Kings To Play Richardson Here Saturday Night

Richardson's Rockets will try for what they or four other opponents have failed to do this year — Beat the Kings. In their first encounter the Rockets went down 28 to 18 before the powerful Burk team.

Since that date the Rockets have been unbeatable and the Kings were about to believe, unscheduleable, as a return game has been cancelled twice before in Dallas. However, Richardson officials have agreed to come to Burkburnett in an attempt to avenge their only loss this season.

However, in all fairness to the public, the Kings have made arrangements with the Arlington Red Raiders to stand by, since they are open this week. If the Rockets fail to re-affirm their agreement, then the game will be with the Red Raiders, who nearly beat the Kings (20-18) October 9.

Thanks Expressed

Purcell Urges Seniors To Contact Him For Academy Entrance

Washington, D.C.—Congressman Graham Purcell (D-Texas) urged high school seniors who desire to attend one of the three military academies to contact him before this week is over to make their interest known. The Congressman said each young man interested should send him an air mail letter asking for an application blank.

Members of Congress make a limited number of annual appointments to the Military Academy at West Point, the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, and the Navy Academy at Annapolis, Maryland.

Each applicant will be given an opportunity to take an examination within a few weeks. This examination is used as part of the basis for selection of nominees to the academies.

Congressman Purcell stressed that both physical and academic requirements of all the academies are very high.

The Congressman expressed his belief that only those young men who are interested in pursuing a military career should apply. He pointed out that the Federal government spends thousands of dollars on the education and upkeep of the students at the academies, and he feels they should get young men who intend to stay in the military service.

The only address necessary for the applicant is: Congressman Graham Purcell, House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515.

17 Accidents Investigated In County In Month

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 17 accidents on rural highways in Wichita County during the month of September, according to Sergeant D. S. Lawson, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for two persons killed, seven persons injured and an estimated property damage of $8,469.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county from January through September of 1965 shows a total of 151 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were eight persons killed and 103 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $110,339.00.

November 29, 1965 is the deadline for applications for the next Patrol Training School. "Applications for the position of patrolman should be made as soon as possible," the Sergeant stated. Those who are selected to fill these positions have the privilege of knowing that they stand as the symbol of order in our society and are respected by all law abiding citizens.

"The work of the patrolman is challenging," the Sergeant pointed out, "but the rewards are many. Each man answers a call to serve with the best of opportunities for participating in the constantly developing effort to curb the dual menace of increasing crime and traffic accidents."

Full details on qualifications can be obtained from the nearest Department of Public Safety office or from any DPS Patrolman.

Bulldogs Fall To Graham Steers Last Friday Night

By DEE UNDERWOOD

The Burkburnett Bulldogs lost their second conference game in a row, Friday night, as they fell to the Graham Steers in Graham, giving the hosts a successful homecoming.

The Bulldogs won the battle of statistics, but were unable to overcome in the all important scoring department. In fact, the Bulldogs controlled the game most of the time. They had one touchdown called back via penalty and were stopped on the six-yard line late in the game.

The Bulldog's quarterback and right half both had good nights. Tony Hodges passed for 116 yards. Charlie Herring was the leading rusher with 164 yards in 15 plays. Herring's most stirring run of the night was an 83 yard ramble from the Burk seven to the Graham ten, just as the first quarter was drawing to a close.

After Herring's run, the Bulldogs failed to move so they decided to go for the field goal. A high snap forced Tony Hodges to get rid of the ball. He passed to Herring in the end zone, but some ineligible receivers were down field, so back it came, with a 15-yard penalty. The following field goal attempt fell short and the threat was put down.

The Steers then drove for their touchdown, a couple of key plays being offside calls against the Bulldogs on fourth down situations. The final four yards of the drive came through the air, with Preston Pratt throwing to Phil Birdwell. Pratt then ran over the two-point conversion, making it 8-0, with 6:56 left in the half.

The Bulldogs drove to the Steers' 25-yard line before the half, but a fumble killed it. In the fourth period, the Bulldogs moved 74 yards before being stopped. Key plays were passes of 30 yards, from Hodges to Herring, and 21 and 22 yards from Hodges to Wally Robinson.

With first and goal from the six, the Bulldogs tried to pass it in, but failed on two tries. On third down, the ball was taken by the right half, who was thrown for a loss. On fourth down, a Bulldog pass was incomplete and the ball went over to the Steers, who ran out the clock. The final score was 8-0.

For the Bulldogs, it was an impressive offensive show, statistically-wise, as they amassed 213 yards rushing and 116 yards passing, for a total of 329 yards, against 144 yards total for the Steers. The Bulldogs led in first downs, 13-8, but perhaps the story can be told by the Bulldogs two fumbles and 55 yards in penalties.

On defense, the Bulldogs were led by Butch Moore, Jerry Harsh, Larry Johnson and Dean Thompson. This Friday, the Bulldogs take a rest and prepare for their meeting with Vernon the following week, a contest that will undoubtedly be a thriller.

HOW TO GET BLED WHITE

Food, shelter and clothing are the basic necessities of life. They represent a major part of the total spending of the American people.

But a still larger part of the national spending goes for very different purposes. This is spending by government.

During 1965, the First National Bank of Boston reports that spending by local, state and federal governments will come to $203 billion. The outlays for food, clothing and shelter, on the other hand, will be $138 billion — or 20 billion less. Fifteen years ago, the Bank adds, the reverse was true.

All that government spending must eventually come out of our pockets — or, if collection is deferred through borrowings, the pockets of our children.

Much of the enormous increase in government spending can be attributed to efforts to create a welfare state at any and all costs. If that kind of acting and thinking prevails we'll be bled white.

BE PREPARED TO PAY

When you pick up your newspaper each day, you look to see what new shooting war has started.

Then you turn to the latest strike news to see how many men have been added to the unemployed list.

The issues involved in strikes seem as complicated as those affecting cease fire decisions. Rulers hate to give up power for peace.

In strikes, it is no longer a question of just wages or working conditions, but of grabs for power and control, just the same as between nations.

If you think you don't pay for gun shooting warfare and labor warfare, just watch the prices edging up steadily for commodities and check your total tax bills (hidden and direct) for the past ten years.

Increased taxes force increased wages and the two force increased prices. No fine spun reasoning of the economists can change this hard fact.

As long as it is necessary to tolerate wars and strikes, be prepared to pay for them.

CONFIDENCE JUSTIFIED

Last year, the Edison Electric Institute informs us, the electric industry spent more than $152 million on research and development projects. The sponsoring participants include 148 investor-owned utility companies, 14 manufacturers, and the Institute itself. All manner of projects were involved, covering every phase of the electrical arts. But, varied and different as they are, they all have one goal in common — better more efficient and more economical and dependable power service to every kind of consumer.

Some of the undertakings even carry an international flavor. For instance, 17 of the investor-owned utilities in the Southwest along with a big manufacturer of equipment, six European nations, and the Atomic Energy Commission are to sponsor construction of a nuclear electric power research project in Arkansas. This is part of the intensive effort to increase the feasibility of producing economical power from nuclear sources — an effort which has met with outstanding success in a very brief period of time.

The point is that the industry's search for still better ways to do things never ends. As a result of that attitude, we lead the world, and by a very large margin in the quantity and quality of our vast electric power systems. A spurious claim, made by some a few years ago, that Russia was outdistancing us has been exploded. Her plans for power development have not been fulfilled, and she faces shortages. The nation can harbor complete confidence in the ability of our power industry to meet any need, no matter how vast — now and tomorrow.

The American Meat Institute reminds us that beef has been a part of man's existence for thousands of years. The new Stone Age races of about 8000 B. C. are credited with bringing cattle with them on their migrations. Drawings in tombs show the Egyptians equivalent of today's meat market, and passage from the Old Testament mention all phases of man's daily contact with cattle.

The American Gas Association reports that gas utility and pipeline companies will spend a record $7.5 billion for construction in the four-year period ending in 1968. This is 14.3 per cent more than the $6.6 billion spent in the 1961-64 period.

CUTTING OURSELVES DOWN

Since we are, or used to be, the world's richest country, 20 years ago we set out to buy friendship and to level ourselves down so we could share some of the world's disadvantages. While we had two cars in every garage, millions of our friends in Africa couldn't even afford two missionaries in every pot. Or even afford pots.

Some other peoples are just as intelligent, some even physically stronger, and some have even greater natural resources than ourselves. It is "unfair" (the collectivists tell us) for us to retain a system, a race and culture which has enabled us to achieve a so-much-higher standard of living, so we are replacing Capitalism with Socialism, religion with humanism. We are destroying our restrictive immigration law. We are amalgamating with the Negro. We are giving away our substance and our grandchildren's seed corn, world without end.

The Mooch-you-all Security Program, the Civil Rights program, the War on Poverty, the United Nations, and killing of Right-to-Work all embody the same principles: 1. De-emphasize our religious convictions, 2. Bypass our out-of-date Constitution by giving the President more personal power, 3. Destroy Capitalism, state and local sovereignty, thus creating a socialist way of life more in keeping with that of the rest of the world.

Our "friend" Killer Khrushchev said: "The American people are too liberal to fight." We are not completely sure about that yet, but recent college polls indicate that he's right. Why fight and die for a Declaration of Independence, a Constitution, a Bill of Rights, a moral code, a Judeo-Christian religion and an economic system, all of which are old hat and unsuitable for today's needs?

Our Constitution says that "no money shall be drawn from our Treasury, but in consequence of appropriations made by law." Yet our leaders never bother our people by asking them to vote on foreign aid bills. Congress just appropriates a blank check to our foreign aid administrators. A recent Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Arizona, the late Marvin T. Phelps, said: "I find not a word, a line, a clause or a promise in the Federal Constitution that authorizes the foreign aid program . . ."

Of course, trying to accurately assess our foreign aid program in this limited space is sorta like tryin' to hug a cloud, or nail an apple pie to the wall, or predict who Lyndon will have his arm around tomorrow.

Our leaders may either have to finish doing away with the Constitution or with these extremists who are continually trying to hold us to it. They are fearful lest our people might some day rebel and ing: suppose the American people should suddenly decline to send them these billions to send our world brothers and brother-eaters. We don't have enough jails. It might be necessary to resort to firing squads, and such is not too desirable at this point. Not until the government registers and then collects all our guns and builds more hospitals to take care of "misguided patriots." Some of our super-patriots even claim that war is not unthinkable, but slavery is.

'GO BOND' FOR SAFETY

The relaxed James Bond approach may be an aid to traffic safety.
That's one of the findings of a national poll of "pros of the road"—the intercity bus drivers who log mile after mile of accident-free driving.
Drivers for one company alone, Greyhound, go more than 1 1/4 million miles every day.
As Spencer L. Hege of Charlotte, N. C., put it, "If there's one bit of advice I would rate above all others it would be, have patience."
In other words, keep cool.
Hege, a Greyhound bus driver with 24 accident-free years, said he believes driver irritability is a big cause of traffic accidents. So, he said, are following too closely, speeding and entering highways from side roads without proper caution.
"Yield to the other driver and to the traffic regulations" is the advice of bus driver Joseph P. McCarthy of New Bedford, Mass. "I know it doesn't sound too original," he said, "but it works. It saves lives."
McCarthy has gone more than a million miles for Greyhound without a chargeable accident in the last 26 years.
Other safe-driving suggestions from this long-time safety expert:
• Drive the only safe way—the right way.
• Don't fight traffic. Join it.
• Don't take chances. Chance-taking can become a habit. Leave it out of your driving pattern.
• Temper tantrums are for babies. ("Many a hot temper," said McCarthy, "has been cooled off by an accident.")
• If your slip shows, find out why. Thus, if you make an error, analyze your driving so you won't make the same mistake again.
An illustrated booklet, "Driving Like a Pro," containing these and other safe-driving suggestions is available free in single quantities from the nation's largest bus company. Write: "Safe Driving," Greyhound, 140 S. Dearborn, Chicago, 60602.

INJECTING LONGER LIFE IN MOTORS

A General Electric engineer uses a hypodermic needle to inject oil in demonstrating a new type of motor lubrication system. The new system will permit the redesigned motor to run more than 10,000 hours without re-oiling, thus reducing maintenance and increasing life expectancy.
Capillary action is used in the motor's lubrication system to keep the bearings from running out of oil prematurely by retrieving any oil that may be pumped beyond the bearings.
The 2 1/4-inch diameter shaded-pole motor is manufactured by G-E's Specialty Motor Department, Fort Wayne, Ind. The optional high quality system, available at a modest price increase, was designed specially for deluxe range hood ventilators, room air conditioners, small furnaces, humidifiers, furnace humidifiers, tape recorders, and other applications with adverse environmental conditions and where re-oiling is more difficult and therefore less frequent.

'Space Grid' House Wins Merit Award for Design

A house that is more than a house has won an award of merit from the American Institute of Architects.

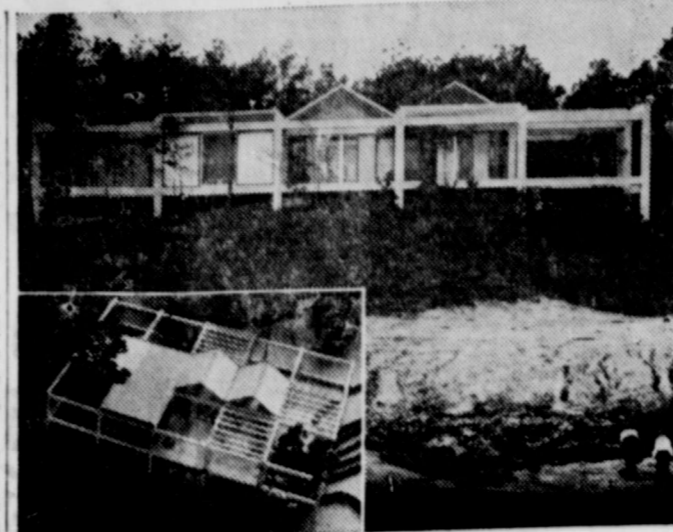

The structural system designed by Robert Damora was conceived as a modular "space grid," within which living space was built. The result is a house with unusual flexibility.

The grid is a framework of precast concrete columns and beams which delineate the house into 15 bays that are each 16 feet square and 9 feet high.

Six bays are open, four have precast concrete floors for terraces, and five are enclosed from floor to ceiling by glass and insulated wall panels of mineral fiber. Like the glass, the 1 9/16-inch thick mineral fiber panels provide both the finished interior and exterior surfaces.

The wall panels, which connect to the concrete structure through a watertight key and slot system, are interchangeable or removable and are also used to make walls for kitchen, bath, closets, heater and utility room. The use of the waterproof mineral fiber panels in bath and shower areas eliminates the need for costly tile and other super-imposed bathroom waterproofing.

The floors and roofs

Precast concrete framework enables AIA award-winning house to adapt to hilly site. Roofs and floors are concrete and walls are glass and insulated mineral fiber panels. Walls, which are interchangeable and waterproof, are used throughout house, including bathroom. Model (inset) shows how grid system defines modules and extends house into site.

throughout are concrete.

The unenclosed grids extend the house into the site and thereby make the house seem larger than it is. The concrete columns also serve as stilts, enabling the house to adapt to almost any terrain. Among the comments of the awards jury on this selection were: "Ingenious and imaginative with a sensitive feeling for the scale of a small house. . . . Great flexibility . . . a neat and orderly concept offering a great variety of choices."

The house was built by Emil Hanslin & Associates, developer of the year-round and vacation community of New Seabury at Cape Cod, Mass.

K. Lasseter of Burkburnett and Mrs. Lena Dillingham of Marlow, Okla.; 18 grandchildren and 10 great-great grandchildren.

The aim of every magazine editor seems to be to give so much to read in his publication that I won't have reading time for anything else.

ALL ABOUT Amusement Parks

The first amusement wouldn't be considered amusing today. The Roman Colosseum spectators sat on benches watching the gladiators chewed by lions.

More modern and however, are amusement built around a theme. Baltimore's Forest where children into a fairy tale land of bread Cottages and Woman's Shoe and others from Mother Goose and amusing details possible by metal lattice cement construction can give a building a shape imaginable.

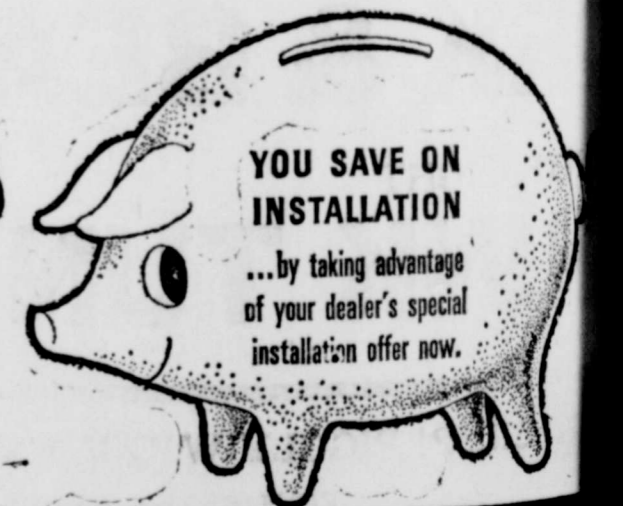

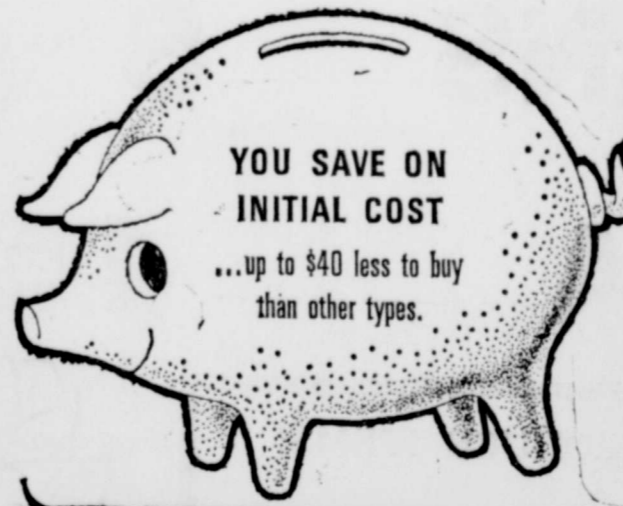

THE CHURCH CHRIST FOUNDED (Mt. 16:18) in Jerusalem (Lk. 24:47) on Pentecost (Acts 2:1-4) today among the religious bodies in the world. Its members are those who, having heard the Gospel (Mk. 16:15); believed in Christ (Jno. 20:31); confessed the Lord (Acts 17:30); confessed the Lord (Rom. 10:9,10); Acts 8:37, KJ; were baptized in baptism FOR remission of sins (Acts 2:38).

IT STRIVES FOR PURITY OF LIFE (1 Pet. 1:22), development of the character (II Pet. 1:4-11), and sound doctrine (I Tim. 3:16-4:4; II Jno. 9-11), being in submission to Christ (Eph. 1:22,23), under the care of the Holy Spirit (Acts 14:23; 20:28). It worships God and truth (Jno. 4:24; Acts 2:42; 20:7; 16:1,2; Eph. 5:19). COME WORSHIP WITH US.

MISCHIEF IN MIND

"There is no law," said Oliver Wendell Holmes, "against a man's intending to commit a murder the day after tomorrow."

But suppose the man still has mischief in mind when the day after tomorrow comes. And suppose he aims a gun at his intended victim and fires a shot.
Then, even though he misses,
he has indeed committed a crime: attempted murder.

Evil intent, by itself, is never a crime. Our jails would overflow if we punished every person who, however fleetingly, intends to cheat, slander, rob, or assault somebody else. There must surely be 1,000 clenched fists for every thrown punch.

Nor is active preparation necessarily a crime. The man who buys a gun, with murder in mind, is not yet guilty of attempted murder. The man puts matches in his pocket, with arson in mind, is not yet guilty of attempted arson.

At what stage does unpunish-able preparation turn into punishable attempt? Where is the "point of no return?"
One test is the "specialness" of the preparation. A man who acquires special-purpose printing plates may be more clearly committed to the crime of counterfeiting than the man who acquires general-purpose ink.

Another test is the nearness, both in time and space, of the crime itself. The man two days away from a murder, in Holmes' example, still has time to cool off. A man planning a burglary in another city may yet change his mind before arriving at the scene of the crime.
The law makes due allowance for the chance that either prudence or conscience will bring his effort to a halt.

But, when the preparation is unmistakably evil, and when the victim is put in imminent danger, the law says a criminal attempt has been made—even though no actual harm is done.

For example, a cook who mixed poison into her employer's oatmeal was held guilty of attempted murder even though he decided not to eat it.

Richard P. Orr Receives Promotion in U.S. Air Force

Fukuoka, Japan—Richard P.
Orr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry
W. Orr of 308 S. Avenue D, Burk Burnett, has been promoted to airman first class in the U.S. Air Force.

Airman Orr is a communications specialist at Hakata Administrative Annex, Japan.

The airman, a graduate of Burk Burnett High School, attended Yale University.

His wife, Maure, is the daughter of Staff Sergeant and Mrs.
Mendenhall of 4912 N. Dixie Drive, Dayton, Ohio.

True, she might have relented at the last moment and snatched the dish away. However, the court concluded that a woman who would go that far did not belong in a kitchen, serving oatmeal, but in a jail, serving time.

God Bless...

God bless Mommie, Daddie, and all my friends at church . . .

"Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God."

God's word has a great deal to say about prayer, for prayer is our means to communicate with God. Through prayer we can give thanks, petition for our friends, and seek God's wisdom for our daily living.

Make prayer a daily practice in your life.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

should be brought in for treatment.

If a cow has a history of mastitis during the current lactation, she should be kept in the milking herd during her drying off period and checked thoroughly each day. After she has been milked out for the last time, she may be treated by a veterinarian.

A feeding program during the dry period will vary with the condition of the cow and the pasture. Cows that have produced heavily, and are thin as they approach the end of their lactation, may be fed several pounds of concentrates a day in excess of their usual requirements the last month or two they are in milk.

During the dry period, cows may be divided into groups according to body condition. Those that are fat, should receive pasture, or if pasture is poor quality, hay, and little or no concentrates. Those that are thinner may get pasture, or hay, and in addition, 6 to 12 pounds of concentrates, each day. Minerals and water should be available to both groups free choice.

Ten days to two weeks prior to freshening, all dry cows should be placed on a feeding program which includes alfalfa hay, silage (if available) and 16 to 18 pounds of concentrates daily using the concentrate mixture regularly fed to the milking herd. No change should be made in the ration or in the quantity fed at calving time.

This program of heavy concentrate feeding before and after calving is the best way to prevent ketosis, and according to researchers, a good way to prevent milk fever.

HERE AND THERE AROUND BURKBURNETT

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watts of Wichita Falls visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cantwell Sunday and met many friends and relatives at the Sloan's Cafe Open House where approximately 400 registered and admired the modern and attractive restaurant. There were visitors from Kansas, Oklahoma and many points in Texas who signed the guest register.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sloan and family of Chickasha, Okla. were in Burk last weekend for the opening of the new Sloan Restaurant on the Oklahoma Cut-off. They also visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ady and other relatives and friends.

Miss Gayle Preston of New Orleans, La. visited in Burk and Wichita Falls Sunday night and Monday, returning by plane Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Bennie Lee McDonald, Jr. and son accompanied Mrs. B. L. McDonald Sr. to Dallas Saturday. Mrs. McDonald, Sr. will visit with relatives and friends in both Dallas and Lott, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Renfro, Mrs. Jessie Jones and Mrs. Barbara Michna will attend Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star in Fort Worth, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burnett and daughter Susie visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hewell and family in Hurst, Texas and they all attended the Dallas Fair last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Davis of Harlingen, Texas visited Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brumley and cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harold VanLoh Saturday. Mrs. Brumley and Mrs. VanLoh accompanied the Davises on a sight seeing trip and a visit with relatives in Alabama, leaving Sunday morning.

Announcements were received of the birth of a little daughter "Edith Amenda" to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hagan of Shreveport, La. Mrs. Hagan will be remembered to her many friends as Mary Ann Danforth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Danforth, former residents of this city. The Hagans now have four little daughters.

Rev. Miles B. Hays who has been ill in the Wichita Falls General Hospital is progressing nicely and soon will be returned home.

If you can't look interesting when you're bored, you aren't invited to many parties.

Time For Home Preserving

Little equipment is needed for home preserving, but one essential is a heavy pot that heats evenly over the entire cooking surface. A stainless-clad aluminum Dutch oven is the perfect container for making small batches of preserves. It combines the advantages of the two greatest cookware metals known—aluminum and stainless steel. There are no hot spots. Jams and preserves cook to perfection. Apple butter simmers unwatched with no danger of the thick puree sticking because of the even cooking surface. What's more the Dutch oven is a breeze to clean: simply rinse in hot water, then wash with mild detergent.

A stainless-clad aluminum Dutch oven fills a hundred culinary needs. It's just the right size for a family pot roast, a stew or ragout. Once heated it holds that exact summer point so necessary for making good soups, for poaching a chicken, for braising a roast.

Look for stainless-clad aluminum cookware in your local department store. A set, which includes 1 1/2, 2 and 3-quart saucepans with covers, a 10-inch fry pan and the 5-quart Dutch oven (cover fits fry pan, too), will give many years of rewarding cooking.

Apple, Peach or Pear Butter

4 pounds fruit	2 teaspoons nutmeg
2 cups water	1 teaspoon clove
4 cups sugar	1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon allspice	1/2 lemon, sliced

Wash fruit and cut into segments. Combine all ingredients in a stainless-clad aluminum 5-quart Dutch oven. Bring to a simmer and cook over low heat for 45 minutes, stirring occasionally. Strain through a coarse sieve, pressing fruit pulp through sieve. Pour into hot jars and seal. Makes 12 6-ounce jars.

The two clubs wish to thank Mr. Evans, the School Superintendent, for letting the clubs use a bus for the trip.

Bluebonnet Club Met October 12 With Mrs. Lou Ethel Boyd

The Bluebonnet Garden Club met October 12 for the second meeting of the Autumn season, in the lovely home of Mrs. Lou Ethel Boyd with Mrs. Gail Butts as co-hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Zella Mills. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved by Club Secretary, Mrs. Lou Ethel Boyd.

After the business meeting, the program committee brought the program.

Mrs. Chambers was leader. Roll call was answered by "Name Your Favorite Autumn Flowers." "Make Your Garden Sing With Scent" was our topic for the day.

Mrs. Hattie Gilbert gave an interesting talk on flowers with aroma—Ellen Landes an unusual one on herb gardens.

The club was adjourned by the members repeating the club collect. A plate of delicious pumpkin pie, coffee and nuts was served to seventeen members.

Members present were: Mrs. Zella Mills, Ona Banning, Hattie Burns, Mary Cecil, Earlyne Chambers, Hettie Gilbert, Lena Houser, Edith Holman, Ellen Landes, Avo Landes, Lillie Neal, Maude Teal, Wilma Thaxton, Florice Jeffers, Alice Goodwin, and Co-hostesses, Lou Ethel Boyd and Mrs. Gail Butts.

Among words I avoid because they are not easy to spell are vicissitude and vicissitudinous.

This country is so rich that the only 'used' thing your friends and relatives will cheerfully accept as gifts is folding money.

Year 'Round Fun

Remember bean bags? "Beanie the Clown" is one, but this is no ordinary toss-about bag for a game. Small Fry will love him, to be sure. The young sophisticate college girl will treasure her "Queen of Hearts" girl clown. Work-weary husbands, using the little clown as a paper weight, will find his antics (he seems to be double-jointed and reversible in his poses) are a most effective nerve sedative.

Who has the fun? You will have a Three-Ring Circus stitching up a family of clowns from your scrap bag and part of the contents of a bag of Idaho-grown dried beans. What is left of the beans should be tucked into a bean pot to slow-bake while you fashion these funny little clowns. Recipes? A booklet of "Whole Meal Bean Dishes" is included with the pattern. They're perfect for family and for Pot Luck dinners. Both clowns and bean dishes are popular bazaar and gift items.

Ask For "Beanie The Clown" All you need to do to get the clown bean bag pattern and recipe booklet, free-for-the-asking, is to send a POST CARD (no letters with envelopes please. And do print or type your name and address)

Federated Council Of Study Clubs Met Wed., October 13th

A regular meeting of the Council of Study Clubs was held at the Community Room at The Burkburnett Bank.

Mrs. F. M. McMurtry, president, called the meeting to order. The minutes were read and approved.

Mrs. McMurtry appointed Mrs. J. B. Riley, Jr., Mrs. C. M. Archer and Mrs. C. L. Pruitt on the nominating committee for new officers to be presented to the council in January.

The Jr. Forum will work at the Red Cross Bloodmobile in December.

Plans are being made for the Federation Banquet to be held November 4th at the Town Hall. Mrs. Kauer read the Constitution of the Community Service Council. Mrs. Jim Frye, chairman of the Steering Committee gave a report on the Library Project.

Those attending were Mesdames C. L. Pruitt, Bill Cauthorn, S. S. Reger, Joy Sessums, Marjorie Kauer, J. B. Riley, Jerry McClure, Arthur Houser, Jack Smith, Jim Frye, Lewis Gray, Gene Bankhead, Robert Norris, C. M. Archer and Jerry Thomas.

At moments most every man must regret that he was ever born.

Highway Commission Approves Surfacing Of County Roads

Austin, Texas — Additional surfacing of U.S. Highways 82 and 277 in Wichita Falls (Wichita County) was approved today by the Texas Highway Commission.

The project will extend from 0.3 mile west of Beverly Drive to Van Buren Street, a distance of about 1.6 miles.

The Commission directed the State Highway Engineer to proceed with the work in the most feasible and economical manner, financing it in the 1967-68 Consolidated Highway Program. The project will cost an estimated $26,000.

In addition to a face lifting for the yard, Mrs. Lee has given home furnishings a new look. Remodeled and refinished furniture will also be displayed at the first stop.

Dowden Home

Mrs. A. L. Dowden was a rural homemaker, at home on an oil lease, until a year ago, when she and her husband bought an older house in Electric.

They planned and worked together and remodeled the entire house which made it into a real home. Remodeling included sheetrock and paint for each room, additional storage, carpets, draperies, kitchen arrangement, kitchen cabinets and storage, and built a porch into the house. The result is a very attractive home and one which is very livable.

Stermer Home

Mrs. Floyd Stermer planned improvements, which make many of her homemaking activities much easier.

The combination sewing-guest room includes well arranged storage and work space which is easy-to-read, easy-to-see and easy-to-keep. With all the convenience, the room is still very attractive. The built-in sewing machine, storage and workspace eliminates the need for extra furniture and makes it easier to convert from work to living. Mrs. Stermer has also made curtains, a bedspread and planned decoration of the room.

Draper Home

A remodeling project has doubled the space in the Claude Draper home. Mrs. Draper finds a place for everything and everything in place makes homemaking much easier and more pleasant.

Walls were moved, others removed and rooms were added. Two bedrooms, a den, and an extra bath were added to the living area of the home.

Color schemes, carpets, wall finishes, woodwork, paneling, and draperies were also part of the completed work.

The result is not only easier to keep but easier to live in and is very attractive.

Swinford Home

Mrs. Ralph Swinford planned demonstrations inside and outside her home in previous years. This year, Mrs. Swinford completed a demonstration which fulfilled a dream for well organized space inside the home.

She remodeled the living room; added central heat and air conditioning; remodeled one bath and redecorated another; built a sewing center and business center in the master bedroom; reorganized storage; combined the kitchen and utility porch and made the area into a kitchen den combination.

The project included decorating as well as remodeling. The Swinford home is well arranged, livable and very attractive as a result of careful planning and management.
