NUMBER 21

Those little classified ads can do almost anything. Even help put a man in the White House.

The story of Richard Nixon got its start with a tiny classified ad in a California newspaper, and ended with Mr. Nixon occupying the highest office in the land.

It was way back there, right after World War II, when a group of California men, seeking to unseat the incumbent Congressman, inserted a classified ad, seeking a responsible person to become a candidate.

Nixon answered that ad. He met the approval of the men concerned, and agreed to become a candidate for Congress.

And he was elected. Then he was elected vice-president.

He was defeated for the presidency and the governorship of California, and by now you know he has been elected and inaugurated as President of these United States.

So don't underestimate the power of a classified ad.

We can't guarantee, or even hint, that a classified ad in the Burk Star and News will lead to the White House.

But if you have a used car, a house or apartment to rent, a lawnmower to sell, need a mechanic, a house to sell, want to buy or rent a home, sell a pig, chickens or a bull, need a babysitter, need television repair, need a hand on the farm or in the store, want to buy or sell an air conditioner, your best bet is to try an economical Burk Star classified ad.

We didn't intend to be carried away by the foregoing, and to make a commercial of it, but once wound up, we couldn't stop.

The Burkburnett Bulldogs will play their last home basketball game of the season Friday night.

Game time for the B game is six p.m., with the varsity teams playing as soon as possible after the B game.

Opposition will be furnished by Booker T. Washington's Leopards, who are leading the north zone of the district.

A fine game is expected, so be sure to turn out.

Letters to the editor of the Burk Star have increased in tempo recently. However, many cannot be used because they are unsigned.

Now, we welcome you to air your compliments and complaints in these columns. But we do insist that you sign your letter. However, your name will be withheld if you desire.

Main topic these days is the new city ordinance calling for repair or removal of unsightly and unsafe buildings. One reader had plenty to say about the dog situation, but failed to sign his or her name.

So, into the wastebasket it went.

As we said, we welcome your letters, but please sign them, and keep them under 200 words.

It seems that letting an error slip into the paper is still one of the best ways to prove readership.

Tuesday, we told about Burk Bargain Bonanza, and intended to say that merchandise of various types will be offered for sale.

As luck would have it, the word came out as 'merchants'.

Sure enough, one sweet-voiced feminine reader called us and placed an order to buy her favorite merchant.

RURAL RECREATION MEET SET FOR WICHITA FALLS

A Rural Recreation Seminar, sponsored by the Rural Recreation Subcommittee of the Agricultural Development Action Group of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce, will be held March 4, 1969, at 7:00 p.m. in the Texas Electric Service Co. Auditorium, 904 Scott, Wichita Falls.

VACCINATION DAY IS SET

Long, hot summer days are coming, and the time for vaccination of pets and animals is at hand.

That warning came from the agricultural committee of the Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce, as it set aside a day for wholesale inoculations.

Pets will be vaccinated on March 15, at the vocational agriculture building at Burkburnett High School.

Demonstration Plots Sought

Several test plots of three acres are being sought for demonstrations on the effect of chemical on growing crops.

Gad Garland, chairman of the agricultural committee of the Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce, said a manufacturer is willing to conduct the demonstrations on cotton, grain sorghum and coastal bermuda.

The dates will be set for the planting and growing season of each crop.

EMPLOYEE OF BURKBURNETT FIRM KILLED

A Wichita Falls employee of a Burkburnett firm was murdered at her place of business shortly after noon Saturday.

Dead is Alma Carter, 57, who was beaten to death at a self-service gasoline station on Monroe Street.

A brick was apparently the weapon used, Wichita Falls police said.

Charged with murder with malice in connection with the case in Charles F. Hodges, 31.

The station is owned by Williams Petroleum Company, Burkburnett.

Funeral services for Mrs. Carter were held Sunday afternoon from the First Baptist Church of Hamlin. Burial was at Hamlin.

NEW PHONE BOOKS DUE IN FEBRUARY

The February, 1969 telephone directory for Burkburnett telephone users will be delivered along with a copy of the Wichita Falls directory February 3. Dub Deuschle, manager for the company said.

The blue and white book will contain some 3,060 listings of residents and businesses in its white or "alpha" pages. Classified or "yellow" pages will number 36.

The telephone company manager asked that old directories be destroyed as soon as the new book is received.

The new directory contains numbers of new families and businesses moving here since the last directory went to press, he added.

"We'd like to caution people to remove any personal items from the pages of the old book before it is thrown away," Deuschle added. "People sometimes use telephone directories to store pictures, notes and other such personal items."

Deuschle said 6,220 books have been ordered. The extra copies will be used for new telephone customers and as replacements in places of heavy usage, such as public telephones. Also, several copies of the new book will go to businesses and individuals in other cities who make frequent calls to Burkburnett.

LET'S BUILD OUR CITY

On Wednesday, the merchants of Burkburnett will observe the gigantic Burkburnett Bargain Bonanza, the first of a series of monthly trade days.

We commend these merchants on their efforts to help build our community as the most convenient shopping center around for miles and miles.

The decision was not a hasty one. It took much thought, planning and purchasing.

We join these merchants in hoping such a concentrated effort will help build Burkburnett as the place to shop, as well as to live.

The Burkburnett-Star-News urges you to shop these pages carefully. If an item you need is listed, it may be your chance to save money.

If it isn't listed, the chances are good what you need can be found in Burk.

While we commend those who help build our city through conventions, livestock shows, and other civic affairs, the general public can help, too.

All they have to do is Shop in Burk.

Youth Crusades Against Litterbugs

A Klamath Falls, Oregon, youth, 16-year-old high school junior Bill Manley, has launched his own fight against litter in his community. He sought and received permission from the Klamath Falls City Council to clean up the city. He has enlisted other high school boys and girls to assist him on weekends in gathering roadside debris, cleaning vacant lots and removing waste from the shores of Klamath Lake, adjacent to the city. According to a press report, "The work is being done without pay. He told county and city officials he is just interested in keeping things clean."

Young Mr. Manley, by stimulating the interest of youth in an anti-litterbug campaign around his community, could well start a national youth movement for cleaner cities. After all, it is the youth who will be living for many decades with the mess that litterbugs are creating around us today. The effort of this high school student and his helpers deserves the widest publicity and encouragement of fellow citizens.

FACT AND OPINION

Mr. W. Allen Wallis, president of the University of Rochester, remarked: "Inflation can be generated only by government. Business firms, labor unions, or consumers with excessive market power can do many objectional things that are contrary to the public interest; but one objectional thing they cannot do is cause inflation—or, for that matter—prevent it."

Great Old "New World" Soups

Some of the greatest soups were invented in the "New World"—in the kitchens of the early settlers and the hardy pioneers. A few of the earliest recipes came from the Indians, who stewed together native game, herbs, vegetables, and berries in delicious, meal-sized soups. Some developed from the ingenuity of the early Americans and the bounty of the land they lived in.

Today, these great "New World" soups can be made in a quick, modern, easy way. The secret is convenient condensed soup, so delicious as it comes, and such a handy base for your own new soups.

FRONTIER BEAN POT SOUP

2 slices bacon
 1/4 cup chopped onion
 1/4 cup chopped celery
 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed tomato soup
 1 can (11 1/2 ounces) condensed bean with bacon soup
 2 soup cans water
 Dash pepper

Cook bacon in saucepan until crisp; drain and crumble. Cook onion and celery in drippings until tender. Stir in soups, water and pepper. Heat; stir now and then. Garnish with crumbled bacon. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

LOUISIANA OYSTER STEW

2 tablespoons diced raw red pepper or pimiento
 2 tablespoons chopped onion
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed oyster stew
 1 soup can milk
 Parmesan cheese

Cook red pepper and onion in butter until tender. Stir in soup and milk. Heat; stir often. Do not boil. Garnish with grated cheese. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

The Big Squeeze

Besides the "plowback" tax incentive bill, independents also urge passage of a rural economic development bill, sponsored in the last Congress by Representative Joe L. Evins of Tennessee, chairman of the Small Business Committee, which would encourage location of new offices and plants in rural areas by allowing the companies to recover capital expenses through tax credits within five years.

This would help boost rural employment and stem the constant migration of jobsless into the big cities, many business-men feel.

Federation surveys indicate an improved employment situation in independent business, as new job creation — the surplus of new jobs over cutbacks — rose from a null point in late 1967.

Among firms reporting changes (up or down) a net gain of 1.1 employee per firm was reported by November.

The year-long sample, projected on independent business as a whole, indicates a gain of nearly a million jobs.

This seems to substantiate the thesis that inflation has the redeeming grace of promoting full- or employment.

A Florida wholesaler explained he added five new employees "in an attempt to increase gross revenue in order to maintain the level of profits" — that profit squeeze again.

Thus some expansion appears based on the premise that "you have to run faster to stay where you are" in times of inflation.

Overhead will increase for all the nation's employers January 1 when the Social Security tax increases another 4 percent on each employee (in addition to the same increase paid by the employee himself through withholding).

Thousands of small businesses which have been exempt from the Federal minimum wage and hour law will be put under its provisions in February, and for many it will mean higher payroll costs.

Businesses grossing up to half a million dollars a year have been exempt, but this will drop to $250,000 in February.

Federation researchers — who have seen high incidence of employment reduction whenever minimum wage/hour changes take place — believe another wave of job-cutting will occur.

I.R.S. SOUNDS TAX WARNING

DALLAS, Tex. — Northern Texas taxpayers seeking professional help in filing their 1968 Federal income tax returns should select only qualified and reputable advisors.

Taxpayers may delegate the work of preparing a return, but they are responsible for all entries and supporting documents, and for the full payment of additional tax, penalties, and interest, district director of Internal Revenue, Ellis Campbell Jr., said.

While most tax practitioners are competent and honest, Campbell alerted taxpayers to these potential danger signals: Beware of the "expert" who will not be around to answer questions after the return has been prepared and filed;

Never sign a blank return and leave it with a stranger; Do not sign a tax return prepared in pencil, since the return can be changed later;

Avoid the advisor who "guarantees" refunds, wants a percentage of the refund, or supposedly knows all the angles; and

Be on your guard if it is suggested that your refund check be mailed to the practitioner's address.

Campbell said a professional advisor should sign the tax returns that he prepares on the line provided and you should record his name and address for future reference.

Explorer Scouts Visit Ft. Augur

Explorer Scouts of Past 155 and their advisor, Neil Keidler camped at historic old Ft. Augur last weekend. This is the first of a series of trips that these scouts plan to make to old forts and battle sites in this area.

Today Ft. Augur is nothing but a high knoll on the Oklahoma side of the Red River. The foundation rock of buildings have been carried off for home steads and the dugouts that housed the soldiers have filled up with the blowing sands of one hundred years. But the strategic location of that past was significant because it commanded a sharp view of North Texas and of Texas Rangers and Milita who may have once pursued Comanche and Kiowa after their raids in Texas and Old Mexico. They could not cross into the Oklahoma Territory it was manned by Negro troops who the Indians called "Buffalo Soldiers."

Conditions at this post were not good and everyone was happy when it was closed and the troops moved back to Ft. Sill.

Mr. Fred Hamill, the owner of the property, said there were many indian arrow points in the area so they must have liked its look out potential too.

Raspberry Meringue Cake

When the "holiday baking" bug bites, try a festive new dessert — Raspberry Meringue Cake. A generous spread of raspberry preserves is sandwiched between a moist, "nut-crunchy" cake layer and a golden meringue crown.

You'll agree — Raspberry Meringue Cake, with its "no frosting" top, was meant for the holidays — a time when even though everyone's busy, sweet snacks are the order of the season.

You'll like Raspberry Meringue Cake for its preparation ease. Self-rising flour has baking powder and salt "ready-mixed" into each cupful, so you're spared the job of measuring ingredients and then sifting with the flour. And nutrients needed for sound family health are supplied at no extra cost: the B-vitamins, thiamine, niacin and riboflavin, and the two minerals, iron and calcium.

one 9 x 13-inch cake

- 1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- 1/4 cup shortening
- 3 eggs, separated
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 2 cups enriched self-rising flour*
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts
- 1 jar (10 oz.) raspberry preserves
- 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 1/2 cup sugar

Cream together brown sugar and shortening until light and fluffy. Beat in egg yolks and vanilla. Blend flour into creamed mixture alternately with milk, beginning and ending with flour. Stir in nuts. Spread evenly in greased 9 x 13-inch baking pan. Bake in preheated 350° oven 15 minutes; spread with preserves. Beat egg whites with cream of tartar until frothy. Gradually add sugar, beating until stiff, glossy peaks form. Spread over preserves. Return to oven and bake 20 minutes longer, or until meringue is firm and golden. Cool before cutting.

*Spoon flour into dry measuring cup; level. Do not scoop.

Follow The Signs

Imagine yourself in a train depot in a foreign country, and the signs are in a language unfamiliar to you. You know that the signs are there to direct you, and you try to figure them out, but despite your best efforts you are not sure of your interpretation. The natural thing to do then, is to check with an attendant and have him explain things to you.

The Bible is a sign given to us, and directs us in a pathway of living. Interpreting these directions is not always easy, so the natural thing to do, should be to seek someone to help us. Our churches have many trained personnel who are familiar with the language of the Bible. Attend Church this week and follow God's way of life.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Florence Pinkston Group Studies Book Of Galatians

The Florence Pinkston Group of the First Baptist W.M.S. met in the home of Mrs. H. S. Butts Monday evening for their monthly Bible study. Mrs. Howard L. McCrary, group leader, called the meeting to order and conducted a short business meeting.

Mrs. I. C. Evans read Deuteronomy 6:3-15 emphasizing verse 4, "Hear, thoughts with a prayer for our missionaries."

Mrs. Clifford Willmon taught the complete book of Galatians using a map and outline to guide the study. She reviewed Paul's first missionary journey to the cities of Galatia as the book of Galatians was a letter written by Paul to the churches in Galatia. Everyone participated in the study by searching the scriptures for information and to answer questions presented in the outline. The meeting was dismissed in prayer by Mrs. McCrary.

Those present and enjoying delicious refreshments were Mesdames Wayne Bowles, Roy Flippen, Raymond Smart, Clifford Willmon, R. P. Thaxton, Howard L. McCrary, I. C. Evans, Russell Landers and the hostess Mrs. H. S. Butts.
