Along The Waterfront

A very low tide and extremely high winds have kept the fishermen on the shore most of last week, but a few ventured out and were rewarded with some nice catches.

On last Thursday Frank Walker went out with Harry Mills and caught 10 reds, four of which were large ones, and some trout and drum.

Friday George Sanders fished with Herb Mills and they brought in four reds and some drum. Harry Mills had Mr. Philpott out fishing caught eight large reds.

There were a few parties out over the weekend but it was too rough to get many fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Langston and Ernest Tackett fished in Copano Bay Tuesday afternoon and landed 20 nice trout and 19 exceptionally large reds.

Karl Kerl and William Roe, who are staying at the Jane Ellen Motel, fished at Rattlesnake Point Sunay and caught about 50 redfish and trout. Most of the reds weighed 4 and 5 pounds each.

Wednesday afternoon some twenty Rockport automobiles assembled just south of the Triangle Cafe on Highway 35 and awaited the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fox and children, James Richard and Julia, who were returning from Aransas Pass with their new 1951 Chevrolet sedan.

About 6 p.m. the Foxes arrived and the motorcade, led by Exa Givans and Fire Chief Chas. Ankle, proceeded to Rockport. After circling the downtown area and the yacht basin with sirens and horns at full blast, the Foxes were escorted to Johnson Drug Store where all presents congratulated them and after a response by Mr. Fox, he was allowed to go to work.

All arrangements were under the able direction of Parade Marshal Joe L. Johnson,
