Bulldogs To Host Burkburnett Invitational Basketball Tourney Thursday Through Saturday

By DEE UNDERWOOD

The Burkburnett Bulldogs are set to host one of the finest basketball tournaments in the state, in fact in two states, as they lay out the welcome mat for the annual Burkburnett Invitational, Thursday through Saturday, December 8-9-10.

Before anyone accuses us of a brash statement, let us first lay out the credentials of this three-day affair. They are: the Lawton Wolverines, the Duncan Demons, the Rider Raiders, the Wichita Falls Coyotes, the Lawton Eisenhower Eagles, the Childress Bobcats, the Burkburnett Bulldogs, and the Vernon Lions. Those eight names alone are enough credentials to qualify this as the tops in Texoma.

It has been said that a good team thrives on tough opposition, and the Bulldogs have indeed invited some toughies. However, they are used to playing in the big crowd, just returning from Pampa, where they annexed the consolation championship. They will undoubtedly face the best North Texas or Southern Oklahoma has to offer in the week-end encounters.

Favorite roles will go to Lawton High and Duncan, with a strong challenge from Rider and the Coyotes. Eisenhower, Childress and the Bulldogs are not to be counted out, and although Vernon starts late after an extended football season, they are expected to give a good account of themselves.

Pairings for Thursday's opening action are at 5:00 p.m. in the upper bracket, Eisenhower vs. Childress; at 6:15 p.m. in the upper bracket, Lawton vs. Coyotes; at 7:30 p.m. in the lower bracket, Duncan vs. Rider; and at 8:45 p.m. in the lower bracket, Burk vs. Vernon.

The Wichita Falls Coyotes have the number one scorer in the city of Wichita Falls, in Ken Cummings who averages 23.2 points per game. However, he is not far ahead of cross-town rival Rider's Kenny Bryant with a 23 even average. Duncan holds a victory over Rider, the Raiders first loss, and their match should be an interesting one. Lawton's Wolverines are once again highly-rated in Oklahoma's AAA basketball picture, and will be tough to handle. Eisenhower is always tough and Childress gave the Bulldogs a scare at Pampa, before falling, 52-51, with only seconds to play.

Vernon most likely will be led by last year's sharpest shooter, Ed Marsh, also an all-state football quarterback.

Now for the Bulldogs' case. At presstime, their record was 5-2, their last win coming against Childress in Pampa.

In the Pampa Tournament, the Bulldogs tackled some red hot action in Thursday's opener, losing to Elk City, 56-32. They bounced back though, dumping Dumas, 44-32, with John Edwards pumping in 12 points to lead the attack in the consolation finals the Bulldogs fought from behind, Jimmy Owen sinking the winning bucket with three seconds left to play, giving them a 52-51 win over Childress. Edwards led scorers with 22 points, while Owen collected 16. Tuesday night, the Bulldogs experienced some cold shooting and fell to the Eisenhower Eagles, 57-41 at Lawton.

If things go as the oddsmakers figure, Eisenhower, Lawton High, Duncan and the Bulldogs should advance in the winner's bracket. However, the old roundball may bounce any way and there could be some upsets. All in all it looks like a week-end filled with fine court action. Who knows? This tournament may come to be known as "Top of Texoma," as Pampa is called "Top of Texas." See you at the games.

A STEP AT A TIME

An excellent illustration of how local and national affairs can often be two sides of the same coin has come to light in Iowa. There a local power company has filed a complaint with state regulatory authorities against the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation for offering to provide electric service to four Iowa communities already being served by the investor owned company. The complaint is based on the Code of Iowa, which states: "No public utility shall construct or extend facilities or furnish electric service to the point of delivery to any consumer already receiving electric service from another public utility."

The local company has served the four communities in question for over 40 years. No complaints have been received from any of the four towns concerning rates or service. Electric capacity is presently and always has been adequate. The company is fully regulated by the Iowa Commerce Commission and the Federal Power Commission. If the federal government agency takes over the customers of this private company in these four communities, the company's facilities will be rendered useless, since the federal government would be duplicating existing service.

This is the way centralized government expands bit by bit, a step at a time, with each step resulting in losses to the taxpayers due to the elimination of sources of tax revenue and losses to private citizens who have invested their savings in a taxpaying enterprise. It seems to be human nature to disregard government encroachment on the rights and property of our neighbors. Far too few of us realize that once the trend sets in, the day will inevitably come when we are next in line.

HIGH PRIORITY PASSENGER

Life magazine recently featured a pictorial preview of the supersonic transport, a monster 300-ton, 1800-miles per-hour titanium airliner that in few years will cross the United States in two hours with 300 passengers at 65,000 feet.

Far from being an impractical fanciful dream the SST will be culmination of long years of hardheaded planning, research and thousands of hours of actual supersonic flights — flight faster than the speed of sound. The SST program has been the largest in the history of aviation. Intensive studies have been made of the impact of the SST on the United States economy, on the traveling public and on the U. S. balance of payments. These studies forecast a world-wide need for 900 U. S. SST's by 1985, and it is estimated that by 1985 world-wide travel will be 900 billion passenger miles, compared to about 123 billion passenger miles in 1965. One SST will equal the overall productivity of 74 of the famous DC-3's — the workhorse that revolutionized air travel in the early thirties.

The importance of a U. S. built supersonic transport to this country in terms of jobs and taxes and maintenance of U. S. world leadership in air transport, the balance of payments problem and national security is almost beyond measurement. It will mean sales to the free world's airlines of $42 billion. It will provide direct employment to an average of over 100,000 persons for an 18-year period. It will provide a net benefit to the U. S. balance of payments of nearly $40 billion by 1985.

Beyond all these factors, a U. S. built SST will assure this nation technological superiority in the aerospace industry, a superiority that is vital to national defense. The national interest will be the SST's highest priority passenger.

According to the results of a survey made by the National Federation of Independent Business, U. S. small businessmen foresee hardships from the federal minimum wage hike; 35.6 per cent predicted higher prices, 23.4 per cent see a dip in employment, and 41 per cent view a drop in profits.

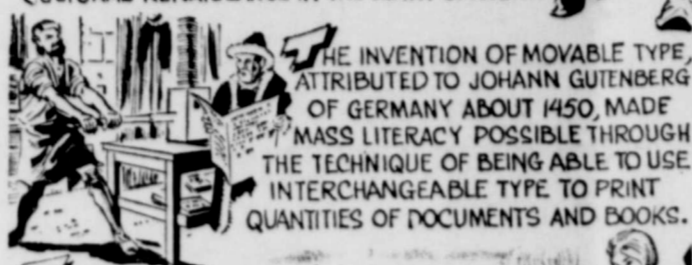

Human Events reports: "The second session of the 89th Congress racked up appropriations of $145 billion — the highest spending level since the World War II peak of $147 billion . . ."

The American Medical Association suggests if anyone tries to sell you a "cold cure", save your money. "Many of the classic diseases of history have succumbed in the 20th century to new medical skills and modern drugs. But the cold virus still successfully resists the best efforts of the world's combined medical research talent."

Roger W. Babson Weekly Report

KEEPING UP WITH U. S. GROWTH

Babson Park, Mass. — Spectacular postwar increases in our population and Gross National Product are creating great new problems to plague us. We have entered a technological age largely undreamed of as recently as 25 years ago. The question is: Will we be able to keep up with our growth—or will it destroy us as a nation?

Tremendous Expansion
During the past 20 years, our population has climbed 41%. In the same interval—that is since 1946—personal incomes in the United States have soared 225%. Even allowing for the steady erosion in the dollar's buying power which occurred in the past two decades, we are today far, far better off income-wise than in 1946.

Our nation is also stronger economically than in that first year after the end of World War II. Our Gross National Product is now within a whisker of $740 billion a year,—up 225% from 1946. This is truly impressive evidence of our success in developing improved techniques leading to a more productive use of the vast resources of our country.

Stream of New Inventions
Though still playing second fiddle to Russia in the space race, we have nevertheless chalked up our own impressive list of space firsts and have invented many devices and techniques which the Soviets are striving to duplicate. In an unbelievably wide variety of fields, we have encouraged thousands of inventors who have enriched our country and the world with their ideas. We have also been singularly adroit in putting these inventions to productive purpose.

What we have done, we can do again. America can remain in the forefront in the invention of new products and new methods of production. Additional ways will be found to make those new products and new production methods useful in advancing the American way of life. But such further progress is surely dependent upon our ability to prove true to that American way of life which was built on the idea of free enterprise.

Encourage Risk Capital
One way to preserve our heritage of free enterprise and to assure our continued progress and prosperity is to make certain that our laws, our federal, state, and local tax structures, and our over-all management-labor relations are such as to encourage—not discourage—inventors and businessmen to risk their time, their talents, and their capital.

Now nearly 200 million people strong, we must plan toward the day when—despite our slowing birth rate—we shall have 240 million or more. Growth of our potential domestic market is practically assured. We have proved we can develop technique or "know-how", and we have proven that such development is the key to increased productivity and to prosperity itself. But do we fully realize that new techniques to keep up with our growth will come only from men urged on by the prospect of profit and backed financially by investors risking their capital because they have reasonable hope of making a net gain?

Fiscal Responsibility
If there is one single trait

Big Pasture FFA Committee Meets

Monday the Executive Committee of the Big Pasture FFA chapter met and made plans for the annual Christmas Party. The date was set for the 19th of December. All Big Pasture High School girls and faculty are invited to attend. To come you must bring a gift ranging in price from 75 cents to a dollar, which will be exchanged.

The Big Pasture chapter has set up a fertilizer test plot working in collaboration with the M&E Soil Service. The Ortho Chemical Company is supplying the fertilizer. The plot is to determine whether it is more beneficial to fertilize in the Fall or in the Spring.

this nation stands more in need of than any other it is fiscal responsibility. As individuals we need to be resolute on the idea of living within our means, of jealously guarding our credit ratings, and of helping to provide for our own futures. As a nation, we need to be reminded that public funds are a public trust and that public expenditures and public receipts ought to be in long-term balance.

At all levels of government, there is need for sounder, better rounded, better co-ordinated public service programs and tax policies. Right now, we are wasting billions of dollars in ill-timed, ill-planned projects, in careless and inefficient public administration, and in the management and funding of public debt.

With the arrival of cold weather, proper feeding of cows and calves takes on importance points out county agent B. T. Haws.

The production efficiency and comfort of a mature cow is not reduced by cold weather, provided she is full of forage, has a dry coat and is exposed to still dry air.

The temperature at a given level of feed intake where no additional feed is necessary to maintain body temperature is called the critical temperature. It is slightly above the temperature at which cattle begin to shiver.

A cow on a fasting diet or without any feed will reach the critical temperature at about 55 degrees Fahrenheit. A maintenance ration will lower the critical temperature to about 23 degrees Fahrenheit. Cattle can keep warm and survive cold weather if they consume sufficient forage. Low-quality roughages high in fiber serve as effective feeds during storms because of the high heat production that results from digesting the fiber in the roughages.

More and more farmers are asking about fertilizer usage in 1967. In arriving at an answer to this question, the fertility level of the soil and the expected yield must be considered.

An expression of the fertility level is not a simple index since any combination of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium levels can exist. Soil tests should be made to determine the level of major plant nutrients, and fertilization practices for the soil and crop should be adjusted according to the soil levels. Haws advises.

Mechanics VICA Club At Officers' Training School

The officers of the VICA Club of the Automechanics Class of Burkburnett High School departed from the high school campus on Saturday, November 5, at 6:30 a.m. for Denison, Texas to attend the officer's training clinic, which was held in the new high school at Denison.

The meeting was opened by the District II Officers and the meeting was conducted by the District Officers. After registration, the meeting was opened at 9:45, at which time the District President gave a report from the National Convention of the Vocational Clubs of America, a national youth organization. Then, Martha Arwine, District II Secretary brought a report from the Youth Leadership Conference, which was held at Little Rock, Ark. last July.

The guest speaker, Reverend Tommy Marshal gave a very interesting and thoughtful talk on Vocational Education as seen through the eyes of a business man.

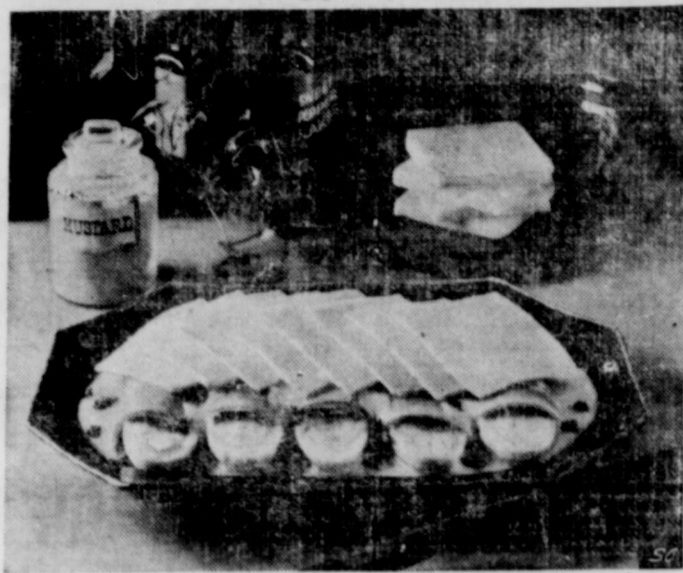

At this time the candidates for District Sweetheart were introduced to the conference. The meeting was then adjourned for lunch.

After lunch entertainment was from a local group known as "The Laymen." This was enjoyed by all present.

The afternoon meetings were to orientate each club officer to their special duties of the offices. After another general business meeting, the District Sweetheart was presented and she will represent the District II at the Spring Meet to be held at Houston. She will compete against the winners from the six other districts for the Title of State Sweetheart.

The meeting was adjourned and we departed for Burkburnett at 4:30 p.m. After a little

Brunch On Eggs Cloaked In Ham

Change those old brunch habits with a hefty innovation—cheese-topped eggs cloaked in ham. How welcome they'll be as nippy weather quickens family appetites! In this Borden Kitchen version, ham slices are wrapped jelly-roll style about hard-boiled egg halves, then covered by a margarine-milk sauce spiced with parsley flakes and mustard. Crest with handy vera-sharp cheese slices, bake, and serve hot.

Cheese-Topped Eggs Rolled in Ham (Makes 6 servings)

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1/4 cup new Danish margarine or butter        | 1/4 teaspoon salt   |
| 1/4 cup flour                                 | 6 hard-cooked eggs, shelled   |
| 2 cups homogenized milk                       | 6 thin slices boiled ham  |
| 1 teaspoon Wyler's de-hydrated parsley flakes | 8 slices (one 6-oz. package) Vera-Sharp brand pasteurized process American cheese |
| 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard                      |   |
- In a medium-size saucepan, melt butter or margarine over medium-low heat; gradually blend in flour. Remove from heat. Slowly add milk; stir constantly. Return to heat. Cook mixture over medium heat about 5 minutes, or until thick and smooth; stir constantly. Remove from heat. Stir in parsley flakes, mustard and salt; set aside. Slice each egg in half lengthwise. Place two halves with narrow ends touching, cut side down, on the shorter end of a ham slice. Roll each jelly-roll fashion. Place rolls in a shallow 1-1/4-quart casserole. Pour sauce evenly over rolls. Top with cheese slices. Bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven 30 minutes. Serve hot as a luncheon or supper dish, or for brunch.

FOR the New Testament CHURCH, which is the body of Christ (Co. 1:18). Obeying makes one a Christian, and at the same time a member of the body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:13). All of God's children MUST be in the body of Christ which is the CHURCH.

FOR UNITY among all professed Christians, for so did He (John 17:20-21) pray for the Christians at Corinth to be of one mind and to speak the same THINGS and set forth the ONLY basis for UNITY (1:1-6).

For New Testament WORSHIP "in Spirit and in Truth" (John 4:24) sincerely, reverently, humbly. To change the WORSHIP of the world, to set forth in the New Testament, is to nullify the old.

The Greatest Show in BASKETBALL

Fabulous Magicians Basketball Team To Appear Here Dec. 12

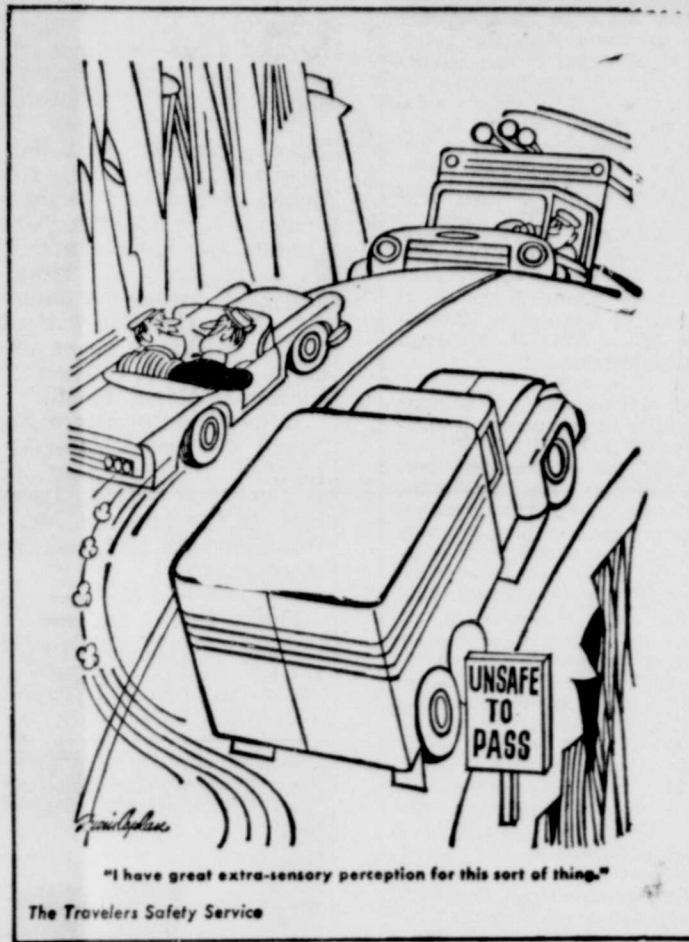

A group, known as the Fabulous Magicians throughout the world, owned and operated by a very popular and personable Marques Haynes, the world's greatest dribbler, will make Burk Burnett to face the Burk Drillers on the night of December 12 at 8 o'clock. Strictly amazing and strictly professional, the Fabulous Magicians this season takes a record of over 3000 victories and losses into the nation's most important arenas and stadiums. With their ability to shoot from the lip, fire from any spot on the floor, and handle the ball with a knife and fork, the Magicians should have very little trouble in maintaining this amazing record.

They feature such stars as the "George "Goose" Grams of Purdue University, 6'8" Paul "Sky" Plowden, 6'7" Paul "Warehouse" Martin, and one of the all-time great set-shot artists, the old pro himself, Ed Grider. This season's schedule will include Madison Square Garden in New York, as well as into the Boston Gardens and arenas in practically every major town in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands and South America. Haynes organized the Magicians in 1953 and was joined shortly thereafter by Grider who became part of the executive family. You have to see this team to believe it. They bounce the ball through the hoop from the floor, the head, and the arms, fast-break with a dazzling ball-handling style that gets laughs from the fans and amazed and bewildered frowns from opponents.

Sponsored by the local High School Letterman's Club, Haynes group will face an outstanding group of local talent that have been one of the powers of independent basketball in this area. The Drillers are led by former Midwestern star, John Henry Young, along with Stan Owen, and Bubba Bailey.

Auto Mechanics Class In Field Trip

The students of the Auto-mechanics classes, with their Instructor, Mr. Pace enjoyed a field trip to the General Motors Assembly Plant at Arlington, Texas. The students were guided through the vast assembly plant by Mr. Melvin Kiehn, Manufacturing Representative for the General Motors Corporation. The students saw, first hand, the method and the process that the basic automobile goes through as it is assembled. The automobile starts out with only the frame, which is palced on the assembly conveyor belt, then each unit is added to the frame until all the power train and the brake lines are installed at the proper location on the frame. Then the frame is inverted and the other items that are needed are added as the frame proceeds down the assembly conveyor belt. Finally the body is installed with the other sheet metal comprising the front end of the automobile. After being serviced with gasoline, oil, water and freon for the air conditioner, the car is started and is able to move under its own power to the other stations on the assembly line. The entire vehicle is moved to a water spray booth where it is checked for water leaks. The students were also guided through the paint spraying department. This Department was very neat and exceptionally clean, which is necessary for a good paint job. The students left at 6:00 a.m. and arrived at the Assembly Plant at 9:00 a.m. We arrived home at 4:30 p.m., a tired and weary group. This is one of the field trips that the students enjoy each year, because of the interesting ways that the assembly lines handle the various parts with very little human supervision.

Passing on curves and hills killed or injured 15,000 persons in 1965.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

"I was told by a fairly big employer, there's a whole business springing up of teaching people how to get on relief or get unemployment money," revealed Stanton Delaplaine in a recent column in the San Francisco Chronicle. "For example, you can pay a dollar or two and learn how to fill in the proper welfare papers. How many children you need — legitimate or illegitimate — to make welfare money."

C. W. Harder

"Quit your job and you get no unemployment money. But quit your job and take a temporary job and lose it—then you get unemployment. The theory is you quit one job to better yourself."

Federation members are constantly complaining about lax unemployment compensation laws. A Missouri druggist writes of a married woman who quit his store to work in a large factory where she stayed only 2 weeks, then began drawing unemployment against him. "We've protested such claims, but find that after a short waiting period, even when employee dishonesty is involved, claims are validated."

The proprietor of a southern plant writes, "Unemployment compensation is so high it's near minimum wages. Why work? Unemployment won't send us help, yet thousands pass through there weekly."

The U.S. News and World Report National Federation of Independent Business

port observed that for many people, working is less profitable than not working. A man earning $3,000 a year with a wife and three children would have the same standard of living if he quit his job and went on Federal dole permanently.

According to the U.S. News, the number of people on welfare is increasing at a break-neck pace almost three times as fast as population growth since World War II, although jobs go begging.

Nor is it necessary to be poor to qualify for government anti-poverty handouts. "Human Events," the Washington tabloid, reveals Beverly Hills, California, one of the country's most prosperous suburbs was recently granted $82,375 in anti-poverty funds because it was reported 435 poor families lived in the area. However, L. A. Times columnist Paul Coates claims he was only able to locate one man in dire straits—he was 2 months in arrears in his Playboy Club dues.

$47,754 was allocated to Orinda, Calif., an area whose citizens average $13,000 annual income. No actual poverty was found in Orinda so the money was spent for a city remedial reading program. To facilitate distribution of government welfare, the anti-poverty people are planning to establish "supermarket" organizations where full social services would be available under one roof: Unemployment compensation, Social Security, Vocational training, Family and child guidance, Medical and psychiatric services, and consumer advice. The sky's the limit on costs in this "market" since the taxpayer is again footing the bill.

BURKBURNETT STAR & NEWS

Den 6, Pack 155 News

I want to congratulate the following boys on their hard work to receive the following awards: Wade Meadows, Bobcat, Donny Roe, Bobcat, Joe Wayne Scruggs, 1 year service star; Billy Savage, 2 year service star; Wade Harris, Wolf Patch gold arrow and Kermit Olson, Bear patch and silver arrow. Also I want to thank the boys in my den for working so hard on their skit that was given at the pack meeting. You may not think so, but a lot of hard work goes into each skit that is prepared and I am fortunate to have a very good den chief that made our rocket shields for us. He did a very good job and I am thankful for him.

I also want to thank my boys' parents for attending the pack meeting, you will never know how much this means to the boys to have both parents there to see him get his awards and do his skit. Each boy had at least one parent present and the only two missing were sick and I will forgive them for that. I want to thank you again.

We now have a new den doodle that will be at every pack and den meeting, this is a ladder with each boys name on it and on each boy's name is a cloth-spin telling each award he has received, at each pack meeting when the boy receives a new award he will put a clothespin telling which award he received and also there is a clothespin telling if the cub is present and a clothespin telling that his mother and daddy are present. Our den meeting was just 30 minutes today, since we had our pack meeting at 7:30, we practiced on our skit and tried to learn our parts.

The following cubs were present: Wade Meadows, Donny Roe, Morris Jacobsen, Joe Scruggs, Mike McKinley, Kermit Olson and Den Chief Darrel Rivard. Our next den meeting will be December 6th at Mrs. Scruggs. We were 100% at the Pack meeting.

Let's Go Fishing! BY BOB BREWSTER Outdoor Editor, Mercury Outdoors

THE WINTER MENU

What fish can you expect to catch during winter? Those who actually go fishing and try the answer is, "the same species you caught in summer."

While certain fish are considered "prime" fare on the cold winter months, there are hardly any game fish that fail to show up in the catches of devoted fishermen, claim the experts at Mercury Outdoors.

You can run down the list of summertime favorites — lake trout, muskies, walleye, perch, bass, pickerel and never else is legal — and realize that fishing knows no seasons.

The big difference is in the food used and in the techniques and equipment used in ice fishing bear little resemblance to those employed in fairer weather, except for the use of artificial lures and elaborate decoy setups to lure the quarry into range.

However, the big difference is in the response of the fish. Spectacular fighters under summer conditions often become quite sluggish in frigid weather. Bass, in particular, is in such a state of semi-hibernation that they are reluctant to seize the bait. Pike, on the other hand, manage to maintain a lively appetite.

In many regions, winter holds special charms that are unavailable at any other time. West Coast anglers await the biting cold driving rains that herald the arrival of steelhead. East fishermen get ready to try on tasty smelt. Where fish prevail, home smokers start smoking.

Winter is hardly a time to fish, claim the Mercury experts. In fact, there are a lot of fish throughout the land who only feel it's the time to

I need the Answers to some SERIOUS QUESTIONS

Why am I here? What shall I do with my life? Where am I going? This young man is at the threshold of his adult life and needs the answer to some serious questions. Perhaps you find yourself pausing to take stock of your life and groping for direction. The Church of the Living God tells the truth about man's life, death, and destiny. The truths learned there will set you free to live a more abundant, meaningful, and creative life. "And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." John 8:32.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Oldsters Get Bikes This Christmas, Too

Old Santa Claus will need to make some serious revisions in his delivery methods this year, as well as come up with a new design for his sleigh which will have to carry more bicycles — some 22,500 tons of them — than ever before. Grandma and grandpa are the biggest "soft touches" for bicycles for grandchildren. This year they'll be on the receiving side as thousands of adults and senior citizens follow Dr. Paul Dudley White's advice to get back on bikes for health and fitness.

Department store surveys reveal that bikes are the most asked for gift all across America by kids 6 to 60. A bicycle, of course, is a wonderful gift for a boy or girl and most of the million and a half two-wheelers placed beneath the trees this December will be for them. But collegians, young adults, parents and grandparents are accounting for more of Santa's deliveries, and they're all eager to ride hundreds of miles of new bike paths, trails and Bikeways that helped make cycling America's #1 Participation Sport this year.

KEY WATCHES OUR "BROAD STRIPES AND BRIGHT STARS" PROUDLY WAVING

There are two facts about "The Star Spangled Banner" most people don't know.

First, oddly enough, it did not become our national anthem until 1931! Congress didn't designate it as our official anthem till then.

And, secondly, Francis Scott Key did not write the music. The tune is from an old song "To Anacreon In Heaven".

But Key did write the words, and they are among the most stirring ever written by any man anywhere.

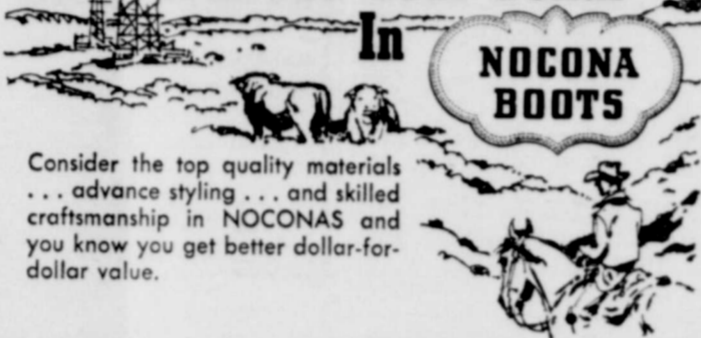

On the night of Sept. 13, 1814, Key, who was then a 35-year old lawyer, watched the British bombard Fort McHenry, Baltimore; at dawn on the 14th he saw our flag was still waving and wrote "The Star Spangled Banner" as a tribute to that flag, and to our country, our triumphs and our determination to keep succeeding as a great nation.

man, 69, retired oil field fore-from the Church of Christ with William Willhoit, assistant minister, officiating.

Burial will be in Burkburnett had lived in Burkburnett for 51 years and had worked for Magnolia Petroleum Co. for 40 years before retiring.

Survivors include his wife;
two sons, D. J. of Electra, and
D. G. of Big Piney, Wyo.; a

The family asked that memorial gifts may be made to the Burkburnett Library Fund.

UNIQUE FLOORS
The wood plank-and-beam system, creator of a streamlined roof system in many modern homes, is also making its debut as a combination floor structure and finished floor.
Widely spaced lumber beams are placed horizontally on edge over foundation walls or wood pilings. Wood decking is then laid flat over the beams. The deck provides a structural element and an attractive floor.
The system—an ideal medium for jointly utilizing the strength and beauty of pre-shrunk Southern Pine lumber—forms a highly resilient floor for walking comfort.
