Hardin HD Club Met May 8th With Julia Roderick

The Hardin Home Demonstration Club met May 8, in the home of Julia Roderick.

The meeting was called to order by Carol Roderick, the president.

Opening exercise by Julia Roderick, prayer was given by Mrs. M. R. Hewell. The club sang "Red River Valley". Julia Roderick read a poem "Summer Days are Here Again."

Roll call was answered by something I never seem to get done. The program was given by Miss Thelma Wirges, our Home Demonstration Agent, on "Clothes to Travel and Pack."

She said plan your trip. Think about time, know where you are going to stay ahead of time and make a list of what you will need. Travel with few clothes. Don't take too many. Take the ones that are comfortable and easy to clean or wash. You can make a lot of clothes out of a few. Take clothes that do coordinate such as suits and dresses that will go with other things. Always carry a light sweater and an all weather rain coat that will fold easily. Pack clothes in layers and put heavy things on the bottom.

Be sure to carry things for children. Also have different and surprising things for them to look at and play with. Be sure to eat light while traveling. The club had a ten minute recreation period, Fern Hatfield and Sally Hewell winning the prizes.

Members present—Fern Hatfield, Nellie Askins, Ie Howard, Lila Jacobs, Vada Bolin, Jewel Goins, Alice Enreri, Sally Hewell, Ora Johnson, Nora Williams, Carol Roderick, Johnnie Hagerman, Mildred Mahaffey, our agent, Miss Thelma Wirges and one visitor, Mrs. Carroll and the hostess Julia Roderick.

Success is what you get after you have forgotten what you were striving for.

Help!! Help!!

Some little girl going to school in Burkburnett wrote her Daddy in Tennessee that school would be out here May 22.

1968 Multiple Sclerosis Hope Chest Campaign Begins In Burk

Today marks the beginning of the 1967 MS Hope Chest campaign of the Wichita Falls Area Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. More than 100 volunteers in Burkburnett will seek financial support for the Society's fight to conquer multiple sclerosis, a disease of the central nervous system.

The tragedy of multiple sclerosis is that it usually strikes young adults in the prime of life between the ages of 20 and 40. And all too often, they are young parents. Give generously when the MS marcher rings your doorbell. Contributions mean continuation, and hopefully, expansion, of the chapter's services to the MS patients in our community. Each contribution also helps the Society's research program to find the cause, prevention and cure of this disease.

Multiple Sclerosis is a disabling disease of the brain and spinal cord. An estimated 500,000-900,000 Americans have been stricken with MS and related disease. Cause, prevention and cure remain unknown.

For information concerning patient service and aids please contact the Wichita Falls Chapter, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Mrs. Doyce Walker, Executive Director, 4014 Gossett, Wichita Falls, Texas or call 352-0121.

Social Security Benefits Paid To 1000 In Burk

More than 1,000 residents of Burkburnett are now receiving a monthly social security benefit according to figures furnished by Francis J. Stevens, Field Representative for the Wichita Falls Social Security office.

As of the end of 1967, the number of beneficiaries listed totaled 1001. This is an increase of about 103 over the number at the beginning of the year. The dollar benefit amounts total more than $849,684.00 yearly.

Retired workers and their dependents and those who receive survivor benefits are the largest group of beneficiaries. There are 896 in this group who receive a total monthly benefit of $63,143.00. Disabled workers and their dependents number 105 and receive $7,664.00 monthly.

In releasing these figures Stevens pointed out that social security benefits are of great importance to the community as well as to the people who receive them. "It is an established fact," he said, "that this money stimulates local business within Burkburnett most of it is spent for food, clothing, and shelter. There is no doubt that the Social Security benefits are helping to stabilize the income and spending power of many residents in the city."

As of the beginning of 1968 about 12.8% of the population of the United States were receiving social security benefits. As of that same time, January, 1968, 11% of Texas residents and 10.2% of Wichita county residents received benefits.

Please ask them if they saw me, and possibly they will tell you what you want to know.

THE HIGH ROAD, PLEASE!

THE ROAD AHEAD

Steel labor negotiations this summer will have an important effect on the national economy, and could very well determine to what extent Uncle Sam will become the ultimate arbiter at the negotiation table.

As E. Conrad Cooper, Executive Vice President-Personnel Services United States Steel Corporation, said in a recent address: "Let us start with my often-expressed belief that we have concentrations of collective bargaining power in this country which are unwieldy, unfair, unmanageable, economically unhealthy, and strategically not in the public interest."

"We see too little evidence of good-faith collective bargaining in practice today. Instead we see a succession of massive power plays, tactics which I believe are heading us in a direction that endangers both collective bargaining and the competitive free enterprise system of the country."

"We of steel management constantly strive to encourage traveling the road of more constructive use of collective bargaining power. We see little evidence of congressional will to legislate the second road — namely, to establish a proper balance of collective bargaining strength as between management and labor."

Any shutdown in this key industry would materially affect our balance-of-payments problem, through the increase of imported steel. In any settlement where wage increases exceed productivity, an inflationary spiral of the entire domestic economy is the end result.

Let's hope this is given serious thought and consideration by both parties.

The ethics bills for the House and the Senate are a step in the right direction, but they leave much to be desired if the confidence of the American public in the integrity of the Congress is to be restored, remarked Congressman Wendell Wyatt of Oregon.

TIME TO CRUSH ANARCHISM

The virtual collapse of Columbia University in New York during late April as a result of terrorism by members of the leftwing Students For A Democratic Society is an ominous sign of impending anarchy in the United States.

At Columbia, a small segment of radicals — aided by the so-called Mau Mau Chief Charles Kenyatta of Harlem and professional agitators Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown — destroyed the good order and normal work of a university with more than 27,000 students. The office of the president of Columbia, one of the great universities in America, was captured by the destructive minority who demanded virtual authority over the university in future.

Hopefully, the American people will derive a shock of recognition from the shameful scene on the Columbia campus. The situation on the campus of Morningside Heights is a taste of what could happen at every campus in the land if there is not a firm application of law and order and if tolerance of anarchists and campus anarchists is not ended forthwith.

Around the world, communists and anarchists are sparking similar college and university take-overs in Italy, for example. 23 of the nation's 27 universities have suffered campus rebellions and seizures of university property. It is shocking and almost incredible that responsible people in any civilized land would let the seats of learning be turned into political circuses and places of riotous taking.

West Americans are seeking today are the ugly fruits of the permissive philosophy — the philosophy that says tolerance is the highest virtue and must be carried to any length. The disorders have been in the making for a number of years. People in high places have encouraged civil disorders. They have insisted that protesters have more rights than law-abiding people.

In the United States continues to go the way it is going, granting unlimited tolerance to leftwing agitators, the Republic will collapse into anarchy. The notion of anarchy is spreading because little or nothing is done to stop it.

Certainly, the officials of Columbia University are at fault for failing to crackdown hard when the disorders started. Rebellious and destructive students should have been expelled from the university and charges filed against them if they did not leave the campus. The police should have been called onto the campus when the rebels began to barricade themselves into university buildings.

Had stern action been taken at the beginning, the disorders would have been crushed in the bud. That's the only way to handle any type of mass disorders or insurrection against constituted authority. Maximum lawful force should be used against those engaged in unlawful activity.

The authorities at Columbia are not the only educators to blame. Authorities at Duke University made the same mistake recently when they failed to crack down hard on students attempting to dictate university wage policies. Students that failed to attend classes or that caused a commotion on campus should have been promptly expelled. Faculty members who aided the student protesters should have been fired.

Unfortunately, the notion is widespread that anything goes in the name of "academic freedom." This apparently includes camping in academic halls or the residence of a college president or denying teachers access to their classroom.

What has happened at Columbia University cannot be endured in a country that believes in responsible freedom. Order is too valuable to be sacrificed to the whim of anarchists, professional wreckers of our society.

Unquestionably, the broad mass of the American people are moving towards a massive reaction. They will insist on a resolution of order and decency by any means. No one wants authoritarian rule in the United States. No one wants to go overboard. But unless there is swift and immediate official reaction against law-breakers and campus anarchists, the country is likely to swing far in the opposite direction.

Pulitzer Prize winning columnist Edgar A. Mowrer has summed up the situation, saying: "One thing I am sure of: violence condoned or tolerated could spell the end of democracy. For in the long run, people will accept an autocratic regime that guarantees order to a democracy that cannot or will not."

Thus even the "liberals" should understand that anarchism in America must be suppressed and suppressed now.

Get ready, gals. Here come the Thirties—thirty years later—in everything from berets to bathing suits to baby-blunt-toe shoes. Happily, the revival is broad enough so we can pick and choose only what's becoming to us and still look in style. The Thirties trend to side-buttoning that Breton Mrs. has adapted in this suit charmer is one way of looking "a la mode" without converting to a full-fledged Bonnie Parker or Marlene Dietrich! Tailored in a COIN bonded pastel plaid, it captures the long, lean line of the Thirties without its characteristic slouch. Proof positive that fashion does serve to improve on itself! Know what else has shown improvement? Fabric techniques. One reason that gal of the Thirties looked so altogether shapeless was the absence of today's bonding methods. Bonding is joining two fabrics together as one for dimensional stability, fine fit and lasting shape. Coin International, the leader in the field, maintains strict quality control standards to insure that the bonded fabric never puckers or pulls apart. The COIN hang-tag guarantees that the fabrics will stay together. Your dry cleaner will too. He'll tell you a COIN bonded fabric is the "no problem" fabric—the perfect way to get the Thirties into shape for '68!

HOW TO PLEASE YOUR MAN
 By Katy Cannon

Thoughtfulness Counts

"Can you remember the last time you kissed your husband hello—before you started complaining about your day?"

When a doctor who specializes in hypertension asked me that question, last week, my first instinct was to answer, "Of course."

But I'm ashamed to admit that I had to have second thoughts. Like most wives, I'm so filled up with my own tensions at the end of an at-home day, that I can't wait to unburden myself on a homecoming husband. After all, isn't that what those broad shoulders are there for?

I'm afraid that the answer to that question is a loud and clear "no." And grandma knew it, even if you and I have forgotten it. Not that husbands would be happier back in the "good old days" of subservient wives and everything their own way. But my doctor friend may have something when he says that husbands will live longer if they relax—and relax a lot better if they're free from tension at home.

The secret? It's made up of simple things: that smile, a half hour for a good cigar and quiet snooze before sitting down to dinner, mealtimes where arguments are barred, a menu that's varied to tempt the palate and please the eye, all the little courtesies that add up to domestic harmony.

And while you're reforming, don't forget that his ego needs the privilege of enjoying a few purely masculine pleasures. Those cigars fit the bill—I don't know of anything that makes a man seem more masculine, or feel more like his own man—along with an occasional night out with the boys, no questions asked, and the privilege of managing the family checkbook without competition from you.

They're easy gifts, to make every day Father's Day. And when it comes to the father in my household... well, I know he's going to enjoy them more than another new necktie!

From The Office Of SENATOR JOHN G. TOWER

An Illness Of Lawlessness

I have difficulty describing the feeling. It was a sort of dismay I've never felt before, and it came from seeing armed paratroopers at every door of the Senate Office Building, a machine gun on the Capitol steps, police reduced to directing traffic for looters, and arsonists burning at will within blocks of the White House. I suspect you felt pretty much the same way as you watched it on television.

It happened here in the days after Dr. King's death, but militants and lawless elements rapidly made a mockery of that death and the nonviolent philosophy Dr. King preached. (Senseless rioting is the same sort of lawlessness as senseless assassination.) Rioters and hoodlums roamed wild agitated by such as Stokely Carmichael—lately returned from Havana and Hanoi.

It all had little to do with "civil rights." Those involved were vandals, criminals and revolutionaries. They outraged civilized society, bred chaos, and directly assaulted American concepts of law and order. Unfortunately, for too long such criminals have been coddled with the restraint we traditionally apply to peaceful demonstrators. And we see what has happened. Such criminal disruptions must stop in America. And the best medicine to cure the illness of lawlessness is a good, stiff dose of law and order.

It's time government remembered the law-abiding citizens—Latin, Negro and white—and protected them against terrorism and plunder. It's time the Attorney General stood up for the law instead of apologizing for it. It's time those people who want to do the right thing got some support from their leadership. The Senate has passed both a Civil Rights Bill and a Law Enforcement Bill this spring. Neither was perfect, but in conjunction they reveal, I believe, the determination of citizens of good will that our nation shall have both social progress and certain order. That's what I seek as your United States senator.

SEN. RALPH YARBOROUGH'S NEWSLETTER

We of Texas have always been fortunate in having a unique land blessed by nature; an attractive and varied land. But the time has come to look ahead to preserve our heritage and unique countryside for the day when our children will inherit the land and environment we are creating now.

So far, Texas has been successful in her overall conservation efforts. My Padre Island Bill created an unparalleled National Seashore preserving the Texas coastline; my Guadalupe National Park Bill was passed by Congress and that mountainous region of West Texas will remain unspoiled; Big Bend National Park set up over 20 years ago insures that the Rio Grande River will be enjoyed by generations to come; but the lore and wildlife of the Big Thicket area of East Texas will be lost forever if action is not taken now to conserve this Texas jungle land.

In the Big Thicket in Southeast Texas near Beaumont, man is a stranger in nature's setting, a setting dominated by wild birds and animals becoming increasingly rare in this country. This is the only place in the United States where the Ivory Billed Woodpecker is claimed to be found. But the time is near when the woodpeckers, the wildcats, and the red wolves will fall victim to the encroachment of a modern civilization that destroys the natural habitat of these species, making them strangers in man's world.

After touring the area in Liberty, Hardin, Tyler and Polk Counties in 1966, I introduced a bill into the Senate to create a Big Thicket National Park of at least 75,000 acres. I reintroduced the bill in January of last year. Since that time I have been trying to force a report out of the Interior Department favoring the establishment of this park.

Many of the nation's conservation societies have endorsed the Big Thicket National Park—but the force of popular opinion may come to lie to save the tall trees from lumber saws, and the beautiful trees from destructive axes.

Too many times this nation has looked back and seen the mistakes made by man—irreparable mistakes. I think it is time to look forward—to see what we can do to avoid the perils of overdevelopment of some of our most unique lands. Nature does not allow even one mistake in destroying her habitats. If mankind drives even one animal or bird or species of plant life into extinction, no act of Congress and no amount of money can recreate it.

As your United States Senator, I will continue my fight to preserve the Big Thicket—complete with its rare species of singing and climbing birds, water fowl, alligators, cypress trees, wild peach, bay trees and magnolias. We cannot afford the luxury of the destruction of the wonderful trees and shrubs and vines in Texas or in the nation. The Big Thicket needs all the help we can give it and I invite you to join in the fight to preserve Texas' last true wilderness.

SIGHTLINES

Whether you "burn the midnight oil" for schoolwork, business reports, or darned socks, make sure to have the proper illumination, advises the Better Vision Institute. Never work in "fringe" light; avoid glare by having the light hit squarely on your materials, and always sit with your back to the lamp, never facing it.

CANADIAN MOMENTO

SHEPPARD AIR FORCE BASE, TEXAS — Major General John M. McNabb, commander, Sheppard Technical Training Center, admires a framed replica and lapel pin bearing the insignia of the Canadian Land Forces Command and Staff College which was presented him by Brigadier General W.

A. Milroy, college commandant, May 6th. The memento was given the Sheppard commander just prior to the departure of General Milroy and eighty-five of his student officers following a three-day tour of Sheppard and Fort Sill, Oklahoma. (Official U. S. Air Force Photo) row band with a pressure-type. It's getting time to think lawn again! A good, well balanced fertilizer should be on the lawn now. Do not apply fertilizer, particularly an inorganic fertilizer, when the grass leaves are wet. Water the lawn immediately after applying fertilizer to prevent burning of the grass plants.

Mrs. Arnold Story, Mrs. Floyd Rodgers, Mrs. Edna Ewing, Mrs. Tommy Reese and Mrs. Claude Draper are among those serving as yard improvement demonstrators this year.

Planning the landscape development of a new home is as important as planning the interior arrangement of the house, emphasizes Thelma Wagon, County Home Demonstration Agent. The color plan should include grading, drives, walks, patios, retaining walls, screen fences, plantings, and professional services. She suggests allowing from 10 to 20 percent of the combined cost of the house and lot as an adequate amount of developing the landscape plan. The exact amount will depend upon topograph of the site but does not include cost of a swimming pool.

IT'S UP TO YOU

By Howard E. Kershner, L.H.D.

Gold Reserve Solution

WE have sold about half of our enormous quantity of gold at $35 an ounce. This is probably somewhere between one-third to one-half of its real value. Since $20 gold pieces are advertised for $60, apparently gold is worth about three times the set price of $35 per ounce. No one knows exactly what it would sell for in a free market. But such evidence as is available would seem to indicate that it would bring somewhere between $70 and $105 an ounce. To continue selling gold at $35 per ounce is to deprive the American people of one-half to two-thirds of the value of their precious gold reserves.

To put an end to this practice we must reduce our spending both at home and abroad, sell as much as we buy from foreign countries, balance our budget and stop inflation. Alternatively, we could devalue the dollar, that is, raise the price of gold, or refuse to pay out gold when foreign dollar-claims are presented. Either of the latter alternatives would be disastrous. The intelligent way out of our dilemma is to cut foreign spending until the balance of payments runs once more in our direction. When we do this the dollar and our gold reserves will be safe. There is no other honorable and satisfactory solution to our problem.

One thing that aggravates our balance-of-payment problem is the practice of sending Social Security benefits to nearly 200,000 persons living abroad. Some of these people are behind the Iron Curtain. Others are in Hong Kong, Africa, most European countries, Canada, the Philippine Islands, Mexico and, until recently at least, Cuba. Something like $165 million per year is sent to Social Security beneficiaries residing abroad. About $36 million, for instance, goes to Italy each year to more than 36,000 beneficiaries. Many of these people have worked from a few years to a normal working span in our country and then have returned to their country of origin to live in luxury the rest of their days. Would it be unreasonable to suggest that these people should live in the country that accords them this generous treatment and that they should spend their money here?

IDEAL COMBINATION

Combinations of natural materials—such as native stone and rough sawn lumber siding on exterior walls—make a home seem born of the trees, the hills or the rocks around it.

Such materials offer low maintenance as well as Nature's charm. Exterior stain finishes—combining pigment, water repellents and preservatives—have proven extremely durable on rough sawn Southern Pine siding.

More school children will die of cancer than from any other disease, says the American Cancer Society.

Let's Go Fishin'

BY BOB BREWSTER
Outdoor Editor,
Mercury Outboards

ROUGH... BUT TASTY
The rough fish problem is a lot like the weather—everyone talks about it, but no action.

Unlike the weather, though, this is one problem that can be solved by eating it up if enough fishermen would let out their belts and overcome their repugnance towards the rough species.

The table qualities of many rough fish surprise even the most finicky eater, observe the experts at Mercury outboards. When properly prepared they become a gourmet's delight, as is the case with most anything that swims, flies or runs.

The list of common "trash" fish is long. It includes such species as suckers, carp, drum, chubs, mooneyes, redbone and buffalo.

Many of these are caught commercially, but find their way into the fish markets under assumed (and more palatable) names.

The "white perch" you buy may be drum; "boneless cat" is often the odd-looking paddlefish or spoonbill. Non-sport fish in saltwater receive an even more impressive array of monikers.

To popularize and make use of the tremendous number of rough fish that abound in our waters is a massive undertaking, acknowledge the Mercury lads. First, we must overcome our reluctance to actually bring a mess of "yaller" suckers or "thunderpumpers" home. Then we must know how to turn them into dishes that delight the whole family.

The latter task must be approached with all the dash and daring of a continental chef, for the old "roll 'em in crumbs and fry" methods usually won't do. Contact the state wildlife commission or university extension division for special recipes for marinating, for broiling, for a hundred different approaches.

If every fisherman could be so persuaded, millions of tons of rough fish could be removed from waters where they compete with sport species. Fishing would improve, and the eatin'... well, find out for yourself.

From mini widths to new bold strokes of color, clinging-vine powdery pales to crisp menswear pin stripes; stark symmetricals to racing random stripes, this spring you can dress up, down, all around or on the diagonal in fine style. One way to look as fresh as the season itself is in the pastel stripes Lassie Jr. has chosen for this delicately dramatic ensemble. # CUB PACK 155 NEWS...

The Cub Scouts of Pack 155, sponsored by the Lions Club of Burkburnett have been very busy boys lately during the recent Clean-Up Campaign. Not only have they been working hard to sell stationary for their Pack but they have been doing all sorts of good deeds.

To aid their sponsor, during the Lions Club Broom Sale, they supplied some extra "man-power". Some 20 Cubs volunteered approximately 4 hours of their time in helping the Lions sell brooms. They worked directly with the men, both on trucks canvassing the city and in booths set up on Main Street. Lions and Cubs together earned over $100. One man estimated that 4 of the sales was directly attributed to the efforts of the boys themselves. Another man said "he never realized boys of 8, 9, and 10 could be so helpful and work so hard". For their "Good Deed" the Lions say "Thank you to the following boys: Tony DiMarzio, Donnie Towers, Ronald Lindsey, David Fellows, James West, Lance Willard, James Lemley, Randy Goettman, Mike Andarakes, Gary Wood, Larry Roderick, and Webelos Chariton Hutchinson, Wade Harris, Mike McKinley, Tim Kormas, Allen Mahaffey, Dennis Rivard, and Mark Clendenon.

Later, on May 2, 3 of the 5 Dens in Pack 155 donated their 1 hour Den meetings to the Cleaning of "Oil Patch Park". Den 1—Mrs. Hamilton, Den 3—Mrs. Willard and Den 4—Mrs. Chipman took their boys to the Park area where they separated lumber from sheets of tin and old boards from new and stacked them in separate piles. They also pulled nails from boards to be used later and generally policed the area, for mowing later. After working in 90 degree weather the boys enjoyed refreshments of Kool-Ade and cookies. I heard you did a fine job, boys! Thank you.

Mrs. West's Den 2 has been working hard also policing the area around the youth center. This was their project during the clean-up campaign. After each Den meeting ended inside the center the boys spent extra time cleaning up the grounds. Nice job!

While doing good deeds for others the boys are still selling their America, the Beautiful, note stationary at $1.00 a box to earn money for a trip to the Ft. Worth zoo in June. The boys will be passing out, door to door, a small free brochure telling of everyone's responsibility to keep our America Beautiful and at the same time make people aware of the existing beauty of our land each time they use one of the little notes to write to their friends. Look for the displays around town or call one of our Den Mothers: Mrs. Barbara Hamilton, Den 1, 569-1887; Mrs. Orma West, Den 2, 569-3616; Mrs. Bonnie Willard, Den 3, 569-2419; Mrs. Wanzell Shipman, Den 4, 569-3963 or Webelos leader, Mr. Roy Mahaffey, 569-2862.

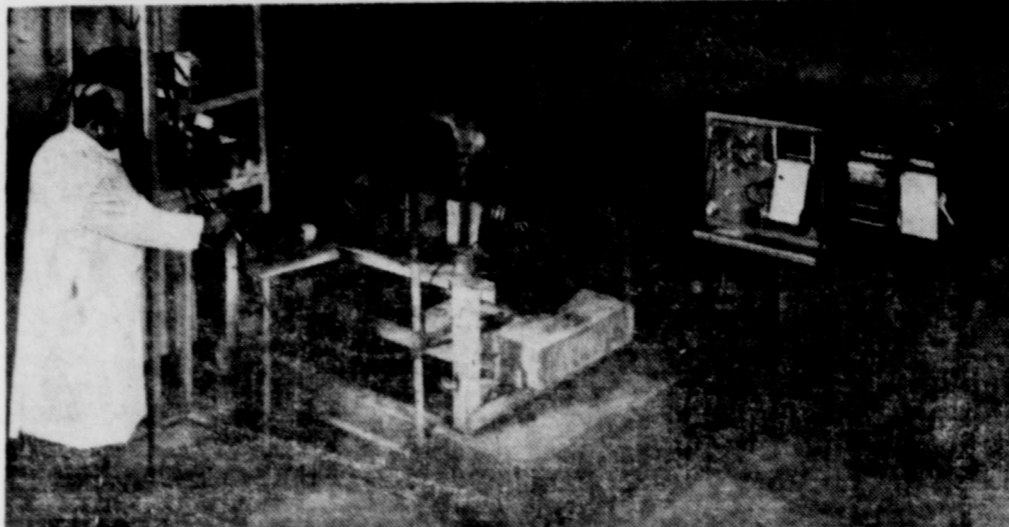

Not always do the boys work so hard. Sometimes they do fun things, such as attending the movie of "Six Flags Over Texas" held by the Burkburnett Library during Library Week. The boys from Den 1 and the Webelos Den enjoyed this very much and are looking forward to next year when Library Week comes again. Following the movie Den 1 was treated to Cokes at the Texan Dr-In by the Den mothers, Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Roberts. The Webelos Den returned to the home of their leader, Mr. Roy Mahaffey to make plans for a cook-out, which I've heard was a great success.

Pack 155 would like to congratulate Joe Wayne Scruggs, former Cub Scout of our Pack and now a member of Boy Scout Troop 155, for the great job he did selling Scout-O-Rama tickets. Joe is the champion salesman of the Northwest Texas Council, which is made up of 13 counties. Joe won first place by selling 185 tickets. Our congratulations, also, to Troop 155, who won the first place ribbon for their booth in Scout-O-Rama.

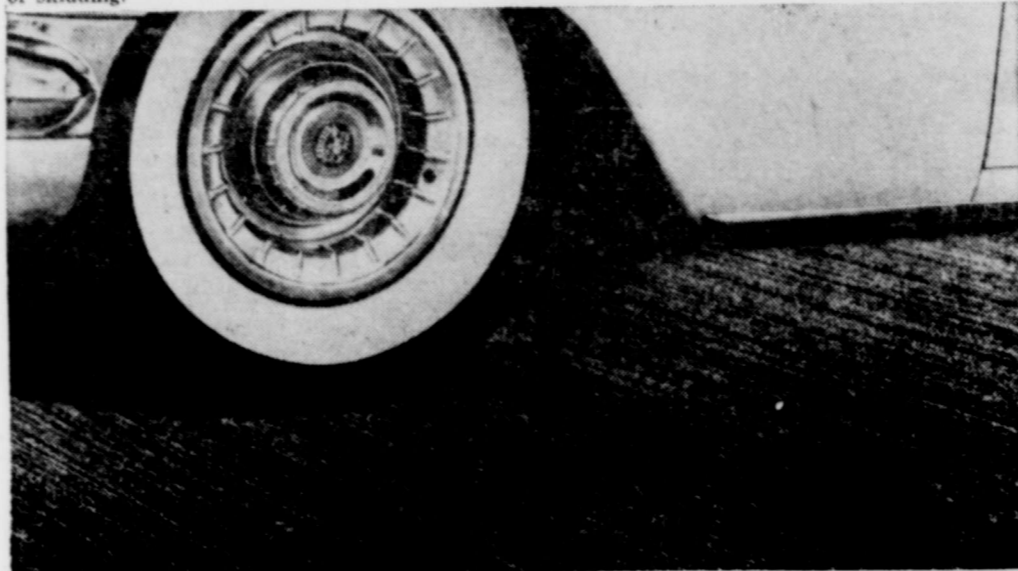

The U. S. A. has what it takes I've heard it said, but, gee, I only wish that it would take a great deal less from me!

'Skid-Safe' Roads Are Engineers' Goal

(Above) — Skid machine tests concrete's resistance to skid and wear. Concrete samples are installed in cradle, flooded with water, and pressed against rotating auto tire. (Below) — Close-up of a "broomed" concrete pavement. The textured surface improves traction and reduces danger of skidding.

A screeching, uncontrolled skid of your automobile on a busy highway — that can teach you the real meaning of fear. You also probably learn to drive slower on wet or icy pavements.

Although we don't know as much as we should about skidding accidents, safety engineers know that skidding is a serious problem. Studies in one state showed that skidding contributed to 40 percent of all rural accidents.

Pavement condition is an important factor in skidding. Concrete pavement surfaces are purposely textured during construction. The coarse, skid-resistant surface provides the best possible traction.

A rutted, uneven pavement surface can cause skids, too. Depressions allow water to collect and cause "hydroplaning" — a dangerous loss of traction as your car's wheels skim over a film of water. The problem of standing water — the main cause of hydroplaning — is sharply reduced with concrete pavements, which are built with a slight crown to permit rapid water runoff.

How can the safe driver avoid dangerous skids?

— Slow down on wet, icy, or oily pavements.

— Use tires with good tread. Bald tires cut traction dangerously.

— Check your brakes. Spot checks show that at least 15 percent of all cars' brakes are in an unsafe condition.

Cub Pack 155 Gives New Tricycle To Day Care Center

In honor of the anniversary of the Community Center and as a Good Will Project to the Community of Burkburnett, Pack 155 presented the Day Care Center with a brand new, green, 12" Western Flyer Tricycle.

Webelos Mike McKinley and Chariton Hutchinson made the presentation to the Center. Cub, Den Mothers and Volunteers looked on as Mrs. Betty Futch accepted the Trike on behalf of all the children of the Day Care Center.

The Cubs and Den Mothers were invited to have Cake, Kool-Ade and Coffee in the Community Center and enjoyed their visit very much. The refreshments were delicious and the boys were really surprised.

This is just the beginning of another one of Pack 155's service projects to Burkburnett. The Pack is conducting a "Tricycle Drive" for the Day Care Children. The boys will be canvassing the area soon. They will repair and paint any unwanted toys to be later donated to the center.

If you should not be contacted during the canvass and have an old Trike, Wagon, or Peddle-Car that you would like to donate to the Drive please call the following: Den 1, Mrs.

Barbara Hamilton, 569-1887; Den 2, Mrs. Orma West, 569-3616; Den 3, Mrs. Bonnie Willard, 569-2419; Den 4, Mrs. Wanzell Shipman, 569-3963 or Mrs. Mary O'Neal, 569-1729 or Webelos Leader, Mrs. Roy Mahaffey, 569-2862.

The Center also needs blocks, dolls and doll clothes and small toys. Anything you can give will be greatly appreciated by the children.

Excellent Value for Spring Menus...Lamb

Ask the butcher for a full leg of lamb averaging 8 pounds. Have him cut three or four sirloin chops from it for broiling. Then ask him to remove the shank high enough up on the leg to allow meat enough for the desired size stew. The result is three meals in one...chops to broil, a center roast, and shank meat for stew.

If you plan to use the roast first, then try this recipe with plum jam. It makes an excellent sauce and glaze. And if your family is small you may have some lamb left for sandwiches...either hot or cold...or to toss in a mixed green salad.

PLUM GLAZED LAMB

(Makes 6 servings)

- 1 leg of lamb (3 sirloin chops and shank removed)
- 1/2 cup plum jam
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
- 1 teaspoon soy sauce
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire
- 1 1/2 cups chicken broth

Rub lamb with salt and pepper. Place on rack in shallow roasting pan. Roast in 325° (slow) oven 30 minutes per pound or until meat thermometer registers 175° for medium doneness. One hour before cooking is completed, remove from oven, skim excess fat from pan drippings and add chicken broth. Return to oven for thirty minutes. Combine jam, mustard and ginger; brush over roast. Continue roasting, basting occasionally with pan drippings. Remove roast to serving platter. Strain pan drippings into small saucepan, add soy sauce and Worcestershire; heat to serving temperature. Serve with lamb.

Burk Mechanic's, 52, Rites Are Set Friday

Funeral for Archie G. Wheeler, 52, an aircraft mechanic at Sheppard AFB, will be at 2:30 p.m. Friday from Central Baptist Church with Rev. Max Dowling, pastor, officiating.

Funeral will be in Burkburnett Cemetery under directions of Owens & Brumley Funeral Home.

Wheeler died Tuesday in a Wichita Falls hospital, apparently of a heart attack.

The former Army aviator had lived in Burkburnett three years. A veteran of World War II, he was born June 23, 1915, in Brown County, Tex.

He married Lu O'Neil Lawrence June 12, 1943, in Robert Lee, Tex.

While living in Amarillo, Wheeler was employed at Amarillo AFB as an aircraft mechanic.

IS IT REALLY POSSIBLE . . . 1st Century Christianity In The 20th Century?

Everywhere one hears that we are living in a changing world. Thus many assume that "you cannot clothe the twentieth century church in first century clothing." Transportation, farming, medicine, communications and practically every phase of business are undergoing constant change. Christianity, according to this thesis, must change to keep up with the times and the changing needs of men.

But is this really true? Have man's needs really changed? While all would concede the great advances brought about by material progress, some things fundamental to man's salvation have not changed — nor ever will.

MAN IS THE SAME — From the time of creation the nature of man has not changed. He has the same greed as did Lot when he chose the fertile valley in preference of the barren hills (Genesis 13). He has the same love for power and preeminence as did Diotrepes, a first century disciple who threatened the unity of a particular congregation (3 John 9). Man has the same lusts that have characterized men of every age — "the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life" (1 John 2:16).

Man has, therefore, the same need for divine guidance, encouragement, sympathy, forgiveness, hope and salvation that he has always had.

SIN IS THE SAME — In the Garden of Eden sin brought destruction to the peace and contentment of Adam and Eve and destroyed their blessedness of being with God. It resulted in their death and expulsion. In Noah's age sin was rampant throughout the land, and every imagination of man's heart was "only evil continually" (Genesis 6:5). This brought destruction to the world. When the children of Israel, a people in covenant relationship with God, were delivered from Egyptian slavery they sinned before God in the wilderness and brought upon themselves the condemnation of dying in the wilderness.

In Paul's day the warnings were no less urgent. Referring to the terrible spiritual consequences of sin, the apostle wrote: "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Romans 6:23).

CHRIST IS THE SAME — He is the divine Son of God from everlasting to everlasting: "I am the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty" (Revelation 1:8).

The Lord is never changing and is acclaimed to be Jesus, the Christ, "the same yesterday, and today, and forever" (Hebrews 13:8).

We can see, then, that man is the same. Sin is the same. Christ is the same. The gospel of Christ is the same, saving men through God's power the same today as it did in the first century (Romans 1:16).

Therefore, since obedience to the same gospel will make children of God of us today as it did in the first century, it is clear that first century Christianity is not only possible, but actually exists today when people are exactly dedicated to the New Testament and its precepts.

Churches of Christ today plead for a complete return to the New Testament as the sole rule of faith and practice in religion. We strive for religious unity on the basis of the pure Word of God. We urge purity of life and stress the one plan of salvation originally delivered by the apostles of Christ. We pray for everyone's acceptance of the "one Lord, one faith, one baptism" of the first century Christianity.

Yes, first century Christianity is not only possible but desirable! Jesus prayed for the unity of His followers (John 17:20-23). What will you do to help restore undenominational Christianity as it existed in the first century?

Sesame Swiss Cheese Loaf

Sesame Seed And Swiss Cheese Combine In This Quick-To-Prepare Bread For Memorable Good Eating.

Quick loaf breads belong on your table anytime of day — breakfast, lunch, dinner or snack-time. Fragrant Sesame Swiss Cheese Loaf adds a new dimension in taste no matter what the occasion. Wonderful with salads, the nut-like flavor, typical of both the cheese and sesame seed, reaches even greater heights when served toasted for brunch or lunch.

Today's homemaker will find the quick method of mixing suited to her busy schedule. All liquid ingredients are added to dry ingredients, mixed together and poured into a baking pan. What could be easier? Make this loaf often, store it in the refrigerator or freezer and serve to drop-in guests.

Since bread products like Sesame Swiss Cheese Loaf are part of the basic four food groups, you'll want to include several servings every day to maintain and promote good health and to provide the nutritional bonus of enriched flour. Enrichment means you can count on three B-vitamins — thiamine, niacin and riboflavin, and the mineral, iron — all without extra cost or calories. The enrichment process is credited with virtual elimination of many once-common vitamin deficiency diseases.

|-------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 2 cups sifted enriched flour* | 1/2 cup toasted sesame seed |
| 3 tablespoons sugar           | 2 eggs, beaten              |
| 4 teaspoons baking powder     | 1/4 cups milk               |
| 1/2 teaspoons salt            | 1/4 cup oil                 |
| 1 cup shredded Swiss cheese   |                             |

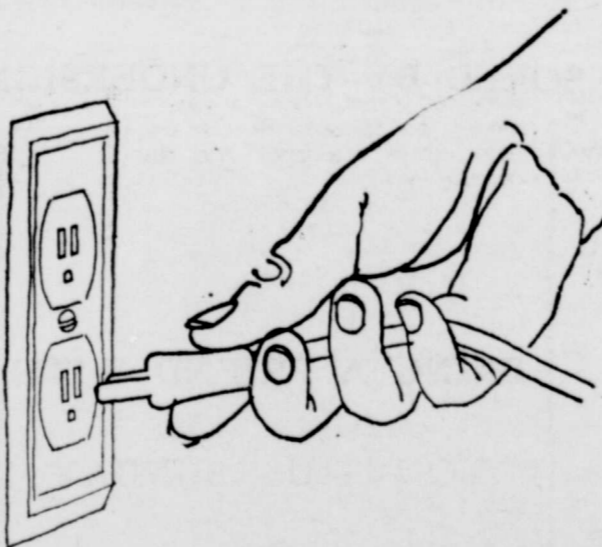

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Stir in cheese and sesame seed. Blend eggs, milk and oil. Add liquid all at once to flour mixture, stirring only until flour is moistened. Pour into greased 4 1/2 x 8 1/2-inch loaf pan. Bake in preheated 375° oven 65 to 70 minutes, or until done. Cool 15 minutes before removing from pan.

*If you don't sift and in the absence of other directions, spoon flour directly from container into a one-cup dry measure, level off, then remove two level tablespoons per cup, according to USDA recommendations.

NOTE: If self-rising flour is used, omit baking powder and salt.

Q. How often do you get a bargain these days?

A. Every time you use electricity.

True, your electric bill probably is higher than it was a few years ago. That's because you use more electricity to enjoy added comforts and conveniences.

During the past 10 years, the average price per kilowatt-hour to residential customers of Texas Electric Service has come down 27%. At the same time, the average annual use of electric energy by our residential customers has more than doubled.

Electric service is a big exception to rising living costs. It's one of the few things that costs less than 10 years ago.

Electricity, the clean modern energy that does so many nice things for you, is the biggest bargain in your household budget.

PLACIDITY

"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee. Because he trusteth in thee." Isaiah 26:3

"The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." Phillipians 4:7

God has never promised life without trouble nor progress without striving. He has, however, promised that amid the tumult and strife He would give us an inner peace if we let Him live in our hearts.

Learn about this unusual peace offered to all freely.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
 THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

2. Speaking of moving, we hope you realize that wherever you move in the Bell System, there is no color charge for the phones at your new address if you had color phones at your old address.
3. Ever wonder what to do when you get a wrong number on a Long Distance call? Just hang up, dial "0" for "Operator," and tell her what happened. She'll see that you're not charged for the call.
4. And if you ever lose your dime in an out-of-order pay telephone, just go to a working phone and report it to the Operator. She'll arrange to have your dime mailed to you. Also, if you give her the number of the out-of-order phone, we'll get it fixed right away.
5. Long Distance interstate rates are lower all day Saturday and Sunday, and after 7 p.m. each weekday. You can also save money if you call by number. A station-to-station Long Distance call costs about one-third less than a person-to-person call.
