number of cows slaughtered along with heavier weights of fed cattle coming from feedlots, explains Haws. Even though the nation's population and income levels continue to increase, the effect is not enough to offset the future increases in beef supplies. Marketing of fed cattle will be very heavy in the West and the Corn Belt during the next three or four months, he says. The April-June quarter should be up about 10 per cent from levels of a year ago. Haws says the forecasts indicate strengthening fed cattle prices in the West during the late summer and fall. In view of this situation, feed lot management should consider holding down on capital investments and should market fed cattle as soon as they reach the desired grade, advises Haws. Studies by The Travelers Insurance Companies show driver error and lack of judgment were responsible for 32,300 deaths and more than 2,900,000 injuries on U. S. highways in 1962.

CHOOSING SIDES

"Choose you this day whom ye will serve: but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:15.

Children choose sides for a game; we choose someone to serve in this world. But rather than have it be a choosing by chance, ours shall be a definite, thought out, choice. We can choose God "this day" by attending Church on Sunday. As our Lord said in Matthew 4:10, "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve." Let us worship and serve Him through His appointed agency, the Church.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

When that tattle-tale gray day (everything past, present and future is the same shade of nothing) turns party pink because you've received an invitation to a Big Weekend at the college of your (male friend's) choice, you revel in dreams of revelry. Glamour with gobs of glitter are yours for the answer Yes, when suddenly you zoom to gloom faster than a misfired missile, because:

YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT TO WEAR. The answer is simple. Ask him. So he doesn't know a muumuu from a Mainbocher, thinks a halter has something to do with horses and recessive jeans (Bermuda shorts) belong in the biology class. But he can tell you what to wear, if, when you write to say you'd love to come, you ask what's on the schedule. If he tells you what's doing, you can choose what's appropriate. Pack wisely in one small suitcase. You're going for fun, not a fashion show. Take your best, of course, but if in doubt, throw it out.

Go in a buoyant state of mind, glow at everything he says, flirt outrageously when the time comes, and he'll be in the second stage About You by Sunday night. Specially if you give him a cake as a little thank-you note when you leave. Write the big one when you're home, of course. He'll be touched by your presents-of-mind if you bring something to give as you go. Thank-You Fruit Cake is a tasteful way to say goodbye. It's full of walnuts, dates and candied cher-

Outdoor Type Cooking Now Successful Indoors

Cooking on a spit is almost as old as man, yet it's as up-to-date as today's teenager, if you have an electric range with an automatic rotisserie. Outdoor cooks learned long ago that meat cooked on a spit, slowly turned to give every inch a golden brown succulence, has an extra quality made up of flavor, tenderness, juiciness. Now meat can be barbecued right in the kitchen all year 'round for outdoor flavor without the fireplace fuss. Accurate electric heat plus automatic timing ensure consistently good results.

Who needs muscles?

Do you know how easy it is to take a corner with a Corvair or park one? Turn this newspaper sideways and it will give you a pretty good idea. The wheel handles just about that easily. The Corvair's engine is in the rear, for not only greater traction, but more balanced weight distribution. And that's what makes the steering so completely effortless. The engine is air cooled, too. No radiator, no water or antifreeze. No boiling over or freezing up to worry about. It takes the weather and the terrain as it comes.

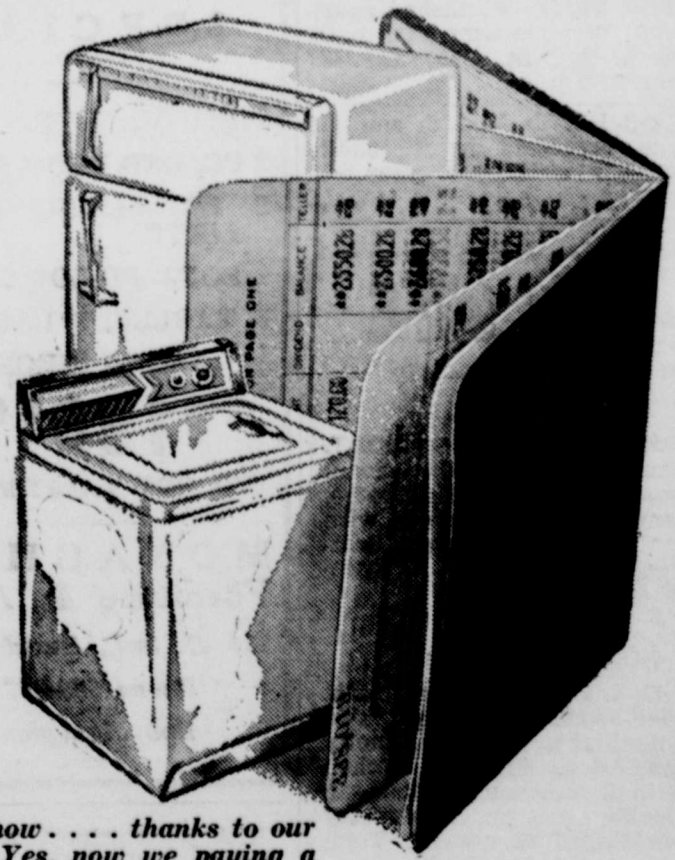

So think about those trips to the beach this summer, those bright sunny days and balmy moonlit nights. And besides, looking at it from a very practical point of view, it's Trade 'N' Travel time right now at your Chevrolet dealer's. He's got some beautiful buys. But you had better hurry before somebody muscles in ahead of you. Summer's coming fast. And with these sporty good-looking Corvairs selling the way they are, he who hesitates will want to kick himself.

BIG PASTURE

presented by Jimmie Inman, Jamie Inman and Randy Holt. Our Chapter Sweetheart, Billie Baggs and last year's sweetheart, Nita Sue Bowles were among special guests. The closing ceremony was conducted by chapter officers and the benediction was given by Don Williams.
This past week our chapter sent twelve delegates and two judging teams to the State F. F. A. Convention at Stillwater. Lonnie Nolan and Don Williams, our president and secretary for next year, were delegates to the convention for three days and had a very enjoyable time hearing top speakers and watching top chapters perform.
The chapter sent the Livestock Judging Team, composed of Mr. Don Williams, Roy Lee Ressel, Loran Zweacker and Larry Brown and the Farm Shop Team, composed of Garland Hooper, Roger Bates, and A. J. Mayes. We are very proud of the judging teams and delegates to the convention.

PHENYLKETONURIA

Q. What is phenylketonuria? Is there any treatment?

A. Phenylketonuria is an inheritable disorder of body chemistry often associated with mental defects. Progress has recently been made in treatment of this disorder through dietary means. Early diagnosis (during infancy) is essential in warding off the mental effects of phenylketonuria.

HEART CONSCIOUSNESS

Q. Lately I can not rest or sleep on my left side because my heart pumps so fast and hard. I am under medical treatment but not for heart trouble. What causes this?

A. Most people have probably had this experience. Thumping of the heart may be especially noticeable when everything is quiet and sleep seems far off. Change position in bed and the heart will "quiet down," or at least the heart beat won't be noticed so much. Awareness of body functions such as the heart beat is usually not a manifestation of serious disease.

Dan Schaffner, Burkburnett High School teacher, has received a grant to Texas Technological College Summer Institute to be held June 6 to August 1, 1963. The grant was given by the National Science Foundation, sponsored by the National Science Foundation, will be at the TTC campus at Lubbock, Texas.

The Institute had planned two courses of study. Schaffner will participate in the course planned for a group of thirty teachers who have never participated in a summer institute before. The course will consist of lectures, demonstrations and laboratory work under the direction of a highly competent staff headed by Dr. Earl D. Camp. Field trips are planned that will provide an outstanding educational experience for new participants. Two extensive field trips are planned, each lasting one week to the cloud forests near Xilitla, Mex., north of Mexico City, and to timberline near Taos, New Mexico. Local field trips will include visits to many of the unspoiled scenic canyons near Lubbock, to Palo Duro Canyon, to the shinnery oak country of New Mexico, and to the Muleshoe Wildlife Refuge.
