Bulldogs Open With Bowie Here Friday

By DEE UNDERWOOD

It is with an air of anticipation that Burk Burnett fans await the 1965 arrival of King Football, high school style, and that arrival is Friday night at 7:30 p. m. in Bulldog Stadium, as the Bulldogs host the Bowie Jackrabbits.

The Bulldogs would like to put the skids on a sixteen game losing streak and they just might be able to do it. The Jackrabbits, short on depth, but not on size, have been beaten once in the present campaign, falling last Friday to highly-touted Holliday.

Coach Bill Froman says that it is just a matter of "wait and see" as far as predictions are concerned, "because they have a game's experience on us and that is an advantage."

Headed by Froman, the Bulldog's new coaching staff have strived to mold a team from a group of eager, but as a rule, inexperienced youngsters. With only seven holdovers from an 0-10 season, there is only one way to go, up! And though the Bulldogs will be small, they do not lack desire. They have hit hard in practice, and assistant Coaches Cecil Devine and Don Faubion made note of it in recent conversations.

"We've got to instill the winning desire in these kids," Coach Froman commented. "It's like fishing. If you go fishing everyday and don't catch anything, you start wondering what a fish looks like."

The Bulldogs will throw a 161-pound average line against a 172-pound front wall. The backfield gives away seventeen pounds per man, 168 to 151. Bowie's line is anchored by a pair of big tackles, Donnie Cox, 235, and Roy Gann, 209. The Jackrabbits have a veteran signal caller, 158-pound, Joe Griffin, a lad with three year's experience. Although they carry a small squad, Bowie will be anxious to avenge their loss last week, and could be tough.

The Bulldog coaches expect good performances from all their youngsters, but showing particular promise are Fullback Dean Thompson, Left Half Rod Turner, and Right Half Charlie Herring. Center Ollie McDonald and Guards Butch Moore and Jerry Harsh spearhead the line. Handling the Quarterbacking chores will be Tony Hodges, a minute passer with good speed. At tackles will be Larry Johnson and Vernon Goodell, and at ends will be Wally Robison and Steve Cozby. Goodell, at 180, is not only the biggest man on the line, but on the team as well. All of these boys, but Robison, Hodges, and Goodell also play on defense.

It's been a long dry spell and now the Bulldogs are anxious to improve their status. With good effort and a lot of desire, they should be able to improve conditions.

OUR COMMUNITY

We, as citizens do care about our Community, the people and the conditions which effect everyone! So let's do something more about it! How about using this RECIPE FOR ACTION: Get your mixing bowl . . . Into the mixing bowl put Active Community Leaders, Clubwomen, Members of Civic Clubs, Parents, Youth, City and School Officials, Religious Leaders, Chambers of Commerce and Surrounding Communities. Add a liberal amount of faith in yourself and your fellowman . . . a generous helping of understanding, concern and ideas . . . a large portion of hard work and COOPERATION. If we have these ingredients . . . mix together with enthusiasm and persistence. Ours will be an American Community with the basic American philosophy of helping ourselves and our neighbors by relying on our own efforts and ability. There are so many worthy projects that are apparent in Burk Burnett. Many of these were named at the organizational meeting of the Community Coordinating Council. We must have a program of Citizen Action to improve the economic, social and cultural conditions of our Community. The Community is important to the people who live in it. We must have a working Community . . . The purpose of the improvement program is to provide information, inspiration and incentives for every individual club and organization to join with cooperative forces in our community to reach the desired goal: A Strong, Alive United Burk Burnett. Citizens of our Community should pause periodically and evaluate the assets and liabilities of our town, giving considered thought to the future and what can and may happen to shape the destiny of our city and our business opportunities in the years ahead. I am impressed and encouraged by some of the developments taking place right now . . . especially the thoughts of a Library. This is the opportunity that we must grasp and act upon now! Never have we had such an opportunity. If each of us had always worked together and given his best at all times I wonder what changes might have been effected in Burk Burnett. I am sure most of

The monthly meeting of the Friberg-Cooper Community Organization was held in the schoolhouse Monday evening, September 6, at 7:30 o'clock.

Dorman B. Clark, President, called the meeting to order, after which Rev. E. E. Walt, Minister of the Friberg-Cooper Methodist Church, offered prayer.

Mr. Clark presided over the business session. Minutes were read and approved. Bill Jenne reminded everyone there would be a state election on Tuesday, an amendment on "redistricting."

Moved by Clinton Swinford, and seconded, that Bill Jenne be reimbursed the amount of $15.00 for mowing done at the Community Park. Motion carried. Also, moved by Clinton Swinford, and seconded, that the Friberg-Cooper 4-H Club be paid $40.00, the community part of their expenses to Six Flags. Check to be made payable to Miss Connie Swinford, treasurer. Motion carried.

B. T. Haws, County Agent, explained the 1965 Bridwell Soil Builders Awards Program, and stated the community book should be in the Chamber of Commerce room, Wichita Falls, by October 15. The 1965 program and family report blanks were distributed, and asked they be filled out as they are very important. Mr. Haws invited the members to attend the meeting at the ASC office, Iowa Park on Tuesday, Sept. 7, to hear some important speakers.

The meeting was turned over to Olen Baley Jr., program chairman of the evening, and "42" was enjoyed.

Refreshments were served to the thirty-seven present. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Davis and son were visitors.

But are we willing to work together with other individuals and organizations and put first things first, to meet our full responsibilities, and coordinate all our efforts toward a common goal?

39-Member Senate Merits Approval in Sept. 7th Vote

On Sept. 7, Texans will vote on a state constitutional amendment to increase the membership of the Texas Senate from 31 to 39.

A thorough analysis of the proposition leads The Reporter-News to recommend its passage.

At the same time, the newspaper urges that citizens interest themselves in the amendment and take the trouble to vote. This lone amendment—this critically important amendment—will be the only thing drawing people to the polls on Sept. 7, and a pitifully light turnout is in prospect.

The present size of the state Senate was set when the present constitution of 1876 was drawn.

As Texas' population has grown in the 20th century, the League of Women Voters points out, the Texas House of Representatives has grown in number from 90 to 150. Our congressional representation has also grown accordingly, as the state's population increased.

Not so the Senate.

It is this newspaper's opinion that the size of the Senate should be increased for these reasons:

1. A 39-member Senate would lighten the work load on the Senate and should thereby increase its efficiency. The Senate works through committees. Each member now must serve on from 10 to 14 committees. As a result, he can't attend all meetings, can't inform himself fully on all legislation he must act on.

2. A small membership in any legislative body is more susceptible to lobby control. Influencing a 20-senator majority would be much more difficult than influencing the 16 now required to control the Senate. The 39-member Senate would not be so susceptible to bloc voting control as the present smaller body.

3. Likewise, under the Senate's two-thirds rule, any 11 members can now block consideration—and ultimate passage—of any bill at any time they choose. Under the 39-member plan, 14 votes would be necessary to block a bill, thus making it harder for a minority to hinder the wishes of the majority.

4. The legislature in the last session redistricted the state Senate according to the one-man, one-vote formula. Some districts of incredible geographic area resulted, and will be in effect, if the 39-man Senate amendment is not approved. Under these jumbo districts, it was not possible to preserve community of interests. District 12, for instance, stretches 300 miles from Ellis County, Ennis, to Real County, Leakey, some 30 miles from the Mexican border.

5. Finally, and the factor of most direct concern to West Texas, the larger Senate would best preserve a voice in the Senate for rural Texas in this area of urban sprawl. Our present districts in this area could be preserved largely as they are, while the cities are given the representation the federal courts say they must have.

This amendment is a constructive proposal for better government that is in the best interests of the state at large. It calls for no partisan cleavage. It is a valid and necessary action to keep Texas government representative and responsive in this era of greatest growth.

WHOLESALE COMMODITY PRICES

Babson Park, Mass., September 9—This is the time of year when commodity prices tend to strengthen. For the most part, the rise is seasonal, reflecting the quickening pulse of business as autumn nears. This year there is certainly enough zip in the economy to make for a little extra upward pressure on commodity prices. Here is what has been happening to these prices, and what we believe will happen next.

Wholesale Prices Up From Rut

During the past year, strength in commodity prices on balance has been more decisive than for years. The Bureau of Labor's comprehensive wholesale price index recently stood at 102.9. This compares with 100.4 a year ago; 100.6 two years ago; and 100.8 in July, 1960. Industrial prices also were fairly stable for some years before they started their present climb. The index for these industrial (which are labeled "all commodities other than farm and foods") recently read 102.5; a year ago it was 101.1; two years ago, 100.8; and in July, 1960, 101.2. A somewhat similar price uptilt has been traced in farm products, with this index now at 100, compared with 94.1 last year; 96.8 two years ago; and 97 in July, 1960.

Yet, despite the over-all price strength of the past year, there have been significant sags in prices of many individual commodities. Among these are: Anthracite coal, cocoa beans, cotton, rosin, rye, and wool. Hence, it is vitally important to buyers and sellers of raw materials—whether agricultural or industrial—to measure carefully supply-demand ratios in both domestic and world markets before making commitments. For, by and large, it is these supply-demand ratios that will principally determine the direction and extent of price movements.

Industrial Raw Materials

Mounting production and transportation costs for industrial raw materials have been more directly responsible for price boosts in this group than has the impact of the war in Vietnam. Supplies generally are fully adequate for requirements in the months ahead... except, of course, for certain metals.

At the moment, only a handful of metals markets are in a really strong position, with supplies narrow-to-tight. We foresee higher prices for steel products and possibly also for ingots, for aluminum, and for zinc. But—unless there is a big widening of the war in Vietnam—domestic copper and lead prices will become more vulnerable to downward pressures by late winter. And these downward pressures will come from abroad... where markets are already showing weakness.

Farm Products and Livestock

While supplies of selected food items in the 1965-66 season may well be in close balance with requirements, overall shortages will probably be avoided. Even so, as the season works along, higher prices for foods will be come more likely and could even be marked.

Large corn and soybean out-turns—still to come—will keep grain and feed quotes somewhat depressed for several weeks more and more may even further delay the broad seasonal price recovery which usually gets underway by early winter. However, because of short grain crops aboard and heavy demand here at home, by late winter grain and feed prices should be well above year-earlier levels. Look for more weakness than strength in best-fed cattle quotations and for no more than ordinary seasonal easing in lower grades. Fall setbacks in hog prices will not cut very deep or be prolonged.

Higher Prices Ahead

The price strengthening of the past several months has resulted from rising costs for production, marketing, and transportation rather than from intensity or insistence of upturns in demand. And it has been helped mightily by climbing wages and soaring credit. Actually it is these which have exerted upward pressures on production, marketing, and transportation costs, and, hence... ultimately... on prices.

The uptrend in commodity prices may persist for another six months. Beyond that, they may have trouble holding UNLESS the war in Vietnam has expanded enough by then to trigger shortages not now anticipated.

Veterans News

World War II Texas veterans are swamping VA offices because of a misleading report that many of them did not collect the first dividend on National Service Life Insurance VA said today.

Actually, 99.8% of the 766,000 Texas veterans who had NSLI at the end of WW II received the dividend Jack Coker, Manager of the Waco Veterans Administration Regional Office said.

The rumor about the "GI Insurance Bonanza" apparently started because several industrial publications printed the old law authorizing the payment under a 1965 dateline, Coker said.

The VA manager estimated there may be about 1000 ex-

GI's in Texas who never paid. Most of these had their insurance upon leaving service and did not give mailing address. They collected the VA manager but he pleaded with the majority of veterans to their memory before they VA back to the old record check.

"Littering" Up The Place

The canine "Mother of the Year" is a new kind of dog hero. Currently the title-holder is an English Setter named "Queen" (center), the proud mother of 124 puppies. Almost tying her extraordinary record are "Princess" the runner-up with 107 pups, and "Je" with a mere 99 to her credit. All three mothers live happily at the Purina Pet Care Center in St. Louis where, by doing what comes naturally, they are aiding researchers in their studies of how nutrition helps produce more and healthier puppies. The frisky and handsome English Setters are living testimonials to the value of proper nutrition. Their diet has been plenty of balanced dry dog food, water—and good portions of love. They've never even sniffed table scraps or required vitamins of any kind. Pet owners and other canine mothers can surely benefit from their experience. Snakes?

Seven miles west of Burkburnett on the Claude Adams Ranch, on the bank of one of Adams' stock tanks, C. J. Allmon, Mobil Employee, found a mother water moccasin stretched out on some grass near the waters edge.

Allmon killed the snake and due to the length of the reptile decided to dissect it and examine the contents of the reptile's gullet. Much to his surprise he found twenty-five small moccasins some in the pre-birth sacks. The first snake about to be born was about six or eight inches long and immediately upon being exposed coiled and struck at Allmon.

Usually eight to ten little ones compose a moccasin's litter, so Allmon feels he hit the Snake Jack Pot and Mrs. Adams was very grateful for the extinction of 26 water moccasins.

Are YOU Using Your Most Unusual "Machine?"

Many children and young people in Burkburnett are going back to school. Why? To learn to use their most unusual "machine." What is that? Well, not strictly a machine, but rather, their minds. But really — THE HUMAN MIND IS INDEED UNUSUAL. It is apparently the thing, which more than anything else, distinguishes man from everything else. WHAT IF MAN FAILS TO USE THIS GREATEST OF ALL HUMAN RESOURCES?

Many children and adults may not be getting the best results from their minds. They may be using them, but without the GREATEST WISDOM — the wisdom of God!

"Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?" 1 Cor. 1:20. Our minds need not only the wisdom of this world, but also God's wisdom. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge." Prov. 1:7.

George Washington said: "It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible." "I have known 95 great men of the world..." said Gladstone, "And of these, 87 were all followers of the Bible."

YOU can be GREAT by following the Bible. Study IT with us, THIS Sunday, 9:45 A. M.! er information guides to aid you in shopping:

Read ads carefully. Look for precise information, such as detailed descriptions of sale items. Model numbers on appliances, for example, permit a quick, accurate check on price comparison among stores.

Consider off-season buying. There may be less choice of items, but this need not be a disadvantage when purchasing standardized items such as socks or white goods.

Understand guarantees. Know who is responsible for fulfilling the guarantee agreement. Have the terms of the guarantee been cut along with the price? Examine all sales items carefully. Be a sharp shopper.

Parents and educators know that the average costs of attending college for a year range from $1,000 upwards.

This may be rather discouraging, points out Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent. However, there are several ways to "beat the average" in college costs, she emphasizes.

Parents and students may want to investigate these possibilities for reducing college costs:

1. Attending a college with little or no tuition and fee charge.
2. Commuting from home to a nearby college or university.
3. Attending a college with an alternate work and study program.
4. The public community college or junior college idea is getting increased support as a part of the solution to the problem of providing higher education opportunities to all qualified young people. Students may want to consider a junior college in their community for the first two years of academic work.

Families who have to produce additional "under-withholding" tax payments for 1964 may avoid a similar experience next year by making some provisions now, suggests Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent.

A savings account which would draw interest would be one way to provide the extra tax, suggests Miss Wirges.

Failure of families to plan adequately for additional tax payments this year resulted in increased business for banks and loan companies.

Indications are that the size of the surprise tax bite, generally, was $100 to $150, according to the range of loans made about the time the tax deadline rolled around.

Family Finance demonstrations are a part of the program of work for all Wichita County Home Demonstration Clubs in October. Visit one in your community.

Early American Jelly Glasses

The jelly making set is in a tizzy over an Early American pressed ware type glass. It all started when an old fashioned, wide mouth jelly tumbler was molded in a quilted-crystal design, fitted with metal lid decked in gay fruits, and displayed in supermarkets.

These new-old eight ounce glasses come in a reusable styro-foam tray. Each of the dozen glasses has a little compartment of its own.

Mamma would have loved the way the planes, made by the quilted design, reflect light when jelly is turned out for serving. Her granddaughters and most of their friends couldn't care less about that. But they delight in being among the first to use the elegant looking, inexpensive glasses for serving party dips and other food accessories as well as the breakfast jelly.

Other women are filling the pretty containers with anything from peanuts to pansies and passing them out as gifts. So, don't be surprised if you find some of them under your Christmas tree; empty, filled with jelly, or maybe popcorn.

Girl Scout Troop 50 Resumes Meetings After Active Summer

Junior Girls Scout Troop 50 has resumed weekly meetings after an active summer of fun, going on picnics, hiking and camping.

Twelve girls enjoyed a three day campout at Possum Kingdom Lake in August at the W. A. Gann cabin. Those attending the camp were: Kathleen Sanders, Donna Wilson, Sharon Wooten, Ginny Aaron, Alice Fowler, Cathy Bizet, Alica Ruetsch, Janice Sammons, Stacy Muller, Diana Osborne, Carla Beursken, Judy Echternacht.

Cadette Girl Scout Glenda Bizet assisted in planning and carrying out activities at the camp. Adult leaders were Mrs. Clarence Bizet and Mrs. Roy Ruetsch. Sgt. Roy Ruetsch, Gerry Bizet, and David Ruetsch camped nearby.

Troop No. 50 has many exciting plans made for the coming year. At present they are completing the troop dramatics badge, led by badge consultant, Mrs. Wooten. In the near future, Mrs. Loren Cole and Mrs. Oran Wilson will assist the girls in earning the roymaker badge. Junior Girl scouting offers girls in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades opportunities to learn new skills, make new friends, and fun!

Any girl between the ages of 7 to 17 interested in becoming a Girl Scout may do so by contacting Mrs. Leslie Landers, 1310 Eleanor, phone 569-3825.

I want to thank my friends for their prayers, love and sympathy during my illness. I was able to stay in the hospital for 3 weeks and I am now home. Everyone was so nice to me and your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.

Mrs. Hennis is slowly improving and hopes to be home soon from the Hospital.

THE PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHER gives careful thought and study to lighting his subject. Contrasts must be right and reflections must be right to achieve the best effects.
 Individuals' lives reflect how they think and what they believe. Our lives count most, when we attend church regularly and walk in the light of the Lord.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
 THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

or along trails. Most poisonous plants are eaten because the animal is hungry and the plant is readily available.

Poisoned animals should be treated as soon as the condition is recognized, says Agent Haws. Poisoned animals should be removed from accessible poisonous plants and provided with feed, water and shelter. Some animals need hand feeding and watering.

Specific antidotes are available for some poisonous plants but others require symptomatic treatments such as laxatives, stimulants and good nursing.

Proper management following brush control is more important than the particular method used, says county agent B. T. Haws.

The objective of brush control is to get the longest control for the least cost, with the largest increase of forage and livestock production. It's always important to maintain a good grass cover, too.

Since brush control is only one important phase of the overall ranch management program, it should be combined with proper stocking and deferred rotation grazing to be most beneficial. Deferred grazing following any brush control operation is a must. If a livestock man plans to kill trees without a followup of other good range management practices, he would be better off spending the money for supplemental feed.

It's a good practice to use brush control practices on an entire pasture rather than parts of a pasture. The reasoning behind this is that livestock will concentrate their grazing in the areas where brush has been controlled, since

Quick Lunches for Busy Days

Lunch for the youngsters can be a homemaking problem on busy days. And what days aren't busy for an American homemaker?

Once breakfast is out of the way, there are dishes to be done. Beds to be made, bathroom to be cleaned, laundry to be sorted. And before you know it, the small fry are clattering in for lunch. What can you give them that's fast, nutritious, and appealing?

This is the time to make a fast reach in the direction of your well-stocked cereal shelf. A good choice would be the brand-new Post puffed corn flakes, first major improvement in corn flakes in 60 years. The flakes, with all of the toasted corn flavor retained, are puffed into airy, rounded shapes, to make them crisper than ordinary corn flakes. It's easy to have fun with this energy-going cereal, fruit, and milk luncheon. Just top the cereal with pear, peach, or apricot halves or thick slices of apples and let the children create their own funny faces and droll animals.

On your kitchen shelves keep handy the material for cereal cartooning: raisins, peanuts, chocolate chips, canned pineapple slices, cinnamon drops, flaked coconut. Remember this idea next time you hear that familiar cry, "Mother, can Johnny stay for lunch?"

County Agent B. T. Haws. For more than 4,000 years, farmers have used fertilizer to increase crop yields.

The Chinese, Greeks and Romans used animal manure, chalk and wood ashes for plant food. They had no knowledge of the chemistry of soils and fertilizers to guide them, but they knew that animal residues and manures increased plant growth.

When white men came to America, Indians were placing fish under each hill of corn at planting time. They had learned that often this practice meant the difference between a crop and no crop.

First commercial fertilizers were used about 1830. When Chilean nitrate was imported, Guano was also brought from Peru. These two materials stimulated farmers interest in fertilizer and prompted further study into its usefulness. In 1868, the production of superphosphate for chemicals began in Baltimore. For many years the fertilizer industry remained largely a salvage outlet for waste products from meat-packing plants, fish canneries and oil seed industries.

Two new processes made it possible for fertilizer to grow into a large chemical industry. These were the recovery of ammonia from byproduct coke ovens and the chemical separation of nitrogen from the air.

Don't be led to believe that fertilizer is a "new-fangled" device to drain the farmers pocketbook, says Agent Haws. On the contrary, it is a necessity for producing good crops just as food is a necessity for growing strong bodies.

this grass will be more nutritious and palatable. Soon the controlled areas will become badly overgrazed. If the entire pasture cannot be treated, it should be deferred following control measures.

Agent Haws notes that returns from brush control amount to much more than just increased grass production. Added benefits are: (1) Ease of working and caring for livestock, (2) Increased offspring numbers, (3) Less screwworm and other parasite damage, (4) Livestock is more tame, (5) Increased food and cover for deer and quail, and (6) Less breeding males are required.

If a good seed source is not available on the area to be controlled, defer for one growing season to determine the kind of grasses present and to determine whether additional native grass seed should be planted.
