Industrial Cooperative Training Program In High Schools Begins Second Year In Burk

Junior and Senior students of the Burkburnett High School are now being placed in occupations in the community preparatory to the opening of School on August 31st as a part of the Vocational program according to Teacher-Coordinator, Don Davis.

The Industrial Cooperative Training classes were highly successful during the 1964-65 school year with twenty students completing the first year of the program which affords the student one hour of supervised technical instruction in the high school each day and three, four, or five hours of on the job training at local businesses and industries.

The students carry on their regular class schedules of required subjects for the remainder of the half day they spend in school and complete their requirements for a diploma as any other student.

The course is set up for two years of training and carries four affiliated credits. Students receive wages comparable to those paid beginning workers in the same occupations.

All technical and skilled trades are acceptable for training if the basic training requires as much as 2,000 hours on the job and in the classroom. Occupations in which Burkburnett High students trained last year include: auto mechanics, auto bodyman, auto partsman, meat-cutter, radio and television repairman, carpenter, plumber, electrician, aviation airframe and powerplant mechanic, dentist's assistant, medical technician, and painter. Other occupations will be added as local businessmen join in the cooperative program with the school as "Training Stations."

The program operates under the direction of Teacher-Coordinator Don Davis, who is responsible for the selection and placement of students and correlates their practical and technical training. Mr. Davis will be screening applicants and arranging placement interviews throughout the month of August. Any Junior or Senior student, both boys and girls, 16 years of age or older who is interested should contact the High School between 9:00 and 10:00 A. M. any day Monday through Friday. Any interested business man should do the same.

Superintendent of Schools, I. C. Evans, commenting on the program after the conclusion of the first year of the program said, "We feel that the inclusion of this type of program is doing much to provide the youth of Burkburnett with a well rounded educational program that will fulfill the need for practical, down to earth training. It will enable a sizeable portion of our students who desire to become occupationally competent to enter full time employment upon graduating from high school."

Mrs. Georgia Griffin of Kilgore, Texas, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Henson here for a few days.

Bryan Farris To Participate In State Workshop

B. A. Farris, Jr., Vocational Agriculture Teacher in the Burkburnett High School, will participate in the State-wide In-Service Education Workshop for Teachers of Vocational Agriculture, August 10-13, 1965, according to George Hurt, State Director of Vocational Agriculture. The four day meeting will be held in Dallas as a part of the program in Vocational Agriculture to further improve the professional competency of the state's teachers.

Commissioner of Education, J. W. Edgar, will address the first general session on Tuesday morning, Aug. 10th. State Director of Vocational Education, M. A. Browning, will address the group. Dr. Robert E. Taylor, Director, Center for Vocational and Technical Education, Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, will deliver the principal address. Dr. Taylor has experience in every phase of Vocational Agriculture Education having served as an instructor, executive secretary of the State FFA, state supervisor and Teacher educator.

Dr. Ivan E. Miles, Agronomist for the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation will address the Thursday morning session. Dr. Miles is famous for his stories—vigorous and full of earthy truths distilled from lives lived close to the soil. He is titling his remarks, "How to Have a Wonderful Day." Other speakers for the session will include Kenton Harvey of Azle, President, Texas Association of Young Farmers and Kenneth Graeber, Brenham, President, Texas Association of Future Farmers of America.

An important phase of the training session will be eight workshops conducted Wednesday and Thursday afternoons in which subjects such as "Beef Cattle Futures," "Research in Land Operation," "Weather and Crops," "Farm Mechanics," "Ornamental Horticulture" and other informative subjects. The workshop will be under the direction of Vocational Agriculture Education Staff involving specialists in the various fields from throughout the state.

Area Supervisors will work with their teachers in planning special programs of interest to teachers in their areas of the state. Plans for district in-service education programs will be finalized by teachers during these meetings.

According to Waylon R. Carroll of Lubbock, President of the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association of Texas, the Organization will conduct several meetings at times not in conflict with the regular program. Officers and Board members will be elected and a program of work for 1965-66 will be adopted by the organization. The Association will be observing its Twenty-fifth anniversary, and will honor fellow teachers, school administrators, legislators, news media personnel and others during the annual Awards Breakfast on Wednesday.

Evans, commenting on the program after the conclusion of the first year of the program said, "We feel that the inclusion of this type of program is doing much to provide the youth of Burkburnett with a well rounded educational program that will fulfill the need for practical, down to earth training. It will enable a sizeable portion of our students who desire to become occupationally competent to enter full time employment upon graduating from high school."

Local Baptist Churches To Sponsor "Cans" Drive For Buckner Homes

Fifty-three Baptist churches of this area are taking part in a "Give A Kid A Can" Drive, August 15th, for the children at Buckner Baptist Benevolence's three Children's Homes in Dallas, Lubbock and Burnet.

The Drive is being sponsored and promoted by the staff of Wichita-Archer and Clay Associations, area divisions of the Baptist General Convention in Texas. Churches taking part in the Drive are members of one of these associations.

The churches are asking members to bring canned goods and other staple groceries to one of the services of the church on Sunday, August 15. Trucks from the Children's Home in Dallas will come to pick the groceries up and return them to the main central supply office there for distribution among the other units.

Approximately 1,500 dependent and neglected children are cared for annually at the homes, and it has been estimated that more than 3,000 cans of vegetables are used in the preparation of meals for one week.

Buckner Baptist Benevolence, an agency of the Texas Baptist Convention, also operates two homes for the aging, two maternity homes, and a family service center. Approximately 20 percent of its operating budget for its eight units of work comes from Texas Baptist Convention funds, designated for that purpose. The rest comes from wills, trusts, bequests, endowments and from Baptist churches and other interested groups, as well as individual friends of Buckner.

C-C Luncheon Held Monday

President Albert Dillard was in charge of the Chamber of Commerce monthly luncheon held Monday noon at Town Hall.

Buddy Byars, manager of the organization, announced the rodeo netted $1450.00 after paying $1,000 on a note made in past years.

Byars also announced a public relations short course set for August 23-26. This course is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and the Burkburnett Hi School Distributive Education Department.

Dillard congratulated the new Jaycee organization. It held its charter banquet last Friday night with 42 charter members. Clyde Conway is president.

Col. W. M. Hendrix announced an expected increase in the number of students at Sheppard AFB.

The watermelon festival committee reported 18,167 pounds of watermelons were served down town last Thursday night.

OPEN UP THESE SESSIONS

OPEN HEARINGS NEEDED HERE

It is the usual practice for Congressional committees to hold open hearings on major legislative proposals.

That procedure, however, is not followed in the House of Representatives during the consideration of appropriation measures which obviously are of extreme importance to all taxpayers. Certainly there should be an opportunity for the public to voice its opinions about the proposed expenditure of sums approaching the 100 billion dollars mark annually.

You can, of course, submit your views in writing but that is far from being as effective as testimony given at an open hearing that is well-covered by the press.

It is to be hoped, therefore, that serious attention is paid to the recommendation by the National Association of Manufacturers for the holding of open hearings by the House Appropriations Committee on all appropriations measures.

The NAM recently presented some other significant recommendations, designed to bring more effective control over the appropriation and expenditures of federal funds. In testifying before the Joint Committee on Organization of Congress NAM called for:

1. Elimination of all Congressional expenditure authorizations that are not channeled through the regular appropriations procedure.
2. Packaging of all budget requests into two major bills — one covering national defense, and the second, all other federal program requirements.
3. Establishment of an advisory council on federal credit programs that would include representatives of private industry, banking and credit fields.

All of the proposals have merit and, if adopted, they would certainly have a restraining influence on federal spending.

Dr. E. B. Chain, co-discoverer of penicillin, writes in Medical World News: "I cannot visualize how the industrial pharmaceutical laboratory could be replaced adequately by any nonindustrial structure. Those who wish to abolish it by nationalization, or to impede its freedom of action, are conjuring a major health hazard. For in the future, the pharmaceutical industry has the potential of surpassing its contributions of the past."

According to News Front, manufacturing's upper middle class, open to corporations with annual sales of $100 million to just under $1 billion, welcomed 27 new members to its ranks in 1964. These additions brought total membership in the $100 Million Club to 408 for the year, the highest number in history.

Last year the American Red Cross spent more than $1.8 million a week in carrying out a diversified program of community and world-wide services.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Rather Ridiculous, Isn't It!

Roger W. Babson Weekly Report

ROGER W. BABSON

PERSONAL INCOME — WILL IT KEEP CLIMBING?

The personal income of the people of this country has been skyrocketing over the last few years. Records have been shattered time after time, and there are no signs as yet of a reversal in direction. Recent figures reveal how spectacular the increase has been over just the past twelve months.

Income Gains Broadening Steadily

As of June of this year, person income from all sources advanced to a total of $524 billion, according to estimates prepared by the U. S. Department of Commerce. This represents a climb of about $35 billion in the past year alone, or a hefty rise of 7 percent. Of special significance is the scope of the advances in the leading basic sources: Wages, salaries, corporate dividend payments and the farm "take" Prices received by farmers for meat animals in fact, climbed more than 30 percent in this past year.

It should be noted that all of the major industrial segments of the economy shared in the marked upswing in wages and salaries. Part of this rise was due to the growing numbers of people employed. With a combination of this employment growth and gradually climbing hourly earnings, factory payrolls in June hit a total of $110.8 billion, compared with only $102.7 billion twelve months before.

Corporate Dividends Steadily Widening

Corporate dividend payments have, of course, been on the increase for a number of years. But there is an interesting angle here that is not commonly emphasized. This is the tremendous broadening of individual stock ownership. A 1965 stockholder census taken by the New York Stock Exchange shows an 18 percent increase from 1962, the date of the last previous census. This carries the number of individual shareholders to the all-time record high of 20,120,000.

Broadening the base of ownership to such a degree means that the American people have undoubtedly a greater interest than ever before in the management and operation of our businesses. This added income from dividend payments also becomes a greater support for consumer optimism along a wide front. This is a contributive reason for what may well be the lowest ebb in buyer resistance ever recorded in this nation. The quick turnover of expensive merchandise and services, purely luxury and "status" items, gives proof of an unprecedentedly bright consumer psychology.

Uncertainties No Dampener

As yet neither the stock market downslide which began last May nor the ominous clouds over Vietnam have disheartened the general buying public. A recent survey for testing consumer attitudes, conducted by the University of Michigan, reveals that buyer sentiment is generally more enthusiastic about business prospects for the next five years than it was in 1964. Neither the stock losses nor growing international tension offset the sense of security brought about by pay hikes and better job opportunities.

Naturally, the big question is whether the upward pressures will persist in personal income. Even with the population rising rapidly, employment could continue as it is. At least for the next few years there will be, if anything, too few skilled workers available rather than too many. Built-in wage and fringe concessions might hoist pay rates still higher. Even if war escalation should now bring controls, it is unlikely that personal income would stop edging upward. A solid backlog is assured from interest, dividend payments, various government benefits, and well sustained salary rates.

The President's speech of last week should be a help rather than a hindrance to business. He showed the strain of his enormous burden, but he should certainly not feel discouraged; he is doing an excellent job at the helm. We must remember, however, that an unexpected event could always happen and change things — either for the better or the worse — at any time.

RESTAURANT RIDES ON TIRES

Tires are about to be used on restaurants as well as automobiles. A revolving restaurant that turns on 75 U. S. Royal passenger car tires is being built on top of a new office building in Memphis, Tenn.

"We believe this is the only restaurant in existence that will ride on automobile tires," said builder Kemmons Wilson, president of Kemmons Wilson Construction Co. of Memphis. "Our engineers decided on passenger tires instead of solid rubber rollers because tires ride smoother and will cushion any rough spots in the floor." One of the tires, driven by a 1/2 horsepower electric engine, will turn the restaurant floor. Two other U. S. Royals, at the side of the revolving unit, will provide stability. The restaurant will revolve once every 80 minutes, turning a mile every 24 hours. At that leisurely pace the tires should last almost until the middle of the 21st century — unless they fall victim to old age first. Crawl space under the floor provides access to the tires which are mounted on regular car wheels.

Banks Big In Boat Financing

Bent on buying a boat? Then you'll be glad to hear that the nation's banks will be only too glad to help. It's just about as easy to borrow money today for a pleasure boat as it is a new car.

The demand for all kinds of pleasure craft—from small outboard to large cruiser—has made boating a good investment and a ready resale market adds to the attractiveness. Thus, more and more banks are eager to help you float a boat loan.

The terms of your bank boat loan will depend on a number of circumstances. If the boat you have your eye on is a new one, chances are good that you'll only be required to have 25% of the purchase price for a down payment. You are likely to get up to 36 months to pay off the loan itself.

If you buy a used boat, you will probably have to put up 33% of the price and pay off the loan within 24 months.

You will be wise to consider operating and maintenance expenses for your new boat, too, when deciding how much you can afford to spend. There is no practical rule of thumb since it obviously will cost much more even on a percentage basis to support a cabin cruiser moored in a yacht basin than it will an outboard skiff kept in the garage. Your best bet will be to ask a dealer or another boat owner about costs of craft similar to yours.

How Much To Borrow

If you are wondering how much you can safely borrow without the debt becoming a burden, consider these general criteria:

—Keep your installment debt including your proposed boat financing, under 15% of take-

Dorcas SS Class Met In Lohoefer Home For Salad Supper

The Dorcas Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs Sylvia Lohoefer Aug. 2nd for a salad supper in a beautiful back yard.

Jo Brookman gave the devotional on Love, Prayer and Fellowship. Marie Brashears had the entertainment of games and gave prizes to the winners.

Those attending were 3 visitors, Lois Reed of Nocona, Kenny Glandon, Grandfield and Mrs. Lawrence. Honorary members were Mesdames Parish, McMurtry, Jo Brookman, and class members, Mesdames Nomi Wilkinson, Marie Brashears, Lena Houser, Grace Anderson, Grace Brookshier, Vera Reed, Zephia Foster, Helen Turner, Hazel Waggoner, Jewell Reed, Joe Dunham, Florence Nichols, the teacher, Mrs. Mary Davis, and hostess, Mrs. Sylvia Lohoefer.

home pay. (Do not include rent or mortgage payments.)

—Hold your maximum total debt to an amount you can pay off in two years with 10% of your monthly take-home pay.

—Spend up to one-third of your discretionary monthly income to pay off installment loans.

One word of caution: When you are buying your boat, reselling it at a later date is usually the farthest thing from your mind. But the day may come when you'll want a bigger or better craft and when it does, you will be wanting to sell the old one. Remember that popular, advertised models will have a greater resale value than homemade or special purpose boats.

BOATING EDUCATION IS KEY TO SAFE WATERWAYS

DON'T BE HALF-SAFE!

When getting into a small boat, stay low and step as near the center as possible. And never jump aboard!

INSURANCE INFORMATION INSTITUTE

To keep our recreational waterways safe, boatowners must combine courtesy and common sense with a sound knowledge of boating and navigational principles, according to the American Insurance Association.

The Association advises small craft owners — especially those with limited experience — to enroll in courses of instruction offered by the U. S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, power squadrons and other boating organizations.

Good boatmen—like good automobile drivers—are made, not born, the Association maintains. Whether a motor boat becomes a pleasure boat or a menace to life and property depends on how it is cared for and operated.

Sports Corner

By DEE UNDERWOOD

When the Bulldogs take the practice field Aug. 16th, they will be under a completely new coaching staff. In order that the loyal football fans of Burkburnett, as well as all fans of all the high school sports, may be better acquainted with the men who guide our school's fortunes, we present this series of articles. Many thanks to Head Coach Bill Froman and his entire staff for their cooperation.

At the helm this fall will be 31 year old Bill Froman, a man with impressive credentials. His eight years of coaching were spent at Lindsey, Oklahoma, seven years as head coach. His teams compiled a 54-14-3 record and are no strangers to the state playoffs. Bill received his education at the University of Tulsa, playing football for Glen Dobbs. As well as his head football coaching duties, he will be head track coach.

Bill and his family live at 311 Walnut. His wife's name is Linda and their children are Guy, 9, Gretchen, 6, Shirley, 3, and Lea, 3 months. We are indeed proud to welcome them to Burkburnett.

The first varsity assistant, in charge of offensive linemen, will be Cecil Devine, 33, a twelve year coaching veteran. Three of those years were as head coach of Cotoosa, Oklahoma, and the last nine have been spent as head coach in Apache, Okla. His teams' record reads 72-40-6. Cecil will also be head baseball coach here. He attended Northeastern State at Tahlequah and holds a Masters Degree from Southwestern State at Weatherford, Okla. He was a three year football letterman at Northwestern.

Cecil lives at 812 Easy with his wife Delma and their children, Randy, 13, and Diana, 8. Welcome to Burk Cecil.

Don Faubion will be defensive line coach for the varsity. Don is 27 and has coached 3 years, all of them at U. S. Grant High School of Oklahoma City.

The World And Peace Studied By Girl Scouts July 27

On the evening of July 27th two Junior Girl Scout Troops of Burkburnett, Troops 94 and 45, joined together and held a "Scouts Own." The theme was "The Whole World."

Six patrols, from the combined troops, represented different countries. Dances, songs, costumes, traditions and flags were shown from these countries, Sweden, Germany, Japan, Italy, France and Hawaii, representing America. The two troops then solemnly watched the setting of the sun.

The closing ceremony was presented by Troop 94 in the form of a skit on Freedom and the meaning of Peace, the singing of America and closing with "Taps."

The Troops then watched a film entitled, "Around The World" in the Youth Center.

Those present were June Earle, Rhonda Thomas, Monica McCollor, Cindy Bottos, LaWilda Ward, Kaylene Evans, Kathy Landers, Sherry Daniel, Debora Binion, Beverly Goosens, Gay Goosens, Sharon Rodebush, Bonnie Bergman, Lyse Martel, Bambi Kneel, Cynthia Hicks, Kathy Stephenson, Carolyn McDonald, Cynthia Stever, Terri Taylor, Sharon Johnson, Jackie Key, Karen Deal, La Velda Norris, Ricki Gann, Angela Davis, Louise Pennington, Jacque Harris, Brenda Bottos, Jackie Bottos, Mr. Jack Bottos, Mrs. Bill Thomas, Mrs. Leslie Landers, Mrs. Jack Bottos.

From The Office Of Sen. John Tower

It is most disheartening to me that continued incorrect governmental actions are resulting in a steady and oppressive increase in the cost of living. Unwise agriculture policies are a major culprit as is continued federal spending of more money than the government takes in.

An unbalanced budget can be disastrous to a family. A nation likewise pays a price. And the price is paid by the nations citizens whether or not they agree with the government policy of spending non-existent dollars.

The cost of living shot up in June by one-half of one percent for the biggest increase in two years. But the worst result of federal fiscal ineptitude was a whopping 6.1 percent—in just one month—in the cost of meat, poultry and fish, coupled with a June increase of 3.7 percent for fruits and vegetables and a 10 percent hike in the cost of potatoes.

Federal "number experts" were quick to point out that the take home pay of factory workers with large families increased in June by 50 cents. What they did not point out is that 38 cents of that increase was wiped up by the same months cost of living increase. June consumer prices—and we all are consumers—were up more than 10 percent from their 1959 level. That inflation has lowered the purchasing power of the $10 bill to $9.06. The increased cost of food parallels this general consumer price inflation.

Mistaken governmental policies continue. A failure to come to grips with the Bracero question resulted in a labor shortage that left some crops rotting in the fields. Result: higher food prices. A failure to balance the federal budget, even in a time of high national prosperity, has caused the government to "create" the deficit dollars it wants to spend. Each of those "created" dollars cheapens every other dollar. Result: It takes more dollars to buy things.

This nation must return to fiscal sanity and more sound labor and farm policies or we are doomed to perpetual cost-of-living increases, increases that will be far harder on the poor and on the middle income family with children to educate than they will be upon the rich.

Ben L. McDonald, III has returned to his home in Nashville, Tenn., after visiting relatives here in Burkburnett for the past month.

Summer cooking make your kitchen "like an oven"?

Women who cook electrically will tell you that electric cooking makes a big difference in kitchen comfort during hot weather. That's because flameless electric surface cooking units transfer heat by direct metal-to-metal contact with utensil bottoms. They send their heat through the utensils and into the food, not into the kitchen air. Electric oven cooking is cooler, too. There's no flame, so no intake and exhaust of air is needed to support combustion. The oven is insulated all around, including the bottom, to keep heat inside where it belongs. See your electric range dealer soon and start cooking the cool, flameless electric way!

What would you do if you discovered a person who had just stopped breathing? Would you panic, waste precious moments by hunting for help or begin immediately to give mouth to mouth resuscitation?

As swimming and water sports become more popular — in many places without life guards—you could encounter just such a situation.

Other causes such as asphyxiation, injury to the head, electric shock, choking or poisoning can also stop a person's breathing.

Whatever has stopped the breathing — drowning, choking, asphyxiation — start mouth to mouth resuscitation at once. Seconds count.

Open the victim's mouth; clear out any food particles, chewing gum, false teeth or other obstructing matter.

Tilt the victim's head back; tilt his neck and tilt until his chin points upward.

Blow air into a victim's lungs by one of two methods. One way is to close off his nose by pinching his nostrils shut with your fingers or close off his nostrils with the side of your cheek, sealing your mouth over his mouth.

When working with a child, seal your mouth over both his nose and mouth.

Blow at the rate of 12 deep breaths per minute — or about five second intervals. For infants and small children, blow gently at the rate of 20 short shallow breaths per minute.

With each breath you blow, the victim's chest should rise. After blowing in the breath, the rescuer should remove his mouth and listen for the sound of returning air.

If the victim's chest does not rise and no outflow is detectable, the rescuer needs to try quickly to clear the passage. To do so, turn an adult on his side and strike several sharp blows between the shoulder blades. You can hold infants or small children by their heels or with their head down, give several sharp pats between shoulder blades. Then clear the mouth.

These directions should help you in case you encounter a disaster, but the more training and preparation you have the better. Contact your local health department, local civil defense office or Red Cross for information on life saving instructions.

Product of Climate

Southern Pine's reputation as one of the world's strongest woods is largely a product of climate.

Because of the long and abundant rainfall in regions of its growth, the species has a high proportion of "summerwood"—the dark, denser portion of the annual growth ring that grows in summer.

This density, in turn, accounts for Southern Pine's high strength.

Natural "Lift"

According to the Southern Pine Association, a "raised platform" floor structure of lumber provides a natural "lift" for the feet to assure walking comfort.

Important Quality

In selecting lumber, the important question is not ease of nailing but how firmly the lumber will hold nails after they are driven in.

Some species of wood have better natural nail holding ability than others. According to the Southern Pine Association, the "grip" is lasting as well as firm when lumber is properly seasoned and pre-shrunk before being surfaced to final size.

Nails will not loosen in pre-shrunk lumber as they do when unseasoned lumber dries in service.

"Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised.)"

Have faith in God. He will lead us in the right paths. He will never fail.

As the highways are clearly marked and numbered so that we might easily find our way from city to city and across the nation, God's word clearly marks life's paths.

Attend church regularly and exercise your faith in God.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Founding English Designer Arrives In Brownwood To Paint Mural In Magna Carta Hall At Douglas MacArthur Academy Of Freedom

England's outstanding and authorities on fashions, Osborne Robinson has begun work on a mural in the Magna Carta Hall at the Douglas MacArthur Academy of Freedom. The Academy honors program under the social department at Howard Payne College in Brownwood.

Robinson, who has completed eight months of study for the mural, is a designer since 1928 and designed over 200 productions covering the play from Greek to modern drama, light musicals. At the Old London, he designed costumes for "Henry VIII" and "Richard III".

He designed sets for "Macbeth" and "As You Like It". He designed the Stratford on Avon, his architectural colors have been exhibited at the Royal Academy, the Edinburgh Academy and Albert Museum and many other in the United Kingdom. He designed the exhibition for the British in 1951 and won the gold medal in 1959.

His famous store command three years running from 1963 to 1964 to execute masque figures for the store windows in Regent Street.

Robinson travels and lectures often. Several years ago he designed productions at Howard Payne College in Brownwood, including the "Midsummer Night's Dream" show that played Northampton during the tour of Britain in 1059.

Magna Carta Hall is one of several halls at the Academy depicting the history of freedom from 4,000 B. C. to the present time, designed specifically to establish the Northern European and English tradition in the development of America. Displays in the hall will symbolize the outbursts of man's desire to have individual and collective expression within the framework of a parliamentary system.

Perhaps the most significant course offered at the Academy reinforcing the drama of this hall is the one titled "Our American Heritage." This course considers freedom and man's search for it through the centuries. It traces particularly the influence of Magna Carta on the thoughts of men who came to America, and how the basic ideas of freedom developed in the minds of our forefathers. Emphasis is given to the Bill of Rights and the basic freedom, including freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, freedom of the press and freedom of religion and church-state relationships. It points up the Judeo-Christian concepts which guided the Founding Fathers, the right and dignity of the individual, and the opportunities provided for each one to make something of and for himself.

Other halls at the Academy will include the Egyptian Hall, the Hall of Christian Civilization, Independence Hall and Alamo Hall.

Included in the exhibits at the Freedom Shrine will be the late General's famous cap, his cornucopia pipe, sunglasses and Congressional Medal of Honor, on loan to Howard Payne from the MacArthur Memorial Museum in Norfolk, Virginia.

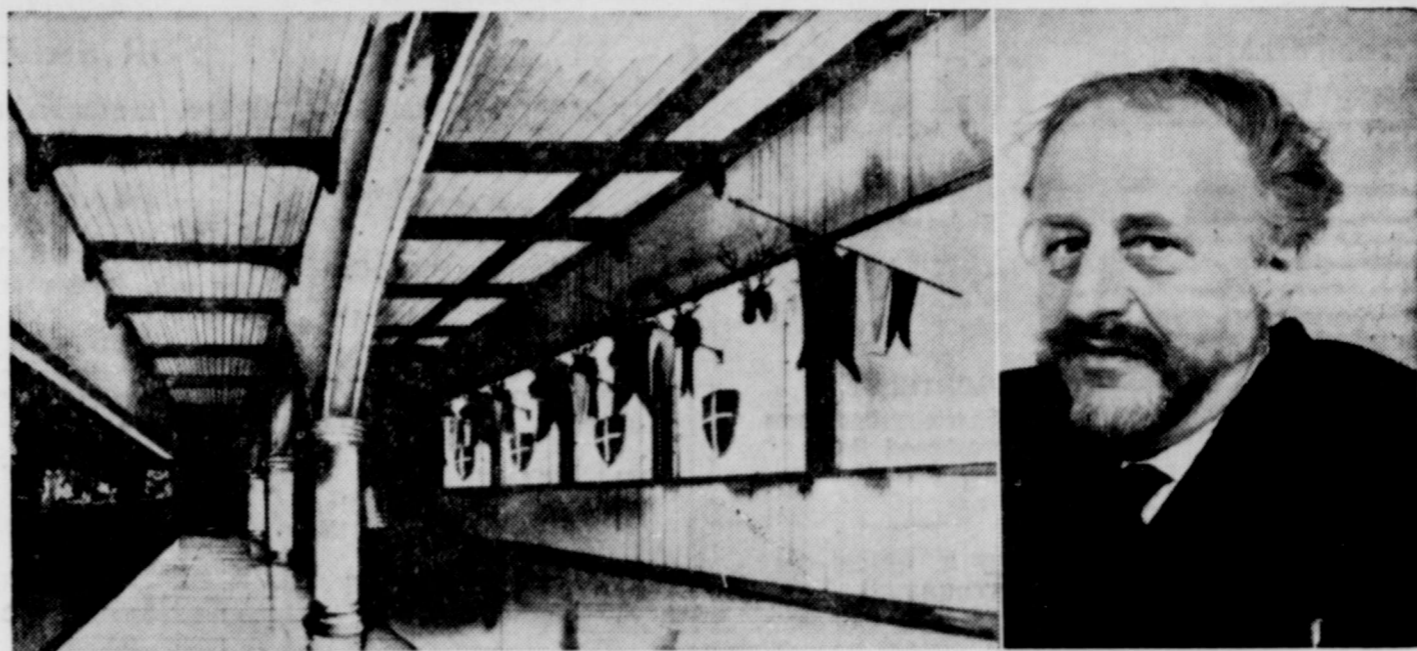

Thousands of people will tour this Freedom Shrine each year. On the top floor of the building will be the Forum, accommodating 250 visitors, where films of the birth of our nation will be shown similar to Paul Green's "Common Glory" movie presented at Williamsburg.

The story of our American heritage will also be presented in the evening hours to visitors seated in a small amphitheatre outdoors. Large images of General MacArthur, George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Thomas Jefferson and other famous speeches and writings, such as MacArthur's last address at West Point and Lincoln's Address will be heard.

The Academy of Freedom represents seven full years of planning and study by Dr. Guy Newman, president of Howard Payne, and his associates. Now in full operation, it is non-sectarian and non-political. The basic philosophy surrounding the Academy program is to make freedom meaningful and real to those who follow the course of study.

Successful graduates are assured of top flight positions in the field of diplomatic service and governmental and educational fields.

Most yeasts die after the alcohol concentration of a fermenting liquid reaches 4 per cent; at this point only wine yeasts can continue fermentation until the alcohol concentration reaches 15 per cent.

Magna Carta Hall is one of several halls at the Douglas MacArthur Academy of Freedom depicting the history of freedom from 4,000 B.C. to the present time. It was designed specifically to establish the Northern European and English tradition in the development of America. Osborne Robinson, one of England's outstanding designers and authorities on historical fashion has been commissioned by the Academy to paint a mural in the hall. Robinson began the work in early July after completing some eight months of research on the project. The Academy of Freedom is an honors program operating under the Department of Social Sciences at Howard Payne College in Brownwood, Texas. Non-political and non-sectarian, its basic philosophy is to make freedom meaningful and real to those who follow its course of study.

The annual Day Camp for Wichita County Home Demonstration Clubs will be Thursday, Aug. 19th in the Burk Burnett Town Hall. The Friendly Homemakers Club, located in Burk Burnett will register club members and their guests from 9:30 until 10:00. Club members from all sections of the county will attend.

Activities, for the day, will be filled with fun and recreation. This is in contrast to the regular activities of educational work in homemaking Clubs from Electra, Wichita Falls and Burk Burnett will help direct recreational events during the day which include games, songs, skits, do-it-yourself projects and films.

Lunch will be provided by each club and will be served by the Ray and City View Clubs.

The annual event is sponsored by the Wichita County Home Demonstration Council and planned by the council recreation committee. Members of the planning committee are Mesdames Ross Allen, L. B. Morris, Ray Strawn.

Home Economics Subcommittees for the Wichita County Home Demonstration Program Building Committee met last week to make plans for the local home demonstration club program. Subcommittee chairmen are: Mesdames Jack Marshall, John Jones, Jim Roberts.

The Bacon Switch Community 4-H Club will hold a project show Saturday, Aug. 7th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Johnson.

The District III Electric Clinic will be held in Vernon, Friday, Aug. 13th. Sessions will be held for 4-H boys and girls, adult leaders and county Extension agents.

The Wichita County 4-H Club Encampment will be Tuesday, Aug. 17th at the Perkins Reservation. Registration will begin at 8:00 a. m. under the direction of Betty Moser and Jimmy Curtis.

Every time you buy a food product, you are casting a vote for it. You, the consumer, determine what varieties stay in the market place. If you ignore a product, it will be taken off the market and re-evaluated, says Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent. There's an abundance of food choices available for you, she says.

A recent survey in one large store showed the following breakdown of varieties:

85 different cuts of meat or poultry, not including cold cuts and seafood.

9 different varieties of canned green beans, plus an assortment of fresh and frozen packs.

Some 262 different combinations of can sizes, brands and varieties in vegetables.

Research went to work to help provide many of these varieties. For example, the demand for stringless beans led to the development of new bean plants. They are called "snap" instead of string beans.
